Messrs. S. J. Charlton, W. W. Leonard and B. Z. Dench, who hunted at Jacks' Lake, returned on Wednesday and report poor luck.

Messrs. W. J. Little, S. J. McKibbon and A. Millan were lucky in securing their full number of deer. They hunted in the Oregan district.

Mr. Russell Little returned to the village on Thursday after spending a week's vacation with the Payne Spence hunting party at Key Valley, Perry Sound district. The party had secured seven deer when Russell left.

The Grassy Creek hunting party returned to the village Sunday with one lonesome deer. The party consisted of Messrs. Wilfrid Munduff, Sam Grylls and Coint Murphy.

Curling Notes.

At the annual meeting of the Ontario Curlers' Association, held in Toronto recently, Lakefield club was placed in the following group.

In the district cup as follows:

District No. 2—Group A—Bobcaygeon, Cannington, Fenelon Falls, Lindsay. Play at Lindsay. Umpire W. A. Reesor. Group B—Keene, Lakefield, Millbrook, Norwood, Peterborough. Play at Peterborough. Umpire, R. M. Waddell.

Over fifteen dollars was realised from the 15-cent social, which was held in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Baptist Anniversary.

The Baptist Church anniversary services are to be held on Sunday, Nov. 30th, when the Rev. J. B. McCormick, of Norwood, will preach two special sermons. The choir will furnish special music.

Monday evening, Dec. 1st, at 8 p.m., a lecture will be given by the Rev. Fred. Ashton, "A Man and His Capital." This lecture will be entertaining, elevating, educating. Music, both vocal and instrumental, will be rendered. A free-will offering will be taken at all services.

In the Baptist Church.

Two very interesting addresses were given in the Baptist Church by Rev. F. Ashton, pastor on Sunday, subjects being, in the morning, "Pau's Triumph," and in the evening, "With Philip in Samaria."

Union Prayer Service.

The union prayer meeting service will be held in the Presbyterian Sunday School room at 8 o'clock on Thursday, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Soford F. Dixon will deliver the address.

Run for the Firemen.

About eleven o'clock on Tuesday the fire brigade was called to the home of Mr. Gordon Hendren. It being only a chimney fire, the flames were extinguished before the chemical engine arrived.

Settled For Insurance.

Mr. E. A. Tanner received a cheque this week from the Merchants' Fire Insurance Company of Toronto payment in full of damage caused by fire of his store on Queen street.

HEAR DR. SYMONDS

Dr. Symonds, of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, will address the Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel, tonight, following a dinner at seven o'clock. Dr. Symonds was at one time rector of St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, and is well and popularly known here. He is a brilliant speaker. His address tonight will be "League of Nations vs. World Power."

RAILROAD MAN GAINS 23 POUNDS

BEFORE TANLAC BUILT HIM UP WAS SO RUN DOWN HE LOST LOTS OF TIME FROM WORK.

"No, sir, I wasn't much surprised," said August P. Newman, of 804 Greenfield Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., in an interview recently, "when I got on the scales the other night and found that I had gained twenty-three pounds, for I have been eating like a wolf and picking up ever since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac, a little more than two months ago."

Mr. Newman has lived in Milwaukee for nearly forty-five years and is employed as switchman for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad in the Union Depot yards. He has been in the service in this company for the past fifteen years and is well known, especially, among railroad people.

"Tanlac is certainly the finest medicine going for a person in the shape I was," he continued. "My stomach had been in a mighty bad fix for twelve years, or more, and I was also having trouble with my back and just seemed to be gradually playing out. After a meal—and I always had to be very careful what I ate—I would bloat up with gas as tight as a drum and I couldn't bear my belt around me. There were many things I could not eat without just suffering agony afterwards. I also had severe pains in my hips and back and would get so dizzy some times while bending over to turn a switch that I would nearly fall over. My back was also very weak and hurt me so it was all I could do to bend over and throw a switch. Many a time I was in so much misery I could not stay on the job, and I lost lots of time on account of my condition. It would take nearly all my wind going up and down the box cars and if I had to run a short distance I was all out of breath. I was always so fagged out after a night's work that I would just have to drag myself home.

"But things are altogether different with me now, for I am just like a new man and never miss a night's run. I can now sit down and eat just anything—even pickle and pastries, things I wouldn't dare touch before—without the least trouble afterwards. I used to be so nervous the least thing would upset me and I couldn't rest well, but now I can sleep like a log even while the piano is being played in the next room to me. My back used to ache so bad that I would brace it with pillows while sitting down, but now it's the rarest thing that I ever feel even the slightest pain, and I never have a dizzy spell. Tanlac has put me in first class shape and if anyone doubts this statement just send them to me at the depot during the night or at my home during the day."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood, by G. Pringle and Son.

WOULD PAY WAR DEBT BY ONE LEVY

BELGIAN SOCIALIST AGREES SCHEME ON ECONOMIC QUESTIONS

Antwerp, Nov. 20. — Belgian Socialists are in agreement with the Government on the economic question, according to an interview with Camille Huysmans, the Belgian Socialist leader, printed in Neptune.

M. Huysmans said he considered the financial question as the most important at the present time, Belgium's debt being 18,000,000,000 francs. It was useless to promise labor high pensions, he declared, as no money was available.

Double Payment.

To pay off the war debt in fifty years, as proposed by Premier Lloyd George, means to pay it twice, the Socialist leader added. It was better to extinguish it by one levy rather than by a series of taxes, he contended.

"If Germany pays to Belgium the sums necessary to rebuild the railways and channel ports," M. Huysmans said, "that is all we can expect."

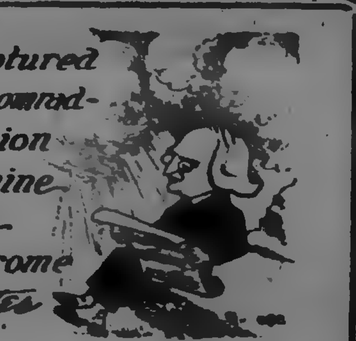
"The intellectual classes who so far have constituted the proletariat and aristocracy," M. Huysmans concluded, "must descend from their throne. We can do for intellectual labor what we did for manual labor."

ACCOUNT DISPUTED

QUESTION OF CLAIM FOR GLASS BEING ARGUED BEFORE JUDGE HUYCKE

The case of the Monogah Glass Company, of Fairmount, West Virginia versus S. R. Legott of the Colonial Glass Company, Lakefield, is being heard today before His Honor Judge Huycke. The plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $319.85 alleged to be due on a shipment of glass. The claim is disputed by the defendents, who allege that the glass was not up to the standard claimed. Mr. O. A. Langley is appearing for the plaintiff and Mr. F. D. Kerr, for the defendents.

Robert Falconer, an aged Middlemarch farm laborer, hanged himself in his kitchen in a fit of despondency over chronic ill-health.



If you are enraptured by Music its comradeship will companion you in the sunshine and comfort you when the storms come
The Old Masters

If you want a Piano that is your dependable, durable, musical friend through all time, and at a moderate price, purchase a

GREENE PIANO

In this satisfying instrument are combined all of the superior piano qualities discovered by musical artisans since the manufacture of musical instruments began.

IT WILL LAST A LIFE TIME. IT WILL STAY IN TUNE. IT IS GUARANTEED.

We sell on easy payments.

The J. M. Greene Music Co. Ltd.
"The Home of Good Music" Charlotte Street

DELUGE OF WHISKEY IN MERRY ENGLAND

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN MILLION GALLONS RELEASED BY GOVERNMENT

London, Nov. 20.—One hundred and fifteen million gallons of whiskey, besides a quantity of other spirits in bond in Great Britain, have been released from war-time restrictions and may be distributed to all comers who can persuade the dealers to sell.

The announcement of the removal of the restrictions, which was made without warning in the House of Commons by the Food Controller, Tuesday, came as a surprise to the members, who greeted it with loud cheers.

The liquor trade was equally surprised, and was besieged by the well-to-do among the public as soon as the unexpected news spread. Many orders of from fifty to a hundred dozens were placed immediately, in addition to numerous commissions for smaller quantities.

Although it is figured that enough spirits has been thus freed to supply every man, woman and child in the country with 36 bottles apiece, it is doubtful if the public will find it easy at present to increase consumption to a great extent. The Government maintains control of the maximum price, which, for whiskey, is ten shillings and six pence per bottle, and it is not believed that the dealers will sell much below that figure, as the existing high duty will remain.

CRESSMANS DEFEAT THE BELMONT CLUB

GOOD EXHIBITION OF BASKETBALL IN THE Y.M.C.A. LAST NIGHT

Last night the Y. M. C. A. was the scene of the most strenuous game of basketball witnessed on the local floor for many a day. Close, hard checking was adopted by both teams and few opportunites were given for open shooting. The honors of the first half went to the Cressman team, the score being 14-8.

In the second period the Belmonts had the edge. For the losers, Darling did some remarkable shooting from the foul line, only falling short of a perfect average by one miss. De Graw for the winners worked hard, but was closely checked all thorugh. Flowers made the feature shot of the evening, netting a handsome basket from centre.

Last night's win gives the Cressman team the lead in the league race. The line-up:

BELMONTS—Forwards, Jobbitt and English; centre, Stuart; defence, Heaslip and Darling.

CRESSMANS — Forwards, Flowers and Nicholls; centre, De Graw; defence, Matthews and Jackson.

CARE OF VETERANS DURING THE WINTER

HON. J. A. CALDER GOES TO NEW YORK TO CONSULT PREMIER BORDEN

Ottawa, Nov 20.—Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, has gone to New York and Atlantic City and it is understood that he will see Sir Robert Borden in regard to important Government business before returning to the capital.

One of the most important matters which the Minister of Immigration has in hand at the present time is the manner of the administration of the forty million dollars voted by Parliament for the relief of returned soldiers during the Winter months. When the money was voted the details were left to the Government to work out, including necessary rules and regulations, the conditions under which money will be paid to any one person, the length of time it will be paid, and so forth.

Mr. Calder stated in the House that it was the intention of the Government to have a central authority, and he suggested that it would be necessary to have Provincial boards of administration, as well as local population, to deal with necessitous cases.

The Government is consulting the soldier organizations in regard to the best plan to be adopted to deal with hardships which may arise during the Winter amongst soldiers due to illness or lack of employment.

Although forty million dollars was the amount voted by Parliament, this does not necessarily mean that the expenditure will be limited strictly to that sum. During consideration of the vote in Parliament it was definitely stated by the Minister that should the circumstances warrant such action, any further amount required could be provided for by Governor-General's warrant and approved by Parliament at the next session.

A definite announcement as to the Government's plan is likely to be made in the near future.

OPEN MEETING TO DISCUSS HOUSING SCHEME

Tomorrow evening at eight o'clock, the Housing Scheme Committee of the City Council will meet in the Council Chamber. They will discuss with citizens every phase of the project for loaning money to residents, with which to build houses, and pay for same on the instalment plan.

All interested in this question are invited to be present. The presence of ladies is also urged, as the scheme is one of general interest.

Victory Bonds Bought

Those who may desire to sell Victory Bonds should come to my office or communicate with me. I buy Victory or War Bonds of all maturities, in any amount, and I am prepared to pay the best price.

W. H. Taylor, 144 Hunter St
Peterboro, Ont.

TO-NIGHT GRAND TO-NIGHT
8.15 SHARP
THE MOST WONDERFUL PLAY IN AMERICA
"EXPERIENCE"
A FEW GOOD RESERVATIONS LEFT
PRICES—$1.50, $1, 75c, 50c, 25c

FRIDAY Matinee & Evening
A WONDERFUL PICTURE—A FAMOUS STAR
—A SPLENDID CAST
VALESKA SURATT
—IN—
"THE SOUL OF BROADWAY"
WM. FOX SPECIAL PRODUCTION

RIP ROARING WESTERNER
TOM MIX
—IN—
"SIX CYLINDER LOVE"
A SUNSHINE COMEDY
GRAND CONCERT ORCHESTRA

SATURDAY MATINEE & EVENING
THE GREAT NEW YORK MUSICAL SUCCESS
"GLORIANNA"
The Rainbow Division of Musical Comedies
— WITH —
AN ALL STAR CAST
And The Daintiest—Danciest—Prettiest Girls Even Seen
100 PER CENT BEAUTY CHORUS
PRICES—EVE. $1.00-75c-50c-25c. Popular Price Matinee 50c-25c
SEATS ON SALE NOW

COMING MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
D. W. GRIFFITH'S SUBLIME CREATION
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
Seats on Sale Friday

THEATRICAL

BEAUTIFUL TYPES OF WOMEN IN EXPERIENCE

There are many beautiful types of fascinating girlhood in George V. Hobart's modern morality play "Experience," which F. Comstock and Morris Gest will present at the Grand Opera House tonight. Mr. Hobart spent two years in writing the play, but an even greater task confronted the producers, selecting the various types of girls for the play. As Mr. Hobart had chosen in "Experience" to have the various vices and virtues which Youth meets when he goes out into the world in search of fame and fortune impersonated by charming young ladies, in order that just the right types might be selected, a committee of artists was asked to assist in choosing the girls for the various roles. For the character of Love hundreds of girls were considered before an ideal was found. Then there was much difficulty in choosing one to play Frivolity. This is a particularly difficult part and requires a young girl with a certain manner of reckless abandon. Then there was another tireless search to find the young lady for the character of Excitement, for she must be restless, alluring and even dangerous.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered was to find a young lady for the role of Slander. Until it was seen by the players that Slander was a good part all the girls refused to accept it. This same trouble was found in selecting a girl for the role of Deceit. Three of the most important characters in "Experience" are Passion, Intoxication and Frailty. The greatest possible care had to be used in selecting an actress for this role. For intoxication it was discovered that the only one who could play this was a young person whose strongest beverage was from the soda fountain.

These are a few of the difficulties that were successfully overcome by the producers in selecting the young ladies for the various roles in "Experience."

"THE TRAP" GIVES OLIVE TELL FORCEFUL ROLE

Richard Harding Davis' Story Adapted to Screen for Popular Star

To Jean Carson, a New York school teacher, in the Klondike came the ordeal of choosing between two men who professed to love her. This in itself was not unusual, but in Jean Carson's case the men were brothers, and one of them was a blackguard. Both men were her associates in a man's world, the Yukon, where Jean and her father had gone in search of the yellow fortune that had lured hundreds of men to death and disaster.

Frightened by the thought of her approaching loneliness when her father was to make his final prospecting tour that would either make or break him, Jean chose—chose after her father had gone. When he returned a terrible secret was weighing on Jean's soul—a secret that she could not even tell her father, honorable though she had been.

Then came the man who meant love and happiness. He went with her back to New York. Then also came a startling reminder of her life and love back in the Klondike in the person of "Doc" Sloan, a parasite of the mining camp, a liar and a blackmailer.

How the threads of the most complicated situation that Richard Harding Davis knew how to write were untangled is the theme of "The Trap," Universal's latest photodrama which will be shown for the first time tonight at the Empire Theatre, with Olive Tell in the leading role. Miss Tell is supported by Sidney L. Mason as her leading man; Rod La Rocque, Jere Austin, Tallulah Bankhead and Joseph Burke.

"The Trap" was directed by Frank Reicher, veteran motion picture director, who got much of his training in Shakespearean drama with Sothern and Marlowe.

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY
Douglas Fairbanks
—in—
"THE KNICKERBOCKER BUCKAROO"
He came from 42nd Street and Broadway, and he had a self-contained revolution that made Villa's affairs look like a meeting of the sewing circle.
Whoopla! Doug! Let 'er go!
COMING TO-MORROW
ETHEL CLAYTON
—IN—
'HE SPORTING CHANCE"

"GLORIANNA"

MOST TALKED OF MUSICAL SHOW ON THE ROAD TODAY

It is the uniqueness of Catharine Chisholm Cushing's story together with Rudolph Friml's catchy melody, that have maade "Glorianna" which plays at the Grand on Saturday, matinee and evening, the most talked of musical show on the road. Furnished with a bevy of beautiful girls and talented and capable principals as well as realistic and artistic stage settings and elaborate effects, "Glorianna" comes to the Grand with an unprecedented record-breaking run in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston.

The story is as refreshing and as entertaining as its haunting melodies. Not content with plunging Glorianna Gray into financial difficulties, the librettist also provides a set of creditors for her intimate friend, Dolores Pennington, who taught dancing and made her the widow, moreover of an officer who was believed to have been killed. The plot thickens when news reaches Dolores that she has been made her husband's heir.

Having been married to Pennington secretly, the supposed widow dares not face his family and claim that which rightfully belongs to her. Glorianna, however, has an idea and she persuades the widow to allow her to impersonate her. Dolores, in turn, impersonates Glorianna. And with these changes agreed upon the trouble starts, and, in spite of the numerous funny situations that arise, the scheme works well until the family discovers, on the eve of Dolores' marriage to another, that "her" husband was still alive. Finally, the deception is disclosed, but not until after a few interesting situations develop, a description of which would spoil one's evening.

Aviator's Heart Enlarged.

Doctors Etienne and Lamy of Nancy, France, have conducted a series of X-ray examinations of the hearts of aviators and have found evidence of considerable enlargement. This heart enlargement sets in early in the flying man's career, being noticeable after five months of experience in the air. The degree of enlargement is roughly proportioned to the height at which the aviator is accustomed to fly, so that simple examination of the X-ray plate suffices to determine a man's branch of flying service, whether he is doing chasing and bombing work at high altitudes or is engaged at harrying infantry, etc., at comparatively low altitudes.

The enlargement seems to be symmetrical, and it does not appear to involve serious trouble. It is due to the heart's adapting itself to the extra work put upon it by changes in the blood circulation because of the varying conditions in the atmosphere through which the aviator flies and to the general happenings incident to aviation.

World's Biggest Wireless Station.

Japan is to have the greatest wireless station in the world, according to a report to the Japan Advertiser. It will be built in Fukushima prefecture, says the department of communications, and will cost 860,000 yen ($430,000). The dispatch station will be at Hibarigahara, near Hariamachi, and the receiving station will be at Hosoya-cho. Survey work has been started by engineers of the department.

The direct distance between the new office and San Francisco is 4,600 miles, while that between the Funabashi office and Honolulu is 3,250 miles. Service will not be opened for two years. The new office will communicate direct with San Francisco without relay in Hawaii.

Caves Bear Traces of Old Conflict.

Only 20 miles from Phoenix, an Arizona man, Joseph Yberri, in exploring three caves on the edge of a gulch, came upon the traces of an old conflict, whose cause and date are still a mystery to the community. Observing that one of the caves was protected by a breastworks of stone and timber, he entered and discovered, among scattered saddles, spurs, and cartridge shells, eight skeletons. Seventeen more were found in the other caves, but there was no clew to show how these men had perished. A sack of tobacco was there, and empty flour bags, coffee cups, and pails which bore labels indicating that they were on the market no longer ago than 1883. A Mexican herb, such as the Papago Indians carry, was found.

Cabling Fifty Years Ago.

The enormous mass of matter which is being cabled from Paris may recall to some old newspaper men the difficulties with which the work was accomplished fifty years ago, as an exchange says. For one thing the rate was then a sovereign ($5) a word, and the gentleman presiding over the London end of the Anglo-American Telegraph company was an autocrat who did not much believe in special facilities for the press, and among other things exacted that the word "London" — representing a sovereign,—should be added to the signature in each case. "You approached his office," it was written, "as you would approach a shrine, a temple of some far-off deity," and when press messages were allowed to go at a reduced rate he imposed a code under which he dealt with them as he chose, which meant that there was no knowing how or when they would be despatched.

Justice Harsh to Brave Youth

A BRIEF despatch appeared in Canadian papers a few days days ago stating that Clinton Taylor, a young Toronto boy who had been sentenced to imprisonment for life by a military court-martial, had been pardoned; and would return immediately from overseas. This case is one of the most interesting incidents of the latter days of the war, and the story of Clinton Taylor is worth repeating for the benefit of his fellow-countrymen.

Clinton M. Taylor enlisted for overseas service on August 14, 1914, when only seventeen years of age, though he declared his age to the military authorities to be 19 years. He left Canada for France in February, 1915, and all through the war and up to the time of the armistice served faithfully in the Canadian Engineers. Early in September, 1918, while with the 9th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, he won the military medal for devotion to duty while in the line. During his whole service up to the time of the armistice he had a clean conduct sheet, except for one paltry offence, for which he was sentenced to fourteen days' field punishment, No. 1. In connection with this offence he was defended by his company commander, and a member of his battalion, Noel Robinson, has written regarding the same as follows: "He had to undergo fourteen days field punishment, No. 1, most unjustly, in France."

From the files of the Department of Militia you will be able to learn that during the month following the signing of the armistice there was very grave dissatisfaction among the whole Third Canadian Division on account of the poor rations, and also on account of the men having to carry their full packs during the march into Germany. The men of the 9th Canadian Company of Engineers, among others, refused to carry their packs. We quote herewith from the letter of Sapper Taylor to his mother dealing with this incident:—

"On the 14th of December, 1918, my division were marching on the road to Germany, and when we got just beyond Brussels there was a mutiny throughout the entire division. Divisional headquarters asked for delegates to come and they would talk to them. Eight of us went, picked by the men to represent them, I [illegible] a brigade of engineers. The complaints of the men were that the food was bad, and that they were not going to carry their packs any longer. Well, mother, through us eight being straight to the thousands that we represented, they turned the division around to come home to Canada, but on the first day of march they arrested the eight of us as ring-leaders of a mutiny. The seven of the eight they gave five years' and to me two years' hard labor."

This story has been confirmed in practically every detail by Pte. Noel Robinson and Lieut. Hanes, of Vancouver, both of whom were in the same battalion at the time of the mutiny.

Sapper Taylor was sentenced on January 28, by F.G.C.M., to two years' hard labor on the following charges: (1) Joining in a mutiny, and (2) being present and not doing his utmost to suppress a mutiny.

He was once again defended by his own company commander, and in passing the sentence of two years, the court recommended him to mercy. He was confined in No. 7 Military Prison, France. While serving this term his sentence was increased from two years' hard labor to life imprisonment, but on April 3, 1919, he made his escape.

From a letter written from the Minister's office, Department of Militia, Ottawa, on September 23, to Mrs. Jean A. Taylor, Toronto, we quote as follows:

"You are in error in supposing that the sentence of life imprisonment imposed on Sapper Taylor was imposed by reason of his escape. Sapper Taylor escaped on April 3. The sentence was imposed upon him on March 24, ten days previously. From information received from the overseas authorities it is believed that the increased sentence was awarded on account of the part he played in a mutiny which occurred at the Imperial Prison, Calais."

Sapper Taylor retained his freedom until the early part of July, when, on his father's advice, he gave himself up. The father advised him to do so, because of a letter he received from Mr. Hocken, M.P., on June 25, as follows:

"I have a letter to-day from Gen. Turner from Argyle House, London, England, in which he informs me that your son escaped from No. 7 Military Prison, and that it is impossible to reconsider his case while he is still at large. He promises that if he should be apprehended the case will be inquired into fully. The general informs us that it is unfortunate that he escaped, because, his offence being of a purely military character, he would have been released within a comparatively short time had he not absented himself."

It was on account of the generous tone of Gen. Turner's letter, and also because he was in entire ignorance of his son's sentence to life imprisonment, that Mr. Taylor advised his son to give himself up to the authorities. It will be noted that Gen. Turner, though aware of Taylor's escape from prison, seemed ignorant of the increase of his sentence to life imprisonment, though the latter took place ten days before the escape.

Seventy-eight per cent. of the decrease of unemployment in Great Britain is among women.

Cecil Kurth, a C.P.R. lineman, was found guilty in the London Police Court for stealing six bottles of whiskey, and was remanded for sentence.

THE TINIEST STEAM ENGINE.

It Would Take 1,920 Like It to Weigh a Pound.

"Give me one pound of your smallest size in steam engines, please."

The storekeeper takes an engine and places it carefully on his counter. He takes another, and another, and another. Assuming that it requires ten seconds to place each engine in front of the customer, at the end of five hours and twenty minutes there will be a display of 1,920 engines on the counter and the order for "one pound" will be filled.

No such order has ever been given, but its possibility is suggested by the sight of "Tiny Tim," the smallest steam engine in the world. On a continent where the "biggest ever" is a frequent sight, to possess the smallest specimen in existence of anything is unique.

Toronto has many engineering plants capable of turning out gargantuan steam engines that register horsepower by the thousands, but to build an engine so minute that a microscope is necessary to examine it is an accomplishment altogether beyond the united capacities of these great engineering shops.

Such a feat has been achieved, however, by T. H. Robinson, a Toronto watchmaker, who has made a steam engine so small that it takes 1,920 to weigh one pound, or 3,840,000 to weigh one ton. It can be slipped easily into the shell of a twenty short cartridge and when placed alongside a house fly the latter appears like a prehistoric monster by comparison.

Mr. Robinson began his career as an engine builder with a model which, although measuring only one inch in height, assumes almost gigantic proportions when seen beside its much smaller successor. It is of the vertical type, with oscillating cylinder, and a five-cent piece provides it with ample standing room.

Comparing this first model with ordinary watch work, Mr. Robinson decided it was too easy and he resolved to make an engine that should have the proud distinction of being the smallest in the world.

The result was "Tiny Tim," a perfect-working model steam engine built up of seventeen pieces.

"Tiny Tim's" bed and stand are of gold. His shaft runs in hardened and ground steel bearings inserted in the gold bed. His fly wheel has a steel hub and arms and a gold rim. His stroke is 1-32 of an inch, and he can make 6,000 revolutions a minute. When in motion he makes a noise like the "ping" of a mosquito.

For practical purposes "Tiny" does not cut a great deal of ice. He baulks at turning the churn or working the family sewing machine, and he is useless for generating electric light. A careful estimate of "Tiny Tim's" horsepower has been made by Dr. C. A. Chant, of the Department of Physics in Toronto University. Dr. Chant calculated the speed by means of tuning forks and measured the horsepower as 1-498000 of one horsepower. The statistically afflicted may work this out in terms of flea-power.

Steam, of course, is not used in driving this microscopic engine, but compressed air is fed through the hollow gold base.

"When I began my first engine," said Mr. Robinson, "I thought it would be small enough, but before I had finished it a strange thing happened. It appeared to grow until when completed it seemed about twice the sise I expected it would be.

"I decided to make a smaller one, something more worthy of a watchmaker's skill. 'Tiny Tim' was the result."

"Do you consider 'Tiny Tim' the absolute limit in small engines?" Mr. Robinson was asked.

"There must be some limit to the working size of an engine," was the reply. "It may be that limit has been reached in 'Tiny Tim'. I do not show it as the smallest I can make. I have tried this thing only twice, and you will notice a big drop in the relative sizes of the two engines. I believe I can make a smaller one, if I have to."

Money from Canteens.

Canada will benefit by a substantial sum from the proceeds of the expeditionary force canteens. These were canteens with which the Y.M.C.A. and other organizations supplied all the British troops in France with extra messing supplies, liquors, cigarettes, and various other articles. Their surplus proceeds have been turned into a fund of which Gen. Julian Byng is director and which will be used for ex-service men of the Imperial army, and amounts to over $30,000,000. An allotment, however, is to be made to the troops of the various overseas dominions, according to proportional strength. This money will be paid to the Canadian military authorities, and will probably amount to between two and two and a half million dollars.

This decision has been made known by Gen. Byng in reply to the request of the British branch of the G.W.V.A. for assistance from the general canteens fund for a clubhouse for demobilized Canadian soldiers in Britain. Gen. Byng, who was former commander of the Canadians, explained the arrangements and wished the war veterans' scheme every success.

A Brave Man to Be Honored.

The Minister of the Interior of Belgium declared in the Chamber of Deputies recently that in concert with the British authorities, it had been judged desirable to keep the Cloth Market, Cathedral, and adjacent houses at Ypres in their present state. The Government had agreed to the request of Canada that the emplacement where Gen. Mercer fell should be allotted. It would be with a view to the erection of a museum on the spot. The ground would be expropriated, failing a friendly arrangement with the owner.

When a freight car arived in London it was found a hole had been chopped in the roof and a case of whiskey and several bottles had been stolen.

EMPIRE THEATRE
OLIVE TELL
—IN—
"THE TRAP"
A SPECIAL PRODUCTION BY RICHARD HARDING DAVIS
Adapted from popular book of similar name. A story of the Klondike during the gold rush. You know the story well. Wasn't it good? Well, the picture is fathoms better and more realistic.
FANNIE WARD
—IN—
"THE PROFITEERS"
The why and wherefore of the H. C. of L. profiteering in foodstuff by an unscrupulous gang of conscienceless dollar-chasers.
COMEDY
Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"
The Serial will be shown first at each Performance.
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c
"THE BEST MUSIC IN THE CITY"

Miss M. Lowes, concession six, Harwich township, was severely injured when the auto she was in ran into a twelve-foot ditch and turned over.

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-362

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.30 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate betweer Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m. North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

THE MARKETS

(Special to The Review.,

Toronto, Nov. 20.—Live stock receipts today were fair with trade steady.

Heavy beef steers	$13.75	$14.00
Choice butcher steers	12.00	13.00
Medium butcher cows	6.50	8.50
Calves	16.00	18.00
Ewes	7.00	9.00
Lambs	13.25	13.75
Hogs. f.a.w., selects	16.75	16.75

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds — Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estate

Canada Food Board License No. 8-[illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit—
Cheap
Best Vegetables
Reasonable
Best Groceries
At Right Prices
410½ GEORGESTREET
Bell Phone 935

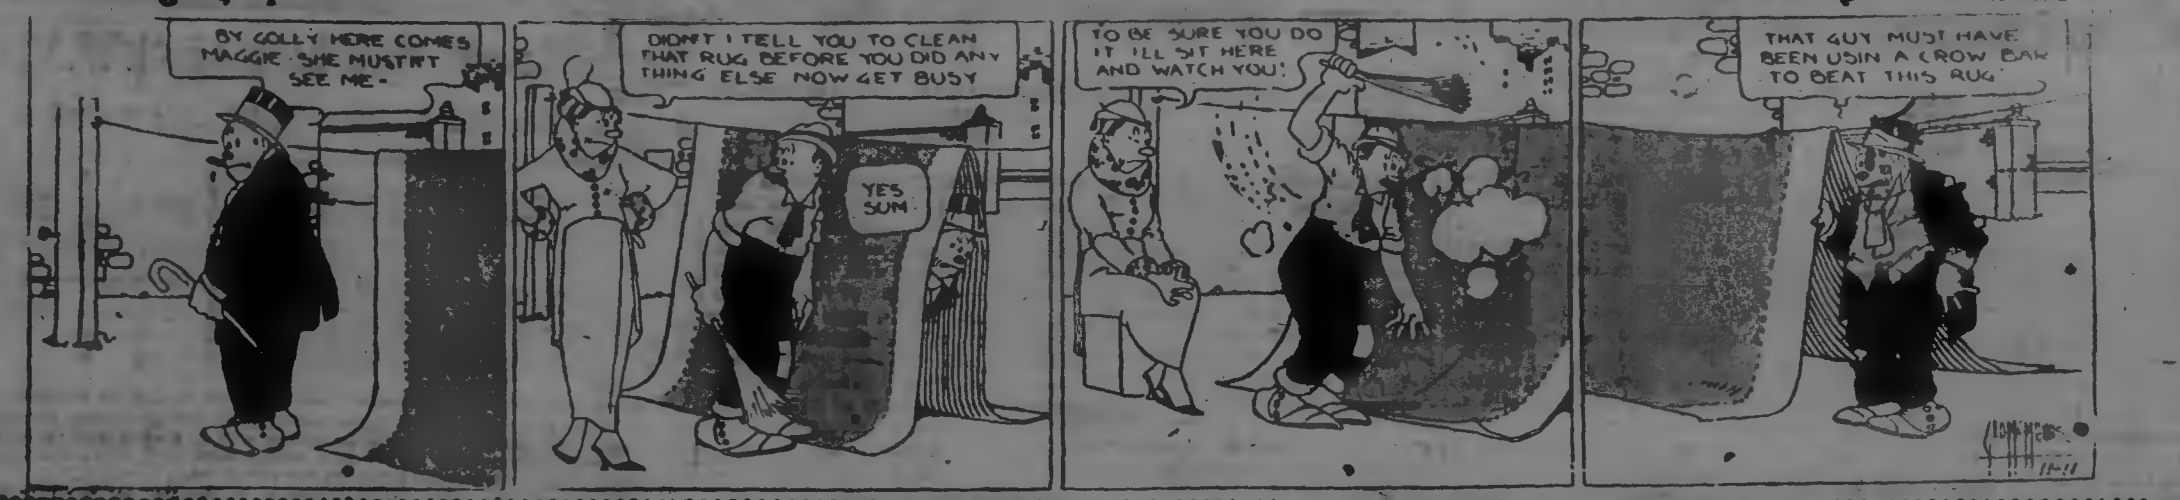
Automobile SKATES
OUNCES LIGHTER & STRONGER

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

The Steamer
Naiad
On and After
MAY 5th 1919
The Steamer Naiad will run as follows:—
Leave Lakefield daily on arrival of noon G.T.R. Train for Stony Lake Points connecting at Mt. Julian with the Apsley Stage

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 627 House 196

Bringing up Father — By George McManus



BY GOLLY HERE COMES MAGGIE - SHE MUSTN'T SEE ME - DIDN'T I TELL YOU TO CLEAN THAT RUG BEFORE YOU DID ANY THING ELSE NOW GET BUSY
YES SUM
TO BE SURE YOU DO IT I'LL SIT HERE AND WATCH YOU!
THAT GUY MUST HAVE BEEN USIN A CROW BAR TO BEAT THIS RUG
McMANUS

MIKE GIBBONS AT LAST HAS A CHANCE TO CAPTURE MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

After Twelve Years of Ring Experience He Meets Champion O'Dowd on Friday—Credited With Sufficient Skill to Win But Lacks Courage.

Mike Gibbons is at last to get a chance to fight for the middleweight title. The St. Paul Ghost meets Champion Mike 'Dowd for ten rounds at St. Paul on Nov. 21, and although the bout will not be to a decision, there is just a chance that Gibbons will slip one over on O'Dowd.

However, that chance is decidedly slim, for Gibbons never did show to the best advantage against a rough, agressive opponent of the O'Dowd type. Besides Gibbons is getting near the end of his string, and it may be that his chance to win a title has come too late.

Although Gibbons long has been regarded as the most polished ringman in the middleweight division, he has been a great disappointment. He has fallen a long way short of fulfilling the predictions that he would become the greatest middleweight the ring ever saw.

No middleweig - xer was ever boosted to quite the same extent as was Gibbons after his first two bouts in New York in 1911. Gibbons was a total stranger to New Yorkers when he dropped off a train from St. Paul one day and applied for a match at the new Polo A. C. He had been boxing in the West for some time, but the fans had not reached New York, so that he was glad to accept a match for a purse of something less than $100. In that bout Gibbons stopped Young Sherman, a third rater, in four rounds, and did it in such workmanlike manner that he was at once matched with Willie Lewis.

Lewis was something of a veteran at that time but he was very highly regarded, and after Gibbons had made him look like a raw amateur, the newcomer was praised to the skies. Columns were written about Gibbons and his marvellous skill with the gloves. At that time Stanley Ketchel had been dead less than a year and the boxing world was looking for a man to fill the vacant throne. Gibbons was proclaimed as a pure fire champion, although at that time he was fighting in the welterweight class and was able to make 141 pounds ringside.

His First Setback.

The first setback Gibbons encountered was when he met young Erne over in Philadelphia. Eren refused to be daunted by all the boosting Gibbons had received in New York and he fought back to such purpose that Gibbons emerged from the fray with a cauliflower ear and a nose that was not as straight as it used to be. However, that bout took place in Philadelphia and the result was camouflaged to a great extent, so that New Yorkers still thought him invincible.

The first suspicion that Gibbons lacked something that all great fighters must have came when he met Tommy Maloney in the Garden in the fall of 1912. Maloney was a very rough little welterweight without a trace of boxing skill. He has nothing to recommend him but plenty of grit and gameness. But he tore into the great Gibbons right off the reel, and soon Mike the Marvel was backing all over the ring, with his rough little opponent in pursuit and slamming away from all angles.

Maloney did not win that fight. Gibbons was too clever on the defense for Maloney to do any damage to him, but neither did Gibbons harm his opponent. The fact that Gibbons had allowed his smaller opponent to rush him all over the ring and that Maloney had escaped unharmed after subjecting the St. Paul man to such indignity threw a new light on Gibbons. It showed that Mike lacked heart.

M.A.A.A. AND McGILL DECLINE TO PLAY

NO CITY CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BEWTEEN THESE TWO TEAMS SATURDAY

Montreal, Nov. 20.—At a combined meeting of the M.A.A.A. and McGill football clubs held Tuesday night at the M.A.A.A. clubhouse the decision was reached that there shall be no city championship game between these two senior teams on Saturday next. This decision was reached after a conference which lasted nearly two hours. Earlier in the day the McGill team and executive met to discuss the M.A.A.A. challenge, with the result that the onus of decision was left to the players.

Despite the demands of football followers for a meeting between these two teams the players decided to call the game off.

Grand View Hotel at Point Edward has been sold to A. McFarlane, Port Huron.

Nominations for Winnipeg civic offices were held yesterday, elections to be on the 28th.

$100,000 PAID FOR RACE HORSE

PRICE PAID FOR AMERICAN-BRED STALLION BREAKS ALL RECORDS

New York, Nov. 20.— A record price for an American-bred race horse yesterday was paid by Gifford A. Cochran, of New York, for Major August Belmont's stallion Fair Play, sire of Man o' War and Mad Hatter. The animal was sold for $100,000 in cash and the privilege of breeding ten mares to him each year for three years.

The son of Hastings and Fairy Gold therefore was disposed of for the equivalent of $130,000, it was estimated. The previous highest price paid for a horse bred in America was $70,000, which the late Wm. C. Whitney gave for Hamburg. The imported racer, Rock Sand, was sold by Major Belmont in 1912 for $150,000.

CHAMPION DEMPSEY VISITS HIS MOTHER

HAS SIGNED CONTRACT TO MEET WINNER OF CARPENTIER BECKETT BOUT

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 20. — Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight cham, arrived in Salt Lake City yesterday for a short visit with his mother. Jack Kearns, his manager is expected here tomorrow. In a few days the champion's plans to leave for Southern California to begin work on a moving picture contract. When asked as to his physical condition, Dempsey replied that he was "fit as a fiddle."

Regarding his next fight Dempsey said he would meet the winner of the Carpentier-Beckett watch to be staged abroad Dec. 4, if the victorious Eropean fighter will agree to come to America. If not, Dempsey says he is willing to go to London or Paris. He confirmed the report that he had signed a $175,000 contract with Dominick Tortorich, New Orleans promoter, to meet either Carpentier or Beckett if the proposed match can be arranged for New Orleans. This match would probably take place March 17.

The champion stated he expects four months to pass before his moving picture contract is completed and that after that time he would again begin rigid training for his next fight.

Quebec City Council gave the street railway power to charge seven cents car fare

Brantford G.W.V.A. is making preparations to give Christmas gifts to soldiers' widows.

Private Christmas Cards

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

CANADIAN HORSES TRIUMPH AT SHOW

ENNISCLAIRE FARM IN COMPETITION WITH AMERICA'S BEST STABLES

New York, Nov. 19.—Ennisclaire Farm, of Oakville, Ont., captured the class for horses suitable to make lightweight hunters with the grey gelding, Swoon, the first grey to get a blue up to that time, at the Horse Show here.

Seven of the Ennisclaire Farm hunters were among the twenty entries, the opposition including the best American hunters at the Garden. The entire four places were awarded to the Canadian entries, in the order of Shot, Cragwood, Indian Arrow and Ondremon, Hugh Wilson riding all of them in turn, an unexampled feat in the thirty-four years of the Horse Show.

Twenty Entries.

They made a clean sweep of the thoroughbred hunter class, in which there were twenty entries, by winning first, second, third and fourth with Shot, Indian Arrow, Craigwood and Ondramon, respectively.

In the ladies' qualified hunter class, with twenty-seven entries Miss Carol Smith, of Oakville, won second on Ennisclaire Farm's Ridgefield, and third with her own horse, Ondramon.

Lightweight qualified hunters brought out twenty entries, first and second ribbons going to the same stables, Shot and Glenorchy.

Hugh Wilson was again to the fore, winning the green lightweight hunter class with the grey gelding Swoon, also getting fourth with Tantalizer.

Hunters' Class.

Enniscláre Farm scored another first in the hunters' or jumpers' class, with Indian Arrow, ch.g., and also third and fourth in the same class with Shot, ch.g., Ennisclare Farm, and Ondramon, ch.g., Miss Carol Smith, Oakville, Ont., third and fourth respectively. September Morn, b.m., Squadron "A," New York, was second.

A tremendous attendance is expected to welcome H.R.H. the Prince of Wales this afternoon. There has been a rush for tickets.

JIMMIE WILDE A MIGHTY FIGHTER

THE 98lb MAN WITH THE KNOCK-OUT PUNCH—TO FIGHT IN UNITED STATES

(By Eboert L. Ripley.)

Jimmy Wilde, the "Mighty Atom," is here.

"Hi'm awter the dough— and a good toime," confessed the little chap.

Wilde is the flyweight champion of the world, and is pronounced by many people the greatest boxer that ever lived. He measures only 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighs less than 100 pounds. He will stay in the U. S six months and will probably make his first appearance in Milwaukee against Benny Vogel some time this month. His main performance will be before the International Sporting club on the occasion of its opening on February 3.

The impression that preceeded Wilde to this country, portrays him as a freak— pale, thin, weak, and consumptive looking. On the contrary, he is extremely healthy appearing little chap, with bright eyes broad shoulders, long arms, and plenty of steel-like muscle. He is twenty-seven years old—but doesn't look much older than seventeen. He is a little Fitzsimmons. Don't worry about his health. He has managed for years to wallop everything from flyweights to lightweights without much trouble. Can you imagine a tiny chap like this, weighing ninety-eight younds or so, knocking out an opponent thirty or forty pounds heavier? He has dne this trick several times.

Wilde is a likable little gentleman bright, and luminous, and will be no doubt very successful and popular.

DENTALS AGAIN IN SENIOR HOCKEY

Will Have a Stronger Team Even Than Last Year.

Toronto, Nov. 20. — Under new auspices, but without losing their identity, and with as good a team or a better one than represented them last season, the Dentals have tossed their chapeaux into the hockey ring. The tooth carpenters will have an O. H. A. senior team and will get right down to work on Monday afternoon next at five o'clock at the Arena Gardens.

"Dick" Carroll will coach and train the team again. Most of the players of last season will be in line, together with a flock of newcomers, with reputations as high as St. James' spire and last, but not least, "Mack" Sheldon, star of the team two years ago.

Among the members of last season's team who will be out again are Charley Stewart, Vern Forbes, Stan Brown, Rod Smyllie, Louis Hudson, Leroy Rennie and Willard Box.

The new material includes a number of players of established ability. John Langtry, former goalkeeper of the famous Winnipeg Victorias in [illegible] with the 101st battalion and transferred to the 16th battalion. He is a Dental student Miller, a defence player, was with the University of Manitoba team in the Winnipeg League for two seasons. He is also a student at the Dental college. From Sydney, Cape Breton, comes Leon Kay, a forward, who is also registered at the college. "Bill" Carson, the sensational young forward of the Woodstock juniors last season, is studying dentistry here, and will be a candidate for the forward line. His place is assured. George Wight, of the Canadian Soo was with the 227th battalion at Hamilton and went overseas with the machine guns later transferring to the Royal Air force. Hogarth, of Aura lee's champion O. H. A. juniors, and Westman the Argonaut football player, who hails from Ottawa, are also in quest of berths.

Owing to the recent O. H. A. regulation with regard to club affiliations the Dentals will operate this season under the auspices of the Toronto Dental Society. The officers are: Patrons, Mayor Church, Dr. A. E. Webster, Dr. Wallace Seccombe, Capt. R. D. Thornton, Dr. C. A. Kennedy; honorary president, Col. W. G. Thompson; president, Dr. Arnold Mason; vice-president, Dr. B. O. Fife; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Leo Leonard; manager, Willard Box; coach and trainer, "Dick" Carroll.

WRESTLER ON NEW JOB

Joseph Hawkey Appointed Jailer For Frontenac

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 20.—It is understood that the appointment of Joseph Hawkey, ex-reeve of Kingston township and member county council, will be announced as jailer for Frontenac county. He served overseas with the 21st Battalion. For may years he was well known as a wrestler.

Well, She Is, Isn't She?

Poor man! He can spend a full day making himself look pretty and nobody notices him, while a wee slip of a girl can come out just any old way and the entire populace will say, "Ain't she sweet?"—South Charleston Sentinel.

Jews In English Cities.

There are more Jews in Manchester than in any other city in the United Kingdom. For its size Leeds has more Jews in proportion than Manchester, though the actual number is slightly less.

New Invention.

An inventor has equipped a parachute with hand operated propellers on the theory that a user can guide his descent thereby.

Daily Thought.

Man is his own star, and the soul that can render an honest and perfect man commands all fight.—John Fletcher.

LAWN BOWLERS TOOK THREE FROM CENTRALS

In the Business Men's Five-Pin League at the Water street alleys the Lawn Bowlers took three straight from the Centrals. Jack Maynard was in great form, rolling 619 for Centrals. Perry was high with 474. The scores:

Lawn Bowlers
Ross	167	132	190	489
Gillian	174	92	...	266
Hendry		155	177	332
Elliott	160	...	144	304
Oke	176	114	179	469
Maynard	215	229	175	619
Totals	892	722	865	2479

Centrals
Ritchie	174	140	151	465
Burtis	142	117	179	438
Villeneuve	114	155	...	269
Flaherty			68	88
Perry	190	132	152	474
Wood	112	115	189	416
Totals	732	659	759	2150

On Friday night the De Laval will meet the Post Office team.

Japan's Delightful Climate.

Japan is considered, because of its delightful climate, the playground of the East. Residents of other countries of the far East Indies, the Philippines, and the Straits settlements, flock to Japan in the hot summer months to enjoy its mountain resorts. Owing to the large tourist business some of these resorts present all the up-to-date advantages.

Makeshift, as It Were.

A strange family had recently moved into the neighborhood. Robert had made the acquaintance of the small son and had learned from him that the man was only the boy's stepfather, and, in explanation to me, Robert said: "It ain't James' own daddy, mamma; he's just a second-handed one."—Chicago Tribune.

A Windfall.

The origin of "windfall," in the sense of "good luck," dates from the time of William the Conqueror. It was then a criminal offense to cut timber in the forests. Only such could be gathered as the wind had blown down; hence, a heavy windstorm was hailed by the peasants as so much good luck, and from this comes the modern application of the expression.

The Time He Hurries.

When a seventeen-year-old boy's father tells him it's time he was picking out a trade he doesn't see any reason to hurry. But when his girl tells him the same thing he begins deciding between statesmanship and professional baseball right away.—Kansas City Star.

Seems an Unfair Division.

Thousands of hats discarded by English women are exported every year to Brazil, where they are eagerly bought by the Indians. The feathers and other ornaments on the hats are taken by the men, and the bare straw shapes given to their womenfolk.

Heat and Tuberculosis.

James B. Murphy and Ernest Sturm (Journal of Experimental Medicine) subjected mice to heat and a week later inoculated them with a strain of tuberculosis virulent for mice. These animals displayed a greater resistance than normal.

HARD COAL

EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA

H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160-AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

COAL

AND

Builders' Supplies

Hardwood Flooring

Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

MIXED WOOD

$7.00 Per Cord

Cutting and Splitting extra.

ORDER NOW

FROM

J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

Liberty Demands Full Loyalty.

We honor Liberty in name and form. We set up her statues and sound her praises. But we have not yet fully trusted her. And with our growth, so grow her demands. She will have no half service.—Lord Macaulay.

Milton's Diction.

How grandly Milton rolls and winds through the arches and labyrinths of his magnificent and involved diction, waking musical echoes at every turn and variation of its progress!—E. P. Whipple.

Our Occasional Observance.

A man will sit by the hour matching pennies, but if his wife asks him to match a piece of dress goods, what a howl of rage and indignation there'd be!—Indianapolis Star.

Advantage of Wings.

Another good thing about the flying an angel does is that he never has to light upon the top of a house and bawl for somebody to help him down.—Dallas News.

"Locket" Eyeglasses.

Eyeglasses for which a British patent has been granted can be folded when idle to resemble a locket and worn on a chain as an ornament.

Be Glad.

If you see a man or woman successful, be glad of it. Don't waste time belittling his success. Use your force trying to equal it.

Daily Thought.

A man's own observation, what he finds good of, and what he finds hurt of, is the best physic to preserve health.—Bacon.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

THROUGH TRAIN WITH SLEEPING CARS AND COACHES is now operated from

Toronto and Hamilton
To New York and Philadelphia

Via Grand Trunk, Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia & Reading R.R.

Leave Union Station, Toronto........5.45 p.m. Daily
Leave G. T. Station, Hamilton.......7.05 p.m. Daily

Arriving New York at Pennsylvania Terminal, 32nd Street and 7th Avenue, and at Philadelphia at Reading Terminal.

DINING CARS ARE ALSO OPERATED ON THIS TRAIN
For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

GEORGE ST. METHODIST CHOIR.

Practice tonight at 8 o'clock sharp and of the ladies' double quartette at 7:45. Please be prompt.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

TEA AND ENTERTAINMENT

The Mission Band of Murray street Church will hold a Tea and Entertainment, Friday, Nov. 21st. Tea will be served at 6.30. Program 8 o'clock. A collection will be taken.

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints end muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

THE G. W. V. A. BAND.

The above band are in need of financial assistance, and in order to get funds are holding a concert and draw on December 5th. The following have kindly sent donations:

J. J. Turner & Sons	$25.00
Quaker Oats Co.	18.75
R. Denne	7.00
G. A. McDonald	5.00

We would thank the ladies and gentlemen who would kindly subscribe to the above fund, and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by Captain Morrison, band president, or by Walter Dyer, G. W. V. A. Band Sec.-Treas., 429 Chambers street.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

GUELPH FINES OF $400.

Guelph, Nov. 20.—As the result of recent whiskey seizures, the police magistrate handed out fines of $400 and costs. In addition, the police have a large quantity of whiskey on hand.

MILK PRODUCERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING

Mr. E. H. Stonehouse, President of the Dominion Dairyman's Association, to address the meeting at Board of Trade rooms, Saturday evening, Nov. 22, at eight o'clock.

T. D. N. KELLY,
Secretary.

NEW WOODSTOCK INDUSTRY.

Woodstock, Nov. 20. — Another new industry, the second in ten days, has been added to the industrial concerns of the city. Announcement is made that the Delong Hook and Eye Company of the United States would establish a Canadian branch here.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes .

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 234J.

NEW FACTORY FOR GALT.

Galt, Nov. 20.—McCaskey Systems Limited, of 235-245 Carlaw avenue, Toronto, have purchased a modern manufacturing plant, erected during the war, of the Roelofson Machine Tool Co., on Beverley street, and will locate here. Having outgrown the Toronto premises, they were forced to seek larger quarters and selected Galt.

OTTAWA SEIZURE OF CHAMPAGNE

J. D. FLAVELLE ORDERS STRICT INVESTIGATION INTO THE SHIPMENT OF SAME

Toronto, Nov. 20.—J. D. Flavelle, of the Ontario License Board, speaking about the seizure of a shipment of champagne and other wines at Ottawa, which was in transit from Montreal, it is alleged, to the Ottawa Country Club, on the Quebec side of the river, stated that he thought such a shipment was an infringement of the laws of Quebec.

It is said that the express company made the mistake of shipping it through Ontario, but if it were legal for it to be shipped from one point to another in Quebec, Mr. Flavelle stated, there was no law to prevent its shipment by way of Ontario.

"Instructions have been sent to our inspector," he said. "Mr. Enright directing him to communicate with the Country Club and if he ascertains that this is for them he is to return it to the express company and notify the Hull police. If the club however, denies the shipment, it is to be held by the inspector for further instructions regarding prosecution."

CHIMNEY FIRE.

The fire brigade were called out at 8:40 last evening to extinguish a blaze at the home of W. Ackerman, 380 Park street. The fire started from the burning of too much wood and paper in an open fire place, the paper being drawn up the chimney and setting fire to it. There was no damage.

SALE, NOVEMBER 24 & 25.

The Women's Guild of All Saints' Church will hold a Sale of Fancy Goods, Useful Articles and Home-made Cooking on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 24 and 25, at 309 George street, opposite Barrie Building. Afternoon tea will be served.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR.

St. John's choir will practise tonight at 8 o'clock in the guild room, the boys assembling at 7:30. Every member is asked to attend, as Advent and Christmas music will be rehearsed.

THE SUGAR-PLUM TREE

No writer has ever sensed the subtle thoughts of childhood better than Eugene Field. The Sugar-Plum Tree and Wynken, Blynken and Nod, are two well-known selections issued for educational work, and are told by a real child for children. You will be pleased to add these to your repetoire. As with all Victor records these are obtainable in the Victrola Parlors of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited.

DUFFUS GARAGE

Has warm, fireproof automobile storage at reasonable rates. A frozen motor will cost more than WARM winter storage.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
800 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Orangized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

PETERBORO WINS HER FOUR CRESTS

WARM CONGRATULATIONS FOR SPLENDID SHOWING IN VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN

Mayor Duncan received the following communication today from F. N. Blackadar, organizer in the Victory Loan Campaign:

Dear Mayor Duncan:—

"In the Victory Loan Campaign just closed, Peterborough City has the proud distinction of winning four crests to attach to its Prince of Wales Flag, by doubling the team members' objective.

"We have much pleasure in enclosing herewith the balance of the crests, along with our hearty congratulations on the fine showing the City has made in our campaign.

ANNUAL BAZAAR

The 57th Chater I. O. D. E. will hold their Annual Bazaar December the 4th and 5th at the Y.W.C.A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale and afternoon tea will be served

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Gordon Payne of Warsaw is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Donnell is visiting in Warsaw, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Choate.

Mr. Fred Gunn spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gunn, Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryne of Toronto spent the past few days with friends in the city.

Mr. Charles Beck of Edmonton has returned home after visiting in the city.

Miss Hanlin of Port Hope was in the city yesterday.

Mr. G. W. Rose of Lindsay was in the city on business yesterday.

Mr. Chas. McDonald, of Toronto, is in the city attending the funeral of his mother, the late Mrs. C. C. McDonald.

Mr. H. F. Foote, boot and shoe traveller, arrived home last night from his western trip. He reports that business is good in the West.

Mr. J. O. Fife, formerly of Peterborough, and for many years inspector of Public schools in Edmonton, is in the city. He is returning from Minneapolis and other American cities, where he has been visiting the schools and gaining information on education.

PIGEON DAY AT POLICE COURT

ABOUT SIXTY BIRDS HAVE BEEN STOLEN RECENTLY—NOT ALL LOCATED YET

Today was pigeon day at the Police Court. About sixty pigeons in all were reported missing and there are some twenty-four yet to be located.

Three boys appeared before Magistrate Dumble charged with stealing fancy pigeons from a home on Edinburgh street. Two others were charged with receiving these, knowing them to have been stolen. All pleaded guilty and the case was dismissed on the parents of the boys making restitution for four birds that were dead and four more that were missing, and paying the costs of the court.

The magistrate gave the boys a severe lecture and recommended that they be severely whipped by their parents.

One of the parents requested the boys to be whipped by officers of the law so as to give them a fear of returning. Crown Attorney Hatton explained that the magistrate did not like to order this punishment on account of the public opinion against it.

Two more boys pleaded guilty to stealing eight pigeons from the fire-hall, but this case was left over on account of the fact that there are 30 or more birds missing.

George R. Davidson was remanded for one week on a charge of vagrancy.

BUSINESS MEETING OF CALEDONIA CLUB

10 NEW MEMBERS JOINED LAST NIGHT— ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONCERT

The Caledonian Club held a business meeting last night in W. O. W. Hall. A large number were present to welcome the ten new members who joined the club.

General business was discussed and arrangements made for the concert and dance on St. Andrew's night, November 28th.

After the business, games of carpet bowls were played and enjoyed by all present. Glasgow again defeated Edinburgh, this time by a score of 21-1.

Any one wishing a ticket for the concert may obtain the same from Sergt. Reid at the police station, Jack Smith, at the barber shop on Charlotte street; Mr. Lawson piano dealer, or Tom McArthur, at the C.P.R. freight sheds.

MATCH THIS SALE

H. J. Zacks will announce in tomorrow's issue of his paper special bargains in ladies' ready-to-wear prepared for Saturday's selling. At this big selling-out sale of $25,000 worth of merchandise there will be found new values every day, as every article must be sold out to the bare shelves, regardless of cost. Take advantage of this opportunity, ladies, for laying in a stock of all lines of ready-to-wear, hosiery, gloves, etc.

Henry Dickerson, Howell, Mich., his wife and two children were burned to death in their home as the result of an explosion of a kerosene stove.

EXEMPTION OF SOLDIERS' HOMES

WHAT WILL PETERBORO COUNCIL DO ABOUT THIS QUESTION NEXT YEAR?

A month ago the local G.W.V.A. applied to the City Council, through Mr. G. N. Gordon, for tax exemption on all property owned and occupied by returned soldiers. Such exemption of course, were it granted, could not include school and local improvement rates, which the Municipal Act will not permit of in any case. At that time Council did not commit themselves one way or the other, and the majority of them, from what can be learned in conversation subsequently, are not inclined to act on the request.

Under the Assessment Act, amended since the war, a municipality has the right to exempt the homes of returned soldiers up to the value of $3,000, without submitting a by-law to the people, for a period of ten years, and Alderman Honeyford of Toronto is, at that city's next Council meeting, going to father a resolution to exempt soldiers' homes from taxes. He is firmly convinced that such civic legislation is justified in return for the great service rendered Canada by her soldiers in the late war.

Peterborough's City Council has instructed Assessor Henry not to collect statute labor this year from returned soldiers, and on passing a resolution to that effect, Alderman Edgar drew Council's attention to the fact that his action brings the city face to face with the question, "What commensurate consideration is going to be extended to married soldiers and also to the widows of those men who made the supreme sacrifice?" While fully supporting the motion to exempt single soldiers from statute labor, he contended that single men should be in a better position to pay their $5 poll tax than are married men to pay taxes on their occupied property. And this question, he argued, will have to be met by next year's Council, if not before.

VICTORY LOAN NOTICE.

All persons having accounts against the local Victory Loan office are asked to send them in at once, as the office will be closed on Monday, the 24th inst.

F. Brownscombe, Secretary.

OTHER ARRESTS ARE LOOKED FOR

EXPECT TO CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF THEFT OF VALUABLE SECURITIES

New York, Nov. 20.—More arrests are expected in the round-up in New York, Washington and other cities of persons suspected of having been implicated in the theft of $500,000 to $1,000,000 worth of securities in New York's financial district within the last six months.

With the arrest Tuesday of David W. Sullivan, a member of the Consolidated Stock Exchange, charged with larceny and criminally receiving two Crucible Steel certificates valued at $45,000, the police expressed confidence they had hit upon a trail which ultimately would clear up the robberies which have mystified Wall Street and in which disappearing messenger boys have played a prominent part. The police state Sullivan admitted having received the two certificates, although claiming not to have known they were stolen, and that one had been disposed of in Washington and the other in Philadelphia. He claimed to have received these certificates—and other securities which the police declare had been stolen—from three mysterious "customers" giving the names of "Steele," "Wall" and "Enright." The police, so far, have been unable to locate the trio, but to-day renewed their efforts to round them up.

The New York police are being assisted in their search by authorities of other cities. A member of the Washington force, coming here Tuesday, identified Sullivan as a former bartender who divided his time between New York and the national capital.

CAN. PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE.

To and from Kingston Sub-Division.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 1, there will be a change in the Kingston Sub-Division Train Service, providing a daily, except Sunday, day connection as follows: Leave Peterborough 11.59 a.m., arrive Kingston 5.35 p.m.; leave Kingston 9.50 a.m., arrive Peterborough 3.20 p.m.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

WM. JESSOP TO VISIT THIS CITY

MAN OF VAST AND PECULIAR EXPERIENCES IN Y.M.C.A. MISSIONARY WORK

Mr. William Jessop who served with His Majesty's forces in Mesopotamia as Y. M. C. A. officer, will visit this city Monday next. Previous to entering the war work in the east, Mr. Jessop was head of the Y. M. C. A. in India. He has some interesting stories and enlightening facts to tell and will address two meetings while he is here. He will attend a luncheon at the Empress Hotel on Monday and in the evening will address the senior members and businessmen at the Y. M. C. A. building. Anyone who has the opportunity to hear this man of vast and peculiar experiences and fails to do so is depriving himself of a great treat.

The Cobalt Nugget in its editorial columns says:

A striking tribute to the efficiency of the Y. M. C. A. is the call which has come to it from representative heads of Mohammedan and other religious organizations in the near east to organize branches and assist in developing in the young manhood of those countries that spirit which is the keynote of true citizenship. Impressed by the interest taken by the Y. M. C. A. in the allied soldiers and realizing the many advantages resulting from this interest, the representative heads of various tribes in Egypt, in Syria, in Mesopotamia and in other sections of the eastern war theatre have offered the Y. M. C. A. concessions for the establishment of mission stations. When reminded that the organization was Christian, more than one Mohammedan leader replied he knew, and knew also that Allah was the God of all, and that it was in the interests of his young men to receive such care and attention as in war the Y.M.C.A. had given to the soldiers of the Allies, regardless of race or religion. This, in effect, is the message of William Jessop, a Y. M. C. A. worker in India for more than ten years, and for the five years of war an army worker in Egypt and the Holy Land. The opportunity to aid in a great movement, which, although it may accomplish more for the intellectual than the spiritual uplift of the peoples of Asia and Africa, will nevertheless be of inestimable benefit to them and to the world, is opened as one of the results of the war. In its wise use, this opportunity may become a very important factor in widening the sphere of British and American influence, as well as in making easier the part of those, who, under the teachings of wise missionaries, turn from the darkness of their beliefs to the light of Christianity. The Y. M. C. A. entered the mission fields of the world only as an adjunct to the church, and at the request of the missionaries themselves. The call which now comes to it from the peoples of the eastern world to enlarge its activities in their behalf is the sure indication that its influence for good in the best sense of that word is recognized by those who are not disposed to regard with favor the teachings of the Chrisian workers of the world.

WANTED.

A number of Bricklayers wanted immediately. Apply to J. J. Hartley, contractor, 234 Antrim street, or Auburn Mills.

FUNERAL OF LATE JAMES EDGAR

The funeral of the late James Edgar was held at 2:15 this afternoon, and the high esteem and respect in which he was held was shown by a large attendance of the community in general. The Mayor and the City Council attended as well as a representation from both the post office staff and letter carriers. There was a profusion of costly floral tributes to deceased's memory.

A short service was held at his former residence at the corner of Weller and Park streets, after which the cortege proceeded to All Saints' church, where another service was conducted, and from there to Little Lake Cemetery for interment. Rev. R. B. Grobb officiated.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Jas. Mulholland, W. H. Hamilton, Chas. Lacheur, Frank Whitehouse, Frank Dawson and William Bishop.

FAVORS DIRECT TAX.

Hon. T. A. Crerar Prefers That System.

Brandon, Man., Nov. 20.—Advocacy of direct taxation to make up any losses in revenue occasioned by removing the customs tariff from the necessities of life, an increase of the income tax, and federal adoption of the inheritance tax, were advocated by Hon. T. A. Crerar at a meeting called by the Grain Growers for the purpose of educating Brandon people to the political platform of the Canadian Council of Agriculture.

NOTICE.

To all Members of G.W.V.A.

On Nov. 27th, 28th & 29th a Ballot will be taken on the following questions:—

1st	Are you in favour of amending the Constitution so as to permit political action.	YES	NO
2nd	Are you in favour of amending the Constitution to permit any person who has served honourably in the forces of Great Britain and her Allies to become members of the G.W.V.A.	YES	NO

Every member is requested to make an effort to get to headquarters on one of the above-mentioned dates, to record his vote on these important questions. The polling booth will be opened at 7 o'clock sharp each evening and will remain open till 11 p.m. except Saturday, Nov. 29th, when the booth will open sharp at 2 p.m. in the afternoon.

The result of the poll will be announced at the regular meeting to be held on Monday, Dec. 1st, next, when the election of officers for the year 1920 will also take place.

SIDNEY WHATLEY
Secretary P.B.G.W.V.A.

H. P. Lindsay, Agency Company

392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)

Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

TO RENT
First Class Brick House on Charlotte Street(Near Reid) All Impjrov street (near Reir). All Improvements.
FOR SALE
Two Well Built Brick Houses, With Garden. Each $1,800
Houses From $500 up to $6,500
A Number of Good Farms
Will Take City Property in Payment

PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

NOTICE

Under and by virtue of certain mortgages which will be produced at the time of sale there will be offered for sale by public auction on Saturday, the 22nd day of November, 1919, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon at the Munro Hotel, Peterborough, by J. F. Thornton, auctioneer, the following property, namely: all and singular that certain parcel of tract of land and premises situate lying and being in the city of Peterborough, in the County of Peterborough, in the Province of Ontario, and being composed of Lot No. Fourteen, according to Plan AI, for the city of Peterborough, North of and adjacent to Dunlop street, produced Westerly to the waters of the Otonabee River except the portions thereof conveyed to James Gates by instruments numbers 6732, 8034, and 10090, and conveyed to Edward Freeman by instrument number 6433, and conveyed to Charles Munden by instrument number 10329.

Terms: CASH.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to
MOORE & WEARING, 408 Water Street, Peterborough, Solicitors for the Mortgagee.
Dated at Peterborough,
the 28th October, 1919.

TO REORGANIZE 15TH REGIMENT

Major-General Williams Goes to Belleville for Purpose.

Kingston, Nov. 20.—Major-General Williams will go to Belleville on Saturday for the purpose of reorganizing the 15th Regiment. Captain MacManus, formerly adjutant of the 38th Battalion, has been made adjutant to the unit. On Sunday, Gen. Williams will unveil a memorial tablet at Trenton. He has also been invited to perform a similar ceremony at Cobourg, but finds it impossible to do so.

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

It's Confidence That Does It

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
— FOR THE —
WEEK-END

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

ORANGES
Sweet and Juicy, doz.	30c

Other Oranges, very sweet, dozen	40c, 60c, 70c
California Grapes, lb.	40c
Lemons, 6 for	25c
Apples for Cooking, pk., 60c, 70c,	80c
Spies, Kings and Blenheims, by the barrel.
Eating Apples, McIntosh and Jonathan, by the dozen or box

GRAPE FRUIT
This Fruit is getting better all the time, doz.	65c

Other Grape Fruit, 4 for 25c, 3 for 25c, 2 for	25c
Bannanas, doz	50c and 60c
Cranberries, quart	20c
Sweet Potatoes, 3 lbs.	25c
Spanish Onions, lb.	10c
Cooking Onions, 2 lb.	25c
White Beans, 2 lb.	25c
Cabbage.	10c to 20c
Squash, green and golden	20 to 30c
Pie Pumpkins	10 and 15c

SUNDRIES

Seeded Raisins, 2 pkgs.	35c
Seedless Raisins, pkg.	20c
Dromedary Dates, pkg.	23c
Excelsior Dates, pkg.	19c
Dingman's Naptha Soap, 3 cakes	26c
Dutch Cleanser, 2 pkgs.	27c
Lipton's Jelly, 3 pkgs.	25c

CEREALS

Rolled Oats, 10 lbs.	65c
Corn Flakes, 9 pkgs.	1.00
Cream of Wheat, 3 pkgs.	50c

SHORTENING, LARD AND BACON

Shortening, lb.	32c
Shortening, 3 lb. pail	98c
Shortening, 5 lb. pail	$1.55
Shortening, 10 lb. pail	$3.05
Lard, Rose Brand, 1 lb.	35c
Lard, Rose Brand, 3 lbs.	$1.02
Lard, Rose Brand, 5 lbs.	$1.70
Lard, Rose Brand, 10 lbs.	$3.35
Swift's Pure Lard, 3 lb. pail	$1.00
Swift's Head Cheese, 1 lb. tin	20c

Full line of Swift's Bacon, Hams and Cooked Meats.

TRY OUR OWN BLEND TEAS AND COFFEES
CHRISTIE'S BISCUITS—ALWAYS FRESH.

PORTER S. WHITE Co.
334 GEORGE ST. PHONE 208

DOMINION LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT, SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS
INSURANCE
— Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 172 HUNTER STREET

Fresh northwest winds, mostly cloudy and mild today and on Saturday. A few light local showers on Saturday.

The Daily Review

10 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 116 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

PEACE COUNCIL ANNOUNCES GERMAN PEACE TREATY WILL BE RATIFIED DEC. 1

Allies Notify Germany She Must Sign Without Delay Protocol, Guaranteeing Fulfilment of Armistice Conditions, German Representatives Remain Silent---Hope Yet That U. S. Will Agree to a Compromise Ratification.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Nov. 21. — The Supreme Council today agreed upon Dec. 1 as the date when the German peace treaty will be formally ratified.

Germany Must Sign.

Further informal discussions have been held with German representatives now here in connection with the notification by the Allies that the protocol must be signed by Germany guaranteeing the fulfilment of the armistice conditions. These discussions have been confined chiefly to methods of procedure in considering the protocol.

Germans Are Silent.

As yet the Germans have not stated whether they will sign the protocol. The American delegation is still without instructions as to its participation in the Peace Conference following the failure of the Senate to ratify the treaty. But Henry White attended a meeting of the Supreme Council today as representative of the United States, and the entire delegation continue work in the belief that a compromise ratification will be agreed to in the United States.

Hope for Compromise.

The American delegates declare themselves still hopeful that a compromise will be arranged in the Senate, but the French and British peace delegates are apparently less optimistic, and inclined to prepare to carry out the treaty without American co-operation. Suggestions that another treaty, more to the liking of the European allies, be negotiated, apparently are not seriously taken.

French, British and Italian delegates to the Peace Conference seemed to be dazed by the Senate's refusal to approve the treaty and unable to comprehend how the signature of the American peace delegation failed to bind the American Government. The American delegates are without instructions as regards their future course. Henry White will continue to sit in the Supreme Council meetings and the delegation will function as usual until otherwise instructed.

Keen Regret.

London, Nov. 21.—Keen regret, tempered by hope on one hand and outspoken approval of Senator Lodge and his supporters on the other hand are the outstanding notes in London newspaper comment on the subject of the U. S. Senate's action on the Versailles peace treaty.

WHISKEY, WINE, MASH AND STILL FOUND IN J. GUISE-BAGLEY'S HOME

Police Seize Complete Apparatus for Distilling Liquor at the Rate of 6 Bottles Per Day—Proprietor, Manager and Sales Agent of Local Candy Concern Alleged to Have Been Involved in Liquor Business.

The undercover business corner of J. Guise-Bagley and Ernest Middleton, alleged illicit manufacturers of intoxicating liquors on a fairly large and scientific scale, came to a dramatic finish about five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The police raided the home of Guise-Bagley, lawyer and secretary of the Liberty League, 500 George street, across from Central Park, and found there two large barrells and one keg of grape wine (excellent quality), a couple of large jars and eight bottles of strong, distilled whiskey, together with a very ingenious still, all of which were conveyed to the local police station.

The Still.

The barrels, kegs, jars and bottles are very ordinary in appearance but they form an ingenious method employed for distilling liquor, which is worthy of description.

First, there is a common wash boiler as is employed by housekeepers for boiling clothes. The lid is very strongly soldered on so as to make it absolutely air tight. In the top and a little toward one end is an opening about as large as a 50-cent piece. One end of a copper rod screws into this opening, and the other end is in the form of a coil, which is surrounded by cold water to help in the condensing. There is a tap in the bottom of the pail that allows the liquid gathered in the coil to fall into any kind of container.

To use this apparatus a mash of ground up grain, potatoes, raisins, other vegetables, and possibly a little yeast, is placed in the boiler. A fire is lit under the boiler, the steam driven off from the mash takes the only means of escape the copper tube—is condensed in the copper coil surrounded by cold water and there falls from the tap an excellent quality of whiskey—at least so 'tis said.

It is thought some of the wine was added to the mash to give the whiskey a flavor of grapes.

This description is purely to satisfy public curiosity, and not intended as practical information for any speculator.

The police found one barrel of mash and a 60 gal. barrel that had been used for a mash, and which has an odor that to say the least is arresting of anyone in the near vicinity.

Story of the Capture.

The story of how the police gained the information and made the capture will reveal some circumstances that may be of considerable interest.

The whole police force had been suspicious that something of this kind was going on for the past two weeks, and were simply waiting an opportunity to prove their suppositions.

The chance came to P. C. Bristow Wednesday afternoon. He met the alleged sales agent of the company Wm. Fair, formerly employed by the city as street cleaner and caretaker of the incenerator, and engaged in conversation with him, during which he realized that the man did not recognize him as an administrator of the law. The conversation casually turned to the common topic of street gossip, namely, whiskey, and Bristow made an appointment with Fair to meet him yesterday afternoon to buy a bottle.

With the promptness of good business men putting across an important deal both men kept the appointment and so did Detective Cookman, only he kept his appointment under cover of the custom's house, from where he could watch the proceedings through a window.

Fair showed considerable surprise when he found there was a third party in the arrangement, and was still further surprised when he was apprised of the fact that his next full stop would be the police station. In spite of his protests of innocence, he was taken there and will remain in custody until his trial tomorrow morning, when he may in all probability find a new berth.

The two constables then proceeded to the Peterborough Candy Mfg. premises at the corner of Louis and Charlotte streets. J. Guise-Bagley is the proprietor and Ernest Middleton the manager of this establishment. From Mrs. Middleton and a little boy, by a clever ruse, the officers discovered that the still had been removed from these premises. They hastened back to the police station with Middleton and things began to move

(Continued on Page Five.)

BOMB AFGANS FROM THE AIR

BRITISH PUNISH INDIAN FRONTIER TRIBES FOR IGNORING ULTIMATUM

London, Nov. 21.—Opening of aerial warfare against the Mahsud tribesmen on the northwestern frontier of India has been ordered, it is stated in advices from India, yesterday. The order was given on Nov. 12 after the Mahsuds had failed to comply with the terms laid down in the British ultimatum late in October, in which the tribesmen were informed that unless they discontinued their continual attacks on British posts and convoys and their raids into British territory they would be subjected to an intense aerial bombardment. The British airmen now have been instructed to bombard the villages of Kanigurum, Mankin and Marobi.

The Waiziri tribesmen in the same district who were similarly notified in the ultimatum had been given until today to reply, and this morning the notification was still unanswered.

The effects of the air bombardment have not yet been reported.

PRESIDENT CALLS NEW CONFERENCE

ANOTHER LABOR GATHERING TO CONVENE ON DECEMBER FIRST

Washington, Nov. 21. — President Wilson yesterday appointed a new industrial conference and called it into session here Dec. 1.

The conference will be composed of seventeen men, including Government officials, business men, and former members of the Cabinet and former Governors of States, and it will carry on the work undertaken by the National Industrial Conference, which foundered on the rock of collective bargaining.

CITY OF MOSCOW IS SURROUNDED

BOLSHEVIKI CONSIDER REBELLION OF CAPITAL IMPORTANCE TO THEM

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 21. Moscow is surrounded by insurgents and the Bolsheviki regard the rebellion as of capital importance, according to a Copenhagen despatch, quoting Helsingfors' advices.

The despatch states that Tomburg in Ural has been sacked by a hostile army of 55,000 men.

PRINCE OF WALES PLAYS HOST TO THOUSAND SCHOOL CHILDREN

Entertains United States' Little Ones on Board British Battle Cruiser "Renown" Leaves for Halifax Tomorrow.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov. 21.—Edward Albert, Prince of Wales, began the last full day of his visit to New York today with a trip to the grave of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. The Prince carried a wreath to place on the late ex-President's grave.

Today's Program.

Today's program called for his presence at noon at luncheon with the Piping Rock Club, and in the afternoon he planned to play host to a thousand school children aboard the British battle cruiser "Renown."

This evening he will be the guest at a dinner of Pilgrims, at which Chauncey M. Depew will preside.

A brief visit to the Hippodrome and a reception at the seventh regiment's armory will complete the day's events.

Tomorrow the Prince will end his visit to the U. S., sailing on the "Renown" for Halifax.

Event of the Day.

The trip to West Point yesterday was the big event of the day, and occupied the major portion of it. Accompanied by Lord Grey, the British Ambassador; Major-Gen. O'Ryan, Commander of the New York State troops, and the members of his staff, the Prince, dressed in the uniform of a Colonel of the Welsh Guards, boarded a special train at the Grand Central Station at 10.45 o'clock in the morning. As on every occasion when he has appeared in public in New York, an immense crowd watched his departure and cheered him to the echo.

School Children Salute.

At Garrison, the little river station where he alighted to take the ferry for West Point, a very pretty picture was presented. The younger school children of the village, ranging in age from ten to five years, lined the path from the station to the ferryboat. The girls were on one side and the boys on the other, and alternate small hands grasped American and British flags, while the boys used their disengaged hands to perform a highly creditable military salute. The salute was punctiliously returned by the Prince, who stopped and chatted for a few moments with the children's school teacher.

At West Point the Prince was received by a cavalry escort head by Brig.-Gen. McArthur, the Commandant.

LOCAL WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB FORMALLY OPENED YESTERDAY

Dr. Symonds of Montreal Delivers Interest-Holding Address on "Men Before Things".

The formal opening of the Woman's Canadian Club took place yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the Public Library. A large number were present on this occasion and the meeting was marked with an enthusiastic spirit, which speaks well for the future efficiency of this club.

Mrs. James Kendry, president of the club, in her opening address of greeting, touched on subjects in harmony with the occasion, pointing out the necessity for generous co-operation and the following of a fixed ideal in this field of labor. In a few well-chosen sentences she welcomed the speaker of the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Symonds, of Christ's Church, Montreal. Dr. Symonds was not a stranger to the citizens of Peterborough, having been a resident of this city some years previous, when he was well and favorably known as rector of St. Luke's Church. Extensively experienced along the lines of interest to the club, not only as an active worker among the needy in the city of Montreal, but also having contributed his share of help to ease the woes on the blood-stained fields of Flanders, this speaker was quite competent to favor the members with a helpful and illuminating address.

Mrs. George King delighted the audience with a vocal selection rendered in her usual artistical manner which drew forth unstinted applause.

An Organization of Value.

Commencing his address, Dr. Symonds touched on the great value, physically, intellectually and morally of this growing Canadian organization. It was, in his estimation, an immense means of progress for the people of Canada. In no other organization of its kind could there be found such liberty of speech such

(Continued on Page Three.)

NEW GOVERNMENT STANDS FOR ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY DECLARES E. C. DRURY

Premier of Ontario Talks of His Plans at an Informal Gathering of the Board of Trade Last Night—Declares There Must be More Efficiency in Common Schools—No Class Legislation.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—The members of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce who are holding their annual convention in the city, met Premier Hon. E. C. Drury at an informal gathering at the Board of Trade rooms last evening and assured the new Prime Minister that he will have their hearty support in his efforts to administer the affairs of the province. At the same time, Hon. Mr. Drury pointed out that no Government can do much for any province unless it has the sympathetic support of the people as a whole, and after he had given the heads of industry his assurance that he does not purpose to introduce any policies of class legislation, he asked their forbearance and their consideration until he has had an opportunity to get accustomed to the reins of office. While the new premier did not purpose to outline any of his legislation, he did go into the question of education, and emphasized the fact that, in his opinion, greater attention must be paid to the education in the Common schools. In a general way, he [illegible] the Ontario Farmer Government, will stand for economy, efficiency, a different treatment of forestry, "which has been abused," a new method of handling the mines, and in particular, an increased efficiency in the Common schools.

"By saying that we must have more efficiency in the Common schools, I do not mean that the universities will be neglected," the Premier went on; "but I am convinced that, excellent as the universities have been, they alone cannot fit the great mass of children for citizenship. I am not going to say what line we will take, but it will be democratic, and will make for more thoroughness in the Public Schools. Personally, I think the work in the schools has been spread too thin. The schools have been creating a beautiful, highly-polished product, but the machine appears to have forgotten the human element, that is, the boys and the girls. No education can do more than give the children the key to further education, and the will to use it. If we can make the Common schools do that, we will have produced a culture, though we do not produce a higher type of education."

A People's Government

Referring to the farmers, Premier Drury stated that all they ask is justice. He admitted that he might like to "take a whack at the national policy," but having found himself in the wrong political field to do that, he regretted that he would have to forget it. As to the two old political parties, he believed they were "played out," for they had [illegible] about themselves the barnacles which are bound to impede the movements of any party, no matter how public spirited the leaders might be." "Government, after all, is merely a business," he continued "and who can run a business properly if he has to consider his aunt's cousin's nephew every time an appointment is to be made?"

(Continued on Page 5.)

SENATORSHIP FOR MARSHAL FOCH

PREMIER CLEMENCEAU WILL RESUME OFFICE NEXT JANUARY —FRENCH POLITICAL SITUATION

Paris, Nov. 21.—Interviewed by a representative of the newspaper Oevre relative to the political situation, Rene Viviani, former premier, has stated that Premier Clemenceau will remain in his present office until January and will then become the President of the Republic.

Marshal Foch for Senate.

Marshal Foch has been offered a nomination for senator for the Department of Finisterre, according to the Presse de Paris, which says he has accepted the nomination on condition that all parties will unite in supporting him.

ANOTHER RALLY IN FOREIGN EXCHANGE

INDICATIONS POINT TO MONEY STRINGENCY HAVING BEEN OVERCOME

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York (Wall St., Noon), Nov. 21.—Another rally in foreign exchange, and indications that the money stringency has been overcome, facilited further advance of prices during this morning.

Leather Dull.

Money conditions were confined by the opening rate of eight per cent., for call loans. Crucible steel, General Motors and High Grade Oils gained six to thirteen points in the first hour. Tobaccos kept pace with stronger food, leather and shipping issues were rather dull and irregular Steels. Equipments and Motors shared more actively in broader buying at noon.

GROSS PROFITS FIXED FOR READY-TO-WEAR

THIRTY-THREE AND A THIRD PER CENT THE MAXIMUM ALLOWED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 21.—The Board of Commerce here today issued an order prohibiting gross profits of more than 33 1-3 per cent. on sales of ready-to-wear and partly ready-to-wear clothing. On less expensive suits costing the retailer under $25 the board allows a smaller margin of profit, namely, 26 per cent. maximum. Out of this gross profit the retailer must pay rent, taxes, salaries, etc., and provide depreciation and other overhead contingencies.

The order goes into effect in Toronto on December 15th, and the board says: "If before January 20 no good reason is shown why it should not come into effect throughout the Dominion, it will no doubt be made Dominion-wide."

FORCE THE HAND OF LLOYD GEORGE

MAY BE ANOTHER SERIOUS INDUSTRIAL UPHEAVAL AT CHRISTMAS TIME

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 21.—The Toronto Star today publishes a cable from their staff correspondent at London, England, to the effect that British miners are aiming to force Lloyd George's hand about Christmas time on the question of nationalization of mines.

Leaders of the miners are quietly completing their plans, says the cable, which declares that the Premier will be given short notice to submit to the country the question of nationalization, or face instant and serious industrial upheaval.

MR. J. H. BURNHAM, M.P. CRITICIZES ACTION OF GOVT. ON GRATUITIES

Declares That Calder Was Weakest Man He Ever Saw and Endeavored to Sidestep—Is in Favor of Granting G. W. V. A. Gratuity Demands.

The members of the local branch of the G. W. V. A. met in their club rooms last night to hear the explanation of the debate in the House of Commons on the war gratuity question from our member himself.

Without any lengthy introduction Mr. Burnham waded into the subject in question, and in the following address gave a very clear understanding of his position, the position of the Government and the position of the opposition on the question.

Mr. Burnham, in the course of his address on the soldiers' gratuity question said in part:

What is the difference between what Canada has done for the returning soldier and what the returning soldier thinks Canada should have done for him? That is the true text of my subject tonight. I will not deal with any of the troubles prior to the armistice, and will thus confine myself wholly to Canada's plan for the restoration of the soldier to civic life.

Soldier Not Provided For.

In part III. of the report of the Special Committee of the House of Commons to amend and improve re-establishment will be found these words: "Canada's army numbered about 596,441. Our total male population under 45 years of age at the outbreak of the war was about 3,700,000, so that it will be readily seen that our national economic life was rather seriously upset by the withdrawal of about 1 in every 6 of what might be estimated the effective male population. To meet the new situation many re-adjustments were made, and when faced with the problem of re-establishment of ex-members of the Canadian forces the conditions so created had again to be re-adjusted." That official statement of the House of Commons Committee is a correct statement of the whole problem. The difficulty which has since arisen is that this re-adjustment of the soldier to his former economic condition has only partially taken place. That is admitted. If justice is to be done to the soldier, therefore, that re-adjustment or its equivalent must not be left in its present unfinished condition, but must be completed. In my opinion that so-called re-adjustment by Canada and its governments is not to be compared with the response of the soldiers themselves to the call of war, or with the re-adjustment of industry in Canada in relation to its industrial war-problems as they arose. The soldiers did their parts perfectly. The response of industry was most gratifying. The response of the government has been neither systematic nor complete. It has produced the confusion and irritation which an imperfectly managed administration of the soldiers' re-establishment in civil life is sure to produce. That is the whole case stated in general terms, I think. Let us now examine the matter more in detail in order to see in what this administrative failure consists. It consists almost wholly in failure to find suitable employment for some of the returned soldiers and the soldier is now fighting against any attempt to make him the scape-goat of administrative incapacity. Failure is sure to fall upon someone, and the soldier is determined that it shall not fall upon him. It is useless for the governments of Canada to boast how much they have done if even one soldier remains unprovided for, if it is not his own fault. A census of the returned soldiers would show how many, through no fault of their own, have not been provided with suitable employment, and except in a general way I am unable to find that it has been held. The bridge over the gap between discharge and civil re-establishment was a matter of dollars and cents, and was at first fairly well provided for. But the adjustment of a repatriated soldier after he crossed that bridge and almost a stranger in his own country was not taken

(Continued on Page 5.)

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1852, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Douglas, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. .... 189 .... Editorial 488
Mr. Stratton's Residence . . 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1919.

CONGRESS MUST DECIDE.

THIS IS THE WAY the New York Globe sums up the United States' position under the lodge reservations to the Treaty of Peace with Germany:

We "assume no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations"; we shall accept no mandate except by consent of congress; we shall not "submit to arbitration or inquiry" either the Monroe doctrine or any question which we consider of purely domestic importance; we shall be under no obligation to contribute to the league's exchequer unless congress approves; we shall submit, apparently, to the blockade of a state which goes to war in defiance of a league decision, but we shall do as we please about having commercial relations with nationals of such a state living in our own country or anywhere outside of their own boundaries. We refuse to accept the Shantung decision or to take a responsible part in carrying out the terms of the peace which we helped to win, but we do stipulate that our rights to the German ships and other German property which we seized during the war shall not be interfered with.

If the other powers are willing to have us in the league on these terms they themselves will scarcely be content to be bound by any stronger terms, and the agreements of the league itself will certainly be supplemented, despite the provision against secret treaties, by alliances and understandings of the old sort. These will be considered necessary because the league, as we shall have modified it, will offer no protection.

NATIONAL SHIPS OF CANADA.

NATIONAL SHIPS OF CANADA! Will they ever be to Canada what the ships of Britain have been to the fog girt Dominating Islands of the North Atlantic? asks David Kalsac.

That instinct for the sea that has ever characterized the Anglo-Saxon from remote days when as Viking he first swept out of the Northern seas in his rakish shield-girdled craft, is once again revivified through the Anglo-Saxon world.

We hear almost every day of the plans of our cousins of the same seafaring blood to the south, who hope to wrest the control of the ocean-carrying trade from Britain. Canada already has a substantial nucleus of the national fleet of commerce carriers. Does it mean only that North America is to enter the carrying trade on a scale never before dreamed of, or is Canada to stand side by side with the Old Motherland to keep the old supremacy within the Empire? Australia is also passing through an interesting period in connection with her merchant shipping.

England is small, and an island, and all the paths of the seas lie open. The old Viking strain is far from dormant. The English know the ocean in all its moods. They know how to build vessels that survive. The indomitable Englishman rides his ships to all points of the compass. As he does he trades. A great power, he draws the wealth of many lands to his beloved home-land in the turbulent North Atlantic. His vessels both for trading and fighting grew into the most formidable fleets in both fields of activity. Ships made England great and ships will keep her so.

Canada's great area is equal to 30 countries the size of the British Isles, and the population of the whole area is only about one-sixth that of the United Kingdom of Great Britain. Canada could look inward for thousands of miles. The ocean paths were open, but only to the minority. The majority of Canadians probably have never seen the sea. Their viewpoint, like their environment, is insular although we could touch one country almost at all points along a four-thousand-mile boundary line. That sort of a situation produces national thinking only. The international habit does not come until there are means of contact with other lands. To all others we were shut out. One development alone could give us the means of expansion along international trading lines. That development was a fleet of ships. Of that fleet, Canada-built, Canada-owned, Canada-controlled, we have already sixteen sturdy vessels varying between 3,750 dead-weight tons, and 8,400 dead-weight tons, in operation between ports in Canada, the United Kingdom, the British West Indies, Cuba and South America. Within a few weeks Australia will be included in the list. Sailings to other ports in Great Britain and elsewhere are now under consideration.

The Canadian federal plan calls for a fleet of sixty ships having a gross dead-weight of approximately 300,000 tons. They belong to Canadians as a whole. Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited, is the name of the company to operate them under the direction of Canadian National Railways.

Already—no doubt because of the ships—there is a quickening of interest among Canadian business men in outside affairs that up to a few months ago excited scarcely any comment. In late weeks the West Indies for example—at least their relation to Great Britain and to Canada—have occupied considerable space in the daily grist to the press. The trade of the West Indies with Canada has developed into an interesting topic in business Canada. That trade at present does not worry federal statisticians who keep record of the nation's business dealings abroad, but it has wonderfully bright possibilities. "National" ships have made 14 voyages to and from the West Indies. They have carried southbound practically all classes of general merchandise, and they bring back the goods Canada imports from those fertile sunny lands. That is all very well for a beginning, but in the future there ought to be, between Canada and the West Indies, a development of trading that would make the present figures appear utterly insignificant.

The West Indies import approximately 65 million dollars worth of flour, rice, salt meats, fertilizers, boots and shoes, beer and wine, apparel, haberdashery, bags and sacks, hats and bonnets, lard, condensed milk, corn meal, soap, butter, wood and timber, hardware, machinery, dried fish, coal and cottons, each year. Cottons constitute the most valuable single-group, 7 million dollars being the amount estimated yearly; flour, however, is a close second, $6,650,000 worth being imported in 12 months. Other large groups are dried fish, coal, rice, salt meats, hardware, fertilisers, boots and shoes, and woods and timber.

Of those imports Canada furnishes less than 4 million dollars worth of bread stuffs, only $12,600 worth of meat; $10,000 in machinery; $130,000 in hardware; $11,000 in apparel; $405,000 in wood; $1,400 in boots and shoes; $127,000 in butter and cheese; $19,300 in vehicles; $285 in lard; $145 in hats and bonnets and $23,000 in fruit.

The West Indies export normally goods to the value of approximately 66 million dollars in one year. The list includes sugar, cocoa, rum, molasses, cocoanut and copra, bananas, chicle, lime juice, coffee, sponges, gold, spices, limes, hides and skins, tobacco, diamonds, salt, oranges, arrowroot, canned fruit, asphalt, hemp, balata, rice mineral oil vegetables cotton, wood manufactures, logwood and extracts.

Canada imports more than $31,000,000 worth of sugar in a year, and only $18,000,000 worth of this comes from the West Indies. She imports $1,500,000 worth of cocoa, and gets about one-third of that from the West Indies. In molasses there is a better showing, our imports are $2,000,000, and $1,800,000 worth of it comes from the West Indies. We import $3,800,000 worth of vegetables, $18,000 worth comes from the West Indies. We import $159,000 worth of lime juice, and get only $6,000 worth from the West Indies. We import more than $14,000,000 of mineral oil and get none at all from the West Indies. We import two and a quarter million dollars worth of coffee and get only approximately one quarter of a million from the West Indies. We import $70,000 worth of sponges getting only $9,000 worth from the West Indies. We import more than half a million dollars worth of spices, of which less than $40,000 comes from the West Indies. We import $4,000,000 of oranges and grape fruits and get less than $40,000 from the West Indies.

A few years ago the publishing of these figures in Canada would have excited little, if any, interest. Today they represent a real opportunity for quite an imposing list of manufacturers in Canada. These manufacturers are already beginning to take advantage of the facilities furnished by the National ships. Flour and grain, cement, amonia, rubber goods, malt, pine lumber, oilmeal, pork, hay, hardware, salt fish, confectionery, auto tires, furniture iron pipes, oil cake, are included among the products carried south. Recently a vessel for Buenos Ayres carried some harvesting machinery, which is expected to be but the vanguard of large shipments of Canadian-made goods in that line. The ships to South America and to Cuba carry much the same general cargo as that enumerated above, and as in the case of the West Indies there is a wide gap between the exports and imports that Canada now trades in, and the exports and imports she might trade in if the opportunities in that direction were more fully developed. Officials of Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited are now on their way to the south seas to ascertain better the lines this development in trade should follow.

There is another aspect of Canadian foreign trade, that will be greatly modified if not entirely removed, as the country's commerce with outside lands grows by the utilization of our national vessels. In Canada we have been at the losing end as far as a considerable list of imports has been concerned. Our friends to the south have been acting as intermediary. They have been importing goods from other lands and we have been importing from them. There seems to be no valid reason why this unsatisfactory system of conducting business should go on now that we have the ships to bring the goods in question from foreign lands to Canadian ports. There is no valid reason why American vessels and American railroads and American brokers should profit out of the handling of these Canadian imports, if the National ships of Canada can bring the goods direct to Canadian shores.

Officers of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited and Canadian National Railways in seeking out tonnage for the National boats find this feature of Canadian trading to be a real barrier in the finding of cargo. A large number of Canadian manufacturers have traded heretofore with outside countries, and it appears to have been a general custom to sell their goods through American firms. These American firms, naturally, have a good deal to say when it came to the matter of routing the tonnage so handled. Consequently there has begun, since the National boats have been in service, a movement to show Canadian manufacturers the advantages of doing business direct with foreign houses, in this way developing ports in Canada and providing tonnage for the rails and ships of the National lines.

It is not generally realized the extent to which these Canadian owned vessels operated to have Canada from the dire effects of a sugar shortage recently. Eleven vessels were utilized to bring in raw sugar from Cuba direct to the docks of Canadian refineries. The total tonnage would probably be in excess of 35,000 tons. There is no doubt that a serious sugar crisis was averted because of the availability of these vessels for this service. No privately-owned boats were operating in that trade, and the probabilities are that we would have awaited the convenience of privately-owned lines to bring this necessary product to our shores.

As ship owners and operators, Canadians are on the threshold of a vast development. This will not come suddenly, but it should be a healthy growth. The object lesson of the Netherland can always be referred to. But a flexible fleet of Nationally-owned commerce carriers is a venture that has passed the experimental stage. Canadian producers, Canadian railways, Canadian sailors and Canadian ports, are all gainers because of the inauguration of the policy of publicly-controlled merchant vessels by the Dominion.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

THE DECLINE OF ART.

(Lawrence, Kan., Journal.)

It is reported that the bloodhounds will be discarded from "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The next thing we know some one will stand on the edge of the frozen ice and throw kewpie dolls at Eliza. Art is not what it used to be.

NEWS FOR THE WEST.

(London Morning Post.)

In Western Canada, where game preservation is unknown, the prairie chicken shooter has to be his own gamekeeper—i.e., to know the habits of the covey and the hours they spend in stubbles and berry patches—which really adds to the interest of the sport. That any man with a gun and a day's leisure can get good shooting is one of the great attractions the "Last West" has for English settlers.

IS FRIENDSHIP COOLING OFF?

THIS IS THE QUESTION AGITATING FRENCH MINDS THESE DAYS

New York, Nov. 21.—The people of France are deeply concerned over a reported cooling of U. S. friendship, which proved so warm during the war, according to Mme. Theresa Jacquemaire, daughter of Premier Clemenceau, who arrived here for a tour in this country.

"It may be the result of enemy propaganda," said Mme. Jacquemaire. "The U. S. soldiers did not see the best of France because everybody but the poorer classes who had undergone long privations, fled the war zone. It is not surprising, therefore, that many of your soldiers seeing only the darker side of life, received an unfavorable impression."

Mme. Jacquemaire said she hoped by means of public lectures to remove some of the misconceptions that have sprung up in this country recently. France, she said, is a new country since the war with a broader outlook on her own natinal life and on the lives of other nations.

BRITAIN FACES PROSPERITY SOON

SIR ROBERT HORNE, LABOR MINISTER, IS HOPEFUL FOR FUTURE

London, Nov. 21.—The subject of unemployment doles was taken up for debate in the House of Commons to-day when Sir Robert Horne, the Minister of Labor, asked a supplementary appropriation of £1,500,000 for unemployment payments. Labor members had made it known they intended to attack the Government for the suppression of doles for civilians.

In presenting his request the Minister of Labor pointed out that the present rate of unemployment was only 2.6 per cent., or about one half the average for the 15 years preceding. He declared there was a certain amount of voluntary idleness in the country that deceit was practiced in some cases, and that some of the idleness was due to fastidiousness regarding employment. He insisted there was a large quantity of employment available if the workers would accept it. He asserted he had no fear for the future as the country was facing a period of prosperity which would enable Great Britain to bear lightly the colossal burden resting upon her shoulders.

John R. Clynes, a leader of the Labor opposition, moved a reduction of the appropriation as a protest against the Government's policy.

WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK

As a winter panacea for coughs and colds Algonquin Park cannot be equalled. Two thousand feet above the sea it is always dry and cold. Days spent in snow-shoe tramps, tobogganing or ski-ing and in skating, together with evenings spent in social converse around the cosy warmth of an old-fashioned log fire; these slip away unnoticed but those who have once experienced them return to their avocations with renewed energies. The "Highland Inn," owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, offers comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. For all particulars apply to N. T. Clarke, Manager, Algonquin Park Station, Ontario.

SINN FEINERS AT LONDON

May Now Attend Parliamentary Sessions at Westminster.

London, Nov. 21.—There are strong rumors in the House of Commons lobbies that the Sinn Fein members are contemplating taking their seats at Westminster coincident with the Cabinet's coming announcement of the Irish Government Bill. It is reported also that Countess Markievicz will appear at the same time, in order to forestall Lady Astor as the first woman member of Parliament, if Lady Astor is elected.

Many an uncivil young man manages to pass a civil service examination.

A woman is sure to be troubled insomia if her husband talks in his sleep.

Thick tongues are responsible for a lot of thin ideas.

Wood's Phosphodine. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins. Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

Gillett's Lye has long been regarded as a household necessity because of the fact that it is useful in so many ways, and so satisfactory in every respect that no woman feels that she can keep house without it. Makes the finest kind of soap for washing and cleansing. One can of Gillett's Lye will make ten pounds of good soap in twenty minutes. Many of its uses are shown in booklet under the label.

"GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT"
Made in Canada

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT AND INDUSTRIAL POISONING

Royal Meeker, United States commissioner of labor statistics, is unable to discern any clear line of demarcation between industrial accident and industrial poisoning or disease as a reason for compensation, and because of the very large amount of disease bred in industry he lays particular emphasis on this manifestation in a recent address.

"The loss of the use of a kind affects the health of the worker just as vitally whether his disability is caused by an exposed gear or by lead poisoning," Dr. Meeker declares. "The economic effects of disabilities are the same, no matter how produced. It is most encouraging to learn that there is an increasing tendency to put industrial poisoning and sickness on the same footing as industrial accidents. Unquestionably illness due to unhealthful conditions in industry should be compensated in the same manner as disabilities due to so called accidents.

"In forty-one of the states of the union the legislatures have given tardy and only half-hearted recognition to the principle that accidental injuries to work in industry constitute a part of the cost of production in that industry, just as damage to machinery, tools and material is a part of the cost of production, regardless of the fault or negligence of either the employer or the employe." And he maintains that the same compensation laws should apply to industrial illness as to industrial accidents.

Hazard of Ill Health.

Dr. Meeker continues: "The extent to which industry is a contributing factor in sickness is almost unrecognized even by industrial physicians. In my opinion, the industrial hazard of ill health is vastly greater than the industrial hazard from accidents. It is more difficult, however, to determine responsibility for illness because home conditions, bad food, bad housing, insufficient sleep, bad social conditions, infected water supply and other conditions outside of the plant are contributing causes to the breakdown of health. Nevertheless, industries cannot disclaim responsibility for illness because factors outside industry are contributing causes of ill health. The factory inspectors can perform a much needed service by insisting that factories and workshops shall be lighted according to the best standards laid down in lightning codes and that industrial establishments shall be provided with sufficient toilet and wash-room facilities and with proper locker rooms for street and work clothes, abundant, pure and cooled drinking water, pure air, free from dangerous and discomforting dust, smoke and fumes.

"Temperature and humidity have been demonstrated as having a most important effect upon the health and efficiency of workers. So far as these are within control, they should be regulated so as to enable the workers to perform their tasks with the minimum amount of fatigue and loss of vitality.

Fatigue a Disease.

"I am convinced that by far the most important of all industrial disease is fatigue. Of course, not all fatigue is caused by work. The fatigue due to keeping late hours dancing, drinking and carousing, however, is utterly negligible compared to the accumulated fatigue of hard, monotonous work in factory or store under bad conditions of light, ventilation, temperature and humidity. It must also be borne in mind that workers are human beings and that amusement and relaxation are just as essential to men as are food and raiment. Most of the dissipation workers are accused of is the result of the monotonous, fatiguing character of their daily work.

"The employer must be assisted to comprehend that his workmen deserve at least as humane treatment as his machines and mules. Both the public and employes, however, need a thorough course in industrial hygiene in its relation to general health, efficiency in production and national welfare."

It is impossible to defeat an ignorant man in an argument.

THE COAL SITUATION

Hope For Supply From Nova Scotia If Weather God.

Ottawa, Nov. 21. — The Government, through the offices of the Dominion Fuel Controller, is keeping a watchful eye on the coal situation. Reports from Washington indicate that, though the United States authorities are willing to take care of extreme cases, they take the stand that they have no coal at the present time.

Coal might be obtained from Nova Scotia, according to an official of the Fuel Control staff, if the weather remained sufficiently mild for the railroads to move it. This, however, would be an expensive proceeding, as the long haul would add materially to the cost of the fuel.

DON'T LOOK OLD FROM HERE UP

A little "Danderine" checks [illegible] dandruff and stops hair falling

Get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications often remove every bit of dandruff and stops falling hair. Every hair on scalp shortly shows more life, vigor, brightness, thickness and color.

FEMININE LOGIC

The young lady across the way says she's glad to say her father believes in the profit sharing plan and she overheard him say he had decided to declare an extra dividend on the common stock.

WIT AND WISDOM

Knew the Sex

It was evidently her first trip to the hair goods department of the great emporium and she was noticeably embarrassed.

"I—er—wish to look at some—er—false hair," she stammered.

"Very well, miss," rejoined the diplomatic salesman. "What shade does your friend wish?"

Real Mean

Mayme—I have so many callers pestering the life out of me I hardly know what to do with them all.

Grayce—Why, how long have you been a telephone operator?

Cornered

She asked the parson to guess her age,
A thoughtless thing forsooth!
The good man dared not tell a lie
  Nor dared he tell the truth.

MAKE SURE YOU GET THE RIGHT KIND

We cannot impress too strongly upon the Canadian people that there is no Tablet just like Dr. Norvall's; there is no Tablet just as good as Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. There may be tablets that look like Norvall's; they may even taste like Norvall's, but do not be deceived—they will not have the same gentle laxative and tonic effect as Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. In a word, to relieve Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Sick Headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves.

CHANGES PREMIER

Allied Influence Responsible For New Head of Cabinet

Copenhagen, Nov. 21.—The Hungarian Cabinet has agreed to the demand of Sir George Clerk, the British representative, that Dr. Friedrich relinquish the premiership, according to advices from Budapest.

Karl Huszar, Minister of Public Instruction and Worship, has been designated Premier and charged with the formation of a Cabinet.

The new Cabinet must be approved by the Entente and comply with the Entente's condition that complete freedom and impartiality in the elections is assured.

FARMERS' BUSINESS

For the past 54 years, this Bank has given particular attention to the business of Farmers.

We have helped many over the rough places, and have aided many more to the highest plane of success.

We are prepared to extend you every aid within legitimate banking practice.

Come in at any time and talk over your affairs with us. You are always welcome.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, Manager.

DOMINION LIFE ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT, SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS
INSURANCE
Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 172 HUNTER STREET

GRAND
TO-DAY ONLY
P.M. SHARP
VALESKA SURATT
—IN—
"THE SOUL OF BROADWAY"
- TOM MIX -
—IN—
"SIX CYLINDER LOVE"
A SUNSHINE COMEDY—MUTT & JEFF CARTOONS
GRAND CONCERT ORCHESTRA

SATURDAY MATINEE & EVENING
THE GREAT NEW YORK MUSICAL SUCCESS
"GLORIANNA"
The Rainbow Division of Musical Comedies
WITH
AN ALL STAR CAST
And The Daintiest—Danciest—Prettiest Girls Ever Seen
100 PER CENT BEAUTY CHORUS
PRICES—EVE. $1.00-75c-50c-25c. Popular Price Matinee 50c-25c
SEATS ON SALE NOW

COMING MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
D. W. GRIFFITH'S SUBLIME CREATION
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
Seats on Sale Now

THEATRICALS

"EXPERIENCE" A PLAY OF UNUSUAL MERIT

PRESENTED TO APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE AT THE GRAND LAST NIGHT

"Experience" a play of most unusual merit, was the arraction at the Grand last night and drew a capacity house. This play although having been seen here before seemed to take particularly well with the audience. It is an allegorical morality play by George V. Hobart and the author treats his subject in a most masterly way. He knows of all the temptations a young man has on leaving his home and going to the big city and shows how, as is often the case, the boy loses ambition and sinks in the slough of despondency.

The story opens with youth saying farewell to his sweetheart Love and being spurred on by Ambition to go out and make his mark in the world. On the "street of vaccilation" they meet Experience who remains with Youth to the end of the Story. They also meet pleasure whose seductive pictures of the "primrose path" convince Youth that he must tarry with her for a time. Opportunity calls to him but he is too busy listening to Pleasure to pay any attention to her.

The next scene is of the "primrose path" and shows a cabaret in which several young people are dancing and wining. This scene is almost realistic one. Here Youth meets Fashion Curiosity, Blueblood, Style, Frivolity, Conceit, Snob, Beauty, Deceit, Slander, Pride, Wealth, Intoxication, Passion and Beauty. While Youth was flirting with Intoxication, Ambition dies. Here Wealth shows him how to throw his money away.

The next scene opens in a gaming house. Here you see all the paraphernalia for gambling. Youth is more than successful in his first ventures but Chance urges him to play more and as a result he loses his all.

In the "street of disillusion" he meets old man Work but considers him a rather rough customer. He is snubbed by all his former friends of the "primrose path," and decides that after all Work is the friend he wants, so goes in search of him. He has considerable difficulty in locating this gentleman, but finally in the House of Last Resort he is successful in getting a position as a waiter. Here the audience is introduced to Grouch, Frailty, Makeshift, Rogue and several others of the same class.

In the "street of remorse" Youth is being pursued by Poverty but meets Delusion, who assures him of being able to show him a way to dodge this grim pursuer. He is taken to a joint where are seen the poor souls who are slaves to the drug habit. He meets Crime here who agrees to take him to a place where they can get more of the drug which their systems crave. They go down the "street of forgotten days" but here Youth finally finds himself and bids Crime to be on his way.

In the final scene Youth is united to Love, his old sweetheart and Experience assures him that he will always remain with him as an encouragement.

"Experience" is a remarkable play. The lesson it teaches is quite evident and should be seen by all: Aside from the moral side of the piece the acting was extremely good and the costuming and scenic effects were all that could be desired. It is an assured fact that if "Experience" ever comes back to Peterborough the standing room only sign will have to be put out.

VALESKA SURATT IN "THE SOUL OF BROADWAY"

One of the big events of the season will be the showing of "The Soul of Broadway," a William Fox picture, featuring Valeska Suratt, which comes to the Grand today only.

It is one of the most vivid exposes of Broadway night life ever enacted for the screen and carries a far-reaching lesson.

It tells the story of a woman who worships Broadway and money. She is admired by a rogue, who supplies her with everything she wants. A bank president becomes madly infatuated with her. He steals for her, lies for her and eventually goes to prison through his defalcations. The woman lives on in her wild glory, and one night recognizes him when she is making her professional debut on the stage as a dancer. Then follow vivid gambling house scenes, sensational episodes, leading up to one of the most dramatic climaxes ever put on the screen.

"GLORIANNA"

THE MUSICAL COMEDY OF THE SEASON AT GRAND TOMORROW

No expense was spared by the producers of the great New York comedy success "Glorianna," which plays at the Grand on Saturday matinee and evening, in securing the most gorgeous costumes for its "rainbow chorus" of prize beauties, whose clever and graceful dancing and harmonious musical scores created such a tremendous sensation on Broadway. The production is said to be the most expensive sent out of New York this season and the local management is congraulating itself upon its success in booking such a popular attraction for its theatre. Brimful of catchy songs, graceful dances, beautiful girls, talented principals, gorgeous costumes, realistic and artistic settings and a theme that sparkles with mirth from beginning to end. "Glorianna" bids fair to score the banner triumph of the local theatrical season.

ALLEN THEATRE
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
ETHEL CLAYTON
—in—
"A SPORTING CHANCE"
Here is an especially good Clayton picture. She meets a man in prison stripes on a deserted road, shields him from his pursuers and—
What do you suppose she gets for her trouble? Oh, boy! Romance!
In Addition: Episode No. 9
"THE RED GLOVE"
CHRISTIE COMEDY
Saturday Continuous Policy
Coming
"LORD AND LADY ALGY"
With
TOM MOORE

OFFICERS WERE WILLING TO PLAY

BUT MONTREAL FOOTBALL TEAMS SHOWED LACK OF SPORTING SPIRIT

Montreal, Nov. 21 — In connection with the decision of McGill not to meet M.A.A.A. for the Dominion Rugby championship, the Gazette says.

"The 'slow-down' or as some designate it. the 'back-down,' continued to engage the attention of fooball followers yesterday, although the unfavorable turn in the weather served to relieve the disappointment of those who had hoped for the opportunity of witnessing a worth-while game in the Molsom Stadium.

Lack of Spirit.

No one was inclined to dispute the right of the players to decide for themselves when they had enough football and there is no question of courage involved. The fact that so many of the players of both teams have good war records eliminated any such suggestion. But in the ranks of both teams there was shown a lack of sporting spirit, for which old-timers are at a loss to account. The officers back of each club seemed anxious and willing for the game, but there was a clique of players on each team who were determined and they prevailed upon their team-mates to fall in with their views.

McGill Unwilling.

"One thing was cleared up by the development of Tuesday and this justified the resentment of President Bill Ewing against the impression that McGill was willing while his team had declined battle. From what could be learned yesterday the McGill team was, if anything, a bit more unwilling than most of the M.A.A.A players. When the college players decided to go to the Peel st. club house it was more with the intention of geeting out of a game than getting into one. If the McGill Club had not allowed the impression to prevail that it was willing for battle there would have been no challenge from the M. A. A. A. executive."

OMEMEE

(Special Correspondence)

Omemee, Nov. 21.—Friends of Mr and Mrs. Richard Poast, are pleased to see them home again after a pleasant summer spent with their daughters at Saskatoon.

ple guessing the hymn; the result o to Sir John and Lady Eaton of Toronto, was received with great interest in Omemee, where Lady Eaton is so well known. Toronto papers state that a million dollar victory bond was Sir John's first gift to his daughter.

Mrs. E. Jamieson was the hostess of an afternoon tea on Wednesday.

Miss Lila Parsons returned on Monday from Toronto where she was sent as a delegate from the Women's Institute of Omemee, to the convention of the Federation of Women's Institutes, which was held in the technical school, Toronto.

Mr. McGregor, editor of the Review attended the meeting on Consolidate Schools, which was held in Coronation Hall on Tuesday night.

Mr. J. W. Deyell, business manager of "The Warder" Lindsay, was in Omemee on Tuesday night.

Inspectors Lees of Durham, Chisholm, of Peterborough and Broderick of Lindsay, were speakers at the meeting held in Coronation Hall on Tuesday night.

The Methodist League of Omemee entertained the Bethel League on Monday evening, the young people of Bethel furnishing the programme, after which a musical contest which consisted of a bar played from some of the oldest hymns, the young people guessing th ehymn; the result of which was a tie. Mrs. I. Rehill and Mrs Boyd; Miss Switzer and Mr Stillman, getting eleven out of the twelve hymns. The serving of refreshments brought to a close a delightful evening.

The Misses Annie and Irene Clement entertained a number of friends on Tuesday evening.

Reeves Wilson, of Emily; Patterson, of Ops; and Parsons of Omemee are attending county council this week.

The man who attends to his own affairs has no time to laugh at the mistakes of others.

LOCAL WOMEN'S

(Continued From Page 1)

idea's of earnest endeavor for the betterment of human beings, such disinterested co-operation for good, such absolute freedom from petty prejudices as regards religion, race and social standing. In whatever walk of life we choose to follow, it is imperative that we keep before our vision a fixed ideal. If we would live to the fullest possible extent we must devote our energies so to reach this one star in the firmament of our existence. So, it is with an organization as with an individual. It must set before it some definite ideal—must adopt as its source of inspiration some certain motto and for the members of the club, he was addressing, suggested the slogan which he had chosen as the subject of his discourse, "Men Before Things."

Materialism.

Continuing, the reverend doctor referred to materialism as that hackneyed term given by speakers and writers of the past four years, as the root and cause of the recent national upheaval. This was the word we heard echoed on thousands of lips and as it is so easy to use a word without realizing its exact meaning, he wondered if the greater number had not formed a misconception as regards this term and its relation to the world war. Materialism, in its final solution, means money, fine clothes, fine houses, luxuries, etc., and we could not reasonably blame those things in themselves as the cause of the war, but was it not rather the putting of these things first that was the direct reason for the one deep stain over the page of humanity's history. It was the duty of every individual to fight against this element with the opposing ideal of "men before things." The speaker quoted at length from a passage by John Ruskin, in which that eminent thinker asserts that "there is no wealth but life." The foremost consideration of every intelligent individual as well as organization should ever be the production of men and women of the highest possible type. The speaker went on to say that by reason of personal experience it is his firm conviction that the people will contribute any amount of money for the furthering of a worthy cause provided they are really convinced of its necessity.

Thanks From the Club.

Mrs. James Kendry thanked the speaker on behalf of the members of the club, expressing their appreciation of this illuminating address, which she hoped would be an inspiration for good, and one which would be practically applied in future endeavors of the club. At this meeting it was unanimously agreed that the members of the club hold their meetings in the lecture room of the Public Library in the future.

MANDATE OVER EASTERN GALICIA

POLAND SECURES THIS FOR 25 YEARS UNDER LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Nov. 21.—The Supreme Council has given Poland a mandate over Eastern Galicia for a period of 25 years under the League of Nations' agreement, and at the end of that time will determine the future of the country.

Songs O' the Sea

OLD JOCK paused for a moment from his arduous labor of back splicing a hemp strop. Eagerly he relit his obstinate clay pipe. A smile of satisfaction shone over his weather-beaten old face as the smoke came anew in clouds, writes A. R. W. Curran Reedy, in Blighty, London. Without a moment's hesitation he resumed his work with marlinspike and neatly whipped strands. At the same time he commenced yet another of those queer rhythmic jargons of his old sailing days.

As a boy Jock roamed around the Pacific in an old American windjammer. He retains much that is characteristic of clipper days. No word of his ever speaks in praise of steamships; he is an encyclopedia of sail. Turbines do not interest him, but he can spin a yarn for both dog watches on every yard of canvas from the main skysail to the flying jib. He swears by the old sailing ships.

Jock's particular weakness is for song. He must know thousands of chanties, for he rolls them off unheeding like verses from the Book of Solomon. His voice is cracked, and his knowledge of music is probably negligible. Certainly he betrays little evidence of any. But as he hauls on the deck tackle or does something for which some effort is essential, a wheezy chorus instinctively bursts from his wizened throat:

Oh, was you never down Lima way,
 Down Lima way?
There's golden rivers, so they say,
 Down Lima way.
Heave 'er taut! Heave 'er taut!
An' clap on e'ry stitch fer Lima port.
Good-bye, my bonnie lassie,
We're off to Cal-la-o,
 Down Lima way!

He has songs for every occasion. Movement inspires him to a fresh outburst. Most of his repertoire is crudely comic, a little of sentimental and some quite dismally maudlin.

When spoken to concerning his chanties old Jock relapses into a uncommunicative mood. He thinks we are poking fun at him. The reserve of some old seamen is sphinxlike. Occasionally a few bare details will half unconsciously escape him, but only as a concession to a stolid perseverance.

Every line of his queer jargons smacks of the salt seas. The brine bubbles in the ambling gait of them. He has snatches of song more or less appropriate to every job aboard ship, from working a capstan to "bowsing" a halliard taut. We sternly set our faces against ribald laughter simply to hear the wheezy old relic of bygone days "get under way" with a new inspiration.

In his unctuous way he is funnier than Coquelin or Dan Leno.

In a particularly confidential burst he recently related that in the old sailing days of his youth — "when seamen were seamen" — each crew of working hands was led by a chanteyman, who sang a line or two of recitative,: haphazard nonsense, to which the toiling seamen added a so-called chorus. Jock assured us that a chanteyman he once knew who hailed from Florida could keep a crew singing for an hour without once repeating himself. Old Jock rates him a step higher than Nelson, side by side with Capt. Kidd and Paul Jones. We sometimes think that he once shipped under the Jolly Roger—but there's nothing about it on his papers.

Old Jock is still singing. His voice floats down from the boat deck above:

'Er skipper's name was Aaron Rugg,
 His face was ripe ma-hog-any!
Aye! Aye! he loved a well-filled jug,
He'd keel a nigger an' string a thug;
 But he wasn't the chap to log any.

Jock is going ahead with his quaint nonsense at a rate o' knots. The sea road is thronged with all sorts of queer folk, but Jock is the queerest to be encountered in many a mile.

Daily Thought.

In books lies the soul of the whole past time.—Carlyle.

MONEY TALKS
AT
DAWSON BROS.
TRY OUR PROFIT-SHARING SYSTEM
CASH DISCOUNTS THAT COUNT
Most discount sales are made on only special articles of a limited quantity and for a limited time. Our discounts apply to everything we have on sale in the store without any exceptions. And they are working all the time.
CASH DISCOUNT on Mondays will be 5 per cent., or 5c on every dollar.
CASH DISCOUNT on all other days will be 2 per cent., or 2c on every dollar spent.
READ THIS OVER CAREFULLY
and you will readily see that it pays to give us your Grocery orders.
DELIVERY TO ALL PARTS OF THE CITY.
Dawson Bros.
- GROCERS -
Cor. George and London Sts. Phone 1620
650 Roger St. - Phone 1041w

EMPIRE THEATRE
OLIVE TELL
—IN—
"THE TRAP"
A SPECIAL PRODUCTION BY RICHARD HARDING DAVIS
Adapted from popular book of similar name. A story of the Klondike during the gold rush. You know the story well. Wasn't it good? Well, the picture is fathoms better and more realistic.
FANNIE WARD
—IN—
"THE PROFITEERS"
The why and wherefore of the H. C. of L. profiteering in foodstuff by an unscrupulous gang of conscienceless dollar-chasers.
COMEDY
Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"
The Serial will be shown first at each Performance.
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c
"THE BEST MUSIC IN THE CITY"

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.39 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:58 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.

No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland North Bay and Toronto.

No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.

No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.

No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.

No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.

No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.

No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.

No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.

No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

A BUSINESS MEN'S FIVE PIN LEAGUE

November.
- 24th—De Laval v. Brinton Carpet.
- 25th—Lawn Bowlers v. Pastimes.
- 26th—Clerks v. Post Office.
- 2th—Leftovers v. Centrals.

December.
- 1st—Post Office v. Centrals.
- 2nd—Lawn Bowlers v. Clerks.
- 3rd—Leftovers v. Brinton Carpet.
- 4th—Pastimes v. De Laval.
- 8th—Lawn Bowlers v. Leftovers.
- 9th De Laval v. Clerks.
- 10th—Post Office v. Brin. Carpet.
- 11th—Centrals v. Pastimes.
- 15th—De Laval v. Leftovers.
- 16th—Lawn Bowlers v. Brin Car.
- 17th—Post Office v. Pastimes.
- 18th—Clerks v. Centrals.

Open Dates.
- Brinton Carpet v. Centrals.
- Post Office v. Leftovers.
- Clerks v. Pastimes.
- De Laval v. Lawn Bowlers.

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estate

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE
NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160-AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
163 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-362

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

TWO AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE AT CORNER

ONE WHEEL BROKEN OFF ONE CAR WHILE OTHER SUFFERS DAMAGED LIGHT

Another case of failing to grant the right of way resulted in an automobile accident about 8:00 o'clock last night. It happened at the corner of Hunter and Mark streets.

Charles Clarke was driving the Examiner car, north on Mark street and was crossing the corner of Hunter street, when John Londes, driving east, on Hunter street, failing to notice the former car, smashed into the middle of it. The right rear wheel of the Examiner car was broken off and Mr. Londe's car had one light broken.

No person was injured.

50 Ladies Winter Coats for Quick Selling Saturday

Another "TEN BIG SPECIAL SALE" That Makes Possible the Saving of Real Money, Buying Your Winter Coat

50 OF AS STYLISH AND UP-TO-THE-MINUTE COATS A SHAVE BEEN ON THE FLOOR THIS SEASON, GO TO MAKE UP THE "TEN BIG SPECIALS" FOR SATURDAY. THEY ARE COATS OF VELOUR, COATS OF SILVERTONE, COATS OF PLUSH, COATS WITH SELF COLLARS AND COATS WITH FUR COLLARS. THEY ARE COATS THAT WILL APPEAL TO YOU WITHOUT ANY QUESTION FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THEIR STYLE, AND IN THE STURDY GOOD QUALITY OF THE MATERIALS FROM WHICH THEY ARE MADE. THE SEASON'S BEST SHADES ARE REPRESENTED, TOO.

1ST OF THE "BIG TEN"

Coats of beaver cloth, made in pretty belted styles, button trimmed, inset pockets, convertible collars, half lined. Colors: taupe, green, black and brown. Price $32.50

2ND OF THE "BIG TEN"

Coats in blanket cloth and fancy tweeds, belted and full backs, half lined, button trimmed. Colors: green, brown, and grey. All sizes ..... Price $19.50

3RD OF THE "BIG TEN"

Black Metalamb, made in full belted model; large convertible collar of plush; inset pockets, full lined. All sizes. Price $25.00

4TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Black Salt's Sealette Plush, made with full back, belted front, large convertible collar, full lined, all sizes. Price $37.50

5TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Velour Coats at $35.00, including all the newest styles and collars. Full swagger backs, also belted models, half lined, all sizes. Colors: cocoa, brown, henna and navy. Price $35.00

6TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Coats in velour and silvertone, in fancy belted models, trimmed with buttons, large convertible collars; half lined. nibrown, green and grey. All sizes. Price $38.50

7TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Silvertone Velour Coats at $37.50, made with full back that hangs from a pretty yoke, half lined, belted fronts, trimmed with buttons. Colors: brown, taupe and grey. Price $37.50

8TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Salt's Plush Coats at $42.50; made in full belted model, pretty collar that can be worn up or down. Full lined. All sizes. Price $42.50

9TH OF THE "BIG TEN"

Full Trimmed Velour Coats at $55.00, in brown and taupe, and made with full back, deep armhole, oppossum collar, half lined, button trimmed. Price $55.00

LAST OF THE "BIG TEN"

All-wool velour, made with side panels, gathered back, belted all round, half lined; brown only. Price $28.50

Remarkable Value in Serge Dresses

20 SPLENDID AND AS STYLISH SERGE DRESSES AS THE SEASON HAS PRODUCED

We are selling these at $18.50 and $25 on Saturday. The quantity of each is limited, and if you are in want of a serge dress you should not miss one of them.

THE FIRST IS $18.50

Navy Serge Dresses at $18.50, in the straight line model; fancy vests, and collar of beige serge, button trimming. Sizes 16 and 18 only ..... Price $18.50

THE SECOND IS $25.00

Serge Dress at $25.00, in good quality, made in pretty style; embroidered on waist and pockets, fancy sash and belt round the neck. Colors: brown and navy. Price $25.00

$8.00 to $10.00 HATS

SATURDAY ONLY FOR

$3.50

25 only smartly trimmed Hats. Made of the best quality of velvets, trimmed with ostrich feathers and flowers. We are extremely fortunate in being able to make this offer, as they actually sell regularly from $8.00 to $10.00 ..... Saturday only, each $3.50

$9.00 Sweater Coats at $4.95

25 Sweater Coats, each garment pure wool; most of them coat styles; plain and fancy knit; convertible and shawl collars, pockets and belts: Colors, cardinal, khaki, navy, black and white and green ..... Price $4.95

Silk Petticoats at $3.95

Silk Petticoats, in shot effect; ade with pretty scalloped flounce, finished with tucks and sail frills, in black, navy, green, orchid. Regular $5.85, for $3.95

"QUARTER OFF" SALE OF FURS, COMMENCING SATURDAY

These Furs are to be cleared at exactly one quarter less than the regular price. All are thoroughly reliable quality and in the lot you will find Black Wolf, Red Fox, Alaska Sable, Coon and many of the less expensive Furs. We are anxious to make a complete clearance of this lot, comprising nearly 100 pieces, and commencing on Saturday will give you your choice at exactly

"ONE QUARTER LESS THAN REGULAR PRICE"

We absolutely guarantee the quality of each piece of Fur sold.

SAVE $7.00 ON A DINNER SET SATURDAY

$32.00 English Semi-Porcelain Dinner Sets for $25.00

These Dinner Sets are made from the best quality of English semi-porcelani. You can have round or oval vegetable dishes and kermis cups, and they are a full 97-piece set in each case. Two very pretty band patterns. Regular $32.00. For Saturday only $25.00

Buy a $1.50 Lantern in the Basement for $1.09

Bestq quality of Stable Lanterns; strong, well made, clear glass absolutely perfect in every way. Sold at $1.50 the country over ..... Saturday at each, only $1.09

Saturday is the Last Day of the 4 Day BROOM SALE

A BROOM AND DUST PAN FOR 59c

400 well made, strong Corn Brooms. These are Brooms that are suitable for general household use and are of exceptional weight and quality. Made to sell at 75c apiece. Saturday only 59c

OILED HAIR BROOMS FOR $1.19

These are splendid quality of fine Hair Brooms with screw in handle and particularly suitable for hardwood floors, oilcloths, linoleums, etc. Regular $1.75, for $1.19

These are extra strongly made Stable Brooms; in fact they were made for the war department and had to pass government inspection. They are made of strong bristles and embodied in a basswood back and sell regularly for $1.75. Saturday only $1.19

COMBINATION BROOM AT 59c

This is a heavy broom specially made for outside use. You will find it particularly good for verandah use, for sweeping light snow off the sidewalks, or for any other purpose for which you require a broom that is coarser than the ordinary household broom. These brooms are on sale Saturday only 59c

THE WHITE PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Saturday is the last day that you can purchase a "WHITE" Sewing Machine at the special Club Price, as the expert from the factory leaves us that evening. The "WHITE" is Canada's Premier Sewing Machine. It is easy to operate, and the Progressive Club Plan makes it very easy to pay for one. When you join the club we deliver the Machine to your home, and you can be paying for it in easy weekly payments as arranged. Come and let Mrs. Kemp talk matters over with you and show you just how perfect a new "WHITE" Rotary Sewing Machine is.

In the Economy Basement you will get These

Fancy Semi-Porcelain Jugs—Plain and floral bands, glaze finished; many designs to choose from. Each 25c

Brown Betty Custard Cups—These are made from good quality of glazed crockery and are fire proof. Each, only 10c

Clothes Pins—Smoothly finished, made well and very strong ..... 5 dozen for 10c

Round Steel Ash Sifters — Complete with handle. Each 25c

Granite Stove Pots—6 quart size, complete with cover 75c

Granite Dish Pans—Made from best quality of serviceable granite: 10 quart size 65c 14 quart size 75c 17 quart size 85c

12 Bars of Turnbull's Special Soap and 2 Bars of N. P. Laundry Soap. The lot for Saturday, only $1.00

2 Packages of Soap Flakes and 1 Can Old Dutch Cleanser. Saturday only 29c

7 Packages of Sunlight, Lifebuoy or Comfort Soap. Saturday ..... 7 Cakes for 57c

AT THE TOILET COUNTER

Colgate's Cashmere Bouquet Soap—Small size, per cake	10c
Cardinal and Silk Skin Soap—Three in box, per box	35c
Jersey Cream Toilet Soap—Good size cake which is very superior	6 Cakes for 25c
Medium Size Square Bar Castile Soap for	10c
Mennen's Dental Cream, each	19c
Rubber Gloves—Splendid to save the hands. All sizes, pair	69c
Hair Brushes—Good stiff bristles, firmly imbedded in backs. Each	29c
Hot Water Bottles—Made from a good quality of rubber	98c
Turkish Face Cloths, each	10c
Hughs Hair Brushes—These are absolutely guaranteed. They can be washed and cleansed in water. People who have tried them are enthusiastic in praising them. Each	$1.50 & $2.00
Dressing Combs—Good quality of vulcanized rubber	15c & 25c
Writing Paper—Put up in fancy boxes, suitable for Christmas giving, per box	10c, 25c, & 35c

FAMOUS MELBA PREPARATIONS

Melba Soap, per cake	20c
Melba Talcum	30c & 70c
Melba Lip Stick, light and dark shades	30c & 40c
Melba Face Cleanser	60c
Melba Face Cream	60c
Melba Travelling Set of Skin Cleanser and Skin Massage	70c
Melba Face Powder, Brunette	70c & 90c
Flesh and White	$1.25, $1.50
Melbaline Face Powder, box	30c
Melba Toilet Water	75c, $1.50, $1.75
Melbaline Perfume, ounce	$1.00
Melba Perfume, ounce	$2.00

Six Rousing Extras from the Bedding Department Saturday Only

To make room for Toyland we have had to condense our bedding and housefurnishing department and crowd both of them into space usually occupied by one—that is the reason for having these extras on Saturday

COTTON FELT MATTRESSES AT $15.39

All blown cotton felt, roll edge, with rounded corners, neatly tufted, covered in good grade art ticking, full size, 4 ft. 6 in. wide by 6 ft. long. Regular $17.50. Saturday only $15.39

DIVANETTES AT $47.50

The frame is of fumed oak and is upholstered in strong imitation Spanish brown leather; opens into a double bed; has good soft link spring, complete with wool mattress. Regular $65.00. Saturday only $47.50

JAVA DOWN MATTRESS $25.89

These fine Mattresses are filide with pure white kapok filling; they are light and soft. A mattress that will stand well for years; guaranteed to be sanitary. Size 4½ feet wide. Regular $30.00 ..... Saturday only $25.89

BED SPRING $4.39

Made on a hard maple wood frame, with double twisted steel wire and copper wire edge; supported with strong rope cables; will not sag; in all regulation sizes, 3 ft. to 4 ft. 6 in. wide. Regular $6.50. Saturday only $4.39

ALL-WOOL MATTRESS $13.59

One of our best selling Mattresses, filled with clean sanitized wool, finely picked and combed; very comfortable to lie on; splendidly built and tufted; neat roll cable edge; full size. Regular $15.50. Saturday only $13.95

BRASS BEDS $22.98

Heavy two-inch posts with flat knobs on corners; half-inch upright fillers, with fancy encased design. A real good value for brass beds. Size 4 ft. 6 in. Saturday only $22.98

HEAVY WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, $18.79

Massive inch square and round corner Enamel Beds; one-inch upright pillar; beautifully finished, including electro-welded makes. Full size, 4½ ft. Saturday only $18.79

THESE WILL FIX UP THE HOME AT A SMALL COST

THESE SIX MONEY SAVINGS WILL HELP YOU

INSERTION TRIMMED WINDOW SHADES

White, cream or green, with four-inch lace insertion, size 37 ins. wide by 70 ins. long; complete with reliable spring rollers, brackets, ring pull and nails. Regular $1.65. Saturday only $1.17

COCOA MATTING

Strong quality of Calcutta fibre Cocoa Matting for outside steps, etc.; 36 inches wide ..... Saturday only, per yard 79c

DUNDEE REVERSIBLE RUGS

Positively the best value procurable; a full range of colors, made in medallion designs in two-tone shades of brown and green. Note sizes and prices:

3 x 3 yards.	Saturday only	$9.00
3x3½ yards.	Saturday only	$10.50
3 x 4 yards.	Saturday only	$12.00

CURTAIN SCRIMS, 27c

A big lot of these fine American Scrims in various fancy drawn work borders, in colors of ecru, cream and white. Thirty-six inches wide ..... Saturday only 27c

DYED BURLAP, 58c

A much delayed delivery of Dyed Burlap in colors brown, green and red; 36 inches wide, for curtains; does round room walls, etc. ..... Yard 58c

FLAT CASEMENT RODS, 19c

Will extend to 45 inches wide; made of dull brushed brass; ⅜ inch wide for casement windows or glass doors. Saturday only 19c

TOYLAND OPENS NEXT WEEK

This will be good news for the kiddies. It will be bigger, brighter and more attractive than ever, and filled from end to end with Toys that will delight the little folk. Watch the papers for the date of announcement of the formal opening.

RENEW YOUR SUBSCRIPTION NOW THE DESIGNER FOR 1920 YEAR 80c

This subscription list will be open for a short time only. The price is els sthan half when bought monthly by single copies at magazine or pattern counter. Can you imagine a 100-page magazine for only six and two-third cents per month? The Designer is a household and story magazine as well as an authoritative fashion magazine, and one of the most comprehensive monthly publications offered to-day. Stories from the best writers of fiction are running monthly in this book. New subscriptions and renewals taken now at pattern counter. Begin with the Christmas number. ONE YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION, 1920, ONLY 80 CENTS.

J. C. TURNBULL

CO., Ltd.

MR. J. H. BURNHAM

(Continued from Page One.)

in hand with the soldier individually, although the soldier must be re-adjusted individually and not in the mass. There is where the mistake has been made. How is this mistake to be repaired? I would answer by extending the bridge of dollars and cents where necessary between the returning soldier and his work in civil life until such time as the government can say: "We have offered you all a suitable niche to get into. You are re-adjusted as you would have re-adjusted yourselves if it had been left to you. Our task is done." That extension of the bridge and the re-adjustment of every individual soldier has not yet been provided for, and the unrest of the idle soldier will continue until all are all provided for, and justly so. When the report of the Special Committee was brought in for adoption as final it met with such strenuous opposition from the G.W.V.A. and their friends in the House that the Minister in charge of it, Mr. Calder, agreed that it should not be adopted as final but simply be received, and that the whole matter of re-establishment should be left open for further consideration, not by the committee but by the government itself. This excellent compromise was sustained by a large majority, and the investigation of the soldiers' further recommendations is still proceeding. Major Andrews withdrew his amendment in the face of this excellent arrangement. The only other motion or amendment beside the one voted on before the House was Mackenzie King's, which read as follows: "That the said motion or amendment be not concurred in, but that the said report now under consideration be sent back to the said committee for further consideration." This amendment contains no suggestion whatever. Even The Examiner would not have voted for it in preference to the one which carried pledging the government to re-open the whole question.

Soldiers' Actual Need.

For the information of the public it should be stated that the basis of the soldiers' complaint is always and only the actual need of the soldier. No one can deny that where the actual need honestly exists it should be provided for by employment and its auxiliaries, and therefore the hope of a final satisfactory settlement of the whole question may be reasonably hoped for. The situation was seriously disturbed by the statement of the government that it had no money for further suggestions, when as a matter of fact it had plenty of money for new business transactions, portions of which are open to very serious criticism. But even worse than that is the fact that vast profits were made during the war by people at home over and above their ordinary pre-war intake, and instead of taking all. These extra profits the soldier finds that the government has left very large amounts in the hands of profiteers, who not only now enjoy a luxury they could not attempt before, but who, in many cases, go standard of conduct must be. Is it any wonder that the soldier is enraged? When I suggested in reply to a question from the minister asking how further money could be raised, that it would be easy to raise a soldiers' loan as no money of the other loans had gone out of the country, he asked me how the interest was to be paid on say a four hundred million soldiers' loan. The answer of course was, and is, that those people who made money out of the war over and above their pre-war intake should be made to give up that money for this purpose and the soldier cannot do better than see that it is done. This amount, together with the one hundred million thrown to the speculators in G.T.R. stocks, would pay the interest and part of the sinking fund on a soldiers' loan. The balance can be provided for out of natural resources.

The Money Obtainable.

In a word, the soldiers' re-establishment has not been properly or adequately completed. If further money is needed it can be and should be obtained. As the two old political parties have been succeeded by others, such as the physical force (or majority) party, the Labor party, the Women's party, the Conservative and the Liberal groups, the U.F.O., etc., it is plain that if everybody must belong to some party there is no longer room for the independent elector. This fact will no doubt influence the G.W.V.A.

The Indemnity.

After delivering this address Mr Burnham offered to answer any questions the veterans cared to ask and they made good use of their opportunity by pouring question after question at the member.

"What is to become of Germany's indemnity to Canada?" asked one questioner.

"It is my opinion that a large part of the indemnity went out the window with President Wilson's fourteen points," answered the member.

"Germany is still desperate and is already allying itself with the Bolshevik and Slavs to cause further trouble. I would not mortgage your share of the indemnity," he declared.

He could see no reason why the Government could not use the over subscriptions of the Victory Loan for the gratuity of soldiers.

One veteran thought the expense of the committee on war gratuities was thrown away, but Mr. Burnham took exception to that. He declared that the committee's report very clearly stated the Government's position on the war gratuity question and left them open for attack.

Government's Position

Mr. Burnham explained the present position of the Government by the following illustration. "It is as though I owed you some money," he said, "and you said I owed you $150. I claimed I owed you $100 and payed you the $100 and told you to look for the other $50. That is the position of the government," he declared amid laughter and applause.

"Are the Government going to hang on until 1923 or 1924?"

"They will stay just as long as they can because they know they will never come back." He thinks, however, the Government will be defeated when the trade question comes up, because the liberal unionists of the Government are all free traders.

An Absurd Government

One veteran broached the subject of the mismanagement of pensions and Mr. Burnham declared with emphasis that he considered the way the Government had handled the whole matter was absurd. "The irregularities, confusion, etc., has been so absurd that if it did not cause suffering to the soldier it would make one laugh."

Mr. Burnham stated that the G. W. V. A. have conducted all their affairs in such a way that there is no one who has anything but a good word for them.

Calder Was Weak.

"Calder was the weakest man I ever saw" stated the member referring to the debate on the war gratuity in the house. "He tried to sidestep but he was not clever enough to do it."

Referring to the Grand Trunk bill he said that although he did not like to make charges against anyone, he considered it absolutely rotten.

He ended with an appeal to the veterans to enter politics and throw their membership doors as wide open as would the wise.

The meeting closed with singing "God Save the King," and three cheers and a tiger, for the speaker.

MORE SATURDAY SNAPS.

20 disappointed people came too late for last Saturday's Snaps. Come early for one of these: One good 6-octave Organ, only $15; One Vitaphone and 20 Selections, $25; One Sewing Machine, brand new, $25; One Edison Phonograph and 12 Records, $19. See our window, Greene Music Store, Charlotte street.

508 SMALLPOX CASES

Yesterday showed another slight increase in the number of smallpox cases in Toronto, and the total has now risen to 508. Twenty-three new cases were reported to the authorities yesterday, but they are all of the same mild type as those previously diagnosed. Over fifteen hundred persons are quarantined in the city, following exposure to the disease.

French Ivory

❧

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complet set.

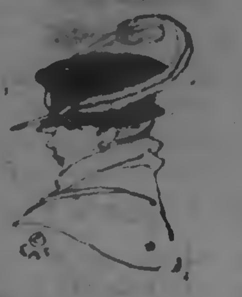
Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.

351 George Street

OUR THIRD NOVEMBER SATURDAY SNAP SALE

Snap Sale Prices on Millinery



A COLLECTION OF $10.00 SMARTLY TRIMMED HATS $5.95

Some are color combinations and others are all one shade. In the lot you will find navy, black and beaver brown. Regularly they sold at prices up to $10.00. Snap sale $5.95

MISSES' HATS, $2.95

Several styles that will appeal to misses. They are pretty, smart models, and are presented in an assortment of colors: navy, black, brown, rose and Copenhagen. Snap Sale price ... $2.95

Snap Sale Prices on Dress Goods and Silks Feature this Sale Event

400 Yards Satin, Messeline and Tamoline Silk
The Regular Prices are 75c, 85c and $1.00 yard. Sale Price 59c yd.

A truly remarkable Saturday Sale of Silks. You will find over four hundred yards in an assortment of colors including navy, purple, pale blue, green, pearl grey, pink, Copenhagen, tan, brown, moss, reseda, etc. There are messalines, tamolines, and satins, and the every day prices are 75c, 85c and $1 yard. Widths 18 to 30 ins. Snap Sale price, yard 59c

Six Hundred Yards $2.50 WOOL DRESS GOODS and SUITINGS $1.95 Yard

Mostly all-wool fabrics in this collection of $2.50 Dress Goods and Suitings. The colors are navy blue, green, and grey, and the materials are serges, cheviots and tricocords The widths run up to 54 inches. A splendid Snap Sale value, yard $1.95

The unequalled success of our two previous sales has encouraged us to make this sale a record breaker. Every line has been carefully selected and is merchandise that is needed at the present moment, and the price reductions are so drastic as to make quantity buying an exceptional investment. Watch for the green cards to-morrow in every department on every floor.

TO-MORROW'S MID-DAY LUNCH, 45c
11:30 A.M. To 2 P.M.

Gentlemen can take new elevator from rear of Men's Furnishing Department.

SOUPS
Pea or Tomato

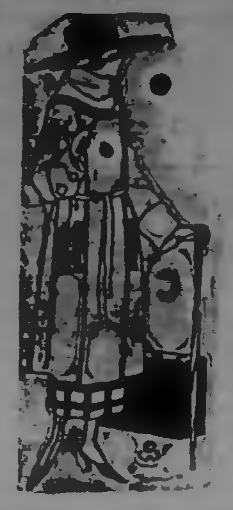
COLD MEATS
Roast Chicken, Ham or Tongue

VEGETABLE
Mashed Potatoes

DESSERT
Apple Pie or Ice Cream

Bread and Butter
Pot of Tea

Snap Sale. Are You Willing To Pay $24.95 For a $35.00 or $39.00 Coat



These Coats are this season's styles, and are practical models. Every ounce of material means warmth. The cloths are chinchillas, whitneys and velta cloths. The colors are: browns, taupes, greens, greys, raisin blue and black; also a few heather mixtures. They have cosy button-up collars, concealed patch and slashed pockets. The belts are shaped, wide, and the popular shoe-string variety. The sizes are well assorted, and an early selection is advisable. Regular $35 and $39 models. Snap price $24.95

CHILDREN'S $12 COATS, $10.95 — For the wee tots from 4 to 6 years The material is military coating, and the colors are Victory red, beaver, brown and grey. They are cut on smart plain lines and lined throughout. The collars are the cumfy, close-up pattern, patch and slant pockets, jaunty belts, and button trimmed. Regular $12.00. Snap price $10.95

$5.95 VOILE BLOUSES $3.89—Fine quality English Voile, convertible collars, round neck and collarless styles. Many are trimmed with fine tucking and dainty Val. and fillet laces.

FLANNELETTE DRAWERS $1.19—The color is white; knicker style; finished with imitation torchon lace. Size 25 to 29.

$2.50 NEW SPENCERS, $1.98—Made of a soft fleecy wool and nicely fashioned. Can be had in the following colors: maize, saxe, begonia, white, black and light blue.

$3.50 PETTICOATS, $2.98—Floral patterned taffetine in pretty colorings, gored fronts, elastic belt, 9 inch flounce, and has the proper amount of fulness for the fashionable skirts.

$55.00 SUITS, $38.95 — A variety of tailored and semi-tailored styles of the latest pattern. The cloths are velours, silvertones, poplins, and cheviots. The original prices of these garments range from $49 to $55. Snap price .. $38.95

Snap Sale Prices on Ladies' Shoes Slippers and Rubbers

CLEARING ODD LINES AMERICAN MADE BOOTS $3.49 Pair

They are excellent quality American made boots and are mostly broken lines of former seasons. The regular prices were $6.00 to $8.00. You have choice of patent leathers, vici kids and fine calf. Sizes only 2 to 4 .. Snap price, pair ... $3.49

BUY FIRST QUALITY HIGHEST GRADE RUBBERS, 89c Pair

They are the finest quality of the well-known brand that we have advertised and sold for so many seasons. They are guaranteed not to crack at the seams or break at the heels. There is a size and shape for any shoe .... Snap Sale price 89c

KID BOUDOIR SLIPPERS $1.49 Pair

Ladies' Dainty Kid Boudoir Slippers, with Unico flexible soles and trimmed with Pierot pom poms. The colors are red and black. A gift that will be appreciated by the ladies. First buyers will find a good range of sizes. Snap Sale price, pair $1.49

Snap Sale Features Hosiey, Underwear and Corsets

"Leonard's" $1.00 value Underwear, garment	89c
Ladies' Grey and White Ribbed Underwear, garment	49c
Ladies' 59c and 69c Brown and Black Cashmerette Hose, pair	49c
"Penman's" $1.25 Black Cashmerette Hose, pair	98c
Ladies' O. S. size "Penman's" Black Cashmerette Hose	79c
2/1 Ribbed School Hose for boys and girls, pair	39c
Infant's Cream Cashmerette Hose, "mill seconds," pair	69c
La Duchess $1.75 Corsets, pair	$1.29

In The Redfern Store

REMARKABLE COAT REDUCTIONS

$69 O. S. Serge Suits	$49.00
$49, $55 and $59 Suits	$39.00
$35 and $38 Suits	$22.95

SCORES OF BARGAINS IN THE ANNEX TO-MORROW AND MANY ARE USEFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

"Ibex" 12/4, the largest and best Canadian-made Flannelette Blankets, pair	[illegible]
$3.50 Silkoline Covered Comforters, slightly soiled, to clear	$2.89
75c Khaki Flannels and 65c Grey Flannels, for, yard	49c
45c Yard Wide White Flannelette, yard	38c
63c Circular Pillow Cotton, yard	46c
Ladies' $2.00 White Flannelette Night Gowns	$1.55
600 Yards Art Draperies and Sateens, 35c to 50c values, yard	27c
20c and 25c Christmas Handkerchiefs	3 for 39c
Sample Lot of Children's $3.00 Wool Knit Teddy Bear Suits. Suit	$1.95
Children's $1.25 Worsted Knit Rompers	79c
Men's Heavy Wool Socks, pair	46c & 49c
Forty Cases Bargain Annex Toilet Paper	12 Rolls for 47c
75c Natural Shantung Raw Silk, yard	39c
Ladies' "Mill Seconds" $1 and $1.25 Winter Undervests	[illegible]
$2.00 and $2.25 "Mill Seconds" Ladies' Combinations	$1.39
Ladies' Black Cashmerette Hose, repaired seconds	2 Pairs for 49c
Boys' and Girls' Christmas Gift Books	23c
Children's 50c Honeycombed and Knit Toques	39c
Children's 40c to 50c Wool Mitts	29c
Children's 75c and 85c Scarfs and Clouds	44c
Ladies' 59c and 69c Cashmerette Hose, pair	39c
Ladies' Best Quality Rubbers, pair	86c
Odd lines Ladies' Boudoir Slippers, pair	98c
"Gold" and "Sunlight" Soaps	8 Bars 69c
"Infant's Delight" Toilet Soap	3 for 23c
"Lux" Washing Compound	3 for 29c

HUNDREDS OF BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS
60c Values, 49c
50c Values, 39c

Cloth bound books for boys and girls, by popular authors. There are actually hundreds of titles and many people will buy their Christmas requirements to-morrow, when these reduced prices are possible.

Regular 60c values	49c
Regular 50c values	39c

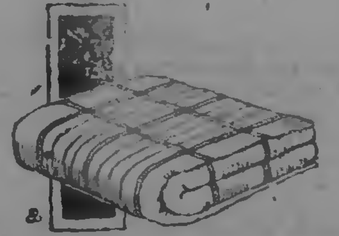
CHAMOIS GLOVES AND HEAVY WEIGHT SILK GLOVES

"Queen Quality," "Griffin's" and "Kayser" $1.25 qualities. Pair 94c

The above makes vouch for themselves, and, as you know, the regular price is $1.25 for these lines. Snap Sale price.. Pair 94c

Snap Values on Blankets, Towels And Table Damask

EXTRA O. S. SIZE AMERICAN MADE $4.50 and $4.75 FLANNELETTE BLANKETS $3.79 Pair



These Blankets are exceptionally good quality and measure from 88 to 92 inches in length. You have choice of either grey, tan or white. If you paid the regular price for them they would cost you $4.50 or $4.75. They are worth coming early for to-morrow. Snap Sale price ...... Pair $3.79

PILLOW SHAMS, TRAY CLOTHS and RUNNERS, 49c

Hemstitched Pillow Shams and Tray Cloths and 46-inch Embroidered Runners. Regular stock lines at 59c and 68c. Very attractive gifts for the home. Snap Sale, each 49c

Snap Sale Prices on Soap and Toilet Paper

LAUNDRY SOAPS! WEEK-END SNAP SALE—10 Bars for 89c

You have your choice of three of the best known brands that sell at 10c, namely, "Gold," "Sunlight" and "P. & G. Naptha." You can have all one kind or assorted. Snap Sale ...... 10 Bars for 89c

25 CASES LARGE SIZE 10c ROLLS TOILET PAPER 8 For 50c

A one day sale of "[illegible]" Toilet Paper. It is an extra-large size roll and is a [illegible] 10c value. A Feature Leader [illegible] the Snap Sale ...... 8 for 50c

"PYREX" $2.00 CASSEROLES AND PUDDING DISHES

SNAP SALE $1.59

"Pyrex" is the name for the glass oven dishes that will not break with oven heat. To-morrow you have a choice of Casseroles in oblong and round shapes, and large sized Pudding Dishes. All are regular $2.00 values. Snap Sale price $1.59

(New Building, Third Floor.)

Store
Opens
8 .30

Bargain Annex Open All Day Saturday

EVERY SATURDAY FROM NOW UNTIL CHRISTMAS
A GREAT BARGAIN ANNEX LEADER
1000 YARDS 38c YARD WIDE STRIPED FLANNELETTE and ALL-WHITE 30-INCH FLANNELETTE AT 27c YARD

This is the lowest price we have yet offered on this excellent line and we can assure you that it will not go lower. Buy your season's requirements at this Saturday Annex Price ...... Yard 27c

Closes
Saturday
9.30

SPECIAL 75c BLEACHED TABLE DAMASK 59c Yard

It is a good substantial quality and is bleached a pure white. The width is 50 inches, and you have choice of three patterns. If you purchased it to-day on the street floor the price would be 75c a yard. Snap Sale price, yard 59c

$1.25 LARGE SIZE BATH TOWELS 98c Pair

This is an import shipment of large size English Bath Towels; measure 18 x 40 inches, and have fringed ends and grey and fawn striped patterns. Our every day price is $1.25 pair ...... Snap Sale price, pair 98c

The CRESSMAN Company Limited

The CRESSMAN Company Limited

WHISKEY, WINE, MASH

(Continued From Page 1)

rapidly. Picking up Detective Maher and Sergt. Blade the four constables hastened to the law office of Mr. Bagley and scared him so bad that amid appeals for mercy and leniency he confessed that the whole illicit apparatus was in his own house.

The officers then proceeded to 500 George street, and for the next two hours worked like Trojans, conveying their booty to the station house.

Out on Bail.

No charge was laid against Middleton. Fair remains locked up and Guise-Bagley is out on $1,000 bail put up by himself and his son-in-law.

How Lawyers Regard It.

When asked by the Review this morning if the law association would take any action toward having the accused's name struck off the roll of lawyers, one lawyer replied: "You bet we will. As soon as the conviction is made we will be right after him."

This same lawyer is responsible for the statement that Guise-Bagley never succeeded in passing his examinations that would allow him to practice law, but obtained his degree for political services rendered. He spoke very strongly of Bagley being a disgrace to the professors of law and is in favor of having his gown taken from him.

The trial will take place before Magistrate Dumble tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

THIS MORNING'S ACTIVITIES.

At police court this morning Mr. Bagley's bail was resumed and the case adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Bail was offered for Mr. Fair, but refused, and he was remanded for a week.

The police made more seizures this morning, taking into custody a gas stove, a motor truck by which it is alleged the still was transferred from the candy company's premises to Bagley's residence, George street, and several miscellaneous articles that were supposed to have been used in connection with the manufacture of liquor.

Mrs. Middleton informed the police that they were making six bottles a day and selling it for $6 a bottle.

PERVERTED VISION

Is corrected by wearing Dr. Fowler's guaranteed "PEBLO" Glasses. No matter how the rays of the light misrepresent things, "PEBLO" Glasses will enable you to focalize properly and see things as they are. Whatever the defect of your eyesight, we can rectify it.

FOR AN ELDERLY FRIEND.—It is time to think about your Christmas Gifts. Try a pair of gold-mounted glasses for some elderly friend. We exchange and fit correctly after Christmas.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

BRITISH WILL ASSIST FRANCE IF ATTACKED

RELEASE OF CONSULAR AGENT W. O. JENKINS DEMAND IN AMERICAN NOTE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Nov. 21.—Stephen Pichon, French foreign minister, and Sir Eric Rowe, assistant under secretary for foreign affairs of Great Britain, last night exchanged ratifications of a treaty guaranteeing British aid to France if, without provocation, she is attacked by Germany.

Sir Eric Rowe is representative of Great Britain at the Supreme Council during the absence of Premier Lloyd George.

Whne a girl begins to appear anxious about the state of a young man's health he can take his choice between the parson and the undertaker.

NEW GOVERNMENT

(Continued from Page 1.)

The Premier had many nice things to say about the Province; he was enthusiastic about its opportunities and ideals. and he admitted that personally he felt he must be a sort of a curiosity. His election he termed an accident, happening simply because "the other systems had outlived their usefulness." "In some ways I regret that," he continued. "But the result of it is a Farmer Government, which I hope will become a People's Government, with no desire for class legislation, but with an aim to represent and develop stable citizenship."

No Office Seeking

Hon. Mr. Drury sketched the origin of the United Farmer party, which he believed was largely due to an antagonism which had arisen between the country and the city, an antagonism due to misunderstanding. He spoke of his difficulties in forming his Cabinet, which difficulties were increased owing to the fact that there were no office seekers. As an illustration of the extent to which his cabinet appreciate their responsibilities he told the story of one of the new ministers who, when offered a post, accepted it, but who, after reaching home, wired his suggestions that another man could do better work.

MEXICO AND STATES' RELATIONS DELICATE

TREATY TO THIS EFFECT RATIFIED TODAY BY BRITAIN AND FRANCE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 21.— Officials here today were watching Mexico for action on the note dispatched by the State Department to the Mexican Government, demanding the release of William O. Jenkins, U. S. Consular Agent at Puebla, who was re-arrested on charges of being in conspiracy with his bandit captors who forced him to pay $150,000 in gold for his release.

The note warned that further molestation of the Consular Agent would seriously affect relations between the U S and Mexico, for which the Government of Mexico must assume sole responsibility, and added that the U. S. was surprised and incensed at Mexico's action.

SUDDEN DEATH IN HOTEL

St. John. Nov 21 —F. W. Sumner of Moncton, Agent-General of New Brunswick in London, Eng., died suddenly in a hotel here yesterday. An attack of acute indigestion was followed by heart trouble. He had come here to attend a meeting of the New Brunswick Telephone Company directorate.

CONCLUSION REACHED

MINERS GO INTO JOINT SESSION AGAIN THIS AFTERNOON

Washington, Nov. 21.—President Lewis, of the miners' union, announced after the miners' conference broke up that no conclusion had been arrived at and that the situation stood as it had been. The miners, he explained, would go into joint session again this afternoon without having a definite response to the operators' proposals.

ASKS $10,000 DAMAGES

Claiming damages of $10,000 from the Commercial Travellers' Association for injuries received by him on defendant's property from the alleged defective condition in which they were, J. B. Mills yesterday entered action at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. The plaintiff, an elderly man, fell on an unlighted stairway on the Yonge street premises of the association.

STRIKE AT EATON BUILDING

Moncton, N.B., Nov. 21.—About 50 pipe fitters and plumbers working for the James Ballantyne Company of Montreal on the T. Eaton building, struck yesterday afternoon because of the presence on the job of two non-union men. The strikers were supported by the local Building Trades Council.

Barrie's
Peterboro.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT
(The House With Exclusive Styles.)

ARGUMENT .....

may be interesting but, it's so often profitless

For one Decision covers more ground than a hundred opinions.

Particularly if its a wise one

DECIDE on a

SUIT, COAT, DRESS or BLOUSE

AND GET IT HERE

BARRIE BUILDING
312 George Street
Phone 340

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

MILK PRODUCERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING

Mr. E. H. Stonehouse, President of the Dominion Dairyman's Association, to address the meeting at Board of Trade rooms, Saturday evening, Nov. 22, at eight o'clock.

T. D. N. KELLY,
Secretary.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes .

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2241.

NOTICE.

The Onward (Mrs. J. Stubbs') Class will hold a Sale of Aprons, etc., also serve light refreshments in the Sunday school room of the George Street Church on Tuesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 24.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY SALE

The Ladies' Aid Society of Murray Street Baptist Church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles, and home-made cooking, Nov. 26, 27 and 28, at 309 George street, opposite Barries, Ltd.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. H. Wheeler of Ashburnham, received the sad news last night, of the death of her sister, Mrs. William Bacon, at Cobourg.

Rev. J. G. Fallis returned to his home in Essex, after spending the past few days with Mrs. E. Fowler, 159 Hunter street, east.

Mr. Bert Warne of Toronto was in the city today.

Mrs. W. J. Copp and son, Mr. Howard Copp were visiting at Cambray last week.

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. W. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and afternoon tea will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Manning have left on a short visit to Midland.

Mr. J. H. Burnham will remove to his new office, 395 Water street, on November 22.

Mr. E. L. Terry of Brampton is in the city today a guest of Mr. R. P. Gollop, 295 George street.

Miss Agnes Eastwood is visiting in Toronto, where she will attend tonight, a dance given by the Misses Matthews, daughters of Mr. R. C. Matthews.

Mr. Gordon Matthews is spending the week end in Toronto.

NO ACTION TAKEN BY BRIDGE COM.

ONLY ONE LABORER ATTENDED AND HIS COMPLAINT SATISFACTORILY EXPLAINED

At a meeting of the special bridge committee of the City Council yesterday a letter was read from the secretary of the Laborers' Union, complaining of the treatment of laborers on the bridge construction. Mr. Grisdale, the secretary, was present and spoke, stating that he could bring further proof to impress his complaint at a further date. Mr. Townsend was also present and explained for what reasons he had discharged the men referred to by Mr. Grisdale.

A motion moved by the Mayor and seconded by Ald. Turner that no action be taken was carried.

Thos. Wigg, who was former night watchman of the bridge, complained that he had been laid off.

In explanation of this Mr. Townsend stated that Mr. Wigg could not get around in the cold weather because he used crutches, and, although he regretted to do so, he was forced to replace him.

Those present were Ald. Phelan (chairman), Mayor Duncan, and Ald. Hamilton and Turner.

The chairman was authorized to pay $50 to the Calcutt Brewing Co. for the use of their property as a roadway.

PETERBORO BRANCH 8TH C.M.R.

All members of Peterboro Branch 8th C. M. R., are reminded of the meeting to be held in the lecture hall of the Armories on Monday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock sharp. All ex-members of the regiment are requested to attend this meeting.

W. H. FIELD, Secy.-Treas.

MORE SATURDAY SNAPS.

20 disappointed people came too late for last Saturday's Snaps. Come early for one of these: One good 6-octave Organ, only $15; One Vitaphone and 20 Selections, $25; One Sewing Machine, brand new, $25; One Edison Phonograph and 12 Records, $19. See our window. Greene Music Store, Charlotte street.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC 300 CHARLOTTE STREET PETERBOROUGH

Organized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

VICTORY LOAN NOTICE.

All persons having accounts against the local Victory Loan office are asked to send them in at once, as the office will be closed on Monday, the 24th inst.

F. Brownscombe, Secretary.

THE TOYS HAVE ARRIVED AND THE TOYMAN'S SHOP IS

TOYLAND, JOYLAND, JOLLY GIRL and BOY LAND

And it will be Open to all the Children of Peterborough To-morrow

COME AND SEE IT.

Bigger, Brighter, and Jollier than ever The Toyman's Shop—the land of Children's Dreams, sends its invitation to all the little folks, whose parents can bring them on a holiday trip to see the Magnificent Collection of Toys good old Santa Claus sent to this Great Christmas Department on the 3rd floor. There is so much to see that we cant begin to tell of it all. We simply extend this hearty invitation to all the little folks and their parents

COME TO THE OPENING OF THE TOYMAN'S SHOP TO-MORROW AND HAVE A REAL JOLLY GOOD TIME.

The Christmas Store

Ready—Everything Ready

The Gift Things have been here for some days, but now they have more room, crowding back some of the every day staple goods.

THE STORE IS VERY BEAUTIFUL IN ITS CHRISTMAS DRESS — WORTH WHILE COMING TO SEE.

Gift buying will surely start with a rush to-morrow—not the elbowing crowds of mid-December, but activity enough to suggest the advantage of early shopping.

To finish bright you must start right—the earlier you begin, the more cheerful and contented you'll feel on Christmas eve.

Fascinating work, Christmas shopping, in a store so bright, attractive, comfortable, and well ordered as our store.

Every minute you're in the store you're our guest, and we're giving constant thought to your comfort as well as to GOOD SERVICE.

WONDERFUL VALUES AMONG THESE WOMEN'S DRESSES

Regular Prices Have Been $25, $30, $32.50, $35.00, $37.50, and $40.00

at $19.95

Regardless of how much we may say about the remarkableness of these Dresses, nothing will be as convincing as seeing them. We want you to see them—you'll not want only one but two or three. Wonderfully good looking Dresses of fine jersey cloth, all wool serge, taffeta silk, georgette crepe, crepe de chine and silk poplin. In colors of taupe, black, navy amethyst, Pekin blue and sand. All this season's styles; models for practical use and for smart occasions. Regular prices $25.00 to $40.00 .... Your choice of the lot Saturday $19.95

FANCY A WOMAN'S COAT AT $15.00

Doesn't that sound good for Coats that sell regularly at $20, $22, $25.00 $27.50, and $35.00

The coats in this sale are garments of good quality. We only have 15 coats in this sale group, and they won't last long at the sale price. If you want a winter coat, a good one, at a low price, you will have to hurry and be here among the first shoppers to-morrow morning. The lot is made up of tweeds, Polo cloth, Kersey cloth and broadcloth Coats, in black, Oxford grey and tweed mixtures. All good practical styles and serviceable cloths. Well made and lined. Regular prices tell the story of the values offered ... Your choice of the lot Saturday $15.00

The Smartest Coatings $4.75 yd.

The Kind We Sell Regularly at $6.00, $6.50 and $7.00

Quality extraordinary, all pure wool; velours, tweeds and blanket cloths. Colors: navy, taupe, green, wine, Oxford grey and mixtures. This is an offering at savings not likely to be met with soon again. Regular $6, $6.50 and $7. November Sale Saturday, yard $4.75

BIG 8.30 A. M. SPECIAL

Flannelette Blankets at Less Than Manufacturers Prices

White or silver grey; pink or blue borders; best quality Saxony Flannelette.

12¼ Size	11¼ Size	Regular $3.00
Regular $4.50	Regular $3.50	10¼ Size
$3.19	$2.29	$2.19
Pair	Pair	Pair

You'll have to hurry if you want to get a pair or two. They will sell like hot cakes at the above prices.

8.30 A.M. GLOVE BARGAIN

Griffins $1.25 Chamoisette Gloves

87c. pair

First-class Chamoisette Gloves; well cut and made; Griffin's famous make; washable. Just the kind for wearing now. Colors: mode, pearl grey, mastic, black, dark grey and white; fancy embroidered backs. Every pair regular $1.25. Buy a few pairs for Christmas gift giving. Saturday Bargain 87c

75c and 65c Black, Brown and Grey Stockings

49c pair

Qualities of exceptional merit, giving unusually long service, with reinforced heels and toes and strong garter tops. The black stockings are regular 75c, the brown and grey 65c. Winter weight. All one price. Sizes 8½ to 10. November Sale Saturday, yard 49c

Special Clearance of Trimmed Hats

$5.00, $6.00, $6.50 and $8.00 Models

$3.49

Every one of these Hats is distinctive and individual, because this is a special collection of Trimmed Hats taken taken from our regular stock lines. Every Hat is a real bargain, and some of them sell for double and almost treble the sale price. Only 35 Hats in the group, including some smart Feather Hats. In the lot you will find a good style range in black and colors. Regular $5.00 to $8.00. November Sale, Saturday $3.49

Best Quality 50c White Saxony and Canadian Stripe Flannelettes

39c yd.

This is just one of the many special values you will find in our Staple Department Saturday, and it's a big one. No Flannelette value in the past can be compared with it. We don't believe there has been a time when such beautiful high-grade Flannelettes could be bought for so small a price. Plain white Saxony and stripe patterns; 36 inches wide. Regular 50c, and extra good value at that price. Saturday, yard 39c

Boys and Girls School Scarfs Reg. 50c and 75c to clear 25c

Big assortment of Boys' and Girls' Knitted School Scarfs, in a big range of colors. Regular 50c and 75c. November Sale Saturday ... Each 25c

Store opens 8.30 a.m. —::— closes Saturday 9.00 p.m.

RICHARD HALL & SON
LIMITED

Childrens Knitted Sets $2.50

Here's great value for you in Children's Knitted Sets, including Cap, Sweater and Leggings to match, in colors of light brown and cardinal. Saturday, set $2.50

OBITUARY

JOHN DWYER

On Thursday evening, Nov. 20th, at his residence, 633 Aylmer street, John Dwyer, a well-known resident of this city, passed peacefully away. Death was not unexpected by his relatives and friends as Mr. Dwyer has been in poor health for the past two years and for the last ten months has been so seriously ill that all hope of his recovery was given up; his death was caused by paralysis.

The late Mr. Dwyer, who came to the city 15 years ago, was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of his demise. He was a member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society, also a faithful member and worker in St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society. Much sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife who so faithfully attended him during his long illness, also to his brothers, Wilfred, of Sherbrooke, and Patrick, of East City.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral and cemetery.

CHARLES McCALL

The funeral of the late Charles McCall was held this afternoon from the residence of his son in Douro, to Lakefield cemetery. Rev. A. J. Thomas officiated.

The death of Mr. McCall, who was 86 years of age, removes one of the pioneers of the county and one of its most highly respected citizens.

GEORGE MONCRIEF.

The remains of the late George Moncrief, who died in Assiniboia, Sask., and which should have arrived here last week but were delayed owing to weather conditions in the West, reached the city last night, and were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gordon Innis.

The funeral was held at 4 o'clock this afternoon to Little Lake Cemetery, Rev. R. B. Grobb officiating.

THIS BICYCLE CAME TO GRIEF

ROPE BETWEEN TWO AUTOS FOOLS DARING BICYCLE RIDER

A number of people witnessed a very peculiar accident that happened in a very humorous manner, although it resulted in a perfectly good bicycle being destroyed this morning.

A load of booty was placed on the captured truck formerly belonging to Mr. Guise-Bagley. One police officer was stationed to steer it while another drove a car towing it. Between the two was a rope about 20 feet in length. They were slowly crossing the railway tracks on King street on the way to Mr. Buller's residence, when a daring bicyclist driving at a furious rate of speed appeared on the scene, proceeding south on Bethune street. He, seeing the two autos a considerable distance apart and not perceiving the rope, daringly attempted to ride between them. He struck the rope, turned a complete somersault, and landed on the road clear of the second car. The bicycle's fate, however, was less fortunate, as, even when the brakes were applied to the second car, the first driver moving on unconscious of what was happening, dragged the second one over the wheel, leaving it in much the condition in which it was before it reached the manufacturer's hands.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

WANTED — SEWING. Telephone 1059J.

FOR SALE WHITE ROBE for baby sleigh. Apply 507 Bethune street.

WANTED. MAID FOR LIGHT housework. Apply Mrs. G. H. Thompson, 373 Park street. Phone 1381.

DECEMBER COLUMBIA RECORDS

The new Columbia Records for December are now in. Come and hear them. The Greene Music Store, Charlotte street.

Hash is the ghost of a square meal.

BIRTH.

MANN—To Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Mann, "The Hawthornes," Smith, at Nicholls Hospital on November 21, a son.

Food for thought ma ybe found in empty cupboards.

NOTICE.

To all Members of G.W.V.A.

On Nov. 27th, 28th & 29th a Ballot will be taken on the following questions:—

1st Are you in favour of amending the Constitution so as to permit political action.	YES	NO
2nd Are you in favour of amending the Constitution to permit any person who has served honourably in the forces of Great Britain and her Allies to become members of the G.W.V.A.	YES	NO

Every member is requested to make an effort to get to headquarters on one of the above-mentioned dates, to record his vote on these important questions. The polling booth will be opened at 7 o'clock sharp each evening and will remain open till 11 p.m. except Saturday, Nov. 29th, when the booth will open sharp at 2 p.m. in the afternoon.

The result of the poll will be announced at the regular meeting to be held on Monday, Dec. 1st, next, when the election of officers for the year 1920 will also take place.

SIDNEY WHATLEY
Secretary P.B.G.W.V.A.

Southwest and west winds, increasing to gales, cloudy and mild, with some showers. Sunday—Northwest winds, somewhat colder by night.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 120 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

CITIZENS RECOMMEND THAT COUNCIL APPOINT CITY HOUSING COMMISSION

Ex-Ald. Dobbin Explains Project to Meeting Last Night—A System by Which Homes May be Acquired on the Instalment Plan—A Little Over What is Paid in Rent Will Give a Man a Home of His Own in 20 Years.

Twenty-one citizens, including seven ladies, gathered in the Council Chamber last evening to hear ex-Alderman Frank Dobbin explain the Government housing scheme.

At the conclusion of the meeting thirteen expressed their opinion, in a showing of hands, that the City Council should go ahead and appoint a city commission to put the plan into active operation.

Ald. Taylor presided, and there were also on hand the Mayor, Ald Edgar, Turner and Phelan and City Solicitor Widdifield.

Those citizens who voted for the scheme gave in their names and addresses as applicants for houses under the housing scheme.

Houses Scarce.

Ex-Ald. Dobbin painted out that houses are scarce and contended that many rented dwellings are practically untenable. Small property owners, under existing conditions, cannot really afford to spend money on repairs, and tenants consequently suffer. He explained that the more houses built and taxed the lighter will be burden of municipal up-keep on ratepayers in general. And if house erection stands still there are only two ways to meet the city's growing expenditure—either by increasing the assessment or raising the rates.

Need For Houses.

Mr. Dobbin found that the need of more housing accommodation in this city is very great, and that many people who doubled up in dwellings for economic purposes during the war are now desirous of securing separate accommodation. But these has been but little building of late as prices for material and labor were prohibitive. In illustration of this he instanced the fact that in the Parry Sound district woodsmen are paid $85 a month and their board and this gives one an idea of the cost of lumber for house building. Brick also has jumped from $6.50 the thousand to $18. He had no hope of either wages or the cost of material going down for five, eight, or even ten years.

Mr. Dobbin here went on to say that the idea of the housing scheme is not so much to reduce the cost of buildings as to provide more and better houses at the prevailing price. Still where, say twenty houses, are built at one time under a commission, some saving could be effected, as many of the details such as doors and windows would be standarized.

The Scheme.

Mr. Dobbin here explain the whole housing plan in detail. The Dominion Government has appropriated $40,000,000 for this purpose, to be loaned to provincial governments at 5 per cent. interest, and in turn loaned to municipalities on debenture security, at the same rate.

A man may borrow from the municipality $3,000 by making a first payment of 10 per cent. of $3,000 in the shape of a lot valued at $300. The house may be erected either by contract or by a housing commission, and it can be paid for in monthly instalments extending over twenty years.

The Benefit.

Mr. Dobbin here cited an instance of the benefit to be derived by one securing a home under this plan as follows:

"A man borrows, say $3000.00, having a lot worth, say $300.00. Loan to be repaid in 20 years at 5 per cent. being 240 payments of $20.00 each, covering interest and sinking fund.

"At the end of the series of payments, he has paid back the $300.00 and besides $1800.00, in all $4,800.00. It has cost him an average of $90.00 per year, during the period, over and above the amount borrowed. And he owns the house.

"Compare this with his circumstances, taking as a basis that he has lived, and will continue to live, in rented premises that will cost him $18.00 a month, all told. This rental covers proportion of taxes as put on by landlord.

"In 20 years he has paid for rent $216.00 per year, and for 20 years, $4,300.00. But he has had nothing but use of the premises.

"We have assumed that he is paying taxes. Let us look at the position of the man who has assumed the possession of the house for which he borrowed the $4,000.00 to have built.

"His total payment, as stated, is $4,800.00. A house that cost with the lot, $3,300.00 would be assessed, likely, at $2,000.00. The present rate is about 30 mills on the dollar. It will never be less. So the taxes per year will amount to $60.00, and in 20 years to $1200.00.

"Then the house will need painting, outside, say twice, during the 20-year period, say at $70.00 each time—total $140.00.

"Total on house, taxes and painting amount to $6,140.00.

"As against this he would have paid in rent, $4,320.00, which leaves the fact that the man has to pay really the difference, amounting to $1830.00, and owns his house.

"That is, he can have the house built, live in it for 20 years, meet [illegible] $90.00 per year more than if he were paying rent during the period."

10 to 15 Plans.

Ex-Ald. Dobbin here explained that the Provincial Housing Commission had from ten to fifteen plans from which one could have their houses built under this schemes-plan for four, six or eight roomed houses—prepared by the best architects, and insisting on modern interior conveniences. The exterior of the houses could be changed to produce variety. Lots must not be narrower than 35 feet and of 100 feet in depth, while each house must stand back at least 20 feet from the sidewalk, and must stand for enough apart from its neighbor to allow free access to sun and light. The lots on which such houses are built must be on streets provided with sidewalks sewers, water and gas, and Mr. Dobbin declared that there are plenty of desirable lots in the city today. The city assessor, he said, is preparing a list of such property.

In conclusion the speaker pointed out that one could pay down more than 10 per cent. of the cost of a house if he desired, or at any time supplement his monthly payment should a windfall happen his way.

Must Do Something.

Ald. Edgar said if Peterborough expected to grow and prosper something would have to be done to provide adequate and proper housing for working men. In nearly every case of prospective new industies, the first question asked is, "How many vacant houses are there in the city," and industries will not locate here unless housing accommodation for their employees is available. Thus it is, in his opinion, imperative that some steps be taken to foster this housing scheme.

Alderman Edgar here made it quite clear that certain conditions have to be complied with in the project. The commission must be assured of permanent occupancy by the applicant and that his position warrants the loan before it is advanced. Then it should be understood that every effort must be made to meet the payments. for should three payments be missed then debtor loses his property and that which has been paid thereon, or he can arrange for a transferrance of the agreement if possible.

A returned soldier opined that at present the majority of prospective applicants for houses were men from overseas, whom manufacturers were not paying the equivalent of what they paid the men who stayed at home during the war. And he could not see of any working man being in an "assured" position to keep up his payments, for his job was not his own, although his life might if he could manage to, keep it going. In any event, he thought this city commission should relieve returned soldiers from the first 10 per cent. or $300 payment down as is due in other municipalities.

Mr. Dobbin read a clause in the Act which would permit of the municipality doing this.

VISCOUNT BRYCE TALKS ON TREATY

DECLARES THAT GRAVE ERRORS WERE MADE AT PARIS CONFERENCE

LEAGUE IS BADLY NEEDED

APPEALS TO MANKIND MUST HAVE SUPPORT OF PUBLIC OPINION

London, Nov 22.—Viscount Bryce, speaking on "The League of Nations" at a dinner recently, turned to the peace conference and asserted that after making all allowances fir it, he was bound to say he thought the Paris conference had committed very grave errors and was in danger of committing some others.

He cited as examples the case of Tryol and Transylvania in which he said a third of the population taken over by Roumania has certainly not affinity with the Roumanians. He also mentioned the controversy over the Balkan boundaries and maintained that commissions should have been appointed to examine the line that separated the different peoples and report to the conference. If the nations knew their claims had been fairly considered by competent authorities there was a prospect of contentment and future peace.

Need For League.

"If such questions are going to survive there is further need for the League of Nations, which alone could deal with them," he declared. "The League of Nations appeals to the conscience of mankind and it cannot be efective unless supported by the public opinion of all that is best in every country."

Viscount Bryce was afraid "there were only two countries—Great Britain and the United States—where the idea had caught hold of the best opinion, and even there it had not got down to the minds of the bulk of the people." The reason, he said, was "they were so much occupied with their own affairs that they took little interest in foreign affairs, and it was essential that the importance of this question should be brought home to every voter."

Viscount Bryce said that a great deal of the proceedings of the Paris conference had been "shrouded in impenetrable darkness." What had "possible to induce nations to acquience in secret diplomacy to an extent greater than any one would have believed possible."

CAN'T CONTROL PRICE OF MILK

BOARD OF COMMERCE SHOULDERS BLAME ON TO THE WHEAT BOARD

Ottawa, Nov. 22.— The position taken by the Canadian Board of Commerce is that it is unable to control the prices of milk and milk products so long as the Canadian Wheat Board refuses to approve of mill feed according to F. C. T. O'Hara, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. O'Hara went on to say that to overcome the conlfict between the two boards it would be necessary for the Government to announce straight policy regarding these questions.

Guelph police seized four dozen bottles of whiskey which were being delivered to Joe Veroni, a local Italian.

Mayor Newman, Kingston, syas he has no intention of running for a second term, as he thinks the honor should go round.

Two More Applicants.

At the close of the meeting the Housing Committee passed a resolution recommending Council to appoint a commission.

Ald. J. J. Turner had made five applications for houses under this scheme for employees of his firm, and last night increased that number to seven.

FIFTY THOUSAND BOLSHEVIKI ANNIHILATED BY GEN. DENIKENE

Russians Break Through the Red Lines With a Terrible Effect—Tide Turns for Anti-Soviets.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Stockholm, Nov. 22 — General Denekine, commander of the anti-Bolshevik troops on the southern Russian front, claims to have broken through the Red lines between Oral and Tambov, southeast of Moscow, and to have annihilated fifty thousand Bolshevik troops, according to a Helsingfors despatch to Svenska Dagblad.

Reports recently received from the southern Russian front appear to indicate that Gen. Denkine was being driven southward by the Bolshevik. Gen. Denekine reached Oral about a month ago, but ther encountered such strong resistance that he was forced to resort to the defensive. Bolshevik official statements received later told of a break in Denekine's line to the southwest of Oral. Tambov is about four hundred miles southeast of Moscow.

CRISIS IN ADRIATIC.

D'Annunzio Seems Determined Now to Annex Dalmatia.

London, Nov. 22. — The situation of the Adriatic as aresult of Gabriele D'Annunzio's campaign has reached a grave crisis. Private advices leave no doubt that he is determined to annex Dalmatia and attack Montenegro. Jugo-Slavs are stated to have concentrated troops and to be prepared to resist aggression.

Against Monarchy.

A still more alarming report says that a republican undercurrent directed against the Italian monarchy exists among D'Annunzio's forces. It is not known, however, whether the insurgent poet leader shares the reported ambition of this military element to attack the government.

STOCKS DULL AND UNCERTAIN AT MARKET OPENING, DEVELOP ACTIVITY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov. 22—Wall Street stocks were irregular within extreme narrow limits at a dull opening of today's session. The only issues to show more than fractional changes were General Motors, which rose three points, and Retail Stores, declining one point.

Moderate Activity.

Stocks were dull and uncertain at the beginning of today's short session, but soon developed moderate activity. Declines of ractions to a point in several of Steels, Motors, Tobaccos and Rails, were balanced by gains of [illegible] such recent favorites as General Motors, Mexican Petroleum, Pierce Arrow, Columbia Gas and Automobile Specialties. The list as a whole became stronger within the first half hour, food and utility shares participating in the advance.

J. GUISE-BAGLEY FINED $500 AND COSTS FOR BREACH OF THE O.T.A.

Three Charges Against Him are Yet to be Heard—Two Before a Judge and one Before the Magistrate.

At 10 o'clock this morning, the time scheduled for the trial of Jas. Guise-Bagley, the police court room was crowded with eager witnesses, curious to hear all the details of this distressing case of breach of the liquor laws.

The space between the seats of the spectators and the magistrate's bench was fairly littered with barrels, boxes, bottles, jugs, kegs, cans and a "still," presenting an appearance of disorder and confusion.

A lengthy argument arose as to whether, on the proving of a charge of the breach of the Inland Revenue Act, the prisoner could be punished by fine and imprisonment or whether a fine without imprisonment could be imposed.

Mr F. D. Kerr, who appeared for the accused declined to elect, and waived the taking of evidence, consenting that Bagley be sent for trial.

The prisoner was charged with having a "still" in his possession, and also of possessing stilled spirits without having first secured a license from the Inland Revenue Department. These are two separate charges.

Mr. Kerr, on behalf of the accused pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping for sale spirituous liquor without having a license, contrary to the Ontario Temperance Act. He pointed out that the plea of guilty was only for the whiskey and not the wine which was used solely for domestic purposes. The magistrate imposed a fine of $500 and $14.10 costs, to be paid forthwith, and in default of payment six months in jail.

A Criminal Charge.

As though this were not enough for one man to bear at a time, the Crown laid one more charge on hte shoulders of the unfortunate prisoner. It is that of performing a criminal operation on a young woman in the month of October, 1917, with the intent of miscarriage.

The accused pleaded not guilty to this charge, and the Crown succeeded in obtaining a remand until next Wednesday at 10 a.m.

The maximum punishment for this offence, should it be proven, is life imprisonment, it was stated this morning.

PECULIAR ESCAPE OF "MOON SHINER"

STORY AS TOLD BY HIMSELF REVEALS A VERY ASTONISHING INCIDENT

A very peculiar statement was made by one of the chief alleged moonshiners previous to the trial of J. Guise-Bagley at Police Court this mornnig. It is a story of one of the narrowest escapes any law-breakers have had from falling into the clutches of the law heard of here for a considerable time.

This is the story as told by the prison connected with the affair. It was while the alleged still was operating in the candy store on Charlotte street. One of the company was busily engaged making whiskey in the kitchen while the other man was waiting on the counter. Mr. Joseph Stewart, lisence inspector, drove up with his automobile and entered the shop. A strenuous endeavor was made to stop the process of manufacture and keep all odors out of the shop, but the man belonging to the business thought it was in vain and was almost prepared to throw up the sponge, when the license inspector shook hands and after sniffing the air a couple of times departed.

It was the closest shave a man could have without getting caught declared the teller of this story.

BYE-ELECTIONS

NOMINATIONS FOR ONTARIO PROVINCIAL SEATS DECEMBER 15.

Toronto, Nov. 22.— Nominations for the Ontario provincial bye-elections, made necessary by law for members of the Drury Cabinet, will be held on December 15th, and elections one week later, on the 22nd. This was oficially announced at the Legislative buildings this morning.

PUBLIC TO SAVE UP TO $7 A SUIT ON THE LESS EXPENSIVE GOODS

Order of Board of Commerce Defines the Point Beyond Which Profit Taking Becomes Profiteering.

Regarding the order of the Board of Commerce that fixes the gross profits in clothing for the purpose of this order the Board announces, "and for the calculation of the percentage of gross profit or margin on sale, the cost price of the article shall mean the invoice price plus duty, exchange and freight actually paid, and less all discounts alowed or obtainable.

All vendors of the same commodities with Canada, but excluding Toronto, are given until January 1st to show cause why the order should not apply to them. They are to submit complete annual balance sheets of business for each of the years 1912 and following; a statement of assets and liabilities and of profit and loss and trading accounts for each of the said years, and an itemized statement as of Nov. 30 of stock on hand of men's ready-made or partly ready-made suits and overcoats. "This latter and the balance sheets are to be certified as correct by an accountant."

A Drastic Order

J. C. Coombes, manager of Oak Hall clothiers, Toronto, says that it is a very drastic order and that it was [illegible] if the order could be carried through. His firm, he said, opposed such a measure from the start.

"It is not a fair basis of doing business," said Mr. Coombes, "and is uncalled for at this time. We cannot work on that percentage at all, and we may just have to close up. At least that is the way I size it up."

Applies to Distribution.

"This order deals only with distribution," pointed out Major Duncan, Toronto representative of the board. "The question of the manufacture of cloth and clothing is still under investigation.

"The present order serves two purposes. Firstly, by prohibiting the taking of a gross profit in excess of 33 1-3 per cent. on sales it defines the point beyond which profit taking in the retail sale of ready-made clothing becomes profiteering. In justice to the retail clothiers, it is necessary to say that it was the practice before the war, and in very few cases has this been exceeded.

Th Public Benefits

Secondly, on the less expensive suits the order allows an even smaller margin of profit, that is, 26 per cent. on sales. This is a very close price to the store of high rents and high overheads. Thus, a suit which the manufacturers' laid down price is $15 may in future not cost the consumer more than $20.28. The same suit today might be marked up to $27. The order means that, depending on what was the retailer's system of charging, the public will save on the less expensive suits anything up to $7 a suit. As about 50 per cent. of the ready-made suits sold to-day [illegible] will be realized that the saving to the public is very substantial.

BRITISH EMPIRE DELEGATES COMING TO CANADA WHEN CONFERENCE ENDS

Series of Fraternal Gatherings Fosters Cordial Relations Between Delegates at Washington.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The gathering of British Empire delegates with Lord Grey on Monday and the subsequent visit which the delegates purpose to make to Canada are culminations of a series of fraternal gatherings in progress since the opening of the International Labor Conference. Between delegates from different parts of the Empire there have been the most cordial relations. If the Labor conference achieves no other purpose (and none except the proposed conventions to be fruitless) it will have served as an excellent rallying ground for discussion of economic difficulties, of labor problems and politics throughout the Empire.

Autonomy For Each

Among themselves the British Empire delegates are known as the league of British nations. But there has been no evidence of that solid block against the rest of the world which caused so much tribulation of soul among hesitant Senators in Washington. Relationships between all groups from all parts of the Empire represented are to be the best. Yet each preservs its autonomy. Canadian labor, for instanc, opposed the 48-hour week proposed by Mr. Barnes, of the British War Cabinet; Canadian emploers were unable to agree with the employees' proposals on the same subject as submitted by Mr. Marporibanks, British employers' delegate, and Canadian Government representatives voted against Government representativs from Great Britain, India and South Africa, in favor of making the minimum age of employment of children in India 12 years instead of nine years.

The details of the trip to Canada are now being worked out. Pressure of engagements in England will probably prevent Right. Hon. G.N. Barnes British Government delegate, and Right Hon. C. W. Bowerman, of the British Labor delegation, from accompanying the party. But the majority of the Empire delegates are hoping to visit the Dominion.

U. S. KEEPING AN EYE ON MEXICO

NO ANSWER YET TO STATES' NOTE REGARDING THEIR CONSUL'S ARREST.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 22. — Mexico continued today to be the object of sharp vigilance at the State Department, pending an answer from the Mexican Government to a note of warning that further molestation of Wm. O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, who was twice arrested in connection with his abduction by bandits, would seriously affect relations between the United States and Mexico.

No reports regarding Mr Jenkins had reached the State Department early this morning.

VACC NATE TRAVELLERS

U. S. ENTRIES CLOSED TO PASSENGERS UNLESS HEALTH CONDITIONS OBSERVED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Nov. 22. — The Dominion Department of Health has been advised that he United States Government has imposed vaccination conditions on all travellers from Toronto and vicinity entering United States ports of entry. This is due to the prevalence of smallpox in these districts.

GERMAN BARQUE IS IN DISTRESS

FOUR-MASTER SOUTHEAST OF HALIFAX SENDS CALLS FOR HELP

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Halifax, Nov. 22. — The German four-masted barque "Paul" is in distress 350 miles southeast of Halifax, and is asking for tow from Halifax, but this it was understood this morning could not be supplied. A wireless message telling of her condition has been sent broadcast in the hope that some steamer will be able to render assistance.

London ratepayers will vote on a by-law to provide $100,000 for the erection of a memorial hall.

Chatham milk producers tereaten a milk famine as the result of so much complaining about the price.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowdes, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 139 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 166 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1919.

WHEN MATERIALISM FAILED.

IN ALL NATIONS the last quarter of a century became merely a mad chase for money. Production and commerce expanded. Machinery made infinite wealth for the few, but at the same time enlarged the middle class of comfortable folk. Self-made men were plentiful. Self-sufficient men were innumerable.

There were countless persons saying, "By mine own hand and by mine own power have I gotten me this wealth." It seemed as if all our education, all our planning, was devised to glorify the pursuit of prosperity. Many young men chose their callings solely with reference to the prospect of growing rich. The conception of serving the world died out. It was replaced by the aspiration to take care of number one.

Materialism had its way in the world. The artist was a mere voice crying in the wilderness. The preacher seemed to be a foolish person declaring that money was not the end of man. Literature grew pessimistic and satirical. Even humor became hard and ironical. The The nations dwelt in mutual suspicion and piled up armament.

Then came the inevitable catastrophe, war, grim and terrible. Suddenly men grew serious. Youths who had been able to gratify every selfish whim displayed a desire for self renunciation. Fathers and mothers, sons and daughters, remembered their duty to their country. The spirit of humanitarianism, long crusted over by self-indulgence, melted its bonds and flamed high. The liter[illegible] understanding that they had mistaken mere appearance for reality, recognizing that a race they counted as valets and money-grubbers had turned modestly heroic.

All through that murky five years the greatness of sacrifice and the power of devotion were made apparent. The imponderables weighed heavy. Public admiration was turned from the millionaire to the beardless second-lieutenant walking erect at the head of his men into a hell of shrapnel. It was at once a terrible, but a noble time. Those who formerly had grieved at the rise of materialism were thrilled at the wonder of a universal comradeship. Surely, they thought, the lesson had been learned.

Yet scarcely had the armistice been signed until there were signs of national and individual forgetfulness. All classes began to make extreme demands. Unrest appeared. Some employers thought they could go back immediately to the old custom of considering Labor as a mere commodity. Some extreme Labor men thought the time opportune for despoiling all capital of its rights. International bickerings continued. Individual and class quarrels grew high. Profiteers were discovered. "Won't works" made their appearance. There was reason to fear that the heroic time would be succeeded by a time of grasping selfishness.

Religious leaders who had seen the spirit of the battlefield lifted their voices in protest. They called upon all the churches which accepted the Gospel of Christ to proclaim the essentials of the creed rather than to dwell unduly upon minor points of doctrine. They asked not for the union of the churches, but for the unity of Christian spirit, so that the gospel might be set forth in the eyes of all men as the only cure for that diabolism which had despoiled the goodly earth for five long years and might soon despoil it again.

The call was effectual. Today there is a Forward Movement in five great churches—the Anglican, the Congregational, the Methodist, the Baptist and the Presbyterian. There is a central organization, called the United National Campaign, which exists to synchronize these movements, to emphasize the power of the Gospel to make Canada a great nation and to assert the brotherhood of all who bow at the feet of the Nazarene. It is the noblest spectacle this Dominion has ever seen — a million Christian people and ten thousand congregations praying "for the peace of Jerusalem," and proclaiming that only by love to God and love to man, this nation may be led out into a large place.

THE TREATY IS DEAD!

THE PRESS of the United States look on the treaty with Germany as agreed to by the European allies from varied points of view, but perhaps, of all America's leading papers, the New York Sun is the most pronounced in its opposition when it says, editorially, "Thank God that treaty is dead!"

President Wilson's self-determined covenant has been beaten, says the Sun, and beaten for time and eternity for reasons that are plain and sufficient. Briefly stated, the principal reasons are these:

First, because it has been from the beginning an impossible, if not an inconceivable, thing that the American people, through their constitutional representatives in the United States Senate, should vote, at least with their eyes open, for the merging of any part of their sovereignty in a system of foreign control, or for the surrender in any degree of that independence of action which was bequeathed to them by the heroes and statesmen who made America free; the far seeing old worthies who shaped the course of the Republic's prosperity and greatness.

Secondly, because the arrogant, obstinate pride of opinion, which attempted, in the guise of service to humanity in general, to bring about this previously undreamed-of revolution in America's traditional politics was attempting at the same time to reconstruct the very framework of the American system of distributed powers; that is, to concentrate in the Executive the functions and decisions entrusted by the Constitution to the Legislature, the Judiciary and the people themselves; to substitute individual will for representative determination; to erect an autocracy in the false name of democracy; to establish a virtual dictatorship in a republic which hates the world.

These have been the overshadowing issues during the long contest. We are bound to say that the defeat of autocratic government equals, if it does not surpass in importance to the future of our country, the defeat of the project of entanglement. And in comparison with these two supreme results of the victory achieved by the patriots of both parties in the United States Senate all other considerations become for the moment negligible.

It has been the privilege as it was the duty of the Sun to help with all its heart and elbow power to propel into the consciousness of the nation the real significance of that which the interwoven peace treaty and League covenant proposed. It has been gratifying in the extreme to observe, during more months than we care to count, the gradual opening of eyes, the progressive comprehension of meaning, the constantly strengthening resolution to resist. We have now no fear of a resumption in any dangerous form at a future time by any parliamentary process whatever of the unsuccessful enterprise. If the attempt is made, an enlightened people will know how to dispose of it.

Thank God this treaty is dead and we are still a free and independent nation!

TOMMY A GOOD BOY.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL HUGH CABOT, a Bostonian, who served with the Royal Army Medical Corps, takes issue with Phillip Gibbs over his statement that the war had a brutalizing effect on the British soldiers.

"I was strongly impressed with the extent of the British Tommy's innate respect for women. Under ordinary circumstances he is one of the most foul-mouthed persons in the world I had lived abroad. But Tommy really shocked me when I saw him entirely apart from his officers. He will never use bad language when an officer is around. There is a certain sameness to his bad language that gets tiresome. His variety of bad words is very small. But you see Tommy in a hospital ward, under conditions which will bring bad language out of a man if anything will, and it is entirely different. In all the talk I heard 'over there,' I never heard him say a word in a ward to which any one could take the slightest objection. Subjected to dreadfully painful dressings day after day, he would keep his mouth shut. If he squealed over something he would say to the nurse, 'Sorry, sister.' In the presence of women he would not use anything but the most carefully selected language. He never forgot himself. To the women with whom he came in contact, particularly the nursing staff, he was extraordinarily devoted, with the real chivalry of a gentleman."

SERVICE FOR CANADIANS.

MISSIONS among non-English speaking people in Canada have been conducted for many years by the five denominations associated in the Inter-Church Forward Movement. For some years past there has been an allocation of effort, the Anglicans being responsible for serving the Eskimo and Indians of the far north and west, the Presbyterians taking charge of the work among the Ruthenians, the Methodists being responsible, in the cities at least, for missions among Italians, and the Baptists undertaking a difficult Bulgar and Macedonian problem. The work has been approached in a reasonable and efficient manner. It cannot be said that the different denominations are overlapping in the work that they are doing for aborigines and for newcomers from southeastern Europe. Even with this allotment of territory the churches, with their present resources, are unable to meet the demands made upon them.

Here are a few quotations from the statements of Anglican bishops:

"If the work of Bernard Harbor is to be carried on, more men, clerical and lay, are needed."

"Funds are urgently needed to carry on an enlarged general work among settlers; for the maintenance of St Chad's Cottage; for training candidates for the ministry; and to serve the needs of three thousand Indians in the Diocese of Qu'Appelle."

"The chief need is that of clergymen to serve various missions which are vacant, and money for extension work."

"I need more clergy, more students in the college and more money in the treasury."

"Our most pressing need is for men to fill Indian and Eskimo missions."

"The pressing needs of the present among the Indians are for workers possessed of enduring missionary spirit."

"It seems impossible to write of progress. During the last three years we have been struggling to keep alive with 23 and 24 clergy to do the work of 35."

It was reported also to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church that the cost of living had so far increased upon every mission field that the salaries of missionaries were utterly inadequate. All home mission work of the Methodists, Baptists and Congregationalists is under a similar handicap by reason of the cost of living, scarcity of men and lack of new candidates for missionary training. Yet the opportunities for effective work have been multiplied on every hand. People are clamoring everywhere for the service of Christian missions. The people of Canada do not realize how utterly hopeless the missionary problem is unless the means for extension are largely increased.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

THE MEMBERS of the W. C. T. U. do not, at least, lose any time sitting down while weeping for new worlds to conquer.

• • • • •

HOTEL ROOMS in Jerusalem cost $100 a week without board or bath. And was the Holy City rescued from the barbarous Turk for this!

• • • • •

THE UNITED STATES Senate has finally rejected the peace treaty, but the League of Nations' apple cart has nevertheless up to the present maintained its balance.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

TREATY RESERVATIONS.

(Kingsotn Whig.)

Among the people who are signing peace treaties with reservations are the brides who are promising to obey their husbands.

NOT THEY.

(John Bull.)

A million British soldiers did not lay down their lives that a million British workers should lay down their tools.

DEPUTIES FIRE ON STRIKERS

Shooting at Youngstown Follows Attack on Negro Workmen

Youngstown, O., Nov. 21.—Deputy sheriffs opened fire on steel strikers yesterday during attacks on colored workmen leaving an East Youngstown plant, and one striker was shot in the leg. One negro is in the hospital from injuries received and another was less seriously hurt.

The house of a workman in East Youngstown was destroyed last night by fire of mysterious origin.

The Bessemer plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company resumed operation today, the company announced.

AN IDEAL TONIC FOR WEAK PEOPLE

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS ACT DIRECTLY ON THE BLOOD AND NERVES.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in most cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery. In health the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often fickle and depraved.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most popular tonic medicine in the world, harmless and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and restore the vitality to the run-down system. For growing girls who become thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who fail in strength Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Thousands of people have testified to the health-giving qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in many homes they are the only medicine used. Among the homes in which the benefit of this medicine has been proved is that of Mr. E. A. Underwood, Kingston, Ont., who says:—"I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the most beneficial results. As the result of hard work I was very much run down, and my appetite was very poor. I got a supply of the pills which I used regularly for some weeks with the result that they restored me to my old time strength. They also proved a blessing to my daughter who was in a very anaemic condition, and who seemed not to get more than temporary relief from any medicine until she took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She took the pills for about three months, and is now enjoying the best of health. For these reasons I can stronlgly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

At that first sign that the blood is out of order take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and note the speedy improvement they make in the appetite, health and spirits. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK

As a winter panacea for coughs and colds Angonquin Park cannot be equalled. Two thousand feet above the sea it is always dry and cold. Days spent in snow-shoe tramps, tobogganing or ski-ing and in skating, together with evenings spent in social converse around the cosy warmth of an old-fashioned log fire: these slip away unnoticed but those who have once experienced them return to their avocations with renewed energies. The "Highland Inn," owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, offers comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. For all particulars apply to N. T. Clarks, Manager, Algonquin Park Station, Ontario.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

An active tool never acquires rust.

Common sense is none too common.

A man seldom forgets a favor he does another.

Gardeners ought to know when it it bedtime.

Butter and axle grease look alike to a man in love.

And even the skin deep beauty is apt to wear off.

Trying to dodge work tires more men than hard labor.

A genius is a man who is not much good at anything else.

It doesn't require much practice to acquire the art of being lazy.

Only a strong minded woman can preserve fruit and her temper simultaneously.

The railway conductor has troubles of his own without worrying about his wife's train.

When the average man expresses his gratitude it is merely an offhand way he has of asking for more.

Wood's Phosphodine. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins. Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. [illegible]

RISK OF $1,250,000 FOR OTIS SKINNER

MOVIE OUTFIT BEATS CHARLIE CHAPLIN AND FAIRBANKS' INSURANCE RECORDS

New York, Nov. 22.—Otis Skinner is in process of acquiring the highest priced breath on the stage. This is no prohibition joke—it doesn't mean that since the bubble burst in July the star has been storing away rare vintages where they would do the most good. It is literally true, for in a short time if Mr. Skinner's breath ceases to circulate it will mean that life insurance for $1,250,000 will be put in circulation.

This is larger than the insurance policies attributed to Douglas Fairbanks and Charlie Chaplin, for they are said to have at a mere $1,000,000 each that for some time to come the only shortness of breath for which they can be accountable will occur to the audiences watching their antics. The insurance on Mr. Skinner is being taken out by the motion picture concern for whom he will stroke an asbestos beard in the filming of "Kismet" when not disseminating "The Rise of Peter Barban" for Charles Frohman, Inc., in the provinces where Horatio Alger is still revered.

John A. Morrison, an agent for the Aetna Life Insurance Comvany of Chicago, is dolling out the policies among fifteen insurance comvanies, having already placed $800,000 with hoves of placing the balance before Mr. Skinner's market value increases. Meanwhile high priced physicians are ready to attend the actor if his accent breaks down, and a husky attendant goes with him on a walk in case an admirer rushes up and tries to wrest from him an autogravh.

The Fly and the Flea.

A fly and a flea in a flue were imprisoned. Said the fly: "Let us flee." Said the flea: "Let us fly." So they flew through a flaw in the flue.

Daily Thought.

There is no better ballast for keeping the mind steady on its keel and sav[illegible] business.—Lowell.

X-Rays on Bugs.

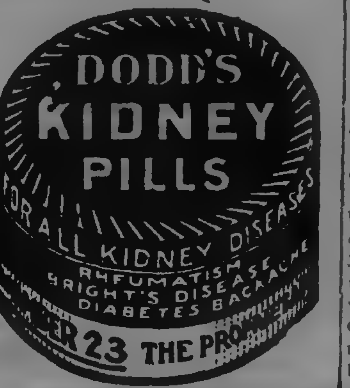
X-ray apparatus has been invented for killing the tiny parasites that eat small holes in leaf tobacco.

It Can Be Done.

"You make $4,000 a year as an aviator. And yet people say you can't live on air."—Boston Transcript.

Optimistic Thought.

As a storm purifies the air, so does misfortune sweeten life.



Prompt Returns From Shipments

When you ship Grain, Butter, Cheese or Fruit, put through The Merchants Bank a Draft on the buyer. This is the business way of securing prompt and satisfactory settlement.

It saves time and possible loss.

THE MERCHANTS BANK
Head Office: Montreal. OF CANADA Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager.

It Is A National Duty That All Should SAVE!

Decide how much you can afford to put by every Pay Day. Having determined the amount you can save, resolve that that amount shall be taken FIRST from your Pay and deposit.

OPEN AN ACCOUNT NEXT PAY DAY IN
The Royal Bank Of Canada

THREE SOCIETY FAVORITES ARE ASKING VATICAN FOR DIVORC

American Women Concerned in Applications at Rome fo Annulment of Marriage—Princess Radiziwell Pleads.

Rome, Nov. 22.—Three American women are concerned in applications for annulment of marriage now being considered by the authorities at the Vatican.

Mrs. Dorothy McCombs, formerly Miss Williams of Washington, has requested the annulment of her marriage to the former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, William F. McCombs.

Duke Heinrich-Borwin of Mecklenburg-Schwerin has asked the annulment of his marriage to the widow of Count Gasquet-James, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Pratt of New York.

The Princess Antoine Albert Radziwill, formerly Miss Dorothy Parker Deacon of Boston, has based her plea for the annulment of her marriage to the Russian Prince on the ground that she was forced into the marriage.

Mrs. McCombs is a daughter of Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams of Washington and a sister of Mrs. Joseph Leiter. Her marriage to the then chairman of the Democratic National Committee was celebrated on November 7, 1913, in London. In 1916, when McCombs was a candidate for United States Senator, his wife sued for divorce in Rockland county, New York. There was no publicity until March of the following year, when the decree was granted. McCombs said at the time: "The marriage was unhappy almost from the beginning, and I can say no more than that."

Heinrich-Borwin, Duke of Meck lenburg-Schwerin, was married mor ganatically to Elizabeth Pratt afte the death of her first husband Count de Gasquet-James, to whon she was married in New York i 1901. The Count was an Am citizen, but he and the Countess li ed in France until his death in 190 He left her an estate of $900,000 The Countess became the wife of th Duke in 1911. The German court refused to recognise the validity o the marriage, and at the instance of the Kaiser the Duke started le gal annulment proceedings. Th Duchess brought a counter suit i London to have the union declare valid, but lost. She was born i New York in 1860 and was a daugh ter of Col. George Pratt, who wa killed in the battle of Bull Run. Sh is more than twice the age of th Duke.

Dorothy Deacon is the youngest o the three beautiful daughters of th late Edward Parker Deacon of Bos ton. Prince Albert Antoine Rad ziwill's relatives bitterly oppose his marriage to the American gir The ceremony was to have been per formed in London on June 22, 191 but when many guests had gathered was postponed without explanatio It did take place on July 5.

It is the easiest thing in the worl to stir up trouble. All you have t do is to tel lthe truth at all time

A little capital

"IF ONLY I had a little capital, look where I might have been to-day!"

Are you going to be one of the men who say that after you have passed middle age, or are you going to be one of those who "got there" because you had that "little capital" when your chance came?

Most big business concerns and large fortunes had small beginnings.

The men who accomplish things are not the idle rich but the ambitious, industrious men, rich or poor.

A little money saved each week and deposited in the Bank of Toronto can be the beginning of your life venture. With the interest it earns it does not take long to accumulate capital sufficient for a start. The money you have for your beginning, the sooner is your success.

We invite your banking account.

BANKING HOURS:
GENERAL BANKING HOURS
10.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m.
SATURDAYS:
9.30 a.m. to 12.00 noon
E. J. H. VANSTON, Manager

THE BANK OF TORONTO

MONEY TALKS AT DAWSON BROS.

TRY OUR PROFIT-SHARING SYSTEM

CASH DISCOUNTS THAT COUNT

Most discount sales are made on only special articles of a limited quantity and for a limited time. Our discounts apply to everything we have on sale in the store without any exceptions. And they are working all the time.

CASH DISCOUNT on Mondays will be 5 per cent., or 5c on every dollar.

CASH DISCOUNT on all other days will be 2 per cent., or 2c on every dollar spent.

READ THIS OVER CAREFULLY
and you will readily see that it pays to give us your Grocery orders.

DELIVERY TO ALL PARTS OF THE CITY.

Dawson Bros.

- GROCERS -

Cor. George and London Sts. Phone 1620
650 Roger St. - Phone 1041w

Much Cut Up!

One day recently a dilapidated, apathetic man entered the office of the Syracuse Medical college and offered to sell his body cheap, adding that he was out of work and almost discouraged. "You're almost discouraged, are you?" rejoined the superintendent, who always tried to change the determination of these unfortunates. "Why, man, if you sold your body to us the first chance our students got they'd take the heart out of you entirely!"—Cartoons Magazine.

Time.

Time is a mystery which we have arbitrarily divided into a past and a future, that we may understand something of it. In itself we may be almost certain that it is but an immense, eternal motionless present, in which all that has taken place immutably, in which tomorrow, save in the ephemeral mind of man, is indistinguishable from yesterday and today.—From "The Double Garden," by Maurice Maeterlinck.

Red Lead for Dry Batteries.

A dry battery utilizing red lead, instead of the usual manganese compound, has been patented by H. Czanyi. It is claimed that the red-lead battery lasts longer than the type now in vogue, may be kept inactive for months without any deterioration and may be recharged at least ten times, with each recharge as efficient as any present battery.

For Bed, Board and Laundry.

Here is a perfect gem of misapplied English from a woman answering an advertisement for a French governess "au pair:" "I know a little English, and could give easy, at once, lessons in French, for which I will be nourished, lying down, and bleached, who, I think, are the conditions 'au pair.'"—Boston Transcript.

"Naturalized" Bird in Cuckoo Clock.

Cuckoo clocks, once so popular, were for the most part "made in Germany," so a jeweler in an Indiana town decided that it was time that the bird in his clock should be "naturalized," says Popular Mechanics Magazine. When he had finished alterations the bird came forth and whistled "Bob White," like a native American.

Kerosene Kink.

It has been proved that if lamps and heaters in which kerosene is used as fuel are kept scrupulously clean, there will be a decided saving of oil; also, there will be an equal pleasing absence of the disagreeable odor that so often accompanies the burning of kerosene.

Rusty Steel.

To clean rusty steel, oil well the rusty parts and set aside in this state for two or three days. Then wipe dry with clean rags and polish with emery or pumice stone. When very rusty and a high polish is desired rub the article with a little slack lime.

Much Sameness in Mankind.

Console yourself, dear old man and brother; whatever you may be sure of, be sure at least of this, that you are dreadfully like other people. Human nature has a much greater genius for sameness than for originality.—Lowell.

SINCE 1870 SHILOH 30 DROPS STOP COUGHS

BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

The Prince at the White House

PERVERTED VISION

Is corrected by wearing Dr. Fowler's guaranteed "PEBLO" Glasses. No matter how the rays of the light misrepresent things, "PEBLO" Glasses will enable you to focalize properly and see things as they are. Whatever the defect of your eyesight, we can rectify it.

FOR AN ELDERLY FRIEND.—It is time to think about your Christmas Gifts. Try a pair of gold-mounted glasses for some elderly friend. We exchange and fit correctly after Christmas.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS
Phm. B. Toronto University.
HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES
Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

ENGINEER GIVES OUT THE FACTS

THOMAS JENNINGS MAKES AN ACTUAL GAIN OF SEVENTEEN POUNDS.

"The best proof I can give that Tanlac was the right thing for me is the way it has relieved my suffering and built me up," said Thomas Jennings, the well-known transfer engineer employed at the Rock Island railroad shops, living at 501 C. Avenue North, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, while discussing the medicine recently.

"At the time I began taking Tanlac," he continued, "I weighed only one hundred and twenty pounds, but I now balance the scales at one hundred and thirty-seven, making an actual gain of seventeen pounds, all from the use of five bottles of the medicine. I was suffering from a bad case of stomach trouble and general run down condition, and the results of a severe spell of typhoid fever last fall. In fact, for about two years I had been suffering from gas on my stomach and pains all through my head. I had lost weight until I was almost a living skeleton. I had gotten to the point where I could hardly keep going.

"Seeing Tanlac so highly endorsed I got a bottle and had not taken but a few doses until there was a decided change in my feelings. I have taken five bottles now and am simply feeling like a brand new man. My pains have all left me and I can eat just anything I want without the least trouble with my stomach. I am feeling just fine and no one could see the wonderful change Tanlac has made in me and doubt it being a great medicine. If I ever need medicine again I will certainly get Tanlac for I know now what it will do. I am telling all my friends about it and gladly recommend it to anyone who wants the best."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood, by G. Pringle and Son.

Unexpected Information.

A clergyman lost his horse on a Saturday evening. After hunting with a boy until after midnight he gave up in despair. The next day, somewhat dejected at his loss, he went into the pulpit and took for his text the following passage from Job: "Oh, that I knew where I might find him." The boy, supposing the horse was still the burden of thought, cried out: "I know where he is. He's in Deacon Smith's barn!"

Taboo.

When anything is forbidden, or its exclusion has been ordered, English-speaking people sometimes say it is "taboo." The word is derived from an institution once common throughout Polynesia and New Zealand. It signifies something set apart or prohibited, because of its being either sacred or accursed. This has given rise to the use and significance of the word in English.

Making Goodness Attractive.

It is not always the best people who are the most popular; and though popularity is no safe standard it counts for much in a person's scope of usefulness. If we have good things to offer let us offer them so attractively that others will be glad to accept; not so clumsily that what we offer will be rejected with scorn. If we can make goodness beautiful we make it beloved.—Exchange.

The British Kingdom.

Great Britain includes England, Scotland and Wales. It is called Great Britain in distinction from Brittany (Bretagne, Lesser Britain). In the union with Scotland in 1707, Great Britain became the official name of the British kingdom, and so continued until the union with Ireland in 1801. Since then the form has been Great Britain and Ireland.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TO-MORROW

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN

Major the Rev. Canon Davidson, Rector
Rectory: Corner of Brock and Sheridan streets.
22nd Sunday after Trinity
8.30—Holy Communion.
11.00—Morning Prayer and Sermon.
3.00—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
7.00 p.m.—Evening Prayer and Sermon.
Richard J. Devey, Organist and Choirmaster.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH

Rubidge and Sherbrooke
RECTOR:—REV. R. B GROBB, M.A
11 a.m. Morning Prayer.
3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
4 p.m.—Holy Baptism.
7 p.m.—Evening Prayer.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Rogers Street
Ashburnham—East City
Rev W. H. White M.A., Rector
Rectory 344 Rogers Street
The Sunday before Advent.
8 a m. Holy Communion.
11 a.m.—Matins and Sermon.
Rev. R. B. Grobb will preach.
3 p.m.—Sunday School.
4.15 p.m.—Men's Meeting.
7 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon.
Rector will preach.
Wednesday, 7.30 p.m. — Bible Study and Prayer.
Mr. Cyril H. Devey, Organist and Choirmaster.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

Rev. Jas. Price, Rector
11 a.m.—Matins and Sermon.
3 p.m.—Sunday School.
7 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon.
Thursday, 7 p.m.—Ladies' Guild.
Thursday, 8 p.m.—Choir practice
Friday, 7.30—Boy Scouts
Friday, 8 p.m.—Sunday School Concert.
Organist—Miss Beatrice Blake.
Choirmaster—M. H. Lowdon.

ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC

Low Mass, 8 [illegible]
High Mass, 10.30 a.m.
Vespers, 7 p.m., with sermon

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Corner of Rubidge and Brock Street
Rev. James Rollins, B.A., Minister
Residence—St. Andrew's Manse.
430 Rubidge street.
11 a.m.—Divine Service. The Minister will preach.
3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
7 p.m.—Divine Service. The Minister will preach.
Prelude—"Evensong" (Harker).
Anthem—"Hark, My Soul It is the Lord" (Gounod).
Solo—"Guide Me to the Light."
Postlude — "Hymn of Peace" (Westwood).
Miss Helen McLaren soloist.
Mr. John Crane will preside at the organ.
Seats Free. Strangers Welcome

ST. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. Robert Pogue, Minister
The Minister will preach at both services.
11 a.m.—Morning Worship.
Subject: "Why Join the Church?"
Duet—"When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" (Jude)—Mrs. F. Ellis and Miss E. Hinchliffe.
Anthem—"The King of Love" (Shelly).
3 p.m.—The Sabbath School.
The Young Women's Bible Class—Teacher, Rev. R. Pogue.
The Young Men's Class—Teacher Mr. H. B. Cowan.
7 p.m.—Evening Worship.
Subject: "The Supreme Question."
Male Chorus—"Beyond the Smiling and the Weeping."
Anthem—"Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace" (Williams).
Solo—"Would You Believe?"—Mrs. Frank Ellis.
Mr. Frank Tattersall, organist and choir master.

KNOX CHURCH, PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, B.D., Minister
11 a.m.—Morning Service. The Minister.
3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
7 p.m.—Evening Service. The Minister.
Preceded by a short Song Service
Good music at all services.
8 p.m., Wednesday—Prayer meeting.
F. E. Walden, organist and choir leader.
Seats Free Strangers Welcome

MURRAY ST. BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. R. Webb, Pastor
Residence—544 Aylmer Street
The Pastor Will Preach.
11 a.m.—Morning Service.
The Ordinance of Baptism.
The Choir will sing Shanks' "O, Love That Will Not Let Me Go." with Male Chorus, and Miss Florence Scott will sing.
3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
7 p.m.—Evening Service.
Subject: "The Making of a Choir."
Walter Batley will sing "My Mother's Bible." The Choir will also sing "Holy Art Thou," a vocal adaption of Handel's celebrated "Sargo."
Ida Sanderson, Organist.
Asa Huycke, Choirmaster.

PARK STREET BAPTIST

Rev. Dougald Brown, Pastor
255 Reid Street
11 a.m.—Morning Service.
3 p.m.—Sunday School
7 p.m.—Evening Service.
The Pastor will preach morning and evening.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST

11 a.m.—The Pastor will preach. Subject: "Meeting God."
Anthem—"Gently Lord, O Gently Lead Us" (Hawley).
Solo—"O May My Walk Be Close With God" (Johnston)—Mrs. J. H. Renwick.
3 p.m.—Sunday School.
7 p.m. — The Pastor's subject: "Following the Fashion."
Anthem—"There Are No Shadows Yonder" (Harkness)—Solo parts, Mrs. J. H. Renwick.
Solo—"Angels of Light" (Marshall)—Miss Doris Rathbone.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. F. E. Malott, B.A. B.D. Pastor
Rev. F. E. Malott, B.A., B.D.
11 a.m.—Pastor's theme, "How to Approach God."
Anthem — "O, Lord How Manifold."
Soprano Solo—"Repent Ye"—Mrs. King.
3 p.m.—Sunday School and Brotherhood.
4 p.m.—Baptism at the Church.
7 p.m.—Pastor's theme, "A Mission and a Destiny."
Anthem—"The Radiant Morn."
Soprano Solo—"The Light of Life"—Mrs. King.
Unaccompanied Hymn—"Softly and Tenderly."
George H. King, Organist and Choirmaster.
Will those who have signed the pledges for intercessors and personal workers, please hand them in at one of the Sunday Services.
Visitors welcome.

MARK STREET METHODIST

Rev. G. E. Ross, Pastor.
10 a.m.—Class Meeting and Junior League.
10 a.m.—Sunday School and Bible Class.
11 a.m.—Morning service.
7 p.m.—Evening service.
Organist and Directress Miss E. Kemp.

ST. JAMES' METHODIST

Corner Romaine and Aylmer Streets
Rev. J. F. Chapman, B.A., Pastor
Parsonage—163 Romaine
Phone—465m
11 a.m.—Subject, "The Greatest Love."
3 p.m.—Sunday School.
7 p.m.—Subject, "The Greatest Sin."
Monday—Young People's Meeting
Wednesday, 8 p.m.—prayer meeting.
Thursday—Choir practice.
Friday—Boy Scouts.
A. Nicholls, organist and choirmaster.
Cordial invitation is extended to all.

SALVATION ARMY TEMPLE

Simcoe Street
Adjutant and Mrs. Buxton in charge
515 King St. Phone 440w.
7 a.m.—Knee drill.
11 a.m.—Holiness Meeting.
2 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.
Those who do not attend any other Sunday School are cordially invited.
3.15 p.m.—Praise Service in Victoria Park.
6.15 p.m.—Open air Hunter and George.
7 p.m.—Salvation meeting.

SALVATION ARMY, CROWNTON

Chamberlain street
Lieut. Chivers in charge.
Sunday, Sept. 14.—Havest Festival Services.
Monday, Sept. 15.—Harvest Festival Sale.

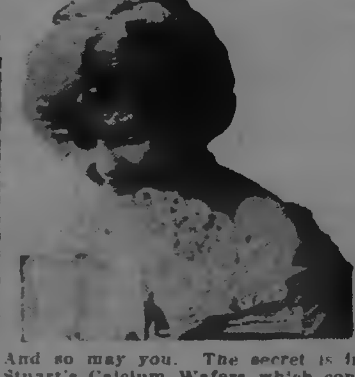
ASSEMBLY HALL

First Floor Old Opera House Building, George Street
Saturday, 8 p.m.—Choir practice
Meetings on Lord's Day:—
3 pm.—Sunday School.

DON'T TRY TO HIDE PIMPLES

Get Rid of Them. Use Stuart's Calcium Wafers and Be Overjoyed With the Result of a More Beautiful Complexion.

Yes, you say, she certainly has a wonderfully beautiful complexion.



And so may you. The secret is in Stuart's Calcium Wafers which contain calcium sulphide, the greatest skin purifier known. This remarkable substance is absolutely necessary to keep the skin in healthy condition. Its action in the skin is little short of marvelous and you will be overjoyed to see pimples, blackheads, blotches and rash, with its itching, relieved. Stuart's Calcium Wafers are for transforming a muddy complexion to the loveliest, softest and most delicate skin. Do not fail to get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers at any drug store; trust to nature and you will never again use hair-growing pastes and lotions.

11 a.m.—Breaking of Bread
A hearty welcome to all.
"Christ died for the ungodly."

BETHANY TABERNACLE

459 George Street
Pastor, Rev. A. J. Doner, 535 Aylmer Street
10 a.m.—Sunday School.
Pastor Doner, Supt.
11 a.m.—Preaching
7 p.m.—Evening Service.
Thursday 8 p.m.—Prayer meeting

Painting on Brass.

Unless care is taken to have the surface absolutely clean, considerable difficulty is encountered in attempting to paint over polished brass. To insure a satisfactory job the brass should first be scoured with a mixture of salt and vinegar to remove all grease, after which the surface should be washed with hot soap suds and wiped dry with a clean rag. Thereafter the paint may be applied without risk of its running while wet or chipping off after it has dried.

Orioles.

As for myself I am turned contractor of hammock netting for the orioles, taking my pay in notes. I throw strings out of the window and they snap them up at once. They sit in the cherry trees hard by and warble, "Hurry up! hurry up!" I never found out before just what they said. But if you will listen you will find that this is what they first say. A vulgarism, I admit, but native.—Lowell.

Storms Carry Birds to Far North.

Certain instances of birds found singly far to the north of their usual range are possibly to be explained by the whirl of our cyclonic storms. The wind, turning counter-clockwise, blows off shore in the south and carries the bird out to sea. But sooner or later, if the bird has the good fortune to last out the experience, the farther spin of the storm tends to bring him ashore again.

Interesting Text Books.

A school in Italy uses stamp albums to teach geography and history. Each student has his own collection, while the school owns a larger and more complete one. The boys and girls are a great deal more devoted to their studies with such novel text books to attract and interest them than they would be with just common pink and blue maps.

Arabian Hides Grade Well.

Arabian skins coming into the world markets through Egypt and the Sudan originate exclusively in Jedda and places in the vicinity of Mecca. They embrace cattle hides, sheep skins, goat skins and camel hides, and are generally dry salted. Arabian hides are limited in quantity; the quality, however, is excellent.

Joy of Motoring.

No feeling in the world is equal to the thrill of real motoring. The joy of the long tour, through strange and out-of-the-way places is never ending. Odd scenes and quaint people are everywhere. Get out on the road, off the boulevard and see how the other people live.

The Name Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, is Your Guarantee — 65 Years Established.

TEMPERAMENT IN A PIANO

One speaks of temperament with a musician as indicating a fineness of feeling and complexity of moods that gives to his work something far removed from the common.

Yes, the real artist is a man of moods—he is an artist because he is temperamental—because of his moods.

The same thing is true of a high-grade

HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO

They Make No Other

A great artist like De Pachmann is only at his best when before an instrument such as this, because it meets his every mood and responds to his finest shadings of music thought and sentiment—a piano that is the one essence of delight to the senses always and everywhere at the best.

HEINTZMAN & Co., Limited

Cor. George & Hunter Sts. Peterboro

CAN. PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

To and from Kingston Sub-Division.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 1, there will be a change in the Kingston Sub-Division Train Service, providing a daily, except Sunday, day connection as follows: Leave Peterborough 11.59 a.m., arrive Kingston 5.35 p.m.; leave Kingston 9.50 a.m., arrive Peterborough 3.20 p.m.

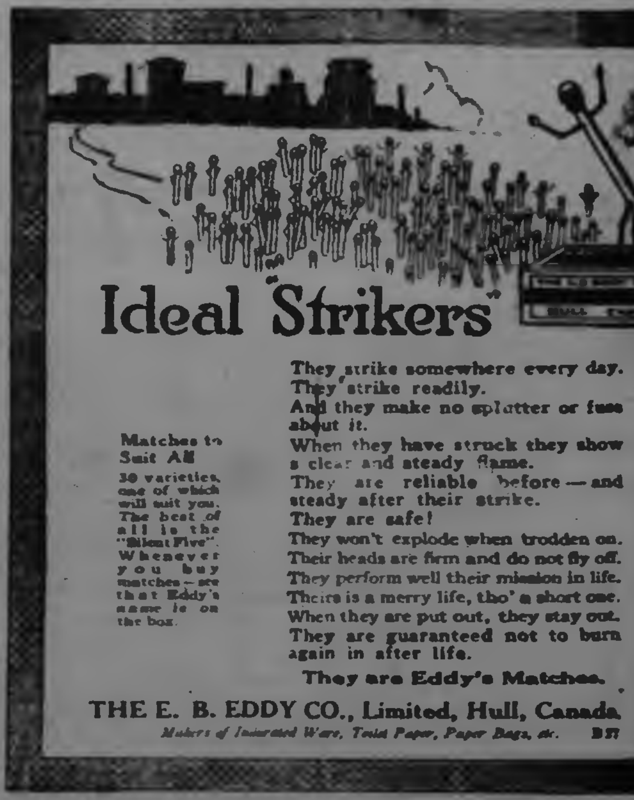
Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents.

Profitable Well.

A Pennsylvania corporation that has been prospecting for petroleum in Colombia has tapped a well that produces profitably after passing through oil-bearing sands.

Indelible Ink.

Aniline black, 5 parts; oelic acid, 6 parts; castor oil, 94 parts. To this mixture should be added a few parts of Indian ink. Shake before using.



Ideal "Strikers"

Matches to Suit All

30 varieties, one of which will suit you. The best of all is the "Silent Five". Whenever you buy matches—see that Eddy's name is on the box.

They strike somewhere every day.
They strike readily.
And they make no splatter or fuss about it.
When they have struck they show a clear and steady flame.
They are reliable before—and steady after their strike.
They are safe!
They won't explode when trodden on.
Their heads are firm and do not fly off.
They perform well their mission in life.
Theirs is a merry life, tho' a short one.
When they are put out, they stay out.
They are guaranteed not to burn again in after life.

They are Eddy's Matches.

THE E. B. EDDY CO., Limited, Hull, Canada.
Makers of Indurated Ware, Toilet Paper, Paper Bags, etc. B57

Don't forget the Battery on your Car This Winter

Unless kept fully charged, the battery may freeze, and frozen batteries are not worth repairing.

Be on the safe side—let us store it for you, under the proper conditions. It only costs a little, but it means that you will get your battery in the Spring in the best possible condition.

GRANT & THORPE

WILLARD SERVICE STATION.
418 GEORGE STREET. TELEPHONE 798

TO-NIGHT GRAND TO-NIGHT

THE BIG NEW YORK MUSICAL SUCCESS

CATCHY MUSIC "GLORIANNA" 100 PER CENT Beauty Chorus

EVENINGS 8 P.M.—3 DAYS ONLY—MATINEE DAILY 2.30

MONDAY - TUESDAY - WEDNESDAY

The Most Expensive Program Ever Presented In This City

The Golden Age

Every art has its Golden Age bringing those wondrous works that live on through all the years. And it seems that a Golden Age has dawned for the newest of al larts—the moving picture. The master of the screen has brought to us a creation of such exquisite wonder and beauty, of such haunting charm and purity, that all else seems as of yesterday.

D. W. GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

Taken from a story of Thomas Burke, is at once the most pitiful, most tragic, and withal the most sublime love story ever told. And in the telling the master, Griffith, has wrought such rare and undreamed of beauties that a new art, full, rich, boundless, is revealed.

A SUBLIME CREATION OF A MASTER MIND.

Presentation on An Elaborate Scale Including The Original Musical Score Played by an

AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

Added Vaudeville Program for this Engagement

THE ROYAL

HAWAIIN SINGERS AND PLAYERS

FROM THE PARADISE OF THE PACIFIC

PRESENTING

"A NIGHT IN HAWAII"

WITH SPECIAL SCENERY AND ELECTRICAL EFFECTS

PRICES TO SUIT EVERYBODY

ENTIRE Ground Floor and First Section Balcony 50c

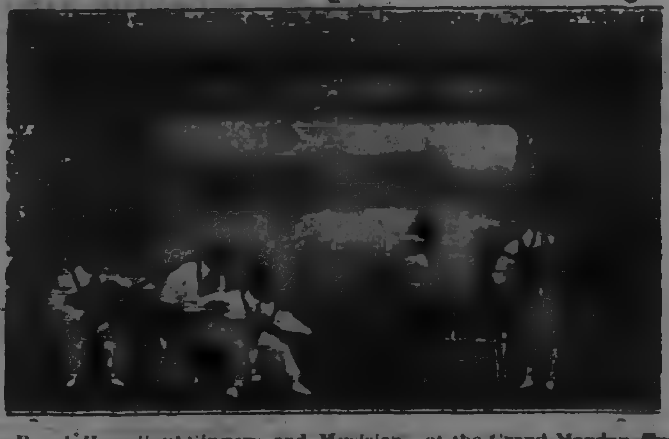
BALANCE Balcony and Gallery 25c - 35c

MATINEES ALL SEATS 25c

Coming MONDAY TUESDAY Dec. 1st & 2nd

F. STUART WHYTE'S RED RIDING-HOOD

JUST ONE Better Than "ALADDIN"



The Royal Hawaiian Singers and Musicians, at the Grand Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in conjunction with D. D. Griffith's "Broken Blossoms."

EMPIRE THEATRE

OLIVE TELL —in— "THE TRAP" A 6-reel special feature of the Klondyke.

FANNIE WARD —in— "THE PROFITEERS" Learn what and who is responsible for the H. C. of L.

Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"

The Serial will be shown first at each Performance.

COMEDY

MONDAY — TUESDAY — WEDNESDAY

WM. DESMOND —in— "Beyond the Shadows"

ANITA STEWART —in— "The Painted World"

Why do mothers oppose their daughters in going on the stage? See Anita Stewart in her newest picture.

Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c

EMPIRE ORCHESTRA

Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

"THE BEST MUSIC IN THE CITY"

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.39 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicoll and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.

No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.

No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.

No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.

No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.

No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.

No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.

No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.

No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.

No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

Department of Railways and Canals,
Canada.
TRENT CANAL.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Rebuilding Dam at Lakefield, Trent Canal," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, November 29, 1919.

Plans, specifications and form of contract to be entered into can be seen on or after this date at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa; at the office of the Superintending Engineer, Trent Canal, Peterborough, Ont.

Copies of plans and specifications may be obtained from the Department on the payment of the sum of ten dollars. To bona fide tenderers this amount will be refunded upon the return of the above in good condition.

An accepted bank cheque for the sum of $8,000, made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals, must accompany each tender, which sum will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in, will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

By order,
J. W. PUGSLEY,
Secretary.
Department of Railways and Canals,
Ottawa, November 14, 1919.

HARD COAL

EGG, STOVE, NUT, PEA

H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

Lackawana Coal

Means Economy

Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.

Trucking Orders Promptly Filled

Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-562

MIXED WOOD

$7.00 Per Cord

Cutting and Splitting extra.

ORDER NOW

FROM

J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

Canada Food Board License No. 8-9813

D. M. MINICOLA

Best Fruit— Cheap

Best Vegetables Reasonable

Best Groceries At Right Prices

410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 93b

McClary Manufacturing Company will build a foundry in London, costing $55,600.

Longshoremen of St. John, N. B., will receive an increase of ten cents per hour.

ALLEN THEATRE

LAST SHOWING TO-DAY

ETHEL CLAYTON

—in—

"A SPORTING CHANCE".

In conjunction with the Serial

"THE RED GLOVE"

Commencing Monday for 3 Days

THE SPECTACULAR RACING FEATURE

"LORD AND LADY ALGY"

With

TOM MOORE

THEATRICAL

"GLORIANNA" TODAY

GREAT MUSICAL COMEDY AT GRAND THEATRE MATINEE AND NIGHT

"Glorianna,' 'the great New York musical comedy success, which plays at the Grand today, matinee and evening comes to this city with a record that would justify any Broadway producer to expand his chest. In addition to being the talk of Broadway, "Glorianna" captivated the fastidious audiences of Chicago to such an extent that the producers were compelled to play several return engagements there. In Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington and St. Louis the production met with an equally successful reception at the hands of the theatregoers. The production has been brought to this city just as it was produced at the Liberty Thearte in New York. The famous "Glorianna" rainbow chorus, gorgeously costumed, will also be here. So that the piece might be given the high-class interpretation to which it is entitled, the producers have gone to considerable extent and engaged principals whose names are familiar to the theatregoers of this city.

GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS" TO BE SEEN AT THE GRAND THEATRE

Film That Has Been Sensational Success Wherever Shown

Of extraordinary interest, not only to lovers of the motion picture, but likewise to all who appreciate the highest in art in its various manifestations, is the announcement of the Grand Theatre that it has secured David Wark Griffith's superb screen creation, "Broken Blossoms," to be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Never has a motion picture been accorded a reception comparable to the triumph that has followed every showing of this production. Newspapers have devoted column after column to its beauties and wonders. Everywhere its success has been instantaneous and it is safe to say that in bringing "Broken Blossoms" to our city, the management of the Grand has to its credit the biggest accomplishment in artistic entertainment that we have yet enjoyed.

Mr. Griffith, it will be remembered, together with Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks, early in 1919 organized United Artists Corporation—popularly known as "The Big Four"—for the making and marketing of their own productions It is through this organization that "Broken Blossoms" is being placed in the theatres of the country.

The story of "Broken Blossoms" Mr. Griffith adapted from a tale by Thomas Burke called "The Chink and Child" which is part of that author's famous volume "Limehouse Nights." Around this story, and we speak from the opinions of dramatic critics the country over, Mr. Griffith has built the most alluring, yet pitiful, beautiful, yet tragic love story ever filmed. It has become habit, almost, to look upon a Griffith production as something more than a motion picture, yet even the most ardent admirers of the art of this master of the films did not dream of the wonders that he would reveal in "Broken Blossoms."

And of acting, let a word be added. Lillian Gish as "The Girl" has reached a height of dramatic interpretation the like of which has never been seen on the screen before. This little artist has labored faithfully, steadily, with an understanding marvelous in one so young, and now she comes into her full glory in "Broken Blossoms." "The Chink" is played by Richard Barthelmess and to his work the critics have paid high tributes likewise. To the telling of the love story of "Broken Blossoms," it is said that both Miss Gish and Mr Bathelmess have brought never-to-be-forgotten artistry. Donald Crisp plays the part of "Battling Burrows," the brute on whom fatherhood has been forced, and his portrayal of a difficult role with rare talent and strength, completes the triangle of chief characters in the story.

"Broken Blossoms" should prove the crowning achievement in the splendid gallery of film presentations that we have enjoyed at the Grand. A special program has been prepared, including the music which Mr Griffith personally arranged and some of which he composed. All in all, we look forward with keen anticipation to the Grand's presentation of the Griffith masterpiece, for a film that has been so sensationally successful elsewhere is assured of more than a hearty welcome in Peterborough.

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD HERE DEC. 1ST

F. STUART-WHYTE'S FOURTH ANNUAL ENGLISH PANTOMINE FOR THE GRAND

"Little Red Riding Hood," F. Stuart-Whyte's fourth annual English pantomime, will be the offering at the Grand for two days, commencing Monday, Dec. 1.

Produced, as it has been, upon a scale of granduer never before attempted outside of Drury Lane, "Little Red Riding Hood" promises to prove the one biggest spectacular success of Canadian theatrical history, and its coming to this city may be regarded as an unparalelled event.

The action of the piece is divided into fourteen gorgeous scenes, each one a masterpiece of lights and color, presenting a kalidoscopic panorama of Fairyland and the tales of Mother Goose.

While the thrilling story of Little Red Riding Hood forms the central theme of the plot, the other favorites of childhood days have not been overlooked, and the long cast of characters includes, Little Boy Blue, Little Bo-Peep, Little Jack Horner, Little Tommy Tucker, Jack and Jill, Margery Daw, Peter Piper, Old Mother Hubbard and her dog, Old King Cole, a wonderful fairy queen, who rules over them all, and last, but not least, the naughty wolf, who nearly turns it all into a tragedy instead of a joyous comedy.

There are twenty new song successes, which have been written especially for Mr. Whyte's production, among them being "The Village Blacksmith Rag," "Love Me Just the Same," "When I Paint Your Pretty Face," "If I Could Care for You," "In Lovers' Lane," "Songs of Yesteryear," "There's a Wild Wolf Waiting for Every Good Little Girl," "The Officers' Mess" and a timely novelty numer, "On Strike."

The company includes Miss Zara Clinton, who was the principal "boy" of "Aladdin," "Robinson Crusoe" and "Cinderella;" Miss Dorothy MacKay, a dainty little Scotch lassie of eleven years, who plays the name part; Mr. Johnny Osborne, of the London Hippodrome and "Zig Zag" ame; Mr. Will Hallet, the famous animal impersonator from the Drury Lane, and Mr. John V. Barrett-Lennard, who is always a favorite in Mr. Whyte's productions.

The supporting company has been chosen from the foremost pantomime artists in England and the big beauty chorus is of Mr. Whyte's picking Which means living dreams of glorious girlhood, dressed in the most wonderful costume creations that the world's greatest modistes can conceive.

To miss seeing "Little Red Riding Hood" would be doing yourself a personal injustice.

SURPASSING MOTHER LOVE DEPICTED IN ANITA STEWART PICTURE

Vitagraph presents Anita Stewart in one of her strongest dramatic efforts in "The Painted World," which will be shown in the Empire Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a vivid page from the Book of Broadway, dealing with that realm known as "buckstage," into which a young girl is thrust against her own strong will and the influence of a mother who had been through it all.

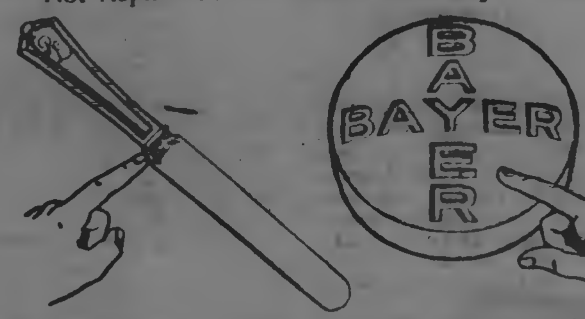
"The Painted World" is acknowledged the greatest screen achievement of Jacques Futrelle, who perished in the Titanic disaster, whose inimitable novel, "The Thinking Machine," won his early distinction.

"The Painted World" was directed by Ralph Ince, and, aside from Miss Stewart, includes in its cast E K. Lincoln, Julia Swayne Gordon Charles Kent and Harry Northrup.

By one of those strange, wanton mistakes of nature, a child is born to Elois the actress. The advent of the child, Yvette, arouses in Elois the one fine trait in her nature—a tremendous mother love. To keep the child clean and to protect it from the influence of her life and that of its dissolute father becomes one passion of her soul. A moment comes when it is borne in her forcibly that to keep the child clean she must send her away. She sends the child to a fashionable boarding school where she shall be made into a lady and shall think of her mother as a wealthy widow travelling extensively.

From her life at boarding school Yvette looks forward not with pleasure to the visits home from time to time, to the passionate, suffocating embrace of a perfumed woman—her mother—to the dreary days of companionship and the endless caresses of her. It is on one of these visits home that she meets her father under conditions so strange that she is gradually led to believe, as her mother says, that they were dreams, and the scar she caries across her eye for life came to her in a fall. Her schooling over, Yvette, on the threshold of the world, returns to her home. The introduction to the Masked Lady of the Moulin Rouge follows, through a visit to Yvette from her father.

That night Yvette, from a place in the balcony, sees her mother stand forth, unashamed, her ivory flesh gleaming satinlike through the thin, enshrouding tissue of silk. After the first moments of intense outrage of every finer feeling, the veneer that had been added to Yvette in years of training sloughed off, laying bare the coarse, primal grain. She tells her mother nothing. She fails to speak of the visits of her father and of her introduction to the manager of "The Gay Girls of Gotham Burlesquers" as his leading lady. The mother returns one night to find her husband there and her daughter missing. In the midst of a terrific scene, in which she tries to make him tell where the girl is, Yvette enters. In the scene that follows her mother realises that the girl is gone. She does the inevitable—saves the girl's soul at the cost of her body; lays a double crime to the man who has caused all her misery, and the tragedy ends in his being cornered, powerless to explain,



ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" on Aspirin is like Sterling on silver. It positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by
MANSFIELD F. HOUSE
(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

Fake Piano Scheme Unearthed in Louisville

Not only did the Better Business Bureau of the Louisville Advertising Club obtain a complete confession from a "warehouse" piano dealer who recently advertised illegally in Louisville newspapers, and an agreement from him not to repeat such advertisements, but it has also obtained the co-operation of the Louisville newspapers so that such advertisements cannot in the future be repeated either by the advertiser in question or any one else.

This advertiser has stated in the classified columns of two Louisville newspapers that he had "a brand-new piano," which he will sell "for balance due."

An investigator for the bureau was informed that major, recently returned from the army, had ordered the piano but that when it arrived the soldier had failed to keep his agreement, with the result that the man who inserted the advertisement was selling the piano for the balance due, the major having had a deposit of $485. The advertiser offered the piano for the $333625 which supposedly remained due.

In large gold letters inside of the case the price, $850, was stenciled.

Investigation showed that this advertiser [illegible] into Louisville to a local freight or express office, then advertised them in a manner similar to the procedure which resulted in this investigation, selling them off the floor of the express or freight office. The bureaus attorney reported that the Kentucky truth-in-advertising law had been violated and that it would be possible to make a case against the advertiser.

A consultation with the advertiser in the course of which the facts and the opinion of the attorney of the bureau were submitted to him, brought forth a confession and a plea for clemency. The advertiser gave the bureau a written statement, properly witnessed, in which his passed performances were acknowledged and in which he made a written pledge as to his conduct in the future.

Among other things, he agreed that all his advertisements would, in the future, be submitted to the bureau before they were inserted.

[illegible] has also shown that three of four other men have been operating in a somewhat similar manner in Louisville and all of these cases are under investigation, the Louisville newspapers co-operating with the Better Business Bureau toward the elimination of all advertisements inserted by any such "gyp" dealers, until the methods of such dealers, as well as the advertisements are brought up to the standards prescribed by the Better Business Bureau of Louisville.

Indianapolis Finds Farm Market a Failure

Like St. Louis, Indianapolis has been forced to abandon the idea of the farmers' market. Only six weeks of a campaign born of the hope of lower prices to the consumer was needed to prove that the plan would not work.

The fault, results show, did not lie with the public. It lay with the farmers, who promptly took advantage of the situation to stick both the profit of the retailer and that of of the wholesaler in their pockets, without lowering the price to the consumer at all. As a matter of fact they took even greater profit than this, for in the very nature of curb markets their expenses ran far lower than those of wholesale and retail merchants, and this difference, too, went in their pockets.

Before the city finally abandoned the idea, however, Harry R. LiBeau city market master, made an investigation of the farm market experiences of St. Louis, Seattle, Columbus, Detroit and Lancaster. In each case the experience was virtually the same. A painfully small number of farmers came to the market regularly with their produce. So small was this number that there existed virtually no competition at all among them and it was an established custom to base their prices upon the prevailing schedules of the retail stores.

"The Best Christmas Ad. We Ever Used."

According to George W. Reese advertising manager of the D. H. Holmes store, in New Orleans, the best and most profitable Christmas advertisement ever used by the Holmes Company was a page devoted entirely to phonographs.

"This page," says Mr. Reese, "pulled like a team of army mules, and the reasons, as we figure them were these:

"The page commanded attention by its size and established the line which we featured for what it is—the high-class product of the largest manufacturers of musical instruments in the world.

"It made home selection' easy because it gave all the details of size finish price, construction and appearance.

"It invites immediate action by playing up the complete outfit which could be bought at the fixed price and on the terms named.

"It appeared at a time when competing instruments— especially those of older and possibly more strongly established makes—were scarce, a condition which will very probably be repeated this year."

The page bore the headline "Holmes Musical News," with a banner line below stating "You can have a (trade name) in your home this Christmas." Then followed an explanation of the phonograph situation in New Orleans and a detailed description of the points of excellence of the machine in question. At the sides and bottom of this type appeared boxes containing illustrations of the various instruments, with a clear-cut statement of the price of each and the terms upon which it may be purchased. [illegible] for out-of-town customers, was placed in the lower left-hand corner.

Girls Pay Bills, But Men are Slow

Times are good, not bad, if the books of the Watertown New York Business Men's Association, organized last January and engaged in the business of collecting bad bills, are to be credited. The books are silent testimony of the disposition on the part of Watetown residents to straighten up bills that have been running as long as twelve years.

In general, Watertown folks are paying their bills better these days than in times past. The books also show that there are more dead beats among the young men than those of more mature years with families and who are under greater expense.

"There is very little trouble with the young women of the city," reads the association's statement. "They may run up bills of over $100, but in ninety-nine cases out of 100, as soon as they draw a pay envelope they are on the job, ready to make a payment,. In the case of young men it is a different story and in many instances considerable chasing-up is required."

The assiciation estimates that the "dead" accounts in the city total $9[illegible]700. The association during its eight months of existence, has handled collection accounts totalling $100,000.

Must Stop Taking Competitors' Clerks

To protect their mutual interests, to back movements of interest to the trade generally and to bring about co-operation among themselves, retail dealers in women's wearing apparel in Syracuse, N. Y., have organized the Retail Women's Wearing Apparel Association, with J. S. Shanahan, of the Shanahan Store, as its first president.

As explained by H. I. Hatchman secretary of the organization one of the first things the association will endeavor to do is to prevent the bidding for employes that now exists and to stop one proprietor luring the employees of another store away with the promise of higher wages. An effort also will be made to develop Friday as the biggest sales day of the week, in place of Saturday, through using the heaviest advertising of the week on Shursday night and Friday morning.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO., [illegible]

WEDDING - GIFTS -

in

STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's
367 George St. Next Turnbull's

MILK is a Concentrated
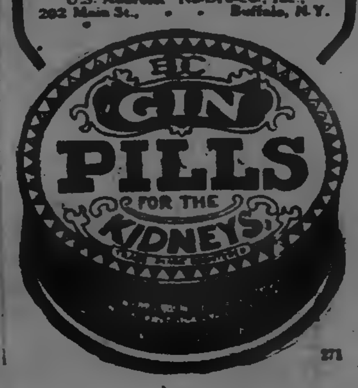
FOOD

For man, woman and child of all ages, Peterboro Milk Products Milk is a needed Food. It contains all the food elements your body needs, in well-balanced, right proportions.

Prof. Ruseman of Harvard says you would have to buy and prepare ¾ lb. of beef, or 8 eggs, or 2 lbs. of chicken or fish to get the nourishment contained in a single quart of milk.

Milk should be used plentifully in and with every meal. Begin today by ordering it clarified and pasteurised—perfectly safe and sanitary—from

PETERBORO MILK PRODUCTS LTD.
377 AYLMER ST. Phone 650



Rheumatic Pains

yield quickly to the healing power of Gin Pills. Frequently, before you finish one box of these wonderful diuretic Pills all pain will disappear, stiff joints will limber up, swollen ankles become normal, and joyous, buoyant spirits return to you. They work directly on the congested Kidneys, restoring normal action.

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Don't suffer any longer. Get a box from your druggist or dealer to-day, 50c. with money-back guarantee—or send to us for free sample.

Address: The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto

U.S. Address: Na-Dru-Co., Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

271

BECAME SO THIN SHE WAS AFRAID

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Made Her Well, Strong and Vigorous

MADAME ARTHUR BEAUCHER

805 Cartier St., Montreal.

"I suffered terribly from Constipation and Dyspepsia for many years. I felt pains after eating and had gas, constant headache, and was unable to sleep at night. I was getting so thin that I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

Madame ARTHUR BEAUCHER.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mad Musicians.

Among professional men actors supply the greatest proportion of lunatics. Then come, in order, musicians, civil servants, clergymen, writers and editors, and army men. The wonder is that editors do not figure much higher in the list.

Wet Porphyry Pebbles.

At Nantasket Beach I cannot but approve the taste which clothed the emperors in purple, when I see the wet porphyry pebbles.—Emerson.

Java Tea Experts.

In the tea world the rise of Java teas is notable. Exports from the island are soon expected to reach 100,000,000 pounds a year.

Optimistic Thought.

Station is no criterion of wisdom; Diogenes lived in a tub; Seneca in a palace.

It Doesn't Foller.

"Just because a man has a fertile brain is no indication that he can raise a lot of hair."

Daily Thought.

Time is generally the best doctor.—Ovid.

G.W.V.A. PLEAD FOR CONDEMNED MAN

PETITION FOR PARDON OF KOLUTSKY PRESENTED THE LIEUT.-GOVERNOR.

Toronto, Nov. 22.— Petitions for the pardon of Samuel Kolutsky, a returned soldier condemned to death for his part in a murder, has been made by the Great War Veterans' Association to the Lieutenant-Governor. Pathetic letters of thangs from the Russian, written in broken English, are comming to the association office. The most recent note, scrawled in the dusk of a prison cell, reads:

Dear Sir.—Just a few lines to let you know that i rec. a answer from you on Nov. the 5th, for vich i am thanking you very much. Well, I don't know the resultation, but your help to me is worth lat a thanking.

I think that the Minister of Justice will hear you cal, and will help me out, and friends of myn vich whe all mixed in murder case. Dear Sir, I am willing to tell you in my first letter all about how it happened.

In murder case tuke part five of us from vich one of us (me) Tom Kond instanly made a shut, and killd a man, and another man (te) Mike Bugry, vich tuke me down to that place. Rest of two fellows, A. Martinuk and F. Rosensky they weasen much to blem on the treil, and they had some rekomendation same as i. Time is going, and hard day of our life is coming, and whe can't hear no nuers from no whear.

I, filling that we are not worth that punishment, and i fill very sorry, when i only think what waiting ahead of me. Who told the truth long time ago, and whe are sorry for it now, but they would not believe us. If they only send us against the Bolshevicks, whe would tried to do best whe cant. Dear sir, once more asking you, to not live the thing pass away, please write nothing not to Ottawa, and please tried to best is you cant for us.

Yours sincerely,
(Sgd.) SAM KOLUTCKY.

INDIGESTION GOES, GONE!

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once fixes Your Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomach

Stomach acidity causes indigestion!

Food souring, gas, distress! Wonder what upset your stomach? Well, don't bother. The moment you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the lumps of indigestion pain, the sourness, heartburn and belching of gases, due to acidity, vanish—truly wonderful!

Millions of people know what it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disordered stomach. A few tablets of Pape's Diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once—no waiting! Buy a box of Pape's Diapepsin now! Don't stay miserable! Try to regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without causing distress. The cost is so little. The benefits so great.

The best sermon is the one that goes over your head and hits the other fellow.

It is easy to be content with what we have; it's what we haven't that worries us.

WINTER VACATIONS

The Grand Trunk Railwa yhas decided to give to those who love the great out-of-doors an opportunity to spend their Winter vacations in Algonquin Park. The "Highland Inn," the largest of the Park hotels, is to be kept open throughout the year, and there will be found all the comforts associated with first-class hotel service, including warm, cheery, public and private rooms and excellent cuisine. Two thousand feet above the level of the sea, Algonquin Park has ideal climatic conditions and is easily accessible, being about 200 miles north of Toronto, and 169 miles west of Ottawa. Every facility has been provided for winter sports, including skating, tobogganing, ski-ing and snow-shoeing. Copy of new publication, "Enjoy Winter in Ontario Highlands," may be obtained on request from Grand Trunk Agents, or from C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

Have You A Savings Account?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORCE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1.100,000.00

W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A SMART YOUNG woman for cutting table. Apply Albion Knitting Co., corner Park and Cedar Sts.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED IN the country. Apply Review office for address.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

YOUR FUTURE FORETOLD. Send dime, age, birth date for truthful reliable, convincing trial reading. Hazel Hause, Box 215, Los Angeles, Cal.

CUT THIS OUT FOR LUCK—Send birth date and 10c for wonderful horoscope of your entire life. Prof. Raphael, 94 Grand Central Sta., New York.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LAdies. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont.

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 873

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—A YOUNG MAN with a business education, who can keep books, do typewriting and shorthand. Apply, by letter only, and state salary, Box 476 Review.

WANTED—MAID FOR LIGHT housework. Apply Mrs. G. H. Thompson, 373 Park street. Phone [illegible]

WANTED.

WANTED — SEWING. TELEphone 1059J.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED, Temple Theatre, Brantford; steady work; heat in building; 75c an hour and time and a half over-time; can make $8 to $10 a day. Railroad fares paid Bring your tools. Apply on job, Dalhousie street, or telephone Adelaide 1829, Toronto, at my expense. E. J. Curry, 56 King street west, Toronto.

AGENTS WANTED.

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY for making $50 to $75 weekly from now until Christmas introducing "Canada's Sons and Great Britain in World War." Written by Canadians from battlefield notes and official records. Introduction by General Currie. Authentic, complete story of Canada's glorious record. Unusual opportunity for returned soldiers and others; Charles Marshall made $120 first 19 hours. Mr. Peel averages over 50 orders weekly. Spare time may be used. Outfit free. Winston Co., Toronto.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—WHITE ROBE for baby sleigh. Apply 507 Bethune street.

Children's Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked 'till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc. and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public. Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 304.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc,
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medallist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.C.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, Georgt Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1x. Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.

GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 396 George St.

A FIRST CLASS

HOT WATER BOTTLE

AT A LOW PRICE

Regular $2.50 For

$1.79

ON SALE NOW

MONCUR DRUG STORE

407 GEORGE ST.

"LOWEST PRICES ON PATENT MEDICINES."

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York. Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, says: Many men who smoke, chew or snuff incessantly, and who are seemingly healthy, are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison, which when absorbed by the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will-power, mental confusion, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchial trouble, hardening of the arteries, tuberculosis, blindness, or even cancer or the common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the following simple tests. Read aloud one full page from a book. If in the course of reading your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct, and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh, and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next, in the morning before taking your usual smoke walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, your heart beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be a victim of functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke, chew or snuff to quiet your nerves you are a slave to the tobacco habit, and are positively poisoning yourself with the deadly drug, nicotine. In either case you have just two alternatives: keep on with the self-poisoning process, irrespective of the dangers, and suffer the consequences, or give up the habit and escape the dangers. You can overcome the craving and stop the habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula: Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets, take one tablet after each meal, and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco, the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poison out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note. When asked about Nicotol tablets one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists. (1)

PRESENTATIONS AT FINALE OF THE VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN

Grandfather's Clock for Mr. Felix Brownscombe, Secretary—Happy Gathering of Workers Last Night

The 1919 Victory Loan campaign in Peterborough passed into history last night to the accompaniment of presentations and speeches at Hooper's Palm Parlors, where the city canvassing teams entertained the members of the campaign executive. It was a grand finale to a campaign that was marked by many pleasing and very satisfactory features, the memory of which will linger long in the minds of all who had a part in the work.

Mr. Frank Whitehouse was chairman, and with him at the head table were Mr. W. H. Bradburn, county chairman Mr. Harold Fry, county organizer, Mr. Frank Blackadar, publicity organizer, Mr. eGo. Warburton, divisional supervisor and Mr. Vincent Eastwood, county vice-chairman. Lesser lights in the organization occupied places of honor among the canvassers.

Quite a Surprise

Mr. Felix Brownscombe, secretary of the organization, fell the biggest surprise of the night. Mr. Brownscombe was presented with a magnificent grandfathers clock with chimes and bearing the inscription" presented to Felix Brownscombe, by City Canvasing teams, Victory Loan 1919'" It was agreed by one and all that Mr. Brownscombe was well worthy of the honors. His was an exacting and arduous work, and he did it well and to the satisfaction of everybody.

Workers Remembered

Mr. Bradburn received a silver-mounted umbrella, Mr. Fry and Mr. Blackadar, tie-pins, set with pearls and diamonds, Mr. Eastwood, a silver cigarette case, and the team captains Messrs. H. J. McCannan, V. J. McElderry, F. H. Dobbin and Frank Whitehouse, who had charge of the canvass in the factories, each received a brush, probably for the purpose of cleaning away the "mud" that was buried about during the evening, as the team captains and their men unfolded tales of tresspassing and poaching, during the campaign.

Many nice things were said of the individual efforts of the workers, and volley after volley went in the direction of organizers Fry and Blackadar. These gentlemen returned the fire with good effect, and said they would carry away with them very pleasant memories of their stay in Peterboro, and their associations with the members of the Victory Loan organization.

Press Assistance

Due acknowledgment was made of the splendid assistance given during the campaign by the local newspapers, and Mr. Whitehouse paid tribute to the heads of the factories for their help in the work of canvassing the employees.

The High Team.

Herb. McCannan captained the team that had the highest total of business for the campaign, the team having $116,400 to their credit. Incidentally, Mr. McCannan was the leading canvasser.

Those present were: Messrs. W. H. Bradburn, Harold Fry, Frank Blackadar, Warburton, Vincent Eastwood, F. H. Dobbin, Ward Patterson, H. C. Stabler, J. F. Thornton, D. W. Lewis, H. Rush, H. J. McCannan, W. N. Blewett, R. E. Rutherford, A. N. Allison, J. A. O'Brien, V. J. McElderry, John R. Corkery, J. F. Strickland, J. E. Sullivan, Jos. Mills, R. Morrison, F. Whitehouse, W. G. Howden, H. G. Webber, F. D. Craig and C. E. Curtis.

HOT WATER FOR SICK HEADACHES

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headaches are caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilid, aspirin or the bromides, which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, billousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

The death sentence of Jos. Grenier, ager 78, who is in jail at Andover, N.B., has been commuted to life improvement.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, steaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful aperance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

TO INSURE AGAINST POVERTY

Writer Is Confident That a Practical Scheme Will Be Worked Out Before Many Years.

Sickness is an insurable risk and there is no doubt that some very comprehensive and acceptable scheme of insurance against it will yet be worked out. Whether, in the United States, it will be a compulsory, state-managed scheme is by no means so certain. But the more that subject is agitated the faster sickness loss will be reduced, for agitation will direct attention to public health, and means that are tried and proved will be more extensively employed to prevent sickness.

Steady, intelligent public attention is what the whole problem of poverty needs. There is no doubt that a great part of it is preventable. The poor, it is true, we have always with us. Time was when we had always had slavery and smallpox with us. Now out of half a million persons one person dies annually of smallpox in the United States. Time was when slavery and smallpox were generally taken as a matter of course. As soon as they ceased being taken as a matter of course they were put into the way of practically disappearing—not by any magic formula but by tireless, sure-footed, practical-minded effort.

At length we have the means of reducing poverty to its practical, irreducible minimum. It is only very recently, as history runs, that we have had those means. But now we have the wealth—not enough wealth for a limousine and a grand piano to every inhabitant and a four-hour workday; but enough for the essentials of decent physical existence to every family. We have the social and industrial organization and the body of scientific knowledge. Poverty is a social loss and a social danger. We can take out an insurance policy against it.—Will Payne, in Saturday Evening Post.

ASKED HIM TO SEND THORAX

Specialist Invited to Forward X-Rays by Parcel Post Becomes Somewhat Satirical.

Dr. Simon Flexner of the Rockefeller institute, who has just received one of the French government's highest decorations, told a story at a New York dinner.

"The medical ignorance of some people is staggering," he said. "I know an X-ray specialist who got a letter from a middle western farmer the other day. The farmer wrote:

"'Dear Sir: I have had a nail in my thorax for 17 years. I am too busy to come to New York, but want you to come down here to Paris Corners with your rays, as my case will be worth your while. If you do not find time to come, send a dozen rays boxed, by express, with instruction card, and I will try to work same myself.'

"The X-ray specialist wrote back to the farmer of Paris Corners:

"'Dear Friend: I regret to say that business engagements prevent a trip to Paris Corners, and I am unfortunately out of rays just now. If you cannot come to New York, send me your thorax by parcel post and we will see what can be done.'"

The Persistent Echo.

"Good morning."

"Good morning."

"You remember that house you sold me last week?"

"Certainly."

"Well, I had my wife up to see it yesterday, and now I want to sell it back to you again."

"But you said you admired the house."

"I did."

"What fault do you find with it now?"

"It has an echo in it."

"That doesn't hurt it."

"Yes it does."

"In what way?"

"When my wife scolds me for staying out late the blamed old house will repeat it six or seven times, and gosh, how I do hate nagging."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

English Words.

It would be impossible to give the exact number of words in the English language. Words are constantly being coined and foreign words are being added to the language. A recent edition of a leading dictionary gives between 400,000 and 500,000 words. Many of them are derivatives, as run, running, ran, runner, etc.

LIVE IN PRACTICAL SLAVERY

Esthonians Little Better Than Serfs to the Germans, Who Own Nine-Tenths of Land.

Esthonians, or Esths, who have repulsed repeated attacks from the Bolsheviki, and recently drove a force under Trotzky to ignominious flight, are described by Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor in a National Geographic society bulletin as follows:

The Esths are a Finno-Ugrian people, once savage and adventurous, terrifying the Baltic with their piracy, constantly attacking and attacked by the Danes and Swedes. Their final subjection by the Brothers of the Sword and their enforced acceptance of Christianity crushed their spirit and rendered them serfs to the German masters.

The Esths outnumber the Germans in the old province of Esthonia 29 to 1; yet nine-tenths of all the land is held by Germans.

In the former province of Livonia the Esths constitute nearly half the population, while the Germans are less than one-fifteenth. There the land is divided into estates averaging over ten thousand acres in extent, none owned by an Esth or Lett but almost invariably by a German.

The Russian government at times endeavored by agrarian laws to alleviate the condition of the peasant. Such efforts failed against the stolid resistance of the great proprietors.

The Esths have clung devotedly to their national language, the sole inheritance from their past. They love poetry and song. Their physical characteristics are Finnic; their faces short, broad, beardless; their foreheads low, mouths small, arms long, legs short. Despite their extreme poverty education is relatively advanced. All but 4 per cent are Lutheran Protestants.

Since the sudden universal awakening in 1918 the Esths have been insistent upon national recognition. But ownership in the land is their greatest need.

WHEN FLYING IS UNIVERSAL

Some Highly Interesting Legal Problems That Will Call for Intelligent Settlement.

A series of interesting questions has been made concerning contingencies that may be expected when [illegible] actually used for miscellaneous traffic. How, for example, will the man on the ground be protected against carelessness by the man in the air, and what kind of sign can the airplane carry which will serve to identify it if some earth-man wishes to lodge a complaint with the authorities? Or again, what will be the rights of the proprietors of a baseball park if an aviator evades the price of admission by flying about over the diamond? Or what will be the remedy of the man who is kept awake at night by airplane motors? What will be the limit of the private citizen's property measured perpendicularly, and how can he tell whether or not an airman is trespassing? Such questions are amusing to read, but in all seriousness they mean that the legal problems that will come up with the increasing use of airplanes will require ingenuity for settlement.

Queen of the Rhine.

A writer in the March number of The Sunday at Home recalls that Cologne, on the Rhine, which is now occupied by British troops, dates back to the year 37 B. C. In the year 50 A. D. a Roman colony was established there by Colonia Agrippina, the wife of Claudius Caesar, and the city was named after her. It has always been an important city, doing a large trade. The 1905 census shows a population of 428,503, of whom 80 per cent are Roman Catholics.

Cologne is a fortress of the first rank, the forts forming a semi-circle around the city. Being an ancient city, the streets are narrow and crooked. The Church of Ursula is said to contain the bones of 11,000 virgins, slaughtered, the legend informs us, by the ancient Huns because they would not break their vows of chastity. The great cathedral is one of the finest examples of Gothic architecture in Europe. It was centuries in building. The total cost has been about two millions.

Toll of Snakes in India.

The American consul, M. M. Haywood, stationed at Calcutta, India, states in a government report that more than 26,000 persons lost their lives in the country last year because of snakes and wild animals—the snakes claiming by far the larger number of victims.

To be exact, the consul says that 23,900 persons died in India last year as a result of snake bite, and that 2,176 persons were killed by wild animals. This is an increase of 300 over the previous year as regards fatalities from snake bite and an increase of 400 as regards the number killed by animals.

Boy Saved by Rubber Heels.

Lawrence Ramm's study of electricity was not for naught. The young Ben Franklin, who is twelve years old, and his brother, John, two years his senior, went out with other Chicago lads for a bit of play. They encountered the end of a broken electric wire, still charged with a strong current. With boyish curiousness John touched the wire. He could not let go.

The other boys became frightened and ran. But Lawrence remained.

Tearing off his rubber heels, he jammed them against the wire and his brother's hand was released.

Divisions among families are an unsatisfactory kind of arithmetic.

A dollar on hand is worth two on a margin.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

LOOK AT TONGUE! REMOVE POISONS FROM STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

Only a doctor of long experience can look doleful when an epidemic is brewing.

A wise man knows a good thing when he sees it, but a fool doesn't know a good thing when he has it.

Paradoxical as it may seem, the father of one baby is usually twice as happy as the father of twins.

WINNIPEG VETS READY FOR FRAY

PREPARED AT ANY MOMENT TO ENTER THE POLITICAL FIELD

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—Composed of members of all returned soldiers' organizations in Greater Winnipeg, a gathering of over 4,000 veterans have decided to amend the constitution of the several veterans' associations and to be ready at any moment to enter the political field, either in municipal, provincial or Federal affairs.

Major G. W. Andrews, M.P., first addressed the gathering on the gratuity question and his attitude during the recent session of the Federal House.

R. E. Bray, one of the strike leaders now on trial, had a hard time and finally was forced to quit the platform, after telling his auditors that he had not been to France and proceeding to sharply criticize the members of the G.W.V.A. executive.

The melancholy days have come.

The harder a man works the less time he has to whine.

Never judge a man's character by the quality of his hat.

Lots of people come to grief by meeting trouble halfway.

A man wastes more time during a six months" courtship than he does all the rest of his life waiting for street cars.

A SIMPLE METHOD TO REMEDY RHEUMATISM

AGE DOES NOT INTERFERE IF TREATMENT IS PROPERLY FOLLOWED

Many persons contend that there is no sure remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Neuritis, or their kindred diseases, but don't be biased: draw your own conclusions from the proof submitted.

Over two years ago, William Nesbitt, of 113 John St., Toronto, Ontario, was attacked by Rheumatism. Mr. Nesbitt was 53 years of age at the time and he feared the worst. After trying many remedies and prescriptions without obtaining relief he took a friend's advice and used Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules. Result—to-day Mr. Nesbitt says, "He hasn't lost a day's work since nor fears Rheumatism any more."

Mr. Nesbitt gives the entire credit for his recovery to T.R.C.'S. Profit by his experience. Try them.

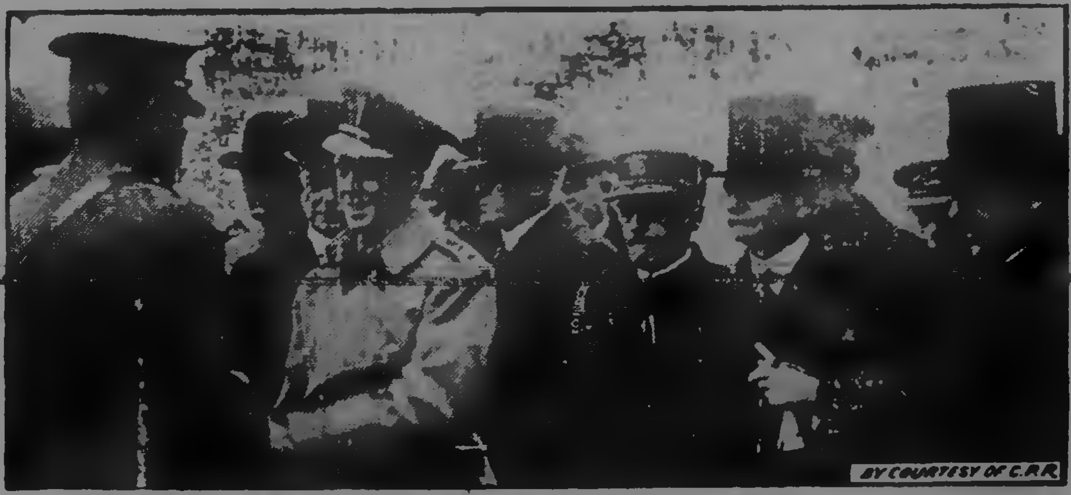
Ask your Druggist or write us for our new booklet, it is interesting and costs you nothing (Templetons, 142 King West, Toronto). We mail T.R.C.'s on receipt of [illegible]

Sole agents for Peterborough, McDermid & Jury, Pesrcription Specialists; for Lakefield, Tanner Drug Co.; for Havelock, A. J. Denike; for Hastings, T. A. Coughlan; for Campbellford, J. W. Cairns.

A chapter of the I.O.D.E. has been organized in Preston.

James H. Flock who had practised law since 1856, died at London.

Two more cases of sleeping sickness have been reported in Winnipeg.



BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

General Pershing Greets the Prince at U. S. National Capitol. On the Prince's left is Vice-President Marshall and Secretary of War Daniels.

J. Thompson & Son

WHOLESALE FRUIT, PROVISION AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Sherbrooke, Que. June ____ 1919

Sherbrooke Motor Mart
Sherbrooke Que.

Dear Sirs:-

Please book our order for another Ford Truck for delivery at the earliest possible date.

The first truck which we bought from you over a year ago has given us wonderful satisfaction. We ran it all last winter, and the average cost for fuel and maintenance for the year was $25.17 per month. Two horses could not do the work done by this truck, and the present charges for horses at local Feed stables is $45 per month.

J.W. Thompson

The Ford One-Ton Truck is an invaluable asset for country or city use, both winter and summer.

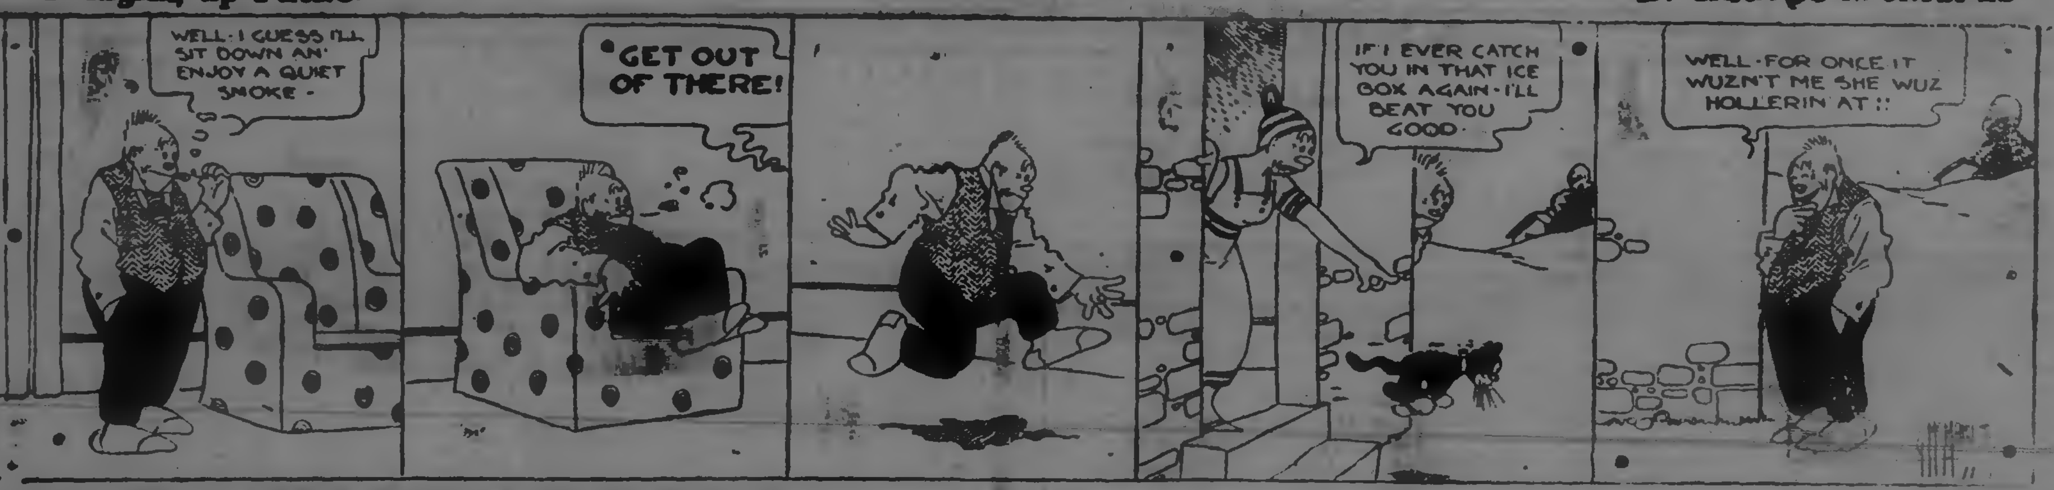
Ford One-Ton Truck (Chassis only) $750, f. o. b. Ford, Ontario.

120

J. J. DUFFUS, DEALER

PETERBORO, MILLBROOK, and NORWOOD

Bringing up Father By George McManus



WELL - I GUESS I'LL SIT DOWN AN' ENJOY A QUIET SMOKE - GET OUT OF THERE!
IF I EVER CATCH YOU IN THAT ICE BOX AGAIN - I'LL BEAT YOU GOOD.
WELL - FOR ONCE IT WUZN'T ME SHE WUZ HOLLERIN AT !!

Drink O'Keefe's With Your Meals

A refreshing glass of O'Keefe's beer, bright and sparkling, directly off the ice. What could be nicer to drink with your meals? O'Keefe's adds relish to your food and improves your appetite by its mild, stimulating, tonic properties.

O'Keefe's

IMPERIAL LAGER, ALE, STOUT

The trio of proven merit, that stand unexcelled for quality, purity and uniformity. Satisfying brews that please the most exacting palate with their pleasant tang and mellow flavor.

Decide on drinking O'Keefe's Beverages. The whole family will enjoy and benefit by them.

On sale at Hotels, Restaurants and Refreshment Booths, or order by the case—Don't accept substitutes.

O'KEEFE'S TORONTO

722

J. E. BROOKS, Distributor, 195½ Charlotte St., Peterborough, Ont.

HOCKEY CLUB APPEAL DISMISSED AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—The Supreme Court recently dismissed the appeal of the Toronto Hockey Association vs. the National Hockey Association and the several hockey club of which the latter body is composed.

The National Hockey Association was in 1917 composed of the appellants, and the other respondents. In the winter of that year, the directors of the National Association met in Montreal, the appellant club not being represented, and passed a resolution providing that the appellants' franchise be suspended and sold before the first of June, and that its players should be eligible to play with other clubs for the remainder of the season.

The appellants' action was for damages by not being permitted to play out their season's games and charging a conspiracy to secure their players. The courts below held that the action could not succeed and this appeal was dismissed on conclusion of argument for the appellants.

Boland appeared for the appellent; R. T. Harding for the respondent.

COMMENDS O.H.A. ACTION

Winnipeg Telegram: The action of the Ontario association should serve to strengthen the hands of the men who are trying to keep the game clean in Saskatchewan and Alberta. They have always pointed to the east as a place where they could get away with almost anything as long as they did it quietly and smoothly, but now that the east has taken a firm stand it is up to the other provinces to do the same and make amateur hockey real amateur hockey and not encourage tourists.

BAN ON SPITBALL WOULD AFFECT CLUBS

SOME OF THE BEST OF THEM USE FREAK DELIVERIES

Should the American League magnates agree to bolish the spitball with the sailer, the shiner and other freak pitching systems, several clubs in the circuit would be hard hit.

Chicago would find Cicotte and Faber of little value. Bernie Boland, of the Tigers, would be forced to use nothing but his curve and change of pace. Doc. Ayers practically would be put out of business.

Shocker, of the Browns, is a spitballer, while Sothoron roughs the ball and also throws a sailer. Of the Cleveland pitching staff, Coveleskie and Klepfer would be most affected. Covey also has a splendid fast ball and a good curve, but his spitter is his principal reliance.

Jim Shaw is a sailer-ball pitcher and all Washington's youngsters have been taught by Griffith to employ the same delivery. Jing Johnson, of the Athletics, is a spitballer. Jack Quinn, of the Yankees, would have a tough time without the spitball, while Bob Shawkey probably would not be so effective, and Carl Mays has been accused of roughing the ball. Sam Jones, of the Red Sox, is believed to shine the ball, while Allan Russell's long suit is the moist delivery.

It is believed, though, that if the league does take action in regard to the freak deliveries, there will be a clause allowing such spitball pitchers as are in the circuit to continue using that delivery. In other words the rule will not be retroactive.

Aura Lee will have a senior team in the O. H. A. Eddie Powers will coach 'em.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO BASEBALL CLUBS

PLAN TO LET FANS KNOW IF THE GAME IS CALLED OFF

One of the annoying things that confront baseball fans in every large city is the inability, when the weather is variable, to ascertain if a game is to be played. It may have rained at the ball park, while other sections of the city are dry; the rain may have spoiled the grounds for the day, or the grounds may be O.K. The fan doesn't know. It's hopeless trying to find out over the telephone from the club officials or newspapers. The only thing to do is to take a chance on a long street car trip to the park—and like as not the "No Game" sign is hanging out when you get there.

The abll club also suffers in the matter of attendance, for only a portion of the ordinary crowd of fans will take the chonce on the trip to the grounds, and if the game can be played that means so much money lost.

As a matter of business and as a matter of fairness to the public the ball club should devise some plan to make it clear to all who may be concerned whether or not a game is to be played. Yet no club in any city seems to have devised a satisfactory plan.

Now comes President C. H. Ebbets of the Brooklyn aNtionals with an idea for which fans should rise up and call him blessed. His scheme is to display in store and shop windows all over the city cards reading "Game Today" or "No Game Today." These cards would be displayed upon receipt of the appropriate signal from the ball club, and thus he who reads may run—to the ball park or to that substitute for the saloon which the prohibitionists promise us to relieve the present gap in our lives.

It seems a good idea—the best yet proposed.

PECULIAR FINISH TO THIS GAME

FREAK PLAY ENDED GAME IN SOUTHERN LEAGUE THIS YEAR

One of the most peculiar finishes to a game on record happened in the Southern league this year. The game was between Memphis and Nashville and had gone into the twelfth inning with the score 5 and 5. In that round, with two Nashville battlers retired and none on bases, Hugh Canavan wound up to pitch to Graham, the third man to face him. As he was about to let go of the ball, his foot caught and he stumbled. The ball, released from his hand, had just force enough to float up to the plate in a lazy arc, right over the pan. Graham swung on it with all his might, the ball soared into the left field bleachers and the homer won the game.

This same Canavan figured in another peculiar play last season. This came up in a Memphis Atlanta game Block and Canavan of the Memphis team were on second and first, when [illegible] slammed the ball against the right field fence in Atlanta park. The ball bounded back to Outfielder Milton Reed, giving him a short throw to the plate. Block had started slowly from second and Canavan, sprinting from first, overtook him as third base was reached. The two runners raced as a team for the plate there to meet Reed's throw. Higgins, catching, got the ball and tagged one runner right after the other, making two putouts without moving from his tracks, while the outfielder was credited with two assists by the Atlana scorer.

This play recalls to the Southern league veteran who tells another in which not two but three runners tried to make a team race of it and failed. They were players on the Birmingha mteam several years ago. McGilvray, whose legs were bad, was on second, an unnamed player was on first and Henline at bat. Henline hit a hard one to left and everybody ran.

As McGilvray rounded third he fell down, and concluding he could not make it to the plate he crawled back to third. Just about the time he got there the man who had been on first landed on the bag also. As the two men stood there, in came Henline, the batter, running head down as fast as he could travel. He bumped into his teammates, the three of them spilled themselves around third base the ball came into the third baseman—and, so the story goes, the third Baseman tagged every one of them off the base and put the side out

As It Seemed to Her.

A small daughter who appeared in the upper hall on the night her mother was giving a dinner party happened in in time to catch a glimpse of a handsome woman in a decollete gown. The next morning the first question she asked was: "Who was the pretty lady in the skirt?"

Lines to Be Remembered.

A man who is good enough to shed his blood for his country is good enough to be given a square deal afterward. More than that no man is entitled to, and less than that no man shall have.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Not Necessary.

It isn't absolutely necessary to say something silly to the girl at the cigar counter. The proprietor doesn't require it of customers and the girl isn't paid for listening to senseless chatter.—Toledo Blade.

Whipping Wrong Horse.

A foreigner on a visit to England is at a loss to understand why in the houses of parliament each party has a whip for its own party when it wants to beat the other party.

VETERANS HAD GOOD RECORD

SOME OF THE OLD PITCHERS LEAD THE WAY TO THE RECRUITS

While young Walther Ruether of the Cincinnati Reds, practically led the National League pitchers in games won and lost last season, youth did not have any monopoly in the laurels won by the pitchers for the 1913 season. The veterans of the mound were there pretty strong.

Pitching was one branch of the game where the old adage about youth versus age did not hold good.

There is a preponderance of veteran holders among the leaders in the pitching averages of the National League Among the first 15 twirlers who have won 10 or more games are such veterans as Slim Sallee, Babe Adams, Ray Fisher, Fred Toney and Rube Brenton.

Adams' record is truly an interesting one. Counted out, he has come back and pitched a brand of ball that was second to no other twirler in the National League.

Adams led the Pittsburg pitchers with 17 victories and ten defeats. Wilbur Cooper, the star southpaw of the club, was second to him.

Adams is 36 years old and has been pitching for 15 years. He came up to the National League from Louisville in 1908 to become a world series hero and after years of valiant service he drifted back to the minors, only to be resurrected into the livewire he was in the heydey of the Buccaneers half a dozen years ago

One of the real veteran hurlers of the National League who did not have a very good season in 1919 was Leon Ames. The former Giant-Red-Cardinal and now Philly was good for only three games all season.

It was the poorest season that Ames has experienced since he started to pitch. Leon has been in the National League 17 years. He came up to the Giants from the New York State League in 1903 and won the only two games he pitched that year. He was with the Giants until 1913 when they let him go to the Cincinnati club. He lasted there until 1915. The Cardinals took him and he remained with Rickey's team until this season when the president manager decided that Red's day of usefulness to the St. Louis club was over and he was sent to the Phillies via the waiver route.

Mystifying "Ads."

A city advertisement was headed: "Two sisters want washing." So do a good many brothers. Another advertisement was: "Wanted—a boy to sandpaper."

Dependent on Language.

Many thoughts are so dependent upon the language in which they are clothed that they would lose half their beauty if otherwise expressed.—Ruskin.

Poison Bottle Warning.

To distinguish bottles containing poisons in the dark a sandpaper band to encircle them with an opening for their labels has been invented.

Strengthening Timber.

According to English scientists, electricity passed through timber when freshly cut makes it more resistant against decay and fungeus growth.

Best Government.

The proper function of a government is to make it easy for people to do good and difficult for them to do evil. —Gladstone.

Watch the Saucer.

When watering house plants if the water runs in the saucer it is a good sign; if not, something is wrong with the plant.

Spasmodic Sermons.

Some women buy silk stockings so they will have something to show for their money.—Indianapolis Star.

Optimistic Thought.

He is the noblest who has raised himself by his own merit to a higher station.

Corporation of the City of Peterborough

City Treasurer's Sale of Lands for Arrears of Taxes

By virtue of a warrant issued under the hand of the Mayor and the Seal of the Corporation of the City of Peterborough, bearing date, the 9th day of October, 1919, and to me directed, commanding me to levy upon the several parcels of land hereinafter described, for Arrears of Taxes and Water Rates respectively due thereon, together with all lawful costs and charges in connection therewith, I hereby give notice that unless the said Arrears of Taxes, Water Rates and Costs be sooner paid, I shall, pursuant to the provision of the Assessment Act, at the City Council Chamber, in the City of Peterborough, on

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3rd, 1920

at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, proceed to sell by Public Auction the said lands or so much thereof as may be necessary to discharge such Arrears of Taxes and all lawful costs and charges incurred in connection with such sale.

No.	Description		Location	Taxes	Water Rates	Costs	Total
1.	8½ Lots 1 and 2	Plan 23	N.S. Lansdowne St.	$ 407 08	$	$ 18 80	$ 425 88
2.	Lot 42	Plan 133	W.S. Maude St.	121 76	......	11 67	133 43
3.	Lots 25, 26, 27, 28	Plan 146	E.S. Monaghan Road ..	184 73	......	13 24	197 97
4.	Lots 9, 10, 11, 12	Plan 146	E.S. Clara St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
5.	Lots 13, 14, 15, 16	Plan 146	W.S. Clara St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
6.	Lots 17, 18, 19, 20	Plan 146	E.S. Baker St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
7.	Lots 21, 22, 23, 24	Plan 146	W.S. Baker St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
8.	W. 200 ft. Blk. "C"	Plan 121	N.S. McDonnel St.	90 53	......	10 89	101 42
9.	Lot 48	Plan 9a	S.S. Dufferin St.	49 18	8 04	10 06	67 28
10.	Lots 18 and 19	Plan 22a	W.S. Centre St.	16 40	......	9 02	25 42
				$1,617 96	$324 84	$134 81	$2,077 61

All above Lots are patented.
First insertion November 1st, 1919.
City Treasurer's Office,
Peterborough, Ont., October 28th, 1919.

F. ADAMS,
City Treasurer.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 896

COAL
...AND...
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Automobile SKATES
WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

LUMBER
Builders' Materials of all kinds, Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Most of us do things merely because other people do them.

Some men's wives, like their sins, are sure to find them out.

What man has done woman thinks she is qualified to improve upon.

Absence of dough is apt to make bakers crusty..

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates
$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

BY COURTESY OF C.A.R.

The Prince Talks with a Wounded Hero in Walter Reed Hospital. Washington.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM
NEW TRAIN SERVICE
BETWEEN
TORONTO, WINDSOR AND DETROIT
VIA HAMILTON, LONDON AND CHATHAM.

Grand Trunk night trains between Toronto and Detroit are now operating DAILY via Windsor and Chatham as under:

Read Down.		Read Up.
*11.45 p.m.	Leave—Toronto —Arrive	† 8.45 a.m.	§8.35 a.m.
* 1.15 a.m.	Leave—Hamilton —Arrive	† 7.18 a.m.	§7.40 a.m.
* 2.10 a.m.	Leave—Brantford—Arrive	† 6.26 a.m.	§6.52 a.m.
* 3.37 a.m.	Arrive—London —Leave	† 4.50 a.m.	§5.25 a.m.
* 5.45 a.m.	Arrive—Chatham —Leave	* 2.40 a.m.
* 7.00 a.m.	Arrive—Windsor —Leave (E.T.)	* 1.30 a.m.
* 6.45 a.m.	Arrive—Detroit —Leave (C.T.)	*11.45 p.m.

Pullman, drawing-room, sleeping cars and coaches between Toronto and Windsor and between Toronto and Detroit, ready for reception of passengers at Detroit at 9.30 p.m. (Central Time), and at Windsor at 10.00 p.m. (Eastern Time).

* Daily. † Daily except Sunday. § Sunday only.

For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent, or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 226 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 234J.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. A. A. McKenty, Dentist, 370 George street. Special attention to extractions. Remarkable bridge work and partial dentines.

AT MURRAY ST. CHURCH.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at Murray Street Church tomorrow. The pastor's evening subject will be "The Making of a Choir." Mr. Webb will preach morning and evening.

SALE. NOVEMBER 24 & 25.

The Women's Guild of All Saints' Church will hold a Sale of Fancy Goods, Useful Articles and Home-made Cooking on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 24 and 25, at 309 George street, opposite Barrie Building. Afternoon tea will be served. .....

VICTORY LOAN NOTICE.

All persons having accounts against the local Victory Loan office are asked to send them in at once, as the office will be closed on Monday, the 24th inst.

F. Brownscombe, Secretary.

AUCTION SALE

of Farm Stock and Implements, on November 26th, at Mr. William J. Telford's, Ennismore, Lot 8, Con. 4, at the end of Chemong Bridge. Sale commences at 12 o'clock sharp.

PETERBORO BRANCH 8TH C.M.R.

All members of Peterboro Branch 8th C. M. R. are reminded of the meeting to be held in the lecture hall of the Armories on Monday evening. Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock sharp. All ex-members of the regiment are requested to attend this meeting.

W. H. FIELD, Secy.-Treas.

NOTICE OF SALE.

The Onward (Mrs. J. Stubbs') Bible Class of George St. Sunday School will hold a Sale of Aprons and other useful articles in the school room of the George Street Church on Tuesday, Nov. 25, afternoon and evening. Light refreshments will be served.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY SALE

The Ladies' Aid Society of Murray Street Baptist Church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles, and home-made cooking. Nov. 26, 27 and 28, at 309 George street, opposite Barries, Limited. Afternoon tea will be served.

MAKE SURE YOU GET THE RIGHT KIND

We cannot impress too strongly upon the Canadian people that there is no Tablet just like Dr. Norvall's; there is no Tablet just as good as Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. There may be tablets that look like Norvall's; they may even taste like Norvall's, but do not be deceived—they will not have the same gentle laxative and tonic effect as Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. In a word, to relieve Constipation, Dyspepsia, Billousness and Sick Headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. For sale by all dealers.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Would the party who signed the name of E. Robertson in driver's delivery book for parcel which contained a set of black fox furs delivered by the Canadian Express Co on September 25th return the package to the company's office and save further trouble? Otherwise the matter will be handed over to the police department to investigate.

NEW SOCIETY ORGANIZED.

At a recent meeting of the girls of St. Andrew's Church a new society was organised to be known as "The Daughters of St. Andrew's Missionary Club," with the following officers: President, Mada Conner; vice president, May Reid; secretary, Lillian Green; treasurer, Jean MacFarlane. The first regular meeting will be held at the manse on Monday Nov. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

DUFFUS GARAGE

Has warm, fireproof automobile storage at reasonable rates. A frozen motor will cost more than WARM winter storage.

NEW VICTOR RECORDS

The October lists of "His Master's Voice" Records contain among others, "Laddie O' Mine," "Swedish Cradle Song," and "Dreamy Alabama." Any of these records and all others in the October lists can be had in the Victrola Parlors of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co. Limited, George and Hunter streets Peterborough.

MEN'S MEETING.

Every man of St. Luke's congregation, both older and younger, who is willing to take part in the forthcoming parish census, is requested to attend the men's meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4:15 at the parish room.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Orangized by Dr. E. V Frederick, ate of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., or team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR REDUCED

P. Black's great November Sale is now in full swing and prices and qualities of ladies', misses', gents', boys' and girls' ready-to-wear and furnishings are responsible for heavy buying these days. The goods offered are new and seasonable, having been purchased by Mr. Black on his recent trip to reliable markets. This sale offers an opportunity for buying winter clothing at live-and-let-live prices which should not be missed. The name: P. Black. The place: Corner King and George streets.

BARGAINS EXTRAORDINARY AT H. J. ZACKS

At H. J. Zacks' great Selling-out Sale new bargains are tabled every day. For this afternoon and evening special snaps in ladies' and misses' coats, dresses, blouses, skirts, gloves, hosiery, etc., are offering, and at prices which shame even first cost. Remember that every article must be sold to the bare shelves as Mr. Zacks is leaving town for New York just as soon as his stock can be cleared. On Monday again something new in the way of special inducements will be found in every department to encourage ladies in purchasing their whole winters' clothing needs now. Look for the big selling-out sign over the door at 422 George street.

LETTS VICTORIOUS

Lnodon, Nov. 22.—Lettish forces yesterday captured Mitau, capital of Courland, acording to the Lettish legation here. The Letts continued their victorious advance.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. M. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and afternoon tea will be served

Mrs. W. R. Morris has returned to the city after a visit with friends in Windsor.

Mrs. Stevenson of Montreal is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Stanley of Toronto was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Mrs. C. H. Shield, Benson avenue, returned to the city after spending the week-end in Guelph attending the provincial W. C. T. U. convention.

Mr. J. F. Diamond was a visitor to Omemee last week.

Mr. H Colwell visited friends in Omemee last week.

Mrs L. Mead, of Port Hope, is visiting Mrs Nesbitt, George street.

On Thursday evening, Nov 20th, about 75 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W A. Nisbett, George street, to celebrate their 30th anniversary. The evening was spent in games and music, after which a dainty lunch was served. They received many beautiful and costly gifts. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, Oakwood; Mr and Mrs. Donald Ferguson, Maraposa; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, Maraposa; Mr. and Mrs Wm. J. Nisbett, of Otonabee; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell, Lorneville; Mr. and Mrs M. Mitchell, of Omemee

On September 22nd, Mr. J. H. Burnham removed to his new office, 395 Water street, south of Hunter st.

Mr. H. H. Webb, now of Toronto, is spending the week end in the city.

VISITED SON'S GRAVE

Hon. G. P. Graham Impressed With Care Taken of War Graves.

Lnodon, Nov. 22.—Hon G. P. Graham, with Mrs. Graham, has returned to England, after visiting the grave of his son in France. He stated that he was most favorably impressed with the care taken of the war graves adding that the work of collecting those bodies buried in scattered places and reverently reinterring them in cemeteries has been collsal, but had been carried out with great care.

S. A. NOTES

On account of the unavoidable absence from the city of Adjutant and Mrs. Buntin over the week-end, the services will be conducted by several of the local officers of the corps.

On Sunday morning the open-air will be held at the corner of Aylmer and Dalhousie streets, and every bandsman and comrade is requested to make a special effort to be present.

Sergeant Major Gandy will superintend the conducting of the services, and a good time should be enjoyed by all who come. Everyone welcome.

LOOKS LIKE DEADLOCK

Washington, Nov. 22.—A deadlock between bituminous coal operators and miners in the central competitive field was the forecast today of Thos. T. Brewster, chairman of the Operators, when the joint scale committees met to discuss increased wage proposals made yesterday by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Dr. Kisler, of St. Catharines, escaped with his life though his automobile was struck and demolished by a N., St. C. & T. shunting engine at Niagara Falls.

Here's Proof That ZUTOO
Cures Headache

Mr. E. F. Tomkins, Ex-Mayor of Coaticook, Que. proves it.
"Your Tablets are a safe and effective remedy for headache"
Mr. Geo. Legge, Editor of the "Granby Leader-Mail" proves it.
"Your Zutoo Tablets deserve to be widely known as a cure that will cure."
A. C. Hanson, B. A., K. C., Colonel of the Hussars, proves it.
"I use Zutoo Tablets and find them a very satisfactory cure for Headache."
25 cents per box—at all dealers.

DANCING AS AN AID TO RELIGION

LONDON MINISTER INCLINES TO JAZZ IDEA FOR ATTRACTION

RELIGION MUST BE HUMAN

DANCING SHOULD BE FEATURE OF SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS LIFE

London.— Should the churches turn the present craze for dancing to account, as suggested by the Dean of Manchester, at a diocesean conference?

Inquiries made by a Daily Chronicle correspondent amongst representatives of the Established and Free churches show how much division of opinion there is upon the subject.

perhaps best expressed by the Rev

The doubt which exists amongst many Free Church ministers was Dr. Alexander Ramsay, the well known ex-moderator of the Presbyterian Synod.

"The churches are generally perplexed to know exactly what policy to take up on this matter," he said

"The question is not as to the morality of dancing or its influence, but as to where the border line should be drawn in church work proper and church social recreation.

In Puritan Scotland

"No one can condemn the healthy exercise of dancing, but in church work there can be such a thing as the abuse of recreation. I agree with the Dean of Manchester in providing opportunities for the young to be together, but consider that for surely social functions of this sort such organizations at the Y. M. C. A do the work admirably.

"I believe in dancing as a recreation; but I do not want to see empty churches and full dancing halls.

"The Dean says that in Puritan Scotland there had never been that feeling against dancing that there had been south of the Tweed. It is true that Scottish folks love dancing but it must not be inferred from this that it has been encouraged in church work."

On the other hand, the Rev. B. G Bourchier, vicar of the Hampstead Garden Suburb, is a "whole-hogger" on the dance as an aid to religion."

"All the Latest Dances"

"We hold one this week," he said "and exepect to get 300 to it. There is a special jazz band, and tickets at 5s a time. We have all the latest dances at our church, and claim to be the pioneers of the dancing movement as a means to bring the young folk nearer to the House of God.

"Religion today has got to be a human religion, not a kill-joy religion, and our Lord approved of dancing and countenanced it.

"We have got a tremendous lot of demobilized men, and at a recent conference I told the Bishop of London, during a discussion in which it was stated the army tended to make the ex-service man irreligious, that I certainly did not find it so.

"If you make religion a human thing, and bring dancing into it as a feature of your social and religious life, then you will gather in the young people, and they are all-important."

COUNCIL OF WOMEN

At the Executive Meetings of the local Council of Women held in the Green room of the Y.W.C.A. on Friday, Nov. 21st, it was decided to bring Mrs Pankhurst here in April

All women who are interested in women's reconstruction work will be delighted at having this opportunity of hearing Mrs. Pankhurst.

Short reports from several committees were given.

Pleasure was expressed that the Ontario Government was about to take up the question of the more strict supervision of the moving picture shows, and the hope that the suggestion of placing this very vital matter in the hands of the Department of Education would be carried out.

The Committee of Laws for Women and Children report that agitation was begun to amend the laws re the legal disabilities of the illegitimate child.

The nomination of officers and convenors of committees was then proceeded with.

Mrs. Harstone was re-elected president by acclamation.

HEAR FRANK OLDFIELD
Canada's Best Baritone
AND Mrs. GEORGE H. KING
Peterboro's Favorite Soprano
TRINITY S. S. HALL
MONDAY, NOV. 24, 8 p.m. TICKETS 25c

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

THE British are noted as great tea drinkers and are naturally good judges of tea.

So when we learn that over 70% of the tea used in Great Britain is Indian tea we can be sure that Indian tea is of the very best quality.

In Canada the preference for Indian tea has become just as strong, as evidenced by the success of Red Rose Tea which consists chiefly of ASSAMS—the richest and strongest of Indian teas.

Red Rose is always sold in sealed packages.

RED ROSE
TEA "is good tea"

131

OBITUARY

MRS. R. E. WOOD.

Mrs. R. E. Wood, widow of the late Crown Attorney Wood, passed away at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in her 68th year.

She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, Herbert Wood, of Vancouver, and Dr. Edward Wood, city.

The funeral took place at 11 o'clock this morning to Little Lake Cemetery, Rev. Robt. Pogue officiating.

The pallbearers were Messrs. J. Wearing, J. V. Collins, J. C. Smith, Dr. Greer and Dr. Carmichael.

DECEMBER COLUMBIA RECORDS

The new Columbia Records for December are now in. Come and hear them. The Greene Music Store, Charlotte street.

GOSPEL HALL.

Commencing Monday night next, a series of house prayer and ministry meetings will be held, the first on Monday at 64 Aylmer street, Mr. D. Hayward; Tuesday, at 512 Stewart street, Mr. A. Hartshorn; Wednesday at Gospel Hall; Thursday, 801 Water street, Mr. E. Curtis; Friday, 804 George street, Mr. G. W. Mulligan. All neighbors in the different localities are cordially invited

BOWLING AT THE "Y."

Centrals Won Three From Winners Last Night.

The games between the Winners and the Centrals were played as per schedule Thursday night when the Centrals won three from the Winners. This is the first defeat the Winners have suffered in the league and they bowled hard to support their reputation. Walton's five, holding an equally good record of not having lost a game, have, in addition, two men who have held the high individual scores for weeks Each team started with a man short but played full strength in the second and last games. Scores:

Winners
Seaton	163	137	184	484
Huffman	162	105	171	438
Hurry	143	188	127	458
Browett		170	221	391
Stanfield	227	126	128	481
	695	726	831	2252
Centrals
Oke		143	226	369
Green	144	125	182	451
Routley	255	231	197	683
Walton	236	234	139	609
Heaslip	155	173	160	488
	790	906	904	2600

The next game is scheduled for Monday night at 7:30 between Busy Bunch and Winners.

Tonight is the night for basketball at the "Y," when the following contests will be staged:

Belmonts vs. Cubs.
Bankers vs. C. G. E.

Y.M.C.A. Minstrels
REHEARSAL, Belmont Club Rooms
7.45 MONDAY NIGHT
Dress Rehearsal Wednesday Night
AT 7.30 Y.M.C.A.

"SPECIALS" FOR WEEK-END.

The following Salvation Army meetings are announced:

Saturday night, Mrs. Badley and C. C. Lena White.

Sunday morning, open air, S.-M. Gandey, Aylmer and Dalhousie Sts.

Sunday morning, inside, C. C. G. Mrs. Lang and Corps Cadets.

Sunday afternoon, S.-M. Gandy and Treas. Cunningham.

Sunday night, S.-M. Gandy and Treas. Cunnigham.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT TRINITY.

The pastor will preach at both services in Trinity Church tomorrow. He will be at the church at 4 p.m. to receive for baptism any desiring this rite. All who have not yet returned the slip attached to the pledges for intercessors and personal workers are requested to do so at one of the Sunday services. There will be good music at both the morning and the evening service. Mrs. King's solo and an unaccompanied number by the choir will be special features of the evening service.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING
ROLAND BESTARD
has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to. Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

Two Sarnia boys, Jos. Phillips, aged 16, and Thos. Hal, aged 17, were sentenced to one year in the Ontario Reformatory for stealing an auto belonging to Rev. Wm. Moore.

H. P. Lindsay, Agency Company
392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)

Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

TO RENT
First Class Brick House on Charlotte Street(Near Reid) All Impjrov street (near Reir). All Improvements.
FOR SALE
Two Well Built Brick Houses, With Garden. Each $1,800
Huoses From $500 up to $6,500
A Number of Good Farms
Will Take City Property in Payment

PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

DOMINION LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT, SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS
INSURANCE
Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 172 HUNTER STREET

Moderate to fresh northwest winds, mostly fair and somewhat colder with snow flurries, today and on Tuesday.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 121 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

RED PLOT TO ASSASSINATE THREE AMERICAN OFFICIALS TRACED

Secret Fund of $68,000 Raised for Firearms—Murder Band of Five Named by Plotters.

New York, Nov. 23.—Discovery of the appointment of a Polshevist I. W. W. "committee of death" to direct the assassination of Alexander I. Rorke, Assistant District Attorney; Charles F. Scully, head of the red squad of the Department of Justice and Detective Sergeant James J. Gegan, of the bomb squad, caused increased activity yesterday on the part of authorities who are striving to curb the red menace in the United States. The trio marked for death by the radicals have been active in the recent drive to halt the red movement by wholesale deportations and criminal prosecutions.

The details of the plot were revealed to the police and operatives of the Lusk committee last week through the arrest of three members of the Union of Russian Workers. During the interrogation of one of these prisoners it developed that he was under the impression that he was being held in connection with the death plot. His offer to tell all he knew was accepted and his story was later corroborated by the other two prisoners. The men under arrest deny that they were members of the "committee of death" and the authorities are in[illegible] to believe their stories.

According to the Russian prisoners taken since the first raids conducted by Chief William J. Flynn, of the Department of Justice, three weeks ago, secret meeting places have been opened by the radicals. Some time ago at a secret meeting a committee of five was selected to devise ways and means of bringing about the death of Rorke, Scully and Gegan. They were instructed to spare no expense in their preliminary work and were advised that if they considered bombs necessary for all or any of the assassinations an expert chemist would be obtained. This chemist, according to the best information of the police, was to be called here from the Middle West.

The committee appointed consisted of three I. W. W. workers and two members of the Union of Russian Workers. This committee held secret meetings on the East Side, but was unable to decide on the method of death they would recommend because of their inability to become familiar with the habits of the marked men. The identity of the plotters was revealed to the police, who have been unable to ascertain their whereabouts. Operatives of the Department of Justice in all parts of the country have been furnished with descriptions of the missing men, with instructions to arrest them on sight.

On Trial of $68,000 Fund for Arms.

The operatives of the Lusk Committee and the police also are anxious to learn more about a fund of $68,000 which a prominent radical editor in a recent speech at a secret meeting said was available in New York for the purchase of guns and ammunition. The man who made this statement has been sought for some time by the police on a charge of criminal anarchy. He is quoted as having said:

"[illegible] stop this talking and arm ourselves. Direct action is the only thing that will help our program. Go out and buy up arms and ammunition. If you have not the money we have a fund of $68,000 available in New York which will be used to aid you."

HEAD-ON COLLISION BETWEEN AN EXPRESS AND BOAT TRAIN

Two Men Killed and Six Injured Saturday Night—Both Trains Travelling at a Fair Speed When the Accident Happened.

Montreal, Nov. 24.—Two men are known to have been killed and six were injured on Saturday night when a head-on collision took place near Terrebonne, on the C.P.R., between a special carrying passengers from the Empress of France, which docked yesterday at Quebec, for Toronto, and the Montreal-Quebec express. The men killed were members of the train crews, while the injured were, with one exception, the engineer on the Boat Special in the Montreal-Quebec express. The passengers on the Boat Special escaped with nothing more serious than bruises. The dead are:

J. M. SANCHE, Quebec, fireman on the Boat Special.

A. MILNER, Montreal, an express messenger on the Montreal to Quebec express.

The injured are: Alphonse Leclerc, 76A Champfleur Street, Montreal; Ed. Daoust, Charlemagne Street, Quebec; Joseph Marcheldon, 187 St. James Street, Montreal; N. Frechette, 73 Seventh Street, Limoulou, Quebec; George Premont, 217 Prince Edward Avenue, Quebec (fireman), all on the Montreal to Quebec express, and Leon Le Clerc, Quebec, engineer on the Boat Special.

The two trains were travelling at a fair rate of speed when the collision took place. The Boat Special remained on the track, but two baggage cars and the second-class coach of the express were derailed and subsequently caught fire. The passengers in the express were knocked about by the impact, people in the dining-car being pitched across the tables. The accident happened about 6.30 in the evening, and within an hour the C.P.R. had despatched an auxiliary train with wrecking outfit and hospital car, the latter manned with doctors and nurses, to the scene of the collision. The body of Sanche was found in a ditch. Milner was alive when recovered from the wreckage, but died soon afterwards. The injured were brought into Montreal and lodged in the Royal Victoria Hospital. The Boat Special, which was carrying about 300 passengers, was consolidated with a second special following and was sent on to Toronto this morning. The passengers on the Quebec express were brought back to Montreal and those for Quebec were sent home on the train leaving at midnight Saturday.

An enquiry has been opened by the railway authorities into the cause of the collision.

NO MORE RELEASE FOR HUNGER STRIKERS

MUST THEMSELVES ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY FOR OWN ACTS IN PRISON.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Dublin, Nov. 24.—Official notice was given here today that no more prisoners will be liberated, conditionally or unconditionally, for hunger striking, and that hunger strikers must themselves be responsible for consequences of their act.

It was also announced that there would be no further amelioration of prison treatment given any prisoner convicted under Defence of the Realm Act. This notice is regarded very seriously in Irish political circles.

SAYS LEAGUE RESERVATIONS WILL BE CARRIED INTO PRESIDENTIAL FIGHT

Washington, Nov. 23.— Senator Lodge (Mass), the Republican leader, announced Friday his stand toward the defeated treaty of peace with Germany, and the reservations as sponsored by himself in this statement:

The case is very simple. After four months of careful consideration and discussion the reservations were presented to the Senate. They were purely American in their character, designed solely to Americanize the treaty and make it safe for the United States.

Under the President's orders the followers of the Administration in the Senate voted down these reservations. It was shown also by a vote that there was a decisive majority against the treaty with the reservations. Those reservations as presented to the Senate will stand. There is no room for further compromise between Americanism and the supergovernment presented by the league.

All I know is that we may have the opportunity to lay those reservations before the American people. To that great and final tribunal alone would I appeal. I wish to carry those reservations into the campaign.

I wish the American people to read and study them. They are not like the covenant of the league. They are simple. I do not see that there is one of them to which any American can object.

I want the people to see them, understand them and think of them in every household, on every farm, in every shop and factory throughout the land. Then let them decide.

WILD RUMORS OF COMING ATTEMPT AT REVOLUTIONARY UPRISING IN ITALY

Socialists Eager to Continue What They Call Their March Forward—New Elements Favor Extreme Policy Which they Hope Will Inevitably Lead to Advent of Bolshevism in Italy.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Rome, Nov. 24.—Rumors of the wildest character regarding the possibility of a very serious crisis involving not only the cabinet but also the reigning house of Italy, are in circulation as the opening of Parliament, set for December 1, approaches.

March Forward.

The Socialists, proud of their recent victory, are eager to continue what they call their "march forward." The older authoritative members of the party, however, such as Deputy Turati, leader of the Intransiegants; Deputy Trevera and Signor Modigalliania, are against any excesses.

A New Element.

The new elements which have entered the socialist parliamentary group are declared to be animated by revolutionary sentiments and to favor an extreme policy, which in their opinion will inevitably lead to the advent of bolshevism in Italy.

Intrigues Checkmated.

Plans for uprisings in various sections of Italy, particularly along the Adriatic coast, have been found on men recently arrested.

Premier Nitti, who has been watching carefully all the movements of Captain D'Annuazio and his followers, has succeeded in checkmating intrigues and breaking up arrangements for the seizure for revolutionists of extensive stores.

Premier To Make Speech.

Owing to the presence of a large number of anti-constitutional deputies, the speech from the throne to the Parliament may be delivered by Premier Nitti or some other official instead of King Victor Emmanuel, according to the newspaper Italia, which says that all depends upon the probable attitudé of the socialist parliamentary group. Only twice in the past has the speech not been delivered by the King—in 1848, when King Charles Albert was at the battle front, and in 1860, when King Victor Emmanuel was ill.

The Italia also says that socialist deputies may perhaps refuse to take the oath of allegiance.

TWENTY-EIGHT LOSE LIVES IN FIRE AT DANCE HALL SATURDAY

Scores Badly Injured in Addition to Heavy Death Toll Babies Rescued by Mothers

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Villa Platte, La., Nov. 24.—With all presons in the building at the time accounted for a complete list today of those who lost their lives in a dance hall here by fire, Saturday night, was announced as 28.

About three hundred presons were guests at the dance on the second floor of a two-storey frame building, and in addition to the heavy death roll, scores were badly bourned or seriously hurt in their mad rush to escape through one narrow exit.

Babies Rescued.

Ten of the dancers were burned to death, and others were crushed in a wild stampede to reach the street down a narrow, frail stairway.

A score of babies, tucked away in a little nursery on the same floor with the dance hall, were rescued by mothers who had taken them there. Some of the youngsters were picked up and hurled bodily into the outstretched arms of people in the street below.

TOMASCO TITTONI RESIGNS

Rmoe, Nov. 24.—Tomasso Tittoni, Italian Foreign Minister, has resigned, and Viterio Scialoia, Minister without portfolio, has been named to succeed him, according to newspapers here.

PRINCE OF WALES REACHES HALIFAX

GREETED WITH SALUTE OF TWENTY-ONE GUNS AND TOOTING OF WHISTLES

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Hlaifax, N.S., Nov. 24.— H. M. Renown, bringing the Prince of Wales from New York to Halifax, arrived in port at eight o'clock this morning. His Royal Highness' arrival was greeted with a salute of twenty one guns from the citadel and a tremendous tooting of steamer sirens and factory whistles.

DOWN COMES THE PRICE OF COAL

REDUCTION OF TEN SHILLINGS THE TON IN UNITED KINGDOM

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 24.— Sir Auckland C. Geddes, Minister of National Service and reconstruction, announced in the House of Commons today that the price of coal for household use would be reduced ten shillings per ton, beginning with December 1st.

The reduction will solve a question that has been the cause of much agitation in the Labor Party for a long time.

STRUCK WITH AXE IN FATAL QUARREL

MAN AND WIFE AND SEVERAL BOARDERS ARE UNDER ARREST

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 24. — John Rapchinsky died in the hospital this morning as a result of injuries received during a quarrel at Tony Sinounski's boarding house on Hess street last night.

Sinounski, his wife and several other boarders are under arrest pending an inquest. Sinounski admits that he used an axe in self defense.

Returned men who attended a meeting of radical Labor men on Massey Hall Saturday were roused to indignation by the manner in which their presence there was received.

LABOR MAN FOR PRESIDENT OF U. S.

NATIONAL LABOR PARTY TO NOMINATE A CANDIDATE IT IS REPORTED

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Nearly one thousand delegates, including labor leaders, co-operative association sponsors and representatives of farmers organizations, and the non partisan league, were here yesterday to attend a convention of the National Labor party, called primarily to nominate a candidate for president of the United States. Many of the new party men went to the meeting this morning after all night conferences caused, they said, by a conflict between radical and conservative leaders in the American Federation of Labor, with possible injection into the controversy of a third element.

The convention was called recently by John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor and chairman of the national steel strike committee, and his associates in the middle west.

GIRL FOUND SLAIN

BODY WITH BULLET THROUGH HEAD DISCOVERED IN RAVINE

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 22.—A girl believed to be Miss Tina Keiberg of Omaha was found murdered in a ravine twelve miles north of this city yesterday. She had been shot through the head. Authorities believe was thrown out of an automobile. A young man who was with her Sunday night was arrested, but has been released.

RED RADICAL FLAG DOMINATES LABOR

DECLARED THAT AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR NEEDS HOUSE CLEARING

St. Louis, November 22.—Stating that organized labor had lost sight of its obligations to the public, Charles Piez, of Chicago, formerly of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, declared that the red flag of radicalism had been raised above the red, white and blue in the American Federation of Labor, in an address delivered before the final session of the American Mining Congress here yesterday.

"At this time organized labor is stronger in membership and stronger in solidarity than ever before in its history," said Mr. Piez.

"There is evidence in its method and its aims none of the care and consideration that should attend the exercise of great power. It has thrown caution to the winds and is prepared to wreck the State itself in its blind intent to follow the course laid by radicalism.

"The executives of the American Federation of Labor have yielded too much to the desire for numbers and they have, therefore, before them a large job of house cleaning to re-establish themselves in the public confidence."

Piez advocated deportation of troublesome aliens. He said labor organizations must no longer be exempted from legislation enacted to safeguard the public against the extortion of combinations. He commended the provision contained in the Cummins bills for compulsory arbitration in railroad labor disputes. He further advocated restrictive legislation against strikes of a character which would not prevent strikes when necessary as a last resort to secure justice.

WASHED OVERBOARD FROM BARQUE AND DROWNED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 24.—The latest word from the German four-masted Barque Paul in distress off the Nova Scotia coast, relayed by steamer, which withholds here identity, is that several members of the crew have been washed overboard and drowned.

FEARED EIGHTEEN OF CREW FIND WATERY GRAVE IN LAKE SUPERIOR

The Lumber Laden Steamer "Myron" Founders in Terrific Storm—Attempts to Rescue Men Clinging to Cabin Fail.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich, Nov. 24. Hope that at least some of the members of the crew of eighteen of the lumber laden steamer, "Myron", owned by O. W. Blodgett, of Bay City, which floundered near Whitefish Point in a terrific gale which swept Lake Superior, Saturday and yesterday, would be rescued, was held out today by marine men here and captains of steamers who passed this port.

Might Drift Ashore.

It was believed that some of the crew who escape from the floundering steamer, might drift ashore and be revived by patrolling coastguards despite their long exposure and terrible buffeting by the great waves.

More Wreckage.

Wreckage from the "Myron" continued this morning to come ashore in great quantities, including parts of cabins and upper works, while the entire Bay is strewn with the lumber cargo of the boat and of her consort "the Mizter" which was reported towed in to shelter by an inidentified steamer.

Terrific Northeaster.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov [illegible].—Eighteen persons comprising the crew of the steamer Myron are believed tonight to have been added to the victims of Lake Superior's fury of the past two weeks. Caught in a terrific northwester the Myron foundered a mile and a half on White Fish Point last night, and early today sank in four fathoms of water.

Futile efofrts were made by two steamers to throw lines to the men clinging to the cabin. So wild was the sea, however, that the men could not hold the lines and for their own safety the two steamers were compelled to leave the scene. Tonight coastguards are patrolling the shores of White Fish Bay for forty-five miles hoping the Myron's two lifeboats will be blown ashore.

The steamer Calumet passing her late today reported sighting a waterlogged lifeboat south of White Fish Point. As far as could be ascertained the boat was unoccupied.

Attempts at Rescue.

The first word of the mishap to the Myron came by wireless from the steamer Farling lying in shelter behind White Fish Point. When the steamer Adriatic, ice covered, locked through here today her captain reported that he twice turned his ship around trying to pick up the striken vessel's crew, who were then in two lifeboats. The men were unable to hold the lines, however, and the attempt at rescue had to be abandoned.

The steamer McIntosh later passed through wreckage of the Myron close enough to throw lines to several men seen clinging to the cabin. The men had life preservers on and were calling for help. One man also had a small flashlight. This attempt at [illegible] able to grasp the lines had to be left to their fate. White Fish Bay tonight is strewn with wreckage, according to wireless despatches.

PRIVATE CONFERENCE TOMORROW IN TORONTO OF PROVINCIAL LIBERALS

Political Situation Will Be Discussed by Members and Defeated Candidates.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Defeated Liberal candidates and members-elect in the recent provincial elections meet in Toronto on Tuesday at a private conference to consider the political situation. Inasmuch as the time for election protests expires on December 4, it is probable that the conference called for the 25th will decide what elections, if any, are to be protested by the Liberals. It is likely there will be at least two protests in the north.

Another matter that is expected to present itself is the attitude of the Liberal party in the cabinet by-elections, which will be held December 15. It is understood that the opinion of Liberals generally favors the government acquiring popular endorsation, by acclamation in all cases where cabinet members won their spurs at the polls in the general elections. The same spirit will be extended to Premier Drury, who must be given the opportunity to show the country what he can do in the way of providing good government by the farmers for the people of Ontario. There is, however, doubt concerning the cases of Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general, and Hon. Manning Doherty minister of agriculture. It is probable that the Liberals will decide cases on Tuesday.

Prominent Conservative declares that "the Conservative party will offer no opposition to Hon. Mr. Raney or Hon. Mr. Doherty."

With regard to the minister of agriculture's expectation of a seat in North Essex, it is reported that Mr. Tisdelle has not definitely decided whether he shall surrender that seat. If he does the Liberals will combat it.

INDUSTRIAL PLANTS IN MIDDLE WEST CONTINUE TO CLOSE DOWN

Result of Shortage of Bituminous Coal—Fuel Supplies to Public Utilities Further Curtailed.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Chicago, Nov. 24 — Industrial plants all over the middle west continued to close down today, fuel supplies to public utilities were curtailed further, and regional coal committees advise individuals to save coal, as the nation-wide strike of bituminous miners entered its seventh week.

Both Marking Time.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Operators and miners of the Central Competitive Bituminous Coal Field marked time today in their negotiations for a new wage scale, while awaiting a decision by Fuel Administrator Garfield as to what portion of any wage advance should be passed on to the public.

The Wage Proposal.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Secretary Wilson's proposal for a wage increase of 31.61 per cent. for day laborers and 27.12 cents a ton for coal diggers, was accepted on Saturday night by John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, on behalf of the miners.

Mr. Lewis said the miners stood on their demands, submitted Friday to the sub scale committee, for a 7-hour day, a Saturday half holiday, and reference of internal disputes back to the districts in which they arise for settlement.

Explaining the basis of the wage scales he had suggested, Mr. Wilson issued a statement saying that the cost of living in mining regions had advanced 79.80 per cent. and the increase would just equalize the situation for the miners.

Whether the operators will accept Mr. Wilson's proposal is not known yet. The joint conference between operators and miners called for yesterday afternoon was postponed until Monday, pending consultation between the operators' committee and Dr. Garfield, fuel administrator.

"We are awaiting Dr. Garfield's pleasure," said Phil H. Penna, member of the operators' committee.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain; $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowsing, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1919.

PAY HOMAGE TO PLUCK.

ENGLAND is a beer-loving country, to say nothing of liquors, has been so from time immemorial, and Britishers in large numbers seem as ready to fight to a finish, so to speak, all interference with their beer-drinking privileges as they were to fight German menace of their national existence. Johnson, the great American "dry" champion, popularly known as "Pussyfoot," in his campaign in the United Kingdom against John Barleycorn has met with pretty rough receptions here and there, culminating in his being ridden on a plank through Londen and receiving such injury to one eye that its sight is endangered. Actual bodily hurt was not intended, of course, and none will regret the injury more than those students who participated in the recent hazing. As a matter of fact, knowing the British as we do, if Johnston continues his campaign against drink, they will forget their resentment against American interference, pay homage to his pluck, and accord him attentive hearings. The plank incident has given "Pussyfoot" considerable newspaper publicity heretofore denied him, which will tend to strengthen his cause, and the great London Times pays him compliment in the following:

"Cultivating none of the arts of oratory, Mr. Johnson is nevertheless an agreeable speaker. He talks plain matter-of-fact stuff, without boring his listeners. Perhaps it is the glamor of his name, or the openness of his manner, or the quietness of a style, which implies that it is not necessary to shout a thing to make it impressive, or perhaps it is some more subtle or personal quality that makes Mr. Johnson an unmistakable force on the paltform. He has, strangely enough, in repose the look of a Mr. Pickwick—blandly interrogative, genially credulous, and touched with a certain air of negative benevolence. He has the thin, arching eyebrows over still thinner spectacles, and domelike baldness. A likeness, which is modified by a small moustache, is increased again when he speaks by a trick of carrying one hand behind his back. But the similarities must not be pressed too far. Mr. Johnson has a simple and disingenuous manner. If this is the man who is credited with such wonder-working in America, we can only revolve the question of whether he was renamed 'Pussyfoot' for the stealthiness of his step or for the keen and ready weapons which a velvety manner conceals."

THE RAT, BLACK AND BROWN.

THE BLACK OR BROWN common rat is an animal loathed by all and befriended by none. He is repelling to the sight and destructive of property, and his upkeep costs a nation vast sums in depleted foodstuffs. In the Old Country men have for ages made war on this rodent in a more or less businesslike manner, and the calling of "rat-catcher" has been and is no uncomomn one. A rat-catcher's outfit consists of ferrets and terrier dogs, the former to raid the rodents' nests and drive their inmates out for the waiting dogs to kill.

According to the Montreal Gazette, the common black rat in England has been pretty well destroyed, but his place has been taken by huge brown rodents which infest the land. And now the British House of Commons has just declared war against a new enemy, or, rather an old one. For the efficient prosecution of this war the principle of conscription has been adopted, all house holders in the United Kingdom being liable for service. No age limit or occupational consideration will afford exemption from the draft. A measure has passed the House of Commons entitled the Rats and Mice (Destruction) Bill. The short title is "Rats Bill," but it is aimed at both varieties of domestic rodentia.

This war follows naturally upon that waged successfully against the Germans, and is a consequence of it. The rat is also a predatory beast, is endowed with great cunning, and has been known to indulge in ferocious oppression of weaker tribes. It carries disease and other objectionable things, and recognizes no law other than that of force. It is wont to scuttle away from sinking ships, and has an indiscriminating fondness for cheese. The rat is of Asiatic origin, but by patient perseverance in a policy of peaceful penetration, and the successful practice of hole-and-corner methods, has overrun other countries, and the people of Great Britain are now paying enormous tribute annually for the upkeep of a vast army of occupation of the genus Mus. Having driven out the black rat, the first invader, the big brown rat now reigns supreme, and it is against this variety of alien enemy that the British Government is now mobilizing the entire nation.

The board of agriculture has estimated that the food supply of Britain is depleted annually by inroads of rodents to the tune of £40,000,000, which is only ten million less than the amount now being paid out in bread subsidies. The urgent necessity for economy having been demonstrated, the Government at once said "Rats," and the Rats Bill is the result. It was not passed, however, without careful consideration, and a spirited debate, in which the ancient principle of individual rights was asserted. The bill required every occupant to take all reasonable means for ridding his lands of rats and mice, upon pain of a fine of £20. Objection was made that in the event of a rat making its appearance upon the dividing line between two properties, and having no identification disc or laundry marks by which its ownership could be determined with exactitude, a doubt would at once arise as to who should be held responsible for his execution. In the meantime the rat might go off to another engagement. The bill was accordingly altered the fine being reduced to £5, unless previous notice has been given, not to the rat, but to the other occupant of the premises. The measure was then passed, and if the rats are unable to conduct a more successful lobby among the Lords, temporal and spiritual, they must prepare for a future full of traps, cats, terriers and poison. The day may not be far distant when the essayist, dealing with the question of rats in Britain, will vary the historic epistle on snakes in Ireland (now of doubtful reliability) to the effect that "There are no rats in Britain."

FRENCH CRITIC OF LORD FRENCH.

IN FRANCE, as in England, critics are not lacking of Lord French's notorious "1914." Antagonism has been aroused by his strictures on Lord Kitchener and Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien, in France by his references to General Lanrezac. In this month's number of the "Anglo-French Review," General Palat takes up the cudgels on behalf of Lanrezac. General Palat maintains that it was most unfortunate that these two commanders should have had to work in such close collabgration He contrasts their career and training and comes to the conclusion that Lord French was essentially a regimental officer, and Lanrezac above al lthings a staff officer and military student.

Coming down to questions of detail, he makes much the same criticism of Lord French as that made by Mr Fortescue—namely, that his narrative is seriously inadequate. Over and over again he quotes Lord French and asserts that his dates and times are all wrong. The gist of his argument is that whereas Lord French maintains that his continual retirements were necessitated by the previous withdrawals of General Lanrezac, in reality the exact opposite was the case, and the British retreats preceded those of the French. So great was the alarm created in the minds of the French higher command by the actions and apparent intentions of Lord French that the President intervened, and, as we all know, Lord Kitchener hurried to France. General Palat's argument stands or falls, of course, by his version of the facts, but it is somewhat weakened by the admission at the end that General Lanrezac was removed before the battle of the Marne, and that this removal was final and was caused in the main by differences between himself and the Higher Command.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A CONTEMPORARY points out that M. Poincare's name means "square point." But this idea was exploded a few years ago as the result of a humorous protest by M. Frederic Masson, when welcoming the President's cousin, the brilliant mathematician, M. Henri Poincare into the French Academy. "There must be a mistake somewhere," [illegible] to be Pontcarre—square bridge—for the mere notion of a square point is intolerable to a mathematician." This set the philologists rummaging among dusty archives with the result that the earliest ancestor of M. Poincare was traced to a certain Jehan Poingquarre, who in the fifteenth century was secretary to Queen Isabeau, wife of Charles VI. Thus was the mathematical square point discerned to be a corruption; Poincare, it is now accepted by the learned, is derived from "poing carre," and means "square fist," or, in the modern rendering "clenched fist."

"ANARCHIST CONSPIRACY."

A DEFINITION of "anarchist conspiracy" was obtained from Mr. Bonar Law, which has the merit of neatness. "Any strike is anarchist," he said, "which aims at compelling the government to yield to the demands of a section of the population by holding up the whole community." The answer, however, did not satisfy Mr. Hogge, and the Westminster Gazette is not surprised that it failed to do so. For the words were coined to suggest that there was behind the railway strike an actual conspiracy of people whose concern was not with the demands of the railwaymen but with the break-up of government in England. Unless it had that meaning at the time it was used it had no meaning at all. It was a rhetorical phrase. Such phrases are better kept out of delicate and difficult questions like railway strikes.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

EXPECTING TOO MUCH.

(Woodstock Sentinel-Review.)

A man lectured here on Sunday to prove that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. People who are afraid of disappointment should guard against expecting too much. Just because the United Farmers have succeeded in forming a government it does not follow that the Millennium is just around the corner.

WHO WILL BE THE MAN?

(New York Tribune.)

It is exceedingly easy to become dismayed over the condition of any nation today, and America is no exception to the general fog of depression and doubt. A generation hence the course of the world's present staggerings will be clearer, and our children and grandchildren will talk wisely of what is now hidden. Whenever the emergency has arisen, when the feet of the people have actually reached the chasm, a man has arisen to lead and command and save.

WILL GO STRAIGHT ALOFT.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Attorney-General Raney says one of the first things he is going to do is to tighten up the motion picture censorship. He has also given an inkling of his intentions regarding race-track gambling, Sunday conduct, liquor law evasion, and other sinful things. After a few years under Mr. Raney's guardianship those of us who pass from this vale of tears will never be found on the Twentieth Plane. Our purity will be such that we won't even touch it in passing, but will go straight aloft to the Millionth Plane, if that is the highest.

(Washington Post.)

IS FAMINE AHEAD?

An urgent duty confronts the United States Government. It is the immediate extraction of coal on a scale commensurate with absolute necessities. The people will go hungry unless the present stoppage is quickly succeceded by production. It is not merley freezing that threatens—it is hunger. The emergency will not wait for long-winded conferences. The coal supply on hand is being devoured as in a vast furnace. Within a very few days, unless supplied, factories will shut down and workingmen and their families will be face to face with death.

CANNOT BE IGNORED.

(Galveston News.)

The Decalogue, brought down from amid the smoke and fire of Sinai, and the eternal truth enunciated on the mountainside by the Master of ethics and righteousness cannot be ignored by either individuals or nations, singly or collectively, without disastrous results.

BRITISH-CHILE RELATIONS

Lnodon—The Chilean Special Mission in London, now, is returning the visit paid to Chile in 1918 by the British Mission headed by Sir Maurice de Bunsen.

At the head of the mission is Senor Don Ismael Tocornal, President of the Chilean Senate, late Prime Minister and Acting-President of the Republic in 1910. With him are Senor Don Pedro Iniguez, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, late Minister of Justice and Public Education, and Admiral Don Luis Gomez, one of the most distinguished officers in the Chilean Navy, who, like many of his brother officers, has had some training on British men-of-war.

It is interesting to find in Chile as far back as the birth of the Republic so many deep-rooted British influences, though the number of British residents there has never been very large, and is exceeded by that of other European communities.

Bernardo O'Higgins, one of the heroes of Spanish American Independence, and the first President of Chile, was the son of an Irishman, and had been educated in England. Some of the early laws of the Republic, such as the one that abolished bull-fights, and the principles of Parliamentary Government introduced in the Constitution of Chile, may be traced to the British education of that great statesman. Chile owes to those sound democratic ideals the steady course of her political development, which attained a high degree of efficiency in freedom and order when the other republics were still in a state of internal convulsion.

British Influence.

During the first half of the last century some Britishers made their homes in Chile, and many of them have left large families, thus introducing British names and traditions in Chilean public life, in politics, finance, literature and industry. Their descendants, numbering several hundreds of the most influential men of the Republic, gathered round the Bri- [illegible] sen, in 1918, and paid a glowing tribute to the land of their forefathers, proclaiming themselves proud of their ancestry. Many of them belong to the third of fourth generation, and have never been in this country.

The Chilean Government engaged Lord Cochrane to organize the Chilean Navy during the War of Emancipation at the beginning of the nineteenth centpry. He took with him several British officers who had served in the Napoleonic wars, and the Navy of the Republic has kept this tradition and has never since been in close touch with the British Navy. Their warships are built in Great Britain, Chilean officers are periodically sent to this country to complete their training, and British officers have been engaged for the Naval College at Valparaiso.

At the outbreak of the Great War eight warships of various descriptions, from dreadnoughts to destroyers, were being built in this country for the Chilean Government, and some were practically finished. The British Government took over all these vessels, and the whole affair was concluded in a few hours, the Chilean Government asking only the amount they had already paid to the builders. The British Government acknowledged the correct and friendly attitude of the Chilean Government by handing over to them as a compensation a certain number of submarines, which were being built for this country in America and which the declaration of war, when the United States were still neutrals, had kept there. These submarines sailed for Chile through the Panama Canal under the flag of Admiral Gomez, who is now one of the members of the Chilean Mission.

Warm Friendship

Political relations between Great Britain and Chile have been always those of the most cordial friendship. Twice in recent years Chile has submitted to the arbitration of the British Sovereign international disputes of the most vital interest to the Republic—viz., the frontier question with the Argentine Republic and a difficulty arising from some American claim. It is worth mentioning the fact that immediately after the British award Chile and Argentina, who for some years had been on the verge of war, signed the first treaty for the limitation of armaments that has ever been made.

Both Chambers of the Chilean Congress unanimously approved the League of Nations Covenant and empowered the Government to adhere to it without reservations.

Commercial relations between the two countries have been very active. British capital is invested to a large extent in Chile, and British methods [illegible] ditional in the Republic. Neither this intercourse nor the fact that London has been the financial market for Chile during a century have ever originated a single difficulty or unpleasant incident of any kind.

Chile has suffered during the last years, like the rest of the world, from the shortage of shipping. Her imports have been very low, and she has had great trouble for the export of the main products, like nitrate copper, iron ore, tin, wool and grains. The restoration of normal conditions in the trade for Great Britain are eagerly expected by the Chilean people, and the Mission headed by Senor Tocornal is a proof of their loyealty to the traditional friendship between the two countries.

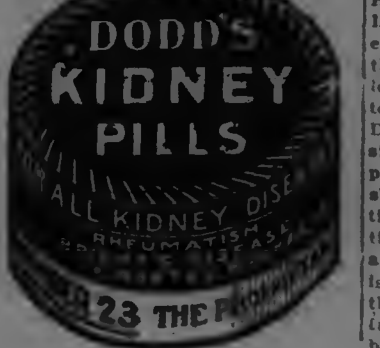
MASONIC LEADERS IN AMERICA

(The Christian Science Monitor.)

In these days when the nation appears to be turning with new interest to the faith of its founders, and time-honored maxims and slogans are once more coming into use, many a reader of history, refreshing his knowledge of the early struggle for independence will, no doubt, come upon the well-known triad, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," without discovering anything, in the early popularity of these words, to suggest a Masonic relationship. Probably there are even members of the Masonic order who have never concerned themselves with such an implication. Yet anyone, within or without the fraternity, taking the trouble to search for facts, will very likely be surprised to find how generally the leading men concerned in establishing the United States as a nation were Masons. All the familiar historical incidents, when re-read in the light of Masonic facts, assume a new interest, if not a new significance. "Paul Revere's Ride," so well celebrated by Longfellow's verses, might be famous, likewise, as a Masonic exploit. Not only was Revere himself a Mason, but so was Robert Newman, who hung the signal lantern in the Old North Church, and so, also, was William Dawes, who gave the alarum by way of Roxbury, as Revere did by way of Charlestown. James Otis, the Bostonian whose pamphlets inveighed against the arbitrary measures of the Crown and paved the way for revolution, and Patrick Henry, whose eloquence in the Virginia House of Burgesses helped to bring the South to the support of the cause, were Masons; so were Samuel Adams, Joseph Warren, and Josiah Quincy, who joined with Otis and Revere in laying plans for the revolution at the Green Dragon Inn. The famous Boston Tea Party, according to the information gathered by Madison C. Peters, in preparing a little volume on "Masons as Makers of America," was projected in the residence of a Mason, and its descent upon the ships at T Wharf was led by members of St. Andrew's Lodge, headed by Paul Revere, then one of its junior officers.

It is a matter of fairly common knowledge that Masonic names were numerous amongst the signers of the Declaration of Independence. As a matter of fact, there were fifty-six signers, and all but six were members of the fraternity. The signer of the completed document, formally representing congressional action, was a Mason, John Hancock. Masons who took a hand in drafting the Declaration were John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Roger Sherman of Connecticut, and Robert Livingston. Some say that Thomas Jefferson, also a member of this committee, was likewise a Mason. Certainly Richard Henry Lee was. He drew up the preliminary resolutions on independence. And Masons largely composed the convention which met at Charlotte, North Carolina, in May, 1775, to prepare the so-called Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence on lines similar to those followed later in the principal declaration. With such a showing in the preliminaries of national experience, Masonic participation was only to be expected in the actual inception of government. Is is not surprising, therefore, to find that fifty Masons sat in the Constitutional Convention in a total membership of fifty-five; or that Masons and Masonic paraphernalia played an important part in the inauguration of the first President, himself a member of the order. Or, even, that the governors of all the thirteen states at that time were similarly distinguished.

Perhaps the most striking prevalence of Masonry, however, was in the personnel of Washington's army. Of his twenty-nine major-generals, twenty were Masons. That their pledges of fraternal support might have counted heavily to his benefit in the trying days that were to come, can, perhaps, be inferred from the fact that of the non-Masonic major-generals, one was Lee, notorious for his Monmouth failure; another was Gates, who constantly plotted to under-mine and supplant the commander-in-chief; the third was Thomas Conway, of the infamous Conway cabal; and the fourth, Thomas Mifflin, whose negligence as inspector of the army made his dismissal necessary. In the whole list of Washington's brigadier-generals, numbering over sixty, only one, Stephen Moylan, was without Masonic degrees. Many Masons gave distinguished service. There was Ethan Allen of Ticonderoga fame; Captain Corcoran, of Allen's Green Mountain Boys; Colonel William Barton, capturer of General Prescott of the King forces; and Henderson, the hero of Harlem Heights, who, captured by the British, was paroled through the inter- [illegible] ert Morris, the financier of the Revolution, was a Mason; so was a Polish Jew named Haym Salomon, a Philadelphian, who is said to have given upward of $650,000 to the support of America in the great struggle. John Marshall, Alexander Hamilton, and James Madison all were Masons. It is a record that may well lead members of the order to look to their laurels.



The Road to Independence

Trouble comes to all of us at one time or another.

The man with a snug bank account, is fortified against the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune".

It is the duty of every man to lay aside something for the inevitable rainy day.

Open a Savings Account today—and take your first step along the road to Independence.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager.

CAN. PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

To and from Kingston Sub-Division.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 1, there will be a change in the Kingston Sub-Division Train Service, providing a daily, except Sunday, day connection as follows: Leave Peterborough 11.59 a.m., arrive Kingston 5.35 p.m.; leave Kingston 9.50 a.m., arrive Peterborough 3.20 p.m.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents.

PROMINENT BRITISHERS DIE.

London, Nov. 24,—Prominent persons dead in the British Isles are: General Fowler Butler, formerly Royal Fusiliers; Albert John Venn, noted physician; Sir Francis Mowatt, formerly permanent secretary of the treasury; Kinnaird Rose, veteran journalist; Lord Charles Innes Ker, formerly of the Scotts Guards, and John Stogdon, assistant master at Harrow.

MANY ARE IN PRISON WITHOUT COURT TRIAL

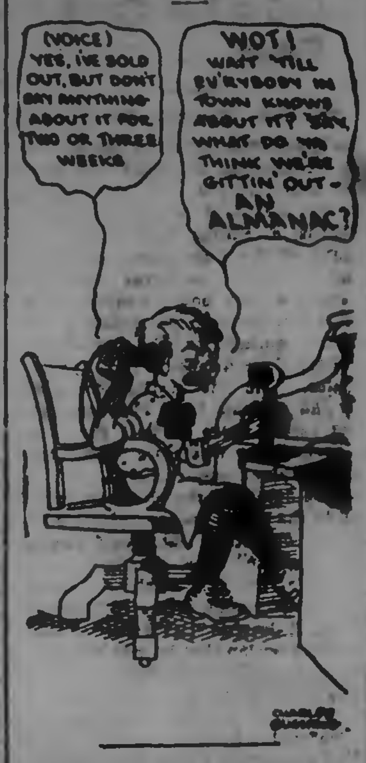
J. G. O'DONOGHUE URGES THAT GOVERNMENT RESCINDS ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL

Toronto, Nov. 23.—J. G. O'Donoghue, who has defended many men accused of political offences, addressed a mass meeting Saturday night in Massey Hall. Mr. O'Donoghue said the purpose of holding the meeting was to urge upon the Dominion Government necessity of returning to normal constitutional law, of removing from the statute books the orders-in-council, and of showing consideration to men and women imprisoned for political offences.

The speaker told of a number of arrests made in Toronto and points outside, of men who had been sentenced to jail for having banned literature in their possession without having the privilege of a court trial.

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

MICKIE SAYS



(VOICE) YES, I'VE SOLD OUT, BUT DON'T SAY ANYTHING ABOUT IT FOR TWO OR THREE WEEKS
WOT! WAIT 'TILL EV'RYBODY IN TOWN KNOWS ABOUT IT? SAY, WHAT DO YA THINK WE'RE GITTIN' OUT—AN ALMANAC?

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

[illegible] for light work.

Baldness seldom becomes those who become bald.

Many a loser makes good by making a bluff at winning.

A man may save money, but he need not hope to be saved by money.

Men have faith in what they believe only when they want to believe it.

Shake the hands of some people and give some other people the shake.

Most men are better acquainted with faith and hope than they are with charity.

If a woman's credit is good at a dry goods store she never argues about the price.

Is not the cook who prepares a good dinner greater than the man who makes the after dinner speech?

If, as the poet says, a room hung with pictures is a room hung with thoughts, what is a board fence hung with circus posters?

WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK

As a winter panacea for coughs and colds Algonquin Park cannot be equalled. Two thousand feet above the sea it is always dry and cold Days spent in snow-shoe tramps, tobogganing or ski-ing and in skating together with evenings spent in social converse around the cosy warmth of an old-fashioned log fire; these slip away unnoticed but those who have once experienced them return to their avocations with renewed energies. The "Highland Inn," owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, offers comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. For all particulars apply to N. T. Clarke, Manager, Algonquin Park Station Ontario.

BANDIT AND SON HANGED

Constantinople, Nov. 24.—Advices received here from Teheran, Persia report the hanging, in the centre of the city, of the bandit chief, Machallas Khan, and his son, and also the placing under arrest of several hundred of Machallas' tribesmen, who for many years had formed Persia's most notorious band of outlaws. The advices also assert that five politicians have been deported from Teheran.

SERBIA TO SIGN

Paris, Nov. 22.—Despatches received from Belgrade state that the Serbian Government has authorized that country's delegation at Paris to sign the treaty with Austria which Serbia did not sign at St. Germain on September 10.

WRIGLEY'S

The Greatest Name in Goody-Land

WRIGLEY'S
SPEARMINT
THE PERFECT GUM
THE FLAVOUR LASTS
WRIGLEY'S
JUICY FRUIT
CHEWING GUM
FIVE
STICKS
WRIGLEY'S
DOUBLEMINT
CHEWING GUM
MADE IN CANADA

SEALED TIGHT — KEPT RIGHT

The Flavour Lasts

57

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by

MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

GROCERS, IN ROLE OF "WORM," TURN FIERCELY

At last the "worm" is turning. The Retail Grocers' Association, of Reading, Pa., of which E. C. Clammer is president and H. J. Aschenbrenner secretary, has issued a statement combatting the charges of boosting prices and taking advantage of the consumer, in reply to charges recently made at a public hearing.

The grocers' statement, in part, follows:

"These are strenuous times. Everybody seems to be charging somebody with profiteering. A charge has been made against the grocer of profiteering, and we feel that an explanation should be made to show the public that this is untrue.

"The principal charge made in that recent investigation was that of hoarding and cold storage. Of these the retail grocer is innocent, for he could not practice them because of the lack of money and facilities. These branches of the trade are controlled by the jobbing leaders and manufacturers.

"The grocer gives you service. He carries everything you need and for this charges a reasonable profit. The high cost of living has hit him, as it has every one else. His labor, delivery, rent, light, heat and family expenses all have increased. Since he never makes more than a living profit, he must, naturally, add these items to the high cost he has to pay for the goods he gets from the wholesale grocer.

"The average retail grocery store contains nearly 1,000 items. He gathers these goods from all over the world in order that you might enjoy them at your table. For this service he asks to be paid a living profit. He is the first one to feel the demands of the poor when trouble shows and, as a rule, is always found ready to help the deserving. His books will show how, in many cases, these people so befriended were the first to forget the grocer in times of prosperity.

"The grocer cannot reduce his prices until the manufacturer and the jobber charge him less, and when they do your grocer will be the first to let you share the benefits of it. Do not condemn the innocent for the acts of others and over which he has no control."

"YOUR OWN HOME" SELLS FURNITURE

In how many ways can furniture be sold?

Is there anything new under the sun in the way of advertising appeal?

The Yost Furniture Company, 560 Walnut street, Kansas City, has changed its copy regularly in its many newspaper advertisements and then came the really ingenious innovation.

It was a bold fight against the hotel, the boarding house and the gipsy form of existence. It spoke to young married couples or sweethearts who were thinking of tying the knot.

This is the characteristic piece of copy:

"WHAT CAN YOU DO IN YOUR OWN HOME:

"Come when you please.

"Go when you please.

"Eat when you please.

"Eat what you please.

"Have company when you please.

"Have what company whom you please.

"And a lot more good things.

"And it's just about as cheap to have your own little home as it is to pay board for two and rooms for two, or to live in the so-called 'light-housekeeping' rooms. Don't feel a bit bashful about coming in and talking things over. Other couples are doing it every day."

Yost's furniture is now known as "The Stuff that Real Homes are Made Of."

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

A firm believer in the "Do-Your Christmas-Shopping-Early" slogan, the Bon Ton Department Store, of Hazelton, Pa., started its publicity drive for holiday shoppers last season on October 10 and, while it was prepared to cater to the late buyer, its campaign was designed to catch the early and middle trade as well.

According to John W. Freeman, advertising manager of the store, a page which appeared on December 8 was the best advertisement of the season, so far as results were concerned.

"We believe," says Mr. Freeman, "that the way to catch the eyes of the shoppers at all times and particularly at Christmas is to make them feel that they can always get what they want at your store, no matter what they are after. Therefore we always emphasize some offer of goods at as low a price as is consistent with selling dependable merchandise, from every department if we can. In other words, we strive to create the impression of an unlimited variety of choice and price, plus a multitude of styles.

"We also scored by entering the holiday season before the rest of the stores got around to it. 'Do Your Christmas Shopping Early' is all right for the purchaser—but its corollary, 'Do your holiday advertising early' is the slogan for the store that wishes to be successful.

"In the page to which I refer, which followed some two months of intensive and extensive advertising, the headline read 'Choose Your Christmas Gifts Early and Enjoy First Choice.' Then appeared thirteen—it wasn't an unlucky number for us—sections and boxes, each devoted to a specific department, with the most attractive of the prices set in bold type. A semi-comic cartoon depicting the 'Shop Late Jinx' hauling Santa Claus toward the danger line of 'Too Late,' ornamented the top of the page and chimneys acted as borders at the side.

"Of course this advertisement had behind it the cumulative power of our other and previous advertising, but it certainly produced an amazing amount of business."

"DEALERS WHO ADVERTISE ARE NOT PROFITEERS"

Charles H. Adams, one of the three members of the Massachusetts commission on the prices of necessaries of life and mayor of Melrose, Mass., declares that the merchant who is an advertiser is almost universally one who is not profiteering. After investigating prices in all of the largest cities in the state as well as in many towns, Mayor Adams says:

"Since starting my investigations into the costs of necessaries of life, I have also followed the newspaper advertisements in each of the municipalities where I have held such investigations. I find that in Massachusetts the merchants are, as a rule liberal advertisers. I have carefully compared prices of foodstuffs with those advertised and I find that the advertised lists compare favorably with the fair-price list which this commission issues from time to time.

"Merchants who take advantage of the markets are enabled to offer cut-down prices. The public should keep in close touch with these advertisements to take advantage of such sales.

"Merchants who advertise are, almost without exception, helping in our efforts to reduce the cost of living."

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

WEDDING - GIFTS -

in

STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's

567 George St., Next Turnbull's

Cork Trees.

Cork trees are indigenous to Sardinia, and extensive natural forests are to be found upon the mountain slopes in the northern part of the island. The crop is cut every nine years. The process of industrial production is comparatively simple. The dried-out bark in its cylindrical form is first thoroughly steamed and flattened out under pressure. It remains in piles for about thirty days and reappears covered with blue mold. The bark is then carefully scraped on both sides and cut into strips corresponding in width to the varying lengths of the cork stoppers desired. These strips are cut by hand into cubes. The cubes are put through high-speed finishing machines, which round off the edges and give the required taper.

Violent Deaths in India.

Snake bite caused 23,718 deaths in British India in 1917, nearly 300 more than in 1916. There were 2,170 persons killed by wild animals, 102 less than in 1916. Tigers got 1,009; leopards, 339; wolves and bears 28; elephants and hyenas, 89. Of the 456 set down to "other animals," 89 are assigned to pigs and 199 to crocodiles.

Precocious.

"John, what book is that the baby's chewing? It looks like our 'Omar Khayyam'."

"It is. I'm glad to see the kid displaying such a pronounced taste for the classics."

Didn't Know It Was His Turn.

Wife—Don't sit there staring at me. Why don't you say something?

"My dear, I didn't know it was my turn yet."

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. Frank Henson, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THE RED ARMY.

Forces of Bolshevists Are Growing Powerful.

The paper strength of the Red army of Soviet Russia has reached the figure of 4,000,000. However, its actual strength was about 3,000,000, although it was constantly on the increase. The difference of 1,000,000 represented approximately the number of draft evaders and deserters at large.

In spite of this apparently imposing number of slackers, the Red army is not to be under-estimated. It is not a haphazard collection of Red Guards bands. It is not a mob of youngsters. The Red army is well organized, well disciplined, well equipped and well officered. The soldiers who demoralized the front in 1917 by fraternizing are not drafted into the Red army. Generally speaking those who participated in the war against Germany are not welcomed into the ranks.

When you ask a Bolshevik in Russia to point out the creative and not destructive accomplishments of the Soviet Government, you are apt to get such an answer as: "We have created the Red army which absorbs most of our energy. Give us peace and we will show you how we can build." It must be admitted that to keep an army of 3,000,000 supplied with abundant food, for that is what the Red army gets, and to maintain a system of transport reaching a front extending over enormous distances such as lie between the Archangel and Denikine or between the Ukrainian and Kolchak fronts, is a task which would tax even the resources of a tried old Government.

The soldiers of the Red army surprise one by their satisfied appearance. Of course, in order to keep the Red army satisfied the country is deprived of many necessities and is not wholly satisfied. The requisitions in the villages for the army are certainly not popular. Half of Soviet Russia's transportation system is devoted to the needs of the Red army.

A central commission to combat desertion has been formed in Moscow. In May, it organized a series of roundups of deserters throughout the country. At railway stations, in the streets of the cities and villages, dragnets were spread for Red army slackers. Military schools for officers have been established in Moscow and other places. The command of the Red army has almost passed from the hands of the old officers, although the latter are very much in demand as instructors and advisers. Thus, toward the end of May, a number of officers were graduated from the academy of the general staff of the Red army. The courses for infantry officers maintained by the Moscow Soviet are open only to members of the communist party or to Soviet supporters, who can produce recommendations from such members.

A tribute to the Red army has been paid by one of Kolchak's leading generals in a secret order issued by the commander of the Siberian western army, Lieut.-Gen. Khanzhin, under number O826. A copy of it fell into the hands of the Soviet troops when they captured a part of the 21st Tchelabinsk regiment with its staff. It reads, in part:

"Through all the actions of our enemies there runs the red thread of attack at whatever cost and in whatever circumstances, often reaching a degree of audacity. Similar daring should be our answer at every opportunity. Every blow should be answered by a blow. If strategically the Reds have no rear, which increases their bravado, actually they are very sensitive to surprise attacks and encirclements.

"But remembering the ability of the Reds to recuperate quickly after unsuccessful conflicts, I most insistently recommend sure, determined, even bold tactics aiming to smash the enemy and not to win territory, to place him in a position of death or surrender and not make him evacuate a sector.

"There is plenty of territory in the rear of the enemy, and his human reserves are great. We must strive to break up his military organization, to convince his soldiers that skill and not quantity is on our side.

"We witness a civil war in which, willingly or unwillingly, especially on the side of the Reds, the population of the war zone is taking a most active part. Hence the advantage of having the people's sympathy on our side is obvious."

NOT REALLY 'NEW'

Modern Comforts Well Known to the Ancients.

Running Water in Houses, for Instance, Was a Luxury Enjoyed by Both the Roman and Early Egyptian Civilizations.

Many of the so-called "modern improvements" of civilization, which so largely contribute to the comfort of living, are by no means so recent in origin as we are disposed to imagine.

An eminent archeologist has recently declared, for example, that Nero's palace in Rome had three elevators. It is true that those elevators must have been hoisting machines of very primitive pattern—operated presumably by man power, with the help of rope and counter weight—and it is more than doubtful that they were ever used to carry human freight. Few palaces or other buildings in ancient Rome were more than two stories in height, and passenger "lifts" were for that reason not needed.

We are accustomed to think of running water in houses as a modern luxury. New York city did not have it until 1776, when a reservoir was constructed east of Broadway, into which water was raised by pumping it from wells dug for the purpose. But that was a very primitive arrangement compared with the system of ancient Rome, by which water was brought from great distances in aqueducts that were marvels of engineering and that emptied through lead pipes into thousands of tanks of hewn stone.

Erected at intervals along the streets of Pompeii were pillars of masonry, up which ran lead pipes; and on top of each pillar was a tank, from which water was distributed by pipes to the houses. All dwellings, except those of the very poor, were thus supplied, and some had nearly a score of faucets, controlled by stopcocks that were much like those that are in use today.

At many street corners there were fountains with stone basins, the edges of which even now show depressions worn by the hands of the people who leaned over to drink. Those fountains were fed by the city water, which was brought by an aqueduct from a distant place so elevated that the "head" was very powerful. That kind of engineering was highly developed in those times. When Julius Caesar first visited Alexandria in Egypt he found there so complete an underground water supply system that the city seemed "hollow underneath."

In the year 73 B. C., Julius Caesar organized the fire department of Rome. It had a force of 600 men. At that time a primitive fire engine had already come into use; it was a pair of pumps worked by a beam, and the two streams united in a common discharge pipe and passed out through a nozzle that could be turned in any direction. "Siphons"—emergency fire extinguishers—were commonly kept in houses. Frequent mention is made of them in ancient literature, but we do not know what they were like.—Youth's Companion.

Lafe's Tribute.

As we reached a certain smooth road, along which travel daily many ammunition wagons, we met a mule skinner walking. He was going in the direction of a certain military graveyard, where are buried Americans and French and Germans, Senegalese and Moroccans and Tunisians—Christians and Mohammedans. Over the mule skinner's right arm hung a French wreath. With his left hand he was leading a sullen looking mule. As we were about to pass him our engine died. W—— got out to crank up and the mule skinner stopped to watch and talk to us. Meantime an M. P. strolled down.

"Where you goin' with that, Lafe?" he asked, nodding at the wreath.

"Well," replied Lafe, with a hitch at the mule, "there was a damn fool I used to sleep with, and he got his two nights ago. He was a hell of a good fellow, and I bought this wreath to put on his cross."—Maude Radford Warren in the Saturday Evening Post.

Apricot Oil.

One good that is working out of the evil of war is the demonstration that chemists, under the spur of demand, can readily surpass the accomplishments of German science. The following is a concrete example: California has an annual by-product crop of 7,000 tons of apricot pits, which were formerly sold to Germany and Denmark at $45 a ton. When the war closed this market, and the price dropped to $15, a California chemist bought a supply and started experimenting.

He is now marketing a substitute for olive oil; a meal used in cooking; oil of apricot, known as bitter oil of almonds; American blue, from which Prussic acid can be made, and a number of other by-products.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED IN the country. Apply Review office for address.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LADIES. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont.

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—MAID FOR LIGHT housework. Apply Mrs. G. H. Thompson, 373 Park street. Phone 1381.

WANTED.

WANTED TO PURCHASE, A small planing mill, with good yard and storage; must have good shipping facilities. Preferred location south of Orillia. Apply Box 477 Review.

WANTED — SEWING. TELEPHONE 1059J.

WANTED — STEAM RADIATORS, either cast iron or pipe coils. Parties having such for sale please 'phone or leave name at Review office.

WANTED—75 CORDS WOOD: cut; $2.50 for soft and $3.00 for hard. C. E. Moore, R. R. No. 2, Peterborough.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED, Temple Theatre, Brantford; steady work; heat in building; 75c an hour and time and a half over-time; can make $8 to $10 a day. Railroad fares paid. Bring your tools. Apply on job, Dalhousie street, or telephone Adelaide 1829, Toronto, at my expense. E. J. Curry, 56 King street west, Toronto.

LOST.

LOST—SATURDAY EVENING small black purse containing $20 in bills and some small change, at Matthews' or Coleman's lower stores, or street car south to Morrow street. Finder kindly return to Review and receive $5 reward.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—WHITE ROBE for baby sleigh. Apply 507 Bethune street.

FORD TOURING CAR, 1919 model, nearly new. Bargain for quick buyer. Must be sold this week; owner leaving the city. Apply Box 478 Review office.

Harvard defeated Yale in the annual football game played on the former's field on Saturday. Over fifty thousand attended.

New York funds were firmer on the local market, and advanced to 4 7-8.

The New York market rallied further, with special attention to motors and oils.

Canada Bread common was again in strong demand on the Toronto Exchange, and advanced 1 1-8

Children's Aid Society

—of—

Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m

Have You A Savings Account ?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners, of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00

W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked "till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYTHING at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. B. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc. and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
406 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. 4½ Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.C.S. Eng., L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, George Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 396 George St.

GREENE'S

"The Home of the Grafonola"

"The Home of the Grafonola"

Join Our 1919 Christmas

GRAFONOLA CLUB

Have Your Grafonola Now---or Later if You Wish

This popular plan for the easy purchase of one of these "King of Home Entertainers" will open to the public in our store to-morrow morning

The Club plan has been made very attractive by offering Club members choice of any style of Grafonola, and while there will be no limit set as to the number of memberships, we are urging everyone to make an early selection, as no doubt any marked preference for any particular model of Grafonola may quickly exhaust the supply, and thus limit the choice

To open the club with a rush to morrow we are offering the fine outfit illustrated here on very special terms for a single day.

Grafonola

Record Cabinet

together with

6 Selections

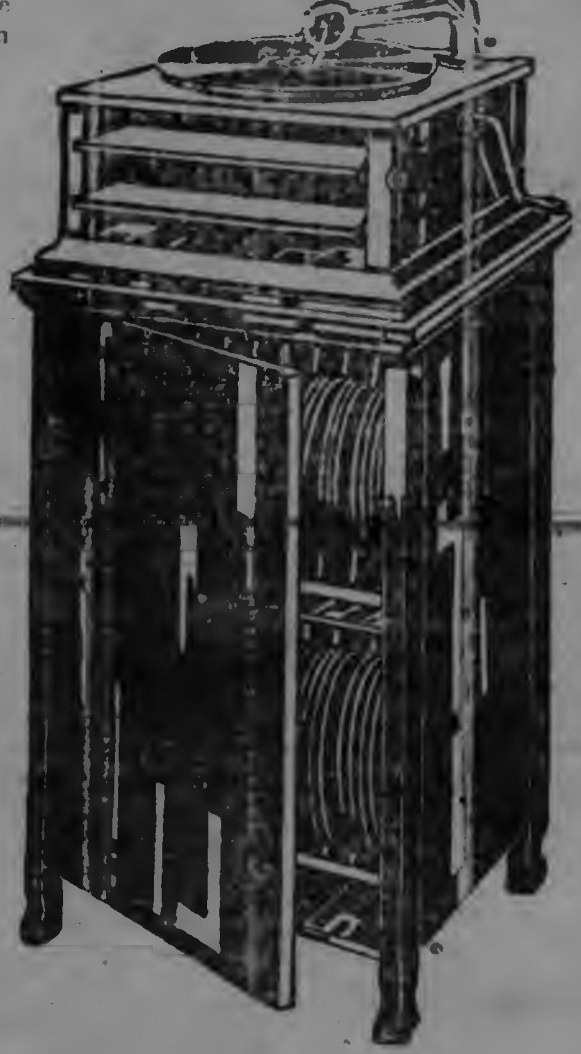
For Only $5 Down

---Sent Home to You Without Delay

It's a Grafonola of unusual merit, having most of the good features found in instruments of two and three times the price — such as new bayonet-joint tone arm, Columbia tone-control leaves, Columbia reproducer, speed regulator, start and stop device, etc., etc. It has powerful motor and plays two selections at one winding, and is enclosed in handsome oak case. Record cabinet has capacity for 60 disc records.

Get Your Order in Early To-morrow.

Store Opens 8.30 a.m. Closes 6 p.m.



NO NEED TO WAIT A DAY

It requires only a small sum (based upon the instrument you choose) to join the Club.

Price of Outfit

Including Grafonola, Record Cabinet and Six Selections--all

For $49.90

All we ask is that you pay us $5 down to-morrow to join the Club, and agree to pay balance of purchase price in small weekly dues afterwards. We send the complete outfit—Grafonola, Record Cabinet and Records, as included above to your home at once. You pay for it while you are getting your enjoyment from it.

One Gift to the Whole, Family

A good idea adopted by many homes in former years is for all members of the family to contribute an amount agreed on, and in this way, without anyone assuming a heavy burden, bring into the home one of the finest models of Grafonolas.

But Join the Club and Let This be the Merriest Christmas of All.

The J. M. Greene Music Co., Limited The Home of the Grafonola Charlotte Street

CRIME IN CANADA ON THE INCREASE

BUT PROHIBITION HAS RESULTED IN DECREASE OF INTOXICATION

A considerable increase in crime throughout the Dominion is shown by the blue book dealing with criminal statistics for the year 1918 just issued from the office of the returns, there were during the year 21,747 charges and 17,370 convictions for indictable offences in the several provinces as compared with 19,559 charges and 15,559 convictions the year before. This is an increase of 2,293 for charges, and an increase of 1,811 for convictions during the year. The percentage of acquittals ran from 12 per cent. in Prince Edward Island to over 27 per cent. in Nova Scotia.

The number of convictions increased during the year in all the provinces except Alberta British Columbia, and the Yukon.

The number of summary convictions jumped from 98,452 in 1917 to 105,199 in 1918. Of these less than 8 per cent. were women offenders.

Drunkenness Decreases.

Eighty-two per cent. of the number of persons convicted of minor offences were fined, three per cent. were sentenced to imprisonment without option of a fine and fifteen per cent. were allowed to go on suspended sentence. Of the minor offenders against the law, 21,026 were convicted of drunkenness as against 27,882 during the previous year. Drunkenness decreased by nearly 25 per cent. in Canada during the year, increases being confined to the provinces of Manitoba and Alberta. In the last-named province convictions numbered 825 as compared with 391 the previous year, an increase of 111 per cent.; while in Manitoba convictions grew from 1,085 to 1,123, an increase of three and one-half per cent. The beneficial effect of war time prohibition is demonstrated by a table showing that for the war period 1914-1918 there was a decline of 65 per cet. in the number of convictions for drunkenness. The percentage decrease by province was as follows:

Prince Edward Island, 72; Nova Scotia, 39; New Brunswick, 60; Quebec, 48; Ontario, 55; Manitoba, 82; Saskatchewan, 78; Alberta, 85; British Columbia, 92, Yukon, 69.

LAVAL UNIVERSITY SUFFERS FROM FIRE

MAIN BUILDING DESTROYED: DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $400,000 — STUDENT SUFFERERS

Montreal, Nov. 24.— The main building of the University of Montreal, better known as Laval University, containing the medical departments, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. The damage is estimated at $400,000 and covered by insurance. The cause of the fire has not been definitely settled, but a smoking concert was held in the building in the early part of the evening, and it is thought by the firemen that lighted cigar butts may have been left around after it.

Have Narrow Escape.

Several of the medical students had a narrow escape when the blaze broke out. They were counting the ballots for the class election, which took place Saturday, and bits of plaster from the ceiling fell, and they were later notified that the top, or sixth floor, of the building was ablaze. They rushed for their hats and coats, and made their way out a short time before the occurrence of an explosion, which set the entire fourth and fifth floors ablaze in the centre of the building. The explosion is believed to have been caused by a tank of alcohol.

Men of the Salvage Department were inside on the lower floors placing covers when the explosion occurred, and they rushed out, leaving the covers which were soon destroyed. The line of hose which was inside at the time was burnt.

Several firemen had placed a ladder on the gallery over the entrance, and, led by District Chiefs Martin and Gauthier, were about to climb into the fifth floor when the explosion came, and they were knocked off the ladders which broke. None of them was seriously injured, however, beyond a few cuts from bits of broken glass. Every man and every mechanical device of the brigade were used to fight the flames.

The medical museum, which contained the body of "Giant" Beaupre, was considerably damaged and the medical laboratory was destroyed with all the dissecting cadavers.

Valuable Articles Saved.

On the lower floors the students and some of the professors who had rushed to the scene of the fire managed to save some of the most precious articles. Valuable paintings, photographs and other articles which would have been impossible to replace, were taken out and carried to the rooms of the Cercle Laval, near by.

When the fire was under control several firemen made their way into the third floor of the north wing, and with the help of Dr. Gaston Rene de Cotret, Chief of the Notre Dame Hospital house staff, salvaged many valuable articles.

Red Hot Church Dome.

The copper dome of the Notre Dame de Lourdes Church nearby grew red hot from the excessive heat, and several streams had to be used to cool it off. The church was slightly damaged by water.

The fire lasted more than nine hours. The blaze was one of the most sensational ever seen in Montreal. So vivid was the reflection in the sky that numerous alarms were turned in elsewhere for supposed fires.

FIGHT FOR LIFE OF TOBACCO NOW

LEAGUE LAUNCHES NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN AGAINST W.C.T.U. PROPAGANDA

St. Louis, Nov. 22.— An organized fight on the anti tobacco propaganda being spread by the Women's Christian Temperance Union was begun to-day by the Allied Tobacco League of America. This league is composed of leading tobacco manufacturers and retailers of the country.

P. H. McCartin, St. Louis representative of the league, said that speakers soon would tour the country. Literature is being printed to combat the work of the W. C. T. U.

"Threats of prohibition of tobacco have aroused the traders and workers to action," said McCartin. "We are not going to sit idly by and see a wonderful industry destroyed by meddling women who have no conception of the problem they are attempting to solve. We are starting to-day, to offset the work in favor of legislation against tobacco."

McCartin said there were 125,000 cigar makers in the United States and hundreds of thousands of others depending for their livelihood on the tobacco industry.

The Allied Tobacco League was organised in Cincinnati, October 3. The league includes growers, warehousemen, wholesalers, retailers and workers in the various factories. W. D. Spalding of Covington, Ky., a large tobacco grower, was made temporary chairman of the league.

ALL THAT HE WOULD ADMIT

But Old Vermonter Did Unbend Slightly When His Visitor Presented His "Credentials."

Representative Frank Green of Vermont, who makes the best after-dinner speech of any man in congress, and does not like to because it interferes with his train of serious thought, has brought a new Vermont story to town. It is based on the care with which his fellow Vermonters take strangers into their arms.

While ambling around the state during the recent recess Green visited a town where several of his ancestors were born. Finally he came up in front of a village store and encountering one of the oldest inhabitants he tried to start a conversation.

"Looks as though it might rain," Green suggested.

The oldest inhabitant's response was a quick glance.

"Who are you, young man?" he asked.

"Oh," Green responded, "I'm young Green. My grandfather used to run the quarry out yonder. My grandfather, too, was born in these parts."

"Is that so?"

"Yes," Green continued. "I had a lot of relatives born up here, too. One of my uncles ran the livery stable for years, a cousin was in the furniture business, one of my aunts was the champion bread baker of the county for six consecutive years, and I don't know how many of my folks took other high honors hereabouts."

The resident was impressed. Looking Green over carefully and observing that the young fellow appeared to be telling the truth, the old man agreed:

"Well, young man, it may rain."—New York Times.

Fewer Taxis.

There are only 3,000 taxicabs in the streets of London to-day, as compared with 9,000 in 1914. One company owning 3,000 idle cars refused to operate them because the Government would not permit it to charge a flat rate of 25 cents a mile.

An inch of rain descending on an acre of land would fill more than 600 barrels of forty-five gallons each.

MEN CHANGE? NO!

Mr. Goslington Confident They Preserve Their Ideals.

Of Course, With Advancing Years He Admits Some of the Enthusiasms May Be Lost, but There's Reason for That.

"An older friend of mine once said to me," said Mr. Goslington, "that men preserve their ideals until they are somewhere around fifty, but after that they look out for themselves.

"Not having yet reached that more or less mature age myself, I can't say what I shall be when I get there. Maybe I shall get hardened, too, and take a like cynical view; but I don't think so now. Anyway, it is my observation as far as I've got that most men are generous in spirit and that men carry through life, in the main, the characteristics with which they start. The man endowed with a generous heart stays generous to the end of his days. We certainly do meet some hard old men, but I have known young men who were hard and close fisted; and I should rather attribute the seeming closeness of some men as they grow older not to tight-wadness but to the development of a habit of discrimination.

"What my friend meant to say to me was that while men start in life with the natural enthusiasms of youth; while they then espouse all good causes and give generously of their time and money, yet as they grow older they discover that most of the innumerable enterprises started for the betterment of mankind are never carried to completion, and that there's a lot of sham in the world and that really most people are out for what they can make; and so as a man grows older, when he comes to be fifty or thereabouts, he says to himself, 'What's the use; why should I waste my time and money?' And looking at things in that light from that on he leaves reform and that sort of thing to the younger set, while for himself he looks out for No. 1.

"Now what I find is that as men become more experienced in life they do discover that not all causes are worthy of support; that some, fine as they may seem to be, are visionary and can never come to fruition; that some are managed wastefully and so do not appeal to a man who likes to see money used to the greatest advantage. And I find that men come to consider more and more the sponsors of projects put forth with an appeal for money; but men do not lack generosity—far from it. It is true that some men as they grow older do grow harder and look out for themselves alone; but this is not true of mankind in general.

"Having encountered frauds, and having met with notoriety seekers who sought to promote their own fame rather than the enterprise in which they were engaged, whatever measure of merit that might contain, men do, as they grow older, grow more canny; but the man with a generous streak in him in his youth, which the vast majority of men have, holds it as long as he lives, and it can be reached by the right appeal.

"So I don't quite agree with my older friend's views; and it makes me smile to recall that once when I stood in need of wise counsel and had called on him he took time to talk to me and tell me what I needed to know, and he lent me money besides. He thought he was a tough, wise old bird, but he didn't know himself as well as he thought he did. He was born with a sound heart, and despite the fact that he was now well past fifty, he was still running true to form."

Works With Hands and Mouth.

They were having an argument on the question of which was the more intelligent, man or woman. Seven-year-old Dorothy was emphatic in her belief that woman was the superior of man, and nine-year-old Joe was quite as convinced that man was the wiser creature. To prove her point she told of mother's accomplishments, ending with her mending ability.

Jubilantly Joe rejoiced at the channels into which she led the argument. "Yes, she can darn," he admitted, "but just look how long it takes her. Then look at dad. When he tears anything all he needs is a couple of safety pins, and you women to get out of the way so he can talk while he pins."

Honor Before Ease.

"It's terrible the way we used to hate work," said Meandering Mike.

"I hate it as much as ever," replied Plodding Pete; "but I'd do anythin' rather than run a chance of bein' mistook fur one o' them I. W. W.'s."

BIG GUN NOT WORTH WHILE

American Ordnance Experts Could Outdo the Huns in Savagery, but Are Not Likely To.

The Hun 75-mile gun with which Paris was harassed is doubtless still regarded by many as evidence of the much-advertised German mechanical ingenuity.

Ordnance experts have long been aware of the possibility of such a gun. But they have also been aware of its impracticability owing to a lack of means of controlling its fire effectively in such dastardly work as shelling a great city regardless of whom or what was hit.

As an object lesson our ordnance department has designed, without actually building, a supergun which dwarfs the German machine into insignificance. The data, recently made public through the Scientific American, fairly bewitches the lay mind.

The barrel of the gun is 225 feet long and weighs 326 tons. The pressure developed is 45,000 pounds to the square inch. The projectile has a muzzle velocity of 8,500 foot-seconds, and develops the terrific energy of 300,000 foot tons. Its range is 121 miles, approximately the distance between Chicago and Madison, Wis. Its time of flight is four minutes, and it soars heavenward to a height of 46 miles.

This is awesome; but the cold-blooded expert points out that, after all, the gun delivers only a 400-pound shell, containing 60-pounds of high explosive, and that such a gun would cost $2,500,000. A bombing plane costing $30,000 would drop a 1,600-pound bomb with greater accuracy of aim.

The German supergun demonstrates the savagery of the Hun—the Berserker madness that strikes regardless of whom it strikes. But it also demonstrates an intellectual weakness—the love of mechanism for mechanism's sake. A complicated or difficult piece of machinery captivates his admiration because it is complicated or difficult, regardless of its practicability.

With American genius, simplicity is the desideratum. The mechanism, for instance, of the Browning automatics, whether pistol, rifle or machine gun, is astonishingly simple and practically demountable by the fingers alone. One looks at it and wonders why it wasn't invented half a century since. And right there one pays genius a high tribute.

Kei Hara.

For the first time in the history of Japan a man without a title is at the head of the government. Mr. Kei Hara, the present premier, is a commoner, born in northern Japan, and educated in Tokyo on a scholarship founded by the feudal lord of his clan. He studied law as a profession, but entered journalism, serving on the immediate journalistic ancestor of the now well-known Hochi Shimbun. From journalism he entered diplomacy under Marquess Inouye, then foreign minister, and was sent as consul to France. Returning to Japan he became director of the commercial bureau of the foreign office under Count Mutsu; and then in turn minister in Korea, and vice minister of foreign affairs in Japan, retiring temporarily to private life when Count Mutsu gave up the political work that had earned him the reputation of being the greatest modern Japanese diplomatist. Mr. Hara returned to national politics in 1900 as minister of communications in the new cabinet of Prince Ito, and from that appointment his rise has been steady till he was lately made premier, and so became the first commoner that has ever in Japan occupied so high a position.

How It Began.

Customary figure as the boy scout has become in the United States, General Baden-Powell's visit added much to American knowledge of the movement. A good many newspaper readers were probably surprised to learn that it owes its beginning to the Boer war and the siege of Mafeking, without which it may be questioned whether there would be any boy scouts. In command at Mafeking, General Baden-Powell looked far beyond the siege and saw that a great and useful organization of boys might be developed from the corps of boy messengers organized to serve the forces holding that hard-pressed town. That was the beginning of it, but the same force of character that defended Mafeking carried forward the boy scout idea until it was generally recognized as a project for character building rather than encouraging militarism in the young. Another bit of information that probably surprised many Americans was that Baden-Powell is descended on his mother's side from Capt. John Smith.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Said:

"After all what a man does with his money is to invest, and there is no better way to in it than in Life Insurance."

As an ESTATE BUILDER there is nothing to equal Life Insurance

TAKE THE FOLLOWING ACTUAL RESULT

A young man sixteen years of age took out a 15 years Endowment (No. 210380) in the Sun Life of Canada, which matured on the first of April. This young man paid annually $66.20 for fifteen years and he now has, through that investment, an immediate estate of $3495.00 in case of death.

DO YOU KNOW THAT THIS AMOUNTS TO ALMOST 15 PER CENT COMPOUND INTEREST ON EVERY DOLLAR PAID?

No wonder Sir Wilfrid said—and he might have added (no better place than the Sun Life of Canada)—"there is no better way to invest it than in LIFE INSURANCE."

SUN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CANAD

Crown Chambers Building, 402 Water St., Peterboro

PHONE 14

W. H. HILL, Manager, Central Ontario

A. WEDDELL
J. D. CAMERON —INSPECTORS—
H. S. McDUFFEE
D. H. MOORE

Beautifully cool and sweet smoking.
PLAYER'S
Navy Cut
Cigarettes
PLAYER'S
NAVY CUT

18c per package—two for 35c

The consistent high quality of PLAYER'S has made them the biggest selling cigarettes in the world.

MIDDLEMEN BLAMED FOR COST OF LIVING

DENIED THAT FARMERS AND ORGANIZED LABOR ARE TO BLAME

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Release of the "vast horde of middlemen from war-time obligation to maintain fair prices" is responsible for the high cost of living, Dalton T. Clarke, Chicago, president of the National Co-operative Association, told representatives of twenty-three farmer and labor bodies of the country here.

He denied that farmers and organized labor were to blame for high prices.

The conference is being held today and tomorrow, under the joint auspices of the Farmers' National Council and other leading national farm and consumers' co-operative societies.

Touching on the interest the railroad brotherhoods have in the meeting, Mr. Clarke said it is proposed to fight the high cost of living in urging retention of government control of the railroads and decreased freight rates.

SIXTEEN BOTTLES

Toronto, Nov. 24 Sixteen bottles of "firewater" were part of August Imperial's possessions when he was caught on Saturday night at his home on Elm Street by Plainclothesmen Ward and Henshaw. The police confiscated the whiskey and escorted August to West Dundas St. police station, where the charge of B.O.T.A. was preferred against him

MEMORIAL AT YPRES TO BRITISH EMPIRE

RETAIN RUINS OF CLOTH HALL AS TESTIMONY OF TEUTON'S BARBARITY

London, Nov. 23 It is announced by the war office that the Battle Exploit Memorials Committee has under consideration the question of a memorial to the troops of the British Empire who fought at Ypres.

The Belgian minister of the interior stated recently in the Belgian chamber that the authorities at Ypres had been late in passing the plans for restoration An official meeting had taken place of representatives of the Belgian Government, town authorities of Ypres, and the British War Office committee on battle exploit memorials, and preliminary measures had been taken to protect the Cloth Hall, the cathedral and the adjoining houses from desecration These ruins in their actual state, besides being an eloquent testimony of Teutonic barbarity, would remain a place of pilgrimage, to which the allies may come to perpetuate the memory of those soldiers of theirs who died to keep intact the last strip of Belgian soil.

LABOR PARTY SOLID ON NIAGARA FRONT

WILL PLAY LARGE PART IN COMING MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Bridgeburg, Nov. 23.—That Labor will play an increasingly large part in politics along the Niagara frontier and in the Niagara district in the coming elections is practically assured

Announcements made by branches of the Independent Labor party at Welland and other towns show that the Laborite party will nominate candidates in the municipal elections. It is also stated that the Laborites in Bridgeburg will have candidates put up for the aldermanic board at least this coming municipal election if not for the mayoralty.

Charles F. Swayze, the new Labor member here, has made a very pleasing impression on the voters, owing to the practical way in which he supported the Victory Loan and other projects in connection with legislation in this district, despite the fact that his critics declared that Labor in this county was of a radical nature.

WILDE VISITS PRINCE ON BOARD "RENOWN"

New York, Nov. 23 Jimmy Wilde, England's sensational flyweight boxer, who is scheduled to make his first American appearance in a bout against Jake Sharkey of this city, at Milwaukee, December 6., was one of the visitors to H.M.S. Renown, headquarters of Prince Edward of Wales, Friday. Wilde, accompanied by his wife and Capt. Edward Thupper, season's leader of Great Britain, boarded the Renown at two o'clock, and subsequently had a chat of about fifteeen minutes with the heir to the British throne. The prince is a Wilde enthusiast, and it is understood, is keenly interested in the British boxer's ring career. Before leaving Mrs. Wilde secured the Prince's signature in an autograph book.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov. 24.—Stocks manifested no definite trend at the dull opening of today's session.

General Motors and Crucible Steel, features of last week's final session, soon strengthened the general list at gains of five and three points, respectively.

DEATH BY POISON IS SUSPECTED

LETTERS HINTING AT MYSTERIOUS MAN IN RYERSON CASE MADE PUBLIC

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 22.—Theodore Ryerson, father of Theodore Ryerson, Jr., who died suddenly last April, made public today a letter from his son written on stationery of the Hotel Commodore, in New York city, where the younger Mr. Ryerson was employed as a salesman for the New York Safe and Lock Company. It is dated February 12, about a month prior to Mr. Ryerson's death. The letter, signed "Dory," follows:

"Dear Father, —No word from any source up to this time. I will move tomorrow night to the Hotel Commodore. I inclose key to the house and also your letter. Be sure to see the Daily Home News every night to see if anything gets into print.

"I inclose a rough draft of affidavit to the War Department for your approval.

"I think that this man ought to be punished. Florence seems more concerned in attempting to prevent my taking the matter up with the government than anything else.

"Tell mother not to worry If this matter goes through I will soon be home again with you all. I am sure we will all be very happy. With love to all. DORY."

The man named in the letter, according to the authorities was present when young Mr. Ryerson died. They will not, however, give out his name at this time.

Both J. L. Suydam, County Physician, and William F. Harding, Coroner, are confident that the charges made in the affidavit by Mr. Ryerson that his son had died from poisoning would be disproved by the report of the analysis of the viscera of the dead man that is being made at the E. R. Squibb laboratories in this city.

NO CHIMNEY TO TAKE SMOKE

Yesterday afternoon about 4:40 o'clock considerable excitement was experienced at the home of Mr. J. Bick, 168 1-2 Charlotte street, when the house became very smoky. The cause was from the smoke from the heater pipes passing through a thimble in the ceiling and not passing into the chimney. Mr. Bick recently moved into the house and naturally considered that the thimble lead into a chimney. There was no damage but considerable annoyance experienced.

ANOTHER BRIDGE ACROSS NIAGARA

REVIVAL OF PLAN TO SOLVE TRAFFIC PROBLEM OF BOTH COUNTRIES

Bridgeburg, Ont., Nov. 23.—With Councilman Bagley the prime moving factor, big efforts are being made across the river to revive the project of an additional bridge over the Niagara river at either Bridgeburg or Fort Erie, to be constructed by the governments of both countries as a peace memorial bridge. The proposition had been held in abeyance on this side of the line since early this spring, owing to the failure of the American wing of the joint international committee to continue its efforts.

Now the work will again revive. The Canadian committee of twelve on this side of the river is preparing its campaign. The Buffalonians, however, are not content with endeavoring to get the New York State legislature to act in connection with the peace bridge scheme, but a delegation is going to Washington to endeavor to interest the federal authorities there in the measure.

The idea proposed now is to get the governments of both countries to make the necessary appropriations on a basis of fifty-fifty, in order to bring about the realization of the traffic question along the Niggara.

IMPROVEMENT IN EXCHANGE RATES

ENGLISH POUND SHOWS AN INCREASE OF TWO THREE-QUARTER CENTS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov. 24.—Foreign exchange rates were considerably improved in early trading in the market her today. The demand for sterling, which had dropped to $3.99¼ for the English pound last week, was quoted today at $4.05¾, an increase of 2¾ cents over Saturday's final quotations.

HOT ASHES CAUSE FIRE

At 5:28 yesterday morning the fire brigade were called out to attend to a fire at the home of Mr. Fred Goselin, 352 Simcoe street. The cause of the fire was hot ashes being placed in a box on the verandah, burning a hole in the box and floor. The damage was not extensive.

LARGE MEETING OF MILK PRODUCERS ADDRESSED BY MR. E. H. STONEHOUSE

Induces Local Men to Join Organization—To Sell Their Milk to Vendors at 8 1-2 Cents per Quart.

A largely attended meeting of the members of the Milk Producers' Association was held on Saturday evenin gin the Board of Trade rooms and was addressed by Mr. E. H. Stonehouse, president of the Toronto Milk Producers' Association, and also president of the Dominion Dairyman's Association. A more moderate or fair-minded address could not have been delivered and even Mr. Gillespie, who was present, stated that he would be quite willing to abide by any price for milk that Mr. Stonehouse would set under present conditions.

Mr. Stonehouse outlined the experience he is having between the Board of Commerce, the Consumers and the Milk Producers. It requires a lot of patience and give and take spirit to arrive at any conclusion. There is, no doubt, but that the milk producers are hit very hard by the excessive cost of feed and the high cost of labor. For instance, the cost of bran and shorts is over fifty dollars a ton, whereas a few years ago it ran about 9 to 12 dollars a ton. The price of concentrated feeds used to be about fifteen dollars a ton, now it is about eighty to a hundred dollars a ton. So it is easy to understand why the cost of milk is double or a little over the price it used to be. Mr. Stonehouse also referred to the question of pasturization, which, he said, was the only sane and safe protection against tuberculosis, typhoid and other diseases. He also advised a general propaganda as to the food value of milk as the public were quite ignorant of the proper food value of milk. While, he said, the price that the milk producers were asking was only a fair price, he would advise them not to hold out for the figure they had decided on, but to assent to the lower price for the present. The reason he gave for this was that it would create an unrest which the whole country was laboring under at present and which it was so desirable to have calmed down. If they gave away now conditions would change soon and that then they would be on a much better position to demand a better price for their product.

There is no man in Canada who has come more in contact between governments, producers, consumers, distributers, cheese-makers, etc., than Mr. Stonehouse and he has been successful in all cases in effecting a conciliation.

The Peterborough Milk Producers' Association unanimously decided to join the parent association, "The Ontario Milk Producers' Association."

At an executive committee meeting held afterwards, at which Mr. Gillespie and Mr. Stonehouse were present, it was decided to accept Mr. Gillespie's offer of 8½ cents per quart for the months of November and December and 9 cents per quart January, February, March and April.

MAN AND WIFE SHOT BY FRIEND

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY NEAR REGINA—THREE DEAD AND ANOTHER MAY DIE.

Regina, Sask., Nov. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanson were shot dead in their home between Lemberg and Abernethy, about 3:30 a.m. Sunday, by J. R. Sullivan, grain buyer, according to reports which have reached the provincial police. Their eldest boy lies between life and death with a bullet wound in his neck, and Sullivan is dead by his own act.

Details of the crime are to the effect that the Hansons visited Lemberg Saturday evening and invited Sullivan, a friend of the family, to spend Sunday with them. Arriving at their home, Sullivan went to the barn to help his host with the chores and returned to the house, saying that Hanson had been killed by a horse Mrs. Hanson went to the barn with her son, Alfred, aged 18, and, entering, was at once shot dead by Sullivan. The boy took refuge in a manger, but was draged out by Sullivan, who ordered him to get off the place. Neighbors later found Sullivan lying dead on the floor with a bullet wound in his temple.

Voting is to be made compulsory in the Hungarian elections on December 20 when the National Assembly is to be chosen.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE
THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power.

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS
Phm. B. Toronto University.
HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES
Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

GRAND
3 DAYS ONLY COMMENCING
TO-DAY
TWO OF THE GREATEST SUCCESSES OF THE DAY

THE SUBLIME CREATION OF THE MASTER ARTIST OF THE SCREEN
D. W. GRIFFITH'S
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
THE ART SENSATION THAT HAS REVEALED THE FULL SPLENDOR OF THE MOTION PICTURE.

ALEBRT VIERRA'S
ROYAL HAWAIIN SINGERS AND PLAYERS
Presenting
"A NIGHT IN HAWAII"
WEIRD AND ENCHANTING NATIVE SONGS TO THE ACCOMPANIMENT OF THE STRUMMING UKULELE AND THE HAUNTING STEEL GUITAR.

Presentation On An Elaborate Scale With The Original Musical Score
AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA
SEATS ON SALE NOW
EVENINGS 25c--35c--50c
MATINEE All Seats 25c

THEATRICAL

YOUNG GIRL'S FIRST ROMANCE IS SHATTERED BY SHAME OF PARENTAGE

The tragedy of a young girl's first love dreams shattered by the revelation of her own parentage is pictured with fine dramatic intensity in Vitagraph's "The Painted World," starring Anita Stewart, and which will be shown in the Empire Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Yvette's mother is "The Masked Lady of the Moulin Rouge," the father a person unspeakable. The mother has sworn that her child never shall enter the gates of the painted world where she makes her living, and her identity she tries to hide behind the reputation of a wealthy widow who travels extensively.

Yvette is brought up far from the city, but on one of the visits home she meets her father, who brutally tells her the truth and tells her that when he is ready she, too, will enter the painted world.

The girl's shame and terror at this revelation is overshadowed by knowledge that one of the requirements of the man she loves—the only one she cannot meet—is that "the parents of the girl he marries must be beyond reproach."

How Yvette meets this problem, and how her mother makes a final supreme and vain effort to keep the distracted girl from following where she had gone are told in the final scenes of the picture—in scenes that test the remarkable dramatic talents of the star and supporting players.

The story was written by Jacques Futrelle, master creator of dramatic fiction, just before he perished in the Titanic disaster. Ralph Ince directed the picture, and in the supporting cast are E. K. Lincoln, Julia Swayne Gordon, Charles Kent and Harry Northrup.

"THE LUCK OF THE NAVY"

AT THE GRAND THEATRE, SATURDAY MATINEE AND EVENING, DEC. 5.

"The Luck of the Navy," one of the biggest of recent London dramatic successes, and the first English production to be imported since the outbreak of the war five years ago, comes to the Grand, Saturday matinee and evening, December 5. "The Luck of the Navy," is a drama of the British Navy, but while dramatic, it is acted in flawless style of the leading London West End theatres. The cast is headed by Percy Hutchison one of England's most popular actor managers, and the nephew of the late Sir Charles Wyndham. The entire company is under the management of F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, who will present "The Luck of the Navy." The cast is the original London Queen's Theatre Company, of which Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey is leading woman.

It doesn't require much practice to acquire the art of being lazy.

ALLEN THEATRE
Monday – Tuesday – Wednesday
FAST HORSES
FAST SOCIETY
AND A THOROUGHBRED HERO.
THAT'S
TOM MOORE
In The Famous Play of Sporting Life
"LORD AND LADY ALGY"
EXTRA ATTRACTION
MONTGOMERY FLAGG'S Satirical Comedy in Two Acts
"THE LAST BOTTLE"

"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN" SATURDAY

It has been a long time since Barney Gilmore has visited this section of the country but he's coming to the Grand on Saturday matinee and evening in his tenth annual tour of "The Rocky Road to Dublin," the best Irish play that has ever been written. Miss Hellen Evily is the leading lady this year and is surrounded by a supporting company of Irish players that includes Danny Barrett of the famous Barrett Brothers, Ada Lytton Barbour, Florence Horsfall, Anita Bondio, Edwin O'Sullivan, George P. Murphy, Charles Edwards, James Wilson and many others.

REAL OLD ENGLISH PANTOMIME COMING

"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD" MOST ELABORATE PRODUCTION YET STAGED

"Little Red Riding Hood," F. Stuart-Whyte's fourth annual pantomine, which comes to the Grand for two days commencing Monday December 1st., with a matinee on Tuesday, is the largest and most elaborate production yet staged by the management, whose efforts in the past have been taken from the old time adage, "a manager is known by the company he keeps."

In spite of the H. C. of P. (High Cost of Production) the show has been staged regardless of cost, and each of the fourteen scenes is a riot of color and harmony, intermingled with glorious girlhood, in costume creations that excel even the vampire modes of last season's "Cinderella." For fifteen weeks the scenic artists were busy reproducing with brush, the imaginary enchanted Forests and Fairy Palaces. The costumers were deftly materializing materials for the shapely figures of Red Riding Hood and her host of friends.

Electricians have also dipped in the magic and devised a wonderful snow storm, that is to change at a moment's notice, the Enchanted Forest, wherein Miss Hood meets the wicked Wolf, from russet tinted autumn to the depth of winter, at the bidding of the evil spirits. (For definition of "spirits" see the O.T.A.)

The book, lyrics and music have been written with a view of pleasing all children between the ages of six and sixty, who wish to get a transfer from Canada to the wonderful realm of Fairyland, where love laughs at locksmiths, and "they all live happily ever after."

The company is headed by Miss Zara Clinton, the star of "Aladdin" "Robinson Crusoe," and "Cinderella" who plays Little Boy Blue. Miss Dorothy Mackie, a little eleven-year-old Scotch lassie, will be the Red Riding Hood, while the principal comedy role that of Old Mother Hubbard, will be taken by Mr. Johnny Osborne, late leading comedian of "Zig, Zag" at the Hippodrome in London, and more recently the foremost funmaker of the Follies Bergere, Paris, where he was seen by thousands of Canadian soldiers.

A RHYMED REVIEW WITH TOM MOORE IN LORD AND LADY ALGY

Lord Algy had a pretty passion—
On races he would always bet.
His lady connoisseur of fashion,
Against his Lordship's whim was set.

On Dewdrop he had placed a fortune.
He felt that victory was sure.
Her ladyship could not importune
His Lordship to affect a cure.

So she resolved to teach a lesson
To Algy for his foolish course.
To keep her handsome husband guessin'
She wagered on another horse.

She doped Lord Algy's stocky jockey,
Despite the seeming heavy cost;
And Algy soon was not so cocky
When Dewdrop dropped his pile and lost.

Go see this picture—it's a winner,
It's full of love and thrills and mirth.
It stars Tom Moore—he's no beginner.
You'll surely get your money's worth.

Honor Is John Wesley's.

The term "Methodist" was first applied to Charles Wesley, and not to John Wesley, the real founder of Methodism. And it was applied as a term of ridicule, or as an epithet. Charles Wesley was a student at Oxford, where, as he says, he began "to observe the method of study prescribed by the university." He must have been a stickler for "method," for he was always using the word. "This gained me the nickname of Methodist," he says in one of his letters.

First Safety Bicycles.

The first of the safety bicycles was put on the market in 1880. In this the high front wheel was reduced and the rear wheel was about two-thirds the height of the front one. The machines with wheels of the same size appeared in 1885. Bicycling began to be popular about 1891, and the "craze" reached its height about 1895, when wheels had become low enough in price to be within the means of the multitude.

Wise Relaxation.

The wise know that a judicious amount of wasting is, in the end, not wasting at all; for those who have learned to relax and to forget at the right moment, to lay aside care and thought and time completely, when they do labor do it with a fresh and mighty power that the weary slaves of time service never know. To lose time profitably is an exquisite art.

Water and the Human Body.

The specific gravity of water and the human body is virtually the same. A body in the water is supported by equal pressure at all points. It is more likely to be at ease than under other circumstances. It is, therefore, more likely that it may move without pain. So cripples are often given their exercise in the water.

No Race Suicide There.

Jean, who had always lived in the city, was going to the country for the summer. As she sat gazing out of the car window a flock of blackbirds, frightened by the train rose from the ground and flew away. "O, aunty," exclaimed Jean excitedly, "look what a large family those birds have."

New York's First Railroad.

The first railroad in New York state and one of the first passenger railroads in the United States was constructed of wooden rails from Albany to Schenectady, a distance of 17 miles, in 1831. Ten years later the Erie railroad was opened from Piermont to Goshen.

Most Valuable Plant.

No plant renders man greater service than does the wheat, because it supplies to the greater part—and the better part, too—of the western world its staff of life. From wheat the leading nations of the earth obtain their bread.

GREAT IN HISTORY

And Wondrously Beautiful Is the City of Lisbon.

Portuguese Capital Has Had Many Names Through the Centuries—Was Last Stronghold of the Moor in That Country.

The way of a name, especially a well-known name, is interesting to very many people outside the ranks of the confirmed etymologist. The strange way in which, through the centuries, a name gradually changes and changes until it has really changed out of all casual recognition, yet never quite parts from its original, has a fascination all its own. Lisbon is a very first-class example. No one, off hand, would think of connecting the name with Ulysses, and yet your etymologist dives into the subject and connects it without apparent difficulty. Every one, of course, knows the legend that Lisbon owes its origin to Ulysses. It makes no difference that the mythical city founded by the great wanderer is declared by Strabo to have been rather in the mountains of Turdetania, in the extreme south of Spain. Such contentions never make any difference to a well-established tradition. And so the oldest name by which the city ever was known, that is to say Olisipo, came to be written Ulyssippo. This on Phoenician lips, says the authority, appeared as Alissubbo, or the friendly bay. Then came the Romans, changing the name, but sealing their appreciation of the happy situation of the beautiful city on the heights above Tagus by calling it Felicitas Julia. After the Romans came the Moors with their Al Aschbuna, still carrying out the same idea, and after the Moors, the Portuguese, with the Alissubbo of the Phoenician carried a step further and appearing as Lissaboa. From that to the Lisboa or Lisbon of today is but a step.

And what a history there is in it! It carries one safely through the centuries, touching lightly on the story of Phoenician, Roman and Moor as each, in turn, held sway along the shores of Friendly bay. Lisbon, indeed, was the last stronghold of the Moor in Portugal, and the story of how King Alfonso I laid siege to it through many months, in 1147, and, at last, with the aid of English and Flemish [illegible] captured it, is one of the great romances of history. Other landmarks and epochs in the history of Lisbon are the burning of the city by the Castilian army of Henry II. in 1373; its period of splendor and greatness in the sixteenth century, when the Portuguese empire was spreading itself into India and Africa; its long years of humiliation from 1580 to 1640, when Lisbon was a provincial town under Spanish rule; its release from the Spanish bondage; the great earthquake of 1755; and the grand rebuilding of the city under the famous Caravalho.

Caravalho had a gracious task. Lisbon has always been famous for the beauty of its situation, and few who write about Portugal today fail to attempt, once again, to convey the beauties of its blue waters, its white, red-roofed houses, the wonderful verdure of its gardens, and over all the "peerless blue of a southern sky." "The eyes rest," says one writer, "upon a succession of amphitheaters built up with tier upon tier of houses, great and small, which the sorcery of Lusitanian sunlight transfigures into the semblance of a city of palaces and many mansions built up of marbles of delicate and varied hues." The westernmost of European capitals spreads itself in leisurely fashion over its 11 hills, extending for more than five miles along the shores of the famous Rada de Lisboa, and for more than three miles inland. Beyond the narrow channel leading out of the Rada through which flow the waters of the Tagus lies the open sea, and some 800 miles away, over the horizon to the west are the Azores.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Stories They Tell

They say on Broadway that one of the best-known workmen took a contract to write a book for a new comic opera and received an advance fee of $1,000. When the time came to deliver the work he had not written a line. He did not want to admit this and he did not want to give back the $1,000. So he went to a bookstore, bought the book of an old opera, had it typewritten and read it to his patron.

"That," said his patron, "is the worst I ever heard, Harry. I can't take that mess of junk. It wouldn't last two days on Broadway."

"Let me try again," he begged.

So he turned in the book of a big success when the appointed date came around. The first book was that of "Patience," by Gilbert and Sullivan.

Make Study of Eugenics.

The eugenics record office at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., is engaged in building up an analytical index of the inborn traits of American families, especially with a view to studying the inheritance of such traits, tracing their recombination in given pedigrees, etc. Down to the beginning of last year the office had on file 534,625 cards indexing individuals who are described in the archives of the establishment, on the basis of surname, natural trait and geographical locality. An elaborate classification of traits has been worked out.

Owing to the high cost of keep, some of the Renfrew farmers think it is cheaper to shoot their horses now and buy new ones in the spring.

"MOUNTAIN OF GOLD" A MYTH.

It Would Lessen the Value of Gold Standard.

The nearest approach, literally, to a "mountain of gold" is Mount Morgan, in Australia. And they are mining to-day there as they have for thirty years. The net proceeds have been $28,000,000. This so-called "mountain of gold" has yielded, on an average, half an ounce or less of gold to the ton.

This has led many persons to ask seriously, "What would happen if a mountain of pure gold were found?" For ages men have dreamed and writers have written yards about "mountains of gold," but just what would happen if one were found is still a question with as many sides as a quartz nugget of the precious yellow stuff.

That it would lessen the value of the gold standard goes without saying, and yet some other rare metal or substance would undoubtedly be found readily enough to take its place in coinage if this should happen. Concerning this interesting question, mining experts have talked most interestingly. Those of us, they say, who are familiar with gold mining, and more especially, the big bonanzas of the world, need not strain our imaginations to conceive of an ore body or even a mass of gold big enough to upset international monetary standards. Many a prospector frying his bacon at a camp fire and stimulated by a reconcentrated cup of coffee must have seen visions of a golden mountain or a streak of pure gold that ran across creation as if it would never stop. Every now and then we hear of fabulous mineral discoveries, like that of Bitter Creek, in June, 1910, and when the irresponsible scribe of the Daily Scream has exhausted his vocabulary he usually ends by talking about a "mountain of gold."

When the stampede to the Australian diggings was at its height in 1852, the ignorant emigrants, having heard that gold was found in quartz and not knowing that pervasive mineral, supposed it was "quarts," and hence expected to gather the gold in pints and pails. This fact is vouched for by F. J. Dunn, the Australian geologist, who as a boy went to the diggings at that time.

And why not? We may laugh at simpleton from the farm, and we may sneer (and we do) at the perfervid scribbler of the untechnical paper, but it is doubtful whether even that peripatetic philosopher known as the man in the street could give adequate reasons for the improbability of such a golden discovery.

For instance, what is the biggest mass of native copper ever found? Of course, it was in the Lake Superior region. It was in 1857, in the Ontonagon district. At a shallow depth there was discovered a mass of copper 46 feet long, with a maximum thickness of 8½ feet. The mean width was 12¼ feet, and the mean thickness four feet. The total weight actually recovered was 420 tons.

No such masses of gold as this, of course, have ever come to light. Yet gold in great quantities has been won in brief periods. California river beds yielded $81,294,700 in 1851 alone, and the shallow diggings of Victoria gave $63,000,000 in 1853. In the Klondyke more recently one miner cleaned up $46,000 in eight hours and took out $750,000 from a claim about 80 x 50 feet.

Much of this gold was in coarse pellets and nodules, and yet the largest nugget ever found was picked up near Dunolly, Victoria, Australia, in 1869, and weighed 190 pounds. Another weighing 184 pounds and including some quartz brought in nearly $42,000. There have been others nearly as big, yet this is very far from masses such as the huge copper nugget above described, and farther still from a "quarry" or "mountain" of gold. The nearest approach to this as yet imaginary possibility seems to be Mount Morgan, in Queensland, Australia, a hill about 500 feet high, the crest of which was a "gossan" containing several ounces of gold per ton.

This has been excavated in successful benches, so that it approximates to the "quarries" of gold mentioned by certain writers. But the workings are now far below the foot of the hill. However, they have yielded a quantity of gold so great as to render Mount Morgan unique in the history of mining. Since its discovery in 1886, according to the latest figures available, this ore deposit has yielded in excess of 3,680,000 ounces of gold worth $73,000,000, besides 33,000 tons of copper. The company owning the mine has distributed more than $37,500,000.

On Ice Floe Five Months.

Scientific data of considerable value were obtained by a party of fifteen men who returned to civilization recently after spending about five months on a drifting ice floe in the Arctic Ocean, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. Special attention was given to the study of currents in Beaufort Sea, that part of the ocean which stretches north of Alaska and Canada as far as Banks Land, and numerous soundings were made in the cold waters. The floe on which the strange voyage was made was seven miles wide and fifteen miles long. Many seals, polar bears, ducks and land birds made their homes on the floating block of ice.

St. Catharines' Population.

The population of St. Catharines, Ont., is nineteen thousand, one hundred and ninety-five, an increase of six over last year. The large number of foreigners who went back to their native land after the war, is given as the reason, for the small increase, the smallest on record. The assessment of the city is sixteen million and forty-three thousand, an increase of a little over half a million. Income tax assesement decreased two hundred and ninety thousand.

Lambton County Citizens' Liberty League will continue in order to combat the move of the W.C.T.U. for prohibition of the use or growth of tobacco.

EMPIRE THEATRE
MONDAY — TUESDAY — WEDNESDAY
ANITA STEWART
—IN—
"The Painted World"
Back of the stage — in that region known to the players as "back stage" — the painted smile of the clown hides many a line of worry. The dazzling jacket of the Burlesque Queen hides, perhaps, a broken heart. The mother of Yvette wanted to keep her from entering this "painted world." Did she succeed?
WM. DESMOND
—IN—
"Beyond the Shadows"
A great human story of a man's "man" in the far north—in that great open country where in order for a man to succeed he has to have the makings in him.
COMEDY ::—:: EDUCATIONAL
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.

Effective May 4th, 1919.

GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.39 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.

Daily except Sunday.

Daily except Saturday.

*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE

(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

Life's Little Peeves.

Life is just one thing after another, but chiefly it is getting up to do something you have forgotten after being comfortably settled in your chair for work or reading.

For Social Success.

Whenever you see a man who is successful in society, try to discover what makes him pleasing and, if possible, adopt his system.—Beaconsfield.

The Meanest Man.

The meanest man in the world put fishhooks in his change pocket when be took off his trousers at night.

Q. E. D.

It wouldn't be difficult to convince the average man that greenbacks are printed on flypaper.

Daily Thought.

He hears but half who hears one party only.—Aeschylus.

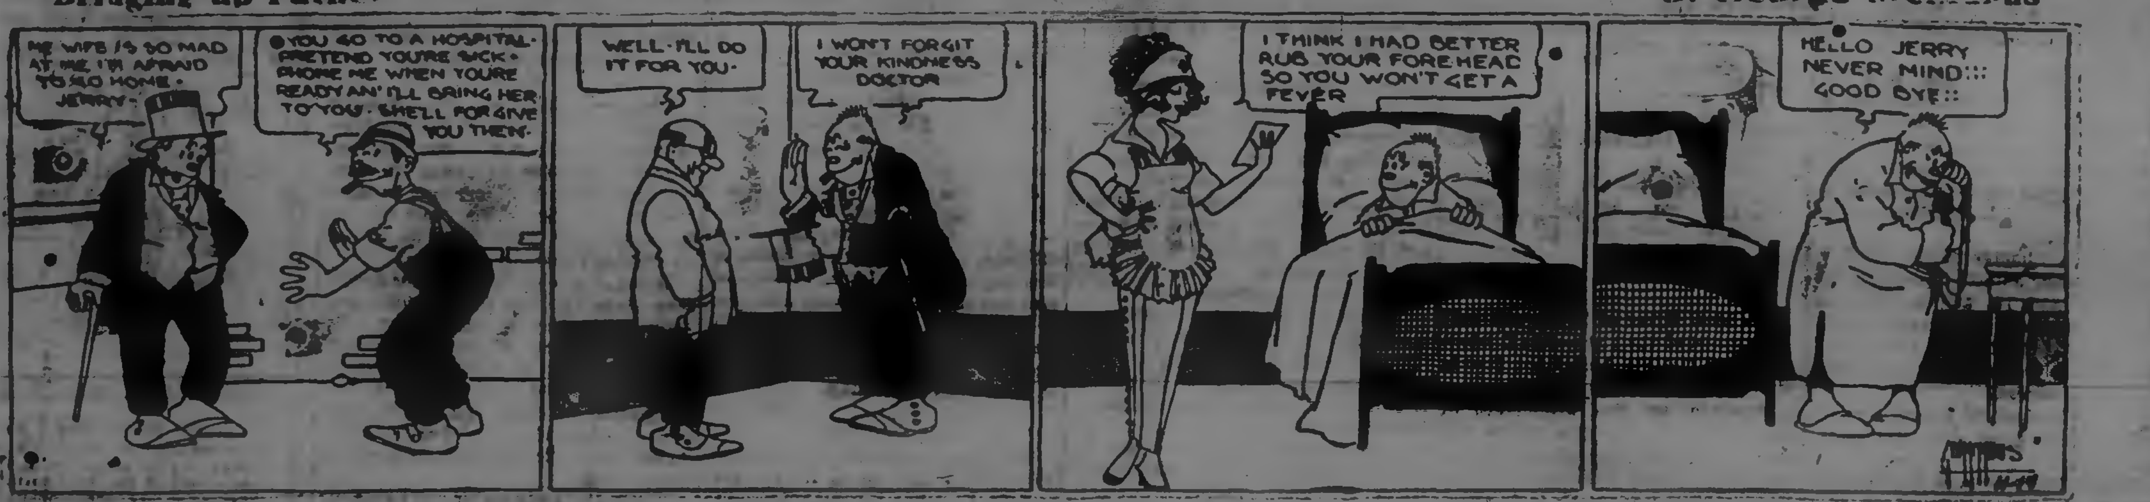
COAL
—AND—
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawanna Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
163 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-362

Canada Food Board License No. [illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 930

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE, NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111



Bringing up Father

By George McManus

ME WIFE IS SO MAD AT ME I'M AFRAID TO GO HOME - JERRY -
YOU GO TO A HOSPITAL - PRETEND YOU'RE SICK - PHONE ME WHEN YOU'RE READY AN' I'LL BRING HER TO YOU - SHE'LL FORGIVE YOU THEN -
WELL - I'LL DO IT FOR YOU -
I WON'T FORGIT YOUR KINDNESS DOCTOR
I THINK I HAD BETTER RUB YOUR FOREHEAD SO YOU WON'T GET A FEVER
HELLO JERRY NEVER MIND::: GOOD BYE::

HOW HIS MANAGER HANDLED DAUBERT

MORAN MADE A PITCHER OUT OF HIM IN SPITE OF DIFFICULTIES

When Jake Daubert went from Brooklyn to Cincinnati the opinion generally was that he would not be of much use to the Reds. He had been having trouble with bad legs and showed signs of steady decline. And in the early stages of the season Daubert did not look very good with the Reds. He began to pick up and in the closing stages of the pennant fight looked like a different Daubert entirely. Pat Moran has been quoted for an explanation of this revival on the part of his veteran first baseman.

"Jake came to Cincinnati this year from Brooklyn so anxious to deliver the goods that he overreached himself," said Moran. "His very determination to do his very best made him do his very worst. It caused him to be nervous at bat and the result was that he failed to hit at all. That continued so long that it preyed upon his mind and affected his fielding.

"I had a heart-to-heart talk with Jake one day and told him he was attempting too much. I advised him to take things more easily, to realize that he was a born batter and was bound to strike his stride, and to be content with batting in a perfectly normal way. I pointed out that his fielding was falling off for no other reason than that he was foolishly worrying about his hitting.

"Jake saw the value of these observations and stopped the worrying. He began his come-back and kept it up. With the return to form in hitting went a brace in his work at first base. Jake became the same star he always was and was driving in his full share of runs every week."

RUGBY SATURDAY

Ontario Union.
—Interscholastic—
St. Michaels	6	Hamilton C.I.	4
—Junior Semi-Final—
Wes. Bellwoods	4	Strathconas	2
Excelsiors	27	Capitals	13
Intercollegiate.
—Intermediate Final—
Varsity II.	19	McGill II.	11
Playgrounds League.
Junior Final—
Elizabeth	7	Frankland	3
American Game.
Harvard	10	Yale	3
U. of Detroit	25	U. of Buffalo	0
Penn. Freshmen	7	Cornell	2
Brown	6	New Hamp. St.	0
Lafayette	10	Lehigh	6
N.Y.U.	27	Columbia	13

SATURDAY'S SOCCER

United League.
—Dunlop Shield, Semi-finals—
Davenports	2	Overland	1
Ulster	1	Scottish	0
Junior League Final.
Rangers	2	Parkdale A.	0
—Juvenile—
Todmorden	4	E. End Y.	2
Exhibition.
Dom. Transport	1	Sunlight Soap	1

VARSITY SECONDS WON FROM McGILL

CAPTURE RETURN GAME WITH SCORE OF NINETEEN TO ELEVEN

Varsity Stadium, Toronto, Nov. 22.—McGill and Varsity II met here this afternoon in a game to decide where the intermediate intercollegiate title will reside. Varsity have a lead of five points from last Saturday's game at Montreal, which resulted in a 19-14 victory for the blue and white. McGill have added strength to their back field by using Wilson at Centre half. He was held out of last week's game. The field is in good shape, and with the sun putting in an appearance just at game time made conditions ideal. The teams:

Varsity II — Flying wing, Brown; halves, Carroll, J. Taylor, Patterson; quarter, Murray; scrimmage, Douglas Gunn, Houston; inside—Lazier, Earle middle, Hamilton, M. Taylor; outside, Rolph, Fisher.

McGill — Flying wing, Campbell; halves, Chisholm, Wilson, Kearns; quarter, E. Parsons; scrimmage, Whittall, Timmins, Stetham; inside L. Parsons, Allen; middle, McDonald, Ross; outside, Little, Kern.

Referee, McEvenue. Umpire W. A. Hewitt.

The score—Varsity II, 19; McGill 11.

SCOTTISH LOSE GAME TO ULSTER

LARGE CROWD WITNESSES CONTEST FOR DUNLOP SHIELD SEMI-FINAL

Toronto, Nov. 22— Ulster United and Toronto Scottish met at Broadview Field in the replay for the Dunlop shield on Saturday. There was a large crowd present when the teams lined up as follows:

Ulster—Helliwell, Hunt, Brookes, Harrison, McAdam, Martin, Hunt, Long, Walker, McNeilly, Elliott.

Scottish—Smith, Campbell, Sim, Acourt, Young, Black, Anderson, Bruce, Ferguson, Linton, McCall.

Referee—Sid Banks.

Ferguson set the ball rolling, McAdam sending well down the field. Hunt shot behind. Linton and CcCall, combined nicely, Helliwell clearing finely.

Both teams are playing a nice game placing both goals in jeopardy time and again, Heliwell and Smith saving finely. Scottish goal had a narrow escape from a shot by Long. Acourt heading clear, with Smith out of his goal. Anderson, Bruce and Young playing fine for Scottish, while Helliwell, McAdam and W. Hunt were outstanding for Ulster.

Half-time.— No score.

Second Half

On restarting, Ulster pressed. Sim clearing from Walker. Scottish put the Ulster goal under severe pressure, the Irish defence was impregnable. McNeilly broke away, and tricking Acourt and Campbell, beat Smith with a fast low shot.

Scottish played desperately to equalize, McCall going to centre, but even then they could not score. Campbell was up testing Helliwell, but the game ended with Ulster leading by 1 goal to 0.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM
THROUGH TRAIN WITH SLEEPING CARS AND COACHES is now operated from Toronto and Hamilton To New York and Philadelphia
Via Grand Trunk, Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia & Reading R.R.
Leave Union Station, Toronto........5.45 p.m. Daily
Leave G. T. Station, Hamilton.......7.05 p.m. Daily
Arriving New York at Pennsylvania Terminal, 32nd Street and 7th Avenue, and at Philadelphia at Reading Terminal.
DINING CARS ARE ALSO OPERATED ON THIS TRAIN
For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

OLD COUNTRY GAMES

London, Nov. 23.—Results in English football games Saturday were:

First Division.

Arsenals 3, Notts 1.
Bradford C. 2, Blackburn 1.
Burnley 2, Bradford 6.
Everton 3, Bolton 3.
Manchester C. 3, Derby C. 1.
Middlesborough 0, Chelsea 0.
Oldham A. 0, Manchester U. 3.
Preston N. E. 2, Liverpool 1.
Sheffield U. 1, Aston Villa 2.
Sunderland 2, Newcastle U. 0.
West Brom A. 1, Shefield W. 3.

Second Division.

Barnsley 4, Wolfhampton W. 1.
Birmingham 2, Rotherham C. 2.
Bury 3, Clapton Orient 0.
Coventry City 2, Blackpool 0.
Fulham 1, Westham United 2.
Huddersfield T. 1, Bristol City 0.
Hull City 4, Stockport C. 1.
Leicester F. 0, South Shields 0.
Lincoln City 0, Leeds City 0.
Nottingham 1, Tottenham H. 1.
Stoke 3, Grimsby Town 0.

Southern League.

Bristol R. 2, Plymouth A. 0.
Cardiff City 0, Portsmouth 1.
Sexeter City 2, Northampton 4.
Luton Town 1, Norwich City 1.
Milwall Athletic 0, Watford 2.
Southampton 0, Brentford 1.
Swindon T. 2, Brighton and H.A. 1.
Swansea 0, Crystal Palace 1.

Scottish League.

Airdrieonians 1, Dumbarton 1.
Celtic 0, Patrick Thistle 0.
Clydebank 4, Ayr United 3.
Dundee 3, Albion Rovers 2.
Hibernians 1, Clyde 0.
Kilmarnock 2, Hearts 1.
Morton 4, Hamilton A. 0.
Motherwell 4, Falkirk 0.
Queen's Park 0, Rangers 0.
Raid Rovers 2, Aberdeen 2.
St. Mirren 2, Third Lanark 3.

BOWLING NEWS

THIS WEEK'S BOWLING AT THE WATER ST. ALLEYS

The Business Men's 5-pin League schedules are as follows:

Monday—De Laval vs. Briton Carpet.

Tuesday—Lawn Bowlers vs. Pastimes.

Wednesday—Clerks vs. Post Office.

Thursday—Leftovers vs. Centrals.

Prize for Last Week.

The prize for last week was won by T. Barrette, rolling the nice score of 745 in three games, 254, 223, 268.

H. Ballard was next with 715, rolling a single of 309.

THE MARKETS

(Special to The Review.)

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Receipts heavy, trade slow, prices generally easier.

Heavy beef steers	$13.00	$13.75
Choice butcher's steers	12.00	12.75
Medium butcher cows	6.50	8.50
Choice calves	16.00	18.00
Ewes	7.00	9.25
Lambs	12.50	14.40
Hogs, f.a.w. (selects)	16.50	16.50

PETERBOROUGH MARKETS

Veal, lb.	.28	to $	.28
Beef, lb.	16	to	.18
Chikens, lb.	.25	to	.25
Live hogs, cwt.	17.00	to	17.00
Dressed hogs, cwt.	27.00	to	27.00
Grain.
Flour, retail	6.00	to	6.00
Marquis wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Spring wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Fall wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Peas, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Oats, b.	90	to	1.00
Barley, b.	1.25	to	1.25
Flour, w.s., ½ bl.	5.67½	to	5.67½
Bran, short, ton	55.25	to	55.25
Bran, w.s., ton	45.25	to	45.25
Vegetables.
Beans, b.	4.00	to	4.50
Beets, pk.	.40	to	.40
New carrots, pk.	.35	to	.45
Potatoes, pk.	.40	to	.40
Onions, lb.	.10	to	.10
Fruit.
Apples, eating, pk.	.50	to	.75
Apples, cooking	.30	to	.60
Cabbage, each	.10	to	.15
Bananas, doz.	.50	to	.60
Oranges, doz.	.40	to	.70
Lemons, doz.	.50	to	.60
Pears, basket	1.00	to	1.25

WHEN JIMMY BRITT LAUGHED

Sportsman Who Had Bantered Him on Looking Old Got Considerable of a Jolt.

Jimmy Britt, the immaculately dressed lightweight champion, used to tell a story about Eugene Corri, the English referee.

"One day in the Strand," so the story ran, "Corri came up to me and said:

"'Britt, you've made a lot of money out of boxing, haven't you?'

"'Yes,' said I, 'I have.'

"'Well,' said Corri, 'why don't you quit? You're beginning to show signs of what you are—a pugilist on the down grade. Jimmy, my boy, you're beginning to look old.'

"Well, after that speech Corri took me to lunch at the Savoy. While we were lunching a nice-looking couple at a near-by table kept looking at us continually, and finally we heard the young lady say as she nodded toward Corri:

"'Who is that man?'

"'He's a pugilist,' her escort answered.

"'Gracious!' said the young lady. 'What a brutal face he has!'

"'Yes,' said her escort. 'To judge from his looks he must be about the foulest fighter in the ring.'

"Then a little later we heard the young lady ask:

"'Is he married?'

"'Yes; oh, yes,' said her escort. '[illegible] little fellow with him is his son.'"

To Teach Marksmanship.

Students in educational institutions in all parts of the United States are to have an opportunity to graduate as expert riflemen from a government training school next summer. Those who take the special course will get certificates conferring upon them the authority to teach others.

The director of civilian marksmanship plans, as means of encouraging marksmanship as a sport, to extend a special invitation to representatives of all student bodies to enroll for instruction in connection with the national matches of 1919, a congress of rifle and pistol shots—military, naval and civilian—which will be held under the auspices of the navy department on the rifle range at Caldwell, N. J., a few miles from New York, during August.

Invention of Much Worth.

The special oxyacetylene blowpipe applied by French engineers to cutting steel under water is claimed to have greatly simplified the salvage of torpedoed vessels. A blowpipe is mounted in a small diving bell, from which the water is expelled by compressed air, and the blowpipe pressures of air and acetylene, greater than under ordinary conditions, are regulated according to the depth at which the work is being done. In trials made, ship's plates have been cut under 27 feet of water. Besides the use of the apparatus on sunken vessels, it can be employed in repairing locks, and probably in other underwater work.

Soldiers Feel Wounds They Inflict.

Dr. Arthur Macdonald of Washington, honorary president of the international congress of criminal anthropology, tells in the Medical Record some of the oddities noticed in nervous soldiers. For instance:

One "who bayonets another in the face may develop a hysterical tic in his own face; one bayoneting enemies in the abdomen may have abdominal contractures in himself. Hysterical blindness may follow from seeing horrible sights; hysterical deafness when the cries of the wounded are unbearable."

And he adds that in some of these cases the only relief is a real wound."

Automobile
Skates

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

Not All There.

Delbrook was the proud possessor of a brand-new suit of clothes with a small wooden whistle attached to it. Soon after getting the suit, and while the family was dining away from home, his father asked him why he did not wear his new suit that evening. "I can't, daddy," he answered, "'cause the whistle's broke."

Helpful Charlie.

Little 4-year-old Charlie was missing one day. His mother going in search of him finally found him in the library sprinkling a valuable book that was on the table. "Why, my boy, what are you doing spoiling that nice book of dad's?" "I was just wetting it for him because he said it was too awfully dry," he replied.

Why Stings Hurt.

The pain caused by the sting of nettles is due partly to formic acid and partly to a chemical resembling snake poison. Our nettles are comparatively harmless; but in India, Java and elsewhere, there are varieties the painful effects of which last weeks, and in some cases months, like snake-bites.

"Pieces of Eight."

The piece of eight was the Spanish piastre or peso, now called a dollar, thus known throughout the Spanish main in the days of piracy, because it was divided into eight reals. It was a silver coin worth $1 in the United States.

One Advantage of Education.

We have always believed in the high possibilities of the movies, and more particularly since a charming girl told us she had found you could hold hands just as well at an educational film as any other.—Grand Rapids Press.

Aid to Transplanting.

Transplanting flowering and vegetable plants is now greatly facilitated by the use of paper flower pots which are nothing more or less than the familiar paper drinking cups. For use in the farm and garden these cups are perforated and the seedlings are grown in them in the nursery. When it comes time to put the delicate plants out in the open they are transferred bodily, pots and all, and placed in the ground. The transfer is attended by no shock whatever, which is rarely the case when the roots are disturbed during the operation as when removing them from the little pots of clay which are generally used for this purpose. The perforations enable the rootlets to find their way beyond the limits of the pot, and so the paper does not interfere with their growth.

All Wanted a Change.

I was sitting on the porch one day reading and much interested in my book. Of a sudden I became aware of the fact that the little boy downstairs had been drumming and singing at the top of his voice for some time. I listened. He sang, "Turn to the left, boys, turn to the left," over and over again until I wished he would change it and sing something else. Evidently the little boy two doors away wished the same thing, for he called out, "For goodness sake, Danny, turn to the right."—Exchange.

Transportation of the Future.

Transportation is the fundamental of progress in civilization. All things must pass through it as through the neck of a bottle. If we can transport energy without using cars to carry it, there is just so much gain. Electricity is energy without substance. Its transmission calls for no vehicle other than a copper wire. Hence is it obvious that we must look to electricity for distributing the power on which our economic future as a nation depends.

Tablet to Horace Greeley.

The Vermont Press association placed a memorial tablet on the old building at East Poultney where a ragged fourteen-year-old boy, in 1825, began a painful apprenticeship as a printer, in which he obtained a working knowledge of the most dynamic of all the arts. The ragged boy was Horace Greeley, and the building was the office of the Northern Spectator—a country weekly newspaper.

How the Months Were Named.

January gets its name from Janus; February from Februa—purification—a Sabine word; March from Mars; April from aperio—open; May from Maia, goddess of growth; June from Junius; July from Julius; August from Augustus; September from septem—seven; October from octo—eight; November from novem—nine; December from decem—ten.

Mercy of the Future.

The veil which covers the face of futurity is woven by the hand of mercy.—Bulwer Lytton.

Daily Thought.

Love better is than fame.—Bayard Taylor.

Three English Institutions.

Wherever the sons of Britannia may roam, three great and unmistakably English institutions set them apart from other races and creeds: Ten in the afternoon, handkerchiefs pushed up the sleeves and "dress" for dinner.

Couldn't Find Any.

"I got one good laugh out of the tour, anyhow," said Yorick Hamm "and that was when a tank town sheriff tried to attach our box office receipts."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

American University in France.

At Beaune, 175 miles southeast of Paris, is the seat of the new American Army university, which is, perhaps, the most outstanding of the educational work carried on by the American expeditionary force, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine. Housed in what was formerly an American hospital are 15,000 soldier-students and a force of 800 teachers. The curriculum is notable for its agricultural college with a 600-acre farm.

How He "Hedged."

He—Artists say that five feet four is the divine height for women.

His Darling (crossly)—You know that I am five feet nine.

He (quickly)—You are more than divine.—London Tit-Bits.

Private Christmas Cards

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 [illegible]

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily
Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates
$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds—Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Casings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estate

CP[illegible]OS
SAILINGS—RATES
[illegible]
Fast, Luxurious [illegible] Steamship [illegible]
QUEBEC TO LIVERPOOL
4 p.m. November [illegible]
Special train leaves Windsor St. Station 9.45 a.m. direct to ship.
1st Class 2nd Class 3rd Class
$170 up $100 up [illegible]
War Tax $5.00 [illegible]
Special Suites and Rooms with Baths [illegible]
Apply Local Agents, or 1 King St. East, Toronto.
CANADIAN PACIFIC OCEAN SERVICES

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

80TH BATTALION RE-UNION

In Belleville, on Friday, December 5th, 1919. Banquet at Hotel Quinte at 1.30 p.m., followed by concert in Griffin's Opera House by the original 80th Battalion Band, now the 91st Regiment Band of Hamilton. All ranks are requested to notify Lieut.-Col. W. G. Ketchison, Foxboro, on or before December 1st.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 181; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

BOY SCOUTS' YELL

The following is the Peterborough Boy Scout yell for all troups:

I ti itta hi-
I. I. yip,
Boy Scouts, Boy Scouts
Rip, rip, rip.
Canta, teeta, tar,
Pe-ter-bo-ro
Rah, rah, rah
S-C-O-U-T-S
Scouts.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

SALE

The Ladies' Aid Society of Murray Street Baptist Church will hold a sale of useful and fancy articles, also 100 aprons end home-made cooking, at 209 George street, on Nov. 26, 27, 28.

Afternoon tea will be served. Sale to begin at 1 o'clock Wednesday.

WOMAN FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Woodstock, Nov. 22.—In accordance with the suggtion made by Premier Drury that women should hold prominent positions on the school boards, the members of the "Beavers U.F.W.O." of East Zorra, have nominated Mrs. Willie Marshall as a candidate for any possible vacancy on the Golspie School Board. This societ yis a flourishing one and has done much for the good of its community. In the Tenth Line School, hot lunches for the children have been instituted and are proving quite successful.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 224j.

TRADES & LABOR COUNCIL ATTENTION!

A Special Meeting of the Trades Council is called for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance and of interest to all members will be discussed.

A. J. BOLWELL, Pres.

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church intend holding their sale of fancy work, aprons, dolls and home-made cooking at the home of Mrs. G. Walter Green, northeast corner of London and Water streets, Thursday November 27, afternoon and evening. There will be a tea room, and a fish pond for the children. A good musical program has been arranged. Don't miss this bazaar.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. R. C. Caughan, manager of the Imperial Bank, Smooth Rock Falls, spent the week-end, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Spence, 372 Downie street.

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. M. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and afternoon tea will be served.

Mr. A. Denham of Toronto was a Peterborough guest over the week-end.

Mrs. L. Mead of Port Hope is visiting in the city the guest of Mrs Nesbitt, George street.

Mr. G. Boyle, of the Boyle garage Toronto, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Miss H. Mills of Toronto spent the week-end the guest of friends in the city.

A photo reproduction of Madame Marrow, a Canadian musician, appears in the Toronto Saturday night Madam Marrow was a Miss Delaney and born in Peterborough, where she taught a number of years. Twelve years ago she settled in New York city, where she enjoys an established reputation as a vocal instructor. She is a Fellow of the National College of Music, London, (gold medalist and holder of three diplomas), and her work in New York has been highly commended by prominent singers and artists.

Mr. Guy Whittaker of Toronto spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Miss Phyllis Denne of Toronto is visiting Mrs. C. R. Widdifield, Fleming Place.

DOMINION BANK BRANCH

The Dominion Bank has opened a branch at Bracebridge Ont., and one at Cedar Dale, Ont.

PETERBOROUGH BRANCH 8th. C. M. R

All members of the Peterborough branch, 8th. C.M.R. are requested to attend the meeting to be held this evening in the lecture room of the armouries at 8 p.m.

W. H. FIELD,
Sec.-Treas

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

NO ANSWER SO FAR FROM MEXICO GOVT.

CABINET MET LAST FRIDAY TO CONSIDER NOTE FROM UNITED STATES

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 24.—The United States Government's note demanding the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Ales Puebla, is understood to have been considered by the Mexican Cabinet last Friday, State Department announced today. Governor Cabriera of Puebla was present, but the department's advices did not say what action, if any, was taken.

WILL AIM TO INCREASE ONTARIO LIVE STOCK

NEW MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE, HON. M. DOHERTY, MAKES STATEMENT

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Hon. Manning Doherty, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, announces that the Government will make special efforts to increase the production of Ontario live stock, in view of the serious situation in Western Canada regarding live stock and fodder.

J. G. GUISE-BAGLEY CHARGED WITH THEFT

FOUR CHARGES OF STEALING A TOTAL OF OVER $2,700 MADE THIS MORNING

The number of charges already laid against J. G. Guise-Bagley was doubled this morning by Mr. G. N. Gordon who, on behalf of his clients, laid four charges of theft against the prisoner amounting to over $2,700. This case was not heard but left over until Thursday, when the accused will face the most serious of his former charges. In the meantime a settlement will be attempted to avoid further criminal action.

ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Mr. William Jessop, Y. M. C. A. worker in Egypt and India, Gallipoli, and Palestine, was entertained at luncheon at the Empress Hotel today and gave an exceptionally interesting address of his experiences in connection with his work.

LOCAL BD. OF TRADE WELL REPRESENTED AT MEETING OF ASSOCIATED BOARDS

Optimistic Outlook for Future of Canadian National Railways—The Finding on Resolutions.

The local Board of Trade was well represented at the sixth annual meeting of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in Toronto by the attendance of seven delegates for the whole session. A particularly lively interest was taken in the convention by the various Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce from the whole of the Province, and the various resolutions before the convention were debated from all angles, which demonstrated that all delegates had studied the business to be transacted before coming to the convention.

The first day of the convention disposed of fourteen resolutions and the second disposed of twelve.

The delegates were banjueted on the evening of the first day by the Board of Trade of the city of Toronto, at which the delegates had the privilege of listening to the new Premier, Hon. E. C. Drury, and Mr. D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railway. Mr. Drury's discougse was very enlightening as to the unique method in which his cabinet was formed. He stated that we need have no fear of class legislation and that he hoped that his Government would not be called the U.F.O. Government, but the People's Government, and wished that it would be supported as such. He proved to be a very forcible speaker and he was assured of the whole and hearty support of the associated Boards representing the various municipalities of Ontario, and it was believed that Ontario had now the opportunity of asserting itself in being favored by a business Government.

Mr. Hanna surveyed the evolution of the Canadian National Railways from 1893 to the present date, and spoke very optimistically of the future of the national railways and the proposition to take over the Grand Trunk Railway system.

At noon on the second day of the convention the delegates were guests at a luncheon given by the city authorities, which was appreciated to the full.

The findings on the resolutions before the convention were as follows:

Publication of general report upon minerals and metals of Ontario.—Carried.

Annual apportionment on mail order houses. The executive to appoint a special committee with the object of making special recommendation, particular notice being paid to parcel post rates.

Empire trade-marks and immigration of British citizens.—Carried.

Publicity campaign for the development of Ontario agriculture and industry.—Carried.

Development of the aviation industry for commercial and postal purposes.—Carried.

Taxes on foreign magazines.—Lost.

Appointment of a permanent tariff board by the Government.—Carried.

Universal customs declaration for invoices.—Carried.

Fire prevention.—Carried.

Proposed bonus to steel shipbuilding industry.—Lost.

Good roads.—Carried.

Construction of Ontario highway to be permanent.—Carried.

Uniform rates for hydro-electric power.—Lost.

Educational plan for greater production.—Carried.

Taxation of public utilities.—Carried.

Social and industrial peace in Canada.—Carried.

Municipal taxation.—Referred to a special committee for recommendation.

Canadianization.—Carried.

Daylight saving for June, July and August.—Carried.

Silver coinage of small denominations to be substituted by nickel coinage.—Carried.

Electrification by Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Grand Trunk Railway.—Withdrawn.

Aid for steel plants.—Withdrawn.

Proposed amendments to the Mining Act.—Referred to executive.

Iron ore bounty.—Carried.

The next annual meeting of the Ontario Asociated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce will be held at Belleville.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Orangized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

EDITOR'S MAIL

UNSANITARY MILK

Editor of Review

Sir,—I notice in the city of Brantford and in some of the other towns that the Board of Health have taken up the question of the sanitary condition of their milk supply, and the facts set forth are truly appalling in so far as they affect the death rate among babies.

Just a few items to verify this statement will be sufficient for the present:

For 1915 in Brantford—For every 1,000 children born 106 died.

For 1918 in Brantford—For every 1,000 children born 128 died.

For 1910 in Toronto—For every 1,000 children born 157 died.

For 1917 in Toronto—For every 1,000 children born 81 died.

For 1917 in Chicago—For every 1,000 children born 105 died

For 1917 in Reading, Pa.—For every 1,000 children born 203 died.

In 1917 in San Francisco—For every 1,000 children born 57 died.

In Brantford, up to date; in Toronto, in 1910; in Reading, Pa., no supervision, or very little was put in force and there was only a limited supervision in Chicago. But in Toronto they have now a fairly good oversight and note the difference in the death rate of the little ones.

In San Francisco they have a most perfect system, and no milk is allowed to be sold that is not sterilized. What do our women organizations think of this state of affairs?

Yours, PUBLICO.

NOTICE.

The Onward Young Ladies' Bible Class with their teacher, Mrs. Stubbs, will hold an afternoon tea in the school room of the George Street Church; also a sale of home-made cooking, aprons and other fancy things. Tuesday, November 25. Proceeds for new Sunday school.

NEW PILE BRIDGE IS ALMOST READY

LAST ROW OF PILES FOR SIMCOE ST. STRUCTURE HAVE BEEN DRIVEN

The traffic across Hunter street bridge was closed for a couple of hours this morning while a new siding was laid. The vehicles therefore had to take the Smith Street Nichol's Oval route. The awkwardness of this arrangement will soon be alleviated as the last row of piles for the temporary bridge have been driven and this morning it appeared as though the Simcoe street bridge would be ready for use at the latest tomorrow. Then all will be clear sailing for both vehicles and builders without interferring with each other at the new high level structure.

The main building of Laval University, Montreal, was destroyed by fire, the loss being placed at $400,000, covered by insurance.

HEAR FRANK OLDFIELD
Canada's Best Baritone
AND Mrs. GEORGE H. KING
Peterboro's Favorite Soprano
TRINITY S. S. HALL
TO-NIGHT at 8 p.m. :-: TICKETS 25c

OBITUARY

MRS. DERRICK

The death occurred at eleven o'clock Saturday night of Mrs. M. E. Derrick, 479 King street. Deceased was 56 years of age.

She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, two daughters, Ella and Hazel, one son Raymond, three brothers, Robert and John Irwin, of this city and Fred Irwin, of Toronto, also one sister, Mrs. James Lillico of Peterborough. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock to Little Lake cemetery, Rev F. E. Mallott officiating.

JOHN KENNEDY

The death occurred on November 29th, at his late home, lot 13, Concession 4, Douro, of John Kennedy in his 84th year.

Deceased had been in good health apparently up till two weeks ago whe he was taken ill and gradually weakened until the end. Mr. Kennedy was born in Douro Township, and lived there all his life, being well and favorably known to the citizens of that vicinity. He is survived by two daughters and four sons, his wife having pre-deceased him two years ago. The daughters are Mrs. John Leahy, city and Mrs. John Leahy Sault Ste. Marie and the sons Timothy on the homestead in Douro, Michael and Daniel city, and John of Edmonton. The funeral will leave the family residence tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, and thence proceed to St. Joseph's Church, Douro, and Douro cemetery for interment.

BERNARDINE HOWLEY

Miss Bernardine Howley, of Douro, 19 years of age, passed away yesterday at her home.

She leaves to mourn her loss a mother, two sisters, Mrs. Austin Allen of Douro, and Jennie, at home; and three brothers, Gerald and Ambrean, at home, and John of Havelock. The funeral will take place from the home of Mr. John Heffernan, lot 3, concession 2, Douro, tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, to Norwood church and cemetery.

Miss Howley was formerly employed at the Quaker Oats Company in this city.

MRS. ANNIE WHITEMAN

The death occurred yesterday at her residence, 704 Concession street of Mrs. Annie Whiteman, widow of the late Joseph Whiteman. Deceased was 70 years of age.

The funeral will take place from her former residence, Concession street, Tuesday morning, at eleven o'clock, to Little Lake cemetery. Rev. Mr. Ross of the Mark Street Church will officiate.

MAKE SURE YOU GET THE RIGHT KIND

We cannot impress too strongly upon the Canadian people that there is no Tablet just like Dr. Norvall's; there is no Tablet just as good as Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. There may be tablets that look like Norvall's; they may even taste like Norvall's, but do not be deceived—they will not have the same gentle laxative and tonic effect as Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. In a word, to relieve Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Sick Headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. For sale by all dealers.

MR JOS. STEWART WAS NOT THERE

DECLARES STORY AS TOLD BY WHISKEY MAKER IS NOT CORRECT

Under the heading of "Peculiar Escape of Moonshiner" in Saturday's issue, a story was told of a lawbreaker having a very narrow escape from falling into the clutches of the law. The officer referred to, Inspector Stewart, declares that he has never entered the building in question, and the teller of the story must certainly have made a mistake in the identity of the man who got out of the automobile, as Mr. Stewart has no car and is not in the habit of using one.

This version of the story, which has every possibility of being true, makes the incident even more humorous, because, according to one of them, the whiskey workers did everything in their power to extinguish the fire and prevent the escape of the former, and one even ran out of the back door into the lane in the rear, and, as he thought, made a clever escape from the law.

The teller of the story stated that he stood in fear and trembling of his visitor, who, it appears, now had no interest whatever in discovering the unlawful nature of the business in hand.

PICKS NEW WIFE; GIVEN A YEAR

Spigel, Wealthy Insurance Man, Sent to Home of Correction

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Max Spiegel has made his choice, Judge Sheridan E. Fry in the Court of Domestic Relations told him to decide whether he would take Regina, whom he married in Hungary thirty years ago, or Rose, the girl with whom he eloped to Chicago sixteen years ago.

Spiegel, a wealthy insurance agent, who lives at 4115 Drexel boulevard, told Judge Fry he would keep wife number 2. Regina Hartman Spiegel whom he left in New York sixteen years ago, told Judge Fry she was compelled to scrub and sew to support the two children when her husband ran away with the pretty nurse, Rose Roth.

A year's sentence to the house of correction and a $50 fine was given Spiegel yesterday by Judge Fry for the nonsupport of wife number 1. Since he left her Spiegel has become prosperous here and is reputed worth $10,000. A daughter by his first marriage, Ethel Spiegel, discovered he was living in Chicago and had him brought before Judge Fry.

Y. M. C. A. MINSTRELS

Due to the creative genius of Mr. F. D. Lee, the Y.M.C.A. Minstrels have developed a novel method of advertising. In several stores on the main streets are big framed cards containing eight pictures of those imposing personages who will provide fun and amusement for all those in attendance at this wonderful spectacle. The spirit of fun and jollity concentrated in these dark-skinned joy-makers is so infectious that their pictures afford the greatest amusement to passers-by. Next Thursday the public will enjoy hearing this witty and humorons bunch at a place where the cops won't tell them to quit warming the streets and where laughter will flow freely and copiously.

The advance sale has exceeded expectations and broken all records. The box office opened to the subscribers this morning and will be open to the public tomorrow at 10 a m.

Mr Asa Huycke, reports that the show is fully a hundred per cent. better than last year, and such being the case, a crowded house may be expected. In future Peterborough will look forward to the annual appearance of these minstrels.

A chorus of nearly one hundred male and female voices comprises the cast. Eight of the cleverest, wittiest darkies from the cotton fields of Peterborough have volunteered to give the audience eight dollars worth of fun and amusement for every one dollar spent in admission.

Look for the reader in tomorrow's paper. The best is yet to come.

C. P. R. EMPLOYS RETURNED MEN

TOTAL NUMBER OF SOLDIERS GIVEN EMPLOYMENT TO DATE IS 13,033

Revised figures up to October 31st, regarding C. P. R. employees who enlisted, and army men who have been given employment on their return from overseas have just been issued.

The figures revised to the end of October are as follows:

Total reported as joining the army	10,774
Dead	1,031
Wounded	2,025
Re-employed in the service	6,060
Other soldiers given employment	6,973
Total soldiers given employment to date	13,033

BORN

NORTHCOTTE.—On Sunday, November 23, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Northcotte, 344 Mark street, a son, George Morris.

MARRIED

WILSON — HARPER — At Sherbourne Street Methodist Church, Toronto, by Rev. G. L. Williams, Ethel Violet Harper, of Peterborouhg, to Clarence Rupert Wilson, of Toronto formerly of Peterborough.

Sunlight does it

You who always dread wash day—because of the hours of weary, wash-board rubbing, the damp steamy air, with perhaps your skirt and shoes splashed and soaked—just forget all that. Come into the ease and comfort of a Sunlight Wash Day.

Sunlight Soap will do the wash—you can go out calling or shopping. Read the directions.

Insist on getting the Soap you ask for—SUNLIGHT.

SUNLIGHT SOAP
39

Lever Brothers Limited. Toronto.

French Ivory

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complet set.

Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.
351 George Street

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING
ROLAND BESTARD
has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

Only one of the eight Riverside Club boxers competing at Pittsburg on Saturday was returned victorious.

DOMINION LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT, SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS.
INSURANCE
Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 — 172 HUNTER STREET

Strong easterly winds with rain and snow. Wednesday northwest gales and a change to much colder with snow flurries.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 122 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

CAPTAIN OF STMR. MYRON PICKED UP, CLINGING TO PILOT HOUSE

The Only Survivor of a Crew of Eighteen---Captain Jordon of the W. C. Franz Rescued Man in Almost Unconscious Condition.

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 25.—Captain Neal of the steamer Myron, which foundered off Whitefish Point on Saturday, was picked up by the steamer W. C. Franz, Captain W. C. Jordan, which arrived yesterday afternoon.

The rescue was made off Parisian Island, twenty miles from the scene of the disaster. The captain had been floating on top of the pilot-house for twenty hours, and was in a very exhausted condition. Captain Jordan saw the almost unconscious man move his hand. He sent out boats and took him aboard, and he is now in bed receiving medical attention. He is not frost-bitten, but is in a bad state. Captain Neal reports that another boat passed close to him, and on asking for help the reply was, "I'll send you a tug."

Captain Neal names the steamer McIntosh as the one which passed him before the Franz arrived. He thought the McIntosh could easily have picked him up.

Search of the waters about the Parisian Islands was undertaken late yesterday by the United States submarine chaser 438 and the tug Iowa in the hope of locating other survivors of the crew of the Myron. No reports reached here from Whitefish of the finding of other bodies or survivors, although several steamers which passed through the wreckage Saturday reported sighting members of the crew clinging to a cabin and other floats.

Coastguards patrolled both sides of the point yesterday and found the shores strewn with the wreckage and lumber cargoes of the Myron and Mistec. Little hope is held out, however, that bodies would wash ashore, unless lashed to wreckage, as the cold lake waters prevent forming of gases, and, it is claimed, bodies seldom rise to the surface. It is traditional that "Lake Superior seldom gives up its dead."

PETERBORO COMPANY TO BE ENROLLED IN FIRST CAN. MACHINE GUN BRIGADE

Lieut.-Col. P. G. C. Campbell, of Kingston, Will Command ---Organization to Begin at Once.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Nov. 25.— Ottawa is to have three batteries of machine gunners, which will comprise the fortieth machine gun company of the first Canadian Machine Gun Brigade in the new organization of a peace time military force.

Peterboro Company

The brigade, it was announced at a meeting last night, at which difenite arrangements were made, will consist of companies from Ottawa, Kingston and Peterboro, and will be under command of Lieut. Co., P. G. C. Campbell of Kingston.

Lieut. Co. W. K. Walker, D.S.O., M.C., Director of machine guns, was present at last night's meetinng, and organization will begin at once.

MR. WM. JESSOP, Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY IN INDIA, TELLS INTERESTING STORY

Excellent Work Being Done by Missionary Department of Y. M. C. A. in Heathen Countries.

Not the least important chapter of the history of the war will be devoted to the work of the Y.M.C.A., declared Mr. William Jessop to a meeting of senior members of the local branch of that great institution last night.

For a great many years Mr. Jessop was a Y.M.C.A. secretary in India and during the war served in Egypt, at Gallipoli and in Palestine, with the red triangle.

"Why is the Y.M.C.A. in the missionary work?" asked the speaker, and then went on to answer his own question. About 30 years ago the missionaries began to realize that they were not reaching a very influential class in India and China particularly. This was the student classes. So, the misionary societies asked the Y.M.C.A. to take over this work and a secretary was sent out from the continental "cleaning house," at New York, representing the missionary headquarters, for the United States and Canadian Y.M.C.A.. The work of this pioneer of the work was so apparent an so much worth while that the work rapidly grew until now there are over 200 Y.M.C.A. secretaries scattered over about 19 or 20 now Christian countries.

The great work of the Y.M.C.A. missionary department is clearly shown by the natives who join the ranks. The national general secretary for India in the Y.M.C.A. work is a native Indian, who came into contact with an American secretary and gave up all his future for the work. His worth was recently illustrated when he was called into consultation by the British Government in connection with certain Indian social affairs.

In China, the same thing, only to a greater degree, occlurred. A young man who was next in order for the governorship of an important and wealthy province, gave up his high political and social standing to become the Y.M.C.A. general secretary for China. There are over 440 natives working in Y.M.C.A. work deriving their funds from their native countries.

Hon. C. T. Wan, head of the Chinese delegation to the Peace Conference went to Japan, once to aid in the work there among young Chinese students. He sacrificed much money and influence by it, but declares he gained more than he lost. "He is a splendid Christian character," declared Mr. Jessop.

The work is well worth the efforts the association is making. He told of how one of the outcasts of the 2,000 casts of Hindooism had been touched by a "Y" secretary and he saw this same man ordained as the first Anglican Bishop of India.

And the need for more extensive work is shown by the fact that students are under the influence of the Y.M.C.A. during their four or five year terms but upon going out into business they lose the Christian influence and after deteriate morally. More "Y" workers are needed to continue tho work already begun to make the present work really effective.

Germans in Palestine

The speaker then went on and told of the great efforts Germany was making before the war to gain influence in Palestine. Germany's chief object in starting the war was to open the Berlin Bagdad route, in the opinion of Mr. Jessop. He thinks Germany deserves to be kept out of an understanding among nations until she repents in sackloth and ashes for stirring up the declaration of the holy war among the Moslems, that would, had it materialized, caused greater massacre and murder than we can realize. Mr. Jessop feels this keenly because he was one of those in the midst of it, who would have lost his life in the great massacre had the holy war gone ahead as Germany hoped it would.

Mr. Jessop does not think the Gal-

(Continued on Page 6)

RECIPROCITY IN WORKERS' RIGHTS

BASIS OF DRAFT CONVENTION BY COMMITTEE BEFORE LABOR CONFERENCE

Washington, Nov. 25. — Reciprocity in workers' rights will form that basis of a draft convention to be laid by the special committee on unemployment before the International Labor Conference.

Nearing Ideal.

"If this draft convention receives the necessary majority," the committee will report, "notable progress towards the ideal uphold by the establishment of a permanent labor organization will certainly have been accomplished."

The committee on unemployment will also have other draft conventions, reservations and resolutions to submit to conference.

Unemployment

These are briefly:

(1) That all information regarding unemployment be communicated to the International labor office at short intervals, not exceeding three months.

(2) For establishment in each country of free public employment agencies.

(3) Providing for interstate reciprocity in unemployment insurance.

The resolutions and recommendations favor:

"Formation of an international commission by the International labor office, to report on the best means of collecting information on unemployment; licensing with a view to the abolition of private employment agencies charging fees.

Work For Unemployed

"Reservation of public work as far as possible for periods of unemployment and for districts particularly affected by unemployment.

"Creation of a special section of the International Labor office to regulate migration of workers from one country to another, and to protect the interests of wageearners residing in a coluntry other than their own."

MATTER OF POLITICS DECLARES GERMANY

HOW GERMAN PAPERS VIEW REJECTION OF PEACE TREATY BY SENATE

Berlin, Nov. 25:—Failure by the U. S. Senate to ratify the treaty between the allied powers and Germany is considered the result of partisan politics by Die Zeitung, which comments upon the situation.

"We must accustom ourselves to the fact that the peace treaty upon which, for us, life and future depends, is treated in America, largely as a political party matter," says the newspaper. "Not because the treaty displeased the Republicans, who were more inimical to Germany than the Democrats, nor because they find the conditions too hard for Germany do they condemn it, but because the Democratic leader signed the treaty, and they wish to discredit him and his party in the coming elections.

"It is plain now that President Wilson had no right to act as the protagonist of the league of nations, nor to make promises to the European peoples for the fulfillment of which he was unable to rely even upon his people."

BANK CLERKS TALK STRIKE

Irish Union Demands Recognition or They Will Walk Out.

Dublin, Nov. 25.— Bank clerks throughout Ireland will strike on December 31 unless the directors of banks consent to recognize their union, an action which they have hitherto refused to take. This was decided upon at a conference of the Irish Bank Clerk's Union here today. Fifty-six delegates at the meeting voted unanimously in favor of the strike which will affect 3,000 out of a total of 3,700 bank clerks in Ireland.

LUCAS NOT TO RESIGN

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov 25,—Hon Isaac Lucas, former Attorney-General of Ontario, attended a meeting of the Ontario Hydro Commission today, and denied rumor that he intended to resign.

MR. T. F. MATTHEWS RESIGNS FROM PETERBOROUGH PUBLIC UTILITIES

Resignation to Take Effect Any Time Between Now and December First---City Loses Valued Service.

Today City Clerk S. R. Armstrong received from Mr. T. F. Matthews his written resignation as a member of the Peterborough Utilities Commission, for acceptance any time up to December 31st of this year.

Mr Matthews is now a resident in Toronto, hence his retirement from a public board on which he has rendered this city exceptional service. Always having a whole-hearted interested in Peterborough's welfare, Mr. Matthews gave to his public duties the fullest measure of energy and business accumen in return for unstinted confidence vested in him for years by an appreciative community. And he has every reason to be proud of his connection with municipal work in Peterborough.

When the city took over the Water Works, and it was decided to form a Board of Water Commissioners, to consist of two members, to be elected by the city and the Mayor, there was quite a field of candidates. Mr. Matthews was elected by the largest vote, Mr. W. H. Hill coming next

During 1902 the City Council decided that the Water Commissioners should be entirely divorced from the City Council, and asked for special legislation, authorizing the election of three members—the one taking the highest vote to hold office for three years, the second highest for two years, and the third for one year. In January, 1903, the commissioners elected were Mr. Matthews, Mr. W. H. Hill and Mr. T. H. G. Deane. The former had the largest vote by quite a wide margin. Since that time Mr. Matthews' election to Peterborough Public Utilities Commission has been by acclamation in every instance.

Under special legislation secured some sixteen years ago the City Council can appoint a commission to serve in Mr. Matthews' place until the end of the year. At the next municipal nominations, however, nominations for the Public Utilities must be invited, and the election of a new commissioner be voted on by the people on January 1, 1920.

PLOT TO OVERTHROW MONARCHY IN GREECE

PLANNED TO ASSASSINATE GREEK PREMIER AND RESTABLISH CONSTANTINE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Athens, Greece, Nov. 25.—A plot to assassinate Premier Venizelos and overthrow the Grecian monarchy has been discovered here and many arrests made.

Re-establish Constantine.

The plotters arrested following the discovery of a conspiracy to assassinate Premier Venizelos, overthrow the present regime, and re-establish King Constantine on the throne, have made full confessions, according to the authorities. They were formerly officers under King Constantine, it is said. They will be tried before a court-martial.

ONT. WISHES PRINCE SAFE JOURNEY HOME

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS WIRES AUREVOIR, AND HOPES FOR CONTINUED PROSPERITY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 25.—In response to the Lieut.-Governor's message wishing in the name of the Ontario people, the Prince of Wales a safe journey home, the Prince has wired as follows:

"I am deeply grateful to the people of Ontario for their kind wishes and hope you will convey to them my thanks. I wish them aurevoir and the fullest measure of prosperity.

Hard coal is being used in the operation of trains on the railways passing through St. Thomas, owing to the soft coal shortage.

REFERENDUM ON ALL SUBJECTS

Premier Drury has notified Mr. Burnham, Federal member for West Peterborough, that the Referendum bill passed by the Dominion Government may be considered to embrace a referendum on all subjects.

The Review learns that a petition will be sent to Premier Drury for inclusion in the liquor referendum cards horse races and tobacco.

GERMANS DELAY IN SIGNING PROTOCOL

INTENTION TO EXPLOIT HESITATION OF U. S. SENATE IS EVIDENT

Paris, Nov. 25.—The departure of Herr von Simson, the German plenipotentiary who was sent to Paris in connection with the protocol to the Peace Treaty, will delay final signature until Dec. 1st, and will also delay the enforcement of the treaty, according to the Presse de Paris.

Exploit U.S. Action.

Paris, Nov. 24.—"What is the significance of the departure of Herr von Simson for Berlin?" asks the evening edition of the Presse de Paris. "The excuses alleged by the German diplomat are by no means conclusive. Why should it be necessary to consult the National Assembly on the terms of the protocol, which have been known since the beginning of the month?

"It must, therefore, be a manoeuvre of Germany, wishing to exploit the U. S. Senate's hesitation; but such a move is condemned to failure in advance, and the Supreme Council is about to meet it. Furthermore, it must be repeated that the Berlin Government is the first whose interests demand prompt application of the Treaty of Versailles."

The Temps editorially takes the same line.

Theatrical Coupe.

"Germany," says the editorial, "has just struck a coup de theatre. We ask her explanation. Germany has been insisting for five months that the treaty enter into force. A German mission arrived Tuesday to make the final arrangements. The allies decided Thursday that the treaty would be put in force December 1. The mission left Saturday without signing anything or indicating a date for its return.

"Are there not men in the German Government, or about it, who seek to bring up the whole question of peace again under the pretext that the U.S. Senate has not ratified the treaty?"

United States An Ally.

Paris, Nov. 24.—The withdrawal of the U.S. troops from Coblenz, in occupied Germany, is not considered in U.S. Peace Conference circles as necessary in consequence of the failure of the U.S. Senate to ratify the German peace treaty. It is contended that the U.S. is still one of the allied and associated powers, and that the postponement of final action on the treaty does not change its relation to either the associated powers or to Germany.

TO SUSPEND TRIAL BY JURY IN IRELAND

BRITISH GOVT. TO PRESS BILL TO THIS END THROUGH BOTH HOUSES

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 25.—The Government will introduce a bill in the Commons this week providing for the suspension of trial by jury in Ireland in special criminal cases, and leaving the determination of such cases, to a special commission consisting of three judges of the High Court. The bill will be pressed through both Houses quickly.

BAKE BREAD BY DAY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Hon. Walter Rollo, Minister of Labor in the Drury Cabinet, today heard a deputation of the Bakers' Union, demanding that break making all over Ontario be made day work by law. Consideration was promised.

WILL ASK THAT BAGLEY'S NAME BE STRUCK FROM LAW ROLL

Local Law Association Meet to Act on Case---Memorialize Premier to Prevent Creation of Barristers and Solicitors by Private Act.

A special meeting of the Peterborough Law Association was hled yesterday afternoon to deal with the case of J. G. Guise-Bagley.

The secretary was instructed to write to the chairman of the discipline committee of the Law Society of Upper Canada asking that Mr. Bagley's name be struck from the roll of those allowed to practise law in the Province.

A resolution was also passed that the Premier of Ontario be memorialized in order that his attention might be drawn to the fact that Mr. Bagley had never taken any regular course in law at Osgoode Hall Law School, but was created a barrister and solicitor by the late Hearst Government by a private Act, and urging upon him that in future no persons be admitted as solicitors and barristers by private Acts of the Legislature because such a practice is likely to lead to abuses and the admission to the Bar of incompetent and undesirable persons.

Sense of Duty.

It was appreciated that Mr. F. D. Kerr appeared for Mr. Bagley from a sense of duty, as it is recognized that every person who is charged with a criminal offence should be represented by counsel to assist the court in bringing out all the facts either for or against the person accused, with a view of placing before the tribunal trying the person accused all the facts and circumstances favorable and adverse to such accused person. This custom relates even to a lawyer who may be accused of a criminal offence. In fact, the oath of office and obligations of a solicitor require him to appear for an accused person whom he may know to be guilty, in order to protect the interests of such person, and to bring forward everything which the court may consider valueable in dealing with the case of an accused person.

NEW RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT IS PROJECTED; PEACE ITS OBJECT

Will Include Moderates, and Approach Admiral Kolchak and General Denikine With Peace Offers.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 25. — A German wireless sends a story from the Bolsheviki press that a new Russian government is projected, to include moderates, and to approach Admiral Kolchak and General Denekiue with peace offers.

Baltic Alliance.

Reval, Nov. 25.—The Baltic States Alliance is a fact and will be publicly declared when the governments which participated in the negotiations at Dorpat have raitfied the preliminary agreement.

Peace discussions will begin when Maxim Litvinoff, the Bolshevik representative, returns from Copenhagen. Litvinoff has full power to negotiate a peace with the Baltic States on behalf of Soviet Russia.

The Bolsheviki are continuing to attack the Yamburg district with strong forces in an endeavor to crush the Russian northwest army.

The correspondent is authorized to transmit the following:

"Although the Lithuanian government denies officially that there is to be a meeting with the Bolshevik delegates on December 1 at Dorpat to discuss peace, it is obvious that the Baltic and other border States, excepting Finland, will begin negotiations for peace in a few weeks."

WHEAT RUSHED TO UNITED STATES

CANADIAN RAILWAYS REFUSE CARS FOR SOUTH UNLESS LOADED WITH STOCK

Winnipeg, Nov. 25.— Notice of the elimination of the embargo on Canadian wheat entering the United States has electrified the prairie provinces. With the initial price of $2.15 here and the Government controling all grain in elevators or cars, much has been delivered across the line by farmers' wagons. Special permits from the U. S. Government, however, have been necessary. It is now anticipated that large quantities will flow across the line as elevators are paying just over the border $2.80 for grain that gets but $2.15 as the initial price under Canadian Government arangement. The Canadian railways refuse to permit their rolling stock to go south except when billed through with livestock, but this will not affect the grain traffic as all grain in cars becomes the property of the Government Wheat Board, and is sold to England. Canada has but a hundred million bushels for export. Flour also goes in now from Canada. Here the millers are getting their wheat from the Government at $2.39 while United States millers are paying $3.50 it is expected there will be a big rush of Canadian flour to the States under this differential.

EX-KAISER TO BE TRIED IN LONDON

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 25. — The British Government expects the trial of former Emperor William of Germany to begin in London early next year, and will ask Holland for his surrender immediately after the ratification of the peace treaty, says the Daily Mail.

GENERAL DIAZ FOR INSPECTOR GENERAL

GENERAL BADOGLIO TO BE HEAD OF ITALIAN GENERAL ARMY STAFF

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Rome, Nov 25.—General Diaz, commander in chief of the Italian forces during the latter part of the war, is to be appointed inspector-general of the army while General Badoglio, General Diaz's chief of staff, is to become head of the general army staff, according to unofficial reports. Vice-Admiral Paolo Thaondi Revel will become inspector-general of the navy, it is said.

REDUCTIONS NOW IN PASSENGER TRAVEL

FREIGHT SERVICE MAY ALSO BE AFFECTED OWING TO COAL SHORTAGE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Montreal, Nov. 25.—As anticipated, drastic reductions in passenger and possibly freight service on Canadian railways, on account of the shortage of coal, were officially announced today, as a result of meetings of railway officials to consider conditions following the strike in the United States.

Affects Two Railways.

These reductions, so far as announced by the Canadian Railway War Board and Grand Trunk Railway, will chiefly affect the C.N.R. and the Grand Trunk for the time being with the possibility that other railways may later on be affected. These reductions will go into effect on Saturday next.

The Judge before whom the Winnipeg strike leaders appeared refused to quash the indictment, holding it was a good one.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.

THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.

U. S. Representative—Robert E. Douglas, Chicago.

TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.

THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1919.

INDIA IS STIRRING.

THERE ARE 147 languages in India, and more races of people than in all Europe. The population, 315,000,000, is composed of 217,000,000 Hindus, 66,000,000 Mohammedans, 10,000,000 Buddhists, 10,000,000 Animists, 4,000,000,000 Christians, and 6,000,000 others. India is a land of contrasts. The wealthy are like Croesus. The poor are at the lowest depths of poverty. Palaces and hovels alternate. The learned are persons of high distinction, but 89 per cent. of the men of India and 99 per cent. of the women canot read or write.

All through that great land, as in China and Japan, a new ambition has arisen. The people want more interest in the government. A modified measure of home rule is provided by the Montague scheme. As soon as this plan becomes operative the whole nation will suddenly realize the need of primary education. Even today, despite the fact that the native religions sanction the ignorance of women, schools for girls and even for Hindu widows are springing up.

All leaders are recognizing the evils of the caste system. Three hundred thousand native troops went to war, crossing the sea and thus breaking caste. It is not possible for these warriors on their return to be despised and "sent to Coventry."

Meanwhile, the "outcastes," those below the lowest rung of the social ladder, have shown deep interest in Christianity, and came to be baptized long before the missionaries are ready to receive them. Long years of oppression have not robbed these people of either ability or ambition. Many of the "outcastes," when educated, have become the ablest leaders of the country.

Three courses are before the churches which have mission work in India:

1. They can refuse to receive the people who plead for admission to the Christian fellowship.

2. They can baptize them without the necessary training—and run the risk of having the Gospel misrepresented.

3. They can enlarge the force of missionaries and increase the equipment, so that the new Christians can be properly trained.

Only the third course is reasonable and proper. But that course is impossible unless the Canadian Church members are prepared to get a new vision of their responsibilities. The United National Campaign hopes to awaken the people of the Home Base to the opportunity that India affords.

A NORTH CHANNEL TUNNEL.

LORD FISHER'S proposal of a route between New York and Japan which involves the making of a submarine tunnel between Ireland and Scotland under the North Channel, is not new. The possibility of making such a tunnel has been under discussion for the last quarter of a century, but the geology of the North Channel has given engineers furiously to think. Where its waters now separate Scotland from Ireland was once dry land, with a lake over twenty miles long between what are now the coasts of Antrim and Wigtownshire. The problem of a North Channel Tunnel involves cutting at a depth of a thousand feet to carry it beneath the now submerged lake and requires extremely severe gradients at the two land ends. The North Channel Tunnel would be only about the same length as the projected tunnel from Dover to Calais, but the formidable dip in the middle, and the hardness of the rock of which the bed is formed, are obstacles to its construction which many consider insurmountable.

A VINDICATION OF DEMOCRACY.

AMONG ALL THE FACTS brought to light in the two volumes of General Ludendorff's "War Memories," one predominant fact impresses itself on the mind. This is that in the judgment of this Prussian militarist Democracy makes war better than autocracy. In every chapter he is saying this thing, and saying it the more impressively because for the most part he seems unconscious of saying it. Again and again he asks, Why do the Allies rally from the blows which the Central Powers rain upon them, and why do the German people not rally? Why can Clemenceau and Lloyd George speak as they do to the populace in the blackest hours and be sure of an instant response, and why does no one speak in the same way to the German people, and why, when someone feebly tries, is these so little response? Why at the last, when a unique defensive position remains, and a large part of the manhod of the country has not been called into the fighting-line, does the home front collapse and submit to a disgraceful peace which a people of spirit might have been expected to resist to the death? Ludendorff is, of course, making the case for himself and the military caste at the expense of the civil government. He would have us believe that the Great General Staff would have won the war if the civil government had supported them as it should have done. But the question comes back to the militarists themselves. The civil government was as they made it, and its defects what they had imposed on it. How could they expect the industrious bureaucrats who had sat in armchairs on the dais of the Reichstag, read typewritten communications to submissive deputies, and prided themselves on keeping aloof from the great public—how could they expect those men, the Bethmann-Hollwegs, the Michaelises, the Helfferichs, the Hertlings, suddenly to develop the power and eloquence of popular leaders, or the German people suddenly to accept as popular leaders men whom they had been taught to regard as dutiful officials repeating what had been put into their mouths? Ludendorff no doubt exaggerates in his zeal to make his case. The effort of the German people was in all the circumstances a great effort, and that of their civilian rulers by no means contemptible. But undoubtedly it is true, as he complains, that the great exigency produced no great German leader, and that the German Government was less successful than the Allied Governments, in its appeals to its people, and even in procuring the loyal acceptance of the discipline necessary in war. The Kaiser appears to have lost his hold quite early in the war, and in Ludendorff's narrative he is almost out of the picture. His invocations of the God of Battles and promises of great victories only a little delayed were in any case a very poor substitute for the stirring eloquence of a great popular leader. And after the Kaiser there was no one. Still more, there was not in Germany either the susceptibility to popular appeal or the intimate relationship between the public and public men which alone makes effective propaganda possible. There was at the beginning unbounded belief in the Great General Staff, but if that broke no one dared plumb the depth of the disillusion.

WILL THEY ESCAPE?

THE TRIAL of members of the German military forces for offences committed during the late war, sets a new precedent in international law, in that it is an after-war proceeding. With but very few exceptions in in the past has punishment for atrocities been inflicted by outraged powers when peace had once been proclaimed; and, as a matter of fact, the world need not be surprised were history to again repeat itself in favor of many criminals in the past gigantic struggle. As to the ex-kaiser, the ex-crown prince, the Bavarian prince, and all thoe men in high places responsible for the war at its inception, and for its continuation under conditions of barbarity worthy only of a Nero, they seem to be dropping out of mind, and, judging by the apparent apathy of the Supreme Council, that body is in no way anxious to secure possession of their persons. They may bring them to trial, and even impose punishment, but will they demand their extradition? That is another question entirely.

This past world war stands apart from all others in that it arose from ambition for world dolmnation alone, and that the solemn sanctity of treaties was violated and international law premeditatively ignored. It is perhaps, quite natural for a nation, having reached the zenith of its power, industrially, economically, educationally, scientifically, to dream of dominating the world; and who can say that, unless the Allies demonstrate, by fittingly punishing such men as the ex-emperor of Germany and his consorts, for their great crime against humanity, to subjugate the rest of the world, that the hope for world domination will not again flood this earth in bloodshed and all its accompanying horrors? Therefore, it does seem that, as in social life crime is punished as an example to would-be criminals, so in international life no encouragement should be offered future leaders of nations to engage in war for self-aggrandizement by the precedent of those responsible for the war of 1914-18 having escaped their just punishment.

GOOD-BYE, OLD DOBBIN.

THE DAYS OF THE HORSE, man's faithful friend and servant for ages past, are numbered, and ere long his answering neigh and clattering hoofs will have given way entirely to the roar of the motor engine. His living motive power is rapidly being suppinated by that of the machine, his graceful beauty and vigorous strength no longer finds favor in man's eyes. Ten years ago one hundred and ten thousand horses worked for an honest living in Chicago; today there are but thirty-five thousand; and comparative stories can be told of other cities and towns both in Canada and the United States. Ten years ago the horse was a luxury and a utility indispensable; ten years hence he will have been relegated to the "has been" almost entirely, on the farm as well as in big centres, for even there the motor tractor is rapidly displacing Old Dobbin.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

A DUTY OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP.

(Chicago News.)

The citizen who lends support to measures of rational reform that really "get somewhere" is helping to deliver a more powerful blow against extremism than can be struck by any number of prosecutions in a court. He is helping to keep the nation sound and strong enough to defy the attacks of criminal agitators. Active good citizenship—and no other kind of citizenship can be good—produces wise legislation and honest enforcement of law. These make apparent to all the supreme folly of the whirling dervishes of discontent.

FEAR AS CAUSATION.

(Los Angeles Express.)

Fear is at the bottom of an enormous amount of human distress, worry, inharmony and unhappiness. In fact, it would not be an exaggeration to affirm that fear in one form or another is responsible for all suffering and failure. If there exists in spiritual culture the possibility of realising mental harmony—and that is exactly what the Bible teaches,—if there is a logical relationship between peace of mind and harmony of bodily functions, and if fear is a prolific cause of mental distress, then it necessarily follows that the lessening and final control of fear is one of the most interesting and profitable of educational and curative processes.

WOOD FOR PRESIDENCY.

(New York American.)

It is becoming more and more the accepted idea among Republicans that Major-General Leonard Wood will be the Republican nominee for President.

A recent poll of Congress made by an Ohio paper showed an overwhelming sentiment for the General. In the Senate five times as many senators declared in his favor as were recorded in favor of any other candidate.

In the House he was preferred by 116 Republican members. The next favored candidate was Gov. Frank O. Lowndes, of Illinois, who received 41 votes in the poll.

Already an influential and efficient organization is pushing the candidacy of General Wood throughout the country. The reports of his campaign managers are to the effect that the General's candidacy is gaining great popularity.

Another element of great strength which General Wood possesses, it was said, is the generally accepted notion that he more nearly represents all that Theodore Roosevelt stood for in American national life than any living statesman.

The influence of the Roosevelt spirit seems to have grown stronger since the Sage of Oyster Bay passed out than it was in the years immediately preceding his death. General Wood is looked upon as the living embodiment of the Roosevelt spirit in American politics. Strengthening of the Roosevelt tradition, therefore, means the strengthening of General Wood.

HOUSEMAIDS BETTER PAID THAN TEACHERS

HIGHER WAGES ARE NEEDED TO FOSTER EDUCATION OF THE RACE

New York, Nov. 25.—Housemaids of ordinary ability receives more than twice as much as the average salary of teachers throughout the country, $500 more than the initial salary of teachers in this city and $200 more than the compensation which half the teachers in the city receive is the startling statement made yesterday by the Public Education Association.

Comparing the salaries paid to teachers with that of laborers and other workers the statement adds: "It is worth, per year, $394 more to carry bricks than to train children, $363 more to mould dough for bread than to mould boys and girls into citizens, $890 more to hammer hot iron than to hammer ideals, and $1,034 more to build frameworks for buildings than frameworks for character.

"These are not irresponsible statements by self-seeking agitators nor exaggerated attempts by rank outside organizations to defame the fair name of our public schools," the statement continues. "They are contained in a study of teachers' salaries and salary schedules in the United States, 1918-1919, prepared by Dr. . S. Evenden, of Teachers' College, Columbia University, for the Commission on the Emergency in Education of the National Education Association, of which Dr. George Drayton Strayer is chairman.

"There are more than five million persons in the United States over ten years of age who can neither read nor write," continues the statement. "There are many thousands of children attending schools in which not a word of English is spoken during the entire day.

"Of the 3,208,446 men examined by the Draft Board of the United States 949,419 were declared physically unfit for general military service. This would indicate that there are thirty million persons in this country who are in a greater or less degree physically ineficient.

"About four million children are taught by teachers under twenty-one years of age. The average number of years' attendance at public schools for each individual is less than the completion of the sixth grade for an average education for the citizens of the greatest democracy in the world."

OSHAWA AND BOWMANVILLE PASS HYDRO-RADICAL BYLAW

Oshawa, Nov. 23.—That public sentiment in Oshawa is strongly in favor of Hydro radials was evidenced by the voting which took place today. While the total vote polled was comparatively light, the result was decisive, practically five to one of those voting being in favor, 576 votes were recorded for the bylaw and 97 against giving a majority of 479.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Single blessedness is considered better than twins.

If a man's out of his head he is apt to put his foot in it.

A society bud hopes she will never bloom as a wallflower.

Do so well to-day that you will have no fear of being done to-morrow.

Most men would save a lot of money by letting others do the speculating.

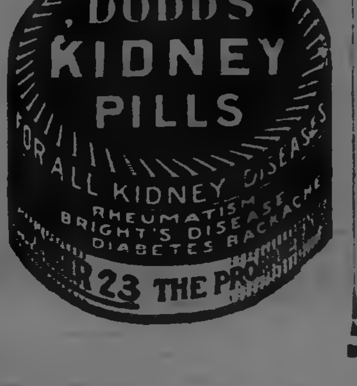
You will derive crumbs of comfort from giving a hungry man a square meal.

A woman has to do a lot of talking in order to explain what she is talking about.

But the man who pays his debts usually has more money than the man who does not.

Time and tide wait for no man, but a woman will wait for him until another man comes along.

A pessimist always looks as though he were afraid it would cost him a few cents to look pleasant.



STOP LOOK and LISTEN before purchasing a baking powder that may possibly contain injurious ingredients. Many food scientists claim that baking powder containing alum is unsafe for use in food. The mere fact that some brands of baking powder have the words "No Alum" on the label is not sufficient proof that they are what they are represented to be. Our chemists find a good many have "No Alum" on the outside but large quantities of it inside.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER
Contains No Alum
Pure Wholesome Economical

NATIONAL SHIPS OF CANADA

National ships of Canada! Will they ever be to Canada what the ships of Britain have been to the fog-girt Dominating Islands of the North Atlantic?

That instinct for the sea that has ever characterized the Anglo-Saxon from remote days when as Viking he first swept out of the Northern seas in his rakish, shield-girded craft, is once again revivified throughout the Anglo-Saxon world.

We hear almost every day of the plans of our cousins of the same seafaring blood to the south, who hope to wrest the control of the ocean-carrying trtade from Britain. Canada already has a substantial nucleus of a national fleet of [illegible] carriers. Does it mean only that North America is to enter the carrying trade on a scale never before dreamed of, or is Canada to stand side by side with the Old Motherland to keep the old supremacy within the Empire? Australia is also passing through an interesting period in connection with her merchant shipping.

England is small, and an island, and all the paths of the seas lie open. The old Viking strain is far from dormant. The English know the ocean in all its moods. They know how to build vessels that survive. The indomitable Englishman rides his ships to all points of the compass. As he goes he trades. A great power, he draws the wealth of many lands to his beloved home-land in the turbulent North Atlantic. His vessels both for trading and fighting grew into the most formidable fleets in both fields of activity. Ships made England great, and ships will keep her so.

Canada's great area is equal to 30 countries the size of the British Isles and the population of the whole area is only about one-sixth that of the United Kingdom of Great Britain. Canad could look inward for thousands of miles. The ocean paths were open, but only to the minority. The majority of Canadians probably have never seen the sea. Their view point, like their environment, is insulra although we could touch one country almost at all points along a four-thousand-mile boundary line. That sort of a situation produces national thinking only. The international habit does not come until there are means of contact with other lands. To all others we were shut out. One development alone could give us the means of expansion along international trading lines. That development was a fleet of ships. Of that fleet, Canada built, Canada-owned Canada controlled, we have already sixteen sturdy vessels, varying between 3,750 dead-weight tons, and 8,400 ead-weight tons, in operation between ports in Canada, the United Kingdom, the British West Indies, Cuba end South America. Within a few weeks Australia will be included in the list. Sailings to other ports in Great Brtiain and elsewhere are now under consideration.

The Canadian federal plan calls for a fleet of sixty ships having a gross dead-weight of approximately 300,000 tons. They belong to Canadians as a whole. Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited, is the name of the company to operate them under the direction of Canadian National Railways.

Already—no doubt because of the ships—there is a quickening of interest among Canadian businessmen in outside affairs that up to a few months ago excited carcely any comment. In late weeks the West Indeis, for example—at least their relation to Great Britain and to Canada—have occupied considerable space in the daily grist of the press. The trade of the West Indies with Canada has developed into an interesting topic in business Canada. That trade at present does not work federal statisticians who keep record of the Nation's business dealings abroad, but it has wonderfully bright possibilities. "National" ships have made 14 voyages to and from the West Indies. They have carried southbound practically all classes of general merchandise, and they bring back the goods Canada imports from those fertile sunny lands. That is all very well for a beginning, but in the future there ought to be, beteween Canada and the West Indies, a development of trading that would make the present figures appear utterly insignificant.

The West Indies import approximately 65 million dollars worth of flour, rice, salt meats, fertilizers, boots and shoes, beeer and wine, apparel, haberdashery, bags and sacks hats and bonnets, lard, condensed milk, corn meal, soap, butter, wood and timber, hardware, machinery, dried fish, coal and cottons, each year. Cottons constitute the most vallable single group, 7 million dollars being the amount estimated yearly; flour however, is a close second, $6,650,000 worth being imported in 12 months. Other large groups are dried fish, coal, rice, salt meats, hardware, fertilizers, boots and shoes, and woods and timber.

Of those imports Canada furnishes less than four million dollars worth of bread stuffs, only $12,600 worth of meat; $10,000 in machinery; $130,000 in hardware; $11,000 in apparel; $405,000 in wood; $1,400 in boots and shoes; $127,000 in utter and cheese; $19,300 in vehicles; $285 in lard; $145 in hats and bonnets and $23,000 in fruit.

The West Indies export normally goods to the value of approximately 66 million dollars in one year. The list includes sugar, cocoa, rum, molasses, cocoanut and copra, bananas, chicle, lime juice, coffee, sponges, gold spices, limes, hides and skins, tobacco, diamonds, salt, oranges, arrowroot, canned fruit, asphalt, hemp, balata, rice, mineral oil, vegetables, cotton, wood manufactures, logwood and extracts.

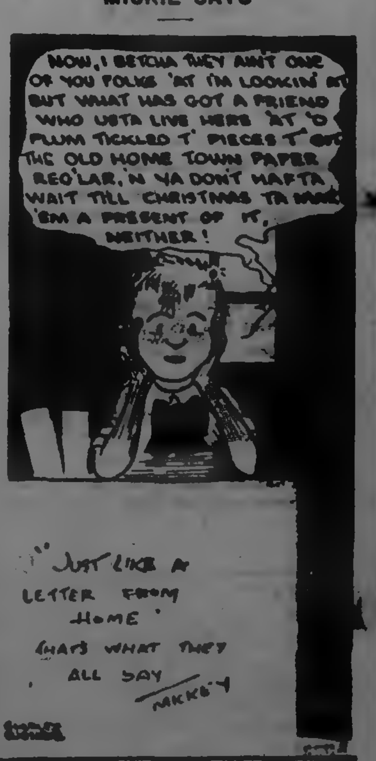
Cnaada imports more than $31,000,000 worth of sugar in a year, and only $18,000,000 worth of this comes from the West Indies. She imports $1,500,000 worth of cocoa, and gets about one-third of that from the West Indies. In molasses there is a better showing as our imports are $2,000,000, and $1,800,00 worth of it comes from the West Indies. We import $3,800,000 worth of vegetables, $18,000 worth comes from the West Indies. We import $159,000 worth of lime juice and get only $6,000 worth from the West Indies. We import more than $14,000,000 of mineral oil and get none at all from the West Indies. We import two and a quarter million dollars worth of coffee and get only approximately one quarter of a million from the West Indies. We import $70,000 worth of sponges getting only $9,000 worth from the West Indies. We import more than half a million dollars worth of spices of which less than $40,000 comes from the West Indies. We import $4,000,000 of oranges and grape fruits and get less than $40,000 from the West Indies.

A few years ago the publishing of these figures in Canada would have excited little, if any, interest. Today they present a real onportunity for quite an imposing list of manufacturers in Canada. These manufacturers are already beginning to take advantage of the facilities furnished by the national ships. Flour and grain, cement, amonia, rubber goods, malt, pine lumber, oilmeal, pork, hay, hardware, salt fish, confectionery, auto tires, furniture, iron pipes, oil cake, are included among the products carried south. Recently vessel for Buenos Ayres carried [illegible] machinery, which is expected to [illegible] but the vanguard of large shipments of Canadian made goods in that line. The ships to South America and Cuba carry much the same general cargo as that enumerated above, and as in the case of the West Indies there is a wide gap betwee the exports and imports that Canada now trades in, and the exports and imports she might trade in if the opportunities in that direction were more fully developed. Officials of Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited

(Continued on Page Three.)

Wood's Phosphodine. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

MICKIE SAYS



NOW, I BETCHA THEY AIN'T ONE OF YOU FOLKS 'AT I'M LOOKIN' AT BUT WHAT HAS GOT A FRIEND WHO USTA LIVE HERE 'AT'D BE PLUM TICKLED T' PIECES T' GIT THE OLD HOME TOWN PAPER REG'LAR, 'N YA DON'T HAFTA WAIT TILL CHRISTMAS TA MAKE 'EM A PRESENT OF IT, NEITHER!
"JUST LIKE A LETTER FROM HOME" THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY
MICKEY

The Farmer-Banker Alliance

You go to your lawyer for legal advice; to the doctor for medical advice; why not to The Merchants Bank for financial advice?

If you want a loan to buy cattle, hogs or equipment—if you want information as to how to invest money—come to those who make a business of financial matters, and are in a position to give you sound and impartial advice.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager.

NATIONAL SHIPS OF

(Continued from page 2.)

are now on their way to the south seas to ascertain better the lines this development in trade should follow.

There is another aspect of Canadian foreign trade, that will be greatly modified if not entirely removed, as the country's commerce with outside lands grows by the utipertalization of our national vessels. In Canada we have been at the losing end as far as a considerable list of imports has been concerned. Our friends to the south have been acting as intermediary. They have been importing goods from other lands and we have been importing from them. There seems to be no valid reason why this unsatisfactory system of conducting business should go on now that we have the ships to bring the goods in question from foreign lands to Canadian ports. There is no valid reason why American vessels and and American railroads and American brokers should profit out of the handling of these Canadian imports, if the national ships of Canada can bring the goods direct to Canadian shores.

Officers of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited and Canadian National Railways in seeking out tonnage for the national boats find this feature of Canadian trading to be a real barrier in the finding of cargo. A large number of Canadian manufacturers have traded heretofore with outside countries, and it appears to have been a general custom to sell their goods through American firms. These American firms, naturally have a good deal to say when it came to the matter of routing the tonnage so handled. Consequently there has begun since thee national boats have been in service, a movement to show Canadian manufacturers the advantage of doing business direct with foreign houses, in this way developing ports in Canada and providing tonnage for the rails and ships of the national lines.

It is not generally realized the extent to which these Canadian-owned vessels operated to save Canada from the dire effects of a sugar shortage. Recently [illegible] vessels were utilized to bring in raw sugar from Cuba direct to the decks of Canadian refineries. The total tonnage would probabably be in excess of 35,000 tons. There is no doubt that a serious sugar crisis was averted because of the availability of these vessels for this service. No privately-owned boats were operating in that trade and the probabilities are that we would have awaited the convenience of privately-owned lines to bring this necessary product to our shores.

As ship owners and operators Canadians are on the threshold of a vast development. This will not come suddenly, but it should be a healthy growth. The object lesson of the Motherland can always be referred to. But a flexible fleet of nationally-owned commerce carriers is a venture that has passed the experimental stage. Canadian producers, Canadian railways, Canadian sailors, and Canadin ports, are all gainers because of the inauguration of the policy of publicly-controlled merchant vessels of the Dominion.

RACED CAR, HIT BOY

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Eight-year-old Hugh Shaw, 153 Close Avenue, Toronto, was slightly injured when hit by an auto driven by a man named Neve Plu, address unknown, at Queen Street and Ossington Avenue, yesterday afternoon. The police, who are searching for the motorist, allege that the man, while travelling west on Queen street, dashed past a Queen car without stopping, and charged into a crowd of people, who were waiting for a street car. The lad was the only one hit.

The Porte has applied directly to the Peace Conference for an early solution of the Turkish question.

Ulster defeated Toronto Scottish in a Dunlop Shield semi-final game on Saturday by 1 to 0.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor)

WEDDING - GIFTS -

in

STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's
267 George St. Next Turnbull's

RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS

No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

108 Church St., Montreal.

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good.

Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

P. H. McHUGH.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LAKEFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

Lakefield, Nov. 25.—Miss Wood spent the week-end visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Alice Johnson, of the Royal Bank staff, Peterborough, was a visitor to the village for the week-end.

Miss Marjory Laing has left the village having secured a position in Toronto.

Mrs. J. Blewett has returned to the village after spending the past two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Wilson in Douro.

Mr. and Mrs. Trude Waldon spent a couple of days in Peterborough last week.

Miss Eva Jay was a visitor to Peterborough on Wednesday.

Mr. W. Lemay, of Peterborough, spent the week-end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lemay.

Mr. Torman Crowe, of Warsaw, was in the village on Saturday.

Miss Rhoda Alford spent a couple of days in Peterborough last week.

Mrs. [illegible] was the guest of Mrs. F. J. Tate on Friday.

Mr. Richard Lees, public school inspector, spent a few days in the village this week inspecting the local schools.

Mr. Albert Ball spent Thursday in Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Watley motored to Peterborough on Friday.

Mrs. Greives, of Peterborough, spent Friday in the village, the guest of Mrs. F. J. Tate.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Northey spent Friday in Peterborough.

Mr. Sam Grylls was a visitor to Peterborough on Friday.

Rev. J. A. Jewell returned to his home in Toronto on Monday after being the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. S. Tanner.

Mrs. Saulter, of Toronto, is the guest of her sisters, the Misses Ray.

Mr. G. Fairbairn is spending a few days in Kingston on business.

Dr. and Mrs. Archbold and Miss Rhoda have returned after spending a few days in Peterborough.

SOCIETY WOMAN WEDS CHAUFFEUR

MISS BEATRICE STOKES CREATES FURORE BY MARRIAGE WITH HERBERT MARTIN

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 25.—Astonishment was created here Saturday, particularly among people of social prominence, by the announcement that Miss Beatrice Stokes, daughter of Mr and Mrs. W. J. B. Stokes, of No. 210 West State street, was married on Monday in Elkton, Md., to Herbera Worten, of No. 231 East Front street, formerly a chauffeur for the Stokes family and now a paperhanger.

Miss Stokes was active in patriotic and charitable work during the war and was a member of the leading social circle of Trenton. Her father was at one time City Treasurer. He is now president of the Home Rubber Company, one of the largest rubber industries of the city; treasurer of the Thermoid Rubber Company, and is connected with the Joseph Stokes Rubber Company. He was director of several Liberty Loan drives here.

The romance began while Worten was the Stokes' chauffeur. Recently they informed Mr. and Mrs. Stokes of their love for each other. The girl's parents counselled them to defer the wedding, but apparently could not persuade them.

Whether or not Mr. and Mrs. Stokes finally consented to the marriage and knew that the couple were going to Elkton to be married could not be learned from the Stokes home. There no information could be obtained concerning the whereabouts of the young couple. Worten was not at the East Front street address. It was said, he had had a room there.

CAN. PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

To and from Kingston Sub-Division.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 1, there will be a change in the Kingston Sub-Division Train Service, providing [illegible] connection as follows: Leave Peterborough 11.59 a.m., arrive Kingston 3.35 p.m.; leave Kingston 9.50 a.m., arrive Peterborough 3.20 p.m.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents.

PALATIAL CENTRAL HALL TO BE ERECTED IN LONDON FOR LABOR

Will Cost $1,500,000—Co-Operat've Societies May Unite in Plan.

London.— During the recent railwaymen's strike the need became more manifest than ever for a great central Labour Hall, which would form the headquarters of the Labour movement, perhaps also of the Co-operative movement, besides being the obvious meeteing-place of the Cabinet of Labour which Mr. Harry Gosling is so enthusiastically advocating.

At present trade union offices are scattered all over London, and at spots not in some cases easily accessible.

"During the recent railway strike," said Captain Gill, who has been appointed organizer of the trade unions and other Labour bodies that are studying the scheme for a central Labour Hall, "the inconvenience was greatly felt of having the offices of the unions concerned in the dispute scattered about as they are, and the Publicity Department anywhere that was convenient for the moment. There was immense waste of time, but Labour had a great object-lesson in the need for having a permanent and central home for the movement.

"The result," Captain Gill says, "was to give a great impetus to the scheme, which has been under consideration for some years; in fact, among trade unions no further argument was required. Plans are in course of preparation, and there is good reason to believe that the Co-operative movement is very sympathetic, and is considering the suggestion to join hands with the Labour movement. That of course, would involve a considerable change in the plans and a development of the idea."

Co-operative Societies.

If the co-operators come in, the scheme will, of course, be a very big one and a great advance on the proposal of 1906, in which may be found the germ of the idea. In that year the executives of the General Federation of Trade Unions and the then Labour Representation Committee whicvh afterwards became the Labour Party, resolved that the time had come when there should be a great Central Hall, owned and controlled by the Labour movement. The subject was debated at the annual meetings of the Labour Party, the Trade Union Congress, and the General Federation of Trade Unions, but little progress was made.

In 1913 a step forward was taken on the the initiative of Mr. S. P. Catchpole, secretary of the Faculty of Insurance, and a warm friend of Labour. Plans were prepared for a building with two principal halls—an octagonal chamber having an area of 4,000-square feet and a great assembly hall, which could also be used for a theatre as well as for conferences. Mr. J. O'Grady, M.P., proposed to raise a fund of £120,000 by means of subscriptions of one halfpenny a month, extending over two years. Nothing was done, however; then the war came and put an end to all such dreams.

The present scheme is more ambitious. Captain Gill's task is to organize the collection of £300,000 by a body of trustees representing the Labour Party and trade unions. Mr. Arthur Henderson, M. P., is chairman and Mr. C. W. Bowerman, M. P., secretary, and the trustees include Mr J. R. Clynes, M.P., Mr. Aarry Gosling, Mr. John Hill, Mr. J. Ramsay MacDonald, J. W. Ogden, Mr. W. C. Robinson, Mr. Robert Smillie, Mr. J. H. Thomas, M.P., and Mr. J. Wignall M. P.

Captain Gill stated that no site has yet been chosen, but several were in view. A good deal will, perhaps, depend on the decision of the co-operators. The London societies alone now have over 200,000 members, with a capital of about £2,000,000, and sales amounting to something like $5,000,000 a year.

Painful Piles

A Free Trial of Pyramid Pile Treatment Is One of the Greatest Events You Ever Experienced.

You are suffering dreadfully with itching, bleeding, protruding piles or hemorrhoids. Now, go over to any drug store and get a 60-cent box of Pyramid Pile Treatment. Relief should come so quickly, you will jump for joy. If you are in doubt, send for a free trial package by mail. You will then be convinced. Don't delay. Take no substitute.

You Positively Cannot Afford to Ignore These Remarkable Pyramids.

FREE SAMPLE COUPON
PYRAMID DRUG COMPANY,
[illegible] Pyramid Building,
Marshall, Mich.
Kindly send me a Free sample of Pyramid Pile Treatment, in plain wrapper.
Name ....
Street ....
City .... State ....

Japanese Gala Day.

Of all floral festivities, Japan's Feast of the Cherry Blossom is the most generally observed. Practically every town and village throughout the land has its own particular cherry tree for honoring at this great occasion, but the most famous of them all is that at Kioto. Here early in April is to be seen such a sight as can be witnessed nowhere else in all the world. There are seldom fewer than 1,000,000 persons present, who gather from all parts of the empire. Everywhere is feasting, dancing and merrymaking.—"Flaneur," in Indianapolis Star.

Centipede a Fly Killer.

The centipede is found pretty much all over the world. The species common in the United States Scutigero forceps, was reported over twenty years ago as devoting the nights to killing house flies. Later an observer detected one in the act of capturing a butterfly much larger than itself. The insect remains concealed during the day under doorsteps or window frames, or in any crevice sufficiently large to hide its numerous appendages.

Contribution of Jimmy.

Jimmy is seven and he's "smart" for his age. Even his mother admits it. She fears he'll be whirled up some day in a pillar of fire or something. Others who know Jimmy well doubt the pillar of fire business. His father the other day caught him smoking a cigarette and whipped him soundly. Jimmy cried loudly and attracted the attention of a neighbor, a man chum of the lad, who, seeking to comfort the boy, said: "Jimmy, of course it was very wrong of you to smoke a cigarette, and your papa whipped you not to hurt you but to show you how wrong it was. Stop crying now and your hurt will soon be over."

"I ain't cryin' 'cause I was licked," said the child as he gazed through the tears, "but when papa grabbed me I swallowed my cigarette, and it was the last one I had."—Exchange.

A Wonderful World.

"Don't talk to me about the wonders of past ages," said Uncle Joe Cannon. "The world today is far more wonderful than ever before. Just think: It took Columbus as many months as it now takes days to cross the ocean, and we talk about flying and traveling a mile a minute as though they were nothing.

"Why, the other day I dropped into a country school just in time to hear the teacher ask:

"'Johnny, into what two great classes is the human race divided?' And Johnny answered promptly:

"'Motorists and pedestrians.'

"That's what I call progress. After awhile there won't be any pedestrians."—Los Angeles Times.

Valuable Pearls Starving.

It is sad to think that at the present time, when pearls are so rapidly increasing in value, there are some perishing in the Louvre, says Tit-Bits.

Mme. Thiers bequeathed to that institution a marvellous pearl necklace, which within a few years fell a victim to the mysterious disease defined by experts as a form of starvation.

Pearls live by contact with humanity, and for this reason jewelers maintain that they should be worn on the bare skin. If the Louvre necklace could be worn for a time the pearls would recover their lustre. But, according to the will of Mme. Thiers, it must not be removed from its case, so the pearls are gradually becoming more unsightly and shrivelled.

Premiums for Marriage.

In one chemical factory in Switzerland, which is representative of other chemical and dye concerns, married men receive 10 per cent. more a week than single men engaged in the same occupation, and still above this married men receive fifty-four cents a week extra for each child under fifteen years of age.

Modern Printing.

A new form letter printing machine cuts paper fed from rolls into the proper sizes, uses three colors of ink when desired and automatically changes the names and addresses for each letter produced.

HOLDING FAST TO RELIGION

Writer Refuses to Believe That the American Nation as a Whole Is Falling Away.

In our universities we find multitudes of young men who claim adherence to the Christian faith. The indifference of their adherence is in marked contrast to what I observed in the University of Cairo, where are thousands of youths, Moslems in name, and also in spirit, Captain Arthur Hunt Chute writes in Leslie's.

In Damascus, in Aleppo, in Broussa, and in many other cities of the near East, I have often been held up in front of a bazaar by a fishnet drawn across the entrance. On inquiry I was told, "The master has gone to pray." Five times a day throughout the Moslem world the mezzin, or call to prayer, echoes from its minarets, and wherever they may be the faithful bow themselves. Before sights like these I bare my head, and I return to our superficial western cities with less of boasting and pride of spirit.

Two generations ago Emerson was writing his famous essays, in which we read the name of God on every page. In these more superficial times we have not gained by our indifference to that which was the heart of Emerson's message.

Some socialist syndicate will exclaim: "If you will only leave out the word 'religion' we won't object." But I shan't leave out the word "religion," for in that word I see America's greatest need today. There are hypocrites all around and the cynic points me to them, but I answer: "I have seen a good man, the secret of his goodness was religion, and a good life is an argument that I cannot answer."

Despite appearances to the contrary, I believe that America even yet is not so far away from Plymouth Rock. In the cabaret shows, amidst the roof garden follies, and in the gayest whirl, there are many in the giddy throng who still bear like a magic talisman the memory of the white spires of New England.

Sabbatier, the French modernist, says: "Man is innately religious." With especial truth I believe we may say the American is innately religious. This nation had its origin in the struggle of faith. The Huguenot, the Covenanter and the Pilgrim have bequeathed to us a national sentiment whose potency is not merely in the love of our country, but also in allegiance to our God. Therefore, today, our patriotism should express itself, not in flippancy, but in the deepest reverence and devotion. God and the flag are one and inseparable in this land, and the citizen who does not reverence his God can not truly honor his flag.

French Patriot's Letter.

A remarkable story of the patriotism and devotion shown by a French-American family is related in the Petit Nicois, the continental edition of the London Mail states.

At the outbreak of war a Frenchman named Callies, forty-four years old, who kept a drug store in Los Angeles, Cal., left his wife, daughter and two sons to come over and fight for his native country. He was mortally wounded before Verdun in January, 1915, but before dying had the following cablegram sent to his wife:

"I die facing the enemy. Let our two sons come out and take my place in the ranks. Adieu."

On receipt of this cablegram the two sons, Joseph and George, joined up and in due course arrived in France. Joseph was killed in 1917, not far from the place where his father met his death. He was thirty-four and was also a druggist.

George Callies went through much fighting without a wound until at ten o'clock on the morning of November 11, just before the armistice, he was badly gassed. He recovered and has been in convalescence at Nice pending his departure for his California home to resume his legal studies.

Kept Old Funeral Custom.

Following an old family custom, the body of Mrs. G. H. Haigh, daughter of the late Sir Robert Harty, was buried at midnight in the family vault at the little village church at Waith, England. The body of Mrs. Haigh, who was eighty-nine years of age, was brought from Penrhyndeudraeth, Wales, and conveyed from the station to the church in a farm wagon, drawn by four black horses and escorted by three dozen men carrying lanterns. Six Welshmen acted as bearers. The only floral tribute was a large cross of evergreens.

The Right Way to Reckon.

Catt—How does Skidley manage to stage so many successful auto accidents?

Patt—He says he always omits tire thumbs as a prewreckquisite.—Cartoons Magazine.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — GOOD DINING-room girl, and a kitchen woman; good wages. Apply Munro House.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED IN the country. Apply Review office for address.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LAdies. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont.

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases.

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED — STEAM RADIATors, either cast iron or pipe coils. Parties having such for sale please 'phone or leave name at Review office.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work; heat on building; 75c per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.

AGENTS WANTED.

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY for making $50 to $75 weekly from now until Christmas introducing "Canada's Sons and Great Britain in World War." Written by Canadians from battlefield notes and official records. Introduction by General Currie. Authentic, complete story of Canada's glorious record. Unusual opportunity for returned soldiers and others: Charles Marshall made $120 first 19 hours. Mr. Peel averages over 50 orders weekly. Spare time may be used. Outfit free. Winston Co., Toronto.

LOST.

LOST—SATURDAY EVENING small black purse containing $20 in bills and some small change, at Matthews' or Coleman's lower stores, or street car south to Morrow street. Finder kindly return to Review and receive $5 reward.

FOR SALE.

FORD TOURING CAR, 1919 model, nearly new. Bargain for quick buyer. Must be sold his week: owner leaving the city. Apply Box 478 Review office.

WOODSTOCK "FIRE"

Woodstock, Nov. 23.—County Constable Fred Hill on Saturday unearthed the first real live working still when he paid a visit to the foreign quarters at Beachville. The officer, in company with three other officials, seized enough of the illicit paraphernalia to induce them to arrest five foreigners, two of whom secured bail.

An active tool never acquires rust.

Common sense is none too common.

Gardeners ought to know when it

Children s Aid Society

—of—

Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1944w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

Have You A Savings Account ?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked 'till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc. and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public. Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts. Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.C.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, Georgt Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1[illegible] Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 1[illegible] a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan [illegible] 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 396 George [illegible]

Torture of the Inquisition

A Modern Example of Suffering

People suffer—suffer torments—with help at hand. Gin Pills can overcome pain in the most marvelous way—all the suffering which follows in the wake of weak or diseased kidneys, such as rheumatism, sciatic neuralgia, stone in the bladder, excruciating backache, stiff and swollen joints and ankles, yields quickly to the soothing, healing, strengthening power of Gin Pills, which contain Juniper and seven other valuable diuretics and antiseptics.

Mr. Arnold McAskell, of Hants, N.S., writes as follows:

"For a long time I suffered from a pain in my back and could not move without agony. I grew worse until confined to bed. A friend advised me to use Gin Pills. Before I had used one box I began to feel better. By the time I had finished two, I was completely cured. I cannot say too much in favor of these pills and I recommend them strongly to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

At the first suggestion of pain in the back get Gin Pills from your druggist or dealer. Each box is guaranteed to relieve—or money back. 50c a box. Free sample, sufficient to show its value, sent on request.

The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto. United States Address, Na-Dru-Co., Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y. 259

STORMY MEETING OF UKRANIANS

PROTEST AT WINNIPEG AGAINST POLISH MANDATE—GREETINGS TO JEWISH CONGRESS

Montreal, Nov. 24.—A somewhat stormy meeting of Ukranians at Prince Arthur Hall yesterday afternoon, at which Severn Kotstyesky was chairman and the speakers were Rev. Dr. Redkevich and Rev. Mr. Kuzurah, resolutions were adopted protesting against the decision of the Peace Conference giving a mandate to the Poles in Galicia, which, they claim, is populated by 75 per cent. Ukrainians, 12 per cent. Jews and 13 per cent. Poles; and against massacres of Jews in Ukraine, as well as Ukranians by the Poles; and sending hearty greetings to the Jewish Congress to assemble here today in the national movement to protest against the massacres of Jews in Poland, Roumania and the Ukrain.

Winnipeg Meeting.

Winnipeg, Nov. 24.—The first of a series of meetings in Canada to arouse interest in the Ukranian situation was held here Friday evening. The principal speaker at the large gathering was U. S. Congressman J. A. Hammill, who spent three months overseas investigating the actual facts in the Ukraine. Among the other speakers was H. A. Mackie, M. P. for East Edmonton.

A resolution was enthusiastically passed asking the Canadian Government to do everything in its power to secure the recognition of the Ukranian Republic by the Allied Powers and to prevent at once any further bloodshed between the Ukranians and the Poles. It was argued that the principle of self-determination should not be denied to a nation of 45,000,000 people. The statement was made that there were in Canada 350,000 Ukranians.

THOUGHT HE WAS PRESIDENT U. .S A.

VICE-PRESIDENT MARSHALL WHILE ADDRESSING AUDIENCE, TOLD PRESIDENT WAS DEAD.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 24.—The address of Vice-President Thomas Marshall came to an abrupt end at the Auditorium Sunday night when a false report was made to the effect that President Wilson had passed away at Washington.

The Vice-President was in the midst of his speech, which was being made under the auspices of the Order of Moose of Atlanta.

At this juncture Chas. J. Haden, a prominent Atlantan, stepped to the side of the Vice-President and informed him that a phone message had just been received that the President had passed away at Washington.

The Vice-President stopped speaking and bowed his head, an action which was followed by all who were within hearing distance. Then Mr. Marshall said:

"I cannot bear the great burdens of our beloved Chieftain, unless I receive the assistance of everybody in this country."

Then Mr. Marshall went to the phone and called up the Associated Press, only to learn that the news was incorrect.

Nomination day for Provincial by-elections in six ridings has been set for December 15.

Edward Sherman, a London barber sixty-five years of age, was asphyxiated in his room.

CAN. DEALERS ARE TOO-OPTIMISTIC

FUEL CONTROLLER POINTS OUT COAL SUPPLY DEPENDS ON THE WEATHER

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Mr. D. H. Connor, head of the fuel section, Canada Trade Commission, and assistant to Fuel Controller Magrath, commenting on the United States embargo on the export of anthracite except to Canada, thought there was a danger of too much optimism on the part of Canadian dealers. Most of them, he said, have a fairly good supply on hand, and therefore think they are safe for the winter, but the arrival of a blizzard with a foot or so of snow would change their tone. Mr. Connor stated that shipments of anthracite to Canada at the present time were about equal to those for the same period last year, but not so heavy as during the corresponding month of 1917. The bituminous coal supply situation is unchanged.

Number of Trains Reduced.

Drastic reductions in train service will have to be made at a very early date unless the movement of bituminous coal from the United States to Canada is soon resumed, declared an official of the Canadian Railway War Board. "As a result of the miners' strike and the consequent restrictions placed by the U. S. Government on the exportation of bituminous coal from that country, receipts in Canada during the past two weeks have been practically nil.

"Railways operating in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec are almost entirely dependent upon American mines for their fuel supply, and with the recent embargo on shipments to them their existing supplies are being depleted at an alarming rate.

Use Economy.

"If this situation were prolonged the present stocks would soon be exhausted and transportation would be at a standstill. It is imperative, therefore, that the supplies now on hand be husbanded in every feasible manner.

"Arrangements have been and are now being made to take off a number of trains at the end of the present month, but it is feared that before a normal movement of coal to the railways will have been resumed it will be necessary to make much heavier reductions."

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

WINTER VACATIONS

The Grand Trunk Railway has decided to give to those who love the great out-of-doors an opportunity to spend their Winter vacations in Algonquin Park. The "Highland Inn," the largest of the Park hotels, is to be kept open throughout the year, and there will be found all the comforts associated with first-class hotel service, including warm, cheery, public and private rooms and excellent cuisine. Two thousand feet above the level of the sea, Algonquin Park has ideal climatic conditions and is easily accessible, being about 200 miles north of Toronto, and 169 miles west of Ottawa. Every facility has been provided for winter sports, including skating, tobogganing, ski-ing and snow-shoeing. Copy of new publication, "Enjoy Winter in Ontario Highlands," may be obtained on request from Grand Trunk Agents, or from C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

WAIVERS ASKED FOR REDS

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 23.—President President August Herrmann, of the old champion Cincinnati Nationals, yesterday announced that waivers had been asked for and accepted on five members of the Reds. He would not divulge any names, but it is believed that outfielder Sherry Magee and See, and infielder Schreiber are slated to go. Infielder Jimmie Smith was claimed by the Giants.

SIR GUY FRANCIS LAKING DIED SATURDAY

London, Nov. 22.—Sir Guy Francis Laking, keeper of the King's armory in Windsor Castle, died to-night. He was born in 1875 and had written much on armouries and art objects of Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace.

SUFFERTD NEARLY HALF OF HER LIFE

MRS. SIMPSON TRIED TO FIND RELIEF FROM TROUBLE OF 25 YEARS STANDING.

"I spend about half of my life in a useless search for something that would relieve my stomach and at last found what I needed in Tanlac," said Mrs. Abigail Simpson, of 64 Uxbridge St., West Toronto, Ont.

"My appetite was poor," she continued, "and I just had to force down enough to keep going. Most everything disagreed with me and often the least little thing would upset me and I would be sick with nausea for a week at a time, too weak and lifeless to do a thing. My nerves were in such a bad condition that I could hardly sleep and I would get up in the morning feeling heavy and stupid. My liver was sluggish. This went on, in spite of all I could do, for twenty-five or thirty years and I lost all of thirty pounds in weight.

"Hearing so much about Tanlac I decided to try it and before I had finished my first bottle I felt greatly improved. I kept on taking Tanlac and soon my appetite was normal and I can enjoy my meals and never have nausea or any other trouble. My liver is active, that dull, sluggish feeling is gone, and I sleep like a baby and am getting back my strength and energy and am now able to do all my housework without getting the least bit tired.

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood, by G. Pringle and Son

FEDERAL BOARD OF PICTURES CENSORS

THIS IS RESOLUTION PASSED BY THEATRICAL EMPLOYES AND PICTURE OPERATORS

Montreal, Nov. 25. — Abolition of the various provincial boards of moving picture censors and their substitution by one Federal board is desired by the unions of district No. 11, of the Theatrical Stage Employes and Moving Picture Machine Oper-[illegible]tion yesterday, holding three sittings on Saturday and two on Sunday. It was the feeling that the present system of each province having its own board was not desirable, that it caused unnecessary expense and trouble. A committee was appointed to take the matter up with the Governments concerned.

It was estimated that there is $70,000,000 invested in the theatrical business in the province of Ontario, employing 10,000 people, who draw wages of $160,000 per week, or $10,400,000 a year. The industry, the convention claimed, is the most heavily taxed in Canada, and exception was taken to some of the forms of taxation, especially against the special Federal tax or 15 cents per reel per day.

Wm. P. Covert, of Toronto, was chosen as fifth international vice-president, which makes him president of the convention. The district secretary is charles O'Donnell, of Toronto. Dan Pierce, manager of the Star Theatre, Toronto, and grand president of the Theatrical Benevolent Association, addressed the convention, urging that the delegates do their utmost to establish lodges in their respective districts.

Advertisers' New Officers.

The Association of Canadian Advertisers, Inc., which has just terminated a most successful convention, has elected the following officers:

President, W. C. Betts, S. Davis & Sons, Ltd., Montreal; vice-president, O. Geo. Clark, McClary Mfg. Co., Ltd., London; treasurer, J. R. Kirkpatrick, E. W. Gillett Co., Ltd., Toronto; secretary, Miss Florence E. Clotworthy, 805 Kent Bldg., Toronto.

Directors—A. D. Gridland, the Canadian Kodak Company, Toronto; E. G. Hogarth, B.S.A. Ford Motor Co., of Canada, Windsor; F. W. Hunt, the Massey Harris Co., Toronto; F. W. Stewart, Cluett Peabody Co., Inc., Montreal; W. G. Steward, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., of Canada, Toronto; H. S. Van Scoyoc, Canada Cement Company, Montreal.

RED PAPER IN TROUBLE

One Thousand Copies. "La Feuille" Seized by French Police

Paris, Nov. 25.—One thousand copies of the newspaper La Feuille which is published in Geneva, and the circulation of which is forbidden in France because of its Bolsheviki tendencies, were seized by the police yesterday, according to the Presse de Paris. One of the articles printed in the newspaper stated there were signs that Premier Lloyd George, of Great Britain, was taking a more conciliatory attitude toward the Russian Soviet Government. It said an interallied conference would be held in London soon to study the Russian question, and expressed the opinion that peace between the allies and Bolsheviki Russia was not far distant.

A LIVING TREE

It has always seemed to me a sad sight—a Christmas tree, dead, cast off and lying out in the back yard, after all the happiness that has surrounded it, writes Prudence Bradish in the Chicago Daily News. It took so long to make it; even a very small Christmas tree is at least five years old. The one you had in your house last year may have been twenty years old. Every one of the hundreds of thousands of little balsams and other firs that serve this joyous purpose each year in the country, to say nothing of other lands, has been cut down at the root and never again will go on to deck the mountain side with forest beauty. Bare hillsides all over the country attest the thoughtless devastation for one day's festivity.

We are only just beginning in America to realize the importance of our trees; we desolate our mountain sides in our mad and suicidal rush to turn our resources into money. I have no doubt that droughts and floods all over the land have been aggravated by this one thing of cutting down the little conifers to serve a momentary purpose at Christmas time.

The use of trees and other greens for this festival comes down to us from a great antiquity. Long before the birth of Christ the peoples of northern Europe, especially the Germans and Scandinavians, used the holly tree, or "holy tree," and other kinds of evergreen, for decoration in connection with a festival held in the latter part of December. The great feast of Saturn in the Mediterranean countries was held in December, and the people decorated the temples with such green things as they could find. Some have held that the custom of lighting the trees with candles was originally intended to typify the turning of the sun back after the winter solstice, touching the tips of the evergreen boughs with promise of the life restoring spring.

However that may be, there is no meaning of Xmas, ancient or modern, that gains anything from the [illegible]. From any point of view it is a waste and a far better lesson for the children might be gained by the simple alternative of using a tree that is alive, making it by this festival as it were a member of the family, and continuing its life and usefulness thereafter; a constructive rather than a destructive thing, in connection with the celebration of the birth of Him who came to give life, to give it "more abundantly." I am speaking of it now, long enough in advance so that you can think about it, and think especially of how much more you can give of meaning to the festival, for the benefit of your own family, and who knows to how many more in the long years to come.

There came into my hands the other day a charming circular of a "forestry company" in Boston, under the caption, "Living Evergreens." The little girl who looked over it with me was delighted with the pictures of the little evergreens, and when she cried, "Oh, see all the little Christmas trees!.. there popped into my head the idea that I am trying to give you now:

"Why not use living trees for Christmas?"

Pines, junipers, arbor vitae, blue, white and Norway spruce and pines they were, of various sizes, in pots and tubs, and with balls of earth around their roots, and they can be shipped to all parts of the country, for use indoors or to be set out of doors.

A very good sized tree can be shipped by express planted in a tub used as a family Christmas tree, and then after suitable care during the winter, be set out permanently to continue its beneficent work. How much more the trees on your grounds would mean to you and your family if every one of a group of evergreens presented a happy Christmas! And even if you live in a rented house in the city, you can keep the Christmas tree alive all winter and then arrange with the park commissioner to set it out in the spring in one of the parks, where, as the years go on, it can be enjoyed by many others.

That is a fine custom, under way all over this country and in parts of Europe now, of planting "memorial trees" to perpetuate the memory of men who died in the war. It is giving to young and old a sense of personal interest in particular trees—almost of personality in each of them. Well, in the old old time there was, and in some parts of the world there still survives, a veritable worship of trees. Aristotle and Plutarch thought that trees had perceptions, passions and reason; there is an ancient story (the "Tale of the Two Brothers"), extant in Egypt not less than 3,000 years ago, in which a man leaves his heart in the top of an acacia blossom and falls dead when the tree is cut down. Still persists in various parts of the world the custom of associating the life of a new born child with that of a newly planted tree, and very widespread are customs connected with the planting of new trees and the new idea that personal welfare is bound up in some mystic way with that of the growing tree. You may find, if you take the pains to look for it, an abundant literature on this subject, full of interest and perhaps astonishment. You might start by reading in the "Encyclopaedia Britannica," the article on "Tree Worship."

Anyway, regardless of any peculiar ideas and superstitions which are or have been prevalent among men, the fact remains that any contribution to the thought of people of our day and country, especially children, tending to increase their realization of the importance of conserving forest life, is of great value to this and succeeding generations. The suggestion that this year in your own home you use as a Christmas tree a little conifer alive to add its "personality" to your family happiness at the Christ festival, and then to go on living and giving pleasure and benefit to folks in the years to come, is perfectly practical and along lines of the best thought and public spirit of our day.

It is none too soon to think about and plan for it.

ARE THE DAYS OF MIRACLES OVER?

IS SUPERSTITION AND FALSE BELIEF TO OVERSHADOW FACTS ANY LONGER?

When a woman who has been sick for years becomes well after taking a certain scientific preparation—can you deny that the remedy must be good?

Read these extracts taken from a letter written to us by Mrs. H. Cross, of 362 King Street West, Toronto:—

"I suffered for several years with inflammatory Rheumatism and could hardly get up or down stairs. My husband bought me a box of Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules, and almost immediately I felt relief. The swellings started to go down and the stiffness left my knees. I might say that previously to using T.R.C.'s I had tried almost everything under the sun without success. I am a happier and wiser woman now, and I cannot thank you enough for the aid T.R.C.'s have given me."

It's the same story from hundreds of other Rheumatic sufferers. They tried T.R.C.'s and T.R.C.'s fixed them up. If you suffer, try them.

Ask your Druggist or write us for our new booklet; it is interesting and costs you nothing (Templetons, 142 King West, Toronto). We mail T.R.C.'s anywhere on receipt of $1.04.

Sole Agents for Peterboro, Mcdermid & Jury, Prescription Specialists, for Lakefield, Tanner Drug Co.; for Havelock, A. D. Denike; for Hastings, T. A. Coughlan, for Campbellford, J. W. Cairns

NEW JAP AMBASSADOR FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Tokio, Nov. 23.—Viscount Uchida, the foreign Minister will be appointed Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain, and H. Ijuin, at present Ambassador to Italy, will take the portfolio of Foreign Affairs, according to a statement made by the Yomsuri in an extra edition today.

MEXICAN WOMEN BREAK A STRIKE

THREATEN TO DO MEN'S WORK AND PREVENT LABOR UPHEAVAL

Mexico City, Nov. 25.—The women of Cocolapam, State of Vera Cruz, recently broke up an incipient strike of men workers in that manufacturing city by announcing they would take up the tasks left by the men and under the protection of federal troops they kept open all factories until the men saw their mistake and were willing to call it no strike.

When the women were apprised of the walkout they gathered in the public square and with shouts of "Down with the agitators!" and "The women will give an example to the men!" took their places in the factories.

LEAVING FOR OVERSEAS

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—Four Canadian trade commissioners who have been visiting Canada, are leaving for their respective countries within the next week. They are: D. H. Ross, Melbourne, sailing from Vancouver for Australia, Nov. 24; W. A. Beddoe, Auckland, sailing from Vancouver for New Zealand, Nov. 24; W. J. Egan, Cape Town, leaving for South Africa by way of England, Nov. 25, and Harrison Watson, London, sails from Quebec Nov. 25.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — This Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it."—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

Tobacco Habit Dangerous

[illegible] formerly of Johns Hopkins [illegible] Thousands of men [illegible] would be in perfect health [illegible] were it not for the [illegible] Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit [illegible] Just go to any up to date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets, take them as directed, and lo! the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets, you will be surprised at the result (6)

LET THE GOVERNMENT BUILD HOUSES FOR WORKMEN WRITES CORRESPONDENT

To the Editor Review:

Dear Sir,—I was very much interested in your report of the public meeting held by the Housing Committee on Friday evening last, and especially in Mr. F. H. Dobbin's explanation of the scheme. But there appeared to me to be several serious ommissions in the cost of acquiring a home as outlined by Mr. Dobbin.

Received in the light of the experience of most of us who have purchased homes, Mr. Dobbin has not allowed anything for the $300.00 paid for the lot or the interest it would have earned, nor for insurance, nor for sidewalk, sewer and garbage, etc., and nothing for repairs beyond twice painting the outside.

Mr. Dobbin's estimated cost is as follows:

Payments of $20.00 per month for 20 years	$4800 00
Taxes at 30 mills on an assessment of $2,000, $60.00 per year for 20 years	1200 00
Painting house outside twice at $70.00	140 00
Amount paid by purchaser	$6140 00
Amount purchaser would have paid as rent at $18 per month for 20 years, $216.00 a year	4300 00
Net cost to purchaser for home	$1840 00

Is not the following estimate nearer the mark and indeed a very conservative one:

$20.00 per month for 20 years	$4800 00
Taxes on assessment of $2,400 at 30 mills for 20 years, $72.00 per year	1440 00
Sidewalk sewer and garbage tax at $4.50 per year for 20 years	90 00
Insurance on $3,000 for 20 years at $9.00 per year	180 00
Investment in lot	300 00
Interest on $300.00 invested in lot at 6 per cent. for 20 years	360 00
Compound bank interest at 3 per cent. on interest for 20 years from lot investments	54 00
Painting outside twice at $70.00 each	140 00
1 new furnace in from 10 to 15 years	150 00
Painting and decorating interior 3 times in the 20 years at $75.00	225 00
Incidental repairs for 20 years, $5.00 per year	100 00
Amount paid by purchaser	[illegible]
Amount purchaser would have paid as rent at $18 per month, 20 years	4300 00
Net cost to purchaser for home	$3539 00

By this we find that a man who buys his home under the scheme as outlined would own a home which cost in first place $3,300.00. He has paid for same over and above his rental of $18.00 per month the sum of $3,339.00, he has a house 20 years old with shingles, etc., in need of renewal, and with, in all probability, a difference in value owing to an increase of the purchasing power of the dollar of from 30 to 50 per cent. Or in other words what he has paid, $3,539.00, for will be worth probably $2,400.00 or $2,500.00, or even less.

I do not wish for one moment to put anything in the way of a sound housing scheme for Peterborough, for houses are sorely needed but I do not think it fair to ask the working classes to shoulder a burden and responsibility that capitalists have stepped from under. If it were possible to build under present conditions without risk of serious loss the money now lying in the banks would be used in building houses. But those who are experienced in these things know perfectly well that if they build now they stand to lose heavily and are wise enough to keep out.

Anyhow, I believe a man who takes up this proposition should know just where he stands. What then are we to do for houses? The need is great and lest it be said that I seek to destroy a scheme and have nothing better to offer, I would suggest that the Government raise a fund by a tax on war-time and war-made fortunes, build homes and sell them to returned men at PRE-WAR VALUES. The returned man would have justice, the profiteer would also have justice done him, and the housing problem would be at least partially solved.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully,

GEO. LEADER.

OFFICER SUICIDED

London, Nov. 23.—Suicide with no evidence to indicate the state of mind of the deceased, was the verdict on Captain William Herbert Dowler, of the Canadian Medical Corps, found dead behind a hay rack in Surrey. The deceased was 38 years of age, and belonged to Southern Ontario. He was in straightened circumstances and very proud, having refused monetary assistance.

Many Belgian immigrants arrived on a C.P.R. steamer at Quebec.

Hon. Arthur Meighen will tour the West to tell of the work of the Union Government.

NP SOAP

The Leader of them all

DOMINION LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT,
SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS
INSURANCE
Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 172 HUNTER STREET

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

Bargain Annex
Registered

Wednesday, November 26th, 1919

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY

HAIR DRESSING AND MANICURING PARLORS, Second Floor

UNCOMMONLY GOOD VALUES FOR THIS ANNEX SALE

LEADER.

200 Boxes of Christmas Gifts Stationery 49c Box

These are large sized boxes with a floral covering; you have the choice of two designs. Each box contains two quires of good quality linen finish paper and forty-eight envelopes to match; empress or wallet style. Boxed Stationery is one of the most acceptable gifts for ladies' misses and girls. Regular 85c value ...... Annex Leader 49c

If desired we will pack each box in a brown carton to prevent breakage.

LEADER.

Second Annex Sale of 35c & 50c Art Draperies and Sateens 27c yard

Never a day goes by but that some one comes in for Art Sateen, Silkoline or Art Cretonne. If they come to the Annex to-morrow, they will be able to partake of an excellent value. There is a good selection of light, medium, and dark colorings, in floral and conventional designs. Also a yard wide Marquisette that is not mentioned above .... Leader price, yard 27c

Buying for less and selling for less has been the Annex motto for nearly fourteen years and the ever increasing Annex patronage amply justifies this business principal. Our Annex buyer has just returned from an extensive buying trip in the interest of the Annex and reports exceptional success. Shop in the Annex every Wednesday and you will marvel at the low prices

LEADER.

Just Arrived—New Shipment of $1.10 Lounge Cushions, 79c

The coverings are art sateen and art cretonne, and are made with deep frills, and can be had in a variety of colorings and patterns. The regular price is $1.10. Leader price 79c

LEADER.

100 Pairs Ladies' Small Sized Boots Less Than Half Price $1.49 pair

These boots are splendid qualities, but they are broken lots from stocks of former seasons. There are a great variety of styles and leathers. Sizes 2, 2½, 3 and 3½. The regular prices were from $3 to $5, but to clear them out with a rush to-morrow .. Leader price, pair .. $1.49

EVERY DAY REQUIREMENTS AT ONE DAY PRICES

LEADER

$6.00, $6.50 and $7.00 Extra Large American Plaid Blankets, $4.39

These are the largest size blankets we have in the store. Every pair is at least 2¾ yards long and several pairs measure three yards. First buyers will find a splendid assortment of American plaid patterns in mostly blue and fawn coloring. Our every day prices are $6.00, $6.50 and $7.00. Leader price Pair $4.39

LEADER.

38c Yard Wide Stripe Flannelette 29c yard

You will approve of the quality and like the pretty stripe patterns. The width is a full yard wide and nowhere will you find such a value. Also an all white in a 30-inch width and with a soft combed finish. Both lines priced at ... Yard 29c

HALF-PRICE SALE of 20c BERLIN WOOLS, 10c Skein—Double Berlin is the ever popular knitting wool, and this lot offers you the choice of forty colors. Our every day price for months has been 20c a skein, and in many places the price has been 25c. Just half for Wednesday .... Skein 10c

NEW ANNEX SHIPMENT OF 75c EMBROIDERED RUNNERS, 49c—They are hemstitched and are 46 ins. long, and if sold in the regular way the price would be 75c. Annex Bargain 49c

SECOND ANNEX SALE OF 63c PILLOW COTTON, 46c Yard—An excellent quality full bleach Circular Pillow Cotton that is a special 63c quality. There are about 800 yards in the lot and the width is 42 inches. Annex price, yard.. 46c

SPLENDID SAVINGS ON THESE ANNEX LINES

Ladies' $2.00 White Flannelette Night Gowns $1.55

Boys' and Girls' Christmas Gift Books 23c

Men's 89c Worsted Heather Ribbed Hose 69c

"North Star" and "Crescent" 25c Cotton Batting 19c

Girls' and Boys' 49c Ribbed School Hose 39c

Children's $1.25 Worsted Knit Red Rompers 69c

Gift Stationery, quire boxes, 25c values .... 2 for 37c

"Bargain Annex" Toilet Paper .... 12 Rolls for 47c

"Lux" Washing Compound.. .... 3 for 29c

10c Laundry Soaps ... 8 for 69c

LADIES' OVERALL APRONS 63c—In return for your money they will give you a liberal amount of service, for they are made of strong, durable materials. The grounds are relieved by light and dark stripes. Annex Bargain 63c

THE USES OF A BIT OF SILK ARE LEGION AT THIS CHRISTMAS SEASON

Rush Annex Sale—About Three Hundred Yards of 75c and $1.00 Silks, 59c yard

This is, truly, an opportune time to present these Silks. They will make excellent coat linings, girls' dresses, and will lend themselves to many a piece of dainty fancy work. You have choice of messalines, tomolines and satins. A good assortment of colors. Reg. 75c and $1.00 values. Leader price, yard 59c

LEADER.

300 yards of Shantung Raw Silk at Half Price 37½c yard

It is a good quality silk and at this price we would have no trouble disposing of it to manufacturers. But we are retail merchants, and prefer to give our Annex customers the benefit. You will find it a most desirable quality. Leader price .... Yard 37½c

LEADER.

500 Pairs First Quality Guaranteed Rubbers, 79c pair

This is the greatest value Annex Rubber Sale of the season. Every pair is our first quality highest grade, and are fully guaranteed not to break at the toes, tear at the seams or crack at the soles. A size and a last to fit any shoe. A price remarkable for Wednesday. Leader, pair 79c

THE DECEMBER ANNEX SHIPMENT of JUVENILE SUIT CASES 39c—They are made of a good quality tan fibre and the size is 9 x 11½ inches; double fasteners and a strong handle. They are a great convenience for the school children. To-day's factory price for these suit cases is 45c. Annex price 39c

Store Opens 8:30 P.M.

The CRESSMAN Company Limited

Store Closes 8:30 A.M.

40 DOZEN DAINTY 25c CHRISTMAS GIFT HANDKERCHIEFS, 3 for 49c—The Annex Christmas Handkerchief Sales are a pronounced success. The values are truly extraordinary, and the selection of new dainty Handkerchief novelties is very extensive. For to-morrow's Annex Sale we have selected forty dozen of our regular 25c values in all-whites and dainty colored effects. Buy them, at least, by the half dozens ... ... Annex Bargain .... 3 for 49c

THEY WANT THE PLUM PLAN NOW

LABOR CONVENTION IN CHICAGO TALK NATIONALIZATION OF ALL RAILROADS

Chicago, Nov. 25.— Glenn E. Plumb Chicago lawyer, was enthusiastically received by the National Labor Party convention when he presented his plan for the nationalization of the railroads of the country. When he appeared on the platform several hundred delegates from railway labor organizations, marched about the hall shouting: "We want the Plumb plan now."

The first step in the adoption of his plan, Mr. Plumb declared, was "to change the faces of our representatives in Congress." His method of control, he said, would reduce freight rates 40 per cent, and thereby would help to reduce the high cost of living. The system was defined by him as a profit saving rather than a profit sharing plan. Increased wages, he added, did not benefit the wage earner if every raise resulted in higher prices for the necessities of life. He said that his plan was applicable to every public utility and to every other industry in the country, and that the states could apply it to the public utilities. It is expected that the convention will formally endorse the plan.

W. R. Trotter, provincial secretary of the Federal Labor Party of British Columbia, told of the general strike in Winnipeg and of the activity of Government agents in searching the homes of workmen for incriminating literature and other evidence.

"In Canada at a meeting of this kind we always address the audience as: "Honest men and stool pigeons," he said. "In our country we are still looking wide-eyed but in vain for that democracy which was promised us after the war. The time is here for political mass action at the polls. The old political parties have failed us. Labor has the productive, economic and political power if it will only exercise it.."

FOUND GUILTY OF THEFT

Belleville, Nov. 23.—Jos. Thomas alias C. R. Brown of Toronto was yesterday before Judge Deroche here found guilty of robbing from the person of Tom Peap, a Chinaman in this city. Thomas in company with a companion named Tanner, at an early hour of the morning of the fifth inst., broke into the Royal Cafe here and robbed the Chinaman. Sentence was deferred until December fifth.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power,

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors With Nugent Drug Co.

THROWN OVERBOARD FROM U. S. TRANSPORT

JAPANESE STEAMER PICKS UP SOLDIER AT SEA—THRILLING STORY

Bermuda, B. W. I., Nov. 24.—A man who says he is John A. Ranger, of Lansing, Mich., was landed here today by the captain of a Japanese steamship. His story has a thrill not unlike one of Jack London's South Sea tales.

Ranger said he left Brest aboard the United States transport Kentucky Kentucky, and when five days out had an altercation with a negro. He said the negro knocked him down and that while unconscious he was thrown overboard.

By a strange freak of fortune he found a life belt within reach when he, drowning regained consciousness. He grabbed it and screamed for help, but the Kentucky steamed on her course. Fortune did not desert him, however, for following close on the transport steamed a Japanese vessel. The Japanese heard his cries and sent a lifeboat to his rescue.

Around his neck is a string with an identification tag attached. The tag reads "John A. Ranger, Twentieth Engineers, from Lansing, Mich.

The United States Consul here is investigating his case.

SOVIET PEACE TALK SET FOR DECEMBER

LETTS AND LITHUANIANS UNITE WITH ESTHONIANS IN A PLEA FOR PARLEY.

Dorpat, Nov. 24.—Letvia and Lithuania have decided definitely to join Esthonia in inviting the Russian bolsheviki to send a delegation to Dorpat to begin peace negotiations, it is announced. The invitation to the Soviet Government will specify December 1 as the date for the proposed conference, the announcement stated.

Hydro-radial by-laws were carried by large majorities in the Eastern Ontario municipalities voting on them on Saturday.

VOCATIONS FOR SOLDIERS

In a population of about nine thousand, the district of Nelson, B. C., has over [illegible] pensioners from the great war. To assist these and other veterans with information regarding opportunities for employment and vocational training, the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment has opened an office of the information and service branch manned by returned men.

Mining and lumbering being the chief industries, the majority of men placed through the employment office of the Department go into such work.

Many of the returned men are keen to take up mining engineering; and assaying has attracted a good number.

In both branches of industry there is evidence of a splendid spirit of co-operation between the heads of various concerns and those who are endeavouring to re-habilitate the returned man, though outside of these there is a very limited field.

The general manager of the Consolidated Mine and Smeltering Co. at Trail, W. Blaylock, has offered an open door to all returned men applying for mining opportunities, through the Nelson office of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.

At the present time a number of vocational students are taking advantage of the practical courses offered at Trail. Every opportunity is given the men to improve their positions and to obtain the utmost experience and information.

This plant has recently commenced the construction of a concentrator to handle low grade cores at a profit instead of these being discarded as in the past, which it is anticipated will provide work for a larger number of men in the future.

At present about 900 men are employed.

In lumbering much help is being offered to the returned men by the head forester of the Province who has placed many opportunities in side lines at the disposal of returned men.

Several men while taking practical work in local industries are helping their technical knowledge by means of correspondence courses. Among these Corporal ———, of Nelson, is making a good success.

A prisoner of war, this veteran received rough treatment at the hands of the Germans, having several ribs crushed and other injuries which affected his lungs. He was placed by the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment employment office with the power house at Bonnington Falls, a few miles below Nelson, and is supplementing the practical work there with a correspondence course in electrical engineering.

At Vernon many returned men are planning to take up farms in the beautiful Okanagon Valley, and a number are taking vocational courses in fruit farming and mixed farming under the vocational branch of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.

Thirty vocational students are at work in this district and from the employment office an average of sixteen men a week are placed in positions.

Bee-keeping courses have attracted a fair number. Others are taking motor mechanics, one learning cleaning and pressing trade, and one electrical engineering.

BAD SPRAINS OR MUSCLE STRAIN

Rub pain, ache, soreness and swelling right out with "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Rub it on a sprained ankle, wrist, shoulder, back or a sprain or strain anywhere, that's when you realize the magic in old honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" because the moment it is applied, out comes the pain, ache, soreness and swelling. It penetrates right into the injured muscles, nerves, ligaments, tendons and bones, and relief comes instantly. It not merely kills pain, but soothes and heals the injury so a quick recovery is effected.

Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment" right now at any drug store and stop suffering. Nothing else sets things straight so quickly—so thoroughly. It is the only application to rub on a bad sprain, strain, bruise or swelling.

YOUNG CHILD DIED AFTER VACCINATED

TORONTO MEDICAL OFFICER WILL INVESTIGATE ALL SUCH CASES

Toronto, Nov. 25.—"A thorough investigation is to be made into the death of every child who has been vacinated."

This statement was made by Dr. Hastings, local Medical Health Officer, bearing on the case of Alfred George, the six-year-old Assyrian boy who lives on Queen street east, and who died at St. Michael's Hospital after being vaccinated.

"I have issued a requisition that in the case of every child dying, no matter what the cause of death is, a thorough investigation be made to ascertain what is the actual reason for demise," said the doctor. "It must be borne in mind that vaccination does not guarantee that the person will not die, but we can, with a very reasonable degree of assurance guarantee that individuals will not die as the result of vaccination.

"This is the first case of its kind in the 200,000 vaccinations carried out, and the evidence thus far does not point in the slightest degree to vaccination as the cause of death. The child developed an acute pura hemorrhagic condition. There are a number of causes for that, and cases of the kind develop off and on all the time. The cause can be located in some of the cases, and in others you cannot locate it.

"The vaccination wound of the child was in a perfectly healthy condition, and therefore it apparently had no connection with the child's death. However, I am going to have all the facts of the case presented."

John Swartz of Springfield, near London, Ont., was fatally hurt in a in a motoring accident, near Jaffa.

The English Y. M. C. A. is facing a deficit of $700,000.

H. P. Lindsay, Agency Company

392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)

Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

HOUSES TO RENT
For $6.00 to $7.50
FOR SALE
165 Acres. 65 Acres under Cultivation, balance in good Timber, for $1800
Farms from $2000 to $17,000

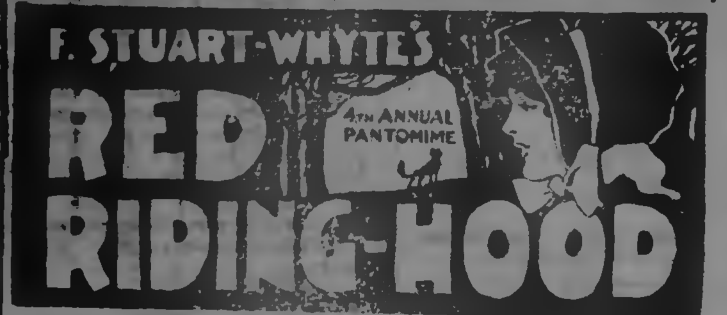
PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

Victory Bonds Bought

Those who may desire to sell Victory Bonds should come to my office or communicate with me. I buy Victory or War Bonds of all maturities, in any amount, and I am prepared to pay the best price.

W. H. Taylor, 144 Hunter St.
Peterboro, Ont.

GRAND
To-day and Wednesday TWICE DAILY
THE MOST PRONOUNCED SUCCESS PETERBORO HAS SEEN IN YEARS!
THE SUBLIME CREATION OF THE MASTER ARTIST OF THE SCREEN
D. W. Griffith's
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
ALBERT VIERRA'S
ROYAL HAWAIIN SINGERS AND PLAYERS
Presenting
"A NIGHT IN HAWAII"
Presentation On An Elaborate Scale With The Original Musical Score
AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA
PRICES Eve. 25c-35c-50c. Mat. 25c
COMING 2 DAYS ONLY
MONDAY, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1-2 MATINEE TUESDAY



JUST ONE BETTER THAN "ALADDIN"
PRICES EVENINGS $1.50-$1-75c-50
MATINEE TUESDAY $1-75c-50c-25c
Seats on Sale Friday

THEATRICAL

THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN TOWN

Now in its tenth years of popularity, "The Rocky Road to Dublin," with Barney Gilmore as the star, comes to the Grand, on Saturday, matinee and evening. This play, written by Daniel Hart of Scranton, will live forever and in the hands of such an admirable actor as Mr. Gilmore, will continue to please capacity audiences for many years to come. Miss Hellen Evily is the leading lady. This little lady has world renown by her great work with the Irish players that toured America several seasons ago. The supporting company is one of excellence.

SURPRISE PARTY BOYS AND GIRLS

JUST SEE THE CHILDREN GUESTS CHAPERONED BY THE QUEEN OF FAIRIES

Mr. F. Stuart-Whyte is giving a surprise party to all the boys and girls in this city, between the ages of six and sixty, at the Grand on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 1 and 2, matinee Tuesday. The party will be given in honor of Little Red Riding Hood and her party of friends, who are now making a tour of Canada, which is second in importance only to that of the Prince of Wales.

Numbered among Little Red Riding Hood's guests are Little Boy Blue, Little Bo Peep, Little Jack Horner, Little Tommy Tucker, Jack and Jill, Margery Daw, Peter Piper, Old Mother Hubbard and her Dog, Old King Cole and a host of others, all chaperoned by the Queen of the Fairys.

Locked up tight so that he may not betray any other good little girl, is the Wolf, carefully guarded by Granny, who is all well again and enjoying the trip as much as any of the boys and girls.

Mr. Whyte, who is personally conducting this tour, has brought all of the wonderful scenery and beautiful castles direct from Fairy Land so that Red Riding Hood and her companions may always be at home no matter where they go. Some of the familiar scenes which he has brought along are the Spreading Chestnut Tree, Mother Hubbard's Cupboard, the Enchanted Forest, which turns from autumn to winter in less time than it takes to say Jack Robinson, Lovers' Lane, Granny's Bedchamber, the Palace of the King of Hearts and a dozen others, all as interesting and beautiful.

LAKE CARRIER GROUNDED

Ashore on Cedar Point Reef in Upper St. Mary's River

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 27.—The Big carried Kotcher, downbound for Lake Erie points, is firmly grounded on Cedar Point reef, in upper St. Mary's River, where she struck early today during a blinding snow storm.

Tugs have been sent to her assistance. It is not known whether it will be necessary to jettison cargo before she can be released.

An advance in the price of milk on December 1st. is regarded as inevitable.

WORLD-WIDE INFLUENCE

Did you ever stop to think that the ordinary newspaper is the greatest traveller in the world. Leaving its home office there is no limit as to its ultimate destination; for many papers through transmission by friends to friends finally land in the most out-of-the-way localities. The newspaper is a connecting link between peoples in the four corners of the earth, and oftentimes influences the career of individuals. For instance, Mr J. A. McKone, principal of Peterborough Business College, the other day received a communication from a young man at Kano Station, Nigeria Railway, British West Africa, 50 miles south of the great Sahara Desert. His correspondent entertains the notion of coming to Canada, and getting a paper containing Mr. McKone's advertisement, decided that Peterborough would be a desirable place to locate it, offering good business education advantages. He accordingly wrote for terms. This newspaper in question most likely will be the means of bringing another settler for Peterborough, and another student to Peterborough Business College from a spot in this world the advertisement was not calculated to reach in any event. All of which goes to demonstrate the world-wide value of a daily or weekly newspaper as an advertising medium.

MR. WM. JESSOP

(Contnued From Page 1)

lipoli expedition was a failure because it kept a large portion of the flower of the Turkish army occupied and prevented a strong attack on the Suez Canal and Egypt.

Allenby's Expedition

Then Mr. Jesson went on to tell of the great expedition or crusade of the forces under the great soldier General Allenby. This great general attributed his success to three things, the tenacity of his troops, the excellent staff work and the Y.M.C.A.

He told of how the country to whom we owe our religion and our civilization is calling for some of that that they gave to us in the form of the Y.M.C.A., that they saw did so much for the allied forces. He appeals to this country that has grown rich through the war to sacrifice a little for the sake of those countries that have suffered so much.

COUNTY COUNCIL NOW IN SESSION

BYLAW FOR $14,000 FOR BRIDGES READ A THIRD TIME

The regular meeting of the County Council opened this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock with Warden McIntosh in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

On motion of Messrs Holland and Darling the bylaw authorizing the borrowing of $14,000 for county bridges was read the third time and the clerk was authorized to have it duly registered and signed.

A letter was read from Victoria County requesting a settlement to be made in connection with the upkeep of the bridge crossing the river at Kinmount. It was suggested that each county appoint a commission to look into the matter and arrive at some satisfactory conclusion to avoid the necessity of arbitration.

At the time of going to press the councillors were discussing the matter of selling debentures now or waiting until the New Year for a better price.

Premier Drury denied the rumor that Mr. G. W. Ecclestone, member-elect for Bracebridge, had been asked to resign to make room for Hon. Manning Doherty.

DRANK OVER SIX BOTTLES OF ALE

WAS FOUND DRUNK AND FINED $10 AND $4:10 COSTS

Is 2 per cent. drink intoxicating? One man in Police Court this morning swore emphatically that he drank nothing but prohibition ale, but Magistrate Dumble fined him $14 10 for being drunk.

The circumstances, however, were rather extraordinary as the accused admitted having consumed 6 bottles as well as a number of glasses of the ale. He was caught with two more bottles, which he evidently intended to drink had they not been taken away from him unconsiderously by the police.

The story as told in Police Court this morning revealed the fact that the accused had made a nuisance of himself while being under the influence of liquor. He, according to one witness, had gone to a house on Waterford street where a party was being held and demanded admittance. He got inside the house and refused to leave and a fight ensued during the process of which the accused bit the leg of the witness.

P. C. Thomas swore that he, accompanied by P. C. Wigg, had been summoned to Waterford street and had there found the accused with two bottles of ale in a drunken condition. They had to help him to the police station whereupon he offered to lick the whole police force. The challenge was not accepted.

The prisoner entered the box and swore he was not drunk last night. He had drank 6 bottles of ale, he said, obtained at the American Hotel, and had gone to that house for the sole purpose of calling on an acquaintance whose name he did not know. He had offered to leave the house but before he could voluntarily leave he had been thrown out.

HERMANN RANEY BURIED TO DAY

DEATH DUE TO EXCITEMENT AT HONOUR CONFERRED ON HIS SON

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 25.—To excitement at the honor of the elevation of his son to the post of Attorney-General of this Province of Ontario, is attributed the death of Hermann Raney, aged 84, father of the Hon. W. E. Raney, who was recently appointed to that important position in the Drury Provincial Cabinet.

Interment Today.

The remains of Mr. Raney are being interred today in the little village of Aultsville, in Dundas county. He died in Rochester last Sunday night, at the home of his daughter's.

The late Mr. Raney was one of the United Empire Loyalist stock, and farmed in Dundas county for many years. Hon. W. E. Raney, Rev. W. H. Raney, of Renfrew, Ont., who is another surviving son, and three sisters from Rochester are the chief mourners at the funeral today.

BEGINNING TOMORROW STRICT QNARINTINE

UNITED STATES TO RESTRICT TRAFFIC ACROSS THE DETROIT RIVER

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Detroit, Nov. 25.—In an effort to prevent the spread of small-pox, prevalent in certain interior Ontario cities, immigration authorities announced today that a strict quarantine will be enforced, beginning tomorrow, on traffic across the Detroit River to this city.

According to plans announced by the United States Public Health Service directing this quarantine, only such persons as can show recent vaccination certificates or proof of residence in nearby boarder cities, will be permitted to land on this side of the river.

OBITUARY

MRS. WILLIAM DINEEN

Just at the hour of twilight last evening a home was plunged in the shadows of grief, when the Angel of Death called a loved one out to the Great Beyond in the person of Mrs William Dineen, 248 Charlotte street, city. Deceased, whose maiden name was Catherine Morrissey, was born in Wexford, Ireland, 73 years ago. Coming to this country as a child, her parents settled in Streetsville, Ont. and with this little town west of Toronto, is connected all the associations of her youthful days.

United in marriage to William Dineen of this city at the age of 22, she resided in Peterborough for some years, later moving to Havelock where the couple entered public life as proprietors of the hotel well known as the Dineen House. Gifted with all the charming affability and warm heartedness of the ideal hostess, as well as the sterling qualities of a character that can make and keep friends, she was loved and esteemed not only by the citizens of this vicinity but by all who came in contact with her genial personality. Hers was a soul of generous ideals—a nature true and loving as it was cheerful. Ever remembering to extend the warm hand-clasp that cheered the lonely and the sunny smile that eased those in sadness, she will not soon be forgotten by her large circle of friends.

Deceased, who was noted for her devout life, was a faithful member of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" Church, Havelock, where she donated among other gifts, a statue and window of exquisite beauty. Afflicted with an illness 14 years ago which subsequently developed into complete disability, she received at the hands of her adopted niece, Miss Mary Dineen and now her inconsolable mourner, all the attentive care that only an affectionate heart can give.

Mr and Mrs. Dineen, with their niece Miss Mary, retired from public life and took up residence in this city two years ago, where the deceased was attended by the late Dr. McGrath.

Apparently in her usual condition of health until a week ago when she was taken ill with pneumonia to which she finally succumbed.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband and niece to whom the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community is extended in their hour of trial, three sisters, Misses Anna and Johanna Morrissey, of Streetsville, Ont., and Mrs. Richard Dineen, this city, also one brother, Mr. James Morrissey, of Streetsville. Mr. T. J. Dineen, of Toronto, is a nephew. Mrs. McDonald, this city, is a niece. Other relatives in the city are Mrs. John Lane, sister-in-law; Mr. Thomas Lane, nephew; Messrs. Timothy and Joseph Dineen, nephews, and Mrs. Thomas Sweeney, Toronto, is a niece.

The funeral will take place from her late residence, 248 Charlotte street, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, to St. Peter's Cathedral, and St. Peter's cemetery for interment.

SMALLPOX RAGING

FORTY NEW CASES IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS REPORTED IN TORONTO

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Forty new cases of smallpox were reported here during the past twenty-four hours, bringing the number now under treatment here up to 661.

Eighteen hundred and sixty-two persons are quarantined as a result. Thirty-eight cases were discharged today.

EMPIRE THEATRE
MONDAY — TUESDAY — WEDNESDAY
ANITA STEWART
—IN—
"The Painted World"
Back of the stage — in that region known to the players as "back stage" — the painted smile of the clown hides many a line of worry. The dazzling jacket of the Burlesque Queen hides, perhaps, a broken heart. The mother of Yvette wanted to keep her from entering this "painted world." Did she succeed?
WM. DESMOND
—IN—
"Beyond the Shadows"
A great human story of a man's "man" in the far north—in that great open country where in order for a man to succeed he has to have the makings in him.
COMEDY ::—:: EDUCATIONAL
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

BIG STEEL STRIKE ENDS IN FAI

MAJORITY OF MEN RETURN TO WORK — RADICALISM KILLED STRIKE

Pittsburg, Nov. 25.—The steel strike which began two months ago yesterday has failed. Of the 228,430 mill-workers employed in this district, America's steel centre, 162,373 either responded to the strike call on September 22 or were forced into idleness by the shut-downs. Of this latter number 109,455 are back at work. The steel companies are operating under the handicap of breaking in many new men, but each passing day sees improved conditions in this respect.

Reports indicate there would be [illegible] 100 per cent. operation of steel plants throughout the Pittsburg district if the coal miners had not struck just when the steel plants had reached the final stage of recovery from their own walk-out.

In Wheeling, W. Va., the only place in the Pittsburg district where steel mills are still completely idle, strikers have voted to return to work, but the large steel companies own and operate their own coal mines, and resumption of the mills will have to wait until the coal strike has ended.

In other regions, especially in Shenango Valley, curtailment of steel production will have to be resorted to within ten days unless the miners go back to work.

UNITED STATES TO HELP THE BRITISH

TO POSTPONE FOR THREE YEARS PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON BORROWED MONEY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 25.—A plan is under discussion by the British and American Governments under which the payment of interest advanced by Great Britain and the United States to the Allies in the course of the war, and also on advances by the United States to Great Britain, would be postponed for three years, it was announced in the House of Commons today by Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer.

ASKED TO GO TO JAIL

Old Man of Artistic Nature Seeks Home For the Winter

At Police Court this morning Henry Hill, old and infirm, requested to be sent to jail for four months. He was charged with vagrancy and his request granted. He produced, for inspection, a sample of designing which he carries with him. It is an excellent piece of workmanship and an artistic design. It appears, however, that he has failed to take good advantage of his natural gift, and spends each winter in the county jail as a home of refuge. In presenting the case, Chief Thompson informed the magistrate that Hill wanted six months in jail. "No, no," exclaimed the old man; "you spoiled my summer last time; make it four months." As it made no particular difference to the Crown his wish was granted.

Barbadoes, Nov. 19.—The British schooner Gladys Moshier on her arrival here to-day from St. John's Newfoundland, brought the Captain and crew of five of the small British schooner John R. Bradley, sunk in a storm on Nov. 2 while bound from Sydney for Newoundland. The men are well.

COAL
—AND—
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-562

Canada Food Board License No. 8-680
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 985

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

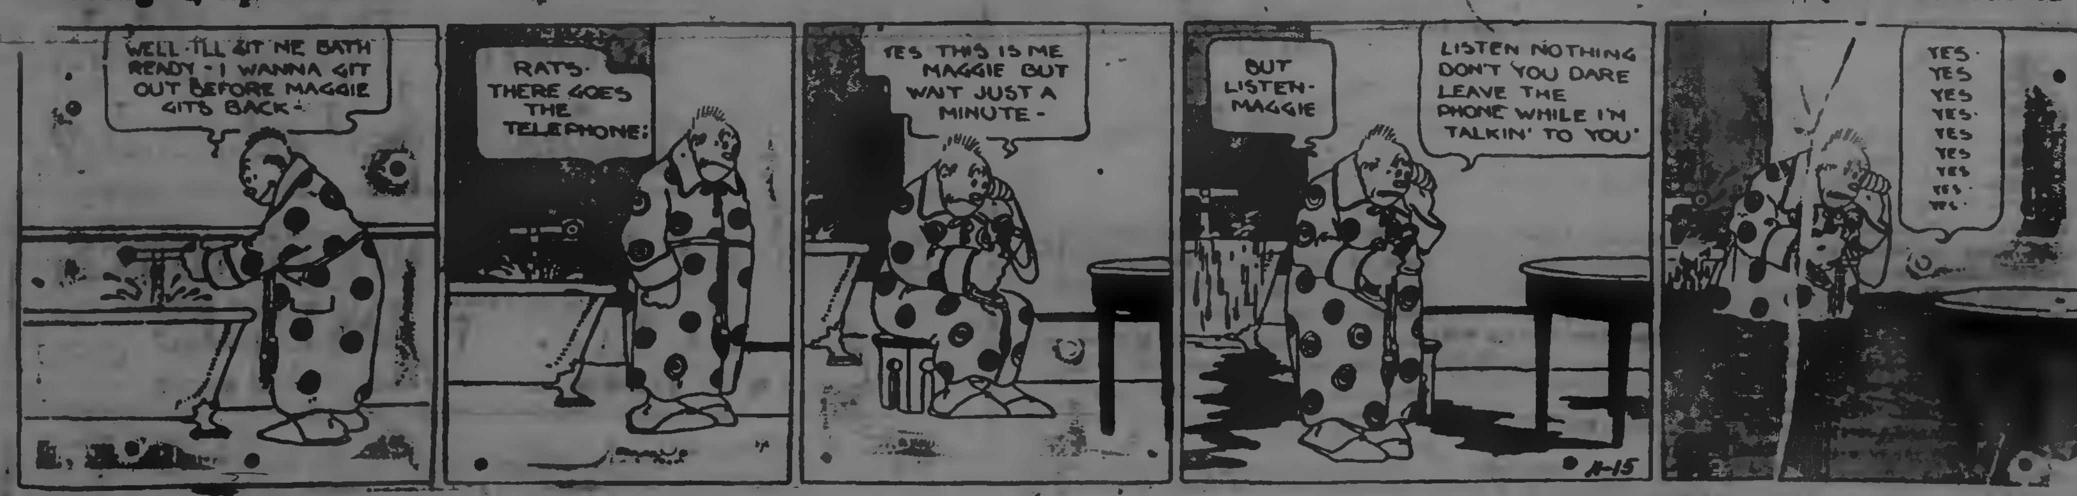
MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY and WEDNESDAY
FAST HORSES
FAST SOCIETY
AND A THOROUGHBRED HERO,
THAT'S
TOM MOORE
In The Famous Play of Sporting Life
"LORD AND LADY ALGY"
EXTRA ATTRACTION
MONTGOMERY FLAGG'S Satirical Comedy in Two Acts
"THE LAST BOTTLE"

A few of the Beauties in Stuart-Whyte's English Production, "Little Red Riding Hood," at the Grand 2 days, commencing Monday, Dec. 1.

"THIS IS the LIFE"

Bringing up Father By George McManus



WELL I'LL GIT ME BATH READY - I WANNA GIT OUT BEFORE MAGGIE GITS BACK -
RATS - THERE GOES THE TELEPHONE!
YES THIS IS ME MAGGIE BUT WAIT JUST A MINUTE -
BUT LISTEN - MAGGIE
LISTEN NOTHING DON'T YOU DARE LEAVE THE PHONE WHILE I'M TALKIN' TO YOU'
YES YES YES YES YES YES YES YES WE
8-15

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

NEW TRAIN SERVICE BETWEEN TORONTO, WINDSOR AND DETROIT

VIA HAMILTON, LONDON AND CHATHAM.

Grand Trunk night trains between Toronto and Detroit are now operating DAILY via Windsor and Chatham as under:

Read Down.			Read Up.
*11.45 p.m.	Leave—Toronto	—Arrive	† 8.45 a.m.	§8.55 a.m.
* 1.15 a.m.	Leave—Hamilton	—Arrive	† 7.18 a.m.	§7.40 a.m.
* 2.10 a.m.	Leave—Brantford	—Arrive	† 6.25 a.m.	§6.52 a.m.
* 3.27 a.m.	Arrive—London	—Leave	† 4.50 a.m.	§5.25 a.m.
* 5.45 a.m.	Arrive—Chatham	—Leave	* 2.40 a.m.
* 7.00 a.m.	Arrive—Windsor	—Leave (E.T.)	* 1.30 a.m.
* 6.45 a.m.	Arrive—Detroit	—Leave (C.T.)	*11.45 p.m.

Pullman, drawing-room, sleeping cars and coaches between Toronto and Windsor and between Toronto and Detroit, ready for reception of passengers at Detroit at 9.30 p.m. (Central Time), and at Windsor at 10.00 p.m. (Eastern Time).

* Daily. † Daily except Sunday. § Sunday only.

For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent, or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

GIBBONS AND O'DOWD FIGHT BLOODY BATTLE

CHAMPION MAY HAVE HAD SLIGHT EDGE ON OLDER OPPONENT

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24. — Although opinions of leading fight experts who attended the bout here last night between middleweight champion Mike O'Dowd and Mike Gibbons, varied somewhat regarding the outcome, their opinion seemed unanimous today that Gibbons has lost some of the ability which made him one of the cleverest fighters in his class a few years ago.

Most of the fans gave the ten-round slugging match to O'Dowd. These opinions varied from a shade to a fair margain. A few experts thought that Gibbons' flashes of cleverness when he baffled O'Dowd entitled him to a draw. Some of Gibbons' supporters admitted that he deliberately decided to forget his boxing skill and centre all of his energies into an effort to engage O'Dowd in a slugging match, and to put over his right cross for a knockout blow that would make him champion.

During a fierce exchange in the sixth round, when Gibbons was holding a slight lead, he hooked his right to O'Dowd's head. This blow injured his hand and O'Dowd appeared to gain an advantage from that time. In the eight round Gibbons again took a chance, used his right and injured it so badly that he found it almost useless thereafter.

Since Gibbons returned to the ring several months ago, after months of service as a cantonment boxing instructor, it has been noticeable that he lost some of his old-time speed. On the other hand, O'Dowd, who served in France, and who is only 24 years old, has shown improvement in every fight. Gibbons has passed his 32nd year and, being wealthy, has intimated that he may soon desert the ring.

PLAYERS "SCRAP" ENDED QUICKLY

AN OLD YARN TOLD OF FAMOUS GRIDIRON ARTISTS

Wade Killefer, manager of the Los Angeles team, was in a fanning bee recently when some one brought up the name of Bill Schaller. Then Killefer sprang a yarn about a fight between Truck Hannah and Biff at Salt Lake.

It seems that Schaller slid into home plate rather high, and Hannah resented it, claiming Biff attempted to spike him (

"Well, if ya t'ink dat way, settle it after the game at the club house," Schaller said to Hannah.

Truck laughed. He thought Biff was kidding.

Shortly after the game Schaller knocked on the Bee's clubhouse. His hands were all taped and his sleeves rolled up.

"You tape yourn if you want to," Schaller told Hannah.

Hannah, surprised, started to spar with Schaller. Finally he saw Biff was serious and he planted a well placed blow behind the ears.

"Stop it; I quit!" said Schaller taking off the tape. "I got enough of this fighting game!"

WAR DECLARED IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

COMISKEY FORCES CHARGE THAT JOHNSON IS ENDANGERING INTEGRITY OF GAME

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Open warfare between President Ban Johnson of the American league and the faction composed of Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago Club; Harry Frazee of Boston and Col. Jacob Ruppert of the New York club, flared up tonight when Comiskey issued a statement charging President Johnson with endangering the integrity of baseball.

"We have reached the conclusion," Comiskey said, "that Mr. Johnson is endangering not only the value of our properties but the integrity of baseball and we therefore intend to do everything possible to rid organized baseball of the impediment which we believe is now attached to it.

"Jacob Ruppert of New York, H. P. Frazee of Boston and James Dunn of Cleveland and myself are the present directors of the league. We are the owners of properties worth at least several million dollars. Mr. Johnson has no property interests in the American league or in any of the individual clubs constituting that league. It is fair to presume therefore that we are interested in preserving the integrity of the league if for no other reason than that we are interested in conserving the properties in which we are vitally interested."

Ban Not Anxious to Appear.

Comiskey said the board of directors had attempted to inquire into President Johnson's perpetual franchise to act as president of the league but that President Johnson at no time appeared before the directors.

The annual meeting of the league for which the board of directors issued a call to be held in New York December 10, was called, Comiskey said, "because Mr. Johnson had not seen fit to issue a call for the meeting."

THE MARKETS

(Special to The Review.,

Troonto, Nov. 25.— Receipts heavy trade slow, prices generally firm. Heavy beef steers, no sales. Choice butcher steer $12 to $13, medium butcher cows, $6.50 to $8.50, choice calves $16 to $18, ewes $7 to $9.25; lambs, $13.50 to $14; hogs F.A.W. selects, $16.75

GORDON KEATS IS RE-INSTATED

FORMER TORONTO PROFESSIONAL JOINS AMATEUR RANKS

Calgary, Nov. 25.—The governors of the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union at its most important and best represented meeting in the history of Alberta Saturday set an example to all other branches in an endeavor to elevate amateurism to its proper standard by granting cards on a wholesale scale. Altogether sixteen ex-pros. were returned to the Simon-Pure ranks, while three others were deferred as they failed to give a complete history of their professional career.

In handing out the reinstatements, the Alberta governors abided by the resolution adopted by the Dominion body at its Ottawa session, which enabled Alberta and other Western provinces to reinstate all athletes who made applications before January 1, 1920, and who took out the affidavit declaring they would remain an amateur hereafter.

There was no objection raised to any application, even to that of Mickey McKay, Barney Stanley, J. A. Barbour, ex-coast league stars, and Gordon Keats, of Toronto, and Harry Scott, of Montreal Canadiens, passing without comment.

A SUPERSTITIOUS BASEBALL PLAYER

The recent death of Cy Seymour at his home in the east removed one of the most superstitious players that ever broke into baseball. He was a believer in all sorts of mascots and hoodoos, but mostly in hoodoos, and was forever in quest of the jinx-chaser whenever anything went wrong.

Once while with the Cincinnati Reds Cy was in a batting slump and conceived the fanastic idea that his bat was peeved at him, that therefore it wouldn't hit.

He took the bat to the dining room that day and poured a drink of water over it, first putting two teaspoons of ice cream on it.

"Now," said he, "I've fed it and given it a drink and my bat should not be mad at me any more." Then he went out and made two two-baggers that afternoon, and was firmly convinced that he had appeased the angry swat-stick.

On another occasion he led a mass meeting of Cincinnati Reds who voted that their stockings were a hoodoo and appointed Cy a committee of one to go down town in Boston and buy white ones for the team.

PETERBOROUGH MARKETS

Veal, lb.	.22	to $	.25
Beef, lb.	16	to	.18
Chikens, lb.	.25	to	.25
Live hogs, cwt.	17.00	to	17.00
Dressed hogs, cwt.	27.00	to	27.00
Grain.
Flour, retail	6.00	to	6.00
Marquis wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Spring wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Fall wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Peas, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Oats, b.	90	to	1.00
Barley, b.	1.25	to	1.25
Flour, w.s., ½ bl.	5.67½	to	5.67½
Bran, short, ton	55.25	to	55.25
Bran, w.s., ton	45.25	to	45.25
Vegetables.
Beans, b.	4.00	to	4.50
Beets, pk.	.40	to	.40
New carrots, pk.	.25	to	.40
Potatoes, pk.	.40	to	.40
Onions, lb.	.10	to	.10
Fruit.
Apples, eating, pk.	.50	to	.75
Apples, cooking	.30	to	.60
Cabbage, each	.10	to	.15
Bananas, doz.	.50	to	.60
Oranges, doz.	.40	to	.70
Lemons, doz.	.50	to	.60
Pears, basket	1.00	to	1.25

MR. ARTHUR GRAHAM AT Y. M. C. A. MINSTRELS

Coming forth to shine in all his glory, comes one of Peterborough's star comedians, Mr. Arthur Graham, the fun-loving populace will have the delightful privilege of hearing this clever, witty gentleman bring forth from his superabundance of original humorous jokes and stories a combination such as was never brought forth before. In act II of the Y.M.C.A. Minstrels he will give a monologue which will agreeably surprise and delight the audience. Nuff said, everyone knows Art.

From beginning to end the minstrel show combines the funniest jokes, with the cleverest dancing to the most captivating music. Its value and appreciation has been greatly enhanced by the fact that the talent is entirely local. The audience will be delighted by singers, dancers and jesters, all of whom are known well. Peterborough has no need now or in future to look to outsiders for amusement while so many of its young people are capable of creating such a success as is this minstrel show.

The demand Monday for seats has exceeded all expectations. Get your tickets now. Don't wait for the well to go dry before you go there with your bucket.

SKIPS NAMED FOR CURLING CLUB

At a meeting of the Peterborough Curling Club Saturday evening, the following skips for the coming season were named:

A. W. Archibald, W. M. Lang, G. A. Benor, H. R. Martin, Ray P. Best, J. H. Metherel, Geo. B. Boucher, W. G. Morrow, E. L. Bowes, J. W. McDermid, W. H. Bradburn, W. J. Oke, Thos. Brightman, J. Skinner, W. D. Campbell, R. G. Sturgeon, J. H. Connal, W. J. Thompson, D. Davidson, R. M. Waddell, D. E. Eason, D. Wightman, J. H. Ferguson, P. D. Fitzgerald, H. F. Foote, Geo. H. Giroux, Robert Hicks, A. C. Kay, S. T. Medd, L. G. Dobbin, W. G. Menzies, G. B. Stevenson.

Angus McIntosh was re-engaged as caretaker of the rink, his duties to commence Monday next, after which the rink will be open every day.

BRINTON CARPET LOSE TO DE LAVAL

At the Water street alleys last night in the Business Men's 5-pin League the De Laval won two out of the three games from the Brinton Carpet. In the second game the De Laval rolled a nice game of 974 and the Brinton 894. The last game the Carpet bunch lead all the way. Jim Carroll, for the Carpet, rolled high with 560, rolling 220 and 215 single. For the De Laval, Lafove was high with 513. Scores:

De Laval.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Garrow	197	161	...	358
Murray	...	...	136	136
Gillespie	112	150	160	422
Lafave	157	213	143	513
McGee	109	245	121	475
Barrette	149	205	120	474
Totals	724	974	680	2378

Brinton Carpet.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Bourne	101	173	163	437
Leether	101	191	113	405
Carroll	125	220	215	560
Anderson	125	156	177	458
Arrowsmith	171	154	185	510
Totals	623	894	853	2370

Tonight—Lawn Bowlers vs. Pastimes.

The City Ten-pin League starts this week with six teams, Grocers, King Pins, De Laval, High Rollers, Quaker Oats, Business Men. The schedule for this week follows:

Wednesday, Nov. 26—De Laval vs. High Rollers.

Thursday, Nov. 27—King Pins vs. Grocers.

Friday, Nov. 28—Quaker Oats vs. Business Men

Little Chance for Confession.

"A good husband ought to tell his wife all his faults," explains the professional solver of domestic problems in a Milwaukee newspaper. A very original idea, but what is the prescribed method of conduct when she persists in telling about them first?

Mending Knives and Forks.

To mend a knife or steel fork which has come out of the handle, fill the hole with finely powdered resin and hold the rough end of the knife or fork in the fire until it becomes hot. Insert it in the powdered resin and hold it straight until firmly fixed.

Whose Matter With You, Man?

"Why won't I do?" demanded the lady of 300 pounds displacement, as she indignantly waved the want ad section in his face. "Didn't you advertise for a stout woman to do housework?"—Indianapolis Star.

Ain't It So?

"Speakin' of musical instruments," remarked the facetious feller, "there's no music as purty to the ears of a business man as hearin' 'Taps' played on his cash register."—Indianapolis Star.

New Screw Fastener.

An Australian inventor has patented a screw fastener for wool bale bands that enables the bales to be made tight and permits the use of narrow bands, thereby saving steel.

Knew Where It Would Land.

Lawyer—"Yes, sir! We can settle up this estate for you in about eight months." The Principal Heir—"But can you wait that long for the money?" —Judge.

Wisdom in Saving.

A man may, if he knows not how to save as he gets, keep his nose all his life to the grindstone and die not worth a groat at last.

Household Hint.

"Albert, I want you to see the new dining room set Mr. Brown has bought for his wife. It would just match our wall paper."

Abbreviating Names.

The pioneers give up beautiful names and the postal authorities abbreviate them.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Optimistic Thought.

A low station with safety is better than a high one with danger.

First Impressions.

Mrs. McPherson—Can ye lend me a bowl, Mrs. McNeish? I widna jist like our new lodger to take his parritch fra the pot for the first day or two.—Exchange.

Optimistic Thought.

Man is a social animal formed to please in society.

To Be of Influence.

If you can't swing things your way in life the sensible thing is to swing with things the way they are going. To be sure you can just abruptly cut away, but that leaves you out of touch with things. It may be a relief to your conscience to be beyond the reach of compromise. But you are also beyond the reach of influence. You can not hope to be able to mold character or even contribute anything toward bending it.

Use Life's Powers Properly.

There is no wealth but life; life, including all its powers of love, of joy and of admiration. That country is the richest which nourishes the greatest number of noble and happy human beings; that man is the richest who, having perfected the functions of his own life to the utmost; has also the widest helpful influence, both personal and by means of his possessions, over the lives of others.—Ruskin.

Opposed Brothers' Church.

There were three of the Wesleys, although only two of them had anything to do with founding the Methodist church. Sons of an English clergyman, and well educated, they were all pious men, but the older brother, Samuel, took no stock in "Methodism." In fact, he combated it, and wrote of it upon one occasion as "a spreading delusion."

Life Not All Chance.

Events are shapeless except as personality shapes them. Birth and death and changing fortunes are common to humanity, but what different individuals make of them is a forever varying story. We cannot know what experiences await us, but may know tolerably well, by what we are making of ourselves, how we shall pass through them.

Saved in Nick of Time.

Many wonderful bargains are recorded in connection with old books. The priceless Coverdale Bible in the British Museum library, for instance, was bought by an amateur book collector from a butcher who was delighted and astonished on being offered ten shillings for it. He was about to use its valuable leaves to wrap up his meat.

"Inventor" of Pork and Beans.

An eccentric Englishman, Daniel Day Good, is accredited with the invention of pork and beans. The first Friday in each July he would assemble a party of friends under an oak in the forest and feast them on bacon and beans. From this festival grew the popularity of the dish.

Concerning Names.

Said the observing cuss, "When an actress starts out to make a name for herself she has to think up a good one to start with before she makes it."

English Surgeon in Civil War.

Sir Charles Wyndham, the famous English actor, served as a surgeon in the American Civil war.

Optimistic Thought.

Many a one threatens while he quakes with fear.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 394

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates

$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.

$3 00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

LUMBER
Builders Materials of all kinds Shingles, Scantlings Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estate

Automobile
Skates

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

If, as the poet says, a room hung with pictures is a room hung with thoughts, what is a board fence hung with circus posters?

Private Christmas Cards

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

Barrie's
Peterboro.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT
(The House With Exclusive Styles.)

COATS

The woman who buys a BARRIE garment will find no humdrum reflection of current styles — it will be individual. Its smartness will be clearly apparent.

BARRIE BUILDING
312 George Street
Phone 340

GRINDING the LENSES
No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge
W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2341.

100 APRONS

There will be 100 fancy and kitchen Aprons on sale at the Murray street Bazaar Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church intend holding their sale of fancy work, aprons, dolls and home-made cooking at the home of Mrs. G. Walter Green, northeast corner of London and Water streets, Thursday November 27, afternoon and evening. There will be a tea room, and a fish pond for the children. A good musical program has been arranged. Don't miss this bazaar.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

DUFFUS GARAGE

Has warm, fireproof automobile storage at reasonable rates. A frozen motor will cost more than WARM winter storage.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Annie Scates spent the week-end visiting friends in Norwood.

Mr. Wm. Bingham of Belleville has been visiting friends in the city

Miss B. Coleman of Toronto has returned home after an extended visit with Peterborough friends.

Mr. Dan. Lawson, of Akron, Ohio, has returned home after visiting in Peterborough and vicinity.

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. M. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be or sale, and afternoon tea will be served.

Miss Harvey, Toronto, was a visitor to the city over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dunford, city, are visiting friends in Lakefield.

Miss Atwood, Lakefield, was a Peterborough visitor last week.

Miss Mona Fortier, of Lakefield, was a visitor to the city recently.

ANNUAL "AT HOME"

The Peterborough branch of the G.W.V.A. will hold their first annual "at home" at their club rooms, Murray street, on Tuesday evening, December 30th.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC 300 CHARLOTTE STREET PETERBOROUGH

Orangized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC DIRECTOR

Mr. W.O. Forsyth is one of the recently elected new directors of the Canadian Academy of Music, Toronto. He has a great fondness in his work for the Heintzman & Co. Piano made by Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, and has said of this instrument: "The tone of your Upright Pianos and of your Baby Grands is distinguished for its mellow, rich, even quality, and the touch is delightfully flexible and finely adjusted. These are features which particularly delight the artist, and when they are coupled with durability as to staying in tune, etc., as I have abundantly proven for myself, are commendable in the highest degree."

MAKE SURE YOU GET THE RIGHT KIND

We cannot impress too strongly upon the Canadian people that there is no Tablet just like Dr. Norvall's; there is no Tablet just as good as Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. There may be tablets that look like Norvall's; they may even taste like Norvall's, but do not be deceived—they will not have the same gentle laxative and tonic effect as Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. In a word, to relieve Constipation, Dyspepsia, Billousness and Sick Headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. For sale by all dealers.

NOTICE

A Special meeting of the Labourers' Union will be held on Thursday night at eight o'clock in the Labour Hall. Every member is requested to be present. Business important.

MEMORIAL SHIELD AT MURRAY ST.

UNVEILED LAST SUNDAY BY HIS HONOR JUDGE HUYCKE

The Murray Street Sunday School commemorated their fallen heroes last Sunday by unveiling a memorial shield containing the names of all their ex-pupils who fell in the great conflict. They are Arthur Lewis, George Collins, John Elian Norman Barrie, Joseph Horton and Harold Mathews.

His Honor Judge Huycke delivered a very emotional and eloquent address. He spoke of how the Sunday School taught the theories of Christ and how nobly these men had followed this teaching out by following their Christ to the cross even unto death. He spoke in glowing terms of the service of Canada on the field of battle, and the noble way they had stood and fallen for their principles, even against overwhelming odds.

Mr. Walter Batley, a returned soldier of the Sunday School, sang "The Victor's Crown."

FRANK OLDFIELD, FAMOUS BARITONE DELIGHTS BIG AUDIENCE LAST NIGHT

Wonderful Control of Powerful Voice Heard in Excellent Musical Program in Trinity Church Hall.

A large and critical audience were treated to one of the best musical entertainments heard in this city for a long time in the Reid Street Hall of the Trinity Methodist Church last evening. This excellent programme was sung by Mr. Frank Oldfield, the famous baritone singer, assisted by Mrs. G. H. King, and accompanied by Mr. King.

Mr. Oldfield came here with a continent-wide reputation as a singer and he lived up to and excelled even the hopes and expectations of his audience. He enjoys a very powerful baritone voice, but sweet and clear at all times. He sang songs of quiet but deep emotion, such as "Eileen", with arresting feeling and expression. His ennunciation was marvellous by clear and audible even at the lowest and faintest pitch demanded now and then by his numbers. If there is anything in which Mr. Oldfield excells it is his marvellous control of such a deep, rich, versatile voice.

And when he sang the more robust "Trumpeter," or "Float Song," his voice rang out with power and with volume that would fill the largest hall in the country, and yet even in that comparatively small room, it lost none of its clearness and sweetness. It is indeed wonderful the way this great baritone can modulate his naturally powerful voice.

Mr. Oldfield was capably assisted by Mrs. King, one of Peterborough's most popular singers, but who excelled herself last evening.

"Wasn't that cute?" was the comment of the ladies in the audience when Mrs. King had sung one of her humorous little encores. And when she took her place beside the stalwart Oldfield for their two duets, "Excelsior" and "The Spirit of the Wood," their voices blended perfectly.

This whole musical programme was a treat of a quality that it would be very difficult to excel, and anytime if Mr. Oldfield returns to this city, we feel sure he will find all those who heard him last night facing him again.

The Programme.

Baritone solo—"Lighterman Tom" (Squire)—Mr. Oldfield.

Soprano solo—"When the Heart is Young" (Buck)—Mrs. King.

Duett—"Excelsior" (Balfe)—Mrs. King and Mr. Oldfield.

Baritone solo—(a) "In an Old Fashion Town" (Squire), (b) "Eileen" (Spurr)—Mr. Oldfield.

Soprano Solo—(a) "Bon Jour, Ma Belle" (Guy Eden), (b) "Little French Baby" (Grant)—Mrs. King.

Duett—"The Spirit of the Wood" (Parker)—Mrs. King and Mr. Oldfield.

Baritone solo (by request)—(a) "The Trumpeter" (Dix), (b) "The Forial Dance" (Moss)—Mr. Oldfield.

Soprano solo—"Dream of Home" (from Il Bacio) (Arditi)—Mrs. King.

Baritone solo—"Captain Mac" (Sanderson)—Mr. Oldfield.

God Save the King.

SOCIAL EVENINGS TO BRING TEACHERS AND PARENTS IN TOUCH WITH EACH OTHER

Music, Elocution, Art Contest and a Charade Make For Pleasant Evening in Queen Mary School.

Music, elocution, an art contest and a charade, and a warm sociability among the guests, combined to make a most successful and enjoyable evening passed very quickly at Queen Mary School last Friday night, when the Home and School Association of the school were at home to the Home and School Club and teachers of King Edward School.

The guests of the evening were received and welcomed by Mrs. S. T. Medd, president of the association, after which a short programme, including pleasing recitations by Miss Muriel Harvey and Mr. J. J. Johns, delightful piano solos by Miss Caldwell, a well rendered vocal solo by Mr. [illegible] and an excellently acted and very amusing charade in four parts given by the teachers of the school, was very much enjoyed by those present who had previously become acquainted while solving the titles of famous pictures represented by articles displayed on two tables. Partners for this contest had been arranged by matching quotations which had previously been written out and handed to the guests. Mrs. Clarke and Mr. Mowat, Mrs. Sisson and Mr. Mattice, and Mrs. Allison and Mrs. McCannon were the winners of the different prizes.

After delicious refreshments had been served by the mothers of the association, the teachers having arranged the programme, the evening was brought to a close, those present all expressing their pleasure and hoping that these social evenings in the school might occur frequently, when parents and teachers might be brought together and become better acquainted.

8TH C.M.R. MEET

Owing to a little confusion the Peterborough Branch 8th C.M.R. were unable to use the armouries for their meeting last evening, but obtained permission to use the Veteran's Hall.

There were many new members attended the meeting and by the present outlook, the local branch are expected to become a very popular club in the city.

JOIN GREENE'S GRAFONOLA CLUB

Grafonola, Cabinet and 6 selections for only $49.90. $5.00 puts the outfit in your home for Christmas Move quick! Supply is limited. Greene Music Co., Charlotte street.

REDUCTION IN SERVICE.

The local Grand Trunk agents have received advice from the officers of the company that "owing to the critical condition of the coal supply, material reduction in passenger train service will be made Sunday, November 30, with definite announcement to be made Thursday next. If, however, there is an improvement in the coal conditions this will not be necessary."

TEMPLE BAND PRACTICE.

The Temple Band will meet tonight for practice at 8 o'clock. Every member is requested to attend.

MUST BE VACCINATED.

"Effective 7 a.m. Wednesday, November 26th: all passengers crossing border to United States points must produce recent vaccination certificate, and, if quarantined, must produce certificate showing release from such quarantine."

PATHETIC SCENE AT POLICE COURT

MAN WHO BROKE INTO STORE LET OFF ON SUSPENDED SENTENCE

A pathetic scene was witnessed at Police Court this morning. It was in the case of the man who broke into Sukloff's store a week ago and stole a pair of blankets. He was remanded for a week and has spent that time in jail.

His wife and two small daughters, one totally blind, were present, and all broke down at the family reunion. It was very sad to witness. Mr. Wearing, who appeared for the prisoner, pointed out that the accused had always before this act bore a good character and a clean sheet of behavior. He pointed out the tragedy of the case, how the innocent wife and children were forced to sueffr because the father yielded to temptation largely with the idea of helping his poor blind daughter, of whom he is very fond.

The Crown agreed with Mr. Wearing and did not urge any punishment. The magistrate admonished the man to be strong and withstand temptation, which he promised to do, and allowed him to go on suspended sentence.

AUTOMOBILES, TRUCKS, Etc.

McLaughlin Touring, 4 cyl.; $600 McLaughlin Touring, 6 cyl.; $250 Ford Touring; $600 Ton Truck, good order; $550 Ford Roadster, 1917, with starter DUFFUS GARAGE, Phone 1780.

NOTICE.

The executive of the G. W. V. A. will meet tonight at 8 o'clock sharp.

Revised and Lowered Prices Makes Many Bargains for Wednesday

A GREAT SALE OF WOMEN'S LOVELY NEW DRESSES

SOME LESS THAN HALF PRICE—SOME HALF PRICE AND OTHERS ALMOST HALF PRICE

15 High Class New York Dresses in this Sale Group—Regular Selling Prices Yesterday

$85.00, $75.00, $65.00, $60.00, $50.00, $45.00, and $42.50

all one price for a Big Wednesday Dress Bargain

$37.65

SEE LARGE WINDOW DISPLAY—Our values in Women's Dresses are fast becoming famous. This Wednesday, however, brings the biggest event yet. This sale group is made up of the following:

2 DRESSES REGULAR $85.00
In pink and peach fantastic crepe.

2 DRESSES REGULAR $75.00
In nigger brown and navy tricolette.

3 DRESSES REGULAR $65.00
In navy blue charmeuse and henna shade tricolette.

2 DRESSES REGULAR $60.00
In charmeuse satin, and taffeta silk, and figured georgette combination, in navy blue.

2 DRESSES REGULAR $50.00
One grey charmeuse satin, and one black georgette and figured combination.

2 DRESSES REGULAR $45.00
Navy satin and navy taffeta, figured georgette combinations.

2 DRESSES REGULAR $42.50
In black and niger brown velvet.

DO NOT HESITATE, SELECT EARLY
The remarkable values will be appreciated by every woman who comes here to-morrow.

LENGTHS OF STRIPE GALATEAS 35c YARD
From 3 to 10 yards in each length of Stripe Galateas; standard qualities, in light and colored stripes; very good for house dresses and aprons. Regular 45c and 50c .... Wednesday Bargain, yard 35c

SHORT ENDS OF SILKOLINES 25c YARD
Big assortment of Silkolines; factory clearance of short ends in lengths up to 10 yards to a pattern. Nice selection of loral designs. Can be used for draperies, tie-downs and cushions. Regular 50c. Wednesday Bargain ...... Half Price, yard 25c —Staple Dept., Main Floor.

25c To 35c WHITE COTTON 20c YARD
Short factory ends of fine unfinished Cottons; two to five yards to a piece. This cotton, being in a soft, unfinished state, is positvely free from dressing; 32 to 36 inches wide. Regular 25c to 30c. Wednesday Bargain, yd. 20c

50c WHITE SAXONY FLANNELETTES 35c YARD
Full 36 inches wide; fine, soft qualities, in pure White Saxony Flannelettes. Limited quantity of this great value. Come early and be sure of getting what you need. Regular 50c. Wednesday Bargain, yard 35c

35c WRAPPERETTES 29c YARD
Choice lot of Wrapperettes, in good heavy qualities, black and white checks and dot patterns on pink, blue and white grounds. Splendid for children's dresses. Regular 35c ...... Wednesday Bargain, yard 29c

36-INCH FACTORY COTTONS 20c Yard
Heavy grade Factory Cottons, 36 inches wide; firm weave; will bleach out after a few washings. Regular values 25c and 30c .. Wednesday Bargain, yard 20c

A Wonderful Opportunity to Purchase Flannelette Blankets

12/4 SIZE	11/4 SIZE	10/4 SIZE
REGULAR $4.50	REGULAR $3.50	REGULAR $3.00
$3.19	$2.29	$2.19
PAIR	PAIR	PAIR

White or silver grey, pink or blue borders. Best quality Saxony Flannelette. When our present stock is sold out we cannot repeat this remarkable offer.

Notable Bargains Briefly Told

75c and $1.00 Striped Shirtings, yard	50c
65c and 75c Pyjama Cloth .. yard	50c
65c to $1.00 Stripe Blouse Materials, yard	50c
85c Kimona Elderdown, yard	69c
50c Pillow Cases, each	38c
85c Grey Wool Flannel, yard	69c
$3.00 Hemstitched Sheets Each	$2.23
$1.25 Bath Towels, colored, .. Each	98c
60c Linen Bedroom Towels	47c
50c White Terry Bath Towels	39c
90c Huckaback Towelling, yd.	79c
$5.00 Tweed Suitings, yard	$2.95
$1.50 Corduroy Velvets, yd.	$1.10
$1.75 Colored Dress Goods.. Yard	$1.25
$2.25 emure Cloth, yard	$1.74

CLEARANCE OF CHILDREN'S HATS, 49c
A few odd lines in Children's Velveteen, Corduroy and Felt Hats, in black and colors. Away below the regular prices, to clear. Wednesday Bargain, each .. 49c

$2.75 MEN'S UMBRELLAS $1.98
Five dozen sale lot of Men's Umbrellas, made on close-rolling, strong steel paragon frames. Good range of crook handles, serviceable tops. Regular $2.75 ... Wednesday Bargain $1.98

WHAT SIZE STOCKING DO YOU WEAR? 8½? IF SO, YOU ARE LUCKY
We have many good lines in Penman's best grade Black Cashmere Stockings, as wel las the famous English Llama and Indiana qualities, in one sise only, 8½. The regular prices of these stockings are $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00. Wednesday Bargain, pair $1.00

UNTRIMMED SHAPES $1.49
Worth two and three times to-morrow's sale price. Special sale of discontinued lines in Women's Untrimmed Black Velvet and Beaver Shapes. If you want a good Hat Shape at a real snap price, see this line to-morrow. Each $1.49

A BIG FLANNELETTE BARGAIN
35c and 40c Qualities, 29c Yard
Come and get a good supply of this Flannelette at the reduced price. Plenty of stripe patterns from which to choose, mostly in pink and blue grounds. This will go quickly at such a reduction; 34 to 36 inches wide. Regular 35c to 40c. Wednesday Bargain, yard 29c

VISIT TOYMAN'S SHOP Third Floor
RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED
VISIT TOYMAN'S SHOP Third Floor

GOOD BUYING
7-Roomed Brick House on Charlotte Street with 3-piece Bath Room, Furnace, Mantel and well situated part.
CASH - - $3,300
—by—
T. WALKER & Co.
163 Hunter St. W. Phone 1002

THE HEART
of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1282 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.
186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING
ROLAND BESTARD
has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

Strong easterly winds with rain and snow. Wednesday northwest gale and a change to much colder wit snow flurries.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 123 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY ,NOVEMBER 26, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

POLICE CLEARING UP SIX MURDERS AND OVER A SCORE OF ROBBERIES

Wave of Crime Sweeps over Chicago, When the Street Lamps Darkened to Save Fuel—Robbers Hold High Carnival.

Chicago, Nov. 25.— Six murders and more than a score of robberies are said to have been cleared up by the homicide squad following the arrest of eight men who are held at the Hudson avenue detention home. The police maintain the utmost secrecy about the affair, though acknowledging that there are a number of prisoners at the home and that their capture is highly important. One of the jobs with which the prisoners are said to have been connected was the murder of Detective Sergeants George C. Burns and Bernard J Lenehan.

"I never saw anything like it," said Sergt. John Norton, a member of the squad, who helped direct the work that led to the arrests. He refused to make further comment.

Bandits Give Watchman a Ride.

While three auto bandits were taking Edward Krause, watchman at the Merrie Gardens, 6043 Cottage Grove avenue, for an early morning ride through Washington park, Monday, three others blew the safe, escaping with the proceeds of the Saturday night and Sunday buiness. The amount was $2,000, according to the manager, John Lund.

This was the newest development in a wave of crime, the largest of the season that has swept Chicago since last Saturday night, when many street lamps remained dark as a part of the fuel saving campaign. Holdup men and robbers generally held high carnival throughout the city, shielded by darkness.

Comb Chicago for Suspects

Chicago is being combed for additional suspects in the train of "hold-up" operations which resulted Sunday morning in the fatal shooting of an alleged bandit, Theodore Piech the serious wounding of Detective Sergeant Rowland B. Norton and the arrest of three persons at 1220 West 49th. place. where the trouble reached its climax. Norton struck in the groin by a bullet from Piech's revolver as he approached the house, is at the German Deaconess' hospital. It is said that he will recover.

MOTION DISMISSED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 26.—Mr. Justice Riddell has dismissed the motion of Mrs. Annie Hamilton, of Peterborough, to commit to jail Robert W. Cormack, superintendent of the Quaker Oats plant at that city, for refusing to answer questions dealing with steps to minimize smells, dust and noise nuisance, since the beginning of her action for damages against the company.

Mr. F. D. Kerr, Peterborough, appealed from the order of the local judge at Peterborough. Mr. D. O'Connell for plaintiff.

NEW AMBASSADOR ARRIVES AT NEW YORK

LORD LEVERHOLME, LARGE EMPLOYER OF BRITISH LABOR ON SAME BOAT.

New York, Nov. 26.— Baron Romano Avezzan, newly appointed Italian ambassador to Washington, arrived here from Southampton yesterday on the steamship Mauretania to take up his new duties.

Lord Leverhulme, soap manufacturer, and one of the largest employers of labor in Great Britain, was another passenger. Lord Leverhulme is to address the December meeting of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, and also is expected to make a study of the New England fishing industry while in this country. He recently acquired the Island of Lewis off the coast of Scotland, and began the establishment of an enormous fish canning and shipping programme.

Fred Fulton, heavyweight pugilist also returned on the Mauretania.

ALDERMAN JOHN EDGAR WITHDRAWS HIS NAME

[illegible] ORALTY NOR ALDERMANIC ELECTION.

Alderman John Edgar announces that he will not contest the mayoralty election, neither will he accept nomination for alderman this year.

Alderman Edgar has served this community on the council board for four years, during which time he missed but one meeting, a session of the Board of Works last winter, when he had a touch of the "flu." He is a heavy weight in the cty's civic administration, and his retirement will be a real loss. He always supported and advocated such measures as conscience dictated, with the courage of his convictions, and has devoted a large portion of his time to his municipal duties. Generally speaking, this community would be well served were he again found in his seat next Council term.

There now remain in the mayoralty field Ald. A. A. McIntyre, for Labor, Ald. Taylor, and, it is whispered, G. N. Gordon.

PLAN TO FIGHT ENORMOUS FIRE WASTE WITH MOVING PICTURES

To Produce Films Illustrating Causes and Prevention of Fires—Pictures Will Be Unusually Interesting.

New York, Nov. 26.— Lessons in fire prevention through the medium of the motion picture is the latest innovation brought about through the effort of the National Fire Prevention Association. The association has co-operated with the Universal Film Co. for the production of a series of motion pictures intended to show the causes and the means of preventing a great majority of fires of the country.

Fire waste last year cost the country $317,000,000, and it is the opinion of the National Fire Prevention Association that this figure can be greatly reduced if the public can be taught to take greater care in handling fire. Some cities of the country are worse than others, the per capita losses in a number running from $8 to $10, while in others it is as low as 32 cents. Particular attention will be devoted to these cities, and drives will be launched with a view to bringing about some reduction.

Other methods, such as training in the schools, lectures, home demonstrations and rigid inspections by the fire departments of the various cities have been adopted as a help toward the reduction of the heavy losses but the film will take a prominent place in the appeal to the public for its co-operation in saving the country millions of dollars. The work of the local fire prevention committee during the war was so successful that it has been continued in many communities and the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the National Fire Prevention Association are now endeavoring to revive them in other cities. The interest aroused in the local committees during the war was largely due to the incidental fight against spies.

The films will not be "educational" and therefore lacking in human interest. They will carry their lessons in romances, adventures and other stories, and will offer as much appeal to the audience as the average motion picture. The things not to do will be demonstrated in the most appealing fashion, and the great waste incident to carelessness of all kinds will be graphically illustrated. The pictures will show how fires are caused, running through the list from "smockers fires" to "explosions" in grain elevators.

SIGNS OF AN AGREEMENT ON NEW HOME RULE BILL FOR IRELAND VERY HOPEFUL

Daily Sessions by Cabinet Committee Being Held—Subjects Under Discussion are Finance, and Control of the Police Sir Edward Carson, Ulster's Leader, Preserves Silence Ulster Tending Toward Conciliation.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Lnoodn, Nov. 26.— The new Home Rule Bill, setting up two parliaments in Ireland, with a council or senate of forty, to be chosen by the two, will probably be introduced in parliament within the next two weeks.

Daily Sessions

Daily sesions are being held by the Cabinet Committee in charge of the measure, the subject under discussion at present being finance, which is in charge of a subcommittee under the chairmanship of J. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Control of customs has always been a point of sharpest difference when other Home Rule schemes have been debated and was one of the rocks upon which the Irish convention was shipwrecked. The control of the police is another knotty point.

Signs are Hopeful

The most hopeful sign of an agreement is the silence which Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Leader, has preserved since the latest Irish kite was flown. Sir Edward has not issued any mandates to the Ulster volunteers to keep their powder dry, while the presence of two staunch Unionist leaders, Walter Hume Long and Baron Birkenhead, on the commit shows that Ulster is tending toward conciliation.

Ireland Independent.

Another alternative remains, that the Sinn Feinns may capture the new southern parliament, and promptly declare Ireland an Independent Republic. It would be possible in such a case, to carry on the work of parliament without recognizing any imperial overlordship.

TEMPORARY BRIDGE READY FOR TRAFFIC

MR. TOWNSEND WAS FIRST ACROSS THIS STRUCTURE LAST NIGHT.

The inconvenience to traffic crossing the river practically ended last night with the completion of the temporary Simcoe street bridge. Last evening Mr. Townsend, for the first to cross it, drove over in his automobile and this morning about nine o'clock the first load of gravel drove safely across.

This bridge will be very efficient in handling the traffic until the permanent bridge is completed. Although it was put up very quickly great care was taken to make it strong and serviceable. Two vehicles may pass quite easily while there is a sidewalk on the south side for pedestrians.

BITUMINOUS COAL MINING PROSPECTS HINGE ON ACTION BY U. S. FEDERAL GOVT.

Erforts to Reach a Decision Today—Dr. Gorfield Takes Issue With Secretary of Labor Wilson.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 26.—Prospects for a general resumption of coal mining in the United States today still swung around the expected action of the Federal Government's Cabinet members, who spent all of yesterday in session, and are again today trying to reach a decision.

Final Statement Today.

Washington, Nov. 26.—A definite and final statement on behalf of the Government in the coal wage controversy will be made to the operators and miners late today by Fuel Administrator Garfield. A final decision was reached by the Cabinet at a meeting today, Dr. Garfield and Secretary of Labor Wilson said.

The Fuel Administrator called a joint session of operators and miners for 5 p m. to receive the decision.

Seems a Deadlock.

Like the miners and operators, whose troubles it was trying to adjust, President Wilson's Cabinet last night seemed hopelessly deadlocked on the question of wage increase in the bituminous coal industry.

After a six-hour session the Cabinet, which took up the wage scale agreement where operators and miners left off last week, adjourned until today, when another attempt, with the aid of Fuel Administrator Garfield, will be made to agree upon a pay scale that will satisfy the mine workers and owners and the people in all sections of the country who are clamoring for normal production of coal.

The proper basis of calculating the proposed wage advance, and the ratio of dividing the consequent increase between the operators and the public, are understood to have been the points of difference among the Cabinet members. Dr. Garfield, who took a leading part in the discussions, took issue with Secretary of Labor Wilson as to the method of applying the figures accepted by both.

No statement was forthcoming after the meeting yesterday except an announcement by Dr. Garfield that the Cabinet would meet again today and that he would not see either the miners or operators meanwhile. He declined to say whether progress had been made, but one member of the Cabinet declared that prospects of an agreement were "not hopeless."

The statements of former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo charging that some coal concerns made enormous profits during his incumbency came in for discussion at the Cabinet meeting, it was learned, but no one would say what form the discussion took.

Before the meeting yesterday Attorney-General Palmer said that if the figures as to operators' profits given on Monday by Mr. McAdoo were correct, it was not likely that Dr. Garfield would permit an increased price for coal.

In a statement bearing on this issue, the operators said "that conditions in 1917 were abnormal," but that as Mr. McAdoo was "ignorant" of conditions in 1918 and 1919, his message "carries no weight and requires no answer." The operators said they welcomed an investigation of current tax returns and that they had been urging a board of arbitration or a tribunal of investigation, but the miners refused to agree to it.

TERRIFIC STORM STILL RAGING AT EASTERN END LAKE SUPERIOR

Another Steamer Runs Ashore and the W. C. Richardson, Disabled, is Being Towed Into Port.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 26.— The storm that has swept Lake Superior since last Saturday showed no signs of abating today. Reports reaching here indicate that shipping genrally was laying up in various harbors. A high northeast gale was lashing the east end of the lake, and two more vessels, unidentified in reports here, have been driven ashore in a blinding snowstorm. One of them grounded during the night in the upper St. Mary's River, near the point where the Kotcher went ashore yesterday.

Another Steamer Ashore.

Another steamer was reported to be ashore on Whitefish Point. The W. C. Richardson, disabled while seeking shelter from the storm, was being towed to this port today by tugs.

No word that would indicate the fate of the crew of the Myron, which went ashore Saturday, has been received here, and the owners of the vessel have all but abandoned hope for their rescue.

ASKS APPONENT TO GIVE WAY FOR DOHERTY

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE WOULD GO TO POLLS IN WEST DURHAM.

Port Hope, Nov. 26. — Old-time politicians, who have been looking on Premier Drury as unsophisticated, are getting their eyes opened. When the great political leaders of the past fifty years wanted to find a constituency for a new Cabinet Minister they looked for a vacancy in a constituency which was represented by one of their supporters, but Premier Drury endeavors to get a political opponent to make way for Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture.

The report is current here that Mr. Bragg the Liberal member for West Durham, was offered a highly remunerative Government appointment if he would resign and allow Mr. Doherty to contest that riding. Mr. Bragg called the Liberal executive together at Bowmanville to discuss the situation, but Mr. Drury was promptly informed that there was nothing doing

"Why does not Premier Drury secure a seat for his wandering colleague by getting the resignation of one of his own supporters?" asks Mr. Staples of East Durham.

NEW YORK MARKET IS AGAIN REACTIONARY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov. 26.—The market reactionary trend became more pronounced during this forenoon with greater activity as prices yielded. Cruchle Steel was specially weak, falling ten points, and Pierce Arrow lost seven. General Motors recovered part of its heavy losses only to go lower than before. Moderate rallies succeeded the opening rate of seven per cent. for call money.

IMPROVEMENT IN ADRIATIC MUDDLE

INDICATIONS POINT TO A COMPROMISE SATISFACTORY TO ALL CONCERNED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 26.—Considerable improvement in the Adriatic situation is reported here as a result of conversations in Paris between British, French, Italian and Jugo-Slav representatives.

The latest indications are that there is a possibility of a compromise satisfactory to all parties, including Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio.

FRENCH MINERS BUSY RESTORING COAL MINES WRECKED BY GERMANS

TRY TO RECOVER FROM GERMANY

EFFORT TO COLLECT SUMS OWING CANADIAN SOLDIERS BY TEUTON PEOPLE.

Ottawa, Nov. 26 — The Militia Department announces that if any members or ex-members of the Canadian expeditionary force have in their possession German tokens lager money orders or other documents respecting amounts due to them from the Gercan Government they should be forwarded under registered cover to the Deputy Paymester-General, Overseas Military Forces of Canada, Canadian Building, State street, Ottawa, who will endeavor to make recoveries

Any documents so forwarded should be accompanied by a certificate that payment has not already been made, as in some instances it has been ascertained that upon repatriation payment was made at the German camp, but that receipts were not taken.

Should, however, amounts be owing to officers or soldiers who have no tangible evidence of their claim particulars of such amount should also be forwarded to the Deputy Paymaster-General, O.M.F.C., at the above address so that the claims may be investigated.

Thirty Thousand Toilers Take Their Task as a Patriotic Duty—Work Without Rest or Discouragement.

Paris, France, ov. 25.—Thirty thousand men are toiling in northern France to restore the marvelous coal producing region. Living among ruins, in cellars or barracks, they descend into the earth before dawn and return after nightfall to their forlorn quarters. They work among twisted and shattered timbers amid the blackness and subterranean lakes and see above ground only the remnants of homes and miles upon miles of desolation, but they work without rest and without discouragement.

If the French, as a whole, show the apathy of exhaustion, not so with this army of 30,000. They are bound to prove to the Germans that they could not deprive France forever of her coal mines. There are the mines of Lens, Courriers, Bethune, Drocourt and other places in the department of Pas de Calais, and of Anzin, Escaprelle, Douchy, Vicoigne, Anzin and others in the department of the North. As is known, they were flooded by the German invaders, who dynamited the shafts pretecting the subterranean passages from water and also all the steam boilers, machines, props and railroads.

Engineering Creation Wrecked

Thus was wrecked an intricate and, indeed, elegant engineering creation producing 21,000,000,000 tons of coal annually, with 2,250,000 tons of coke and 1,800,000 tons of briquettes. Before the war 100,000 workmen were employed in the mines.

In a report issued by the government after a long investigation it is estimated that the water accumulated has a total area of 100,000,000,000 square meters (about 2,500,000 square yards) and a depth of 700 meters (2,316 feet). One hundred and twenty-four engine shafts, ninety-two airshafts and sixteen excavating shafts, ninety-two airshafts and sixteen excavating shafts were affected. The total loss is estimated at 2,700,000,000 francs (nominally $540,000,000 It has been folund that the mines in Pas de Calais are inundated clear to the surface, but in the others the water has not yet invaded the galleries completely.

The government commission has as director of the work of restoration a young man named Rene Parent, in whose buttonhole is the ribbon of the legion of honor and in whose black eyes burns the fire of remembrance of battles in that same desolated vale.

EXECUTED TODAY FOR REBELLION

GENERAL FELIPE, FAMED AS A MILITARY GENIUS, VICTIM OF CARRANZA

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Elpaso, Texas, Nov. 26.— General Felipe Angeles, Mexican revolutionary leader, and famed throughout the world as a military genius, was executed by a Carranza firing squad, at Chihuahua City early today, following his conviction on charges of rebellion against the Mexican Government.

STREET CARS COLLIDE THIRTEEN INJURED

SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN MONTREAL—SIX VICTIMS REMOVED TO HOSPITALS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Montreal, Nov. 26. — Thirteen persons were injured in a collision between two street cars at the corner of St. Lawrence Boulevard and Ontario street early this morning. Six of the injured were removed to the hospitals.

Four other persons, including two motormen of the damaged cars, suffered slight cuts, but did not require medical attention.

Large elevators are being constructed at Varna, on the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria, to handle the country's wheat crop, which is estimated as the largest in the history of the nation.

GENERAL DENIKEN'S ARMY IN SOUTH RUSSIA IS RETREATING

Bolsheviki Capture Ten Towns in Three Days' Advance Admiral Halchak's Troops in Siberia Retiring Rapidly

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 26.—General Deniken's army in Southern Russia is retreating, the Bolsheviki having captured ten towns in three days, and are still advancing, according to a wireless from Moscow.

Bolshevik troops are entering Ukraine, where they intend to stay, the despatch says.

Admiral Kolchak's forces in Central Siberia are retiring rapidly, according to the despatch, and the Reds have reached a point eight seven miles east of Omsk.

Threw Away Guns.

Taiga, Siberia, Nov. 26.—Eight thousand wives and children of officers making an eleventh-hour flight from Omsk are reported to have been captured by the Bolsheviki ten miles east of Omsk. The retreat of the rearmost units of the Siberian army from the All-Russian capital became a stampede; the troops throwing away their guns and commandeering locomotives, trains and carts, in which to escape. Fifteen trains carrying officers and their families, besides scores of other trains filled with refugees, ammunition and merchandise, which were blocked by wreckage and lack of motor power, fell into the hands of the Bolsheviki, who followed up the Cossacks by a cavalry pursuit.

Street fighting occurred in Omsk. Panic is reported to reign at Tatarskaya, 100 miles east of Omsk, which is overrun by fleeing soldiers. Polish troops who have been guarding the railway are leaving with the utmost haste.

Admiral Kolchak is reported to be approaching Novo Nikolaevsk. One year after assuming the supreme rulership, Admiral Kolchak today is on his way eastward, facing the necessity of re-establishing his seat of government on the shore of Lake Baikal and reconstructing his army, which has been badly shattered.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1878.

MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.

THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain; $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.

U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dundas, Chicago.

TELEPHONES:

Business Dept. . . . 189 Editorial . . . 435

Mr. Stratton's Residence . . . 221 W.

THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED

156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1919

THE GERMAN QUESTION.

AN EXAMINATION of the statistics of American immigration shows that since the fundation of that government the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland has contributed 8,400,000 of her people and Germany more than six millions. Ireland, with more than four millions, Great Britain with a little less than four million, and Scandinavia, wth something less than two million, have, together with Germany, contributed more than half of the total immigration to the shores of the United States since the beginning of the Revolutionary War.

When we take the German immigration of the United States between 1776 and 1890 and compare it with that from other countries, a somewhat startling result, and one usually unsuspected, is disclosed. The total arrival of aliens in those 114 years aggregated 15,689,000, of whom more than 6,000,000 were British and Irish and 5,125,000 were Germans, which shows that one alien out of every three arriving in America during more than a century of its existence was a German. Only the United Kingdom shows a greater proportion.

Since 1890 the trend has been very different. With more than 17,000,000 immigrant arrivals since that date, only 1,023,000 have been Germans.

It is interesting to note the other foreign elements that have entered into the make-up of American population since 1776. What a wealth of blood that wonderful little island Ireland has given the States. More Irish people have crossed the seas to become part of the American nation than have remained behind. It is remarkable that so small an island, smaller, indeed than the State of Maine, could in a century and a half send enough people to duplicate the present population of eleven of the States having an aggregate area as large as the United Kingdom, France, Germany, and Austria-Hungary together.

Austria-Hungary stands next on the list of contributors to the immigrant stream that has flowed from Europe to America. Although Austro-Hungarians began to immigrate in considerable numbers only when the arrivals from Western Europe had begun to fall off sufficient have come from the dual monarchy to populate the State of Texas to its present density. Italy has sent enough of her people to duplicate the population of Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Nevada, Utah, Colorado Arizona and New Mexico, while England's and Scotland's contrbution, 3,889,000 in all, together with Ireland's 4,500,000, gives a total of 8,389,000, or plenty to populate all of the States lying west of Texas and the Dakotas. The Russians number 3,419,000. They could replace one-half the population of New England.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Germans and their descendants have not assimilated with the great nation to the south of us on nations' lines. The past war revealed that, in the vast majority they retaned their characteristics and their allegiance to the Fatherland and its emperor, living, as it were, a foreign nation within a nation, an ever present menace to the land in which they thrived. Such has been the German's policy wherever he settled in the past, and it yet remains to be seen whether the same inalienable allegiance will dominate his life in future, regardless of the duty he owes to that State which gives him protection and opportunity for prosperity.

DOES CANADA KNOW HERSELF?

DO CANADIANS actually know themselves, or, what is more, do they know that Canada in which they live and its vast possibilities? Again, it is safe to say that few Canadans even realize the standing their country has in the eyes of the world, to say nothing of its trade connections abroad. Thirty years ago, news of Canada even in American border cities, would be confined to a few lines in an out-of-the-way corner of the sheet; today whole pages are devoted to news of their northern neighber, "The Lady of the Snows." The New York Sun prints a Canadian section, consisting of two full pages every Tuesday, and that influental American journal visualizes in Canada great cities, handsome buildings throbbing factories, splendid houses, extensive railroads spacious seaports, vast forests, enormous field crops, inexhaustible water powers, universities, hospitals, paper mills, fisheries, mineral deposits in fact, a land flowing over with milk and honey, so to speak—a progressive nation, the proud possessor of the largest university in the British Empire. And all this eulogy is quite true, but do Canadians see themselves and their opportunities as others see them?

How many Canadians know that one Canadian store does more business annually than is done by the largest store in America's great metropolis, and that Canada buys more from the United States than is bought from the latter country by the whole of South America? In the eight months ended September 30 of this year, Canada bought from her cousins across the border goods to the value of $519,620,001, while in the same period America's sales to Argentina, Bolivia, Brisal, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Falkland Islands, Guiana, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela amounted to only $327,746,237.

And so the United States views Canada as a very real and important neighbor to the tune of $518,620,001 in American exports on an eight months' billing. But the Americans also see Canada as a land of great resources and opportunities, to which it is to be feared the majority of Canadians have applied but indifferent interest. Why should not this country's business pulse beat in both directions—import and export—with as near equitable impetus as possible? Canadians found themselves in the war as a warrior nation of unconquerable tenacity. Let them now find themselves a world-leading, industrially resourceful people, taking the fullest advantage of the wealth within the land which gave them birth. Premier Drury declares there shall be no class legislation. Well, we do not want it. What Canada needs now is to settle down to business with a will—all classes as a unit—with legislation which will foster the development of her industrial opportunities and agrrcultural and mineral resources by Canadian capital for the benefit of the nation as a whole, irrespective of class, race or creed. In the words of the New York Sun, "Canada is a nation—big, progressive, gaining in population by leaps and bounds." But do Canadians know this as they should, and is there not room for more progress, more bigness, coupled with a forward movement in the directon of increased production and an energetic recognition of those manifold opportunities for expansion which lie within our gates?

CONCRETE SHIP "FAITH."

UNMINDFUL of war or peace, strikes or storms, the reinforced concrete ship "Faith" continues on her even way, plying the waves of every ocean. No sea too rough, no gale too high, for this sturdy twentieth century marvel.

For her maiden voyage Faith took a taste of the Pacific, going from San Francisco, the city of her birth, to Vancouver, thence back home and to the Panama Canal. Forty and sixty-mile Pacific gales failed to ruffle her temper, much less to strain her in-seams. Having thus convinced all doubters of her seaworthiness, Faith slid up to New York, where she blushingly received the homage of innumerable admirers.

Getting back into her element, she betook herself to South American waters, and upon her return set sail for England. While there she was again minutely examined for lines of care or distress, but in vain. Her captain said that in all his thirty-five years' experience of life on the ocean waves he has not met with any boat to equal his one. And her owners said, "It is needless for us to say that the boat took not an inch of water, as she is one of the staunchest sea boats afloat."

Now Faith has returned home in quest of new glories. It is said she will soon be on her way to a new and distant continent. Wherever she goes, Faith delivers the goods.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

NEEDLESS.

(Toronto Globe.)

There is no need for the speed that many autoists make on city streets. Life is short at the best.

PROGRESS IN MORAL REFORM.

(Baltimore Sun.)

Having passed Kickless Booze station, the next stop, it is announced, will be Nicotineless Tobacco. The next probably will be Lifeless Life and the next Angel Depot.

FEW EXCEPTIONS.

(Ohio State Journal.)

It may be laid down as a general rule that whenever anyone makes a ring-tailed simian of himself in public life he thinks the newspapers are subsidised.

THE PRINCE AND NEW YORK.

(New York Sun.)

We hope the Prince had such a good time here that in the future, when he is Edward VIII., he will look back to the rush of Broadway and murmur, too low for the ears of the Prime Minister, "That was the life!"

THE YELLOW IN THE RED.

(Detroit Free Press.)

Sixty thousand Reds in America are sixty thousand too many. But they are all yellow. And there are sixty times sixty thousand white men with red blood in their veins who will give them more excitement than they are looking for if they are not careful.

APT DEFINITION.

(Savannah News.)

One Yale man has defined "freedom of speech" to be "the liberty to say what you think without thinking what you say," which is hitting it pretty well up toward the high batting percentage.

A BIT OF IDEALISM.

(Kingston Whig.)

The whole world is seething with the selfish desire to get as much as possible in reform for the least amount of service. The world has yet to understand that the only satisfying recompense for toil is the joy of serving, with the financial profit an incident.

SINGLE TAX.

(Single Taxer, Winnipeg.)

Single Tax is not on land, but on land value, which is a very different thing. Farmers are large owners of land, but not of land values. Land values are largely in the cities and in mines, forests, etc. Single Tax will not burden those who use land, but only those who collect rents from the users, and the land monopolists and speculaters. Land value is owned by about ten per cent of the people, of whom many are non-residents. The burden of Single Tax will fall on them, and reduce their incomes considerably, until the value becomes distributed among all the people, when it will fall on no one very heavily—all the good land being in use, the smallest amount of tax from each user, in proportion to the value of his holding, will give an ample fund for public expenses—much larger than is now extorted from the comparatively few land owners and the many workers and home renters.

GERMAN GOVERNMENT'S INDUSTRIAL REFORM POLICY.

(London Daily Chronicle.)

These proposals are of a sweeping nature, largely in accord with what in England is called "Guild Socialism," and are an attempt to give to industrial life, by statute, that democratic basis which it was the aim of the November revolution to give to political life.

The basic idea is to give to the workers equal authority with the employers on all questions affecting social conditions within the factory, and the right of co-operation with the directors, and the right of examination regarding all economic questions.

Such councils, which are to be composed of both wage-earning and salaried employes, are to be elected by these two classes in proportion to their numbers, the voting being carried out on a basis of proportional representation.

They are to be elected by every economic unit in the industrial, agricultural and liberal professions, etc., employing more than twenty persons.

An exception is shipping, both inland and overseas, regarding which special provision is to be made.

Works which are departmentalized are to have a council for each department, from which a general council representing the whole factory is to be elected.

Those qualified to vote must be eighteen years of age, while those eligible for election must be twenty, must have been six months in factory, and must have been three years engaged in that industry.

Councils are elected for one year, subject to certain rights to recall their mandate.

MEETING OF WORLD'S BANKERS

That an international conference of bankers free from all government interference is necessary in order to arrange a working basis for the resumption of financial and commercial relations among the countries of the world is the opinion of W. Westerman, president of Rotterramsche Bankvereeniging, Holland's largest financial institution. Mr. Westerman arrived in New York recently. He bases his belief on a tour of Great Britain and Germany, during which he made a careful study of financial conditions.

"We are witnessing the adoption of temporary expedients and hearing much discussion concerning possible action, but there is no positive direct progress being made toward a coherent and consistent cleaning up of the various financial messes produced by the war," Mr. Westerman declared.

"I wish to suggest that several prominent American bankers who have the confidence of their colleagues and of the American public should assemble a conference at some neutral place in Europe, preferably The Hague, where the entire question of after-the-war finance might be studied, and from whiich definite recommendations for action might be resented to the various governments. It is in such a way alone that I think the problem may be finally and satisfactorily solved.

America Holds the Key.

"It is generally believed in Europe, and more especially in Holland, that the key to the international financial situation is held by the United States of America. From a borrowing country, as it was before the war, with few foreign investments, the United States has been metamorphosed into a creditor nation which, through great accumulation of wealth, was able to loan huge amounts to the governments of the Allies and also, after having taken an active part in hostilities, to pay the tremendous costs of war without visible influence on the abundance of capital.

"Every banker knows a debtor who is on the verge of bankruptcy can often be saved, provided he has brains and zeal, if he is put in possession of new working capital. He may often be able to make an arrangement with his creditors to pay them off out of his future earnings, and thus the creditors have a good chance to get back their money. But if, on the other hand, the debtor is allowed to drift into the bankruptcy court, the creditors' money will disappear and the man may end as a dangerous character, turning his intelligence and his abilities into a wrong direction. This is very much the case with some of the European countries.

German Indemnity Important

"In the budget of some of the allied countries, the indemnity to be paid by Germany plays a very important part. On the other hand, the amount of the indemnty is not fixed, and therefore it is not possible for Germany to readjust its own budget or to take such other steps as would put the country on a sounder financial basis. I believe that a way will be found out of these present difficulties once the exact amount of obligations to be met is known. Not before then will it be possible to create resources to meet these obligations.

"I do not at present regard the European situation so pessimistically as Mr. Vanderlip did in the early part of this year but I quite agree with him that this situation must be treated as a whole. As far as I can see, there is no great chance that Mr. Vanderlip's proposed international loan will find its way to the stock exchanges of the world, although this would have been a solution, and one, moreover, very much in the interest of America, the largest seller of the commodities Europe is craving."

THE WISE OLD RAT

Rodents Cannot be Exterminated by Setting Traps.

A correspondent, signing himself, "Rat Catcher", sends us the following:

"I would like to throw a little light on the subject of rat extermination which occupies public attention in England and is called for by increased numbers of rodent pests in the British Isles. It is a mistake to believe that rat campaigns and concreting will exterminate the rat.

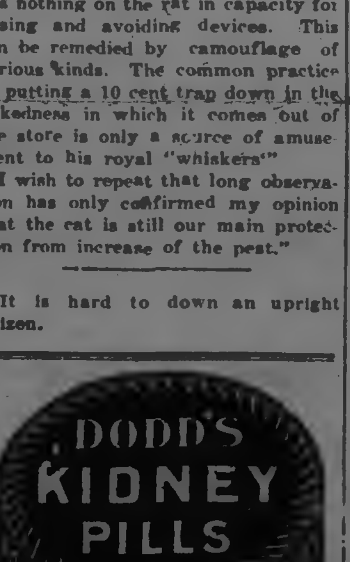
After experimenting with every device obtainable I came to the conclusion the fault was in the inefficient and wrong construction of snap traps generally. I found that only some 60 per cent of the rats were held after snapping the bait, owing partly to the Houdini facility of every rat to squeeze out of apparently tight places and partly to the singular habit — foxlike, I believe — of playing skittles with the trap and stealing the bait.

I obtained positive results by constructing devices that avoided errors of former construction, and that increased trap holding power—not luring power— to 90 per cent. The 40 per cent, that escape give the key to the situation. These rats become the wise pests that are actually uncatchable by ordinary means, destroying everything within reach. Incidentally I found that new devices skillfully concealed, and that is most important, took care of all the young ones not wise enough to avoid traps, and the problem was solved. The result was that in time the old ones died off, and the district is practically free.

There is a new education needed sadly in the necessity of some skill and care in use of traps. Old Mr. Fox has nothing on the rat in capacity for nosing and avoiding devices. This can be remedied by camouflage of various kinds. The common practice of putting a 10 cent trap down in the nakedness in which it comes out of the store is only a source of amusement to his royal "whiskers"

I wish to repeat that long observation has only confirmed my opinion that the cat is still our main protection from increase of the pest."

It is hard to down an upright citizen.



WESTERN PREMIERS WILL NOT ATTEND

PROVINCIAL AND FEDERAL ORGANIZATIONS MUST BE KEPT SEPARATE.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 26.—Premier Norris, of Manitoba, is too busy, he says, to attend the Federal Liberal conference in Ottawa next week. Premier Martin has a real good excuse, for his Legislature opens next week, and he will not be there. Oliver, of B. C., has not stated that he would not attend, but he has not yet authorized a statement that he will be there, and friends of Stewart, of Alberta, assert that he is not going. It looks as if the Liberal Premiers of the west have accepted the criticism of their Grain Grower friends because they attended the Liberal convention last August in a serious way, and they don't intend to further infuriate them by taking part in the Federal conference.

It is now certain the provincial and Federal organizations of the Liberals will have to be kept separate. Anyway, from the speed of the Grain Growers, no western organization of the party will be worth while after this year.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Use your mind as a storehouse, but not as a junk house.

Air castles of a bachelor are usually constructed of smoke.

Money talks, and it is in a hurry to say good-bye to most of us.

Many a charitable woman allows her husband to have her own way.

Some men are satisfied with empty honors, but the toper prefers his full.

A woman isn't necessarily shallow because her beauty is only skin deep.

Even the lines of a poor poet are apt to be cast in pleasant places—when he goes fishing.

The only effective way to convince a contrary man that he is wrong is to agree with him.

After a girl gets to be about so old she tries to forget that she once wanted to marry a poet.

After pocketing his fee the congratulations of the minister officiating at a wedding are genuine.

Jack Frost is such a lucky dog!
The pretty girls he seeks;
And there is never any stir,
No one calls out, "How dare you, sir?"
When he starts kissing cheeks.

ATROCITIES IN RUSSIA APPALS

CRUELTY IN NAME OF PEOPLE'S GOOD TOLD BY EYE WITNESS.

That conditions in Russia rival those of France under Louis XI, or Robespierre is the declaration made by Colonel Bykovski, of Taganrog, a Zemsstvo leader of South Russia, in a letter to D. A. Magula, of the Committee of Siberian Agricultural Unions, No. 280 Broadway, New York. Colonel Bykovski praphically derscribes the Bolshevik reign of terror, in which he asserts, persons are murdered, "not by hunderds, but by thousands."

"They are killing women and children and the old," writes the Colonel. Men are forced into the army. If a man evades military service they murder his wife and children. Almost the entire Romanoff family has been wiped out. Grand Duke Nicholas Mikhailovitch, the well known writer and historian, who was ill with consumption, starving and almost in a dying condition, was dragged from prison, lying on a stretcher, and killed in the street. Murders, robberies, and outrages of women and little girls are a common occurrence."

Heroes Tortured to Death

Colonel Bykovski declares national heroes like General Ruski, Rakdo-Demitrieff and others were tortured to death. Books, paintings, statues and other works of art have been torn destroyed or burned. The Bolsheviki have converted churches into stables, barracks and motion picture theatres, desecrating the altars and holy images.

"Particular cruelty was shown in the treatment of the clergy and army officers," he continues. "They were burned or buried alive, or their skin peeled off from the bodies. One old priest was 'betrothed' to a mare, having been compelled to dance around the mare, after which he was tortured to death.

Cruelty of Turk Outdone.

"Such things are bing committed in the name of the people's happiness and in the name of [illegible] and fraternity. The massacres of the French Revolution, the horrors of the Thirty-Year-War, the cruelties of the Turk in Bulgaria and Armenia, pale into significance before that what is now transpiring in Russia.

"I am praying to God daily for death and await it as my only salvation, so as to avoid suicide.

"The economic conditions are terrible; the cost of living is unbelievably high, and profiteering is general. Hunger is universal; hence there are many kinds of diseases, such as typhoid fever and cholera. In Petrogroad, out of its former three millions, there remain but 650,000 dyinug persons."

ENGINEER BLAMED

Disregarded Orders and Ran Past Terrebonne.

Montreal, Nov. 25. — Evidence given at the inquest on the bodies of the two victims of the collision between the Montreal-Quebec express and the Empress special to Toronto, showed that the engineer on the latter train, John Holland, disregarded his orders to stop at Terrebonne, the accident happened soon after he passed this point. The running order of Holland to this effect was filled.

PRIZE BULL SWALLOWS NAIL

Middletown, N.Y., — King Segis Pontiac Aclara, $50,000 prize bull, owned by John H. Arfman, was killed, by swallowing a nail, according to the report of veterinaries, made today. The nimal died Saturday.

The O. A. L. A. Executive met here last night and wound up the season's affairs.

Wood's Phosphodine. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor)

STRONGER WAGE ADJUSTMENT LAW

SUGGESTION TO PREVENT LOCK-OUTS OR STRIKES—PROTECT PUBLIC IN DISPUTES.

Washington, Nov. 25. — Disappointment that the House failed to approve a stronger wage adjustment provision in the Esch railroad bill was expressed by representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee.

"While the legislator must keep in mind the interests of all elements, his chief concern must always be the larger factor, the public, which include both the employer and the employee," said Mr. Fess. "He must guard himself against prejudice on the one side and fears on the other.

"The Esch railroad bill is an honest effort to legislate on this basis. The bill attempted to establish effective machinery for the settlement of labor disputes. The bill was amended unfortunately by eliminating the effectual agency which fixed responsibilty for the observance of a contract both by employer and employee. This, in my judgment, was a vital error.

"The attempt to write into the bill a provision to forbid during the pendency of the adjustment either a lockout or a strike was successfully resisted. This, in my judgment, is an unfortunate omission. The public has a right to demand the machinery for the adjustment of labor disputes and to be exempt from injuries incident to either lockouts or strikes during the adjustment. Unfortunately both of these items were opposed by labor leaders and were omitted.

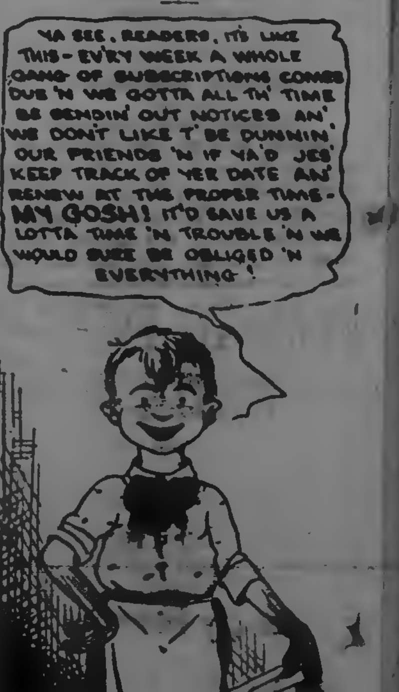
"The Cumming bill contains an antistrike provision. There is a growing belief that while the right to quit work is a fundamental American right with which the Government does not wish to interfere, the right must not be construded to reach a total destruction of the rights of the public.

"The Esch bill did not contain such a provision, but it did provide [illegible] by either party, with a penalty attached. Unfortunately, labor resisted this provision and backed a substitute, the Anderson amendment, which contained merely voluntary machinery, with no authority whatever to enforce its decisions.

"It is most regrettable that at this time, when we are dealing with this basis industry of transportation, that we failed to insert an effectual plan, creating the machinery of adjustment which is both official and authoritative, before which disputes affecting the public must be carried, and during the pendency of the dispute neither lockout nor strike to be allowed under penalty of the law."

Ontario Victory Loan workers were entertained at dinner in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, last night to the Chairman and Executive of the Provincial Committee.

MICKIE SAYS



YA SEE, READERS, IT'S LIKE THIS - EV'RY WEEK A WHOLE GANG OF SUBSCRIPTIONS COMES DUE 'N WE GOTTA ALL TH' TIME BE SENDIN' OUT NOTICES AN' WE DON'T LIKE T' BE DUNNIN' OUR FRIENDS 'N IF YA'D JES' KEEP TRACK OF YER DATE AN' RENEW AT THE PROPER TIME - MY GOSH! IT'D SAVE US A LOTTA TIME 'N TROUBLE 'N WE WOULD SURE BE OBLIGED 'N EVERYTHING!

A Bank Account For Your Wife

More and more, are the wives of today running their homes on a business basis—systematically and efficiently.

Many wives have a monthly allowance for household expenses.

This, they deposit in a Savings Account in The Merchants Bank—settle bills by cheque—and thus have an accurate record of bills paid.

Such a business-like method also gives a woman the feeling of happy independence in having a bank account of her own.

2

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA

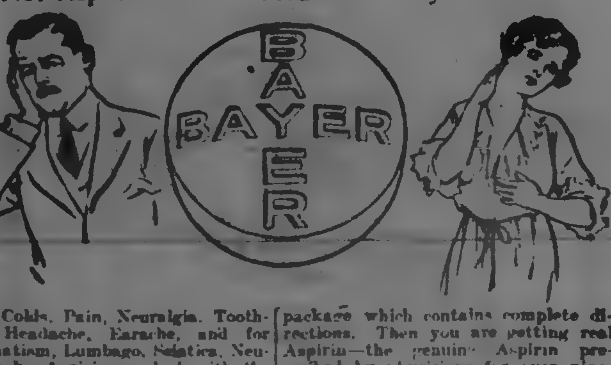
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864

PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,

C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"



For Colds, Pain, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by
MANSFIELD F. HOUSE
(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

MERCHANTS UNITE TO SMASH CHECK SWINDLERS

The swindling of retail merchants the country over, by means of bad checks, has grown to such an alarming extent that special offices have been opened in St. Louis by the National Retail Credit Men's Association. A nation-wide fight against the swindlers will be waged.

The plan adopted by the retail [illegible] predicted, because it is not merely a campaign to catch and punish offenders, but rather one the chief effect of which will be to make the "business" of passing bad checks unprofitable. The plan is a preventive one.

The idea is the establishment of a central bureau, to which each merchant reports, by telephone, if necessary, the reports, by telephone, if necessary, the instant he receives a check from a customer whom he does not know. He gives a minute description of this check and the person who presented it. If the central bureau receives reports from other merchants immediately afterward of similar checks being offered to them, the danger signal is at once flashed out. Wtih care on the part of the merchant, who may easily withhold the delivery of the goods long enough to report the check over the telephone, the protection is virtually complete.

This plan has been tried out with remarkable success in a number of cities, and it is the ultimate aim of the association to put the practice into effect throughout the United States.

The last fifty years have seen swindlers of the forger variety constantly being squeezed into narrower limits. Originally they operated very profitably and widely against the United States Government in the production of counterfeit money. The pressure of the Secret Service became too great for them, in combination with the various protective devices which were gradually evolved in the making of currency.

Then they turned their attention to somewhat smaller game—the raising and passing of bank drafts. In turn they were driven out of this traffic by the final evolution of check protective devices which baffled their attempts to raise the amounts on negotiable bank paper.

This squeezed them out into the commercial field, where for a time they reaped a rich harvest by obtaining the checks of business houses through various stratagems, raising these and presenting them to the banks for payment with many and varied clever excuses for lack of identification. So heavy did the losses to business houses become that they, in their turn, adopted check protecting devices.

After that the check swindlers' operations were confined to operations on the checks of an ever-decreasing number of small business houses which had failed to adopt protective devices. [illegible] been too small to afford an adequate living to the "fraternity," which finally has come down to the passing of worthless checks upon merchants rather than the cashing of raised checks of known business houses at the banks. But the losses among retail merchants from this source have been, in the aggregate, enormous.

JEWELERS PLAN $300,000 AD DRIVE

A three-year advertising campaign nation-wide in its scope and involving the expenditure of $300,000 will be launched by manufacturing jewelers in an effort to keep the industry on a prosperous basis when times become more normal: it was announced recently in Rochester, N. Y., by Harry E. Freund, manager of the National Jewelers' Publicity Association and director of the publicity fund.

"The war dealt the jewelry industry a severe blow," stated Mr. Freund in discussing the campaign plans. "The ban on platinum, the restrictions on gold, the falling off of gem importations, the preachment that jewelry was a luxury and fad, were all seriously felt. The jewelers only managed to weather the storm after a vigorous educational advertising campaign."

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

"Give 'em facts at Christmas time," says Ernest C. Hastings, advertising manager of Lansburgh & Bro., Washington, D. C.

"Some of us rely on pictures of Santa Claus stuck in terra-cotta chimneys. Others pin their faith to so-called heart-throbs, picturing the dire disappointment of those who didn't find the right gift in their hosiery on Christmas morn. Personally, I'm willing to place a fair-sized bet on items as the best business-bringer of the lot—and my belief is pretty well grounded.

"When the shops begin to take on their green and red trimmings in anticipation of December 25, everybody from the newsboy to the millionaire is willing and anxious to spend money for gifts. But how to spend it is the problem which makes the newsie wonder and the millionaire's head grow more bald. They're willing to take almost any kind of a suggestion, but they're anxious for something specific. Santa Claus heads and nursery rhymes, holly wreaths and sprigs of mistletoe may be attractive, but they're mighty little help to a worried man or woman thrashing around with a gift list that would defy detection by a Pinkerton detective.

"A page ad, or even a smaller space, filled with definite merchandise news does help—I know from experience on both sides of the fence. It is especially helpful if emphasis is laid on the more sensible, common, everyday things.

"This isn't merely a theory of mine. It's proved by the fact that the most successful Christmas advertisement we ever ran—the one which made December 16, 1918, the biggest day by far in the history of the store—was crammed, jammed, packed full of items. True, we used eleven Christmas-tree cuts, but these weren't more than twenty-five lines deep and were inserted solely for atmosphere and to break up the heavy appearance due to the large amount of type. 'Don't Overlook Usefuls for the Boys.' 'Gifts for Children Aged to Fourteen.' 'Blankets and Other Useful Gifts.' 'Christmas Kodaks from $2 Up.' 'Italian Silk Underwear—the Gift De Luxe'—these were some of the headlines.

"But it was the number of items mentioned and the fact that prices were quoted in each instance that turned the trick. I know, because we've tried the 'Christmas-spirit-give-dad-what-he-wants-and-don't-overlook-mother kind of copy, too. But nothing ever pulled like this page of specific suggestions."

BUILDS AUDITORIUM TO HELP SELL MUSIC

In announcing plans for a new fivestory building to be devoted entirely to his twenty-five-year-old and still-growing music business A. C. Huff has arranged for the organization of an association to promote the development of musical talent in Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. Huff started out in a small way, built up his business by honest values, which he announced through the newspapers and the mails, and today finds he has outgrown his building and must put up a larger structure.

He has large hopes for the musical association, which will be given headquarters on the third floor. An auditorium will be provided, and this will be at the command of the local musical association. The place will seat 2500 and will be built with special attention to light, acoustics and comfort.

Members will be privileged to use this auditorium for concerts, recitals and oratorios free of charge. It is believed that the making of Huff's into music headquarters for the Bethlehems will give the firm an eclat that will be hard to estimate, as far [illegible]

The other stories of the new building will be constructed for special showings of pianos, Victrolas and other instruments. "See it as it will be in your home" is the idea. Each instrument will be housed in an apartment which will compare with those that can be expected in the homes where the appliance will eventually be placed.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address THE COOK MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

WEDDING
- GIFTS -
in
STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS
Our Values and Prices are Always Right.
Schneider's
367 George St. Next Turnbull's

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomainelike poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, billiousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

CAN. PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

To and from Kingston Sub-Division.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 1, there will be a change in the Kingston Sub-Division Train Service, providing a daily, except Sunday, day connection as follows: Leave Peterborough 11.59 a.m., arrive Kingston 3.35 p.m.; leave Kingston 9.50 a.m., arrive Peterborough 3.20 p.m.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents.

HOSPITAL WARD READY

Englehart, Nov. 25.— The Emergency Hospital Ward provided by the I.O.D.E., and supported out of the Mary Gooderham Fund is to be formally opened tomorrow night. Suitable accommodation has been secured and full equipment installed. The ward will be used principally for maternity cases from the rural districts.

Moose hunting has been resumed in Maine after a suspension of four years.

ARE FLEMING AND WALLOON

People of Belgium of Both Races, the Flemings Being Slightly in the Majority.

The kingdom of Belgium dates from 1830, when the seven Catholic provinces revolted from the distasteful union with the kingdom of The Netherlands, Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor writes in a communication to the National Geographical society. A conference of the great powers in 1831 determined the boundaries between the two countries. Though obliged by circumstances to recognize Belgian independence, the conference did not sympathize with the authors of the revolution. In consequence the boundary line was traced to the disadvantage of the new nation, it is alleged. The Dutch were assigned peoples east of the Meuse, who were strongly pro-Belgian, and were granted both sides of the Scheldt, thus cutting off approach to the sea by the great port of Antwerp.

Belgium is made up of Flemings and Walloons, with the former in the majority. In 1910, of the 7,751,000 Belgians, there were 3,221,000 who spoke only Flemish, 2,833,000 who spoke French (spoken by Walloons) and 871,000 who spoke both languages. The Flemish provinces are bilingual. Germany tried to divide the Flemings and the Walloons during the great war, but the descendants of the warriors who fought against Caesar refused to be divided. The ancient Belgae occupied all Gaul north of the Seine and west of the Rhine, but today it covers only 11,373 square miles.

ARE NOT REALLY LOCUSTS

Unwelcome Visitors Expected This Year Periodical Cicadas, According to Wisconsin Entomologist.

Be scientific—call the "17-year locust" by its right name, the periodical cicada, and no one will worry about it, says H. F. Wilson, entomologist at the Wisconsin experiment station. Cicadas are common insects, but locusts are reminders of the scourge of locusts in biblical days and the grasshoppers, or true locusts, of the early days in the southwest.

Even the orchard-man's fear of the effect of this particular cicada is not very well founded, judging from the information entomologists have about the insect, for other members of the [illegible] shade and orchard trees in exactly the same way.

The injury is the result of the cicada's laying eggs in the twigs of trees. From the eggs the larvae of the insect hatch. The twig enlarges at that point, growth is interrupted and sooner or later the twig rots and breaks off. The only treatment is to prune off the parts affected. No preventive methods are considered necessary by either horticulturists or entomologists at the station.

Charts of the different broods of the so-called locusts have been prepared by entomologists of the United States department of agriculture, says Mr. Wilson, and they show that the brood expected this year is No. 10. Seventeen years ago it was reported in Wisconsin only in Dane county. The last brood appeared in 1915 and was quite generally scattered over the state.

Made in Germany.

Dr. Arthur Davis, who used to be the kaiser's dentist, is authority for the statement that the crown prince is the most egotistical person he ever met. As an instance of his conceit the dentist recounts an occurrence in one of the palatial dugouts at the front, where captured champagne had been flowing freely for some time.

"Your highness," finally asked a young officer, "who is the greatest of all German generals?"

"I am," promptly retorted the crown prince.

"True, of course," said the brother officer, "but how could you really prove it?"

"I don't have to," retorted the crown prince. "I merely say it, and it is so!"—Minneapolis Tribune.

Convincing.

J. A. Strahan, the eminent professor of jurisprudence, tells in his reminiscences several good law stories.

One of the best concerns a certain chancery judge who (writes Mr. Strahan) was so notorious for the brevity of his notes of evidence that, in a case which appeared to make an appeal probable, the parties agreed to have a shorthand note of it.

Later, the court of appeal, puzzled by his decision against the plaintiff, whose uncontradicted evidence seemed convincing, sent for the judge's note hoping it would enlighten them.

It did. It consisted of a vigorous drawing of an oily-faced, evil-looking person. Above was written The Plaintiff, and below it And a —— liar.—Pearson's Weekly.

His Consideration.

"Now, gents," with elaborate sarcasm said the proprietor of the Right Place store in Petunia, addressing the prominent and influential loafers that infested his emporium, "I have placed a batch of comfortable pine boxes around on the shady side of the store, where you can set and spit and whittle and cuss the government and argue about nothing from morning till night, and not be disturbed by customers trying to edge around you to buy something or talk over a little private business with me without having your snouts stuck into it."—Kansas City Star.

Official notice has been given in Dublin that no more prisoners will be liberated, conditionally or unconditionally, for hunger striking.

A GHURKA WARRIOR.

Young Man From India Will Live In Canada.

A Ghurka, one of those sturdy Indian fighters whose name has spread terror among the enemies of Britain for nearly a century, has been visiting numerous Canadian cities and towns during the past few months, and attracting much attention by his unusual bearing.

Little more than a lad in age Kamel Khan is nevertheless a veteran of many campaigns. Following the custom of the Ghurkas he joined the military school when he was a boy of twelve, and by the time the war broke out he was a fully trained soldier.

With his seven brothers Pte. Khan served in the Imperial army, following the footsteps of their father, who had been a soldier of Queen Victoria.

Before the Great War he saw service in the hill-fighting against the Afridis. "There is always fighting there," he explained. When the war broke out he enlisted with the 1st Ghurka Regiment at Tibit, India. From Singapore he went to Cawnpore, where he trained and then went straight to France.

He was transferred to the 42nd Ghurka Regiment, with which he went into action. He fought in France until May, 1915, when he was first wounded. He then went to Egypt, and in February, 1916, he was wounded a second time. In the attack at Gallipoli he was wounded a third time, in December, 1916. Returning to France he was gassed at Amiens, in 1918, and was wounded again at the battle of Cambrai.

During this period Pte. Khan succeeded in winning the Military Medal and the St. George's Cross, an Indian decoration. As he desires to see this country he has enlisted in the Royal Canadian Highlanders and expects to serve in Canada for a number of years.

He is a crack shot and carries the "crossed rifles," but his favorite weapon is the kukri, the national weapon of the Ghurka, with which they do terrible execution. He carries this carved knife in his belt, having received special permission to do so. This he guards jealously and will not allow anyone to handle it.

There is no question about his being a warrior. His sole subject of conversation is fighting. He talked incessantly about it as a boy would talk about his play. "Ghurka fight any time, all the time," he said. "Two o'clock in the morning, good time, but fight all night and all day.

"Canadians good fighters, like Ghurkas," was a tribute he paid. "Canadians take prisoners, though. Ghurka never take prisoners."

He laughed gleefully as he recounted the various "killings" he had participated in. "Fighting the [illegible] men on the northwest frontier, the Turks in the Gallipoli or the Germans in France, all had resulted in the same ending. A wild charge, the flashing, hacking kukri, and then the return with the noses and ears of his adversaries in his pocket to show as "souvenirs."

Pointing to a scar on his forehead he explained that it was inflicted by a Turkish bayonet as he was entering a dugout while serving in the Egyptian campaign. He then entered the dugout single-handed and killed the seventeen occupants. This was the occasion for which he received the bar to his Military Medal.

On going into battle it was his custom to carry five kukris in a band about his neck and use them as throwing knives as he advanced. He claimed that he could cut a German's throat at one hundred yards—every time. Kamel Khan is a slightly built young fellow, twenty-four years old. His complexion is swarthy, but by no means dark, and his features are good. He speaks English fairly well and expresses his intention of attending school while in Canada in order to complete his education.

Raising Queen Bees.

Queen bees are highly important members of honey-gathering swarms, and the rearing of these egg-laying females is a highly specialized branch of apiculture, in which scientific methods are employed. A Canadian expert in this line has devised a new system for safeguarding the larvae of queens, and for protecting the young bees during the early stages of their winged lives. When a larva cell is one day old, it is removed from the comb by a cylindrical cutting instrument, from which it is pushed into a short protective tube. The latter is then replaced in the comb, and left until the cell has been completed. A finished cell can be taken from the tube without injuring the larva, and placed in a cylindrical cage of wire mesh, in which the bee hatches and remains until full grown. An opening at the bottom of the cage permits feeding.—Popular Mechanics.

Honesty First Requisite.

It would be an unspeakable advantage, both to the public and private; if men would consider that great truth, that no man is wise or safe but he that is honest.—Sir Walter Raleigh.

For Hoarseness.

Hoarseness can be relieved by mixing one teaspoonful of glycerin to the well-beaten white of an egg, the juice of one lemon and enough sugar to make it palatable.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — GOOD DINING-room girl, and a kitchen woman; good wages. Apply Munro House.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED IN the country. Apply Review office for address.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LADIES. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases
DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED — STEAM RADIATORS, either cast iron or pipe coils. Parties having such for sale please 'phone or leave name at Review office.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work; heat on building; 75c per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.

LOST.

LOST SATURDAY EVENING small black purse containing $20 in bills and some small change, at Matthews' or Coleman's lower stores, or street car south to Morrow street. Finder kindly return to Review and receive $5 reward.

FOR SALE.

FORD TOURING CAR, 1919 model, nearly new. Bargain for quick buyer. Must be sold his week; owner leaving the city. Apply Box 478 Review office.

AUTOMOBILES, TRUCKS, Etc. McLaughlin Touring, 4 cyl.: $600 McLaughlin Touring, 6 cyl.: $250 Ford Touring: $600 Ton Truck, good order: $550 Ford Roadster, 1917, with starter. DUFFUS GARAGE, Phone 1760.

FOR SALE—GOOD DAIRY cow, due to freshen in March. Apply B. Corrigan, Downer's Corners.

Sir George Foster stated the raising of the wheat embargo by the United States would mean larger markets for the Canadian wheat growers.

The Canadian militia is to be reorganized, a report by four Generals with that end in view being now in course of preparation.

Canadian millers call on the Canada Wheat Board to protect their interests under the new conditions resulting from the United States lifting the embargo on wheat.

Is not the cook who prepares a good dinner greater than the man who makes the after dinner speech?

If a woman's credit is good at a dry goods store she never argues about the price.

Most men are better acquainted with faith and hope than they are with charity.

Children's Aid Society
of
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked 'till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc.
and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
108 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 41½ Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.O.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, Georgt Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 396 George St.

Have You A Savings Account ?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

Music in the Home

VOICE CULTURE SHOULD BE TAUGHT IN THE CLASSROOM

Recent experiments show that voice culture can be satisfactorily taught in class form; instead of being, as at present, a strictly private affair. As a matter of fact, all subjects pertaining to the education of the individual should be under the control of the State.

It is not to be claimed that the result attained in the class form of vocal culture is equal to private instruction. Neither is it to be claimed that any other subject in the school curriculum can be compared with individual instruction or the instruction that a man gets from his own personal efforts in battling with the problems of life.

It is hardly necessary to call attention to the fact that in no other way than by means of class instruction can any subject be taught to the millions who must be educated.

The argument is advanced, and with truth, that high school subjects are as numerous as can be well taken care of; that to add any more would embarrass and clog the schedule of recitations. It is generally conceded, however, that certain subjects at present taught can be done away with without lowering the educational standard as to value and practicability. The progress made in certain subjects is so limited as to be virtually of no practical use to the student, and, furthermore, they are subjects that must ultimately be left in the hands of specialists. It would be better to dispense with one or two unnecessary subjects and substitute vocal culture.

THE BLESSINGS OF MUSIC.

In summing up the blessings and benefits to be derived from music in times of peace, let us not forget that it is a mighty safety valve in time of war. It lightened the burdens of our soldiers at the front, they marched with fresher tread to the strains of martial music, their morale was strengthened, their feelings soothed, their patriotism fanned into a living flame, and music, "sacred tongue of God," inspired them with confidence which is the mother of victory.

At home, what a blessing to be able to express, or have expressed for us, the concord of sweet sounds our patriotism, our griefs, our joys our hopes and fears? "The Marseillaise is worth a million men to France." The sun, the moon, the stars, the earth and the sea are chanting a mighty requiem, expressing in the harmony of God His gratitude to those who have died for Truth and Ideals. Let us foster ideals, education and the things worth while in the youth of the land so that they may be worthy successors of those who have died to make us free. Let us foster music in our homes, in our national and civic life, the most perfect expression of truth and beauty.

Since the beginning of time, when "the morning stars sang together and the songs of man shouted for joy," music has been the best medium through which to express feeling. This great world of ours moves in rhythmic precision, the stars in their courses move in perfect harmony, the seasons come and go, the tides ebb and flow, the hearts of the world keep time in a great harmonic accompaniment to the melodies of life. Where laughter fails there music begins.

THE ART OF ARTICULATION.

In order to attain perfection in articulation the vocal pupil should practice reading aloud to one or more persons, paying particular attention to the complete articulation of every consonant, slowly, with due regard to punctuation, as well as to inflection and expression. The syllables and words should be carried on from one to another as if they were the notes of a legato vocalize, but with every consonant properly attacked and completely released.

If every word of the singer can be heard distinctly when reading he will be understood just as clearly when singing, provided he attacks and releases the consonants as perfectly as when reading.

The singing of songs, ballads, lieder, and so-called art songs needs perfection of articulation even more than the operatic singer. The latter has all the picture of the stage to help in telling the story: dress, make up, scenery, action, gestures, and what not, to say nothing of the preceding gradual unfolding of the plot. The concert artist has none of all that.

READ MUSIC MENTALLY.

Keats says:

"Heard melodies are sweet,
But those unheard are sweeter."

And just as a book lover revels in a new literary work so should the musician be able to take up a piece of new music, and find in it as he looks at the notes all its beauties of composition; every shade of feeling; all that its composer has put into it, enhanced may be as be turns to his piano to use its notes to help him out.

If it be a new song and he a singer, he will use his voice as the instrument with which the music of the piece is expressed, while, should the piece be concerted, how much more will his pleasure be if he can call in other vocalists gifted in the same way to help in the interpretation of the composition.

The musician should mentally hear his music, yet how few there be capable of so doing, for it is something of a feat, yet, by will to study, it can be attained.

It is certainly of the greatest importance to every musician who seeks to excel for him to gain this most important phase of his art in reading mentally any page of printed music. The road of harmony is a hard one to travel, but it has its guide; and, with sedulous practice and determination, every musician may secure the ability to read at sight any page of music as easily as he can read the words of this article

IF SCHUMANN HAD BECOME A LAWYER.

There Would Be No Traumerei, No Two Grenadiers, Etc.

Did you ever think what would have happened if Albert Schumann had studied law instead of giving his life to music? Supposing he had put on the wig and gown to defend criminals in court, or to search titles, draw up wills, deeds, mortgages and agreements instead of turning out scores of compositions, then we would have had no "Traumerei," which is a great favorite everywhere for piano, violin or 'cello—no "Two Grenadiers," for male voices to sing in French and Italian—no Schumann works of any description.

At the age of seven little Robert had shown musical aptitude which his father encouraged. Before he was twelve he had read much music, organized a schoolboy orchestra and gained local fame as a pianist. At sixteen he lost his father, and his mother set her mind to making a lawyer out of her son. She sent him off to study law, but he became engrossed in music, so much so that finally, after what he termed the "Twenty Years War," his mother yielded and gave her consent to his becoming a musician. Settling down to serious study, Schumann intended becoming a piano virtuoso.

Unfortunately his hand became crippled, so he confined himself to composing. First it was wholly for piano, but afterwards he went in for songs, orchestral works, chamber music and the larger vocal works. In one year alone Schumann produced between 130 and 150 songs, for which he is best known today. The mental strain of ten years of the closest application brought on a nervous breakdown. He became depressed in mind, and finaly one day stole away from his home at Dusseldorf and threw himself into the Rhine. Some boatmen happened to be near and rescued him. Two years later he died and was buried at Bonn, now known so well to many Canadian returned soldiers.

Schumann was a kindly man, liked young people, was respected, and lived a happy home life with his wife and five children.

DOTTED NOTES.

The most important point about your piano is its tone. Good tone is impossible apart from regular tuning.

Listening to good music is worth bottles of medicine. It relaxes the body, rests the nerves, and provides recreation for the mind.

"I am a devoted lover of music. I give organs to churches or help churches to get organs, because I am willing to be responsible for everything the organs say, though I could not be responsible for all that is said from the pupil." — The late Andrew Carnegie.

Grieg, the exponent of Norwegian music, once became interested in an old folk song which he overheard a dairy maid singing while milking a cow. Grieg placed a piece of paper against the cow's side and recorded the air as the girl sang it. He afterwards told a friend he had a new melody "fresh from the cow."

It is well understood that only a limited number of people can ever expect to be real artists in performance, and that by far the larger number of people may expect to enjoy their contact with music through listening to it. The art of listening to music may be cultivated just as truly as the art of performing music. To this end systematized courses of study in listening to music are now in operation in many cities, beginning with the first classes in the public school and extending through the high school.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

LOOK AT TONGUE- REMOVE LOOK AT TONGUE! REMOVE POISONS FROM STOMACH.

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

GREATEST MAN ON ANY BATTLESHIP

TO THE CHIEF FIRE CONTROL OFFICER IS ATTRIBUTED THAT HONOR.

The greatest man in the navy. That is what the chief fire-control officer of a modern battleship is without any doubt, says Spare Moments. He it is who controls all the hog guns of the modern mistress of the seas as he sits with a few assistants, in the steel enclosed heart of the ship, firing guns he cannot see at an enemy he cannot see!

How is this?

By way of explanation let us state that high above him in the steel mast of the ship are expert gunnery officers. These same possess marvellous telescopic rangefinding instruments by means of which they locate the enemy's distance and speed.

Their observations are communicated to the chief fire-control officer below by the medium of telephones and speaking tubes. This latter officer must primarily be a mathematician of the first water, for from the observations of the gunnery officers above he must calculate the elevation of his guns which are to be trained on the hostile ship. These estimations are sent to the gunnery experts above, who have the guns regulated in accordance to the fire-control officer's demands.

This is where the firing at an enemy of the guns he cannot see comes in. When all the above formalities have been dealt with the chief control-officer presses an electric button and this fires the guns. Should his first shot miss the mark the gunnery officers above acquaint him with the fact, and also by how much. Then everything is gone over again and the odds are in favor of his hitting the mark at a second attempt.

FOUR TENDERS FOR GARBAGE CONTRACT

PROPERTY COMMITTEE POSTPONE ACCEPTANCE TILL A LATER DATE.

Tenders were received for the city's garbage collection at the meeting of the Property Committee of the City Council last evening, from P. Anglesy, S. Mitchell and F. Turner, F. Board and J. H. Bennett, and E. Blodgett and John Murphy.

After careful consideraton the matter was left over and Mr. Anglesy will be asked to meet the committee.

Great satisfaction was expressed at the manner in which the work has been carried out during the past two years.

The chairman of the committee was instructed to look into the matter of the insurance on the Nashne Paper Company building recently purchased by the city.

Those present were Ald. Hamilton (chairman), Mayor Duncan, Aldermen Phelan, Edgar and Crowe.

HAVELOCK

(Special Correspondence)

Havelock, Nov. 26. — Mrs. Alex Rose of town visited friends in Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Burgess left last week for their home in Kingston.

Mrs. Jas. W. Bryans and Mrs. H. Roche attended the Bryans-Kennedy nuptials in Toronto last week.

Miss Turner of Campbellford is visiting Miss Beatrice Easterbrook.

Mr. Gordon Adams, Delora, spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Rose Squire of Norwood spent the week-end the guest of her brother, Mr. F. J. Squire.

Mrs. Harold Francis and children of town are visiting with friends in Tweed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson left Havelock last week to reside in Toronto. Mr. Thompson, who has been the representative for East Peterborough in the Legislature for the past eleven years, and who previous to that had the honor of the reeveship of the village and the wardenship of the county bestowed upon him, has at all times been worthy of the highest commendaton in his public life, and his removal from our midst will be a distinct loss to Havelock. Every one unites with us in wishing them every success in their city home.

The dance in the town hall last week under the auspices of the I. O. F. was largely attended and a most enjoyable time was spent by every one present.

Mrs. Mac Foley and son, of town, are visiting in Toronto.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mr. A. O. Sawyer, and hope for an immediate recovery.

A number of the young people of town attended the I. O. D. E. dance in Hastings Friday night last.

Mrs. John A. Garratt of Toronto was in town this week.

The A. S. K. Class of the Methodist Church are holding a bazaar on Wednesday, December 17, in the basement of the church. Afternoon tea will be served from 2:30 to [illegible] o'clock.

Bryans—Kennedy.

The marriage took place at St. Anne's Church, Toronto, on Wednesday, Novebmer 19th, of Kathleen, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Kennedy avenue west, Toronto, to Mr. Wm. J. Bryans, editor of the Retail Druggist, Toronto, and only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bryans, of town. The Rev. Lawrence Skey conducted the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue dress embroidered with silver, and a handsome seal coat with opossum trimming, and hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, including a cluster diamond ring, the gift of the groom. The happy young couple left on the evening train for a trip to Buffalo Cleveland and other American cities.

Dance in Town Hall.

Invitations have been issued to a dance in the town hall on Friday evening, November 28. Moher's orchestra will furnish the music.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS YOU, DRINK LOTS OF WATER

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

HASTINGS

(Special Correspondence)

Hastings, Nov. 26.—A lifelong resident of Asphodel has passed away in the person of Mr. James Murphy, who had been in failing health for some time. The funeral was held on Monday morning and was well attended, interment being made in the Norwood cemetery.

A public auction sale of farm stock and implements was held on Wednesday last on the farm of Mr. Gordon Beavis. Those present report a good crowd and keen bidding. Mr. Beavis has sold his farm to Mr. J. Bannon, and has purchased a fruit and garden property about one mile from the village of Colborne, where he intends to reside.

Mr and Mrs. Thomas Wilson left last week for their home in California, after a pleasant visit with friends in this vicinity.

The local chapter of the I.O.D.E. held an assembly in the town hall on Friday evening, which was well attended, visitors being present from the surrounding towns.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. J. Collins is improving since her recent operation in a Peterborough hospital.

Col. Birdsall purchased a four-ninety touring car from the Hess garage last week.

Rev. Archie Thomson of Moncton has been the guest of his parents, Rev. D. A. and Mrs. Thomson, at the manse.

The Methodist church pulpit was supplied on Sunday by Mr. Thornton of Orono, who preached at both services in the interest of the National Campaign.

Fire broke out on Saturday morning in Mr. Ed. Lynch's garage. The alarm was at once sounded and the flames extinguished before much damage had been done.

Dr. and Mrs. Hess motored to Cobourg on Wednesday to attend the public ceremony in connection with the unveiling of the fine monument which the citizens have erected in memory of the fallen heroes.

Mr. Henry Beavis of Peterborough visited friends in this vicinity during the week.

Messrs. W. Thompson and Lloyd Hess went to Oshawa last week and brought down two new cars for the Hess garage.

Mr. James Fife of Edmnoton has been renewing acquaintances here.

A wedding of interest locally was solemnized on Wednesday last when Miss Annie, second daughter of Mr. Albert Brooks of Percy, became the bride of Mr. Oscar Phillips of Warkworth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Welsh, pastor of the Methodist church, and was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The young couple will reside in Warkworth. Mr. and Mrs. Philips have a host of friends who extend congratulations and join in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of Monaghan visited during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Fife.

Mrs. Reid of Lindsay is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Valleau.

Dr. Dennis and Dr. Perrin of Vancouver spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Fife.

Quite a fall of snow came on Tuesday, reminding us that winter is at our doors.

Mr. Ernest Tate returned during the week from a two weeks' hunt among the haunts of the deer.

Mrs. J. Murray and daughter Jean left during the week for their home in Woodstock after a pleasant visit with Hastings friends.

Miss Daisy Brooks has gone to Peterborough, where she has been engaged as clerk in Cressman's store.

Mr. and Mrs. McKensie of Michigan are guests of her sister, Mrs James Stenson.

Mrs. Cook of Elora is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Rork of Norwood visited friends in town last week.

SUGAR IS SCARCE

Western Retail Grocers Talk Over the Situation.

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—Harassed by sugar-seeking housewives, the retail grocers of Winnipeg are coming to grips with the sugar famine problem. The grocery section of the Retail Merchants' Association met yesterday afternoon to discuss ways and means of relieving the shortage and securing a more equal distribution of such sugar as is still available in the city. While some people have been unable to secure any white sugar for love or money, others have been permitted to obtain plenty. Nothing to relieve the famine was done after two hours talk.

Do so well to-day that you will have no fear of being done to-morrow.

YE OLDE FIRME

HEINTZMAN & Co.

Heintzman

A Canadian-made piano that holds first place within and without the area of our own broad Dominion.

Acclaimed the world's best piano by those best able to speak.

"I had no idea so good a piano was manufactured in Canada."—Freidheim.

A piano that endears itself to you as does an old and sympathetic friend.

First made 65 years ago.

Becomes better and is more loved as the years roll by. The product of three generations of Heintzmans

Heintzman & Co., Ltd.
W. LAWSON, Manager,
ROYAL BANK BUILDING, COR. HUNTER & GEORGE STS.

CO-OPERATIVE DAIRY COMPANY NOTES

The patrons of the Shearer Cheese and Butter Factory, Peterborough County, have been the first to definitely discuss and identify themselves with the proposed big Co-operative [illegible] Company. At the annual meeting of the patrons, held November 25, the project was discussed at length and the following resolution was carried without an opposing vote:

"Moved by Andrew Evans, seconded by A. P. Donaldson, that this meeting of the patrons of the Shearer Cheese and Butter Factory is in favor of the proposed big dairy company, being of the opinion that its formation is in the best interest of the dairy farmers of the country and we approve of he appointment of arbitrators to ascertain the value of the factory with the object in view of the patrons ultimately taking over its ownership and becoming identified with the proposed big dairy company."

The principle speaker was Mr. H. B. Cowan, of Farm and Dairy, who had been invited by the president to attend for the purpose of discussing it with the patrons. The president, Mr. Samuel Armstrong of Indian River showed the great savings that might be made by such a company, were the farmers who are patrons of adjoining factories to become identified with it also. At present there are a considerable number of rigs hauling milk to the different factories and the city, who pass and repass each other on the roads. A better division of the work would effect very marked savings. The patrons appeared to be unanimously of the opinion that the time has come when farmers must take hold of the market end of their business on a definite business basis and handle their dairy products in the same way that the grain growers of the West handle their grain. While the proposed company has not yet obtained its charter it probably will do so within the next few weeks after which progress should be more rapid. The Shearer Cheese and Butter Factory is owned by J. J. Hogan and is one of the best factories in the county. The total sales of milk, cheese and butter last year amounted to $32,101. The gross value of the milk per standard was $74.75. The net value of the milk shipped for city consumption per standard was $68.58. The net value of the milk made into cheese was $65.85. The net sum, after deducting all expenses, received by the largest patrons during the six summer months were S. Armstrong, [illegible]849 lbs; A. Evans, 63,257 lbs; W. W. Brown 57,604 lbs; K. Esson, 49,162 lbs; and W. E. Wood 47,415 lbs.

Shake the hands of some people and give some other people the shake.

LET "DANDERINE" BEAUTIFY HAIR

Girls! Have a mass of long, thick, gleamy hair

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty. You can have lots of long, thick, strong, lustrous hair. Don't let it stay lifeless, thin, scraggly or fading. Bring back its color, vigor and vitality.

Get a 35-cent bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter to freshen your scalp; check dandruff and falling hair. Your hair needs this stimulating tonic, then its life, color, brightness and abundance will return—Hurry!

DOMINION LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.
CENTRAL ONTARIO AGENCY
P. A. FERGUSON, :-: Manager
JAMES A. POGUE, :-: City Agent

FIRE, AUTOMOBILE, LIABILITY, ACCIDENT, SICKNESS and PLATE GLASS
INSURANCE

Immediate Consideration, Courteous Attention, Life-Long Satisfaction
PHONE 72 172 HUNTER STREET

A FIRST CLASS

HOT WATER BOTTLE

AT A LOW PRICE

Regular $2.50 For

$1.79

ON SALE NOW

MONCUR DRUG STORE

407 GEORGE ST.

"LOWEST PRICES ON PATENT MEDICINES."

IMPROVEMENTS FOR NEW COUNCIL

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT COMMITTEE DEALS WITH MANY PROBLEMS.

A number of improvements were proposed at the Fire, Water and Light Committee meeting last night, but most of these were left over for the action of next year's Council as the aldermen were rather dubious about increasing this year's expenditures any further as they are already over their appropriation.

A new system will probably be adopted to protect the lights on the Smith street bridge. Instead of the large glass bulb the lights will be attached to a rod with a goose neck arrangement to keep the light thrown on the bridge. Then the lamp bulbs will be covered with a fine wire netting to protect them from small stones. Ald. Morrison chairman of the committee, thought this would be the best system to improve the present unsatisfactory conditions of the lights. He is not yet certain of it, but he thinks the present wiring will be satisfactory for further use.

A request was received from the De Laval Company for a hydrant at the corner of Lansdowne and Park streets to protect their plant from fire, if in an emergancy their private system should prove inadequate.

On a motion of Mayor Duncan and Ald. Taylor this request was granted and the Utilities Commission was requested to also put a water maine along Lansdowne street to connect with the proposed mane for the protection of the Exhibition grounds.

A petition was received with several signatures for lights on the Otonabee road from the lock's bridge to Downer's Corners. This was referred to next year's Council.

Large Saving of Coal Possible.

Ald. Morrison stated that it took from 60 to 80 tons of coal to heat the fire hall with the present old-fashioned boiler and system. He had plumbers look at it and brought an engineer from Toronto who stated that 30 to 35 tons of coal would heat the hall with an up-to-date system. The members of the committee seemed to think this saving would make the installation of a new furnace worth while and referred the matter to the City Trust.

Ald. Morrison also broached a subject that will come up for the consideration of the new Council. This is the matter of paving the yard behind the fire hall for a place to wash the apparatus. He would also recommend that a hydrant be placed in the yard for the same purpose.

It was felt inadvisable to engage in any new improvements that were not immediately necessary and consequently the matter was left over for next year's committee to deal with.

Those present were: Ald. Morrison (chairman), Mayor Duncan, Ald. Turner, Hamilton and Taylor.

PRINCE THANKS AGENT

New York, Nov. 25.— J. M. Nye, chief special agent of the State Department who was responsible for the safety of the Prince of Wales while he was in the U. S., received the following wierless message today from the Prince on board the battle cruiser Renown:

"Many thanks for your unfailing care and kindness during my stay in the U. S. I hope to give you the trouble of looking after me again as soon as possible."

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and Bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and colds.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shocking your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep: they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience and Cascarets cost so little too.

HUNTING PARTY

Generally speaking, the hunting season of this year has been marked with great success. This is the impression we get, judging from the reports of returning sportsmen, which reports we hope are not miniature reproductions of "Iagoo" tales A merry party of 21 hunters returned on Saturday evening from Parry Sound district. Among the group was R. Neil, W, R. Widdis, W. D. Tyrer, R. J. Soden, Charles Turner, Lakifield, the others being from Soronto.

TAX SALE OF COUNTY LANDS

COUNTY COUNCILLORS CONTENT THEMSELVES WITH INFORMAL DISCUSSION

A tax sale was held in the County Council chambers this morning, before the session of the Council at which a considerable amount of land was auctioned off at low prices.

The Council was scheduled to meet at ten o'clock for the Warden's address but the Councillors contented themselves ith an informal discus-themselves with an informal discusion.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power,

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors With Nugent Drug Co.

EAT BUCKWHEATS--YES, YOU CAN

Or Any Other Kind of Food Set Before You. But You Need a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Help the Stomach Move It Along.

Hot biscuits, buckwheats, rich cake and many other tempting foods are declared to be wholesome, digestible and nourishing under normal stomach conditions.

"These Hot Cakes Give More enjoyment for Breakfast Than Anything Else Since I Discovered Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Many people, however, once got the notion they couldn't eat such things and have grown in prejudice as a consequence. They have denied themselves almost everything except milk and water.

But you will find here and there one of this kind eating onions, cucumbers, melons and other such terrors of the dyspeptic because he has found that by merely giving the stomach a little assistance there are no after effects from such indulgence. There is avoidance of gassiness, no sour risings, no water brash, you don't taste 'em hours after.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for both those who suffer after eating and for those who starve, for fear of suffering. They believe the distress of indigestion and they also serve to assist the stomach to prevent indigestion.

Eating should be one of our chief enjoyments. It is really the most attractive of social gatherings, and it is worth our while to realize that we may indulge freely by exercising the precautionary measure of aiding the digestive process. Thus you may eat your hot biscuits, buckwheats, rich cake, onions, mince pie, sausage and so on provided you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet afterwards.

WOMAN ASHAMED TO FACE HER SEX

TAKES STRONG EXCEPTION TO FAILURE OF STATES TO RATIFY TREATY.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—The declaration that the recent act of the Senators of the United States in failing to ratify the peace treaty did not represent the spirit of the country, aroused enthusiastic and prolonged applause from the hearers of Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, a prominent women lawyer, and member of the Bar Association Committee for the State of Illinois, who addressed the Women's Club here. "I am ashamed," said Mrs. McCulloch, "to stand before you today exhorting you to use the ballot for the safeguarding of the peace of the world, while there is fresh in your minds the action of my country as regards the League of Nations and the peace treaty."

"I wish," continued the speaker "that the Republicans would bring out Senator Lodge, the father of the opposition of the League of Nations, as the next Presidential candidate so that the women of the United States could show as a solid body what they thought of his action and of the action of those doddering Senators."

WHEN MEALS HIT BACK

"Pape's Diapepsin" instantly Ends Indigestion, Sourness, Stomach Acidity

Are lumps of undigested food causing you pain? Is your stomach acid, gassy, sour, or have you flatulence, heartburn? Then take Pape's Diapepsin.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all that dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress caused by acidity ends. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapepsin never fail to make sick, upset stomachs feel fine at once, and they cost very little at drug stores.

STEAMSHIP ON FIRE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 26.—United States Shipping Board steamer Auburn, bound from New York to Antwerp, arrived here with a fire blazing in one of her holds. Ship had a cargo of grain and live cattle.

HARTLEY DEWART MEETS LIBERALS

DISCUSSED POLICY OF PARTY IN THE FORTHCOMING SESSION OF LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Nov. 26.— Responding to the call of H. Hartley Dewart, K.C., some forty members and ex-members of the Liberal party in the Provincial Legislature met behind closed doors at St. George's Hall yesterday.

The gathering was presided over by Wellington Hay, with W. H. Adams acting as secretary. The meeting was called by Mr. Dewart for the purpose of discussing the general policy of the party in the forthcoming sesiion and to hear any protests. The pending by-elections came in for discussion, and the question of contesting some of the seats was brought up.

The presence of two members from Bruce County seems to indicate that steps may be taken in that riding. Two members before the meeting talked of entering protests but at the time of going to press nothing had been made public.

The Toronto members present were: H. Hartley Dewart, Lieut. J. Ramsden, J. Walter Curry and John O'Neil. Provincial members attending this morning were: Lieut. Stover Algoma, Dr. McAlpine, Brockville; F. Rennie, South Bruce; A. P. McWhinney, West Bruce; Malcolm Lang, Cochrane; W. J. Voverlock West Huron; J. H. Marceau, Nipissing; W. E. N. Sinclair, South Ontario; J. A. Pinard, East Ottawa; R. R. Hall, Parry Sound; F. W. Hay North Perth; N. Parliament, Prince Edward; Damare Racine, Russell; N. Asmussen, North Waterloo; Major Tolmie, Windsor.

In the recount in the Algoma riding, where Lieut. Stover, the Liberal member, got in by a majority of thirty-nine, and a ballot box was found to be missing, it is now claimed that already the recount has added another five votes to Lieut. Stover's majority and that he is not worrying whether the missing ballot box which is said to contain twenty votes for him, turns up or not.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

COUNCIL WILL EXCEED ITS APPROPRIATIONS

ALD. TAYLOR ANNOUNCES SEVERAL COMMITTEES ARE OVER ESTIMATE.

An astonishing fact was announced by Ald. Taylor, chairman of the Finance Committee, last evening when he stated that nearly all the committees of the Council were exceeding their appropriations and altogether the excess would probably amount to $10,000. The Fire, Water and Light Committee have had to face a long list of unexpected expenses. The Legal Committee has slightly exceeded its appropriation and the Board of Works has spent considerable more than its allotment.

This does not necessarily mean, however, that it is an extravagant Council, but it means that many unexpected expenses have been forced upon it.

CHILD BURNED TOD EATH

Winnipeg, Nov. 25.—George Collier, seven years of age, lost his life yesterday morning in a fire which destroyed the home while his parents were in the stable milking.

SINCE 1870 SHILOH 30 DROPS STOP COUGHS

EXPRESS PARCELS BY AEROPLANE

The Canadian Express Company and the Grand Trunk System, in conjunction with the Handley-Page Air Line, is now despatching express packages from London to Paris, Brussels and Amsterdam, by aeroplane, with return service from those points to London. This illustration shows shipments for Paris destined for Canada, being unloaded from one of the big machines at Brooklands. These shipments include high-class model millinery purchased by Canadian merchants in Paris and shipped from that fashion centre at the latest possible moment to catch the fast steamships, so that such models will be able to reach the cities of the Dominion as quickly as similar models reach New York. Passenger service by aeroplane is also in operation between the same points. music shrdluetaoin

The Toronto Amateur Hockey Association, slated to organize here to night, is promised opposition by the All-Toronto Hockey Associatinon, which controlled the local outdoor leagues previous to the war.

A new wage scale and working agreement has been signed betwwen the U. S. Railway Administration and officials of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers.

TODAY'S SESSION OF COUNTY COUNCIL

WILL APPOINT A COMMITTEE TO MEET VICTORIA RE-KINMOUNT BRIDGE

The fall session of the County Council resumed at two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Peck explained the Kinmount bridge question and advised that the Council appoint a committee to meet a committee from Victoria County in an attempt to avoid the necessity of arbitration. He advised, however, that they give someone the power to appoint their arbitrator so as to be prepared if the committees fail to agree. The legislature ruled that each county should bear a proportionate share of the expense of the upkeep of the bridge. The matter was deferred until tomorrow when Mr. Peck expects to receive more information from Victoria County.

A motion, moved by Mr. Griffith and seconded by Mr Nichols, that Mr. Anderson be appointed to meet the city in connection with the county road system passed.

A letter was read from the county registrar applying for a larger space and more room to do his work. This was left over for the Property Committee to consider.

The purchase of a new coat of arms for the court room was discussed.

R. J. Fleming entered a denial of the evidence given by James T. Gunn in the probe into the Toronto street railway strike last fall.

To Manufactures, Wholesalers and Other Importers

OF

BITUMINOUS COAL

Any of the foregoing who have orders at mines not affected by the strike in the United States are requested to furnish full details of same to the undersigned.

In order to prepare for a proper distribution of coal it is requested that this information be sent to this office as soon as possible.

H. A. HARRINGTON

Fuel Administrator for Ontario

November 24, 1919.

The Logs that flow down the Ottawa Rapids

FROM the illimitable timber limits up in Northern Canada, thousands of logs come careening down to Eddy's Factory.

Twenty-five thousand feet of soft, smooth-fibred pine enter this factory every day. There it is stored with scientific care long enough to make it burn freely and odorlessly. Then it is split up into fragrant blocks and fed to automatic machines and quickly turned into perfect matches.

Your preference for Eddy's and the choice of hundreds of thousands of other Canadians requires us to put out seventy million matches a day to meet the demand.

The E. B. EDDY CO. Limited

HULL, Canada

A-13

Makers of the Famous Indurated Washtubs, Etc.

TO-NIGHT! GRAND TO-NIGHT!

DONT MISS SEEING

D. W. GRIFFITH'S

"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

AND THE

ROYAL HAWAIIN SINGERS AND PLAYERS

SPECIAL AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

SATURDAY MATINEE and EVENING

THE FAMOUS IRISH SINGING COMEDIAN

BARNEY GILMORE

IN

THE GREATEST OF ALL IRISH PLAYS

"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN"

HEAR GILMORE' SING "I LOVE YOY KATE"

"IN IRELAND COUNTY TYRONE," ETC.

Prices Evening $1-75c-50-25 —POPULAR MATINEE— 25c AND 50c

SEATS ON SALE THURSDAY

OMING 2 DAYS ONLY

MONDAY, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1-2 TWICE DAILY

F. STUART-WHYTE'S
RED RIDING-HOOD
4TH ANNUAL PANTOMIME

— JUST ONE BETTER THAN "ALLADDIN" —

PRICES EVENINGS $1.50 $1-75c-50 MATINEE TUESDAY $1-75c-50c-25c Seats On Sale Friday

THEATRICAL

WONDERFUL SPEECH IN THIS IRISH PLAY

There is a wonderful speech in "The Rocky Road to Dublin," which comes to the Grand Theatre on Saturday, matinee and evening, delivered by Barney Gilmore, who is once more starring in this great Irish play. Mr. Gilmore has been delivering this speech many years before the Prohibition party became a factor in the affairs of this country and always received rounds of applause at its conclusion. The speech is as follows:

"Mr. Masterson, as ye drive down the road the little jaunting car will show you a rise in the ground with a big tree over it. On that spot, remember that is Ireland, the world's greatest temperance speech was delivered; and from that a wave a temperance started which swept around the world and carried men from gutters to comfortable homes. That speech is still sweeping the world and will until the end of time. When you again speak of an Irishman drink, please give a thought to Father Matthew."

GREATEST SUCCESS OF ALL ENG. PANTOMIMES

"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD" AT THE GRAND, DEC. 1 AND 2.

"Little Red Riding Hood," the fourth of a series of English pantomimes imported to this country by F. Stuart-Whyte, the noted British author-manager, will be the offering at the Grand, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 1 and 2.

By his previous productions, "Aladdin, "Robinson Crusoe" and last year's "Cinderella," Mr. Whyte has established a reputation for gorgeous musical shows that has placed his offerings in a class by themselves.

The reception which has been accorded this his latest effort, amply evidences the fact that "Little Red Riding Hood" is destined to prove an even greater success than any of his preceding importations.

This has been made possible largely by his being on the ground during the demobilization of the Imperial troops and women war workers, this summer in London. A desire on the part of many former pantomime artists to see the country which sent such wonderful fighting men overseas, helped greatly in getting their signatures on the contracts for an extended tour of Canada and the United States. Before the expiration of those contracts they shall have gained quite a knowledge of the new world, as their itinerary covers practically every important city between Halifax and fictoria and Portland. Oregon to Portland, Maine.

SUNDOWN TRAIL

JUST SEE THE WEST AS IT IS SHOWN AT THE EMPIRE

"The west that was" with its picturesque lawlessness, its daily shooting scrapes, its gaudy dance halls, its scarlet doves and the fierce untamed passions of its red-blooded men and women, is depicted in "Sundown Trail." Munroe Salisbury's newest Universal starring vehicle, which comes to the Empire Theatre Thursday.

Salisbury is seen as "Quiet" Carter, an easy-going Southerner who goes to a wild mining camp to discover that red blood counts for more than blue and that "the survival of the fittest" in that community is largely a matter of a quick triggerfinger.

The story was written by J. G. Hawks, author of many of William S. Hart's and Dorothy Dalton's best known feature productions. The play was directed by Rollin Sturgeon, who first achieved fame for his "God's Country and the Woman," starring Nell Shipman, and who has added to his fame with "Destiny," starring Dorothy Phillips, and "Pretty Smooth," starring Priscilla Dean, two late Universal attractions.

The entire company spent a month on location in Plumas County, California, the famous Feather River country, where scores of picturesque exterior "shots" were made.

Two spectacular incidents in the production are the hurling of Clyde Fillmore, the "heavy," into a rapids, and a hand to hand knife battle between Salisbury and Fillmore.

The glittering gaudy dance halls of the early days are vividly pictured in the production. Alice Elliot, who played the role of his Italian sweetheart in "The Sleeping Lion," is Salisbury's leading woman in "Sundown Trail." Others prominent in the cast are Beatrice Dominguez and Carl Stockdale.

ALLEN THEATRE

Last Time To-day To See

THE SPECTACULAR RACING DRAMA

"LORD AND LADY ALGY"

—with—

TOM MOORE

It will bring cheers to your lips. And tears to your eyes.

One Day—TO-MORROW—Only

ELSIE FERGUSON

—IN—

"The MARRIAGE PRICE"

"THE GREAT GAMBLE"

(Episode No. 13)

is nearing the finish. Don't fail to see the remaining two episodes.

THE LUCK OF THE NAVY

"The Luck of the Navy," presented by the original London company, headed by Percy Hutchinson, after playing for nearly two years in London will appear at the Grand Dec. 5 and 6.

The entire British company and production will appear here. The play has been one of the biggest successes of the past few seasons in London. It is the story of the special providence which watches over the navy men and is said to be a strong dramatic comedy drama, expertly acted by a company of capable players. The cast includes besides Mr. Hutchinson, Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey, Miss Kate Carew, Miss Elsie Stranach, Mr H. Croker-King, and many others.

THRILLING SCENE IN [illegible] Y.M.C.A. MINSTREL SHOW

One of the most exciting and thrilling scenes ever conducted on a Peterborough stage will take place at the Grand Opera House on Thursday and Friday night. At some expense the Y. M. C. A. Minstrels have arranged to have the Bull Fight from Red Ink reproduced on the stage. very minute detail has been arranged, and protection for the audience has been assured. Come and see the Toreadors shoot the bull.

Mr. George Wesley and Mr. Vern Morphet, who so ably took the part of end men last year, will play the same role now. George's supply of jokes has not diminished and Vern's talk is just as glib as ever.

To outline all the wonderful features of this show would need large space and detract from its value to those who intend to see it. However, we will state that several features, including saxaphone selections, dancing girls and an augmented orchestra will add to its store of fun and laughter.

Come one and all to this wondrous creation of cleverly arranged songs, dances and jokes. This completes the introduction to Mr. Asa Huycke's latest success.

The Y. M. C. A. Minstrels.

Most Famous Chinese Dish.

What has been considered by Oriental epicures as the daintiest dish in China, the birds' nest, is the product of the sea swallow, which constructs its nest of a gelatinous substance taken from sea moss. The Chinese method of preparing the nests for the table is to soak them and boil them in milk until they are very tender. Then they are placed in clear soup and are ready for use. On his trip to China, General Grant was much feted, and one of the dishes set before him was the birds' nest.

Keeping Even Temper.

Weariness, tired nerves, poor digestion, sudden demands, an overdose of perspiration and a dozen other things will unbalance the temper. You can't always regulate yourself, but you can do a great deal toward keeping the body in trim. You can see to it that the poor old back does not get a load too heavy to be borne. You can also try to guard against surprises that unbalance the mental mechanism and send the mercury skipping skyward. It's the best way to keep an even temper.

THE MARKETS

(Special to The Review.)

Toronto, Nov. 26.—Cattle market receipts were fair and trade steady.

Choice butcher steers	$12.00	$13.00
Medium butcher cows	6.50	8.50
Calves	16.00	18.25
Ewes	7.00	9.25
Lambs	13.75	14.25
Hogs, selects, f.a.w.	16.75	16.75

PETERBOROUGH MARKETS

Veal, lb.	.22	to	$ .25
Beef, lb	.16	to	.18
Chikens, lb.	.25	to	.25
Live hogs, cwt	17.00	to	17.00
Dressed hogs, cwt.	27.00	to	27.00
Grain.
Flour, retail	6.00	to	6.00
Marquis wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.04
Spring wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Fall wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Peas, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Oats, b.	90	to	1.00
Barley, b.	1.25	to	1.25
Flour, w.a., ½ bl.	5.67½	to	5.67½
Bran, short, ton	55.25	to	55.25
Bran, w.a., ton	45.25	to	45.25
Vegetables.
Beans, b.	4.00	to	4.50
Beets, pk	.40	to	.40
New carrots, pk.	.35	to	.40
Potatoes, pk.	.40	to	.40
Onions, lb.	.10	to	.10
Fruit.
Apples, eating, pk.	.50	to	.75
Apples, cooking	.30	to	.60
Cabbage, each	.10	to	.15
Bananas, doz.	.50	to	.60
Oranges, doz.	.40	to	.70
Lemons, doz.	.50	to	.60
Pears, basket	1.00	to	1.25

FOUNDER OF INDIANA

ONE OF THE MANY NOTABLE SONS OF MONTREAL.

After a Lengthy Discussion It Has Been Established That Francois Marie Bissot de Vincennes Was Born In the Ancient Canadian City on the Banks of the St. Lawrence River.

MONTREAL can be called the mother of the Canadian and American West, for men who were born in that city or were closely connected with its rise and progress, have bequeathed their names to the history or nomenclature of many localities on this continent; to wit, starting with Jacques Cartier, who (1535) discovered the Montreal island and district, erstwhile called the Kingdom of Hochelaga, and gave the mountain its name of Mont Royal or Montreal; Samuel de Champlain, who after discovering Lake Champlain (1609), founded in 1611 the first trading post of Montreal and called it Place Royale, giving the adjacent island, St. Helen, its name in honor of his young wife. Who can also forget that it was from this trading station at the head of navigation Champlain discovered (in 1615) the Ottawa river, the Lakes Huron, Ontario and Nipissing and the near west? Then there is the Chevalier sans reproche, Paul Chomedy de Maissonneuve, who organized the first permanent settlement and called it Ville Marie (1642). Nor must we forget the discoveries of the Jesuit missionaries, such as Chaumonot (with Brebeuf), discoverer of Lake Erie (1640), Isaac Jogues, the martyr, who, with Raimbault first explored Lake Superior (1641) and who named (1646) Lake St. Sacrement (afterwards Lake George); de Quen (1646), the finder of Lake St. John above the river Saguenay; Albanel, who first visited James Bay by the overland route from Quebec. Then there are La Salle (of Lachine), who founded Cataraconi (now Kingston) for Frontenac (1673) and afterwards (1682) explored the mysteries of the Mississippi to the sea, the task left undone by Joliet and Marquette, in 1672, La Mothe Cadillac, one time resident of Montreal, and afterwards the founder of Detroit (1701), and Duluth (c. 1690) (one of whose lodgings was hard by the Notre Dame Church) the founder of the city of that name. Then Biloxi was founded in 1699 by Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville to hold the [illegible] for France. Then his brother, Le Moyne de Bienville, founded Mobile (1701) and New Orleans (1718), and the Sulpician, Picquet, who founded (1748) La Presentation (now Ogdensburg).

Montreal can also claim some share in the discovery (1743) of the Rocky Mountains by La Verendrye of Three Rivers, for Montreal merchants financed his expeditions and indirectly Montreal may make a similar claim for the erection of Fort Bourbon (Lake Winnipeg), Fort Dauphin (Lake Manitoba), Fort Pontiyac at the mouth of the Saskatchewan by La Verendrye's sons in 1748.

Montreal, through its most distinguished son, Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville, the brother of the two Le Moynes already mentioned, and sons of Charles Le Moyne who lived on St. Paul street, left a legendary name for valor, wherever he went as a naval officer of France, Hudson Bay, Newfoundland, New England, and other places being the scenes of his exploits. Montreal has, however, given, under the French regime governors to Acadia such as a former governor of that city, the notorious Perrot (of Isle Perrot fame) to Il Royal (Cape Breton), Le Moyne de Chateauguay, to Canada, Louis d'Ailleboust, Louis Hector de Callieres and Phillipe de Rigaud, Marquis (I) de Vaudreuil, Claude de Ramezay, Charles Le Moyne de Longueuil, Pierre de Rigaud, Marquis (II) de Vaudreuil-Cavagnal, formerly governor of Louisiana. This reminds us that Louisiana, proclaimed (1684) as a country of France by La Salle, who had dreams of a French Empire in America, was supplied for its first two governors by sons born in Montreal or its district, viz, the brothers d'Iberville and de Bienville (II). The latter Jean Baptiste Le Moyne, Sieur de Bienville (II) was born in 1680 and died in Paris in 1768. In company with his brother d'Iberville (in 1699) he discovered the mouth of the Mississippi by sea, a joy missed through ill luck by La Salle in his ill-fated expedition ships from France (1684) shortly before his slaughter by his mutinous companions. It was this Bienville who ruled as Governor of Louisiana for forty years.

Of a later period, the British regime, what memories of western exploration from Montreal are not conjured up by the names of Sir Alexander Mackenzie, David Thompson of Columbia river fame, Sir George Simpson, the Henrys, the Frasers and all of the Scotch ilk of the Hudson Bay and Northwest Companies, as well as those of the magnates of the more modern railway era, too well known to be recited here.

Another name of the French regime has now to be added to Montreal's roll of honor, that of Francois-Marie Bissot de Vincennes, the founder of Indiana. This claim has recently been established without a doubt and the documentary evidence, compiled from the notarial deeds of this province, has been collected by the indefatigable rechercheur in "la petite histoire," Pierre Georges Roy of Quebec, the editor of Le Bulletin des Reserches Historiques, in a volume recently published and entitled "Le Seur de Vincennes Foundateur de L'Indiana et sa Famille."

Dr. Roy tells us that for a long time American historians were of one accord in acknowledging that a certain Sieur de Vincennes "had the distinction of opening out Indiana to civilization." Indeed, in the schools of Indiana the children are told the story of the heroic death of the founder of their state, at the hands of the savage Indians once peopling its now populous country.

Little else was known. Who was this de Vincennes? Was he a Frenchman from France or from Canada? This question has long puzzled the historians and the genealogists of this continent. Many tried to solve the mystery. Archbishop Spalding and Rev. M. Alerding, on the authority of Bishops Bulte and Hailandriere of the diocese of Vincennes, claimed him to be of Irish extraction, identifying him with one frequently spoken of as Morgan of Vincennes, and they had with them Judge Law and the historian Dillon.

It is now clear that this error arose from one of de Vincennes' names being "Margane"—not unlike Morgan in utterance.

M. Roy, with Shea, Tanguay, Suite and Canthorn, previously identified de Vincennes as a Canadian, fixing his family name and origin; but he erred in making the hero into his own father—Jean Baptiste Bissot de Vincennes.

In 1897 Major Edmond Mallet, born in the United States, but of Canadian origin, published a study in English and French on de Vincennes, which, while being a summary of the controversy, was an appeal for aid and for a more serious study, so as to obtain a definite solution of the identification of the founder of Indiana. But still not absolute proof was forthcoming

In 1916 the Hon. Mr. Merrill Moorse,, an Indiana deputy in the United States Congress and a serious student of the history of his state, made a journey to Quebec, sparing two days on his way to Congress, to try whether or not he could find justification in the archives of the province of Quebec for his suspicion that the mysterious founder of his state was a Canadian.

There at Quebec he met M. Pierre Georges Roy, who is in charge of the Provincial Department of the Dominion Archives, with the result that after two years' intensive search among dusty documents accumulated during three centuries, he has published his collection of proofs; which seem to end the controversy concerning the enigmatical Sieur de Vincennes. Montrealers should be grateful to this Quebec man of letters. For the founder of Indiana is no other than Francois Marie Bissot de Vincennes, grandson of Francois Bissot de la Riviere, first seigneur of Vincennes.

He was born in Montreal on June 17, 1700, of the marriage of Jean Baptiste Bissot de Vincennes, officer in the army, and of Marguerite Forestier. He was baptised the same day by M. l'Abbe Breslay, his godfather being his cousin, Francois Margane de Batilly, also an army officer.

The "Morgan" theory is thus now disposed of. In afterwards signing himself "Margane de Vincennes," Francois-Marie Bissot but followed a custom sufficiently common among French-Canadians under the French regime, as it is to-day, of using the godfather's name in preference to that given in baptism.

From his eighteenth birthday, our hero served with his soldier father among the Miami posts as a cadet. Later he was given the command of a military post on the Wabash river in the Illinois country. According to tradition, this was situated in the neighborhood, or perhaps even on, the actual site of the important town of Vincennes, the first capital city of Indiana. In this district he remained for many years, upholding the good name of France.

The want of success of the first campaign in 1734 of Le Moyne de Bienville, Governor of Louisiana, against the powerful Chicachas, prompted a second by him in 1736, by way of revenge, and with the intention of humiliating the Chicachas for ever.

This second attempt was also futile, although all the commandants of the posts of the west were ordered by the King of France to put their forces at the service of Bienville. One of the latter was the Sieur de Vincennes, then commanding the fort of the Peanguichias.

In the course of the campaign de Vincennes perished nobly by fire, with his companions and their Jesuit chaplain, Antoine Senat, after having been stripped naked, inhumanely insulted and cruelly beaten, and finally thrown on two blazing funeral piles on the little hill of the enemy's bourg.

This was on Palm Sunday, March 25, 1736. It is difficult to establish the exact site where this distinguished son of Montreal was put to death, but all the evidences are of one accord in placing the forts of the Chicachas near Fulton, in the county of Lee, Mississippi, in the United States.

One word more. Major Mallet in his appeal of 1897 expressed the hope that when the identity of M. de Vincennes should have been historically established, his memory should be perpetuated by a memorial in the state of Indiana. Causa finita est; may the statue in bronze of Francois-Marie Bissot de Vincennes of Montreal, grace a public place either at Vincennes, the ancient capital of the American Northwest, or at Indianapolis, the present capital of the state!

Time and tide wait for no man, but a woman will wait for him until another man comes along.

Single blessedness is considered better than twins.

Height a Bird Will Fly.

As a rule, birds do not fly at a greater height than 1,000 feet. Eagles have been known to fly to a height of 6,000 feet. A lark will rise to the same height, and so will crows.

He Wished.

"Did you follow up the old superstition and make a wish when you saw that load of hay?" "I sure did," said Farmer Corntossel, "I wished I owned it."

Convenient.

Pressing down a new holder for safety match boxes opens a receptacle in its bottom to receive cigar ashes and burned matches.

Control of the International Mercantile Marine has been definitely placed in the hands of England and Englishmen, according to the Liverpool Post.

EMPIRE THEATRE

ANITA STEWART —IN— "THE PAINTED WORLD"

WM. DESMOND —IN— "Beyond The Shadows"

Ford Educational — Comedy

THURSDAY—FRIDAY—SATURDAY

FRANK KEENAN —IN— "THE MIDNIGHT STAGE" A Story of Days of '49.

MUNRO SALISBURY —IN— "THE SUNSET TRAIL" An excellent 6-reel special with Salisbury at his best.

COMEDY

Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"

During each Performance the Serial will be shown first.

Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c

EMPIRE ORCHESTRA

Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

—COMING DECEMBER 4-5-6—

"JOE MARTIN"—The Missing Link

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.

Effective May 4th, 1919.

GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.39 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m. Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.

Daily except Sunday.

Daily except Saturday.

*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit, and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE

(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.

No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.

No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.

No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.

No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.

No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.

No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.

No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.

No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.

No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

Deadly Enemy of Mosquito.

The so-called "water dog" of the Pacific coast of the United States is a newt five to eight inches long. Though quite immune to natural enemies itself, it destroys all mosquitoes within its range, and in the experiments of Prof. A. C. Chandler, of the Oregon Agricultural college, a single individual may devour 200 mosquito larvae in 4 hours, besides killing as many more. This harmless creature may be placed in pools and streams where no fishes could exist.

Wheat in History.

The Romans introduced wheat into Great Britain. They did not have to carry it far, because before they invaded Britain they had conquered Gaul, the France of modern times, and the Gauls were growing large crops of wheat when the Romans crossed to the western islands. The Britons began to grow wheat, and the Saxons continued the work. Still, through the Middle ages the bread of the poorer classes was made of flour from the coarser grains.

COAL

...AND...

Builders' Supplies

Hardwood Flooring

Robt. Hicks & Co.

LIMITED

Lackawana Coal

Means Economy

Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.

Trucking Orders Promptly Filled

Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.

163 CHARLOTTE ST.

PHONES 270-562

Canada Food Board License No. 8-[illegible]

D. M. MINICOLA

Best Fruit— Cheap

Best Vegetables Reasonable

Best Groceries At Right Prices

410½ GEORGESTREET

Bell Phone 93b

HARD COAL

EGG, STOVE, NUT, PEA

H. B. TAYLOR & SON

160 AYLMER ST.

Phone 209

MIXED WOOD

$7.00 Per Cord

Cutting and Splitting extra.

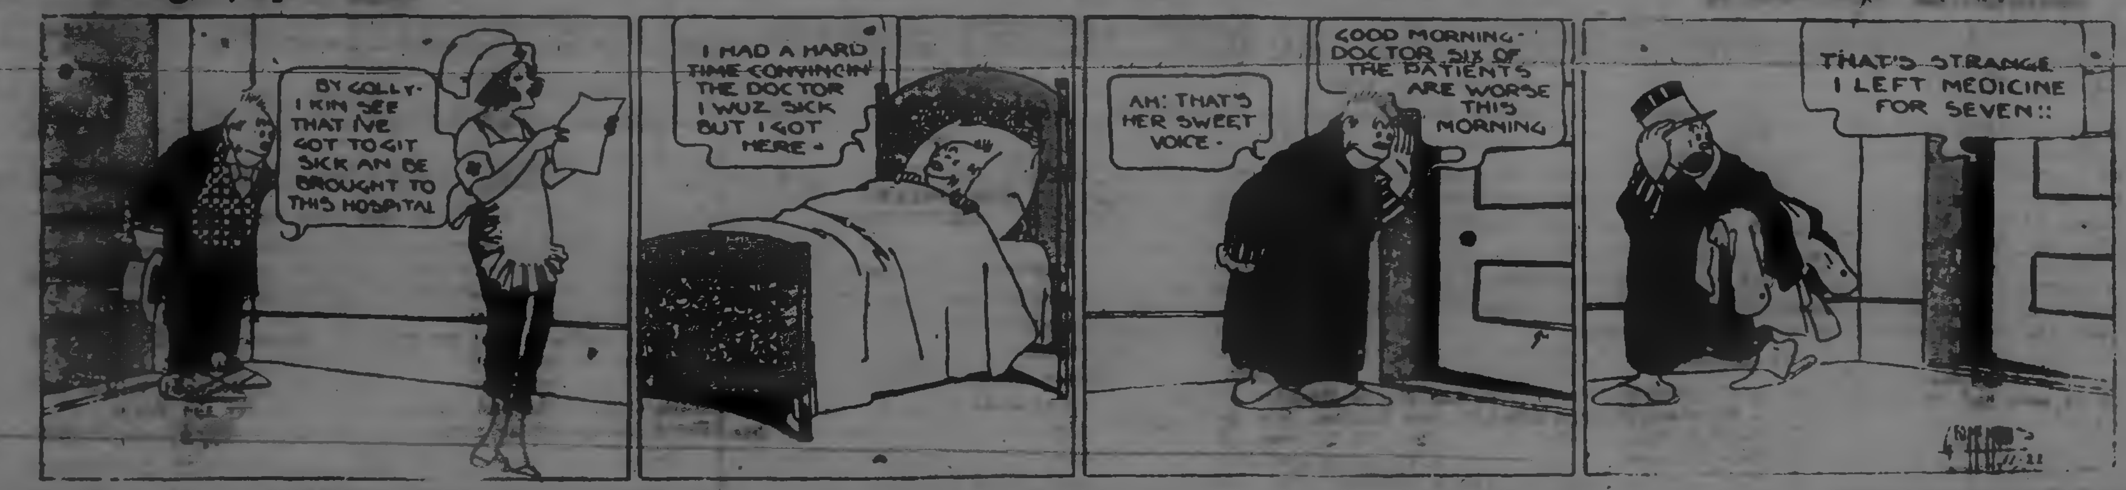
ORDER NOW

FROM

J. E. A. FITZGERALD

Phone 111

Bringing up Father By George McManus



BY GOLLY- I KIN SEE THAT I'VE GOT TO GIT SICK AN BE BROUGHT TO THIS HOSPITAL
I HAD A HARD TIME CONVINCIN' THE DOCTOR I WUZ SICK BUT I GOT HERE-
GOOD MORNING- DOCTOR SIX OF THE PATIENTS ARE WORSE THIS MORNING
AH: THAT'S HER SWEET VOICE-
THAT'S STRANGE I LEFT MEDICINE FOR SEVEN::

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

THROUGH TRAIN WITH SLEEPING CARS AND COACHES is now operated from

Toronto and Hamilton To New York and Philadelphia

Via Grand Trunk, Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia & Reading R.R.

Leave Union Station, Toronto........5.45 p.m. Daily
Leave G. T. Station, Hamilton.......7.05 p.m. Daily

Arriving New York at Pennsylvania Terminal, 32nd Street and 7th Avenue, and at Philadelphia at Reading Terminal.

DINING CARS ARE ALSO OPERATED ON THIS TRAIN

For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

EBER-ATKINS CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT WILL BE A FURIOUS GRUDGE AFFAIR

Little Bobby Declares He Will Give Atkins Something to be "Sore" About

Before the present week is out Bobby Eber, of Hamilton, or Fighting Dick Atkins, of Toronto, will be the happy possessor of the Bickell belt, the circular object that carries with it the bantam-weight championship of Canada.

The clever Eber and ferocious Dick will settle their little argument next Thursday night in Massey Hall, Toronto. That it will be one of the greatest fistic skirmishes that Toronto boxing bugs have seen in some time, and that the 4000-capacity Massey Hall will be jammed to the skylight is a certainty. Every person in Toronto is talking of the approaching affair, and making plans to be there.

Who will win?

That's a question that few would dare to answer. Ask a Hamiltonian and he'll immediately tell you that Eber would walk away with the belt. And ask a Queen City resident and he will in all probability whisper in your ear to have a bet on Atkins. It all depends on what side of Oakville one lives.

Both Eber and Atkins are in the best of shape. And both are fighting better than ever before. Those who saw them perform last Friday night in Loew's theatre know this.

Atkins, in his fuss with Jimmy Goodrich, showed a wicked punch in both hands, and an attack that was much better than anything he has ever shown either here or in Toronto. He deserved better than a draw decision. A few months ago when he met Goodrich at the H.A.A.A. field he finished second. He was badly outpointed. But to see him in action in Loew's showhouse, you'd hardly think it was the same boy. He surprised even Goodrich by his form reversal.

Eber is in better condition right now than he ever was. Nothing better than what he showed against Carl Tremaine could be asked for. He uncorked speed and cleverness along with a right-hand punch that made the Michigan wildcat realise that he was up against a boy with whom he couldn't afford to take chances. Physically, and in every way, Eber looked to me a better boy.

Thus, with both lads primed to the minute there will be no excuses. And whoever gets the verdict, it promises to be a red-hot contest from the moment that they are sent into action.

Usually boxers are not bad friends. They do their best to beat each other up when in the ring, but after the glove-throwing is over they appear to be quite chummy. With Eber and Atkins, however, this is not the case. They're not friends. They don't even speak. Eber made this known on Friday night, following his bout with Tremaine, when he said that Tremaine and Atkins are the only boys he has met that he doesn't like. According to Bobby, Atkins absolutely refused to speak to him after their last bout in Toronto. That's a crime in Bobby's eyes and he declares that he will give Atkins something on Thursday night that will make him feel like an enemy for the rest of his life. It surely should prove a [illegible]

When Atkins and Eber met in Toronto recently neither boy was fit for battle. Eber was absolutely stale and he showed it in his every move. And Atkins, bymaking 118 pounds, ringside, was a weakened kid. Despite the fact that both were unable to do themselves justice, they put up one of the liveliest bouts ever seen in the Toronto Arena. They went to it like a couple of strange bull-dogs, and it was a ding-dong set-to all through the ten rounds.

On Thursday night they should look even more ferocious. They will enter the ring at 122 pounds. Eber is sure to be in the pink of condition, and Atkins, weighing 122 pounds, ought to be at his best.

AUSTRALIA CLAIMS VERY FAST SPRINTER

LOOK FOR GREAT RESULTS FROM HIM IN OLYMPIC CONTESTS.

By the time the Olympic games approach it is not known how many sprinters capable of doing "even time" for the hundred yards or hundred meters will have been developed. A new aspirant to a place among the foremost of flyers is an Australian, R. R. Burguez, a newcomer at sprinting. At the Queensland track and field championships Burgess did the hundred yards in 9 9-10 seconds, and won with such ease that oldtime athletes predict he will be the next man to be chronicled in 9 3-5 seconds. Berguez is a tall fellow with wonderful stride and like lightning off his mark.

As the Australians have already begun to prepare a team for the Olympic games, they are overjoyed at the sudden appearance of so good a sprinter.

"SHAG MAY LEAD LEAFS

Frank Shaughnessy is mentioned in connection with the management of the Toronto International league club. Rumor has it that he is quite certain to get the job. But whether or not the big fellow will accept it is another question.

"MIKE" GIBBONS RETIRES

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul phantom, yesterday announced through the Associated Press that he has decided to retire permanently from the ring. Gibbons who is wealthy, said he gave today his promise to Mrs. Gibbons that he will never again participate in a ring battle.

Canada Bread was accumulated in large volume on the Toronto Exchange, the price advancing several points then reacting slightly.

The Ridley football team, champions of the Little Big Four, were defeated by the Old Boys in an exhibition game at St. Catharines.

WHY ENGLISH ARE BETTER OARSMEN

HARVARD MAN PAYS WARM TRIBUTE TO ENGLISH CREWS.

The secret of the success attained by English crews in international competition, the latest of which took place in the Royal Henley peace regatta last July, followed by the inter-allied regatta later in the same month in connection with the inter-allied games, is that there are no secrets among leading English oarsmen. This was the opinion of Major Paul Withington, former Harvard all-round athlete, who coached the American crews in the international competition at Henley and Paris, and represented the United States in the single sculls.

"The absence of the professional coach in English rowing as the American knows him makes of rowing in the British Isles an open book," said Major Withington.

"The schoolboy in England, much earlier than the boy in the United States, is taught to row. He is taught the universal English system. That is much different from the case here in the United States, where, as characteristic of the American, more emphasis is placed on the winning. New features that help for speed in crew, if discovered, are maintained a secret.

"The main disadvantage of the American crew at Henley early in last July, where the Yanks went to the semi-finals, to be defeated in a great race by Oxford, was that in the short time available the Americans were unable to gain the team work of the English crew, members of which, in addition to having been longer together, were all familiar with the same system. The American eight at Henley which competed for the King's cup was composed of men representing five great rowing colleges of America. The personnel included Lieut. Collis J. Coe (Yale), bow; No. 2, Captain Roy Pullen (University of Washington); No. 3, Lieut. J. Howard McHenry (Yale); No. 4, Lieut. H. Middendorf (Harvard); No. 5, Captain Louis Penney (University of California); No. 6, Major Herman L. Rogers (Yale); No. 7, Lieut. J. Amory Jeffries (Harvard); stroke, Captain Douglas Kingsland (Cornell); coxswain, Lieut. Guy Gale (University of California).

"With almost as many rowing systems to encounter as colleges represented, the difficulties encountered were much greater than if men had been taught the same system in college competition.

"That the Anglo-Saxons, including particularly the Americans, English and Australians, have clearly demonstrated their present superiority with the oars there can be little doubt. At Henley in the race for the King's cup, held on July 2, 3, 4, and 5, the Australians won first honors in the eights, defeating the Oxford crew in the final race after the Oxford crew had defeated the American eight in the semi-final round. The Australian is a splendid oarsman, using a distinct Australian system. Physically, the Australian probably is the most brawny oarsman in the world.

"An English crew again defeated the Americans at Paris in the inter-allied races. Cambridge this time winning over the Yanks by less than three-quarters of a length in a race in which first one boat nosed ahead, then another. Cambridge proved to be the ultimate winner of the event, defeating the Australians in the final."

Major Withington also stroked the four-oared American crew, composed of Lieut. H. E. Cook, bow; Captain Billings Wilson, No. 2; Captain C. D. Wiman, No. 3, and Major Paul Withington, stroke. The American crew here again was nosed out at Henley, despite a finish spurt which the London Morning Post expert described as plucky and sensational.

Why the French Fail.

The comparative failure of the French to succeed in rowing as well as their Anglo-Saxon brothers is due to the fact that they are as a class smaller in stature, and also because the French, as well as other continental peoples, do not possess the athletic instinct that is present in the Americans and English. Whereas competitive games are second nature to the American boy in grammar school, the French youngster at the same age has practically no organised athletic sport.

"The adaptability of the Briton toward any line of sport was shown at Henley, where we were training for the regatta," said Major Withington, "when the English boys would come to us in the evening and borrow the bats and balls and gloves which the Americans had in camp. Although cricket holds first place in the hearts of the English, they were much impressed with baseball as a sport.

"Premier Clemenceau recognized the comparative absence of athletics among the French when he saw the competitive games take so large and constructive a part in the daily routine of the Canadians, English, Australians, and Americans, and he made the statement to American officers that before he died he hoped to see the French an athletic nation."

PASTIMES WON TWO FROM LAWN BOWLERS

In the Business Men's 5-pin League at the Water street alleys, the Pastimes won two from the Lawn Bowlers. The first game was won by the Lawn Bowlers with the score of 868, Mr. R. Ross rolling a high single of 278, and the record of the Business Men's League for the three games with 635. For the Pastimes Miller was high with 523; King next with 516.

The scores were as follows:

The Pastimes.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Sullivan . . .	123	231	131—	485
Eakins . . .	122	112	208—	442
Craig	154	122	137—	413
King	156	176	184—	516
Miller	161	181	181—	523
Totals . . .	716	822	741—	2379

Lawn Bowlers.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Ross	278	164	193—	635
Hendry . . .	181	158	134—	473
Elliott . . .	145	129	183—	457
Oke	100	136	124—	360
Maynard . . .	164	143	107—	414
Totals . . .	868	730	741—	2339

BOWLING NEWS

The City Ten-pin Bowling League has been postponed until the following dates:

Monday, Dec. 1—High Rollers vs. De Laval.

Wednesday, Dec. 3—Quaker Oats vs. Business Men.

Friday, Dec. 5—King Pins vs. Grocers.

In Quaker Oats Ten-pin League Victors won three from the Monarchs. Yesterday afternoon the Victors won three straights from the Monarchs.

GOOD BOWLING BY EXCELSIOR CLUB

YOUNG MEN OF GEORGE ST. CHURCH ENGAGEG IN FRIENDLY CONTESTS

Six-thirty was zero hour for the inter-excelcior battle last night at the "Y" bowling alleys when Pidgeons' five met G. Robertson's team and lost two to the latter in five pins. Maynard and H. Coon's teams also featured in the big double-header where Maynard took two games from Coon. All players were out for a good time and realized it by trying to beat the other fellow rather than the wide world. Some good scores were made during the night but as the high total for the week so far is 309 no one seemed over anxious to wipe it off the slate.

The Scores.

	1st	2nd	3rd
Miller	162	181	100
Caffe	95	132	89
Barrie	136	162	158
Maynard	272	228	203
Robertson	136	...	111
	835	713	661
	1st	2nd	3rd
Coon	204	188	161
Wellwood	104	163	142
Buck	116	145	79
Graham	152	118	181
Copp	120	...	136
	696	614	699
	1st	2nd	3rd
McCracken	149	146	156
Rutherford	153	152	105
Coon	147	159	248
Hamilton	118	116	184
Pidgeon	171	221	113
	638	794	756
	1st	2nd	3rd
Robertson	130	139	163
McBride	144	146	112
Ivey	150	163	110
Boyce	126	174	142
Miller	247	221	160
	797	863	687

KEENE

Keene, Nov. 26.—A reception was tendered to Mr. Joseph Thornton at the home of Mrs. Alex Stewart last Friday evening on the eve of his departure to visit his mother at Blackpool in the north of England. During the course of the evening's entertainment the following address was read and Mr. Thornton was presented with a handsome 15-jewel Waltham gold watch:

"Dear Joe,—

"We, your friends, are assembled here to bid farewell to you. You have been among us for a number of years and have won our esteem and friendship by your kindness and ever readiness to assist whenever needed. You have ever shown a charitable and aviable character and will be greatly missed from our neighborhood. As a small proof of our feelings toward you, and a remembrance, we ask you to accept this watch. May it each time you look at it remind you of your true friends in Canada.

"Signed on behalf of the community — John MacFarlane, William Stewart."

Following the presentation Mr. Thornton made a most pleasing address, thanking the people for their kindness and his appreciation for the splendid remembrance.

Indian Missions.

Rev. Arthur arner, supt. of Indian Missions, visited Hiawatha Mission last Thursday evening.

Evangelistic Meetings.

Rev. Honey will begin a series of Evangelistic meetings at Bethel on Monday, Dec. 8.

Religious Institute.

An institute of religious education will be held in the Methodist Church on Monday, Dec. 1. The speakers for the occasion are Rev. Frank Langford, B.A., general secretary of Sunday Schools and young people's societies, of Toronto, and Rev. H. P. Kenney, of Campbellford. A number of delegates are expected from neighboring circuits in the Campbellford districts.

Local Briefs.

We are pleased to report Mrs. C. H. Byers, who was seriously ill during the past week, recovering nicely.

Still-born—A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Byers, of Trenton, at the home of Mrs. Byers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Houson, on Wednesday, Nov. 19.

Mr. E. H. Byers, of Freelton, and Mr. John R. Byers, of Oakville, were at the home of Mr. G. Houson a few days the past week.

The Wilmont Young Moving Picture Show Co. presented Uncle Tom's Cabin in moving pictures at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mr. Harold Roche and Miss Herr of Peterborough, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Roche's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Roche.

Mrs. T. B. Sharpe and children have returned to their home at Toronto after a pleasant visit with Keene friends.

Anniversary services at the Methodist Church next Sunday morning at 10.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. Chapman of St. James Church, Peterborough, will occupy the pulpit. Rev. Honey will exchange pulpits with Rev. Chapman.

Mr. F. A. Esson was in Peterborough on Tuesday to attend a meeting of the County Council.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Houson, of Peterborough, were in Keene on Thursday.

Mr. Michael Kenneally has purchased the "Sousie" property on Main street.

Mr and Mrs. Patrick Roche and Mr. Duncan MacFarlane motored to Westwood on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Tyler has moved into the property he recently purchased from Dr. C. F. Ross.

Messrs. Dave Wallis, Amos Shearer and Robert McCamus have returned from their hunting trip. Each bought home a deer, Mr. McCamus being a little more fortunate than the others, having killed a small bear.

Mrs. (Dr.) Ross and sons left last Friday for Tottenham where they will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Renwick entertained about fifty guests on Tuesday evening of last week with a card party and dance. A most enjoyable time is reported by those attending.

Mr. J. C. Reid, of Peterborough, was in the village on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. A. D. Anderson has purchased a home on Aylmer street, Peterborough and will soon move to the city.

Mr. Harry Garbet, of Lakefield, was at the home of Miss Agnes Laundsen last Thursday.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 296

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates

$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.

$3.00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds, Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. [illegible]

The Grand Trunk railway will take 7? passenger trains off its Ontario lines owing to the coal shortage, according ot a report from London.

Private Christmas Cards

⁂

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY

Optical Specialist.

410 George St.

Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

I. O. D. E. MEETING

The 57th Chapter, I.O.D.E. will hold their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in the Green Room of the Y.W.C.A. Final arrangements for the bazaar will be made. Every member is asked to be present.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

St. ANDREW'S MIDWEEK

The usual midweek service will not be held in St. Andrew's Church tonight, but will be held on Tuesday night in connection with the service preparatory to communion at which Rev. John Galt will speak.

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office: second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

LECTURE ON WESTERN CANADA

At St. Luke's church tonight at 7:30, the rector will lecture on Western Canada and its church problem. The lecture will be illustrated by a fine set of lantern slides.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

TRINITY CHURCH MIDWEEK SERVICE

At the midweek service in Trinity S. S. Hall tonight, short addresses on the Forward Movement will be given by Mrs. J. F. Diamond. Rev. H. M. Manning. Song service led by the choir at 7:45. Come.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 224J.

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church intend holding their sale of fancy work, aprons, dolls and home-made cooking at the home of Mrs. G. Walter Green, northeast corner of London and Water streets, Thursday November 27, afternoon and evening. There will be a tea room, and a fish pond for the children. A good musical program has been arranged. Don't miss this bazaar.

AUCTION SALE

Friday at Hancock's Auction room. Wardrobe, Leather Rockers, Dressers, Beds, Chairs, Cupboard, Kitchen Table, Refrigerator, Heaters, Linoleums, Carpenters' Tools, Guitar, Dishes, etc.

NOTICE.

A Special Meeting of the shareholders of the Co-Operative Society will be held in the board room, 200 Rubidge street, on Thursday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock. Every shareholder is requested to be present as the business is of utmost importance.

80TH BATTALION RE-UNION

In Belleville, on Friday, December 5th, 1919. Banquet at Hotel Quinte at 1.30 p.m., followed by concert in Griffin's Opera House by the original 80th Battalion Band, now the 91st Regiment Band of Hamilton. All ranks are requested to notify Lieut.-Col. W. G. Ketchison, Foxboro, on or before December 1st.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Fred. Gandy is attending Mr. Paton's School, Lindsay, taking a course in railway telegraphy. Mr. Gandy is a war veteran.

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. M. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and afternoon tea will be served.

The members of the Peterborough Progressive Club are invited by Mrs. W. R. Morris to her home, 483 Homewood avenue, to a closing meeting of the club on Friday, Nov. 28, at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Henry Beavis was a visitor to Hastings during the week.

Miss Clysdale of Toronto was in the city yesterday.

Mr. D. Hughes-Charles, formerly of this city, now of Toronto, is in town today on business.

FIRE AT RESIDENCE OF JUDGE HUYCKE

HEN HOUSE CAUGHT ON FIRE AND ENDANGERED WHOLE PREMISES

The residence of His Honor Judge Huycke Englebourn avenue, was in danger of being destroyed when about 10.30 this morning a hen house attached to the shed caught on fire.

The cause of the blaze was from hot ashes being placed against the outside wooden partition, setting it on fire and the blazes extended to the roof.

The damage will be slight as the fire was kept confined to the small building in which it started.

The heavy fire truck had to take the north end route by the Smith street bridge, and Chief Grange is dubious about attempting to cross the temporary bridge, on its completion, on account of the angle at which the tracks have to be crossed.

NOTICE

A parcel of clothing has been left at 318 Stewart street in mistake Will owner kindly call and claim at once.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Orangized by Dr. E. V. Frederick late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.

Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.

Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.

Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

Y.M.C.A. THEATRE MEETING

Next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 the second of the Y.M.C.A. theatre meetings will be held at the Allen Theatre. The address will be given by ex-Chancellor Wallace, formerly of McMaster University, now pastor of Westmount Baptist Church. Montreal. Ex-Chancellor Wallace was the Baptist representative at the front during the war and is known everywhere as a soldier and an orator. The subject of the address will be "An Overvaluation of a Kid." The meeting will be bright and it is expected that a large crowd will take advantage of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Wallace.

The attendance at the first of these Sunday meetings for men was so encouraging that the Association has arranged with the Allen Theatre for a series once a month throughout the winter. Good music will be a feature of the programme.

LABORITE WINS IN BRITISH ELECTION

POLLED 17,838 VOTES AS AGAINST 5,313 FOR NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC OPPONENT

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 26.—John Lawson Laborite, has been elected to the House of Commons in a bye election in Chester-Le-Street, Durham County.

Mr. Lawson polled 17,838 votes as against 5,313 cast for his National Democratic opponent, David Gilmour. Election was held November 13.

Dr. Poulin, M.P.P. in the Quebec Legislature, was charged with impeding the Military Service Act.

OTONABEE CHAPTER I.O.D.E. "AT HOME" BRILLIANT SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY

One of the most successful and most largely attended social functions of the season was the "at home" given in aid of the War Memorial Fund under the auspices of the Otonabee Chapter I.O.D.E. in the G. W. V. A. Hall last evening.

This excellently equipped hall, which is specially appropriate for such an occasion was thronged with a merry crowd of dancers, who tripped the light fantastic.

There was also ample opportunity to indulge in the game of bridge, over two hundred taking part in this popular diversion. Moher and Fitzgerald as musicians of the evening, excelled themselves on this occasion and earned for their orchestra many complimentary comments.

Dainty refreshments were served during the evening and every one appeared to thoroughly enjoye the evening's pleasures.

Who Were There.

A few of those noticed in the card room or dancing were Mrs. A. E. Coulthard and Miss Lancaster, vice Regents, Mrs. Aylmer, Mrs. C. L. Brewer, Mrs. N. D. Buchanan, Mrs. D. Carmichael, Mrs. J. W Fraser, Mrs. E. C. S. Huycke, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mrs. H. Morphet and Mrs. A. H. Stratton the patronesses Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Amys, Miss Archer, Mrs. W. Ackerman, Mr and Mrs. C. Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Abbott, Miss Esme Aylmer, Miss M. Armstrong, Miss E. Anderson, Mr. Albert Armstrong, Mr. Bain, Mr. and Mrs. W. Borbridge, Mrs. H. Bertram, Miss Nina Borradaile, Miss Laura Bellegham, Mr. and Mrs. George Boucher, Mr. J. Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. T. Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. R. Byers, Mr. J. H. Burnham, Mr. B. Breckenridge. Mr. Frank Barber, the Misses Buchanan, Mr. J. Brightman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brightman, Miss Burnet, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bond, Miss Belcher, Mr. Bronscombe, Mr. J. Batton, Miss F. Burnham, Mrs. A. P. Brown, Miss Cottingham, Mrs. F. Brooks, Mr and Mrs. Binham, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, Mr and Mrs. Russell Copping, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coulthard, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Mr. John Crane, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Campazzi, Mrs. E B. Clegg, Misses Cavanah, Mrs. S. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Carlisle, the Misses Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. Manson Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. Clydesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Cubitt, Mr. and Mrs. Cumber, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, Miss Robina Cummings, Mr. R. Catchpole, Mr. J. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Cormack, Mrs. C. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coon, Mr. L. Dickinson, Miss Dix, Mr. and Mrs. Widdifield, Miss Denne, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunsford, the Misses Dunsford, Mr. and Miss Doble, Miss Laura Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dahn, Canon and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Devey, Mr. Dedds, Mrs. Donnelly, Miss Denison, Miss Droupe, Miss Flora Davidson, Mr and Mrs. Vincent Eastwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. J. Eastwood, Miss Erskine, Miss Hazel Eaton, Miss E. Edwards, the Misses English, Mrs. R. Fortye, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fowler, Dr. an Mrs. Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiske, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fessenden, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gliddon, Miss Madge Graham, Mr. and Mrs George Gordon, Mrs. Gardiner Mr and Mrs. W. J. Greene, Mr. and Mrs J. F. Gemmell, Miss Grieve, Mr. and Mrs. Gilman, Misses Gladman, Mrs. R. Hounsell, Mrs. Harstone, the Misses Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. E Howson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hamilton, Miss Seabourne Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hatton, Miss Nora Hatton, Dr. and Mrs. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hooper, Judge and Mrs. Huycke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Holden. Mr. and Mrs. Heidermen, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jamieson, the Messrs. Gobbitt, Mr and Mrs. F. D. Kerr, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. King, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingan, Mr. R. Kingan, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. W. J Kent, Mr and Mrs. Fillaly, Mr and Mrs. Gordon Logan, Mr. Lech, Misses Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Seels, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mr. Douglas Laurie, the Misses Mulholland, Mr. Gordon Miller, Mr. Gordon Mathews, Mr. Jack McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. McKone, Miss Bessie Mather, Dr. and Mrs. Moir, Dr. and Mrs. McNelty. Dr. and Mrs. McClennan, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mason, Mr. Bruce Mills, Mr and Mrs. McElderry, Mr. and Mrs J. W. Diarmid, Mr. and Mrs. Morphet, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. Perks. Mr. Walter Perks, Mr. Louis Potvin. Mr. Harry Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paige, Miss Maud Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson, Miss Reinhardt, Mr. Herb Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Rattenbury, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sedgewick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider, Miss Stevenson, Mr. Walton Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stock, Mrs. Stenson, Mr Strathy, Mrs. Trebilcock, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Turner, Mr. and Mrs Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Townsend. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Widdess, Mr. and Mrs. R. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Walker, Miss Morrow, Mr. Allan Wade, and Mr and Mrs. Guy Whittaker.

Mrs. Sanderson and Mrs. W. R. Widdess won the first prizes at bridge, and Mrs. I. Rattenbury and Mr. W. Ford in five-hundred.

The Patronesses.

Mrs A. E. Coulthard, Miss Lancaster, Vice Regents; Mrs. J. A. Aylmer, Mrs. C. L. Brewer, Mrs. N D. Buchanan, Mrs. D. Carmichael Mrs. J. W. Fraser, Mrs. E. C. S Huycke, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mrs. H Morphet, Mrs A. H. Stratton.

OBITUARY

MRS. EDWARD SHIELDS

The death occurred at Toronto General Hospital, Tuesday, of pneumonia, of Mrs. Edw. Shields, formerly of Peterborough and recently of 677 Ontario street Toronto.

The funeral was held this afternoon at three o'clock from Rank's undertaking parlors to St. James' cemetery.

WILL SUPPRESS SINN FEIN CLUBS

GOVERNMENT PROCLAMATION PROHIBITING ORGANIZATIONS AND IRISH VOLUNTEERS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Dublin, Nov. 26.— Wdeispread suppression of Sinn Fein and other organizations in Ireland has been ordered by the Government. The official Gazette today publishes a proclamation prohibiting and suppressing Sinn Fein organizations. Sinn Fein Clubs and Irish volunteers, in all counties and boroughs in Ireland.

JOIN GREENE'S GRAFONOLA CLUB

Grafonola, Cabinet and 6 selections for only $49.90. $5.00 puts the outfit in your home for Christmas. Move quick! Supply is limited. Greene Music Co., Charlotte street.

ONE KILLED BY BOMB

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Lisbon, Portugal, Nov. 26. — Bombs were exploded in the railway station here last evening; one person was killed and some others were injured.

PREMIER BORDEN AT HOME TONIGHT

MANY PRESSING AND URGENT PROBLEMS ARE AWAITING HIS ATTENTION

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Nov. 26.— Premier Sir Robert Borden will be home from the south tonight, and many pressing and several more or less urgent problems are awaiting his attention.

The policy regarding the handling of forty millions voted by Parliament for soldiers' aid must be decided, also action must be taken respecting wartime prohibition, and a decision reached as to enquiry itno business and industrial conditions, preliminary to a revision of the tariff.

VISITS OLD HOME

Mr. James Skinner Spent Short Time in Owen Sound.

Mr. James Skinner, who for many years was uptown agent of the C. P. R. here, and who is now agent at Peterborough, arrived in town yesterday and is renewing old acquaintances, says the Owen Sound Sun-Times of November 18th. He is accompanied by his son, Mr. Fraser Skinner, who returned in July from overseas.

Mr. James Skinner speaks very enthusiastically of the progress made in Peterborough in recent years. At the present time business there is at top notch. The city has a population of 22,000 and is still growing. While he is warm in his praise of Peterborough, Mr. Skinner is still a great believer in Owen Sound and its future.

Messrs. Skinner are leaving this afternoon.

CABINET OF SILVER FOR MR. T. YERROW

LEAVING THIS CITY TO TAKE UP HIS RESIDENCE IN BELLEVILLE

Last evening a company of men of the G.T.R. maintenance of way and transportation departments visited the home of Mr. T. Yerrow, 461 King street, and presented him with a cabinet of silver and an address: the occasion being the departure of Mr. Yerrow from the city to take up his residence in Belleville

Mr. Yerrow came to this city in June 1914, to take over the post of supervisor of track of 8th and part of the 10th districts, succeeding Mr. Charles Mitchell of Lindsay. This was his first charge as supervisor of track and the very efficient manner in which he has carried on under the trying circumstances occasioned by the war, marked him for promotion. This transfer to a bigger job on the double track of the G. T. R. main line between Belleville and Toronto is an indication of the confidence placed in Mr. Yerrow, by his superior officers.

The gathering of fellow workers and friends at his home last evening was to express their regret because of his removal from the activities of the 8th and 10th districts, and to wish him success in his new field of labor.

The Address

Following is the address which accompanied the presentation:

Dear Mr. Yerrow:— On the eve of your departure from our city of Peterboro, a few of those who have been associated with you in the great endeavour to keep the two shining lines of steel in fit and proper shape—so that the way-faring man might ride in comfort and safety—a few of those who have helped you keep open the lines of communication—in many a mighty battle with the storms of winter and who have endured with you in the heat and burden of many a summer day—have gathered in your home tonight to say "aurevoir" for we will not say "bood-bye," and to wish you God-speed as you start out in your new field of endeavour.

For five years you have gone in and out among us and those five years have been memorable ones in the history of our country and in the history of the world. It was your lot not to go to fight in the fields of Flanders but to stay with the goods and to do your bit in hurrying the goods to the boys in the trenches. Right loyally did you do your duty in this respect as we are here to testify and we are the men who know.

You have every reason Sir, to be proud of your record of the past five years. You are passing on to greater things and new fields of endeavour but your work on these districts will stand as moments of your skill and energy. We deeply regret your passing from our midst but it is only another proof that you cannot keep a good man down.

We are not going to let you part however, without expressing our regret in a more tangible form than in words. We desire that you shall have some momento from those whom you have left behind and whose hearts shall ever beat in sincere friendship for yourself and your family. We therefore ask that you will accept this cabinet of silver.

May you and your good wife live long to enjoy them and God grant you health adn prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the donors:
A. MacNAB R. J. DELAHEY,
J. S. CHAMBERS.

The Acknowledgment

Mr. Yerrow replied in very fine spirit, testifying to the splendid support he had received from his men during the last five years, which had made it possible to transform the Belleville-Lindsay line from light steel to heavy steel. He was genuinely sorry to leave his staff and very sorry to leave the fine city of Peterborough. For himself and Mrs. Yerrow he thanked them most heartily for all kindnesses received and for the splendid cabinet of silver which would ever remind them of happy days spent in the Electric City.

ATTENTION!

Ladies and Gentlemen.— Three hundred people are wanted tonight at Mark Street Methodist Church to attend an open meeting and free concert to be given under the auspices of the W. M. S. A silver collection wil be taken in aid of the W. M. S. "Rest Fund." The same "300" are wanted to attend the Mark Street Ladies' Aid Bazaar at the store opposite Barrie's on George street, next Monday and Tuesday. This is a great opportunity, as the rummage sale in connection with the bazaar is both popular and profitable.

Don't forget the date.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

SOUTH END
DRY GOODS STORE

YOUR XMAS GIFTS—Buy Them Early

Pay a deposit on any Gift and we will hold it for you.

Wool Sets for Boys and Girls.
Fine Shirts for Men and Boys.
Fancy Dishes for Ladies.
Boots (a useful present for all).
Felt Slippers and Stockings.
Wool Clouds and Toques.
Mitts, Caps, Yarns and Books.
Fancy Boxes Writing Papers.

Electric Irons and Toasters.
Electric Heaters.
Cuff Links and Bracelets.
Underwear for Children & Adults.
Fancy Stamped Centres.
Fancy Stamped Pillow Cases.
Toys for the Boys.
Braces, Handkerchiefs and Mitts.

— BARGAINS —

New Raisins are high, 30c, for 24c
Old Raisins, good stock, 6 lbs. $1
New Currants, 30c, for 24c
Lemon, Orange Peel, 75c, for 50c
These Old Raisins are real cheap.

Rubbers for your tiny feet
And all the choicest kinds of meat.
Rubbers for Boys, Rubbers for Girls, Rubbers for Adults.
Let us rubber you all.

When you want Xmas Goods, Remember BRAUND'S.
When you want a nice Roast of Beef, Remember BRAUND'S.
When you want Dry Goods, Remember BRAUND'S.

CHRISTMAS CAKE, RAISINS, CURRANTS and PEELS

All This Week we sell Creamery Butter in 5-lb. lots at 65c
Real Special.

6 Boxes Flakes or Shredded Wheat Biscuits, mixed, 68c
Give Your Order at the Store, and Ask for a Spoon FREE.

Rolled Oats .... 10 lbs. 60c
Pail 5 lbs. Shortening ... $1.54
3-lb. Pail Shortening 96c
3-lb. Pail Rose Brand Lard $1.04

5 lbs. any kind of Soap 44c

With all our Teas and Coffee
We Give a Spoon Free.

WHOLESALE QUANTITY LIST

Can Corn, 25c, ... 6 for $1.04
25c Peas and Tomatoes 6 for 1.04
Deep Red Salmon, 50c, 6 at 44c
Daily's Mustard Dressing, 15c. .... 6 for 57c

Marmalade, wholesale, in lots.
Bath Brick, bar 10c, 6 for 30c
Toilet Soap, 7c ..... 6 for 29c
Comfort Blue, 7c ..... 6 for 29c
Old Dutch, 13c .... 6 for 57c
Jams, wholesale, in lots.

No. 1 Electric Tungsten Lamps, 40c, 6 at 29c

Our store is full of all good things; now to the South End fly,
And anything you wish or want, from R. C. Braund you buy.

Your Dry Goods, Your Grocer, Your Butcher, Your Boot Man, Etc., Etc.

R. C. BRAUND

CORNER PARK and ALBERT STS. — PHONE 348

Come to the store to get your Spoon FREE—Ask for it.

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1362 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

French Ivory

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complet set.

Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.
351 George Street

Department of Railways and Canals,
Canada.
TRENT CANAL.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Rebuilding Dam at Lakefield, Trent Canal," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, November 29, 1919.

Plans, specifications and form of contract to be entered into can be seen on or after this date at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa; at the office of the Superintending Engineer, Trent Canal, Peterborough, Ont.

Copies of plans and specifications may be obtained from the Department on the payment of the sum of ten dollars. To bona fide tenderers this amount will be refunded upon the return of the above in good condition.

An accepted bank cheque for the sum of $8,000, made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals, must accompany each tender, which sum will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in, will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

By ordler,
J. W. PUGSLEY,
Secretary.

Department of Railways and Canals,
Ottawa, November 14, 1919.

GOOD BUYING

7-Roomed Brick House on Charlotte Street with 3-piece Bath Room, Furnace, Mantel and well situated part.

CASH $3,300

—by—

T. WALKER & Co.
163 Hunter St. W Phone 1006

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing

—at—

207 SIMCOE ST.

All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.

PHONE 1364

GOV.-GENERAL'S TRAIN AND FREIGHT COLLIDE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Montreal, Nov 26.— The special train of the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, collided with a freight at Steyrille, sixty miles from Montreal, on the Canadian National Railway this morning.

The Duke and his suite were returning from Halifax, where His excellency took part in the farewell to the Prince of Wales. Nobody was injured. The engine on the Duke's train ploughed through the caboose of the freight.

Moderate to fresh northerly winds cloudy and cold today and on Friday.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 124 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

RADICAL LABOR SEEKING TO CONTROL WINNIPEG CITY GOV'T

Most Interesting Civic Election Tomorrow in History of Great Western Metropolis—If Elected, Labor Men Will Seek to Re-Instate 150 or More Employees Who Lost Their Jobs in the Strike.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 27.—Tomorrow will be held the most interesting civic election in the history of Winnipeg, its roots going back to the general strike of last May and June, and the issue being whether radical-labor shall obtain control of the city declare that this fight is the most bitterly contested they have seen in a decade and that this feeling has roused the voters to such an extent that there will be 30,000 vote. Last year the ballots numbered 13,149 out of a total electorate of 55,063. This year the electorate has been increased by about 2,500, a record by about 1,500. There are 118 sub-polling divisions as against 98 last year and nearl thirty additional officers have been assigned to count the ballots. This year, too, an increase in pay for deputy returning officers and poll clerks has been given, the rate for the former now being $12 per day and the latter $6.

With three seats assured at the last election, the Radicals are confident they can secure another five tomorrow and thus obtain a straight majority in council, which is now composed of the mayor and fourteen aldermen. Prior to last year there were four board of control members, all elected annually. Only one of these was usually a labor man, and he was very often criticized by the Radicals for failure to support direct action methods regarding the grievances of civic employees. For some years labor members of council have stated that their aim was to ultimately obtain a majority in council and last year, when council decided that civic employees must not allow their organization to affiliate with outside bodies, meaning the Trades and Labor Council, the labor men on the civic board declared it must come to a staright fight between them and the rest of the council for the right of the civic employees to organize and to affiliate with any organization they saw fit. It was this attitude which created interest in tomorrow's election long before nomination day and long before any mention of prospective candidates had been made. In their final meetings this week the labormen have made it clear that if they are elected the first thing they intend to do is to reinstate 150 or more employees who lost their jobs in the strike.

Prior to nomination day, on November 18, there were chances of several three-cornered contests in at least four of the seven wards. Two members of the present council who were due to seek re-election and who were opposed by radicals, withdrew from the fight when they were urged to do so by friends who believed they had a stronger opponent for radicalism. A third member of council did this, after much persuasion and a plethora of ward meetings, which meetings were at times very boisterous. In all three cases the retiring candidates declared it to be solely with the object of limiting the chances of a "Red Labor" victory that they had consented to withdraw Two withdrawals were made the last minute but one man declined to avoid a triangular fight. Meanwhile, the Labor candidates have stood together from the first round and are now confident of victory. They were chosen at a local Labor convention several weeks before nomination day and from that time on declared they were out to secure by constitutional methods what they failed to gain by striking last May and June.

From Mayor C. F. Gray to the last aldermanic candidate the burden of

(Continued on Page 2.)

DISSOLUTION OF THE WAR TRADE BOARD OF CANADA IS IMMINENT

Accomplished Service of International Importance and Magnitude at a Profit to The Country.

Ottawa.- Now that the time has come for the dissolution of the War Trade Board of Canada, the winding up of its affairs discloses the fact that in supervising, controlling and aiding Canadian industrial effort from the time of its appointment in February, 1918, the Board was able to do service of international importance and magnitude at a profit to the country. The Dominion Government advanced $150,000 to the Board to enable it to carry on, but its balance sheet shows the expenditures for aid purposes to have been little more than $144,000, and its receipts to be more than $260,000. Already the Board has paid back to the Dominion Government $220,000, and the remaining forty thousand dollars will go back soon

The Canadian War Trade Board was born of a crisis. Until the United States entered the war Canada had been able to obtain raw materials and half-finished products necessary in the munitions industry without difficulty from her Southern neighbor Afterwards the situation changed by reason of the fact that the United States immediately began to conserve every raw material and product which could be used in the war. To present her case effectively Canada had to organize on national lines. The two countries were interdependent, American industries needing nickel matte, asbestos, pulp and power from Canada, and Canadian requiring pig iron, iron ore, steel sheets, coal, cotton, etc., from the United States. By both countries appointing a War Trade Board composed of outstanding business men in both countries, and by means of a Canadian War Mission established in Washington, the two countries were able to present one industrial front to the enemy, and still preserve the national interests intact.

Drastic elimination of non-essentials had to be the first order of the day so that the railroads of the continent and the shipping of the world would be able to devote all their power and space to carrying necessaries and to keeping the Allied war effort up to one hundred per cent. The Canadian Board had to see that no company imported any material when stocks in Canada could be utilized for its needs. This was not only to fulfil its obligations to the United States War Trade Board but to keep down imports to the lowest possible figure so that Canada's trade balance with respect to the United States should be as little adverse as possible. For the same reason a number of imports were placed on the restricted list.

Every day from all over Canada there came anxious men and constant streams of letters and telegrams informing the Board as to stocks of raw materials on hand, and explaining the needs. The War Trade Board's duty was to see that the materials were forthcoming, if possible, and to take whatever measures were necessary to secure essential raw materials whether from Canada or the United States, or elsewhere. In following out its duties it had to purchase and distribute tin plate in Canada, it had to negotiate for the re-opening of dormant blast furnaces and the construction of new undertakings for the production of pig iron in Canada as well as getting the huge supplies required from the United States. It had to control the sale, purchase and use of platinum. It had to finance the purchase and allotment through the Wool Commission of 46,208 bales of Australian wool weighing 17,572,542 pounds and valued at ten and a half million dollars as well as five and a half million dollars worth of tops and noils from the United King-

(Continued on Page Three.)

DR. GARFIELD'S PROPOSED SETTLEMENT DECLINED BY MINERS AND OPERATORS

Further Parleys Opened Today With a View to a Compromise in Proposals—Coal Supply Continues to Decrease Alarmingly, Causing Increasing Anxiety to Public—Garfield Declares Miners Well Placed.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 27.—With both miners and operators practically declining to accept Fuel Controller Garfield's proposition of a 14 per cent. increase in wages without cost to the public, further parleys were opened today with a view to a compromise in the proposals.

In the meantime the coal supply continues to decrease and the situation is causing increasing anxiety to the public

The Proposition.

A wage advance of 14 per cent. for all mine workers, maintenance of Government control over coal prices, and no increase in prices at this time, were the conclusions of Fuel Administrator Garfield, announced last night to the operators' and miners' wage scale committees.

Declaring that Secretary of Labor Wilson, acting as the "authorized agent of the Cabinet and of President Wilson," had offered an increase of 31 6-10 per cent., John L. Lewis, acting president of the Mine Workers, asked if the Government intended to repudiate the acts of Secretary Wilson."

Dr. Garfield replied that Mr. Wilson made his proposal as a mediator to facilitate negotiatons, and that Mr. Wilson told him yesterday that it was the duty of the Fuel Administrator to fix prices, and that it was not the function of the Secretary of Labor.

"The Cabinet has decided that the basis I have suggested is sound and right," Dr. Garfield said

Miners Well Paid.

Dr. Garfield declared that the miners, without the proposed increase of 14 per cent., were better off than other classes of employment. A permanent body, with purely advisory powers, consisting of the Secretary of the Interior as chairman, and of an equal number of representatives of operators and mine workers, was recommended by Dr. Garfield

This board would continue to apply the principles announced by the Fuel Administrator to unsettled questions, wages and profits and living conditions.

Dr. Garfield said at the meeting that the lowest wages paid to miners was $4.75 a day, and that working two hundred days a year the minimum average annual return amounted to $950. This sum, he added, "is a little higher than wages were at the outbreak of the war.

Dr. Garfield was asked if in his opinion this sum was sufficient to maintain American standards of living.

"That depends on circumstances," he said. "There are very few who get more than $80 a month. I won't admit that a decent American standard isn't permitted."

In the midst of a sharp cross-fire of questions, Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers, asked Dr. Garfield if the miners would be regarded as "outlaws" if they did not return to work.

"The Government never has attempted to compel men to work against their will, but every protection will be offered miners willing to return to the mines." Dr. Garfield replied.

Farrington replied that he did not think this would be necessary for miners in Illinois, as he did not believe there were any in the State who would care to return under the new wage conditions.

To pay higher wages than the proposed scale would make miners a favored class and "would result in the payment by the public of an enormous fund to a minority." Dr. Garfield said, replying to questions from Frank Farrington.

Such a situation, Dr. Garfield added, does not differ from that of a corporation that attempts to add to its profits at the expense of the few.

Dr. Garfield explained that he was not trying to dictate to the wage scale committee what it should do but that he was prepared to say that regardless of the amount of wage advance agreed to by the operators and miners, the public would not be called upon to pay more for its coal

Phil P. Penna, operator of Terre Haute, Ind., said that the 14 per cent. increase would more than absorb the margin of profit of the Indiana mines this year.

"How are these mines to continue in operation?" he asked.

Dr. Garfield replied that under a falling market of demand the "high cost of operation" mines would have to close or else operate at a loss.

BULGARIA'S PREMIER SIGNED PEACE TREATY THIS MORNING

A Spirit of Gloom Surrounded the Proceedings—Turkish Questions Now to the Fore in Peace Council.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Nov. 27.—M. Stamhullwsky, Premier of Bulgaria, signed the treaty of peace between his country and the Allied Powers at Neuilly town hall this morning.

Spirit of Gloom.

The simple staging of the ceremony and clouded skies, combined with probably inadvertent but complete isolation of the Bulgarian delegates at the peace table, spread a sort of gloom over the proceedings

Stambullwsky occupied a seat at the extreme corner of the table, nearest the outside door, with a number of vacant seats between him and neighboring delegates.

The Turkish questions are at present uppermost now that the Bulgarian treaty is signed. The British are understood to be urging that the conference of Turkish delegates be called during the month of December.

The French appear not to be anxious to hurry these negotiations, and it is still doubtful where theye will be held, the French not yet having given their consent for the calling of the conference in London, as has been urged by the British.

DRURY TO RUN IN CENTRAL SIMCOE

REPORTED THAT THERE WILL BE NO OPPOSITION FROM THE CONSERVATIVES

Barrie, Nov. 27.—The impression prevails here that Premier Drury will seek election in centre Simcoe, of which this town is a part. It seems to be also generally accepted that he will be given an acclamation if the other of the present U. F. O member to resign is not withdrawn The chief opposition was expected from the Conservatives, but they are said to have expressed themselves during the past few days as against contesting the riding, should the Premier choose to offer himself here. The only opposition now seems to be coming from the anti-prohibition element M. Murdock, U.F.O., M.P.P., had a majority of 1,400.

The Royal Palace, near Hassocks, England, is being converted into a hall and a dozen cottages for workmen. It was the gift of Henry VIII. to Anne of Cleves when he divorced her.

Reports reaching conference circles in the meantime indicate a state of anarchy throughout the territories of the old Ottoman Empire, which makes some sort of action urgent.

RUMORED HAZEN FOR THE CABINET

REPRESENTS NEW BRUNSKICK —IS NOW CHIEF JUSTICE —SUCCEED CARVELL

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—That Sir Douglas Hazen, now Chief Justice of New Brunswick, will re-enter public life in the very near future and take a Cabinet position, is the definite expectation in political circles here. Sir Douglas would succeed Hon. F. B. Carvell in the New Brunswick representation in the Cabinet, but the partcular portfolio to which he would be assigned is not yet certain. He is said to prefer a different department to the one he previously headed and which now has as its minister Hon. C. C. Ballantyne. Mr. Carvell was a Unionist Liberal, but Cabinet material of that stripe in New Brunswick is scarce, so a Conservative will land the position.

If, as is said to be all arranged, Sir Douglas re-enters the Cabinet, two seats are available, St. John City and York. R. W. Wigmore, M P. for St. John, may resign and head the Harbor Board, or Harry Mc Leod, for York, may be made county judge.

NOTE FROM MEXICO NOT YET RECEIVED

REPORTED THAT DEMAND FOR RELEASE OF JENKINS IS REFUSED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 27. — Mxeico's note, refusing to comply with the State Department's recent demand for the release of William O. Jenkins American Consular Agent, imprisoned at Puebla, on the charge that he connived with bandits, had not been received in Washington early today.

The only information officials had that a reply had been sent, was contained in press despatches last night.

PUSSYFOOT JOHNSON WILL LOSE RIGHT EYE

OPERATION DECIDED ON TO SAVE VICTIM FROM GOING TOTALLY BLIND

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Lnodon, Nov. 27.— Surgeons this morning will remove the right eye of William E. Johnson, American prohibition worker, who was severely injured by students, following an address in this city.

The operation was decided upon to prevent Johnson losing the sight of his left eye.

SERIOUS TROUBLE AROUND ADRIATIC

JUGO-SLAVS DECLARE THEY WILL HAVE TO RESORT TO FORCE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Nov. 27.—A Jugo-Slav delegation has sent a note to the Supreme Council calling attention to serious troubles all around the Adriatic, and saying that the situation may so develop as to oblige Jugo-Slavia to take military measures to phevent further encroachment.

Receipt of the note by the Supreme Council was announced today.

GREAT BRITAIN MUST KEEP HER POWDER DRY

AUSTRALIAN MINISTER WARNS AGAINST JAPANESE-AMERICAN PACIFIC POLICY.

Melbourne, Australia Nov. 27.—Joseph Hume Cook, Minister of Navy, in a spech today at Albury, said that while whole-heartedly supporting the League of Nations, he thought Great Britain should keep its powder dry. The Empire, he declared, could not close its eyes to preparations Japan and America were making in furtherance of their Pacific policy.

PROPOSED FILTRATION PLANT TO COST APPROXIMATELY $300,000

Report Received at Meeting of Utilities Commission Last Night—Will Ask Council to Submit By By-Law to Ratepayers at an Early Date.

The following preliminary report was received from William Kennedy, jr., of Montreal, at the meeting of the Utilities Commission last evening:

Acting under instructions received from your Water Works Superintendent, Mr. Dobbin, I have had preliminary plans and estimates of cost made for a proposed filter plant and clear water reservoir in connection with your present Water Works system, and report as follows:

After a study of the quantity of water supplied to the town for the past few years, the quantity required at certain hours of the day, and especially during dry and hot spells of weather, together with possible heavy drafts of water for fire purposes during such dry and hot weather periods, also making allowance for an increase of population and water consumption, I have decided to recommend for first construction a mechanical, gravity, sand filter plant of five million gallons capacity per day, and in connection wiht this filter plant a covered reservoir of two millions gallons capacity.

The filter plant will be designed for six millions gallons capacity per day in units of one million gallons to each filter unit, but five units only to be first installed, with the necessary connections made for the sixth unit when required.

I may also mention that the plant is so designed as to permit of duplication of these six units, thus providing for an ultimate filter capacity of twelve million gallons, daily.

It is estimated that a five million gallons plant will be sufficient for all purposes until the year 1925.

The reservoir, containing filtered water, will have a present capacity of two million gallons, and is so designed and placed that its capacity may be increased to, say four or five million gallons when so required.

The additions to the filter plant or reservoir, or both, may be made without interfering with the water supply to the town.

Full plans and specifications for coagulating and clear water basins low lift pumps, etc., as above outlined will be prepared and from which tenders will be invited from contractors for the different classes of works materials and equipment included The whole of the necessary works, and supply of materials, etc., will be divided into, say five contracts, but one contractor may undertake two or more contracts, or even the entire works required; or a part may be done by day work under the direction of your Water Works Superintendent.

The contracts may be divided about as follows:

1. Intake crib in river; intake pipe suction well; construction work generally and superstructure for filtration plant.
2. Filter equipment.
3. Low lift pumping machinery, suction and discharge pipes within the building: electrical equipment.
4. Outside pipe lines, including 24 inches discharge from the low lift pumps; 30 inches conduit from clear water basin to pumping station, with valves, etc., necessary sewers and drain connection.
5. Two million gallons clear water reservoir.

The specifications will also provide for receiving and the consideration of tenders for the entire filter plant from reputable contractors who may wish to make such modifications from the prepared plans and specifications as will suit their own designs and construtcion.

It is intended to place the entire works on the "Carnegie property" recently acquired by your commission, except the pipe lines from the reservoir to the pumping station, which will run along the roadway.

The estimated cost of the works above outlined is $300,000.00.

More detailed plans may lower this estimate somewhat.

My opinion is that the works, as per this report, can be built for the amount named.

Operation

The main items in the cost of operation will be:

1. Wages.
2. Fuel, for heating purposes.
3. Power.
4. Chemicals.

Assuming 3,600,000 gallons per day filtration, the estimated cost for "operation—assuming chemicals at their present prices—is $10,700. per annum or say, $8.15 per million gallons of filtered water, or assuming a population of 23,000, this is equal to say 47 cents per capita.

Interest and sinking fund not included.

A preliminary plan showing, generally the location and proposed layout of the works accompanies this report

Following the reading of this report the commission decided to wait upon the city council at its regular session, Monday night, and ask them to submit a by-law to the ratepayers to authorize the construction of the filtration plant, and the issue of debentures to the amount of $300,000.

METEOR OF TREMENDOUS SIZE THOUGHT TO HAVE PLUNGED INTO LAKE MICHIGAN

UNIONIST WINS

London, Nov 27.—Sir Allan Smith, Coalition Unionist, has been returned for South Croydon, in the bye-election, caused by the resignation of Sir Ian Malcolm. The vote was Smith, 11,777, Alderman Houlder 9,578.

NO REAL CAUSE FOR ANXIETY AS TO COAL

COAL WILL BE DISTRIBUTED FROM TORONTO, ACCORDING TO PRESENT PLANS

The local manufacturers have received communications from the Fuel Administrator, head office, Toronto requesting a report on the present local fuel situation. This information will be collater and distribution of coal will be made from Toronto accordingly.

The coal situation is taken in all seriousness and action by the local manufacturers is being goverened accordingly, and there is no cause of anxiety as to the continuance of a good season of production.

Earth Trembled and Pillar of Flame Ascended Hundreds of Feet Into the Air—People Fled From Homes in a Panic.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27. — That a meteor of tremendous size plunged into Lake Michigan last night, causing earth tremors felt in a dozen Southern Michigan cities, and sending a pillar of flames hundreds of feet into the air, which was visible for a radius of more than fifty miles, was the theory generally accepted early today in explanation of an earth shock.

From reports from various Michigan, Indiana and Illinois cities, where a blinding flare was visible, it appeared that the centre of the disturbance was near the lower end of Lake Michigan.

Fled in a Panic.

Residents of Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, South Bend, Grand Haven, and other Western Michigan cities, fled from their homes in a panic, fearing an earthquake. Houses were shaken, the earth trembled for half a moment, and then came deep-prolonged rumbling as of a terrific explosion.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Douglas, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. .... 189 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1919.

ESTIMATES AND OVERDRAFTS.

ALDERMAN TAYLOR, the City Council's Finance Minister, informs his colleagues that Council's main committees are facing overdrafts, and the end of the year is not yet. To what amounts their appropriations have been exceeded is not divulged so far, but will be later on. Such overdrafts are as a rule due to overzealousness in keeping down the estimates at the beginning of the year in order to strike a tax rate at the lowest possible figure. But it is not good business to pare appropriations below a working figure, and finally pay bank interest on borrowed money to be carried over into another year. The city's needs had far better be faced squarely and provided for, allowing also for a margin in the estimates, even should it mean half a mill or so additional in the rate.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee this year would probably have pulled through without an overdraft had it not been for two items of expenditure sprung upon them after the estimates had been struck—that of the two-platoon system and a complete and up-to-date electric fire alarm system. The two-platoon plan was discussed in 1918, but the then committee evaded its introduction on the ground of expense, or, at least, tabled the proposition for their successors to wrestle with. At the beginning of this year Council had no thought of this possible additional expenditure when striking their estimates for the fire department, and when the two-platoon plan had to be faced later on, no provision had been made for defraying its cost. However, the city has the system in satisfactory operation, and that gives us together with a new and perfect alarm apparatus, and an equipment which allows of dual service, a fire department which is a credit to Peterborough and to Chairman Ald. Morrison's executive administration.

The fact of committees having exceeded their appropriations does not imply either extravagance or poor management, but it does reflect either on Council's lack of foresight in the beginning of their term or fear of facing the ratepayers with a tax rate necessary to properly administer the city's affairs. An aldermanic board will at all times earn credit by displaying enough business acumen to estimate fairly accurately its year's needs, and discredit by ending its term with overdrafts to any extent.

SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS.

THE MERCHANTS' BANK of Canada shows an increase of $32,582,136 in total assets in the first year of peace. Also this strong financial institution shows an excellent balance sheet for the half-year period ending October 31st.

A comparison with the previous year, itself a record reflects continued prosperity, the total assets increasing by $32,582,136 to $198,506,572.

The Merchants' Bank is especially strong in its liquid assets, amounting to $84,014,865 as against $72,448,277 in the previous year, while deposits have increased $30,117,802, of which gain $19,368,746 was in savings deposits.

A careful review of the complete balance sheet inspires confidence in all who recognize how closely the welfare of the country is linked with the sound position of our leading financial institutions.

TARIFF PLANKS OF U. F. O.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION is paid to the tariff planks of the Farmers' platform in a specila article in the November issue of the Canadian Labor Press, which is the official organ of the Allied Trades and Labor Council of Ottawa, and is endorsed by the Independent Labor Party of Ottawa, the Hamilton District Trades and Labor, the Hamilton Building Trades Council and the Kitchener Twin City Trades and Labor Council. It frankly states that it is an open question if any permanent alliance can be maintained between the Farmer and Labor parties in Ontario. "Canada," it says, "has great manufacturing interests built up under protection, employing over 700,000 persons and paying over $550,000,000 in wages and salaries. Over 2,000,000 Canadians are directly dependent for their livelihood upon the continued prosperity of these industries. Is there anything but menace for Canadian labor in the free trade demands of the organized Farmers? Workers cannot afford to forget that the Grain Growers in the West have become so extreme that they are threatening to boycott Canadian industries if their fiscal demands are not met. In a recent number of the Canadian Labor Press attention was called to a remarkable letter in the Montreal Daily Star from a correspondent who signed himself 'Grain Grower,' and declared that he bought implements made in the United States in order that the duty might go into the treasury and to punish the East for maintaining a system of protection. Are the workers of Ontario to be punished through their wages by Western farmers who would deny business to Eastern factories, reduce output, create unemployment, and produce a period of industrally uncertainty which would inevitably be felt in many trades? Is it in the national interests that the tariff policy of the Dominion should be directed by an agricultural group clearly concerned to further its class interests? Can there be any assurance of industrial prosperity under the tariff policy of the Grain Growers, which is directly opposed to the international movement towards protection?

"There may be room for compromise with the United Farmers of Ontario, but before Labor commits itself to anything approaching a permanent alliance, workers should clearly understand the Farmers' platform . . . . . . it is inevitable that industrial questions should occupy much of the time in the next Legislature. Labor should demand a clear statement from the United Farmers of Ontario on their attitude towards the eight-hour day and collective bargaining. Workers should also know whether or not it is the intention of the farmers to give legislative expression to the tariff planks of their platform."

"FATHER OF THE SAGUENAY."

CANADA IS TO HAVE the largest pulp and paper mill in the world when the plans of Price Bros. & Co. of Quebec, materialize. As William Price, the elder, called a whole district into being and earned the title, "Father of the Saguenay," so a descendant of the same name, Sir William Price, proposes the construction of a great newsprint mill in the Saguenay district, with a capacity of between four hundred and five hundred tons a day. The proposal involves the creation of a town of some seven thousand people about three or four miles east of Chicoutimi, and the expenditure of millions of dollars to convert virgin land into streets, factories, public buildings and dwellings. In addition, Price Bros. & Co. contemplate extensions to their existing mills at Jonquiere and Kenogami which will increase their output from these plants from 260 to 325 tons a day of paper and board, in addition to sulphite plup. When their Saguenay plant is in operation Price Bros. & Co. will have a total output equal to nearly two-fifths of the present entire national production, the daily output of Canadian paper mills now being some 2,200 tons as compared with 2,900 tons in the United States.

In an interview, Sir William Price states that work has already been started on the necessary waterpower at the Saguenay plant, and that construction of the mill will be under way by May of next year.

Commenting on these proposals, the Quebec Chronicle says, editorially: "It is fashionable at this moment to worship at the farmer's feet, but in the long run Canadians cannot fail to recognize the decisive part the manufacturers have played in the upbuilding of a great and prosperous Dominion, and among these the ancient Capital may hold itself fortunate to be intimately linked with such a progressive, patriotic firm as that which has now bent its energies to capture first place among the world's producers of its own particular commodity."

CHRISTIANITY NOT A FAILURE.

A WRITER in an English periodical attributes the present world unrest to a breaking away by the people from the old religious feelings, says the Hamilton Spectator. So long as it was possible, he argues, to connect the toilers with the prospect of a rich compensation beyond the grave for all the injustice and suffering they had to endure in the flesh, it was easy to carry on the one-sided social and industrial system, which allotted the fruits of life to the few, leaving only the husks for the many. The workers are no longer so receptive to the comfortable old theological doctrines, it is true; their hunger, both physical and spiritual, is not appeased by thinking on post-mortem satiety. They demand satisfaction for their bodily and physical wants here and now—hence the phenomenon of this troubled sea, which no amount of ecclesiastical or political oil seems able to calm. The inarticulate masses have become articulate and with one loud, universal voice demand justice. But we do not think that means that the people are any the less relgious. On the contrary, the evidences of an intensified spirituality are stronger today than they have ever been. The war has struck a fatal blow at materialism. There is not so much steady church-going, perhaps; not quite so strict an adherence to orthodox religious customs; but in the great heart of humanity there is a notbler note, an elevated tone.

What is it that differentiates western civilization from that of other lands but applied Christianity? In proportion as a nation becomes Christianized, it becomes civilized.

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR.

(Toronto Star.)

Some city people are wondering what the speech from the throne will say about the present price of eggs when the new Legislature meets.

OLD STYLE AND NEW.

(Los Angeles Times.)

In the old Bible days distressed persons rent their garments. But of course they did not cost from $50 to $150 a suit. Now they are patching them up.

A JUSTIFIABLE PUN.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

A Brooklyn clergyman calls the demand for a six-hour day "the song of the shirk." There are times when a pun is justified by wit, poetry and common sense.

POLITICS IN THE PULPIT.

(London Free Press.)

No political sermon ever yet made a vote. It may have confirmed a voter in his own opinion, but it just as surely aroused the antagonism of other voters. Not even upon moral issues which enter into the politics of the hour have the pulpits scored heavily.

ON WITH THE STRIKES.

(Park City, Ky., News.)

It is evident that people will never be satisfied in this country until everybody has more pay than everybody else.

TOBACCO FARMING.

(Port Rowan News.)

The growth of the tobacco habit and the fashion of high prices have made the "Indian weed" the most profitable of all farm crops. In Norfolk county as much as $800 an acre has been realized by farmers who experimented with it. There are thousands of farms in the county upon which ten acres of tobacco could be grown every year, and hundreds of such farms in the neighborhood of Port Rowan. Farming in this county is likely to prove to be a rich enterprise for the next ten years at least.

CAN THEY HOLD ON?

(Western Independent.)

The Union Government has discovered that it can remain in power until 1923. This discovery was made immediately after the bye-elections, when every seat was lost except one. As to the "Can"—they can do pretty much as they like while they are in power. The Union Government has been doing what it liked. Hon. Arthur Meighen said at Woodstock, N. B., that "the Union Government did not care what the people said." Acting on the principle, Mr. Borden and his associates will no doubt hold on to power as long as it is humanly or inhumanly possible to do so. In fact, they may even pass an order-in-Council, but not by the votes of the Canadian people. Even if the Government waits until 1923, the people will wait politically also, until by constitutional means we can deal with the entrenched autocracy which has ruled Canada wth the iron hand of kaiserism.

LESSON IN COMPOUND INTEREST

Three million globes of gold the size of our earth—that indeed is a vision of wealth "beyond the dreams of avarice." Yet that is less than five centimes would have amounted to at compound interest during the Christian era.

Impossible?

It is M. Comille Flammarion, the mathematician and astronomer, who makes the mind staggering proposition. Somebody in the press has credited him with saying that the five milliards of francs—one billion dollars—extorted from France by Germany in 1871, was equal to the product of five centimes placed at five per cent compound interest at the birth of Christ. M. Flammarion corrects the quotation. What he did was to recall the remark of General Foy on the voting of a milliard francs in 1825 for the relief of the French emigres, that not yet had a milliard of minutes elapsed since the birth of Christ; which was quite true, that number of minutes not being attained until April 28, 1902.

But the statement about what five centimes would have amounted to at compound interest is marked with error. It is a large error, says M. Flammarion. It is bigger than the whole earth, bigger than the sun, bigger than the whole solar system. Not one ingot of gold the size of the earth, nor two, nor three, nor a hundred, nor a thousand such ingots, would equal that product.

The calculation is simple, though it might prove tedious to carry it out in full. An amount placed at interest at five per cent compounded annually doubles in fourteen years and seventy-seven days. Very well. the year 85 and so on

Thus far the sum has seemed to grow slowly. But the rate accelerates, or seems so to do. At the end of the first century the sum is only 3 francs 40. But at the end of the second century it is 819 francs 60, at the end of the third it is 104,857 francs 60, and at the end of the fourth century it is 13,421,772 francs. Already we have reached the millions. There soon follow milliards, or billions, as they are commonly called in America; then follow trillions, quadrillions, quintillions sextillions, septtillions, octillions, nonillions, decillions — numbers which no mind can grasp.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century, in 1803, the sum of the original five centimes is 7,610 decillions, and this sum, doubling every fourteen years, in 1873, the year of M. Flammarion's first computation amounts to more than 243 undecillions of francs.

What means 243 undecillions? Or 243,516,800 nonillions? That is 243,516,800 followed by thirty ciphers —243,516,800,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000, francs. Five centimes placed at compound interest in the year 1 would have become ten centimes in the year 14; 20 centimes in the year 28; 40 centimes in the year 42; 80 centimes in the year 56; 1franc 60 centimes in the year 71; 3 francs 20 centimes in

No human mind can grasp it.

What would that sum of money mean in gold?

As one kilogramme of gold is worth 3,400 francs, our capital would weigh 71 deccillions 623 nonillions 588 octillions of kilogrammes. Now, the earth weighs only 5,875 sextillions of kilogrammes. If it were of solid gold it would have to be multiplied by 3,486,100,000 to equal the tremendous quantity in question.

In brief, five centimes, or one cent placed at five per cent compound interest at the birth of Christ would now equal 3,486,000,000 globes of solid gold, each the size of this earth.

AVIATORS LEARN GREEK AND LATIN

Catch 'em young and teach 'em Greek and Latin. John Bull's traditional educational formula for the turning out of substantial and successful citizens, is to be applied by Great Britain to the production of that most modern of school products—the trained flying officer. Members of the War Departments who think that the aviation service can be effectively recruited from seasoned army and navy officers may be surprised to know that Great Britain demands that candidates for admission to the new Royal Air Force Cadet College, near London, must not be more than nineteen years old except in special cases. Seventeen and a half is the lower limit. In a booklet recently issued by the Air ministry giving the regulations for Britain's aviation West Point, near London, it is stated that only those actually serving in the forces or who have served in the forces and are recommended by their commanding officers for permanent commissions can be more than nineteen. Even here the limit is twenty-one.

Flight, the Royal Aero Club's official organ, makes no criticism of this low age limit, the necessity of which was taught by air force experience under the strain of war flying, but it does not ask how much better a flying officer a candidate is likely to make if he passes high in Greek than if he does not know one Greek letter from another.

Both the "dead" languages are included on the list of optional subjects in which a candidate must stand examinations. The rest of the list of optional subjects, three of which he must pass, are advanced mathematics, a modern language, a science eand elementary engineering. The required list includes English, English history and geography, a modern language and elementary mathematics.

The course of study at the Royal Air Force Cadet College for the first year comprises English language and literature, the British Empire, practical mathematics, including mechanics and draughtmanship, general elementary science, history of the air force, an outline of army and navy organizations and characteristics of the various arms and types of ships map reading, Royal Air Force law and administration, drill, physical training, hygiene and sanitation, practical work in the workshops, the Morse code, passenger flying and the use of the compass and of the machine gun.

During the second year the course will be theoretical and practical instruction in engines, including magnetos and their management, theory of flight, practical rigging, advanced work in wood and metal workshops, wireless telegraphy and telephone machine gun worn and aviation instruction.

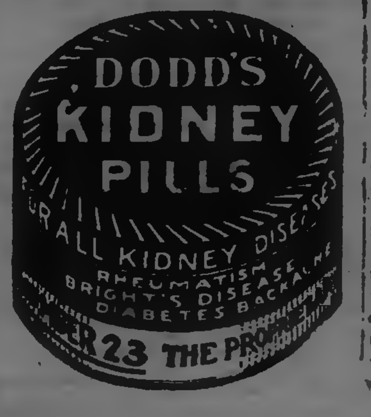
CRISIS IN COAL

Order For Manufacture of Coke in U. S. Being Prepared

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 26.—The national coal situation has reached a crisis in the view of officials here, and drastic steps to curtail consumption are in contemplation. Among other steps, an order providing for the manufacture of coke has been prepared.

A deputation representing North Toronto secessonists waited upon Premier Drury and laid claims regarding transportation rights before him.



AND SO HE SHOULD

First German in Westmoreland Seeking Naturalization

Moncton, Nov. 26.—The first application for naturalization by a German in Westmoreland county since the end of the war was made yesterday by Fritz Letchenberg, a resident of Moncton, to Judge Bennett at the County Court sitting at Dorchester yesterday afternoon. After hearing the evidence in suport of the application, Judge Bennett ordered naturalization papers to be issued to the former alien enemy.

PRIEST IN TROUBLE

Former Australian Chaplain Charged With Disloyalty

London, Nov. 27.—Father O'Donnell, the Australian chaplain, who was arrested on August 18th, charged with the use of traitorous and disloyal language, pleaded not guilty when arraigned before a courtmartial here today. Premier Hughes, of Australia, recently appealed by cable to Lored Milner, secretary of state, for the colonies, asking for Father O'Donnell's release, and saying that the clergyman, who was a chaplain with Australian troops during the war, "had proved himself a patriot."

WELCOME RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

Complete Treatment That Gives Gratifying Results

WASHING, ONT.

"I had an attack of Weeping Eczema so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times.

For four months, I suffered terribly, I could get no relief until I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and "Sootha-Salva".

Altogether, I have used three boxes of "Sootha-Salva" and two of "Fruit-a-tives", and am entirely well." G. W. HALL.

Both these favorite remedies are sold by dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

"Fruit-a-tives" is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

EX-KAISER CRAVES MORE EXCITEMENT

HE AND HIS PERSONAL SUITE TIRE OF VILLAGE ROUTINE MONOTONY

Amerongen, Nov. 20.—Although the former German Emperor appears to have found his quiet life at Amerongen to his liking, members of his personal suite have grown tired of village existence and recently there have been several changes in the ex-emperor's entourage.

Since Dr. Foerstner, who, for many months acted as personal physician to the former emperor and empress, departed for Berlin, about six weeks ago there have been two new German doctors at Bentinck Castle. The latest is Dr. Alfred Hachner, who came from Cologne a few days ago. General Von Dommes, who had been chief of the personal suite for several months, has returned to Berlin either on a vacation or permanently, and has been succeeded by Frederick Von Bets, of Berlin, who was a court official under the old regime.

WINTER VACATIONS

The Grand Trunk Railway has decided to give to those who love the great out-of-doors an opportunity to spend their Winter vacations in Algonquin Park. The "Highland Inn," the larkest of the Park hotels, is to be kept open throughout the year, and there will be found all the comforts associated with first-class hotel service, including warm, cheery, public and private rooms and excellent cuisine. Two thousand feet above the level of the sea, Algonquin Park has ideal climatic conditions and is easily accessible, being about 200 miles north of Toronto, and 169 miles west of Ottawa. Every facility has been provided for winter sports, including skating, tobogganing, ski-ing and snow-shoeing. Copy of new publication, "Enjoy Winter in Ontario Highlands," may be obtained on request from Grand Trunk Agents, or from C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

The idle man passes a long and tiresome day.

Most people in love act as if their corns hurt.

It's folly to make a friend of a man your dog dislikes.

Better retrace a wrong step than pursue a wrong course.

It takes an expert to tell the difference between war and peace in Mexico.

An Irish student says the posthumous works of an author are those he writes after he is dead.

A superstitious individual says it is a bad sign to write another man's name on a note.

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

RADICAL LABOR

(Continued from Page One.)

argument at election meetings has been raound the strike. The first meeting Mayor Gray held was at Weston, where the C.P.R. shops are located. He went right into the men's dining hall and told them, when they booed him, that he would "fight them like hell." From that time on he has been questioned and cross-questioned on his strike attitude. The mayor for personal reasons would probably not have run this year save that he wants his strike attitude vindicated. His opponent too, is freely quizzed on this issue and declares he will reinstate every man that left the civic employee, also that the agreement which new employees must sign, to discountenance sympathetic strikes, will be immediately repealed. One of the labor candidates is an ex-policeman who failed to get his job back after the strike. He charges discrimination. A number of striking firemen who were refused reinstatement are active workers in the campaign because of alleged discrimination. On the other hand the Citizens' Committee which combatted the strike is out behind the opponents of the radicals, their argument being that if the labor men are elected it will mean another strike and the absence of fire and police protection as a lever for trades unions to enforce demands in avenues other than civic.

There are no candidates in the campaign on the returned soldier ticket, neither have the veterans held any meetings to discuss civic affairs. They are more concerned just now, they say, with re-establishment plans and gratuities, and have held several meetings with their champion from the city to Ottawa, Major G. W. Andrews, M. P., Two of the radical Labor men, however, are overseas men.

For the first time in many years there are contests in all wards for school trustee honors. Labor has never been represented on the board and the radicals declare they will secure at least four seats.

Voters are also asked to endorse a municipal milk plan, but supporters of the municipal idea are not satisfied with the detail of the present plan and its passage is doubtful.

Next year adult suffrage will likely be in vogue here, which will increase the electorate from 50,000 to 85,000, it is expected.

OFFICER MURDERED

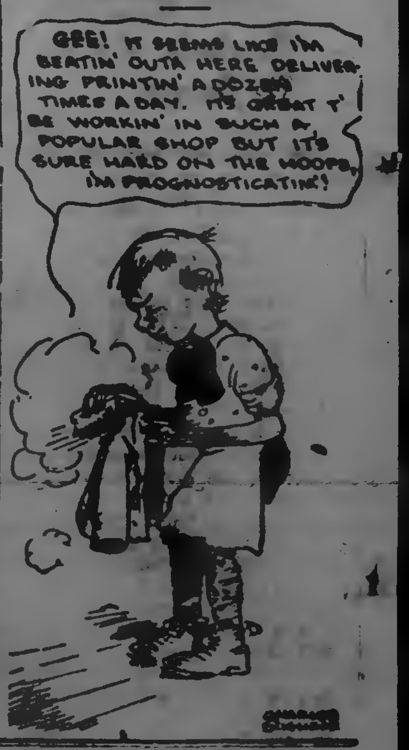
(Canadian Press Despatch)

Cairo, Nov. 26.— A British officer was murdered during street riots here last night. Other British soldiers were fired upon by demonstrators and one soldier was wounded.

When a girl thinks as much of a man as she does ot herself—that is love.

Homes may be a world of love shut in and a world of strife shut out—or vice versa.

MICKIE SAYS



GEE! IT SEEMS LIKE I'M BEATIN' OUTA HERE DELIVERING PRINTIN' A DOZEN TIMES A DAY. IT'S GREAT T' BE WORKIN' IN SUCH A POPULAR SHOP BUT IT'S SURE HARD ON THE HOOFS, I'M PROGNOSTICATIN'!

Borrow to Buy Cattle

"Mixed Farming" is the big money-maker today. Of course, grain and fruit and vegetables pay well—but beef and bacon, butter and cheese, are piling up the profits for the farmer.

Milk more cows—fatten more cattle—raise more hogs. If you need money to do it, come to The Merchants Bank. We are glad to assist all up-to-date farmers.

12

THE MERCHANTS BANK
Head Office: Montreal. OF CANADA Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager

Your Dealer will gladly Demonstrate it to you

YOU cannot understand the AutoStrop Safety Razor by looking at it in a store window or show case. There it looks like any ordinary safety razor, with its leather case, its silver plating, its dozen blades. Only when you get it in your hands, when you see the strop put through the razor, when you realize it cannot strop the blade wrongly, that the blade must stay sharp—then and then only will you realize the value of the little $5.00 set marketed under the simple name AutoStrop Safety Razor.

It is on sale throughout the world. Wherever you are located you will find a dealer who will gladly give you this demonstration and you can see with your own eyes that this razor must give you efficient and economical razor satisfaction. In addition you have our guarantees of 30 days' trial and 500 perfect shaves from each dozen blades, but the demonstration offered you will show you how needless are these guarantees. However, they are there if you want them.

$5.00 and Upwards
Razor, Strop
12 Blades
Complete

See the AutoStrop Razor assortment at any Drug Hardware or Jewelry Store. You will find a style to suit your desire from $5.00 upwards

AutoStrop Safety Razor Co.
Limited
AutoStrop Bldg., Toronto, Canada

Auto Strop Safety Razor
MADE IN CANADA

HUNDRED THOUSAND JEWS PARADE IN PROTEST AGAINST POGROMS IN UKRAINE

A procession of 100,000 Jews marched the streets of New York yesterday afternoon in protest against pogroms in the Ukraine.

Elements of the procession included 25,000 one-time service men in uniform; veterans of the Spanish-American and civil wars; volunteers for service in Palestine under the British flag; Red Cross workers, and representatives from all the Jewish unions throughout the city. All told, it was one of the strangest processions that ever paraded through New York streets.

The parade formed in Rutgers square at one o'clock. Then, under the leadership of Colonel Maurice Simmons, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, the procession moved to Eldridge street, to Houston street, up Second Avenue to Fourth Street, thence across to Washington square, through Macdougal street to Eighth street, to Greenwich avenue, to Eighth avenue, to Fifty-seventh st., to Carnegie Hall. Hundreds of those in line remained several hours for the big mass meeting of protest held last night.

The procession seemed alive with banners and American flags. Interspersed with these was the Jewish flag, symbolizing the new nationality of Palestine. Veterans of the world war, in uniform, led the parade. Then came the veterans of the Spanish-American and civil war. They were followed by three hundred members of the Jewish Red Cross and one hundred members of the Actors' Club. The remainder of the procession was composed of the members of 120 unions, mostly of Jews. A feature of the outpouring of service men was the sixty Jews decorated for valor in the war.

Thousands of the marchers wore crape on their right arms in memory of the 150,000 members of their race who have been the victims of Ukrainian programs. Scores of banners detailed the horrors of those massacres.

Some of the banners told of the exploits of the Jews of America in helping to win the great war. One banner showed that 201,000 Jews had served in the United States Army and Navy. Another indicated that of this number, 5,178 had made the supreme sacrifice, while still another told of the 15,200 Jews wounded in the war. Another banner, carried at the head of the procession of Jews, said 8,260 had volunteered for service with the British in Palestine.

One of the most interesting features of the parade was a service flag for the soldiers and sailors Veterans League. This flag was more than 120 feet long and had a blue star for each of the members of the league. It took fifty men to carry the flag.

It was a day of mourning for the east side and thousands of Jewish stores were closed and the doors hung with crape. Many of the classes in the public schools had to suspend for the day because of lack of attendance.

There were twenty or more bands in the parade. At the head was the band of the New York Navy Yard, which frequntly blared forth the age old Jewish funeral dirge "El Mole Rachmin." The way was lined with spectators, many of the Jewish faith, who burst into tears at the thought of the agony of their compatriots in the Ukraine.

PRESS STRIKE STILL ON

Paris, Nov. 26. — The striking newspaper employers and the editors failed to come to an agrement at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. The strikers voted to continue to abstain from working as the Managers refused to make any concessions.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. [illegible] Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

WEDDING
- GIFTS -
in
STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's
387 George St. Next Turnbull's

DISSOLUTION OF THE WAR

(Contnued From Page 1)

dom. It was given power to pay bounties on the production of linen yarns in Canada. It was given control of production and distribution of iron and steel and their products in Canada, and it was empowered to take over and carry on the management of Chrome ore producing properties for a period of five years. Besides this, the Board had to be a clearing-house for industrial information to manufacturers, and it had to carry on its duties by means of constant communication with the various industries, either individually or through such bodies as the Imperial Munitions Board, the Canadian Wool Commission, the War Purchasing Commission, the Canadian Tanners' Council, the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, and the Canadian Wool Growers' Association. But for the existence of such a body, there were many raw materials and products which Canadians could not have secured at all as the British, United States and Australian Governments would not have permitted their shipment but for assurances as to the use to which they would be put or of a substantial cash advance. The shortage of shipping made it necessary in some cases to secure a vessel to go to South America or some other country to get materials urgently needed in Canada, and only a Government body could have induced the Admiralty to permit it.

The securing of steel plates for Canadian ship-building industries was one of the Board's most arduous and continuous tasks. Profiteering in steel plate and boiler tube cases where complaints were well founded. Canadian steel companies were induced to make all the car plates necessary for the Government's car program. The pyrites exports were increased to meet the needs of the sulphuric acid makers in the United States. Nitro-glycerine was conserved by restricting the content in commercial explosives. The commandeering powers of the Board were not often exercised, the possession of the powers being amply sufficient to obtain the ends for which it was created without going to the limit of its authority. Most of the money made by the Board was in connection with its wool purchases. The money obtained for the tops and noils from the United Kingdom it sent to the British Treasury.

At the time of its appointment, the War Trade Board consisted of the chairman, Sir George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, though he was replaced during a long vacation and when absent in Europe by the Hon. A. K. MacLean the vice-chairman, Mr. F. P. Jones and the following members: Mr. C. B. McNaught, Toronto; Mr. J. W. McConnell, Montreal; Mr. J. H. Gundy, and Mr. Joseph Gibbons, Toronto; Sir Hormisdas Laporte, Montreal, and Mr. C. A. Magrath, Fuel Controller, Ottawa. The secretary was Mr. Wm. K. Hower, and the assistant secretary, Mr. J. H. Wilkie. There was no change in the membership though Mr. Wilkie later became secretary. With the signing of the armistice on November 11th, it was no longer necessary to control exports except to enemy countries, Northern European neutrals and to parties on the statutory black list. On January 20th, 1919, all restrictions were removed, but on March 1st they were re-imposed as far as neutral countries were concerned in order to co-ordinate Canadian export policy with that of Great Britain and the United States. With the proclamation of peace imminent the Board will be laid away in an honored grave while its personnel is relieved to go back to business interests neglected at the country's call or to further service on the Canadian Trade Commission.

Tobacco Habit Dangerous

says Doctor Conner, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health to-day were it not for the deadly drug, Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets, take them as directed, and lo! the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Conner soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

LABOR M. P.'S ASK HIGHER SALARY

LIVING TOO COSTLY IN LONDON FOR PRESENT SESSIONAL ALLOWANCE

London, Nov. 27.—Labor members of Parliament here are agitating for an increase in their Parliamentary salaries, which are now about $2,000 per annum. The present salary, which represents a pre-war purchasing value of approximately eight hundred dollars, is regarded as hopelessly inadequate for the maintenance of a legislator in London.

It is understood that a proposal is to be put forward for a modified plan of payment by attendance. The demand which is being canvassed is that every member of Parliament living out of London should be entitled to travelling expenses and a subsistence allowance of $5 for every day on which he attends Parliament.

PROTEST AGAINST EIGHT-HOUR DAY

MANUFACTURERS SAY COMPETITION UNFAIR IF CANADA ADOPTS IT BEFORE U.S.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Though the matter is one which will have to be considered by the Government, it is believed that as the Canadian Minister attending the International Labor Conference at Washington have subscribed to the 8-hour day principle enunciated in the Labor convention of the Peace Treaty legislation to give effect to it may be introduced at the forthcoming session of Parliament if the Peace Treaty is held to involve approval of the details and one of them is the 8-hour day. At the Industrial Conference here in September as at Washington this week representatives of Canadian manufacturers protested against the shorter day till it is universal or, especially until such time as the United States adopts it. Their contention is that they will not be able to compete with concerns operating longer hours.

The question also has a provincial aspect, working hours and conditions heretofore being a subject of legislation by the various provinces. Labor interests will press for the shorter hours and under the circumstances as they have developed the question of necessity, will be considered, anyhow, and legislation is regarded as very probable.

TWO MEN FOR ONE

Berlin, Nov. 26. — Assemblymen Alfred Henke, an Editor of Bremen, and Fritz Geyer have been elected Presidents of the Independent Socialist faction, with equal rights, to succeed the late Hugo Haase as leader of the Independent Socialist party in the Reichstag, according to The Tageblatt.

ST. JOHN MAN HAS GAINED 26 POUNDS

CHARLES ALLEN FINDS TANLAC TO BE JUST WHAT HE HAS NEEDED FOR 15 YEARS.

"Yes, sir, I have gained twenty-six pounds since I commenced taking Tanlac, and I am in such fine condition that I can do as hard a day's work as any man," said Charles Allen, who lives at 301 Union St., St. John, N.B., the other day.

"My health broke down while I was serving in the Boer War," continued Mr. Allen, "and since that time my condition has been getting worse all the time. For the past nine years my stomach has been in an awful fix and no matter what I would eat I was sure to suffer afterwards. Every night that came was misery for me for I couldn't sleep but would roll and tumble till time to get up. I was so nervous that when anybody opened the door I would almost jump out of my chair. Finally I could go no longer, so I gave up my work and started to the country to take a long rest.

"But before I left I decided to buy a bottle of Tanlac and take it with me, as I had heard and read so much about it. I went on to the country and began to take my Tanlac, and I want to tell you I felt so much better when I finished my first bottle that I was determined to have some more and I walked two miles and got it. It has been some time now since my last bottle but I am feeling even finer today than I did then for I am heavier and stronger, and my work is a pleasure to me. My nerves are steady and every night that comes I can sleep as sound as a child and I get up in the mornings feeling fine. My appetite is so good that I am almost ashamed of the way I eat, and everything I eat digests perfectly, and I never have the least pain in my stomach. Tanlac has proved to be just the thing I have been needing for over fifteen years, and a medicine that can do what it has done for me certainly deserves every bit of the praise I can give it."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood, by G. Pringle and Son.

BRITAIN MUST RETAIN EGYPT

LORD CURZON SAYS COUNTRY CANNOT DEFEND OR GOVERN ITSELF

London, Nov. 27.—Earl Curzon, Foreign Secretary, speaking in the House of Lords yesterday, said that Egypt neither was able to protect her own frontiers from aggression nor to guarantee a stable internal government. He declared that Great Britain could not wash her hands of a country standing at the door of Africa and the highway to India. The idea that the aspirations of the Egyptian nationalists were to be crushed, however, he said was an extravagant misconception.

The Egyptians, Earl Curzon continued, could not be shown too clearly that, whatever peace was imposed on Turkey, recognition of the British protectorate would be one of these terms. Therefore, no provision in the peace treaty with Turkey would alter the task with which the mission headed by Lord Milner, secretary for the colonies, to investigate the unrest in Egypt was entrusted. Lord Milner, he said, had no constitution in his pocket, but was going to consult with the Egyptians with regard to how they could best co-operate in the management of their country under British guidance.

PETTY THIEVING STILL CONTINUES

FIVE BOYS WERE LET OFF AT JUVENILE COURT WITH SEVERE LECTURES

Petty thieving has been a nuisance in the city for some time, and in most cases it turns out to be boys between the ages of 11 and 16 who are the guilty parties.

At the Juvenile Police Court this morning, three boys, who confessed to having stolen small articles from the coats of worshippers at Trinity and St. Andrew's Churches, were let off on suspended sentence.

Two more youths were ordered to return the pigeons they stole from the firehall, pay $1 for those that are missing and pay the costs of the court.

The magistrate gave all the boys a very severe lecture on good citizenship and warned them not to come back, for they would not be dealt with so leniently.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GOOD DINING-room girl, and a kitchen woman; good wages. Apply Munro House.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LADIES. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont

CHIROPRACTIC
Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Broncaitis, Nervous Diseases
DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED—BOY FOR ROUTE on Stewart street, south of Hunter street. Apply at once Review.

JANITOR WANTS CARE OF another furnace. Apply A. Young, Phone 622J.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work; heat on building; 75c per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.

LOST.

LOST—LAST EVENING, ON George street, between 5 and 6 o'clock, small hand purse, containing $11 and silver. Reward if left at Review.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE — ONE WORK horse, 7-year-old, sound. Apply 98 Stewart street, or phone 1716J.

AUTOMOBILES, TRUCKS, Etc. McLaughlin Touring, 4 cyl.: $600 McLaughlin Touring, 6 cyl.: $250 Ford Touring: $600 Ton Truck, good order: $550 Ford Roadster, 1917, with starter. DUFFUS GARAGE, Phone 1760.

FOR SALE—GOOD DAIRY cow, due to freshen in March. Apply B. Corrigan, Downer's Corners.

THE MARKETS

Troonto, Nov. 27.—Cattle market receipts light, trade steady. Quotations: Butcher steer choice $12 to $12 50; Butcher cows medium, $6.50 to $8.50; Calves $16 to $18.50; Ewes, $7 to $8.50; Lambs, $13.75 to $14.50; Hogs, F.A.W. selects, $16.25.

Children's Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked "till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc
and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.C.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, George Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 396 George St.

Have You A Savings Account ?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

GRAFTON'S

LET THE SPIRIT OF HOLIDAY-GIVING

—Minister FIRST to the Clothing Necessities!—

a page introductory to the story of

HOW TO MAKE THIS THE BEST CHRISTMAS YOU'VE EVER KNOWN

GREAT BOOSTER SALE

Continuing its RECORD-GIVING VALUES for record crowds—VALUES CHALLENGING ALL COMPETITION. No wonder BUSINESS IS BOOMING at Grafton's. No wonder every day is a day of record sales. Where can you get QUALITY so PREDOMINANT, VARIETY so OVER-WHELMING, VALUE so UNUSUAL? At Grafton's you are assured the utmost in value, because we make all our own clothing from materials bought before the recent heavy advance, and because of our small profit policy and the enormous volume of our business in seven large stores, and most of all, because —WE ARE DOWN ON HIGH PRICES—

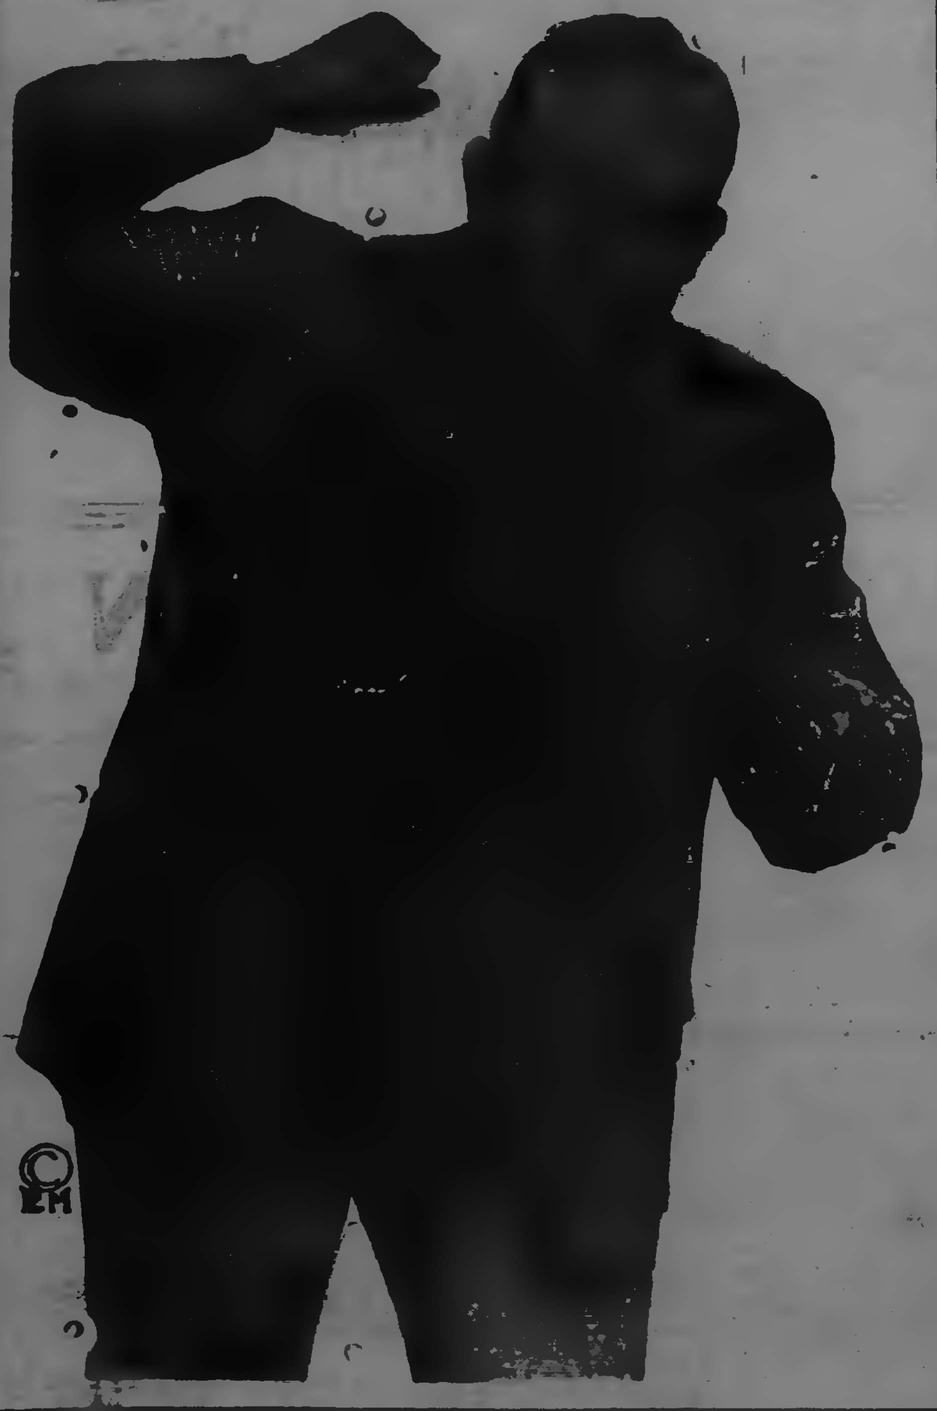
Let us show you our wonderful assortment. It's an extraordinary exhibition of Grafton's maker-to-wearer plan of doing business on one very small profit. Only a manufacturing clothier can accomplish such savings. Where's the thoughtful man who is going to pass it up?



Men's & Young Men's Overcoats

Scores of snappy new styles to choose from—All the best winter colorings—all the overcoat materials most in demand. Two-button Close-fitting waistline, Double-breasted Form-fitting, Single-breasted Chesterfield, Conservative Overcoats—

$19.98 Worth $25.00	$30.00 Worth $37.50
$25.00 Worth $32.00	$35.00 Worth $45.00
$28.00 Worth $35.00	$40.00 Worth $50.00

Grafton's Distinctive Boy's Clothing

Without a peer for school boys; made right in the Grafton factory sold only in the Grafton store. In good serviceable materials, colors and styles. Your savings average fully a third—no middle profit.

BOYS' OVERCOATS

Ages 4 to 10 Years

$4.98 $6.98 $8.98 $10.98

BOYS' OVERCOATS—Ages 10 to 15 years.

$7.98 $9.98 $11.98 $13.98

YOUTHS' OVERCOATS—Ages 16 to 20 years.

$11.98 $13.98 $15.98 $17.98

GRAFTON'S SUITS

ARE WORKS OF ART

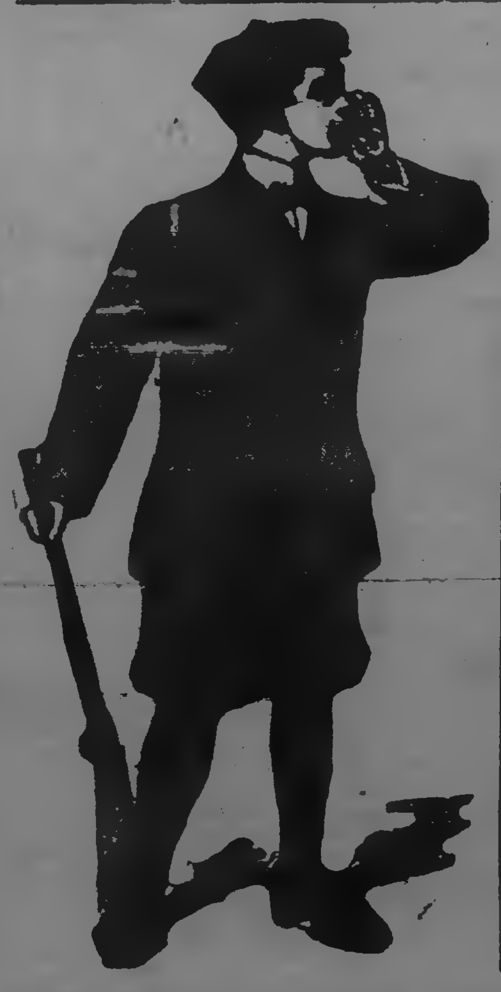
Everybody likes something new—and these are new without being commonplace—exclusive production of our own factory ready for the great Booster Sale's demand.

$25 $28 $30 $32 $35 $38

MEN'S NEW ULSTERS

Double-Breasted Ulsters, long or short lengths, convertible collar. Many tweed lined.

$19.98 Worth $25.00	$22.48 Worth $30.00
$25.00 Worth $32.00	$28.00 Worth $35.00	$35.00 Worth $40.00



Great Booster Sale of Men's Sweaters

3,000 Finest Wool Sweater Coats in Peterborough. We will sell these at less than mill prices:

$4.98 $5.98 $6.98 $7.48 $8.50 $9.98

A VERY SPECIAL—All-wool Pull-over V Neck Sweater, worth $4.00. Only $2.98.

Boys' Fleece-lined Underwear, 59c. worth 75c; 79c, worth $1.00.

Boy's All-wool Jersey, less than mill prices, $1.98 to $2.48.

Boys' Sweater Coats, $1.98, worth $3.00; $2.98, worth $4.00; $3.48, worth $5.00; $4.98, worth $6.00.

Canada's Largest Manufacturers of High-Grade Clothing

Factories and Executive Offices.
DUNDAS

GRAFTON & CO., LTD.

Branches:
HAMILTON, LONDON,
BRANTFORD, PETERBORO,
DUNDAS, WOODSTOCK
OWEN SOUND

TEMPLETON'S RHEUMATIC CAPSULES
FOR RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS, SCIATICA
LUMBAGO, NEURALGIA, GOUT ETC
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE WORST HEADACHE
$1.00 PER BOX
TEMPLETONS L^TD Mfrs. 142 KING ST. W. TORONTO

Humanity has lacked a practical rheumatic remedy since time began. Fortunes are spent yearly at hot springs, etc. [illegible] relief, yet better results are achieved [illegible] using T. R. C.'s [illegible] common sense treatment. [illegible] and results with any other [illegible] you will be [illegible] druggist or write us for our [illegible] free [illegible] and costs you nothing [illegible] King W., Toronto). [illegible]

Sole Agents for Peterboro, Mcdermid & Jury, Prescription Specialists, for Lakefield, Tanner Drug Co., for Havelock, A. D. Denike; for Hastings, T. A. Coughlan; for Campbellford, J. W. Cairns.

GIRL JILTED, SHE SUES FOR $100,000

WEALTHY MAN COULD NOT BE HER HUSBAND, HE BEING MARRIED

New York, Nov. 27.—Disappointment, which Miss Beverly Juneau says she experienced when she discovered that Jesse Metcalf, a wealthy woolen merchant, could not become her husband because he was already married, she figures, can be assuaged by $100,000, and has filed an action for that amount in the Supreme Court.

Miss Juneau asserts that when she made the acquaintance of Mr. Metcalf she understood he was unmarried. She also acknowledges that he promised to marry her at her own solicitation, adding that he agreed to do so within a reasonable time. She does not furnish any dates in her complaint, but does assert that a reasonable time has elapsed without Mr. Metcalf fulfilling his promise, and further asserts that she has since discovered that he is the husband of another.

Mr. Metcalf is associated with the firm of Metcalf Bros. & Co., woolen merchants, this city, and lives at No. 130 East Sixty-seventh street. He is well known in society and a graduate of Harvard, member of the Harvard Club, Essex Country Club and Squadron A.

In 1914 Mr. Metcalf lived at Orange, N. J., with his father, Manton Metcalf. On November 23, 1914, his engagement was announced to Miss Marjorie Paine Greenfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Martin Greenfield, East Thirty-fourth street, this city, and on April 8, 1915, they were married by Bishop Parker of New Hampshire. After a reception at the St. Regis Hotel the couple went to San Francisco on their wedding trip.

Mr. Metcalf entered a general denial.

MAKE SURE YOU GET THE RIGHT KIND

We cannot impress too strongly upon the Canadian people that there is no Tablet just like Dr. Norvall's; there is no Tablet just as good as Dr Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. There may be tablets that look like Norvall's; they may even taste like Norvall's, but do not be deceived—they will not have the same gentle laxative and tonic effect as Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets. In a word, to relieve Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Sick Headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. For sale by all dealers.

CALGARY MAYOR FINED

Calgary, Nov. 27.—V. B Forester, Mayor of Camrose, was fined $600 this week for ignoring the income tax regulations.

Premier Drury stated that he was party to any proposal that W. J. Bragg, Liberal member-elect for West Durham, should vacate his seat in favor of Hon. Manning Doherty.

DANGEROUS BRAND SO-CALLED WHISKEY

FIVE ACCUSED OF SELLING HAIR TONIC ALCOHOL TO MAKE LIQUOR

New York, Nov. 27.—Five men who are engaged in the manufacture of hair tonic and dandruff cures were arrested yesterday by Internal Revenue agents, charged with violating the Volstead law. They were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner S. M. Hitchcock, and held for examination tomorrow.

Four of the men, according to the Federal agents, are connected with a company whch manufactures dandruff cures. The concern has a factory in Prince street and an office in upper Broadway. Books of the company were seized after search warrants had been served, according to Robt. A. Poattie, assistant district attorney.

Quantities of alcohol purchased by druggists and others engaged in the patent medicine industry who have permits which allow them to purchase it has been used as the basis for the dangerous so-called whiskey now being served through underground channels, Mr. Paattie said. The Federal officials are trying to run down all such offenders.

Four of the men arrested described themselves as Giovanni Rubino and Guiseppe Rubino, Charles De Anglio, who said he lived in Harlem, and Louis Lipart. They are charged with having sold two barrels of alcohol obtained on medical permits for hair tonic purposes to a dealer in Newark, N.J.

The other defendant said he was Enrico Maresca, of Brooklyn, connected with another firm which makes hair tonic. The two Rubinos were held in $7500 bail each and the other defendants in $1000 bail each.

POLES TO BE REMOVED FROM GEORGE STREET

C.P.R. TELEGRAPH MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO USE MACHINE TELEPHONE UNDERGROUND CONDUITS

At the regular meeting of the Utilities Commission last evening, Mr. G. A. Gillespie stated that he wished to purchase the south 35 feet of the property at the corner of Hunter and Bethune streets now rented by the Commission, from Mr. H. A. Morrow. Mr. Gillespie, it is rumored desires to build an addition to his factory.

The Commission declared itself willing for the property to be sold, provided Mr. Gillespie will allow the side and front to be used for unloading pipes from cars, and the conveyance across the property. This arrangement will allow both parties to use the railway siding.

Poles to be Removed

Mr Fish read some correspondence from the C.P.R. telegraph company showing that the have made arrangements with the Machine Telephone Company for the use of their underground system.

Arrangements have already been made for the removal of the post on George street as far south as the C.P.R. station, and this action of the Telegraph Company removes the last obstacle to this city having a main street to be proud of, with no poles between Brock Street and the C.P.R. station.

The manager was authorized to construct the necessary electric power line to supply power to E. H. Mann's saw mill on Whitla street.

CONGESTION DUE TO SMALLPOX LAW

RAIROAD TRAFFIC FROM NIAGARA FALLS HAS ALL BUT CEASED

Niagara Falls, Ont, Nov. 27.— The order of the United States immigration authorities, that all Canadians entering the United States must produce vaccination certificates, which became effective yesterday, is causing much congestion here. Great crowds have been lined up at the American end of the bridges all forenoon, and travel by train has almost ceased. One train today, ordinarily packed, carried only one passenger and Canadians who are employed across the river in some cases did not arrive at work until noon. The same condition resulted in Niagara Falls, New York residents, who have daily business on the Canadian side. Vaccination was not regidly insisted on for residents of this district, who have frequent business in Niagara Falls, New York. Certificates are being issued by the United States Immigration officials on production of passports, or other identification. Americans are also affected as they must have certificates to be able to return to the United States without vaccination.

ORPINGTON HOSPITAL SOLD FOR $400,000

WILL BE CENTRAL DEPOT FOR CRIPPLES OF IMPERIAL ARMY

London, Nov. 27.— The Ontario Hospital at Orpington, near London, has been sold to the British Ministry of Pensions for $400,000. It will be used as a central depot for cripples and permanently wounded men of the Imperial army. The Ontario Government is also absolved from the lease obligations requiring conversion of the site in its original state, which means approximately an additional fifty thousand dollars benefit on the transaction. The hospital was opened in 1916 with one thousand beds, the accommodation being doubled a year later. Col. MacPherson of Toronto was commandant from the start to finish, Orpingtn being the last Canadian general hospital to close.

PICHON HAS THE GRIPPE

Paris, Nov. 27.—Stephen Pichon, the Foreign Minister, is suffering with an attack of grippe and must rest for a few days. Premier Clemenceau will replace him at the Foreign Office.

REGULATE COAL CONSUMERS

(From Engineering and Contracting)

Bituminous coal miners have averaged a loss of 28 per cent of the working time during the past eight years, mainly because mine operators have not kept the mines operating at a uniform rate, or as electrical engineers would say, at 100 per cent load factor. The mine operators blame the coal consumers for this condition of affairs, stating that most of the public lives from hand to mouth or rather hand to stove, and will not order coal much in advance of current needs. This is not a new condition of affairs.

The miners propose to solve it by working only thirty hours a week. They claim that during 1918, when 80,000 coal miners were in the army the remaining 90 per cent produced 15 per cent more coal than is normally produced. Now they propose to furnish continuous work for all the miners by reducing the weekly number of work hours. This is not so foolish a solution of the problem as might appear at first glance. Indeed, it is quite reasonable and would meet with little or no opposition were all workers able to enjoy a thirty-hour week and at the same time produce as much per annum as they have been accustomed to produce. We do not doubt that this very thing could be done were workers and managers to co-operate in putting it into effect, but a great deal of educational work lies ahead before that can be accomplished. In the meantime what can be done to increase the "load factor" of the coal miners?

It has been suggested that freight rates on coal be made lower during the spring and summer months in order to secure orders enough to keep the miners busy during those months. But this is open to the objection that most people live from hand to mouth and do not bite at the bait of lower prices for things that they do not need immediately. Certain it is that a seasonal ten per cent reduction in the price of coal has not served to cause many householders to stock up during the spring and summer months. It has been suggested that the coal ordered and stored early in the year be billed in the fall of the year, without interest charge. But who is to foot the bill for interest? The coal operators are not likely to do so, except under government compulsion. There is the further objection that bituminous coal deteriorates gradually (about 2 per cent the first year) when stored in the open air.

Like every economic problem, this one contains many factors, but it is peculiarly complicated by the fact that the control of all the important factors is not in the hands of any one man or of any group of men. Nor does there seem any likelihood of such a unified control coming about through ordinary industrial evolution. The public is not likely to permit a great corporation to secure control of most of the coal mines. If not, there is no escaping the conclusion that the Government itself must take some sort of action that will result in central control of all the main economic factors. This does not necessarily mean government ownership of the coal mines, but it does mean regulation of their management, somewhat analogue to the regulation of railways and other public utilities. It means that, and perhaps it means more than that.

If the Government should undertake to regulate the coal producers why should it not regulate the coal consumers. If by their hand to furnace habits of ordering coal the consumers have caused coal miners to be idle twenty-eight per cent of the time, surely the Government, in the interest of social economy, should make the consumers abandon this habit. The most practical way of regulating the ordering of coal by consumers need not be discussed in this article, the main object of which is to present the thought that coal consumers are quite as much in need of government control as are coal operators and coal miners. These three human factors in this economic problem must be made to co-operate if there is to be the maximum of economy. Hitherto each of these three factors has acted mainly with respect to its own interests. The same, of course, may be said of many another industry, but in the production of coal we have one of the worst examples of the waste of human effort because of the absence of complete co-operation. The result is precisely the same as if an army of about a quarter of a million men were constantly idle. Here is Congress hesitating as to whether we really need a standing army of 375,000 men when more than two-thirds that number of men—coal miners—have been idle every year except the year 1918. The tax that is paid to support an army of idle coal miners every year is paid in the form of higher prices for coal and is thus hidden from sight.

The Government can eliminate this idle time tax by requiring all coal consumers to store a part of the coal they use. This would reduce the total number of coal miners by about twenty-five per cent, but, as there is a steadily growing demand for workers, no hardship would be incurred by the discharged miners, provided the Government were to undertake to train them for new positions. (This last proviso is important. In fact, it is probably essential, for workmen rightly resent being thrown out of employment. The speed with which skilled workmen can be trained was not generally realized until the war made it necessary quickly to train shipbuilders, munition workers, and what not.

Let the Government, therefore, train the excess number of miners for new jobs, paying them their regular wages during the training period. Put the remaining miners on a fourty-four hour week basis, and require the mine operators to pay them a uniform weekly wage throughout the year, just as office employees are now paid. This will stimulate the mine operators to keep their men continuously busy. Finally, let the Government require all coal users to submit schedules of their coming year's total requirements, and accept uniform monthly deliveries thereof, except in certain special cases. By this tripartite regulation of the miners, the operators and consumers, great economy in the production of coal will be secured. Moreover, there will be a similar decrease in the cost of transporting coal by rail.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE
THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power,

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS
Phm. B. Toronto University.
HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES
Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

Winter is Coming

Your Boy Needs Warm Stockings

You can get them at a reasonable price. Stockings closely knit for cold weather—Buster Brown Stockings.

When wool is so expensive Buster Brown Stockings are especially reasonable. They'll make a big saving—especially if your family is large. And they provide ample warmth for winter weather.

Buster Brown Stockings are time-savers as well, for they save lots of mending. They're knitted with three-ply heels and toes, and two-ply legs and feet. With elastic-ribbed legs and narrowed feet and ankles. Fast dyes keep them from fading.

Ask for Buster Brown durable hosiery—the lower-priced winter stockings.

BUSTER BROWN'S SISTER'S STOCKINGS are just the thing for the girls. Fine two-thread English mercerized lisle, in Black, Leather Shade Tan, Pink, Blue and White. Neat fitting, splendid wearing, and moderately priced.

The Chipman Holton Knitting Co., Limited
Hamilton, Ontario

The BUSTER BROWN STOCKING
SUNSHINE HOSIERY
REGISTERED

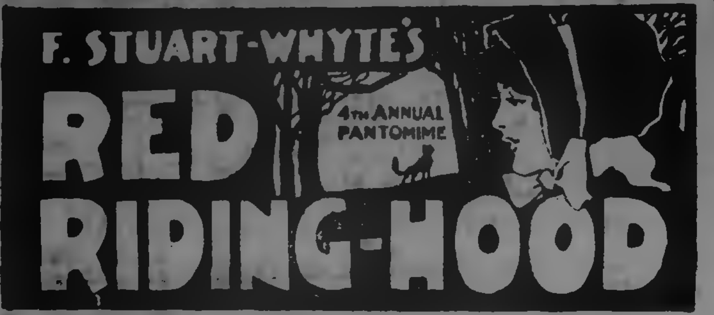
Victory Bonds Bought

Those who may desire to sell Victory Bonds should come to my office or communicate with me. I buy Victory or War Bonds of all maturities, in any amount, and I am prepared to pay the best price.

W. H. Taylor, 144 Hunter St.
Peterboro, Ont.

GRAND
SATURDAY MATINEE and EVENING
THE FAMOUS IRISH SINGING COMEDIAN
BARNEY GILMORE
IN
THE GREATEST OF ALL IRISH PLAYS
"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN"
HEAR MR. GILMORE, SING "I LOVE YOU KATE"
"IN IRELAND" "COUNTY TYRONE," ETC.
Prices Evening $1-75c-50-25
POPULAR MATINEE 25c AND 50c
SEATS ON SALE NOW

MONDAY & TUESDAY
MATINEE TUESDAY



— JUST ONE BETTER THAN "CINDERELLA" —
PRICES EVENINGS $1.50 $1-75c-50
MATINEE TUESDAY $1-75c-50c-25c
Seats On Sale Friday

THEATRICAL

MISS MURIEL MARTIN HARVEY
With "The Luck of The Navy" at the Grand, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5, 6.

"ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN"

BARNEY GILMORE'S COMPANY SCORES BIG HIT IN TORONTO

It is many years since Barney Gilmore, the popular delineator of Irish character, appeared in Toronto at the head of his own company, and that he was not forgotten was evidenced by the audience that greeted him at the Grand Opera House, Toronto, in "The Rocky Road to Dublin," a play which he has starred in for the past ten years, and which has met with public approval everywhere. The story deals with the friendly rivalry between a western miner touring Ireland and the driver of a jaunting car for the hand of a wealthy widow, and there are many complicated situations. The comedy is well constructed, with speaking dialog and real Irish wit, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the first night audience. Miss Helen Evily, who won renown by her great work with the Irish players, has the leading female role. She played her way into the hearts of Toronto theatregoers last night and will always be a welcome visitor. The balance of the company acquitted themselves creditably and materially in making "The Rocky Road to Dublin" a success. There are several real Irish songs sung by Mr. Gilmore in his own inimitable way and all met with favor. The introduction of a quartet of ladies touring the Emerald Isle gave the author opportunity to present a vocal act of merit. Their rendition of several numbers was a delightful treat. Every song was encored and the act proved a big feature of the production.

There is, however, a fascination about an Irish production that is attached to no other stage play. The wholesome story, the delineation of characters that everyone knows of or has read about, the atmosphere of happiness, the ready wit and humorous sayings, all help to make the Irish play a popular offering. "The Rocky Road to Dublin" will be presented at the Grand Opera House, Peterborough, Saturday, matinee and night.

'Goldie' Prodgers, the well-known professional hockey player, has announced his retirement for this season. He was expected to play for Quebec.

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY ONLY
ELSIE FERGUSON
—IN—
"THE MARRIAGE PRICE"
Its the tale of a poor girl who married a millionaire, that really loved her. She expected to be unhappy. What happened—?
"THE GREAT GAMBLE"
Don't miss Episode No. 13. Only two more weeks to see the completion of this Serial.
On the Same Bill
A HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY
OUTING CHESTER—DITMARK'S BOOK OF NATURE AND CARTOONS
COMING TO-MORROW AND SATURDAY
Wallace Reid in 'The Roaring Road'

ENGLISH PANTOMIME COMES ONCE A YEAR

"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD," IS FOURTH PRODUCTION BY STEWART-WHYTE

"Little Red Riding Hood" is the title of F. Stuart-Whyte's fourth annual Canadian importation of English pantomime, which will be the offering at the Grand for Monday, Tuesday, matinee Tuesday.

The company and production were assembled in London and the action rehearsed under Mr. Whyte's personal direction.

The Canadian-American tour commences at Halifax, December the 1st, and will include all of the principal Canadian cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, Halifax to Victoria and Portland, Ore., to Portland Maine.

The presentation of "Little Red Riding Hood" will continue along the lines followed by Mr. Whyte in "Aladdin," "Robinson Crusoe" and "Cinderella," while his policy of giving something a little bigger and better each year will not be altered.

THE LUCK OF THE NAVY

"The Luck of the Navy" one of the recent successes in London, transported three thousand miles across the seas, will be the attraction at the Grand Dec. 5 and 6.

The complete English cast, headed by Percy Hutchison, has been brought over by F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest. Mr. Hutchison is one of England's leading actor-managers, the lessee of three theatres in London, and the nephew of the late Sir Charles Wyndham. He has been playing "The Luck of the Navy" for nearly two years in London. The play is described as a thrilling and dramatic offering, acted in a flawless style by a splendid company of English players, among them Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey, daughter of the eminent actor, Miss Kate Carew, Miss [illegible] R. Croker-King, Mr. Patrick Ludlow and many others.

ORIGIN OF THE "PICTURE BRIDE" CUSTOM

It has been learned that the "picture-bride" problem now confronting immigration officials on the west coast did not originate among the Japanese. This was discovered recently when the research department at Universal City set out to confirm a disputed point contained in "Sundown Trail," a story purchased from the pen of J. G. Hawks.

The story set forth that the miners of Spanish Bar, a gold camp of 1849, sent one of their number east to return with a cargo of women to be married upon their arrival to the miners. The messenger who journeyed to the east advertized for the women and collected crayon pictures of them. These he sent back to Spanish Bar by the fast pony express. The pictures were placed in a box and drawn on chance by the miners. The picture he drew was the wife he married when the stage arrived.

Whether the Japanese adopted the custom in bringing women from the Orient from the miners or whether the miners borrowed the custom from the Japanese was the disputed point.

It developed that a Japanese scientist in America heard of the Spanish Bar affair and made an account of it to the institution that sent him to the occident as an observer of American customs. The Japanese peasantry adopted the custom which is today causing so much discussion on the Pacific Coast.

The story of the wife-lottery is being told at the Empire Theatre in "Sundown Trail," a Universal photodrama with Monroe Salisbury in the starring role.

'THE LUCK OF THE NAVY" IS COMING

PRESENTED BY PERCY HUTCHISON AND LONDON QUEEN'S THEATRE COMPANY

Percy Hutchison, eminent English comedian and nephew of the late Sir Charles Wyndham, with the entire London Queen's Theatre Company, which has been appearing in support of Mr. Hutchison for almost two years in "The Luck of the Navy," will appear at the Grand Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5 and 6, matinee Saturday.

Mr. Hutchison was in charge, with Sir Alfred Butt, of the committee of London managers detailed especially to entertain visiting American and Canadian soldiers and sailors on leave in London. He gave a number of special performances of "The Luck of the Navy" in London for American and Canadian soldiers and sailors.

"I should say that three-fourths of the British navy saw 'The Luck of the Navy' during our long run in London," said Mr. Hutchison last week. "I met so many of the American officers in London that they insisted I ought to bring the play to America, so when Morris Gest, of Comstock and Gest, saw our production in London and suggested an American and Canadian tour, I decided to come. I have already starred in South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, and we will make a tour through Canada.

"During our London production of 'The Luck of the Navy,' Queen Mary attended a special matinee performance given in her honor for the Naval Fund, and one of my most cherished possessions is a letter from the Queen expressing her pleasure at the performance, and her thanks to the company. We took in more than $20,000 at this special matinee for Her Majesty. The Queen was not supposed to visit any theatrical performance during the war, but she saw 'The Luck of the Navy' because the performance was for a charity, and because she was so keenly interested at the enthusiasm displayed by the Princess Mary who had witnessed an earlier performance.

"The company I have brought with me, headed by Miss Martin-Harvey, is the same original company which played 'The Luck of the Navy' first at the Queen's Theatre, and that is why I still announce it as the Queen's Theatre company, although we also played the piece at three other London theatres in succession, owing to the success scored."

CONTROL OF LIQUOR

London, Nov. 27.—Premier Lloyd George said yesterday that he never had thought the introduction of prohibition in Great Britain possible, even during the war, but that he was watching the American experiment sympathetically, with a mind free from preconceived opinions.

The Premier's reply to a temperance deputation, to which he made this remark, foreshadowed legislation before Christmas in connection with the control of liquor.

CAN. BOARD OF COMMERCE FIXES RETAIL PROFIT ON FOOTWEAR AT 33 1-3 PER CENT

Order Now in Effect--Concerns Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Overshoes, Gaiters, Etc.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.— Another important order issued by the Board of Commerce yesterday fixes the margin of gross profit allowed to retailers of boots, shoes, rubbers, overshoes, gaiters and other articles usually sold within retail establishments in Canada at 33 1-3 per cent. The order states that sales of any of these commodities in contravention of this order shall be deemed to bear an unfair profit.

In Effect At Once

It is furthermore ordered that up to and including the 24th December, 1919, any person concerned, whether vendor or consumer, may apply in writing to the board, for any amendment to or variation of the order to have effect territorially or otherwise, but that, notwithstanding the terms of the order, it shall have effect from today.

Fully Signed

The order is signed by all three members of the board. Hearings in regard to profits on boots, shoes, etc., were held at Winnipeg, Toronto, and Hamilton and representations were made to the board by counsel representing the Governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

MERCHANTS BANK CONTINUES TO GAIN

Statement for Half-Year Gives Total Assets of $198,506,572. A New Record.

DEPOSITS GAIN $30,117,802

The Balance Sheet of the Merchants Bank of Canada as at the end of the half-year period, 31st October last, received from the Bank's headquarters here on Saturday, shows continued gains and growth on the part of this well-known financial institution.

The Total Assets have now reached the commanding figure of $198,506,572, an increase of $32,582,136 over the corresponding date last year. The readily available portion of the Assets amounts to $84,014,965, an increase of $11,566,688, by which is shown that the liquid position of the Bank has been well maintained.

That the Bank has continued to do its full share, both to the Government and the Commercial Community is shown by an increase of $4,682,244 in securities held of the Dominion and Provincial Governments, while Current Loans and Discounts in Canada have increased by $19,435,478 during the 12 months' period.

Note Circulation of $15,827,373 is $647,130 higher than a year ago with the issue in excess of Paid-Up Capital more than covered by a Deposit of $8,000,000 in the Central Gold Reserve.

The Deposits amount to $166,006,015, against $135,888,218 on October 31st, 1918, being an increase for the period of $30,117,802, of which gain $19,368,746 was in Savings or Time Deposits and $10,749,056 in Deposits payable on Demand — a basis of progress which cannot but be considered satisfactory.

The statement altogether makes very good reading for those who realize the important part that our Chartered Banks play in the well-being of the whole country, industrial as well as agricultural, and the figures are especially interesting, as the period covered, with the exception of 11 days, has been after the date of the Armistice and clearly demonstrates that our large and well-managed financial Institutions are continuing their progress and growth on a solid basis with the war a thing of the past.

The main features of the figures of October 31st, 1919, and October 31st, 1918, compare as follows:

BALANCE SHEET

AS AT 31st OCTOBER

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA

STATEMENT TO THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT (CONDENSED) 31st OCTOBER

LIABILITIES

	1919.	1918.
Capital Paid Up	$ 8,341,535.30	$ 7,000,000.00
Reserve Fund	7,000,000.00	7,000,000.00
Undivided Profits	574,043.32	437,973.92
Notes in Circulation	15,827,373.00	15,180,243.00
Deposits	164,302,874.18	133,955,910.26
Due to other Banks	1,703,141.06	1,932,303.36
Acceptance under Letters of Credit	757,606.04	418,006.30
	$198,506,572.90	$165,924,436.84

ASSETS

	1919.	1918.
Cash on hand and in Banks	$ 25,642,136.33	$ 20,641,022.76
Deposit in the Central Gold Reserve	8,000,000.00	8,500,000.00
Government and Municipal Securities	36,240,352.41	31,558,108.80
Railway and other Bonds, Debentures and Stock	3,870,611.91	3,933,373.19
Call Loans in Canada	6,843,017.57	4,916,574.24
Call Loans elsewhere than in Canada	3,418,846.99	2,899,198.62
	84,614,965.21	72,448,277.59
Loans and Discounts	106,254,280.80	86,818,802.28
Liabilities of Customers under Letters of Credit per contra	757,606.04	418,006.30
Bank Premises	5,663,251.73	5,218,862.63
Real Estate other than Bank Premises	911,291.19	333,872.24
Mortgages on Real Estate sold by the Bank	536,177.93	320,615.80
Deposit with Dominion Government for purposes of Circulation Fund	377,000.00	366,000.00
	$198,506,572.90	$165,924,436.84

EMPIRE THEATRE
THURSDAY—FRIDAY—SATURDAY
MONROE SALISBURY
—IN—
"The Sunset Trail"
Women, women everywhere, but not one to marry. That was the situation at Spanish Bar until the miners imported a cargo and then drew lots for them.
FRANK KEENAN
—IN—
"The Midnight Stage"
A truly western romance of sunny California in the days of road-agents and the vigilantes. Two men—identically alike as to face and figure—but as far apart as the poles in character, the dual role being played by Frank Keenan.
Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"
(The Serial is run first each Show.)
COMEDY
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c
REMEMBER!—"Joe Martin" comes Dec. 4-5-6. He will put a kink in your side.

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.39 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope Montreal and Boston.

The Y.M.C.A. team of St. Catharines defeated Victorias, champions of the Hamilton City League, by 19 to 5, in an O.R.F.U. junior semi-final game Wednesday.

CPOS
SAILINGS—RATES
FROM MONTREAL TO
(10 a.m.)
Nov. 28—Scotian . . . . Antwerp
FROM HALIFAX TO
Dec. 4—Metagama . . Liverpool
FROM ST. JOHN TO
Dec. 8—Grampian . . . Havre
Dec. 13—Corsican . . Liverpool
Dec. 16—Pretorian . . Glasgow
From St. John on arrival of C.P.R. train leaving Montreal evening previous.
Rates and all information from
Apply Local Agents or 1 King St. East, Toronto.
CANADIAN PACIFIC OCEAN SERVICES

COAL
—AND—
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

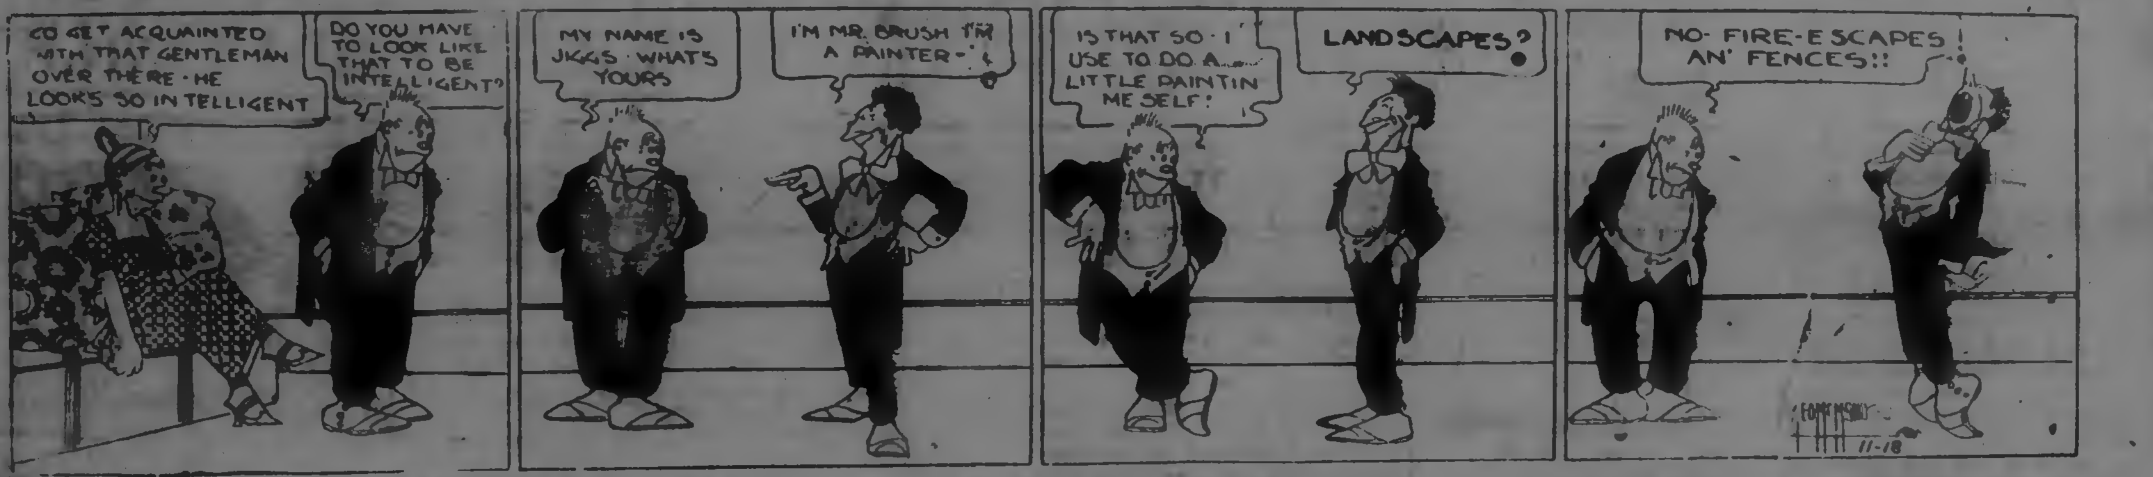
Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-362

Canada Food Board License No. 8-[illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 935

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE, NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

Bringing up Father By George McManus



GO GET ACQUAINTED WITH THAT GENTLEMAN OVER THERE - HE LOOKS SO INTELLIGENT DO YOU HAVE TO LOOK LIKE THAT TO BE INTELLIGENT?
MY NAME IS JIGGS - WHAT'S YOURS
I'M MR. BRUSH I'M A PAINTER -
IS THAT SO - I USE TO DO A LITTLE PAINTIN' ME SELF: LANDSCAPES?
NO - FIRE-ESCAPES AN' FENCES!!
11-18

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Said:

"After all what a man does with his money is to invest, and there is no better way to in it than in Life Insurance.

As an ESTATE BUILDER there is nothing to equal Life Insurance.

TAKE THE FOLLOWING ACTUAL RESULT

A young man sixteen years of age took out a 15 years Endowment (No. 210880) in the Sun Life of Canada, which matured on the first of April. This young man paid annually $66.30 for fifteen years and he now has, through that investment, an immediate estate of $3395.00 in case of death.

DO YOU KNOW THAT THIS AMOUNTS TO ALMOST 15 PER CENT COMPOUND INTEREST ON EVERY DOLLAR PAID?

No wonder Sir Wilfrid said—and he might have added (no better place than the Sun Life of Canada)—"there is no better way to invest it than in LIFE INSURANCE."

SUN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA
Crown Chambers Building, 402 Water St., Peterboro
PHONE 14
W. H. HILL, Manager, Central Ontario
A. WEDDELL, A. B. CAMERON —INSPECTORS— H. S. McDUFFEE, S. R. MOORE

DISPUTE BETWEEN EAST AND WEST OVER PLACE OF STANLEY CUP SERIES

Mr. Wm. Foran, Trustee, May be Asked to Decide Question Series Not Decided in West Last Year Claim Pacific Coast Officials—Pro. Hockey Gossip

Mr. William Foran, Stanley Cup trustee, and arbitrator between the East and the West, may be asked to decide where the next series for the World's Hockey Championship and the Stanley Cup shall be played. Both the Pacific Coast Hockey Association and the National Hockey Association and the National Hockey League claim that it should take place in their territory and the services of Mr. Foran will likely be called on within a short time.

The agreement between the Pacific Coast Association and the National Hockey League, which still has two years to run, provides that the series shall be contested in the east and west on alternate years. Last spring, it will be recalled, the Canadiens and the Seattle team clashed at Seattle, the series ending with each team having won three games. It was called off on account of the outbreak of influenza. Frank Patrick now claims that the series must be played to a decision to be finished and insists that the Eastern winners shall journey back to the Coast next March. He has written President Frank Calder, of the N.H.L., to this effect. At Saturday's meeting of the N.H.L. the matter was brought up, but the Eastern delegates could not give Mr. Patrick a concession on his letter.

George Kennedy was particularly riled over the stand taken by the Western magnate. Technically, Mr Patrick may be right, as the articles of agreement certainly read that the "series shall be decided in the East and the West alternately." However, as Canadiens traveled West last year and as it was through no fault of the N.H.L. that the series came to an indecisive ending, it is felt that it ought to take place during the coming winter in the East. This is one of the problems now before the two professional leagues and it must be decided before the two championship races are resumed next month

The National Hockey League fight will get under way in all probability on the night of December 23 with two games. It will continue until early in March, but will, of course, be wound up in time to allow for the world's series. The games will take place Wednesday and Saturday nights, Ottawa drawing eight Wednesdays and four Saturdays, and Quebec the same, while Toronto and Canadiens get eight Saturdays and four Wednesdays. There will be no change in the playing system, each match being decided by three twenty-minute periods, but at the next meeting, which is to take place on Saturday, December 6, the penalty system may be slightly altered. Abolition of the substitution rule altogether in the event of a foul being committed is advocated by two of the three clubs

Doubt is expressed as to the likelihood of the Toronto announcement that Reg. Noble and Harry Cameron would be exchanged for Bert Corbeau. All four clubs were ready to bid for the big blonde defence man but George Kennedy named a prohibitive price. He added that it was doubtful if Corbeau would play during the coming season, but he has sprung this so frequently that it only attracted a smile. Charlie Querrie intends, however, to make a thorough cleanup at Toronto, where the Arena club will not tolerate conditions such as those which played havoc with the team last year. Querrie is out for a winner and his prospects appear particularly bright.

The Vancouver club hopes to place the following team on the ice this winter; Lehman, goal; Duncan and Cook, defence; Taylor, rover; Skinner, center; Adams and Harris, wings. Duncan is at Toronto and states positively that he will remain there. Hugh Lehman was one of the first to sign up for the winter.

At Saturday's meeting the Ottawa club offered to dispose of one of its men who until last winter was regarded as a coming star Quebec and Toronto passed him up and Canadiens offered a water bucket in exchange.

A Montreal paper says Ottawa will be weaker without Dave Ritchie this winter. Ritchie has not played here since 1918. He was on the Toronto payroll for a time last season.

Resolutions of regret were contained in the annual report of the N.H.L. over the deaths of the late Hamby Shore and Joe Hall. Both were very popular and President Calder expressed deep regret at their loss.

None of the Eastern clubs have signed up any of their men as yet. Players are plentiful and the magnates evidently are not worrying

LADY CURLERS

The executive of the Ladies' Curling Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Waddell, Monaghan Road, president of the club. The purpose of this gathering was to discuss plans for the coming year, and the enthusiasm manifested depicts a splendid future for this organization, which has resumed workings since the signing of peace, but which was instituted four years previous to the war.

An open meeting will be held at the curling rink on Charlotte street, in the near future, at which the business of organizing for the coming year will be completed.

ALBERTA WILL BE ISOLATED

ONLY PROVINCE TO ADOPT WHOLESALE REINSTATEMENT OF PROFESSIONALS

Alberta, Nov. 27—"British Columbia Amateur Athletic Union officials are, I believe I am safe in saying, surprised and disappointed at the action of Alberta governors in granting reinstatement to all professional athletes who filed application, and further, I believe at the next meeting of the British Columbia executive, official steps will be taken to ignore all cards issued by Alberta, which will practically mean that that province will be isolated so far as amateur competition with other provinces is concerned," declared David Leith, of Vancouver, vice-president of the A. A. U.

The Alberta governors met Friday last and decided to grant amateur cards to Mickey McKay, Barney Stanley and other professionals who wish to return to the ranks. Quebec, Ontario, British Columbia and [illegible] have refused to reinstate pros., so there is evidently a fine old row brewing with Alberta as the storm centre. No further applications will be considered in Alberta, but they have evidently done considerable damage already, and it is safe to say that there is serious trouble in store for the amateur moguls.

MOVE TO PURCHASE ELECTRIC POWER

MUNICIPALITIES OF THIS DISTRICT CONSIDER PETITIONING GOVERNMENT.

A meeting was held in the City Council chamber today of representatives of four municipalities of the Central Ontario division to decide whether it would be advisable to call a general meeting of this district to discuss approaching the Government with a request to have the electrical power controlled as it is in Western Ontario.

The system that is carried out there is for the municipalities to own the electrical power while the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario operates it. The bonds of the Commission would be turned over to the Government and municipal debentures placed in the hands of the Hydro-Electric Commission for the value of the power plants of that municipality.

It was pointed out that that system would not be an immediate saving, but would afford the municipality opportunity to pay off their power debt some time in the future.

The representatives present were unanimous in the opinion that all municipalities of this district should be interested and all should unite so as to more strongly press their views upon the new Government, whose policy in connection with the Hydro-Electric is not yet clearly defined.

As the month of December is an exceptionaly busy one, and the representatives considered it would be advisable for next year's councils to take the matter up, it was decided to call the general meeting of the district at Port Hope in January. In the meantime every effort will be made to get all the municipalities interested so as to make a stronger petition to the Legislature.

Those present were: From Belleville, Acting Mayor Woodley and Commissioner White; Port Hope, Mayor Burnham and Town Clerk Sanderson; Lindsay, ex-Mayor Kyley, D. Ray and T. H. Stinson; Peterborough, Mayor Duncan, Ald. Phelan, Commissioner Hicks and City Clerk Armstrong.

COAL FOR RAILWAYS WILL BE SUPPLIED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Montreal, Nov. 27.—Announcement from Washington that Canada's emergency coal requirements will be supplied caused C.N.R. and G. T. R. to hold up their order issued Sunday cancelling certain trains so as to save fuel. The G.T.R., however, has laid off a number of men in its shops in expectation of slack times there.

ANOTHER REMAND IN THE BAGLEY CASE

MR. F. D. KERR NOT PREPARED FOR DEFENCE YET; CASE IS ADJOURNED.

A large crowd was on hand at Police Court this morning to hear the J. Guise-Bagley trial. They evidently expected to hear some interesting evidence, but were disappointed as Mr. F. D. Kerr, on behalf of the accused, asked for a remand for one week, and it was granted. All the charges were included in this remand.

Two of the charges of theft against Bagley for $325 each have been withdrawn as it was discovered the money had been placed in mortgages that were properly registered. There still remains three charges of theft that will come up again next Thursday morning before the magistrate.

Case of Defaulter.

George O'Brien, of Duoro, pleaded guilty to a charge of a breach of the Military Service Act and received the minimum fine of $250 and [illegible] Mr. J. O'Brien, who appeared for him, pointed out that at the time the accused was ordered to report he was sick with the "flu," it was near the end of the war, and as other men had received notifications not to report, he considered it was not necessary for him to turn out.

There have been quite a number of defaulters who have received the minimum fine at the local Police Court, but if any others wish to receive such lenient treatment, it would be advisable for them to come in and surrender. They will be hunted anyway and the more trouble they cause the more severely they will be dealt with.

SEEKING CLEMENCY FOR RUSS. MURDERER

PETITION SENT TO GOVERNOR-GENERAL FORWARDED TO MINISTER OF JUSTICE.

The following communications have been received by the local branch of the G. W. V. A. in reply to a petition to the Governor-General asking clemency for the condemned Russian, Samuel Zaluski, awaiting death in Peterborough jail for murder near Havelock early last summer:

His Excellency's Reply.

"Sir,—I am commanded by His Excellency the Governor-General to acknowledge receipt of your letter enclosing petition from the members of the Peterborough branch of the Great War Veterans' Association, in regard to one Samuel Zaluski, and to inform you that it has been referred to His Excellency's secretary of state for consideration.

"I have the honor to be, sir,
"Yours, etc.,
"H. G. ANDERSON,
"Private Secretary to His
"Excellency the Governor-General."

Forwarded to Minister.

"Sir—The secretary to His Excellency the Governor-General has forwarded from this department petitions received from you praying for commutation of the death sentence passed upon Samuel Zaluski. In reply I beg to inform you that I have transmitted these petitions to the Minister of Justice, who is charged with the consideration of all applications for the exercising of clemency in capital cases.

"I have the honor to be, sir,
"Yours, etc.,
"THOS. MULVAEY,
"Under Secretary of State."

CAN. NEWSPAPERMEN CONVENE IN TORONTO

SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL GATHERING OF CANADA'S PRESS ASSOCIATION TODAY.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 27.—Representatives of the Canadian newspapermen from all over Canada were in attendance today at the sixty-first annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association, which gathered here under the presidency of W. J. Taylor, of Woodstock, Ont.

Divide Into Sections.

After a general meeting of the association the members divided into various sections, daily, weekly and trades papers, for discussion of various problems distinctly affecting these branches of business.

"Editorial Night."

This afternoon there was held another general meeting of the association to consider proposed amendments to the bylaws, and tonight will be "editorial night," when the membership will hear an address by Mr. J. W. Dafoe of the Winnipeg Free Press. Mr. Dafoe represented the Canadian [illegible] at the Peace Conference.

Canada and the U. S.

Mr. Arthur Elliot Sproul, editor of the Canadian section of the New York Sun, will speak on "Canada and the United States," and Mr. F. M. Chapman of the "Farmer Magazine" will address the association on the subject "Where Urban and Rural Merge." The convention will be continued tomorrow.

SIR JOSEPH FLAVELLE SELLS FOR $3,000,000

DISPOSES OF HIS STOCK IN THE WILLIAM DAVIES CO. TO E. C. FOX.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 27.—It is officially announced today that Sir Joseph Flavelle, president of the Wm. Davies Co., and controller of 52 per cent. of its stock, has sold out his interests in that concern to E. C. Fox and group of associates for three million dollars. Mr. Fox has been general manager of the company for some time.

POST OFFICE TAKE THREE FROM CLERKS

Last night at the Water street alleys, the Post Office took three straights from the Clerks. Ballard was in great form and rolled a high single of 28, and high three for 642. Head was high for the Clerks with 488. The scores:

The Clerks.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Head	120	184	74—	488
Herbison	167	139	150—	456
Bartlay	155	120	113—	398
Henry	132	190	117—	439
Robson	143	120	193—	456
Totals	717	723	754—	2194

Post Office.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
H. Mcllomyl	169	145	109—	423
A. Mcllomyl	186	175	111—	472
Fallan	107	152	189—	448
Kay	112	...	...—	112
Lasheur	...	140	164—	304
Ballard	166	181	195—	642
Totals	740	893	768—	2401

RECORD BOWLING AT Y.M.C.A. ALLEYS

SOME HIGH SCORES WHEN LAWN BOWLERS DEFEAT LEAGUE LEADERS

Bowling was keen at the Y.M.C.A. last night when the Lawn Bowlers dealt the Centrals their first defeat in three intensely interesting games. Everett, Pratt and Maynoard starred for the winners while Walton, Oke and Heaslip made high scores for the Centrals. These games were looked forward to with considerable interest as the teams were first and second in the standing and last night's result placed Everett's team in first place along with the Centrals, each having now lost three games. Bert Everett topped his own high score of last week by one pin, getting 310 in the first game. The feature of the match was the large number of high scores made, nine men getting well over 200. The second game resulted in the highest total ever made on the Y.M.C.A. alleys and in this game the Centrals piled up enough pins to win any game yet played but the Lawn Bowlers got 8 pins more and won out. The return match between these teams is sure to be a real big event. The other teams are all scrappy and will not concede the lead to others without a real battle. The scores:

Lawn Bowlers.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Hendry	121	217	183—	521
Craig	121	...	181—	302
Pratt	178	277	234—	689
Maynord	262	154	199—	615
Everett	310	266	199—	765
Elliott	...	121	...—	121
Totals	992	1025	996—	3013

Centrals.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Oke	131	313	164—	608
Green	180	177	184—	541
Routley	159	162	188—	509
Walton	193	291	187—	671
Heaslip	189	174	249—	612
Totals	852	1017	972—	2841

A committee of Labor men will meet with representatives of the U. F. O., to arrange a "producer to consumer" alliance.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 396

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates
$4.00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds — Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Automobile SKATES
OUNCES LIGHTER & STRONGER
WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

Private Christmas Cards
The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

DON'T MISS THE Y.M.C.A. MINSTRELS GRAND OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT & FRIDAY NIGHT

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

TEMPLE SONGSTERS

Members of the Temple Songsters are requested to meet this evening for practice.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles.) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporary) 502 ring 12.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2343.

NOTICE.

A Special Meeting of the shareholders of the Co-Operative Society will be held in the board room, 200 Rubidge street, on Thursday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock. Every shareholder is requested to be present as the business is of utmost importance.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Orangised by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

COUNTY COUNCIL

The County Council are in session again today but all their time was occupied in committee discussion. The committee reports will probably be brought in Saturday morning.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

At Trinity Church school room Friday, November 28, afternoon and evening. No admission fee but afternoon refreshments and a light supper will be served at the different booths. Everything served, from venison stew in the November hunting lodge to cooling punch on the summer porch of the August booth.

MACHINISTS' ATTENTION

All members of International Association of Machinists, Lodge No. 435, are requested to attend a special meeting, to be held on Friday night, Nov. 28, at 8 p.m., in the Labor Hall. Important business.

F. WIMAN,
Rec. Secretary.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The 57th Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold their annual Bazaar on December 9 and 10, and not on the dates as formerly mentioned, at the Y. M. C. A. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and afternoon tea will be served.

Miss Kylie of Toronto was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Mrs. C. Howard of Toronto was a Peterborough visitor over the week-end.

Mr. Wordsworth Perrin and Dr. Dennie of Vancouver have returned home after visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Strickland of Cornwall is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Marguerite McNeely, city has been visiting in Lindsay, the guest of Miss Flurey, Glenelg street.

Brig.-Gen. B. H. Hepburn, M.P. and Mrs. Hepburn, of Picton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ackerman, Hunter street.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry White and two little daughters are the guests of Rev. W. H. and Mrs White at St. Luke's rectory. Dr. White has just returned from overseas

Lieut. Wilfred Adams arrived from overseas this morning.

Ada Adams, from University College, and Harold Adams from the Royal Dental College, Toronto, came down last night to meet their brother Wilfred, who has been overseas for the past two years.

Mr. S. Waters of Toronto was a visitor to the city, yesterday.

SALE TODAY AND TOMORROW

The Ladies' [illegible] Society of Murray Street Baptist Church are holding sale at 309 George Street, some of the articles on sale are men's socks, fancy and work aprons, children's underwear, dolls, bags, boudoir caps, comforters, home-made pickles and baking. Afternoon tea served Thursday and Friday.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR.

St. John's choir will practise at 8 o'clock tonight in the Guild room; boys will assemble at 7:30. A full turnout is requested to rehearse Advent and Christmas music.

DUFFUS GARAGE

Has warm, fireproof automobile storage at reasonable rates. A frozen motor will cost more than WARM winter storage.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PETERBORO

It's an old saying that there's nothing new in this world. Most of our latest inventors were used and patented with the Egyptians or Chinese way back in B.C. Mr. Asa Huycke has brought out something new, however, as an exception to the rule and he is still quite a young man, haing not even passed the century mark. The opening chorus and several of the songs in the Y.M.C.A. minstrels are absolutely new and original, the credit for which is due to him A catchy song "The Referendum Blues" is one of these songs. In singing it George Wesley makes plainly evident how much he would like to ask Mr. Drury for permission to erect a brewery. An Italian novelty song with accompanying dance will be introduced by two clever and nimble young ladies. This feature in itself is a sermon to young men who persist in being bashful over "popping the question." Come boys and see how the girls regard your bashfulness.

Knowing that a music loving populace will thoroughly appreciate this spectacle we can heartily recommend it to the music lovers of Peterboro.

Remaining, sincerely yours,
"THE Y.M.C.A. MINSTRELS."

AT OSGOODE HALL

JUDGES' CHAMBERS BEFORE RIDDELL, J.

Toronto, Nov. 27.— Hamilton v Quaker Oats.— F. D. Kerr (Peterboro') appealed from order of Local Judge at Peterboro' directing Robert W. Cormack to attend for re-examination and to answer certain questions. D. OConnell for plaintiff.

Judgment: The questions, in my view, are wholly irrelevant, and the appeal must be allowed. Costs throughout to defendants in any event.

Victoria, Australia is establishing State sawmills in order to stop profiteering in timber,

MISS MARGARET SHERLOCK RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS GIRLS' CLUB

Hon. President Mrs. W. R. Morris—Annual Meeting Reveals Progressive Condition of Organization.

The annual meeting of the Business Girls' Club was held in the Green Room of the Y. W. C. A. on the evening of Friday, November the 21st.

The following is a report of the year's work presented by the secretary:—

"I submit for your approval the following report, being the Fifth Annual Report of the Business Girls' Club, for the year ending November, 1919.

Our activities during the past year have been along the line of endeavor usually pursued by the Business Girls' Club. Although the stimulus of "war" was removed, the "carry on" spirit of our members was not lessened, and throughout we have enjoyed the good fellowship and co-operation which has always characterized our organization and which means so much to the ultimate success of any undertaking.

Concert and Play.

Last June we gave a concert and play in St. John's S. S. hall, followed by a Saturday afternoon excursion to Gore's Landing. We served refreshments at the bonspiel of the Bowling Club, and sold "hot dogs" at the community dance held in connection with the Victory Loan. Men-[illegible] be made of the candy booth at the Motor Show held last winter, which work was undertaken by us wholly in the interests of the Health Association. Calls for money during the year were more or less in connection with war charities, and donations were made to the Belgian Relief Fund, the Salvation Army Red Shield Drive and the G. W. V. A. We were also pleased to be able to help the Playgrounds Association and the Baby Clynic (the money voted for the latter cause has not yet been called for).

Ten Meetings.

During the year ten business meetings were held, at which there was an average attendance of eighteen members (which average was the same as for the previous year.) Each of these meetings was handled by a committee previously appointed, and in most cases the cost of refreshments used was taken from the club funds, according to a resolution passed early in the year. We wish to thank most kindly all who so graciously contributed entertainment at these various meetings, and might make mention here of the open meeting held last February, at which Miss Lancaster's talk on "Girls" was very much enjoyed.

Eleven new members were voted into our club by the new method inaugurated some time ago. A constitution for our club was also adopted and printed copies handed to the members. Being incorporated, we are obliged to make half-yearly returns to the Government, and wish to thank Mr. Kerr and Mr McElderry for services rendered in this connection

Optimistic of Future.

The future is all before us, and we cannot be too optimistic. Our club is composed of business girls who are trained to do things in a business-like way, and with a definite policy in view there is really no limit to the things we may accomplish for the good of ourselves and our community. Why not adopt for our motto that of our Prince, who has won the hearts of his people: "I serve"?

Treasurer's Report.

The treasurer's report, presented by Miss Pearl Emmerson, was as follows:

Receipts

Balance, Red Cross	$ 17.75
Balance, General	157.07
Interest, bank	3.81
Red Cross donations	21.25
Garden donation	1.00
Donation	.60
Sale at candy booth at the Motor Show	147.50
Sale at Bowling Green ...	40.73
Sale re Victory Loan dance	19.30
Concert, St. John's S. S. hall	22.02
Excursion	36.69
Club Pins	1.05
Club Fees	21.50
Coupon interst, Victory Loan	5.50
Total	$495.77

Expenditures

Flowers	$ 6.55
Refreshments	15.50
Postage	9.14
Fee, Council of Women ...	1.00
Fee re charter	1.06
Nelson Typewriter, supplies	4.86
Advertising	6.82
Dialogue books	1.25
Telegram re Gibbs	.51
Books, [illegible] Bros. ...	[illegible]
Review Ptg. Co., re constitution	11.75
Donation	4.50
R. Hall & Son	4.25
Donation, Shelter Christmas tree	5.00
Donation, Y. W. C. A. ...	10.00
Donation, Salvation Army..	25.00
Donation, Belgian Relief ..	25.00
Donation, G. W. V. A. ...	25.00
Donation, Playgrounds ...	50.00
Peterboro Health Assn. ...	100.00
Boat for excursion	50.00
Total	$418.69

Balance on hand, $77.08; also two $50 Victory bonds.

Election of Officers.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

Hon. Pres.—Mrs. W. R. Morris.

President—Miss Margaret Sherlock (re-elected).

1st Vice-Pres.—Miss A. Horsfield.

2nd Vice-Pres.—Miss Lillian Hall.

3rd Vice-Pres.—Miss Edith Hall.

Secretary—Miss Grace Evans (re-elected).

Treasurer—Miss Jennie Gillespie.

Executive Committee — Misses Ethel Rae, Mary Lowrie, Ethel Miller, Pearl Emmerson, Olive Marshall.

The president, Miss Margaret Sherlock, in a few well chosen words, thanked the members of the club for their loyal support during the past year, and stated that with the same co-operation and kindly feeling in the year to come the club should be more than ever successful.

Before dispersing, dainty refreshments were served by the executive committee, and the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

You Will Like

Lanka

It is an exquisite blend of the finest tea Ceylon's Hill Gardens produce. Its delicious flavor can't be described — but your first cup will win you.

The bright sparkling color proclaims Lanka quality and adds to your enjoyment. The aroma is captivating — as inviting as the bouquet of rare wine.

Lanka Tea is British grown to suit British taste. It is imported direct through the Keystone Port of Vancouver, with a consequent saving of import duties and freight charges, which allows us to offer Lanka at a popular price.

Lanka Tea costs but 75 cents a pound — no more than any good tea. It comes in the handsome striking package illustrated in this advertisement, which you will see on your grocer's shelf. Leading dealers have welcomed this opportunity to give their customers the supreme quality of Lanka Tea.

Lanka Tea is imported and packed by
WM. BRAID & COMPANY, Vancouver, Canada

NOTICE TO G. W. V. A. MEMBERS.

On November 27, 28 and 29 a ballot will be taken on the two questions submitted by the provincial command. The poll will be open each evening from 7 to 11 o'clock, and Saturday from 2 o'clock until 8 p.m. Every member is requested to make an effort to get to headquarters to record his vote on these important questions.

S. WHATLEY, Secretary.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

The Toronto Council of Women announced its intention of entering a candidate for civic honors in each ward in the city, as well as for the Board of Control.

LADY BECK ILL

Sir Adam Beck May Have to Leave Her in London

Toronto, Nov. 27.—As Lady Beck is very ill in London, Eng., and Sir Adam Beck expects that it will be necessary for him to leave very soon for that country, Premier Drury yesterday agreed with Sir Adam that Hon. I. B. Lucas should be requested to remain a member of the Ontario Hydro-electric commission until he returns. Sir Adam considers it impossible for him to leave if both other members of the commission are new to the work.

The prospect is that Sir Adam will return about the middle of January, and that Mr. Lucas will then resign.

The Ontario Board of License Commissioners has decided to raise the price of whiskey.

ABANDONS TOUR

Washington, Nov. 27.—Owing to regulations adopted as a result of smallpox cases in Ontario, the proposed Canadian tour of British Empire delegates to the International Labor Conference has had to be abandoned

MEN'S MEETING

ALLEN THEATRE
SUNDAY 4.15 p.m.
Rev. O.C.S. Wallace
MAA. D.D. LL.D.
Westmount Baptist Church
Montreal
Former Chancellor McMaster University. Canadian Baptist Representative at the Front
Hear This Well-known Orator.
ALL COME.

BUSINESS SOLD

B. CHESLER HAS BOUGHT OUT $10,000 STOCK REMAINING IN H. J. ZACKS' STORE.

A few days ago, owing to the stress of business activity, caused by the selling out sale, Mr. H.J. Zacks was taken sick and confined to his room. Not being able to attend to the rush of business in the store, he concluded a bulk sale of the remaining $10,000.00 value of goods in his stock, at a very low rate, to Mr. B. Chesler who at once took possession and is continuing the sale with greater vim than ever.

Mr. Chesler does not need the goods in his own store and his one object is to dispose of it quickly, at some price. This favorable rate at which he bought allows him to make more sweeping price reductions than ever. To Mr. Chesler price is no particular object, the goods must go as he cannot spare the time for a long drawn out clearing sale.

Parties who need ladies' wear can now profit by a saving of about half their value on new style 1919 garments, many of them exclusive. News of Mr. Chesler's intentions will appear in tomorrow's Review.

Mr. Chesler's own store at 289 George street, is being run on its well known value giving lines, as usual.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE WILL OPEN SOON

FARMERS HOPE TO START BUSINESS IN ABOUT TWO WEEKS.

The Peterborough Farmers' Club are making strenuous efforts to get their new co-operative store in business as soon as possible. They will occupy the store on Simcoe street next to the Royal George Hotel and expect to start business in about two weeks.

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said; "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

Established 1889 [redacted]
HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that all persons having any claims or demands against John Holmes, late of Los Angeles, California, U.S.A., Gentleman, deceased, who died at the City of Peterborough on or about the 12th day of May, 1919, are required to send by post prepaid or to deliver to the undersigned, the Administrator with will annexed of the property of the said deceased situate within the Province of Ontario, on or before the 20TH DAY OF DECEMBER, NEXT (1919), their names and addresses, with full particulars of their claims, and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them

And take notice that after the said 20th day of December, 1919, the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets within Ontario of the said deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have had notice, and that the said administrator will not be liable for the said assets within Ontario or any part thereof to any person of whose claims he shall not then have received notice

Dated this 26th day of November, 1919.

J. M. BYGOTT,
Lakefield, Ont.,
Administrator

H. P. Lindsay, Agency Company
392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)

Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

HOUSES TO RENT
For $6.00 to $7.50
FOR SALE
165 Acres. 65 Acres under Cultivation, balance in good Timber, for $1800
Farms from $2000 to $17,000

PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

REGULAR MEETING BOARD OF TRADE

The regular quarterly general meeting of the local Board of Trade will be held on the evening of Thursday, December 4th.

The House Committee will arrange to have supper served in the Council Room from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

The general meeting will convene at eight o'clock sharp in the class room of the Business College.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

GOOD BUYING

7-Roomed Brick House on Charlotte Street with 3-piece Bath Room, Furnace, Mantel and well situated part.
CASH - - $3,300
—by—
T. WALKER & Co.
163 Hunter St. W Phone 1002

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1263 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

Easterly winds, fair and cold. Saturday easterly winds with snow or rain.

The Daily Review

10 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 125 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

LADY ASTOR IS FIRST WOMAN ELECTED MEMBER BRITISH HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT

Defeated W. T. Gray, Laborite—Her Success Regarded as Great Victory for Lloyd George's Coalition Government, Will Take Her Seat Monday Next—Is Proud of Being the Mother of Six Children.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 28.— Lady Astor, unionist, was elected to the Commons from the Sutton Division of Plymouth in a bye-election, November 15th, it is announced today. Her chief opponent was W. T. Gay, Laborite. This is regarded as a great victory for Lloyd George's Coalition Government.

In the bye-election on the Isle of Thanet, Kent division, Esmond Harmsforth, Unionist defeated Captain A. J. West, Liberal, by two thousand majority.

The vote in Plymouth was Lady Astor 14,494, W. T. Gay, Labor, 9,202, Isaac Foot, Liberal, 4,139.

Lady Astor became candidate for the Plymouth seat in the British House of Commons, after the death of Viscount Astor of Heverall had left her husband heir to the title and necessitated retirement from the Lower Touse of Parliament.

Premier Lloyd George, A.J. Balfour, former Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and Baron Fisher, former First Sea Lord, were among the various notables who gave hearty approval of her candidacy.

Bitter Contest

Labor legislation was the chief issue during the campaign, which at times assumed quite bitter aspects. Lady Astor, who becomes the first woman seat-holder in the House of Commons, was formerly Miss Nannie Langhorne, of Virginia, U. S. She is mother of six children, a fact of which she boasted on one occasion during her canvass.

Countess Markievicz was elected as a Sinn Feined in Ireland, but did not take her seat.

Takes Seat Monday

Lady Astor will take her seat on Monday next. Delay in announcing the result was due to the necessity of collecting votes from electors of the constituency, who at the time of polling were at more or less distant points. Vote of this class was largely of soldiers and sailors. Its possible total was 4,400, and it was estimated that fifty per cent of it was actually polled.

JUST SETTLEMENT FOR JUGO-SLAVIA

GREAT BRITAIN GIVES ASSURANCE OF USING INFLUENCE TO THIS END

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Lnodon, Nov. 28.— Great Britain has given Jugo-Slavia assurances that the Adriatic question will soon be taken up by the Supreme Council, and that Great Britain's influence will be used to secure a just and equitable settlement in accordance with the life and interests of Jugo Slavia, according to private despatches.

Maitland, Capitals and several other minor organizations have decided to join forces and organize a North Toronto Athletic Club

ALLEGED COUNT VON BERNSTORFF WAS IMPLICATED IN MURDER CASE

Newspaper Man Declares Dr. Ford Murdered to Prevent Exposure by Him of Imformation of German Activities.

Concord, N.H., Nov. 28.—Evidence that Count von Bernstorff, the dismissed German Ambassador, made at least two visits to Dublin, during which he made long automobile inspection trips to East Jaffrey, New Hampshire, in company with Lawrence Muens Colfelt of New York, and another man, was laid before Governor Bartlett and his Executive Council, at a hearing on a petition to order a special Grand Jury to reopen the investigation of the murder of Dr. William Kendrick Dean in East Jaffrey the night of August 13 1918.

Bert Ford, a Boston newspaper man who has worked on the case for several weeks recently, was the only witness heard today, but his testimony so impressed Governor Bartlett and the councillors that they will have a further hearing.

Ford declared the Federal officials had unimpeachable proof that Dr. Dean was murdered to prevent exposure by him he had of German activities in Jaffrey, and that this proof had been placed in the possession of the State authorities, who had refused to take action because of political and high social prominence of some of the persons involved.

The Dean case was not reached by the Governor and Council until late in the day owing to other business, but after the holiday the Council will take up the matter again and give exclusive attention to its consideration.

Impressed With Story

Attorney-General Oscar L. Young who presented evidence at previous Grand Jury inquest, which brought no indictments, was present at the hearing and in a brief statement declared there was not sufficient evidence presented at that hearing to warrant indictments. The Governor and Councillors, however, were impressed with the story of Ford and expressed a desire to hear more.

For told of the presence of many Germans at Jaffrey, Dublin and other places in that mountainous section, perfectly adopted for signaling to German submarines off the coast. He told of introvertible evidence by scores of residents of the section that lights were seen flashing from mountain tops and houses of eminences.

On each of the visits of Count von Bernstorff a local photographer was taken along on the automobile trips, Ford says, pictures being taken showing the topographical outlines. The photographer Edward Bean, heard Colfelt address the stranger as "Bernstorff" Ford said, but he did not realize who "Bernstorff" really was until later when he saw a newspaper picture of the German Ambassador.

"At the time Bernstorff was in Jaffrey," said Ford "the section was filled with Germans and cores of sailors from the interned German ships were working on the large estates of summer residents thereabout They had frequent meetings and did not hesitate to tamper with mail that came to American guests, particularly the mail of a member of the Secret Service which bore the official Government seal. Men in American uniforms met the Germans at these conferences."

"Bernstorff was there 'incog'" Ford testified, which aroused the suspicions of persons who knew him and saw him, although he endeavored to keep under cover. While Bernstorff was there the signallings by light times, and it is significant that these was more pronounced than at other times coincided with the destruction of merchant ships off the New England coast within the three mile limit by German submarines.

Ford declared the information he had was convincing that the Germans at Jaffrey were in communication with the submarines and that messages were relayed regularly from Mount Monadnocle which is the first point of land visible to incoming vessels to the New England coast.

"Dr. Deen knew this and was about to give the information to the war intelligence officers." said Ford "and that was the reason he was killed."

RECORD VOTING IN WINNIPEG ELECTIONS

MORE VOTES CAST FIRST HOUR THAN WHOLE DAY LAST YEAR

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—That during the first hour this morning in the civic elections more votes were cast than in the whole day last year, was the estimate made in election circles.

Waiting Queues.

Every poll was packed with a queue waiting to cast their ballots. Out of approximately sixty thousand electors, the great number will exercise the franchise. The election machinery is organized to handle the full number of electors, if necessary, in the eleven hours in which balloting is allowed.

The Megantic brought six hundred passengers to Halifax and four hundred to Portland.

WONDERFUL REFORM

Assistant Postmaster John Corkery has applied to the Civil Service Commission for promotion to the position of Postmaster of the local office, in place of Mr. James Edgar, deceased, and his application has been turned over to the Deputy Minister.

Now the people suppose that under the new Act the Civil Service Commission have complete jurisdiction in all appointments, but it appears that the Deputy Minister in each department is excepted from the Act, and can exercise his own discretion in regard to an appointment. This constitutes a loop hole in the new Act by which considerable odium may fall on the member for a constituency.

Mr. Burnham hopes the spirit of the Act will be complied with and that no discretion will be made use of. So far as he is concerned he stands loyally by an Act which, though it endeavors to do the impossible — namely, hand over the moral uprightness of a people to a statute nevertheless must be followed as far as possible, since the people think this new Act is a wonderful reform.

WM. FAIR, ALLEGED DEALER IN LIQUOR, IS ACQUITTED BY THE MAGISTRATE

Mr. Dumble Rules That no Evidence Was Produced to Prove the Accused Sold Whiskey—Chief Thompson and Crown Attorney Hatton Amazed at Decision.

After spending one week in jail on remand, William Fair is again free dismissed on the charge of soliciting or obtaining orders for the sale of liquor. Magistrate Dumble gave his judgment at police court this morning in spite of the vigorous protests of Chief Thompson and Crown Attorney Hatton.

The Evidence

The sole witness was P. C. Bristow who gave a detailed account of his dealings with Fair that lead to the charge of soliciting orders for liquor.

He told of going to Fair's home on Wednesday, the 19th of November and there meeting the accused. "I told Fair I wanted a little whiskey for a party I was having that night," swore the witness. "He replied to me, not today but I can see you tomorrow and fix you up."

Bristow then told of making a date with the accused for the following afternoon at two o'clock at the corner of Charlotte and George streets. Both men were on hand at the appointed hour and place and proceeded to the public lavatory.

While there, Bristow swears, he told Fair that he could sell fifty quarts in the neighborhood of Bailieboro, from where he had just come for a holiday.

"I suppose you are on the square," questioned Fair.

"O, certainly I am," replied the constable, acording to his own evidence.

Then on the way out the accused promised to supply the fifty quarts for the people in the neighborhood of Bailieboro. Just then Detective Cookman appeared on the scene and placed both men under arrest.

No Cross-Examination

Mr. G. N. Gordon, appearing for accused, arose, cleared his throat, and prepared for a vigorous and searching cross-examination. Before his first question was answered, however, the magistrate asked: "Is that all the evidence you have Mr. Hatton?"

"Yes, that's all, except to co-oberate it your worship, and I think it is sufficient."

"I don't,' replied the magistrate, "and I wont convict a man on such evidence. The constable tried to trick this man into selling him liquor and failed. I am not going to draw conclusions and fine him on them."

"But the act," began Mr. Hatton in protest.

"Oh! hang the act," interrupted the magistrate, "this court goes by the evidence, and there has been no evidence to show that this man sold liquor.'"

Chief Thompson asked for a remand, but Mr. Gordon objected that the man wanted to get out and work for his family.

"He hasn't worked at anything except selling booze for months," exclaimed the Chief.

"I did not say what he worked at," laughed Mr. Gordon, who appeared to be in high spirits over the good fortune of his client.

"I will draw up another charge, and bring a couple of people here who bought liquor from him," threatened the Chief.

"Hold on," objected Mr. Gordon when I get a licking I have to take it; can't you do the same thing?"

The chief did not reply but a look at the barrells in the court room would lead one to believe he will be satisfied with his present booty.

At any rate, William Fair is now a free man and at liberty to engage in whatever occupation offers.

WOULD APPOINT COMMITTEE TO ENQUIRE INTO COST OF BRITISH COAL OUTPUT

Laborite Brace Charges Govt With Fear of Co-Operation Wth Others—Moves Vote of Censure in Commons

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 28.—As a vote of censure on the Government, William Brace, Laborite, today moved in the Commons for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the cost of production, output and prices of coal.

Cost of Coal.

The motion introduced by William Brace called for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the cost of production, output and prices of coal. Behind the resolutions the full strength of the Labor party was marshalled. There was a full attendance of the House when, in presenting his motion, Mr. Brace declared the Labor party had been trying to co-operate with the Government in a grave and difficult financial problem, but that the Government had declined to permit of the party's co-operation.

Why Afraid?

Mr Brace asked why the Government was afraid of a committee of inquiry. Miners, he said, had been driven to despair over the blunders of the coal department, and the trade was working into chaos. Development was retarded, he declared. He maintained that the industry required reorganization, because the shortage in output was not attributable to the miners but to a lack of development by the owners and to bad transportation. The miners, he said, were prepared to co-operate with anybody and everybody on any system in order to secure large reproduction.

Sweeping Victory.

London, Nov. 28.—The Government won a sweeping victory in the House of Commons today when the motion of William Brace, Labor leader, calling for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the cost of production, output and prices of coal, was rejected. The Government received 254 votes as against 59 for the measure.

U.S. GOVERNMENT TO SEIZE COAL MINES WHERE OPERATORS WILL NOT SPEED UP

Use Troops Also to Protect the Miners Who Desire to Work and Pay the 14 Percent Wage Advance Agreed Upon by Cabinet—Black Thanksgiving Afternoon Spent in Embittered Debate.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 28.—The seizure of bituminous coal mines where owners do not show a disposition to cooperate in increasing production, and the use of troops to protect all miners who desire to work, has been decided upon by the Government in an effort to end the bituminous coal strike, it was stated today officially.

In mines seized by the Government a 14 per cent. wage advance agreed upon by the Cabinet will be put into immediate effect, it was said.

These plans of the Government were agreed upon by the Cabinet last Wednesday, official said, so as to meet the situation resulting from a refusal of the operators or miners, or both, to agree to the Government wage increase proposal.

Abrupt Ending.

An abrupt end came late yesterday to all attempts to settle the nation-wide coal strike by peaceful agreement.

Miners and operators spent a bleak Thanksgiving afternoon in embittered debate over the Government proposals for a 14 per cent. wage increase, made last night by Fuel Administrator Garfield, rejected it and every other proposal that was forthcoming, and then disolved, sine die.

Participants went home last night and where the break left coal strike conditions no one of them, miner or operator, would say. Likewise in official quarters, there was silence.

Scored Government.

Acting President John L. Lewis, of the Mine Workers, though refusing to say one word as to the strike itself, which theoretically was called off in obedience to Federal Court injunction holding it a violation of the Lever Act for war-time food and fuel control, scored the Government roundly at the conclusion of the conference. So did William Green, secretary of the Mine Workers.

Operators, though accepting the Government proposal definitely, in a letter of explanation to Dr. Garfield, which they made public, intimated that the Government refusal to allow price increases, would bear reconsideration.

Behind Closed Doors.

It was behind closed doors that the coal situation reached its climax today after involving the full attention of the Federal Government for two days previously.' There was much heated oratory, but T. W Guthrie, of Pittsburg, acting chairman of the operators' committee, described the parliamentary procedure succinctly as he came out. The operators, by a pre-arranged plan, notified the miners' committee for the Central Ccompetitive field of their acceptance of Dr Garfield's plan.

Arbitration Refused.

This the mine workers promptly voted down. In turn the miners put forward a counter proposal that Secretary Wilson's suggestion for a 31.66 per cent. wage increase be granted, and this the operators flatly refused. For the third time, the operators renewed their formal off of arbitration, and this the miners voted down.

Unanimously an adjournment was voted.

COUNTY COUNCIL DISCUSS GOOD ROADS

ADDRESSED BY MEMBERS OF BOTH RIDINGS OF THE COUNTY

The good road question came up for discussion at the County Council this morning. The councillors are determined, now they have adopted the scheme, to make the best possible use of it.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. T. Tooms, member of the Ontario Legislature, for West Peterborough and Mr. E. N. McDonald, member for the east riding.

Both members spoke in favor of the good road scheme but considered that it needed amendments before the system could be put to the best advantage. They expressed themselves as willing to study the needs of the county in this connection and go to the first session of the house, prepared to support any amendment that will better the act. They desire the co-operation of the county in putting the scheme to the best effect in their respective ridings.

An informal discussion followed the speeches and the councillors explained to the members the requirements of the county. The discussion was of benefit to both parties and co-operation between them was assured. The councillors were favorably impressed with the stand of both members.

Bridges Rebuilt

The bridge across the Squaw River in Harvey will be rebuilt as will that across Salmon Lake in Galway.

A committee formed of the warden and councillors Nichols and Bullis was chosen to consider the matter of rebuilding the bridge between the counties of Peterborough and Hastings with power to act.

WIFE'S REMAINS PARTLY BURNED

SUSPICIOUS DEATH OF TORONTO WOMAN—HUSBAND UNDER ARREST

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 28.—George James Coppen, who was arrested shortly after midnight, after a part of his home had been destroyed and the remaines of his wife partly burned therein, was arraigned in police court this morning and remanded to await further investigation. The police discovered that the woman's head had been badly smashed Neighbors declared that she had been living for years in a secluded part of the house and denied the company of her husband and young son.

SOVIET HAS GOLD

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 28.— Maxim Litvinoff, the Soviet Emissary at Stockholm, has declared that Soviet gold reserves are unprecedented, the Government having four hundred million roubles in gold to pay for food machinery and necessaries.

DECLINE IN SMALLPOX.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 28.—The fact that the health authorities of Toronto are getting the upper hand of the smallpox epidemic is emphasized by statistics showing forty-eight cases discharged and thirty-seven new cases reported. The total cases in the city now number 553.

RECOGNIZE SOVIET GOV'T.

Italian Socialist Party Demand This From Government

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Rome, Nov. 28.—Directors of the Socialist party today adopted a motion declaring that the Socialist victory at the general elections is an act of complete solidarity with the Soviet republic of Russia, clearly expressing to the Italian government an order to recognize immediately the Soviet republic of Russia.

Mr. J. N. Francoeur is said to be the choice for next Speaker of the Quebec Legislative Assembly.

Guelph and Tilsonburg received orders from the Hydro-Electric Power Commission to reduce their peak load of power.

BANDITS HOLD UP 50 MEN IN SALOON, AND GET AWAY WITH $800

Robbers Interrupted Luncheon and Made Heavy Assessment on Cash Drawer—Daring Immitation of Wild and Woolly West Days in Chicago's South Side District, Escape Effected in Automobile.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—A forest of arms and hands sprouted suddenly toward the ceiling of Max Geis' saloon at 3815 South Morgan street early this afternoon when half a dozen bandits captured the place and demanded the customary sign of surrender from more than fifty patrons gathered about the bar and tables. For pure effrontery the holdup surpassed anything the Chicago police have put on their books for years.

The Geis saloon is in a factory district, and is the regular noonday resort of scores of workingmen who go there to get their luncheon and near beer. The proprietor makes a practice of cashing checks, and as this was payday for several of the factories he had a large amount of cash on hand. The fact evidently was known to the bandits.

Holdup Interrupts Luncheon.

The luncheon babel was at its height when a car drove up in front of the saloon. One man remained at the wheel. The other five piled out and burst into the saloon. There was the command, "Hands up" and the entire assemblage thrust them up. Geis and his son, George, who were behind the bar, were called out into the crowd and then the whole lot were herded into a dining hall behind the bar room, where two men stood guard over them.

Meanwhile the treasurer of the band got busy with the cash drawer and seized about $800. He was keenly disappointed at not finding more, and demanded of George Geis the balance of the funds. George told him there was no more. While the two were arguing the automobile driver ran to the window and pounded on the pane with the butt of his revolver. The five inside the saloon turned at once and ran for their car. It developed that one of the half hundred in the back room had slipped out the side door and sprinting for a telephone when the chauffeur saw him.

The automobile got as far as the corner when the engine stopped. The six jumped out, ran east in West 38th street and escaped. A license plate found inside the car indicated it was the property of the Harder Fireproof Van and Storage Company.

Rifle Squad Hunts Slayer.

Policemen armed with rifles surrounded the home of Mrs. Edna Gibbs at 4418 Langley avenue to-day prepared for a desperate battle with Boise Love, a negro wanted for the murder of Mrs. Robirdia Clayton and her 7 year old daughter. With their forces effectively disposed for assault Detective Sergeant Aiken gave the word to rush the place. The police closed in on the run, and Aiken led a squad that burst through the door.

The prey was gone.

Search has been on for Love ever since yesterday when he choked Mrs. Clayton and her daughter to death and tried to kill David Clayton with a hatchet.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.

THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.

U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dondes, Chicago.

TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. .... 189 Editorial ... 486
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.

THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1919.

THE CONDEMNED.

WE ARE IN RECEIPT of a communication from a tender-hearted lady sympathising with the Russians awaiting death in Peterborough jail for murder. She seems to blame Canadian society in a way for not looking after the morals of poor unfortunate foreigners within our gates and educating them up to a knowledge of Christian laws as conceived by us. She also emphasizes her opinion that drink was in no small degree a stimulant to the crime of five men, taking the life of another for money.

Now, as to capital punishment, people differ, and perhaps it does savor of brutal vindictiveness. In any event, life spent in a penitentiary will do the victim of a murder just as much good as carrying out the old orthodox law of "a life for a life, an eye for an eye," etc., and is of the two the severist punishment. But no civilised land accepts drink as an excuse for murder, and rightly so. During their occupancy of France and Belgium the Germans soaked themselves in wines, and that, no doubt, was responsible for many atrocities at which the whole civilized world stood aghast, but did not excuse on the score of drink.

As to the duty of Canadian society (speaking benevolently, of course) toward foreigners, we do not think Canada is lacking kindly care for and protection of strangers. In fact, this is a mighty good country for all, generally speaking. Considerable Christian work is due among the foreign elements by Christian people; there is room for more, decidedly so, and always will be until we reach the millenium. But no Russian needs educating up to a knowledge of the sanctity of human life. In Russia, as in Canada, the old commandment of Moses "Thou shalt do no murder" is taught by the Greek Catholic Church, and the law punishes an infringement of that commandment with death. These Russians in question, although they cannot speak English, had no need of our Christian influences to teach them right and wrong so far as robbery and murder is concerned, so they deserve no sympathy in that respect.

Pity! Yes; we all should pity men so debased as to respect neither the laws of God or man; but society must be protected and crime punished, regardless of any misdirected sympathy which sobs over the criminal and forgets the crime.

COAL RESOURCES OF CANADA.

THE LABOR UNREST in the coal fields of the United States has again directed attention to the fact that important districts in Canada are dependent on them. In the fiscal year ending March last, the value of the coal and coke exported from the United States into Canada was $79,000,000, and two-thirds of it was consumed in Ontario. For the previous fiscal year the actual tonnage of coal imported into the Province was 16,250,000 out of a total for the entire Dominion of 21,649,000 tons. The industries of Ontario have frequently suffered from interruptions arising from labor and transportation difficulties, and the serious nature of these interruptions forced itself on the attention of the public during the war, when the supply of the much needed munitions, 53 per cent. of which were produced in Ontario, was limited through this cause. Fear of the recurrence of such conditions and apprehension as to the supply of fuel for domestic purposes gave rise to more active efforts for the utilization of local sources of fuel. Although Canada as a whole has coal resources greater than those of any country in the world with the exception of the United States, the mines are farther from the industrial centres of Ontario than are the coal fields in neighboring States. Ontario has, however, large beds of peat, the commercial uses of which have been investigated by Government experts, and they are now able to report practical results. It has been determined that peat can be used in combination with coal, and, while it will not take its place, it promises to reduce our dependence on imported fuel. Tests made at Alfred, Ontario, indicate that peat ready for use can be supplied at $3.50 per ton at that point. At this figure, there is now a reasonable prospect of its production becoming an important commercial enterprise.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan import annually about 500,000 tons of anthracite coal at a cost of $5,000,000. In order to reduce their dependence upon this supply experiments have been made in the use of lignite, large deposits of which underlie various districts of these provinces. Some of these deposits can be utilized in the raw state only when freshly mined, and are, moreover unsuited to household use. This difficulty it is hoped, can be overcome by carbonizing the lignite and obtaining a coke or charcoal which briquettes readily. The Lignite Utilization Board of Canada states that by the use of their new type of carbonizer it should be possible to produce a good sound briquette at a reasonable cost. At present, anthracite coal costs in Manitoba approximately $16 per ton, and by the use of this new process briquettes having a heating value of approximately the same as that of anthracite, can be marketed at about $10 per ton. Not only will great economy be thus effected, but the dependence of these provinces on external sources of fuel supply will be lessened and this will be an important factor in reducing our adverse trade balance with the United States.

PACIFIC FISHERIES.

IT IS ANTICIPATED that the output of the salmon canneries on the Pacific Coast will this year amount to 1,300,000 cases, about 300,000 cases less than in the previous year. Part of the shortage is due to the closing of the fishery in one district, as a result of which the pack of "cohoes" was reduced by fully 100,000 cases. This action on the part of the authorities was owing to the unusually low waters in the rivers and the necessity for allowing the fish to get up for spawning purposes. With the exception of "chums," practically the entire pack has been sold, and while the market for the latter variety is slow at present owing to the unusually high prices ruling, which take it out of the cheap class, the general opinion is that the pack will be disposed of before next season. Export prices are somewhat higher, but shipments to Great Britain are being delayed, in the expectation that the British Food Commission will sanction an increase in prices, which are, under existing restrictions, too low to encourage exports.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Fisheries in British Columbia shows that British Columbia produced forty-one per cent. of the total value of the fisheries of Canada during the year 1918, the output of the province being valued at $21,518,000. The same report shows that the halibut landed at British Columbia ports in 1918 was 14,000,000 lbs. less than in 1917, which indicates that the fishing banks are being depleted and suggests the advisability of prompt action on the part of the Canadian and the United States authorities. A promising development of the year is the successful operation of deep-sea trawling vessels, but this has been handicapped to a certain extent by the lack of export demand, the bulk of the catch being marketed in the Northwest. The success of these vessels warrants the belief that eventually a large fleet will operate from Pacific ports.

ADVANCE IN OPTICAL INSTRUMENTS.

BRITISH OPTICAL instrument manufacturers have given their customers notice that prices are advanced twenty-five per cent. Two things are worthy of note as to this announcement: first, it follows quickly on the scheduling of optical instruments as a key industry, in which no foreign competition is to be allowed, and second, the same notice is sent out at the same time by all the English manufacturers, who are supposed to be in effective competition with one another. The price-maintaining and price-advancing ring is the corollary of the prohibition of imports. We shall be told that the price of optical instruments, even now, has not been raised by a percentage as great as that applied to many other classes of goods. The reply is that during the war, when opticians had to face all manner of difficulties that have now been overcome, they were able to make great profits at lower prices. Further advances may be expected. A key industry is not likely to relinquish the grip it is given over the public.

THE HOSPITAL FOR SHEKKI.

TWENTY-FIVE Chinamen from the district of Heungshan emigrated to Australia many years ago. There [illegible] became interested in them and taught them, until they became Christians. Meanwhile, they were learning modern business methods. Today they own a chain of departmental stores, operated by three companies and all making money. The Sincere Company, the Wing On Company, and the Sun Company, are known throughout the East. The Wing On store in Shanghai has everything: elevators, electric lights, fine fittings, well-dressed windows, and a splendid stock. The Great Eastern Hotel in Shanghai is under the same management.

There is no established mission stated in Heungshan, and no hospital in the chief city, Shekki. The Canadian Presbyterian Church has been waiting for more missionaries and for greater financial resources. But the Chinese Christian merchants, whose headquarters are now in Hong Kong, have been hoping and acting. A few years ago, on hearing that there was a group of Christians in a village near Shekki without a place of worship, these merchants built a church and dwelling house at a cost of $20,000, and handed it free of debt to the people. They still were longing to see a hospital in their native city. When Rev. A. E. Armstrong was in China a few months ago, they "put it up to him." "Why could not Shekki have a hospital?"

Mr. Armstrong explained that he could provide perhaps one doctor and a nurse but that he saw no way of getting the money necessary to buy the land and erect the building.

Mr. Choi Hing thought that the cost ought not to exceed $100,000, a sum which did not seem to alarm the company in the least. Mr. Ma Ying Pui, superintendent of the Sincere Company's three stores in Shanghai, Canton and Hong Kong, said that ability and finance were the two essentials in any work. Both were available for the establishment of the Shekki hospital; the missionaries had the ability and the merchants the finance. Others spoke in similar vein at a luncheon meeting which lasted from one o'clock until five in the afternoon.

Finally, Mr. Choi offered to meet ten per cent. of the cost of the hospital, and Mr. Ma Wing Chan put down his name for $10,000. A committee of twenty-five was formed and $50,000 was subscribed. Mr. Armstrong had said that such a sum would build as large a hospital as one Canadian doctor and one Canadian nurse could supervise. (It is understood, of course, that Chinese nurses and medical students assist in such institutions).

The main difficulty had to do with the provision of a site. The most suitable land in Shekki was owned by the municipality, and was not on the market. Moreover, it was valued at $60,000. The merchants said that in their opinion the municipal authorities would be amenable to persuasion. If the city was given assurance that the land would be used for a missionary hospital, the merchants thought that it could be secured for nothing. They undertook to conduct the negotiations.

Then the question of schools arose. The Chinese gentleman inquired if Canadian teachers could be provided for a boys' and a girls' boarding school. If so, the buildings would be provided by the merchants and their friends.

What else could Mr. Armstrong do but enwreathe his rotund face in a happy smile and give assurances that the Christian people of Canada would find the doctor, the nurse and the teachers necessary to meet this Chinese emergency.

What do the laymen of Canada think of the practical Christianity displayed by Mr. Choi Hing, Mr. Ma Ying Pui and their associates?

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

MUSTAPHA KEMAL TO FIND IT.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Some folks are still in doubt as to whether Mustapha Kemal is really an individual at the head of the Nationalist Turkish Government or merely a new brand of cigarette.

AN EYE-OPENER.

(Ottawa Journal.)

What effect will all this liquor released in Britain have on Pussyfoot Johnson's other eye?

SCHOOL EDUCATION TO REDUCE CRIME

That Public Schools can help considerably in cutting down crime on rough stuff is the conclusion reached from the observations and comments of Prof. Sundberg, a representative of the governing board of the public schools of Stockholm, Sweden.

The big difference between public school education in America and Swetden, as Prof. Sundberg has observed it thus far, is this: In Sweden they aim their education to build up the child into a well-developed all-round human being while on this North American continent too much of our education goes after making technical experts, to the neglect of studies that stress love of life, love of all living things.

Teaching Lack Continuity.

A boy in an American or Canadian school stays one year under one teacher. Then he leaves that teacher and goes to another. Thus the teacher who has learned the boy's habits, his strong and weak points, his curves and speed, loses the boy who—who isn't onto the boy's curves and speed and habits. Thus in America. In Sweden, however, the theory is that the boy should have three and four years consecutively under one teacher or group of teachers. The longer they know him and his curves and speed, the better able they are to work him out and solve him. Anyhow, that's the way Sundberg looks at it.

And any international crime expert knows that Sweden has about the lowest crime rate in the world—while the U. S. A. tops 'em all.

"In a large city which I have just visited," said Sundberg, "they had excellent courses in physics and chemistry in the high schools. I believe there are not so good courses in any cities in Europe. Then I find, however, they have very little biology. We believe in Sweden that to make a good citizen you should have the child learn many forms of life and grow to love life. A criminal or a bad citizen is one who does not love life or respect it. It is [illegible] honorable citizen out of a boy who has never learned anything about birds, fishes, and the many sacred mysteries of life that one gets acquainted with in a thorough course in biology.

"In a little town in Minnesota named Dassel, I found a Dane who was principal of the high school. He was using the Scandinavian method. He had a collection of birds, fishes and other animals. He made the collection himself—it is worth about $1,000 and was using it in his classes.

"The practical side of life, which is emphasized in your American education, is excellent. We are learning much that is valuable from you. We believe, however that you will be more interested in the future in the character-making studies that are a feature of our system."

TURKEY WILL BE DEAR

If you must have turkey for your Christmas dinner, you must needs visit the poulterers with a very well-filled purse. Turkey will be no cheaper than 50c a pound is the prediction, and some say 60c.

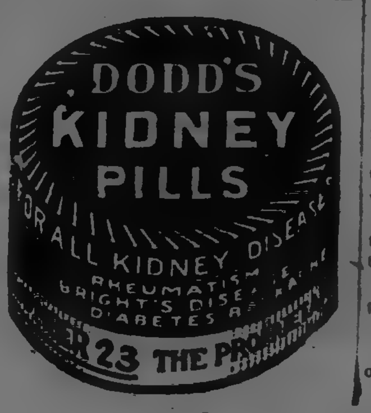
Most householders will probably be content with chicken, though chicken will also likely advance. Because of the high cost of feed farmers are getting rid of a lot of their poultry now, rather than keep them for Christmas trade. At present goose is to be had at from 30 to 35c a pound. Duck is about 40c.

Raisins promise to be scarce again this Yuletide season, partly because of United States labor troubles. Currants, which have long been among the most aristocratic of the dried fruits, are still dearer; so that, with the high cost of butter, eggs and sugar, the rich Christmas cake and the time-honored plum pudding, likewise the mince pie, are going to be expensive propositions for the housewife to face. Ready-made puddings will sell at from 45 to 60c a pound.

Oranges, apples and nuts have also advanced.

After pocketing his fee the congratulations of the minister officiating at a wedding are genuine.

The idle man passes a long and tiresome day.



NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

The idea that bread making is a long and difficult operation is a mistake, as bread may now be included in the list of quickly prepared foods, for with light, sweet bread can be baked and ready for use within four hours from the time the sponge is set. Full detailed instructions are contained in Royal Yeast Bake Book which will be sent free upon request.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

E. W. Gillett Company Limited. Toronto. Canada

REPLACE WHISKEY WITH TEA

In 1913 the Netherlands and England marketed 45 and 28 per cent. respectively of Dutch East Indian tea, whereas in 1918, according to statistics issued by the Dutch Colonial Government, neither country handled a pound through their home markets. On the other hand in 1913 British colonies bought only 9 per cent. of the total export of 26,500,000 kilos, but in 1917 they took 22 per cent. of the total of 38,000,000 kilos. The following year 35 per cent. of Java's crop went to the British colonies, mostly to Australia and Canada, and in that year Java's exports were over 1,000,000 kilos in excess of the production of the whole colony for 1913.

The exports to the United States in 1913 were 1,325,000 kilos, or 5 per cent. of the whole export, while in 1917 they were 14,600,000 kilos, or 38 per cent.; in 1918, 16,400,000 kilos, or nearly 60 per cent. of Java's crop, went to the United States. This phenomenal increase was not entirely due to the demand from the United States. American buyers were willing to buy the Pekoes and Souchongs in this market, but they din not want the inferior grades, so the growers sent the large bulk of their crops on consignment to American commission houses and banks, as the American market was the only available one.

While conditions are now favorable to an immediate resumption of trade on old lines in this commodity, it may be more difficult to resume the marketing through the Netherlands of rubber, coffee, sugar and other valuable products of this rich group of islands, and while an effort to do so will probably be made there is also being made a strong effort, fostered by buyers from America and the British colonies, to keep the market here.

Growers are looking forward to the opening of old demands from Russia and from central Europe, but some believe their best market will be in America, and one of the largest plantation companies in Sumatra has received orders from its home office to use every effort to increase the acreage in tea in anticipation of an increased demand from America due to the prohibition of the use of intoxicants there. There has been some talk of advertising Java teas in United States, and an effort has been made on the part of the tea trade in the United States to get the Dutch East Indian planters to participate in a tea promotion campaign which it is planned to start shortly.

VETS. NOT SATISFIED WITH SPEEDWELL MILITARY HOSPITAL INVESTIGATIONS

Guelph, Nov. 27.—Charges are being made in G.W.V.A. circles here that the investigation called for regarding Speedwell Military Hospital, and held on Monday and Tuesday, was more of a whitewashing than an exposure of defects.

It is charged that an unbiased decision could not have been reached by the commission appointed, as the commissioners included officials of the department. The members were: Col. Hugh Clark, Secretary D.S.C.R.; Mr. C. H. Robinson, Deputy Minister D.S.C.R.; Major Arthur, Chief Inspector; Col. Davis, Director of Medical Services; and Mr. Parkinson, officer in charge of vocational training.

Proceedings, say the G.W.V.A. critics, began on Monday with a visit to the hospital, when patients and officials were all asked to make complaints or charges if they wished to do so. Apparently no one was ready to complain, for no evidence of this nature was taken. Again on Tuesday, G.W.V.A. comment declares that, though President A. MacIntosh and Secretary W. D. Robertson, of the G.W.V.A., and others were present and prepared to give evidence, not a single witness was called.

Finally the G.W.V.A. officers were informed that officials of the hospital against whom charges had been made were efficient and indispensable, and the Commission went off to Ottawa apparently highly content with the whole hospital administration.

Interference, alleged to have occurred when officials of the hospital were carrying out their duties is complained of, especially by the G.W.V.A., and the fact that an official of the institution is not a soldier is pointed out with a view to his replacement. This, it is said, the Commission refused to consider.

The bringing in of official aid from another district when there were plenty of proper help in the locality is also referred to adversely.

Following heads indicate directions in which the G.W.V.A. desire thorough investigation.

Civilians employed in this hospital.

Complaints by patients.

Importation of returned men from other districts as officials.

Lack of appointments of rank and file men to D.S.C.R. positions.

Dictation to medical officers by a civilian official of Speedwell.

The Veterans do not intend to let the matter drop at this stage, but they will make a demand for another investigation by a commission made up of other than members of this department.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A lot of gas is used in pulling teeth—and popping the question.

It is not always the coat that makes the man; sometimes it's the padding.

When it is in an adjoining flat an upright piano is a downright nuisance.

The Almighty never measures a preacher's worth by the salary he receives.

It is always the man who can get credit for the asking who doesn't want it.

Even though he be hard headed, the man who butts against fate is apt to get the worst of it.

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor)

COBOURG WOMEN TO PAY POLL TAX

LAKESHORE TOWN TAKE THIS STEP AHEAD OF PETERBOROUGH

Cobourg, Nov. 28.—At the last meeting of the Cobourg Town Council, a resolution was unanimously carried providing that women over twenty-one years, not otherwise assessed, be assessed for poll tax.

A notice of motion on the above lines was given at the last regular session of the City Council by Ald. Crowe. Since that, the Trades and Labor Council discussed this notice of motion, and considered it primatnre. Ald. Crowe subsequently agreed to withdraw his notice at the next meeting.

SMALLPOX SPREADS OVER TWENTY-EIGHT COUNTIEO

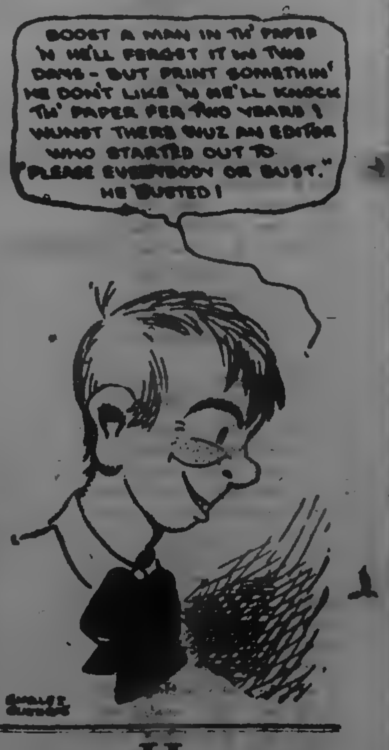
Smallpox is not on the decrease in the Province of Ontario. Reports to the Ontario Department of Health show that the epidemic is now in 28 counties and the total number of cases to date is 629.

The majority of the cases are divided as follows: Toronto, 368; Orillia Hospital for Mental Deficients, 35; Stratford, 19; Woodstock, 19; Brighton township, 14; Stouffville, 14; Woodbridge, 16; Dunwich township, 17; Burk's Falls, 13; Peterborough, 8. The other places in the Province have ten cases or less.

Dr. W. J. S. McCullough, Provincial Health officer, again stated this morning that spinal meningitis, occuring after children were vaccinated was not caused by vaccination

You will derive crumbs of comfort from giving a hungry man a square meal.

MICKIE SAYS



BOOST A MAN IN TH' PAPER 'N HE'LL FERGIT IT IN TWO DAYS - BUT PRINT SOMETHIN' HE DON'T LIKE 'N HE'LL KNOCK TH' PAPER FER TWO YEARS! WUNST THERE WUZ AN EDITOR WHO STARTED OUT TO "PLEASE EVERYBODY OR BUST." HE BUSTED!

Raise More Hogs

Every Farmer realizes the profits in Bacon Hogs at present prices.

The only question in his mind is, "Where can I get the money to buy brood sows and pigs to fatten?"

The Merchants Bank gladly makes loans to assist capable farmers in increasing their holdings of live stock.

Talk it over with the Manager.

11

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager

BILIOUS? CASCARETS WON'T SHAKE UP OR SICKEN YOU

No Inconvenience Whatever! No Shock to the Liver, No Griping of the Bowels—Ideal Physic!

Coated Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin, and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and sluggish bowels, which cause the stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments, forming acids, gases, and poisons. Cascarets tonight will give your bilious liver and constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. Cascarets never sicken, cramp or inconvenience you all the next day like nasty Calomel, Salts, Oil, or gripping Pills. Cascarets work while you sleep.

LAKEFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

Lakefield, Nov. 27.—Miss Wood returned to the village on Monday after spending the week-end in Toronto.

Mrs. Roy Hendren returned last week after spending a few days visiting relatives in Toronto.

Corp. George Lennox, of Kingston, spent a few days in the village on a short visit to his wife and family.

Mrs. J. Chant has returned home after spending a couple of weeks in Unionville and Toronto visiting friends.

Mr. Clarence Crawford arrived home from the West to spend the winter with his parents.

Sub.-Lieut. K. A. Mackenzie, H. M. S. "Renown," is visiting his parents, Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Mackenzie, at "The Grove."

Mr. John Elliott, of Norwood, spent Wednesday in the village on business.

Mr. W. Lemay returned to Peterborough on Monday after spending the week-end at his home in the village.

Mrs. Leigh is spending the winter in Peterborough.

Mrs. John Northcott has returned to the village after spending the past two months in Toronto visiting her daughter, Mrs. Blackstock.

Miss Mona Fortier was in Peterborough on Friday.

Mrs. Roland Johnson returned to the village on Friday after spending a few days in Peterborough visiting relatives.

Mr. Charlton, of Belleville, is visiting his family in the village.

Mrs. W. A. Dunford, of Peterborough, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Isaac Watson.

Mrs. Roy Hendren entertained the S.O.N.G. Club on Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. Trust was successful in winning the highest score at cards.

Mr. J. Knox, of Peterborough, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lennox last week.

Mr. H. G. Simpson has returned to Toronto after spending a few days in the village.

Mr. Harry Armstrong, of Peterborough, spent the week-end with his mother.

Dr. M. Graham, of Toronto, was a week-end visitor to the village.

Miss Alice Johnson returned to Peterborough Monday after spending the week-end in the village visiting friends.

Mrs. (Dr.) Graham, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs J. H Chant.

Church Notes.

The G. Auxiliary met on Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Marling. There was a good attendance and a fine beginning made on the winter's work of the branch, the directions having been received from headquarters during the week.

Co-operate communion will be received by the branch of the G. A. on Sunday at the 11 a.m. service.

The Sunbeam Mission Band of the Methodist Church will be held in the basement on Wednesday. A sale of candy, etc., and an excellent program will be rendered. The admission will be 15c.

The union prayer service will be held in the Methodist Sunday School room on Thursday, at 8 p.m. Rev. P. G. Jull will be the speaker.

The commencement service of the series of cottage prayer meetings, which will be held in connection with the Methodist Church, will be held at the Methodist parsonage on Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

About thirty attended the social of the Anglican Young People's Association, which was held in St. John's Sunday School on Monday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent in games and etc., after which refreshments were serviced.

The Anglican Young People's Association are giving a reception for Rev. and Mrs. N. Archbold on Thursday from 4 to 6 and from 8 to 10, at the rectory.

Sporting Notes.

The Graser Gibson party returned on Wednesday from Parry Sound district and report a good time, also good luck, having secured their full number of deer. The party consisted of Messrs. D. W. Edwards, Gordon Redpath, H. Kidd, Thos. De Greer, W. Wrinch (Toronto), R. G. Cotton (St. Catharines), A. J. Kidd and R. J. Knox, of Lakefield.

The Key Valley Hunting Party, who hunted in Parry Sound district, returned home last wek with eleven fine deer, averaging about 140 lbs. each. The party was composed of Messrs. P. Spence, W. Nugent, P. Payne, H. Payne, N. Payne, J. H. Payne, D. H. McMillan, E. R. Hamblin, R. H. Little, R. N. Little and A. Darling.

The Grove — High School rugby team played the return game with the P. C. I. team Saturday on the Nichol's Oval, Peterborough. Lakefield was victorious, winning out with a score of 13 to 10.

Furniture Sale.

The household furniture belonging to Dr. F. N. Blakeman will be sold by public auction on Wednesday, Nov. 26, at the back of J. Hendren's harness shop on Queen street. Dr. Blakeman wishes to dis- been stored while he and Mrs. Blakeman have been overseas as he is leaving the village.

OUCH! LUMBAGO! RUB IT ON BACK

Rub away all pain, soreness, stiffness, backache, with "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Ah! Pain is gone!

Quickly?—Yes! Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Liniment."

Apply this soothing, penetrating oil directly upon the ache, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain. It is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica relief, which never disappoints, can not injure and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Straighten up! Stop those torturous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.

DRURY DENIES ASKING SEATS

Toronto, Nov. 28.—"Neither I nor my Government has made any proposal to anyone either in the party or out of it, to vacate their seats for me or the other two ministers who have no seats at present," declared Premier E. C. Drury yesterday. The Premier said he had several offers of seats from members of the U.F.O., but would not mention names at present.

"There have been a lot of reports lately that different people have been asked to vacate their seats for some of th ministers?"

"Well, I have not asked anyone," said Mr. Drury.

Regarding Mr. Doherty and the report regarding Mr. Bragg's seat, he said he had done nothing, nor had the Government. Mr. Doherty may have said something for himself, but no proposal had come from the Government.

Hon Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture, asked about it, said: "I know nothing about it. There have been many guesses made lately, but I am thankful to say they are very wide of the mark."

WEDDING - GIFTS -

in

STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's
367 George St. Next Turnbull's

NORWOOD

(Special Correspondence.)

Norwood, Nov. 27.—Mrs. A. H. Finkle, of Belleville, was the guest of Mrs. Weir for a few days last week.

Mr. Arthur McKenty was in Peterborough last week.

Quite a number of young people from this vicinity attended the "at home," given by the I.O.D.E. in the Town Hall, Hastings, on [illegible] evening of last week.

Mr. Will Coyle, of Colborne, was in town on Sunday.

Miss Sadie Greenbanks spent the week-end in Peterborough.

Miss Kathleen Hawkins and Miss Hawkins spent Saturday in Peterborough.

Miss Ellen Beavis, who has been visiting friends in town, returned to Peterborough last week.

A wedding of local interest took place in Calgary, Nov. 11th, when Miss Velma E. Youmons, daughter of Mrs. Lena Youmans, of Orangeville, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Stanley Weir, of Boteman, Sask. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cannon Davidson. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Weir, of Norwood.

Mr. Geo. Wildman and children, of Regina, are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Stanley Laing was the guest of his brother, E. B. Laing in Hastings on Sunday.

The entertainment, "A Night in Honolulu," given by Albert Vierra's Hawaiian singers and players on Saturday night in the Town Hal, was not very well attended on account of the condition of the weather. All those present, however, report that the concert was of the highest type and that they were well repaid for braving the weather to go and see it.

Miss Reba Squire and her girl friend of Peterborough spent Sunday at the home of Miss Squire's parents, Queen street.

Mr. Fred Stewart has moved into his new home on Spring street.

Rev. Mr. Howard, of Stirling, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church both morning and evening on Sunday, Nov. 23. He was assisted by the pastor, Rev. A. J Terrill.

Mr. T. Ridyard Los opened a new bakery in the Pearce block, Colborne street.

On Friday evening, Nov. 21, a mass meeting in the interests of the Navy League was held in the Town Hall. The meeting was addressed by Rev. C. Adams, of Havelock, also by some of the local clergymen. A good musical programme was given by local talent and a special offering was taken up on behalf of the Navy League.

The Mission Band of the Methodist Church intend holding their annual bazzar in the basement of the church on Saturday, Nov. 29.

Mr. C. W. Waters spent a few days last week in Toronto.

Mr. Charles Blake and family have moved into their new home on Peterborough street.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Ackerman returned last week from Stoney Lake where they have spent the past six months in their summer home.

Miss Rita Robb, of South Dummer spent the week-end in town under the parental roof.

Mrs. Elphicks, of Peterborough, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tucker, Spring street,

Miss Rose Squire spent a few days last week in Havelock where she was visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Fred Squire.

The Literary Society held their second meeting in the High School on Friday afternoon. The speakers were the president, Mr. Herman McMillan, who told of his experience overseas; James Raddon, speaking on "The Distribution of Man," and Russel Gardner. A chorus was rendered by the pupils of the school and Mr. Elton Burgess favored the audience with an instrumental. The position of critic was very capably filled by Mr. Eric Finlay.

A large number attended the social given in the basement of the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening by the "Guild." The evening commenced with a series of games which were heartily enjoyed by all present, after which a short programme was given. The chairman for the evening was Mr. David Starke. The programme consisted of a solo by Miss Margaret Mitcheson, a recitation by Master Kenneth Montgomery, solo by Miss Irene Wolland, address by the Rev. Mr. Wolland, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and a solo by Miss Marjory Johnson. A light lunch was served and young people departed for their homes about ten p.m. very much pleased with their evening.

Mr. Leo O'Keefe, of Kilaloe, is home on sick leave.

Mr. J. L. Squire returned on Sunday morning after spending the past few months visiting friends in England.

Miss Effie Ried spent the week-end in Lang.

Miss Bessie White spent Sunday, the guest of her father, Mr White, of Indian River.

DOWNEYVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)

Downeyville, Nov. 27.—Mr. William Murray was suddenly taken sick on Wednesday morning with an attack of penticitos.

A fair crowd were present at the presentation to the returned soldiers of Downeyville, which was held in the Parish Hall here.

A large number of people from Lindsay were present at the ball held in the Parish Hall here on Friday night last.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alger are having a dance at their home on Friday night. A large crowd are invited.

ABOUT LUCK

"You're a lucky one," said the woman in blue serge to the one in taupe duvetyn, as they waited for their committee meeting to be called to order. "You have your child in that wonderful private school and you have that big automobile to drive her there in."

"What?" cried the one in duvetyn. "Don't mention that private school and that big automobile! I'm trying to forget 'em both, after what happened this morning. And the only thing wonderful about that school is the wonderful nerve they have to charge $150 tuition for the first grade. And that automobile—oh!

"Mary is due at school ten minutes before 9, and I have to drive her there. This morning I had this meeting on hand and also a 9.30 appointment with my dentist. At 20 minutes to 9 I shoved little Mary into her wraps and yanked her down the back steps to the garage. I thought I'd better see whether the car needed water. I unscrewed the radiator top and stuck in a forefinger. It struck a block of floating ice. I ran back into the kitchen and put on a kettle of water, and then dashed upstairs to wake my husband. By the time I was pouring the hot water in to melt the ice my husband was calling from the back upstairs window to know where his clean clothes were, anyway.

"When he finally reached the garage, I was pulling at the cap down in front so as to put on the crank and turn the engine over. I had nearly exhausted the battery trying to force the self-starter. But even the crank wouldn't start the thing. Another kettle of hot water and we managed to get the engine started as the clock pointed to 9.15.

"In ten more minutes my child had arrived at school entirely too late for her French lesson. When I flew back through my own front door there stood husband, still collarless. 'Kettle?' he thundered. 'Hattie needs it to fix my coffee. I'm late for the office, and got to see Hinckinfield this morning.'

"I told him he had the kettle last pouring water on the manifold. Then not having touched the breakfast Hattie had fixed and worrying about the tea kettle.

"'What did you do with the tea he remembered that he had left it on the running board. I went out to look. No tea kettle, of course!

"I remembered having heard a rattling sound on the way to Mary's school. I had supposed it was a tin can in the street, but it was my own $5 tea kettle rolling merrily away. I hopped in and drove back over the same route. Sure enough, about a mile from home lay the kettle on its nose, six feet from the lid, which some other car had flattened."

"You missed your dental appointment," suggested the woman in serge.

"Not only that, but my husband missed the man he had to see and lost a big contract. Next year Mary is going to the Public school, to which she can walk, and I'm going to sell that automobile." — Chicago Daily News.

CRIMINAL ANARCHY

New York Irish Labor Leader Faces Serious Charge

New York, Nov. 27.—James Larkin, Irish labor leader, and Benjamin Gitlow, former Bronx assemblyman, were indicted for criminal anarchy today by the extraordinary grand jury. The bail of $15,000 each on which both were recently released, was continued. Indictments on similar charges also were returned against several other persons and bench warrants for their arrests were given to members of the police bomb squad to serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seargent and little son, Leslie, of Westwood, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Hastings road, on Sunday last.

Mr. Wilbert King, of Peterborough, is visiting friends in town.

FULTON CHALLENGES CHAMPION DEMPSEY

WILL FIGHT WINNER TAKE ALL AT ANY TIME OR ANY PLACE

New York, Nov. 27.—Fred Fulton, Minnesota's giant heavyweight, returned from England today after winning four bouts, but without being able to lure Joe Beckett, the British champion, into the ring. Fulton looked anything but a champion when he stepped off the Mauretania, showing the affects of continued seasickness on the trip home. He also carried ten pounds of fat, and was nursing a painful swelling on his right arm, which needs an operation.

Despite his unsatisfactory physical condition and his inability to meet Beckett, Fulton and his manager, Tom O'Rourke, issued a defi to Jack Dempsey even before they left the ship.

"There's a promoter out in San Francisco," O'Rourke said, "who will stage a battle between the two heavyweights any time the champion is ready. We'll box Dempsey whenever he says, and under whatever conditions he makes, winner take all, or any other terms. But I suppose now that Fred is back in America, Dempsey will decide to visit England."

Beckett's refusal to box Fulton was a keen disappointment to the Minnesotan, who arrived carrying a big blackthorn cane, presented to him by Eugene Corri, the British referee.

Fulton will go to a specialist in this city within the next few days to see if he can have his arm cured without an operation. Fulton now weighs 220 pounds instead of 210, his boxing weight.

If a man is friendless it is his own fault.

An old hen and a farmer both delight in a full crop.

Waiting works wonders—if you keep busy while waiting.

Almost any striking color is appropriate for an automobile.

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates

$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.

$3.00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LADIES. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Broncaitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10 30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED—BOY FOR ROUTE on Stewart street, south of Hunter street. Apply at once Review.

JANITOR WANTS CARE OF another furnace. Apply A. Young. Phone 622J.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work: heat on building: 75c per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.

TO LET.

TO LET—FURNISHED BEDrooms at 560 Water street.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—ONE CUTTER, practically new, also a few good hens. Apply 494 Weller street, Phone 579J.

FOR SALE — ONE WORK horse, 7-year-old, sound. Apply 98 Stewart street, or phone 1716J.

AUTOMOBILES, TRUCKS, Etc. McLaughlin Touring, 4 cyl.: $600 McLaughlin Touring, 6 cyl.: $250 Ford Touring; $600 Ton Truck, good order; $550 Ford Roadster, 1917, with starter. DUFFUS GARAGE, Phone 1760.

FOR SALE—GOOD DAIRY cow, due to freshen in March. Apply B. Corrigan, Downer's Corners.

We Are Here to Please You
We Guarantee
Fruits & Groceries

Malaga Grapes 40c
California Grapes, lb 35c
Special in Oranges, doz., 40c, 50c, 60c
Bananas, doz. 50c, 60c
Grape Fruit, 3 for 25c and 2 for 25c
Variety in Apples for Table and Cooking—
Table Apples, doz. 40c, 50c
Cooking, pk .... 70c-75c-$1.00

We specialize in Potatoes, Celery, Lettuce, Onions, Citrons.

OYSTERS

D. M. Minicola
Phone 935 410½ George St.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked "till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc.
and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 4½ Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.O.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, Georgt Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 12 Hunter street Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m. 2 to 5 p.m Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 395 George St.

Have You A Savings Account?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

NP SOAP
The Soap with a Record

COURTESY OF C.P.R.

The Prince plays Golf at White Sulphur Springs.

CANADA NOW IMPORTING MORE GOODS FROM UNITED KINGDOM

Notwithstanding Shortage of Sugar, Shipments Into the Country Higher--Pre-War Level Not Yet Reached, However.

Ottawa, Nov. —A summary of the trade of Canada by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics for the twelve months ending with October affords some interesting comparisons of trade conditions during the first twelve months of peace with war years. The summary, for instance, shows a decrease in the value of merchandise imported as compared with the twelve months ending October, 1917, but an increase over the twelve months' period preceding October 31, 1918. The figures for the three years are: 1917, $1,012,159,765; 1918, $895,097,451; 1919, $902,353,525.

Customs collections for the three twelve months' periods were: 1917, $167,552,078; 1918, $174,2[illegible],529; 1919, $161,317,42[illegible].

Canadian exports for the three twelve months' periods in value were: 1917, $1,492,276,886; 1918, $1,371,886,423; 1919, $1,252,141,958.

The value of Canadian goods exported to the United Kingdom during the past twelve months was considerably lower than during the two preceding war years, as is shown by the following comparative figures: 1917, $823,970,170; 1918, $693,895,712; 1919, $524,158,948.

On the other hand, we have during the past years sent goods to the United States to the value of $439,341,339, as compared with shipments to the value of $424,178,972 during the same period in 1918, and $387,764,931 in 1917.

Trade With America.

Imports from the United States fell from $832,134,077 during the 12 months' period under review, 1917 to $736,106,162 for the corresponding period in 1918, and to $714,274,832 for the 12 months ending October 31, 1919. British imports for the past 12 months' period were higher in value than for the previous 12 months ending October, 1917, the comparative figures being: 1917, $96,114,518; 1918, $69,656,921; 1919, $81,496,784.

The big slump in "War business" is indicated by the fact that whereas articles for the army and navy imported during the past 12 months were only to the value of $11,315,558, similar importations for the previous 12 months were valued at $65,[illegible],264; while for the 12 months closing with October 1917, they had climbed to the enormous total of $177,169,098.

Bituminous Coal Shortage.

The present shortage of bituminous coal is explained by the summary which shows that during the past 12 months importations to the value of $[illegible],283,016 were brought into Canada. In the previous 12 months bituminous coal worth $45,[illegible]92,212 was imported, and during the 12 months preceding October 31, 1917, importations were to the value of $39,514,874. On the other hand, anthracite coal to the value of $30,929,928 has been imported during the last 12 months, as compared with imports worth $25,680,108 during the preceding 12 months, and $27,510,013 during the 12 months ending October, 1917.

Despite the sugar shortage, the summary shows that sugar and molasses to the value of $59,260,240 have been imported in the past 12 months, as against importations worth 35,700,910 during the previous 12 months and importations to the value of $38,451,448 for the 12 months closing with October, 1918.

In connection with both coal and sugar, however, the increased value per ton and pound respectively must be taken into account in considering the the foregoing figures.

Dr. Rae, a Calgary dentist, died of sleeping sickness after five days' illness and unconsciousness.

Wm. Taylor of Pickering died at the age of ninety-six, with his faculties unimpaired to the last.

The Michigan-Ontario League is unlikely to reorganize. Plans are on foot to for man All-Canadian circuit.

Sandwich will present a town debenture for $500, bearing 6 per cent interest, to the families of three soldiers who fell in action.

Changes in the regulations respecting the salmon fisheries of British Columbia are contemplated.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.
A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address:
THE COOK MEDICINE CO. TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

WOOD ALCOHOL KILLS 5 MORE

Coroner Appeals to Mayor to Curb Saloon Men and Druggists.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Coroner Hoffman has started a campaign against the saloonkeeper who sells ginger ale containing wood alcohol and the careless druggist who makes no distinction between wood and grain alcohol. Five deaths from wood alcohol poisoning in the last few hours and sixteen deaths in the last three months have aroused the health authorities.

"Many of our foreign speaking people do not know the difference between wood and grain alcohol," said Coroner Hoffman in a letter to Mayor Thompson, appealing for help to stay the alarming increase in deaths. "They walk into the drug store and ask for 'alcohol.' Deaths due to this cause are constantly growing in number. I recommend that a meeting of the ctiy council be called to pass an ordinance forbidding the sale of wood alcohol unless on an order from the commissioner of health."

Another victim of wood alcohol was reported at the county hospital yesterday afternoon. He is Felix Miselum, 2588 Blue Island avenue. The Marquette police took hi mto the hospital this morning. In a short time he was blind and it was stated that he probably would die before night.

PATTI'S ESTATE IS $580,000

Property of Famous Prima Donna Is Left to Husband.

London, Eng., Nov. 27. — Adelina Patti, famous prima donna, who died September 27 at her castle in Wales, left a fortune valued at £116,000 ($580,000 normal value.) She bequeathed her entire property to Baron Rolf Cederstrom, her husband, with the exception of special bequests of jewelry to Alfred de Rothschild, Marianne Eissler, and a Pope Leo XIII stole to Herbert Vaughan, a nephew of Father Bernard Vaughan.

"DANDERINE FUR" FALLING HAIR

For a few cents you can save your hair and double its beauty.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Help your hair grow strong, thick and long and become soft, glossy and twice as beautiful and abundant.

PROPERTY OWNERS' GUILD ORGANIZED

Toronto, Nov. 27.—A preliminary meeting was held at No. 2 Toronto street to organize the Toronto Property Owners' Guild for the following purposes: To protect the interests of Toronto property owners; to secure honest, efficient and economic Government; to secure a just and equitable assessment on property; to apply for an amendment to the Assessment Act, to prevent the assessment of old buildings at a higher figure than original cost; to make civic properties pay a fair return on money invested, and procure sale of the City Abattoir, now run at a large annual loss; to secure reduced tax rate and oppose all further increase of the city debt.

The meeting approved of this program and appointed an Organizing Committee. The guild starts with a membership of 90 members. W. O. S. Hunter is Chairman of the committee, and J. Enoch Thompson, Secretary.

PORT ARTHUR LIKELY TO LOSE INDUSTRY

CANCELLING OF POWER PRICE OF $17.50 UPSETS ARRANGEMENTS FOR PLANT

Port Arthur, Nov. 27.—Port Arthur is much concerned over a report brought from Toronto by Mayor Murphy of Fort William, that he was told by Premier Drury the order in Council of some months ago, setting a price of $17.50 for Nipigon power delivered at Port Arthur, might be cancelled.

On the basis of this power price an arrangement has been entered into by the Great Lakes Paper Company to locate a four-million dollar pulp and paper plant at Port Arthur and it is feared that this may be lost to the city and district if the Government acts as the Fort William Mayor says the Premier told him it might.

To get an assurance that the power price will be sustained, S. I. L. Matthews, Chairman of the Public Utilities Commission; Brig-Gen. D. M. Hogarth, M. P. P., and Mayor Blanquier, have left hurriedly for Toronto.

The Turkish question will be uppermost after the Bulgarian Treaty is signed at Paris today.

Mrs. Joseph Daniel of Woodstock was found asphyxiated in her home. She was in her eighty-seventh year.

Possibly the bill collector has as much respect for you as he has for some others on his calling list.

A miser loves money for the many things that he doesn't have to spend it for.

BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

Anxious American Spectators try to see Prince.

McGILL HOCKEY CLUB WILL MAKE A TOUR

EXPECT RECORD HOCKEY SEASON TO FOLLOW SUCCESSFUL RUGBY

Montreal, Nov. 27. — With the termination of the football season, athletic activity at McGill has tuned to hockey, and plans for the season are already past the chrysalis stage. The local collegians intend to open the 1919-20 season with a western barnstorming journey, in which games will be played at Toronto, Hamilton, Sault Ste. Marie, Fort William and Winnipeg. The tour will start with the commencement of the Christmas week and will terminate in time to bring the students back to Montreal for the resumpton of lectures in January.

Already the McGill hockey club has received acceptance from prospective opponents in the Soo and at Fort William, and other notices are expected from Hamilton, Toronto and Winnipeg daily. Two games will be played in Fort William, one on the westbound journey and the second as the team returns east. A two-night stand will be played in Winnipeg should the arrangements turn out favorably, while single games will be the order at the Soo, Toronto and Hamilton.

Coach Shaughnessy has announced that he expects a good strong turnout for hockey at the university and anticipates no difficulty in producing two sextettes of senior calibre. "Definite arrangements for the western trip will be closed in a very few days," stated Shaughnessy. The McGill coach also made mention of the possibilities of an amateur tour of short duration, arrangements for which are also pending. The McGill hockey squad will commence outdoor training this week.

DOMINION SEED PURCHASING COM.

The consolidated balance sheet, covering the operations of the Canadian Government seed purchasing commission for the past three years, has been audited and found correct. The total sums advanced by the Department of Finance for the purchase of seed supplies, on requisition from the Dominion seed commissioner, amounted to $11,896,540.96, and the total of refunds to the Receiver-General from the proceeds of sales was $11,903,437.76. Net assets, including seed grain in storage, are $37,888.85. The salaries and expenses of the experienced Seed Branch officers comprising the staff of the Commission, were not charged against the cost of the seed. The order-in-Council which established the seed purchasing commission directed that the seed supplies should be purchased, stored, cleaned, sacked where necessary, and sold at the net cost as nearly as might be determined.

The business of the commission covers the period beginning October, 1916, and ending September, 1919. It includes the purchase and sale of seed wheat, oats, barley, rye, corn, peas and beans, subject always to inspection as to the established grades for seed grain which were provided under the Seed Control Act. Inspection was administered by the Seed Inspection Division of the Seed Branch. Every car lot of seed purchased or sold was examined by seed inspectors, and samples were submitted for tests as to purity and germination by the Dominion Seed Laboratories at Ottawa, Winnipeg or Calgary. Delivery consisted of bill of lading, licensed weighman's certificate, seed certificate and sight draft.

This system of meeting emergency seed situations was adopted on the recommendation of the seed commissioner. It is based on the establishment of official seed grades for grain and on the principle that municipal governing bodies supported by their Provincial Government are in the best position to deal with the extension of credits to needy farmers.

OMEMEE

(Special Correspondence.)

The fowl supper which was held in the basement of Chrisb Church on Monday evening was a huge success, the tables groaning under an abundance of salads, pickles, jellies, pies, cakes, etc., saying nothing of the substantial plate of fowl placed before each person. It was just the annual proof of what the good people of Omemee can do in the way of putting up a real fowl supper. Following the supper, Captain Spencer, a returned chaplain, showed many interesting lantern slides of the interior of Westminster Abbey, giving a description of the different views, etc. During the evening Mr. W. G. Stephenson rendered in fine voice, "The Holy City" and the choir sang the anthem entitled " Walk About Zion."

Mr. F. G. Sandy, M.P.P., was a guest at the County Council banquet given last Friday evening in Hotel Benson, Lindsay.

Miss Wark spent the week end in Toronto.

Mr. Jack Rea, accompanied by his mother, both of Lindsay, attended the fowl supper in Omemee on Monday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Sutton of Peterboro were in Omemee on Monday evening renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Harold Cunningham left for Oshawa on Tuesday where he expects to spend the winter.

Messrs. Burgess, Bannon, Fee and Clement of Oshawa, spent the week end at their respective homes.

Rev. Mr. Stillman attended the National Campaign Convention, held in Toronto this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James (nee Martha Brown) of Peterboro, attended the fowl supper in Omemee on Monday evening.

The Methodist Church anniversary will be held on Sunday, December 14th.

The High School commencement, which is to be held in Croonation Hall on Friday evening, promises to be an event of much interest.

NORWAY HAS NEW ATHLETIC WONDER

HELGE LOVELAND HAS BEATEN JIM THORPE'S OLYMPIC PENTATHLON RECORD BY 145 POINTS

Norway has a new athletic wonder who is being heralded as the peer of Jim Thorpe, the American Indian, who won the all around athletic championship in the Olympia meet at Stockholm seven years ago. His name is Helge Loveland, and among other sensational performances in Scandinavia of late was his improvement on Thorpe's Olympic Pentathlon record. On the point score basis recognized in international competition Loveland is the last Norwegian Pentathlon championship totalled 4,193 points, or 145 more than Thorpe scored in 1912.

A commparison of the performances shows that Thorpe was better in three of the five events that are included in the Pentation programme, but Loveland was far superior in the other two. In the javelin throw the Norwegian showed a mark of 180 ft. 10 in., as against Thorpe's 153 ft. 2 in., and in the discuss throw the difference is also marked in Loveland's favor, 127 ft. 8 in. to 116 ft 8 in. The American covered 23 ft. 2 7-10 in. in the broad jump, while the Norwegian's jump was 21 ft. 7¾ in. Thorpe was also faster in the 200 metre dash, 23 9-10s., to 23 1-10s., and in the 1,500 metre run, 4m. 44 8-10s. to 4m. 52 4-5s.

The Norwegians will in all probability be the heaviest point scorers in the Olympic Pentathlon at Antwerp next August, for, in addition to Loveland, they have F. R. Bie, who finished second to Thorpe in the Stockholm games in 1912 and who has since won several Norwegian championships, and John Hellum, who it will be remembered came to this country several years ago, won the American Pentathlon title and was second to Avery Brundage in the national all around title tournament. Hellum is credited with having unearthed and developed Loveland and several others as possible Olympic champions.

Many a man's reputation casts a shadow over his character.

BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

The Prince arriving in New York passing between Naval Guard at Pier A.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary — every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years experience is at your service.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 396

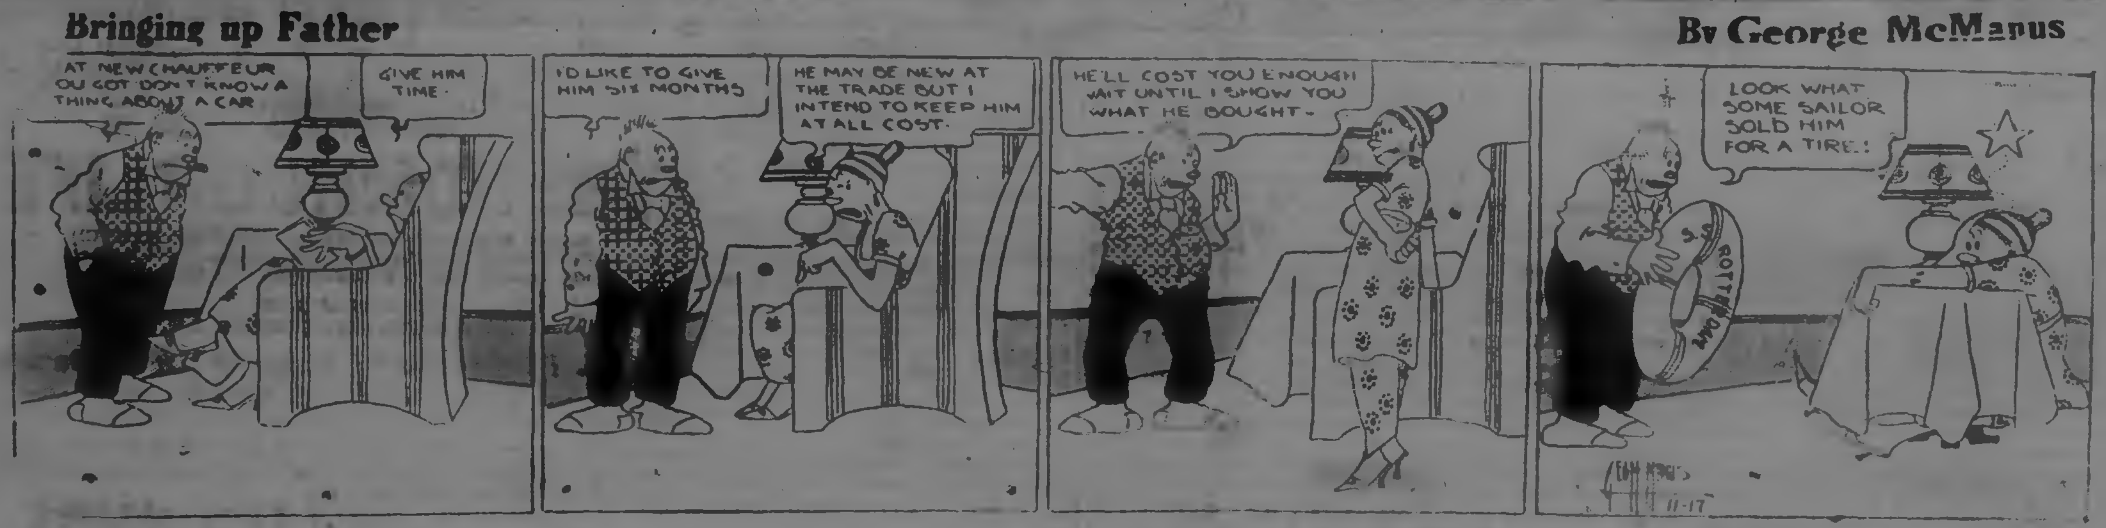
LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Automobile
SKATES
OUNCES LIGHTER & STRONGER
WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING
ROLAND BESTARD
has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to. Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1264

Children s Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044w,
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

Bringing up Father By George McManus



AT NEW CHAUFFEUR OU GOT DON'T KNOW A THING ABOUT A CAR
GIVE HIM TIME.
I'D LIKE TO GIVE HIM SIX MONTHS
HE MAY BE NEW AT THE TRADE BUT I INTEND TO KEEP HIM AT ALL COST.
HE'LL COST YOU ENOUGH WAIT UNTIL I SHOW YOU WHAT HE BOUGHT.
LOOK WHAT SOME SAILOR SOLD HIM FOR A TIRE!
ROTTERDAM
11-17

HAMILTON BOYS ASSISTED BY HAROLD PATTERSON CARRY OFF GOLF HONORS

R. B. "Bob" Hamilton Wins Open Championship and R. R. Hall Trophy, While Brother Sam Attends to Macdonald Trophy and H. Patterson Lands Stratton Trophy.

For the first time in the history of the local club two of these much sought trophies have been captured by the one competitor. It remains for "Bob" Hamilton, one of the youngest and most promising players turned out locally for some time, to do the trick.

In the main event, open championship—goal of all golfers—he met Mr. A. Mowat, title holder for the past two years, in the finals. Although "Bob" was four down at the 19th hole, he stuck pluckily to his worthy rival, who had had the experience of many hard 36-hole grinds in past finals, gradually pulling up on even terms and eventually winning after a royal battle on the 32nd hole.

In the R. R. Hall match handicap final, "Bob" met another hard battler and former title holder, Mr. A. H. Stratton. It was another Vimy Ridge affair, but "Sir Robert" showed what British soldiers are noted for (he served three years in France), finally disposing of his staunch opponent with a few to go.

In the meantime his still younger brother (there are no less than five of them all real golfers), Sam, was winning in his class, after a whole summer's work of elimination. He had to beat Mr. Campbell, local manager of the Union Bank, in another splendid contest.

Harold Patterson, son of Mr. E. G. Patterson, president of the club, finally landed out on top in the Stratton Trophy competition, winning over an entry list of 120 players, beating no less a rival in the finals than the daddy and coach of the Hamilton boys, Mr. Miles Hamilton, many times local champion. The results of this match had aroused great interest and many guesses (?) had been made regarding the outcome. But youth would again be served, however. Harold has proved another comer and will require considerable attention in the future.

The Hamilton family created another record in being represented in every final of the season.

Championship—"Bob" Hamilton, winner.

R. R. Hall Trophy—"Bob" Hamilton, winner.

Macdonald Trophy—"Sam" Hamilton, winner.

Stratton Trophy—H. Patterson, winner; Miles Hamilton, runner-up

Some showing! H. Patterson spilled the beans for a complete sweep.

ART DUNCAN LIKELY TO LEAD BLUE SHIRTS

CHARLIE QUERRIE INTENDS MAKING BIG CHANGES ON THE TORONTO TEAM

Toronto, Nov. 27.—Art Duncan, the former Coast League and 228th Battalion defence player, will in all probability manage the Toronto team in the N. H. A. this winter, announced Charlie Querrie on his return to the city from Montreal, where he attended the meeting of the Eastern pro circuit. The make-up of the squad will be considerably changed from the one which wore the blue shirts last winter. Skinner will be traded to the Coast League for Art Duncan, while Noble and Cameron are likely to go to Canadiens in exchange for Bert Corbeau. Corbett Denneny and Ken Randall will be the only players of last year's team that will play her this season. Art Duncan expects to use several returned soldiers who played pro before they went overseas. These include Goldie Prodgers and Amos Arbour.

WAS THE WORLD SERIES "FIXED"

WRITER CLAIMS SUCH ACCUSATIONS ARE UNFAIR AND COWARDLY

(By Frank G. Menke.)

Was the world's series of 1919 "fixed"—for the Cincinnati Reds to win?

A few folks make that claim—but they haven't issued forth one tangible bit of evidence to support it. They are smudging baseball, challenging the honesty of the game and harming it immensely by their unsupported statements. And that is both unfair and cowardly.

As is usual, in the case where some persons try to concoct sensational stories out of thin air, they save themselves by the constant use of the words "reported" and "alleged" and "rumored." Not one of the scandal-mongers has made a direct charge against any individual or named any group. If they knew that there was a "sell out" by certain White Sox to a gambling clique as they claim—why don't they print names?

There is the remote possibility that the series was "fixed"—but no fairminded sportsman who saw those eight combats has any such thought. If ever a series was decided upon its merits it was that of 1919.

Frame Difficult.

No athletic contest is more difficult to frame than a baseball game. It is a comparatively easy thing to rig up the result of a boxing contest, a fracas between wrestlers, or a golf match. Football games can be fixed very easily with the help of one or two of the backfield men. All that is necessary is for a "fixed" halfback to fumble the ball a few times right into the hands of one of the opposition players, while in critical territory. Or he can fake the missing of several attempts at tackling. Or the star kicker can miss easy fired goals and punt miserably.

Horse races have been fixed, very, very often. And the same thing goes for boat races and foot races. Nothing very difficult, either, in the fixing of a tennis match, a bicycle race, an automobile contest, or some similar sport.

But with baseball it is radically different.

The pitcher, naturally, is the central figure of a baseball club. If anyone wanted to do the fixing, he would, undoubtedly, try to get to the pitcher. Indifferent work on the part of the moundsman—putting the ball into the groove of the opposition batsmen certainly would result in quite a number of hits and runs. But how long do you suppose a manager would permit a pitcher to stay in the game who is being pounded all around the lot by the other batsmen? Perhaps an inning at the most.

If the folks who wanted to do the "fixing" tried to enlist the services of the shortstop or the firstbaseman, [illegible] even mo[illegible] as to th[illegible] portunities that [illegible] would have to throw the game. [illegible] shortstop usually has five or six chances in a contest, but it might so happen that in that particular game which was to be "thrown" he would have only one or two—and not one at the psychological time. The same thing goes in a certain sense with the first baseman, and with all the other players.

Chances Remote.

Fixing a baseball game is possible and so is it possible for the kaiser to visit America within the next year or so. But the chances are all against it—both come within the realm of unlikely things.

Let a coterie of writers, perhaps in an effort to attract attention to their pages, insist that the series of 1919 was "fixed"—that the baseball duel of the year was not decided upon its merits. And they assert that "certain members of the White Sox are the guilty parties."

If they have facts and names, as they assert, it is about time that they ceased skulking around, came out in the open and recited the "real story" which they claim they can tell.

Until the "several men" are named the entire White Sox team is covered by a blanket indictment of dishonesty. And that is not fair to the players, and it is a cowardly action by writers and so-called baseball experts.

The stage is all set for the trial of the Winnipeg general strike leaders.

Lord Robert Cecil has gone to Edinburgh to open a League of Nations Union campaign in the north.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

NEW TRAIN SERVICE
BETWEEN
TORONTO, WINDSOR AND DETROIT
VIA HAMILTON, LONDON AND CHATHAM.

Grand Trunk night trains between Toronto and Detroit are now operating DAILY via Windsor and Chatham as under:

Read Down.		Read Up.
*11.15 p.m.	Leave—Toronto —Arrive	† 8.45 a.m.	‡9.55 a.m.
* 1.15 a.m.	Leave—Hamilton —Arrive	† 7.18 a.m.	‡7.40 a.m.
* 2.10 a.m.	Leave—Brantford—Arrive	† 6.25 a.m.	‡6.52 a.m.
* 3.37 a.m.	Arrive—London —Leave	† 4.30 a.m.	‡5.25 a.m.
* 5.45 a.m.	Arrive—Chatham —Leave		* 2.10 a.m.
[illegible]	[illegible]		[illegible]
* 6.15 a.m.	Arrive—Detroit —Leave (C.T.)		*11.15 p.m.

Pullman, drawing room, sleeping cars and coaches between Toronto and Windsor and between Toronto and Detroit, ready for reception of passengers at Detroit at 9.30 p.m. (Central Time), and at Windsor at 10.00 p.m. (Eastern Time).

* Daily † Daily except Sunday. ‡ Sunday only.

For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent, or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

ANOTHER BOOST FOR THE

ZACKS SELLING OUT SALE

In the midst of the rush and excitement of the SELLING OUT SALE Mr. Zacks was taken sick, and as it was close to the time when he was to leave the City, he concluded a Sale at a very low rate to Mr. B. Chesler, who is now in charge, and determined to clear out the $10,000.00 Stock still on hand at

GREATER SACRIFICES THAN EVER

In fact Mr. Chesler says that price is no object, that he has very little time to spare to dispose of this stock, and that it must go regardless of any consideration of the value of the goods. Ladies who want wearing apparel of the newest style, many of the garments exclusive New York models, at half what they would pay elsewhere, are invited to call and see for themselves the great saving the Closing Out Sale means in Mr. Chesler's hands.

WHY PAY DOUBLE FOR WHAT YOU NEED, when so little money will get you garments right up-to-the-minute in style and material.

H. J. ZACKS
Old Stand

B. CHESLER
Who has the Sale in hand.

422 George St.
Opp. Examiner

DESIRE TO FORM ALL CANADIAN BALL LEAGUES FOR NEXT SEASON

Michigan Ontario League is a Thing of the Past—A Good Chance for Local Promoters to Enter Sporting Areana, Board of Trade Should Consider it.

London, Nov. 28. — When Frank Shaughnessy stated that he was not an applicant for the managerial berth of the Toronto International League Club for 1920, baseball fans in Canada can count on his support in the annexation of Ottawa and Montreal territory for the purpose of reorganizing a Canadian League in the coming year.

Shaughnessy claims that he will be better off, financially, at the head of one of the two Eastern clubs with the addition of his earnings as coach of the football and hockey at McGill University and later as manager of the Ottawa N. H. L. (pro) hockey club than he would as leader of the Toronto Leafs.

This movement will mean the disruption of the Michigan-Ontario League as it was constituted last season, and just what means will be resorted to in order to secure the cities in Western Ontario that went to make up the M.-O. League, will necessarily have to be determined upon early in the New Year.

At present it does not look favorable for a meeting in December of the directors of the M.-O. League, since Secretary F. Wilson is on a trip to Cuba. He will not be back until the middle of December, though he anticipates returning to New York by December 9 for the meeting in New York of the American League.

Want Help From Central

There is a feeling that the only way that the Michigan cities can be counted out of the W.-O circuit next year is by arranging the purchase of their respective franchises. Overtures have already been made to include several of the Michigan cities that [illegible] M.-O. last season by promoters of the Central League.

Before the Western Ontario cities, which made up the Ontario end of the M.-O. League, will consider linking up, with the proposed inclusion of Ottawa and Montreal, the backers of the two Eastern city clubs will be required to make it plain that a substantial increase in the daily guarantee is favored to insure expenses of making the costly long railway jump from London, Kitchener, Brantford and Hamilton to Ottawa and Montreal.

President T. J. Nelson af the Brantford club has taken it upon himself to injuire into the possibilities of taking in such New York and Pennsylvania cities as Albany, Utica, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. He, however, reports that his mission has not been completed.

Aware of the popularity of baseball in Canada makes business men in the smaller cities in Western Ontario anxious to go even so far as to secure franchises from Michigan cities in order to get the desired assurance on a place on the circuit that is bound to prosper not only next year, but in years to come.

Willing to buy Franchises

Including Montreal and Ottawa with clubs only too willing to furnish the required guarantees, also means that bigger salaries will be involved since it is a foregone conclusion that the two big eastern cities will step right out and gather in high-class performers, which makes it rather difficult for at least two of the smaller cities in Western Ontario. These are items that will necessarily have to be considered by the league makers.

Rather an amusing situation turned up in the minds of the Michigan-Ontario League financiers at the occasion of raising the salary limits for class "AA" and "A" leagues at the Springfield meeting of the National Association of Minor Baseball Leagues Some of the clubs can at least rest at ease with the facts that they must have been paying AA and A salaries for class B players during the past season. All these conditions will have changed with the experiences they have had this year, and once it becomes generally known among players that conditions for players rival anything offered anywhere in America on the playing end of the game promising minor league ball players will forego many things to get with Canadian clubs.

Sold Six Players

Few class "B" leagues, such as the M.-O. League, was last season, lost six players by purchase even in the face of the more or less strained relations between the majors and minors, and the woeful lack of drafting from the smaller leagues by the bigger minors.

Saginaw, winners of the M.-O. pennant punder the leadership of H. Buzz Wetzel, sold six players as follows:—Pitcher Wisner to Pittsburg, Outfielder Gleisch to New York (A L.,) Second Baseman Morse to Vernon, Cal., Pitcher Schawt'e, Third Baseman Pike and Outfielder Lipps to Dallas, Texas.

In other cities the opinion has been expressed that a baseball team is a great advantage to the city in bringing manufacturers from the States. They like their favorite amusement to be provided for their employees.

Could the local Board of Trade not give this matter their careful consideration?

THORNY QUESTIONS BEFORE CONFERENCE

Washington, Nov. 28.—Yesterday the thorny question of special treatment for Oriental countries is scheduled to come before the International Labor Conference. Japanese workers have been fighting for the eight-hour day. They did not succeed. Developments in the Japanese labor situation within the next few months should be of interest.

Some Decisions.

At yesterday's session the principal decisions during the day were: (1) Approval of main draft unemployment convention and reference thereof to drafting committee. (2) Recommendation that, with a view to their abolition, states license private employment agencies charging fees. Adopted by 61 to 13. (3) Recommendation that recruiting of bodies of workers in one country with a view to their employment in another should not be permitted except by mutual agreement between the countries concerned and after consultation with employers and workers in each country in the industries concerned. Adopted by 54 to 16. (4) Recommendation that each state take steps to establish an effective system of unemployment insurance. Adopted by 66 to 3.

WONDERFUL RECORD OF FOOTBALL STAR

"CHICK" HARLEY RATED WITH THE GREATEST OF GRIDIRON BATTLERS

Chicago, Nov. 27. Fred. A. Marquardt, in the Chicago Daily News, says:

Fate cannot be reasoned with: It fills the goblet of bitterness as often as the cup of Joy. Man has not the means of control over it. All are at its mercy.

"Chick" Harley felt its touch. It seems destiny ruled that he should feel the sting of defeat in his last football game at college just as it had been his "luck" when he played his farewell battle with the East High school eleven at Columbus, prior to his entrance at Ohio State University four years gao. A rather queer coincidence, yet one that does not in any way overshadow the brilliant past of the great Buckeye football star whose name gridiron historians are now placing in a class with those of heston, Thorpe, Mahan and Eckersal.

Fans, critics and coaches alike regret the passing of phenomenal "Chick." Those who have seen him encircle ends, hit the line, speed through a broken field of opponents shaking off one tackler after another, fire forward passes with uncanny accuracy, punt, drop kick and in general perpetrate virtually every trick known to the chalk lined battlefield will miss him next season.

Often Brought Bacon Home.

The coaches of "Big Ten" teams other than Ohio State, especially will notice a difference whenever their charges again face the Buckeyes. To them. Harley has been a terror and an athlete who could put more gray hairs on their domes than many an entire team. He always could be counted upon for giving plenty of trouble.

In three years. Harley was the main factor in bringing two conference football championships to Ohio State and making it the runnerup for this year's title. It was through no fault of his that the Buckeyes did not win the crown from Illinois in the 9 to 7 game last Saturday. In fact, he put his team in the lead, 7 to 6, by scoring a touchdown and kicking goal. He wanted terribly hard to win that game, but Fate stepped in and allowed Bob Fletcher to kick the eventful field goal in the last minute of play that gave Illinois the victory.

When the ball, after leaving Fletcher's toe was soaring into the air, Harley watched it make its mark. A big lump gathered in his throat. Tears dimmed his eyes and ran down oval sail over the crossbar. Forty- his rugged features as he saw the five seconds wre left to play. But what chance had his team to win in so short space of time?

Loses His Last Fight.

After the kick-off, the Buckeyes tried a line play that failed. On the next move, Harley shot a forward pass but it was intercepted by one of the Illinois warriors. The timekeeper sounded the end of the fray. Harley tottered off the battlefield. His head was bowed. He could not speak a word. Neither could he check the ever-present tears. Destiny had ruled that he should lose his last fight.

What made the defeat all the harder to take was the fact that in all his previous college days "Chick" had never known the meaning of setback His record was remarkable from many angles, due to his own individual determination. In the twenty-one football games he figured in at Ohio State, he alone scored 198 points. This gave him an average of slightly more than 9 1-3 points for each game and in many of the contests he did not play for more than a period of two. Twenty-two times Harley counted for his team via the touchdown route and his goals from touchdown numbered thirty-five.

Four engagements of major importance Harley won by his own skill. In 1916, his first year with the Buckeyes, he dashed through the entire Illinois team for a touchdown in the last minute of play and on a muddy field. A few seconds later he calmly changed shoes and then booted a goal that won the game by one point. Illinois, previous to this sudden finish, already had started its chant of victory. Harley put an end to it.

Wins Another Close Victory.

A little later in the same season Harley raced eighty yards through a broken field of Wisconsin players for a touchdown and followed it by kicking oal. Later in the same battle he again tore off a brilliant open field sprint of considerable distance for another counter and followed it by kicking goal, thereby giving Ohio State another one point victory. The score that day was 14 to 13.

In 1917, the Ohio star registered all the points made by his team in a game that meant much to the Buckeyes' championship aspirations. He gathered 26 points, by crossing the opposing goal lines four times for touchdowns and adding to goal kicks after touchdown. Meanwhile, Indiana had tallied a single goal from the field. The game marked the high point in Hartley's career of individual scoring.

TORONTO MAY GET INTO THE MAJORS

New York, Nov. 28.—The assurance from Philip de Catesby Ball that Jimmy Burke, the native son, is to be continued in the managerial seat, with the St. Louis Browns assures organized baseball practically the same roster of major league managers as directed the team play in 1919.

Rumor, at various times throughout the playing season and since the World Series, associated any number of leaders with the guillotine. But the next approach of the annual meetings finds the entire staff of leaders strictly on the job. At this far-distant vantage point it does not appear that any of the team leaders are due for the "gate." It is possible one or more may resign but it is doubtful if any will be deposed.

Of course, the situation in St. Louis, with its even some hundred National League stockholders is rather decilicate. There has been talk, indeed, of radical steps to strengthen this one very weak link in the National League chain. If the stockholders whom Rickey represents would sell the franchise at a reasonable figure capitalists of Toronto would eagerly embrance the opportunity to put the hustling Canadian city on the big league map.

Toronto, it is believed, is quite ripe for major league ball.

James J. McCaffery and "Lol" Solman, who own the Toronto club in the New International League, are at present the guests of Charles A. Stoneham and John J McGraw in Havana, Cuba. It is said possibility of transfer of the St. Louis Cardinals to Toronto.

Small baseball men are of the opinion that major league baseball would benefit greatly by such a transfer. Sunday baseball is not tolerated in Ontario, and such a transfer would lose a Sunday town to the National League, but it is now generally recognized that St. Louis is not a good enough sporting town to support two major league clubs. Toronto should be an improvement over St. Louis, while the Browns, with a clear field, could scarcely fail to be benefited.

STEAMERS MAY BE WET

Bar Fixtures Being Installed on Liner "Leviathan."

Washington, Nov. 28. — Whether constitutional prohibition will operate to make American passenger liners "dry" has been referred to the legal department of the shipping board for a decision. Meantime bar fixtures are being installed on the giant liner Leviathan, which is to be operated between New York and England.

Shipping board officials explained today that it would be nearly a year before this great craft would be ready for operation Within a few months, however, former German liners are to be placed in the South American passenger trade, and a decision on the question is expected before that time

It takes an expert to tell the difference between war and peace in Mexico.

An Irish student says the posthumous works of an author are those he writes after he is dead.

BUILDING AN ICEHOUSE

Good Type for Use on the Average Farm.

Every Milk Producer Should Have One—The Work and Cost of Erection Light Compared With the Benefits.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

EVERY Ontario farmer who produces Milk,—and most of the farmers do,—should store a quantity of ice each winter in order to make it easier for him to cool the milk down after the evening milking, and to keep it sweet for such short periods,—week-ends for example,—as he may be required to keep it before delivering it at the cheese factory or other point of disposal. In order to preserve the ice satisfactorily some form of ice-house or shelter is necessary. The purpose of this article is to describe in a few words a type of ice-house which will give good satisfaction.

The ice-house does not necessarily have to be expensive, but certain conditions in regard to it must obtain if the ice is to keep well These I shall emphasie first and they are,—protection of ice from sun's rays, this is the wall, good drainage from the bottom of the house, either natural or artificial, free circulation of air through the top, air-tight foundation, plenty of good quality of dry sawdust on all sides of the mass of ice, and close packing of the ice. If these conditions can be secured in a rough bin built under a shed, or a lean-to on the shady side of a building, all well and good unless one has other good reasons for building a more expensive structure elsewhere. The matter of convenience is often a deciding factor in this case, and the type of ice-house I am about to describe is a good illustration of this fact. Only once have I seen it in use, but there is no reason why it could not be used quite generally.

This particular type consists of a lean-to structure of wood at one end of the barn which has the stable underneath. The size would vary with the amount of ice required, but probably a building 15 feet square and 12 feet high would be large enough for most farmers' needs. In this structure and at the side adjacent to the barn, or rather the basement wall, is built a concrete enclosure about 6 feet square and 6 or 6½ feet high. A door in the basement wall admits one to it. In the side opposite to the doorway there is a row of 3 or 4-inch tile near the bottom for letting in the cold air from the ice which is packed closely to the concrete storage on all three sides and over the top as well. Between the top of the storage and the barn there is a narrow passage-way or flue for allowing the foul or used air to get out, hence good circulation in the storage is provided for. In this particular case the farmer has his milk-room containing cream separator, etc., adjoining this storage and whenever he wishes to cool milk or cream or store it he puts it in this storage. Other articles, such as butter and meat, are also stored at times but of course only for a few days at a time. Hence much handling of ice is saved as well as considerable time. The building is made of wood, the studding being boarded on both sides. It would be advisable to fill the space between the two boardings with planer shavings or good quality sawdust. The roof is covered with shingles. The gables are left somewhat open for ventilation. Plenty of sawdust is used around the ice next to the walls, and also a good depth over the top, none however is used between the cakes of ice. If a few cakes of ice are required for household use they may be easily taken out of the sawdust in the top of ice-house or at one side if more convenient.

It will be seen, therefore, that this type of ice-house does double duty in a degree, namely, providing a small ice-cold storage room, cooled by the ice mass directly, in addition to housing ice for various incidental uses in the summer-time. In a case of this kind there would not be much need for taking out ice except for supplying the household refrigerator as the storage-room would take care of the ordinary cooling and preserving of products.

Believing this arrangement to be valuable, and in many cases practicable on Ontario farms, I have much pleasure in recommending it to farmers in general.—R. R. Graham, O. A. College, Guelph.

Still a Place for the Good Horse.

Horses have not been meeting a keen demand in Canada since the war broke out and have increased about 650,000 since 1914. However, a real good heavy draft horse is hard to find, and if Old Country markets are any criterion of the trend of affairs an awakening in the Canadian Draft Horse market should soon follow. Draft geldings are selling in England for from $300 to $500 and even up to $1,000 each. A returned officer told me recently of seeing a number of Canadian geldings (artillery and transport horses) sold in Old London for £100 ($500) each. About one-fifth of Great Britain's ordinary supply of work horses went to the war and a number of useful brood mares were also taken. France, Belgium, Russia and Germany, four of the great horse-producing countries, have lost a heavy percentage of their horse stock during the war. Already a shipment of Percherons has gone from Western Canada to France, and it would seem that during the period of reconstruction our horse market will be East and not West. If it will pay to breed any horse on the Canadian farm the heavy draft of good quality should turn in most money to his owner.

Jack Frost is such a lucky dog'
The pretty girls he seeks:
And there is never any stir.
No one calls out. "How dare you, sir?"
When he starts kissing cheeks.

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said; "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

Established 1889
HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.
11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.
*1.30 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.
11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.
*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.
9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.
3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.
8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.
*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.
*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.
*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.
6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.
7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

EBER UNABLE TO MEET ATKINS

TORONTO PROMOTERS RATHER UNFAIR BECAUSE BOBBY IS GAMENESS ITSELF

Bobby Eber is the victim of circumstance. He has been forced, through injury and sickness, to call off two bouts with Dick Atkins scheduled for Toronto. The first time the lads were biled to clash Eber had to call it off because of a pair of battered ribs. This week he has been again forced to beg off. His ribs did not stand up under Carl Tremain's hammerin, and he has been a sick boy ever since. Those in charge of the Toronto bouts say that he will not be given another chance to appear in the Queen City. That's grossly unfair to the younster. It's not his fault. And no person who knows him would even hint that he has "run out" of the bout with Atkins. He's gameness personified, and he backs up from no lad his wieght. If he could possibly go into the ring he'd do it. As a matter of fact he said only yesterday that, rather than disappoint the Toronto promoters, he'd tackle Atkins, injured ribs and all. But his manager would not hear of it.

Bannon Will Fight

Gene Gannon, the boy formerly managed by Bert Finch, and who fought in Hamilton several times a few years ago, has been sigend to oppose Dick Atkins in the main bout of the G.W.V.A. card in Massey Hall Toronto, tomorrow night. It would be interesting to know why the Toronto boxing promoters chose Gannon when there were so many other good boys' services offered them. Gannon has not been doing any fighting to speak of recently. He was a fair boy when boxing regularly in and around Buffalo, but nothing a tall has been heard of him for two years.

THE HEART

of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.

186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

COAL

...AND...

Builders' Supplies

Hardwood Flooring

Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal

Means Economy

Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.

Trucking Orders Promptly Filled

Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-362

HARD COAL

EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA

H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

MIXED WOOD

$7.00 Per Cord

Cutting and Splitting extra.

ORDER NOW

FROM

J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

Private Christmas Cards

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

GRAND
SATURDAY MATINEE and EVENING
THE FAMOUS IRISH SINGING COMEDIAN
BARNEY GILMORE
IN
THE GREATEST OF ALL IRISH PLAYS
"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN"
HEAR MR. GILMORE, SING "I LOVE YOU KATE"
"IN IRELAND" "COUNTY TYRONE," ETC.
Prices Evening $1-75c-50-25
POPULAR MATINEE 25c AND 50c
SEATS ON SALE NOW

MONDAY & TUESDAY
MATINEE TUESDAY
F. STUART-WHYTE'S
RED RIDING-HOOD
4th ANNUAL PANTOMIME
—JUST ONE BETTER THAN "CINDERELLA"
PRICES EVENINGS $1.50 $1-75c-50
MATINEE TUESDAY $1-75c-50c-25c
Seats On Sale Now

THEATRICAL

Muriel Martin-Harvey, Elsie Stenack and Kate Carew, with Percy Hutchinson, in "THE LUCK OF THE NAVY" at the Grand, next Friday and Saturday.

ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN TOMORROW

WILL BE PRESENTED AT GRAND THEATRE BY BRILLIANT COMPANY

Fro many years the leading players of the American stage especially those of Irish birth or inclination have sought to establish in this country a distinctively Irish theatre, where the plays of Irish spirit might be presented. Of this group, none have done more to this end than Miss Hallen Evily, the leading woman in the Irish comedy "The Rocky Road to Dublin." Miss Evily has frequently emphasized this title in reference to [illegible] of this loyal band as "the rocky road to success."

But except for the visit of Lady Gregory's remarkably brilliant company to this country no effort indi[illegible] success as that of the Irish Theatre of America, in which Miss Evily was a conspicuous original member. This company was formed in New York with a group of brilliant players and gave a preliminary season with remarkable success in New York. The purpose was to continue it the following year, but unfortunately these ambitions were suddenly terminated when the world flew to arms.

But Miss Evily and others who have the interest of the American [illegible] at heart believes the Irish [illegible] will, eventually, be firmly established in America. With its great Irish population, augmented by the devoted play-lovers who appreciate the beauties and sterling qualities of the works of the noted playwrights of the present and past Irish schools, there is a demand, an insistent demand, for this school of drama.

Miss Evily herself has acted most of the plays of Lady Gregory as well as the other Irish dramas of modern writing. In Chicago, where most of these plays have been produced, the company with which Miss Evily gained her stage novitiate were fortunate [illegible] to have the personal encouragement of such writers as Lady Gregory, George Bernard Shaw, John Masefield, St. John Ervine, and others.

"The Rocky Road to Dublin" is a revival of that form of drama made famous by the late Dion Boucicault, whom Americans of all degrees revered for his charm and brilliancy.

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
WALLACE REID
—IN—
"The Roaring Road"
In the "scoop" for speeding one moment—burning the road at 112 miles an hour the next! How? Why? For a girl, of course.
A photoplay for everyone who loves the thrill of an auto engine.
On the Same Bill:
"THE RED GLOVE" Episode No. 10
CHRISTIE COMEDY
and other features of excellence.

The Hydro-Electric Power Commission has offered to purchase the Guelph Radial Railway for $150,000.

"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD" AND THE WOLF

A BRILLIANT ENGLISH PANTOMINE ENDORSED BY CRITICS AS BEST EVER.

F. Stuart-Whyte's brilliant English pantomine, "Little Red Riding Hood," will be the attraction at the Grand for two days, commencing Monday, special matinee Tuesday.

This is Mr. White's fourth annual importation from England and it is said to surpass in every way his three former offerings, "Aladdin," "Ribinson Crusoe," and "Cinderella." This has been made possible by the coming of peace and the release of many of the foremost pantomine artists who were either in the army or tied up with war work. Then again the Parisian customers are back on the job, and many examples of their dainty artistry are to be seen among the gorgeous gowns worn by the cast and chorus.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST DRAMATIC SUCCESSES

"LUCK OF THE NAVY" AT GRAND THEATRE NEXT WEEK.

"The Luck of the Navy,' one of the bigest dramatic successes produced in London in the past few seasons, will be presented by Ray Comstock an Morris Gest at the Grand Friday and Saturday next week, with a matinee, Saturday.

The entire London Queen's Theatre Company, headed by Percy Hutchison, will be seen here with the complete cast and scenic equipment brought over from England.

The play was written by Mrs. Clifford Mills and was originally produced at the Queen's Theatre, London, where it ran for almost a year. Owing to its great success it was then transferred in succession to three different London theatres and completed a total engagement of nearly two years in London.

The story of "The Luck of the Navy" is highly dramatic yet there is an abundance of comedy which serves to relieve the tense dramatic situations. The leading character is a young commander of a British submarine and the story concerns the efforts of German spies to secure valuable information during the recent war. "The Luck of the Navy" is one of the very few war plays which survived the signing of the Armistice, and its great popularity is due to the fact that the war is only an incidental background for a powerful dramatic play which is of absorbing interest at all times. The London Queen's Theatre company to appear in support of Mr. Hutchison, includes Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey, Miss Kate Carew, Miss Elsie Etan[illegible], Mr. A. P. Kaye, Mr. C. H. Croker-King, Mr. Aubrey Mather, Mr. [illegible] Ludlow, Mr. Geoffrey Webb, Miss Blanche LeRoy, Mr. Marcel [illegible] and Miss Elinor Street.

SALISBURY SEEN IN NEW PHOTOPLAY

"SUNDOWN TRAIL" IS STORY OF OLD CALIFORNIA MINING CAMP

"Sundown Trail", a new photoplay, which opened last night at the Empire Theatre with Monroe Salisbury in the leading role is a story of Spanish Bar, one of the most notorious of the old California mining camps in the days of '49.

Opening scenes show the camp at the height of its glory. Wine and song poor forth merrily but there is no sign of white women to keep the miners from the pangs of lonesomeness.

A delegate is sent east to recruit an army of women to become wives of the miners. Among the women who arrived on the stage was a Virginia widow who came to ransom her baby from the hands of a Mississippi River gambler who fled to Spanish Bar when the river boats were closed against him.

Through sickness the girl forgets her identity, becoming apparently a woman of the demimonde.

"Quiet" Carter, leader of the vigilantes saves her from deportation during a fanatical religious wave in the [illegible]

The role of "Quiet" Carter is depicted by Monroe Salisbury. Supporting the star are Clyde Fillmore, Alice Elliott, Beatrice Dominguez and Carl Stockdale.

"Sundown Trail" was produced by Universal and directed by Rollin S. Sturgeon.

A Romantic locale and the excellent dramatic work of Mr. Salisbury and his associated players are the outstanding features of the production.

An official Italian decree issued on Tuesday puts on the retired list 200 Generals, 1,600 superior officers, and about 20,000 subaltern officers.

OBITUARY

MRS. RICHARD DINEEN.

The death occurred at her home, 484 Charlotte street, at 7 o'clock this morning of Mrs. Richard Dineen.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral and cemetery.

PASSED HIS FINAL LAW EXAMINATIONS

The Review is asked to contradict the statement that J. G. Guise-Bagley did not pass his examinations, in the following letter:

Dear Sir.—Will you allow me a little space to correct a statement made in the daily papers here; given to you by someone who evidently is not satisfied with seeing a man down, but wants to kick him when he is down. I refer to the statement that Mr. Guise-Bagley did not pass his final examination but got his appointment by political pull.

Now sir, I have in my possession the original notice from the Law Society, which states that he had passed the final examination and gives the figures, and is signed by the secretary of the Law Society, Edwin Bell.

Anyone wishing to see this paper can do so at any time. I think that you should publish this in fairness to his family if not to himself.

The Review took the trouble, in a spirit of fairness to telegraph to Osgode Hall, for verification of this matter, and at the eleventh hour today, received the following telegram:

Review, Peterboro. 3:43 p.m. — "Bagley was admitted under special act and passed, final examination only.

EDWIN BELL,
Secretary

Alfred Henry, of Bridgeburg, a Michigan Central Railroad engineer, was instantly killed by a New York Central train.

Dalton Meeking, the clever Barrie player, and Charles Stewart have definitely decided to play for the Dentals O.H.A. team this season.

EXPECT OWNERS TO PAY INCREASE

NO GENERAL PLAN FOR SEIZING MINES YET DEVELOPED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 28. — Cabinet officers expected many mine owners to put into effect, voluntarily, a fourteen per cent. wage increase. Whether the mines of those refusing to do so would be seized was notmade clear, but it was said that there was no general plan for government control, and that each individual case would be decided on its merits.

NO ACTION YET IN JENKIN'S CASE

UNITED STATES, HOWEVER, PREPARED TO SEND ULTIMATUM TO MEXICO

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 28. — Although further investigation of the facts will be made, the U. S. Government has no intention of receding from its position in the Jenkins case, the administration announced today. The Government, they say, is prepared for the next step, which may take the form of an ultimatum to the Mexican Government.

CENTRALS TAKE TWO FROM LEFT OVERS

At the Water street alleys last night in the Five-pin League, the Central won two out of three from the Leftovers. For the Centrals Ritchie was high man with 599, and Flaherty next with 535. For the Leftovers Ross was high with 494. The scores:

Centrals.	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Perry	154	133	159—	446
Villeneve	160	113	174—	447
Ritchie	200	194	205—	599
Flaherty	228	182	125—	535
Harris	187	124	138—	449
Totals	929	746	801—	2476

Left Overs.	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Thomas	90	147	147—	384
A. Ross	135	213	146—	494
Methural	103	173	163—	439
Allen	161	172	146—	479
Roberts	133	180	150—	443
Totals	622	885	752—	2239

BIRTHDAY PARTIES IN TRINITY HALL

A NOVEL AND FREE ENTERTAINMENT PREPARED BY LADIES OF CHURCH

There are birthday parties of every description, but there never was and never will be a birthday party such as the one taking place in Trinity Church school room this afternoon and evening. The hall, under the management of artistical hands, has been transformed into a veritable fairyland of marvellous decorative designs. There is a booth to represent every month in the year, each suitably decorated with close attention to symbols of the season. The January booth is most artistically twined with snow-crusted evergreens snow shoes, and the usual crimson trimmings, while the February one displays a unique decorative scheme, consisting of valentines, red hearts angels, etc. The March booth is strikingly symbolic of Ireland Harps Shamrocks, and Irish flags forming the decorations. April is prettily strewn with evergreens, chickens, eggs and yellow decorations, symbolic of Easter-time. The month of May is chamingly represented by a booth over which is a beautifully decorated Maypole, wined with apple blossoms, green leaves, etc. The June booth is a marvel of beautiful orchids and pink roses. A pretty bride in her wedding gown and veil stands in this booth, waiting to receive callers, while a snowy white wedding cake decorates a table set for the occasion. The July booth is draped with the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes, typical of the two great days in Canada and United States. August is a summer scene—a typical summer porch with rocker couchs and a profusion of pink and yellow roses. September is decorated with Autumn leaves, apples and crimson foliage, while October, as the month of witches, pumpkins, black cats and other Hallowe'en symbols is a most unique spot. The November booth is perhaps the most interesting of all to men folk, at least, it being a most realitic depiction of hunting times. Coyote, bearskins, mink, [illegible] furs, lanterns, fireplace, and rustic hickory chair. It is all there, true to the letter, so the hunter will say. December booth, depicts a Christmas scene of great beauty. Wreaths of holly and sprigs of evergreen form the decorations, while there is, of course, the Christmas tree and Santa Claus, with toyland in evidence as well. The ladies in charge of the different booths are: January, Mrs. King, Mrs. French, Mrs. Padgett February, Mrs. Laidley, Mrs. Corneille, Mrs. Hankinson; March, Mrs Seaton, Mrs. Lytle; April, Mrs Burnham; May, Public Cchool teachers, Miss F. Daisy Walker, Miss Thomas, Miss Thomlinson and Mrs Dr. Neil; June, Mrs. Rev. Mallott Mrs. G. Armstrong, Mrs. F. McBride July; Mrs. J. Greene, Mrs. McCoy Mrs. Dr. McClelland; August Miss September, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. J. A Leone Walsh, Miss Hattie Pethick Robinson, Mrs. A. Parker; October Miss E. Morrow, Mrs. Judge Huycke Mrs. Robert Neill, Miss Neill; December, Miss G. N. Gordon, Miss Nellie Wood.

Refreshments of all kinds will be served at each booth and special mention should be made of the hot supper consisting of venison stew hot dishes, etc. which will be served at the hunting lodge. No admission

REDUCTION IN TRAIN SERVICE ON GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

The following changes in the passenger service of the Grand Trunk Railway are rendered necessary owing to the shortage of coal. Changes go into effect November 30th:

Train No. 98 leaving Lindsay at 7 a.m., arriving in Peterborough 7:55 a.m. daily except Sunday, will be cancelled.

Train No. 99 leaving Peterborough at 8:31 p.m. daily except Sunday for Lindsay, will be cancelled.

Train No. 96 leaving Peterborough 8:10 a.m. daily except Sunday for Port Hope will be cancelled.

Train No. 97 leaving Port Hope Junction 10:59 a.m., arriving in Peterborough 12:04 p.m. daily except Sunday, will be cancelled.

LARGE CARGOES OF IRON

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Duluth, Nov. 28.—Steamers with large cargoes of iron ore to be shipped from the head of the lakes this season were on their way to lower lake ports today.

The last two boats, the C. P. McCullough and J. C. Wallace, were loaded late yesterday.

T. Kelley, an English boxing promoter, has offered a purse of $180,000 for a world's championship bout between Jack Dempsey and the winner of the Beckett-Carpentier contest.

The Canadian General Electric Co. of Toronto was found by the Board of Commerce in a judgment yesterday to have made use of its patent rights in tungsten filaments so as to restrain trade.

EMPIRE THEATRE
THURSDAY—FRIDAY—SATURDAY
MONROE SALISBURY
—IN—
"The Sunset Trail"
Women, women everywhere, but not one to marry. That was the situation at Spanish Bar until the miners imported a cargo and then drew lots for them.
FRANK KEENAN
—IN—
"The Midnight Stage"
A truly western romance of sunny California in the days of road-agents and the vigilantes. Two men—identically alike as to face and figure—but as far apart as the poles in character, the dual role being played by Frank Keenan.
Helen Holmes "The Fatal Fortune"
(The Serial is run first each Show.)
COMEDY
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c
REMEMBER!—"Joe Martin" comes Dec. 4-5-6. He will put a kink in your side.

CAPACITY HOUSE DELIGHTED BY OFFERINGS OF Y.M.C.A. MINSTRELS

Local Talent, Under Direction of Mr. Asa Huycke Excels in Song, Music and Comedy Programme—Repeat Performance To-night.

It was an intensely delighted and appreciative audience that greeted the Y.M.C.A. Minstrels at the Grand last night. There was in evidence that certain harmonous, intimacy and feeling of pride which exists between audience and entertainers, when those participating are local artists, and there was also ample justification for pride on the part of Peterborough theatre-goers last night when such a surprising degree of initiative ability was unfolded before their eyes, in a concert of delightful originality by those of their own city.

Viewing the performance from an artistical standpoint there was much to please those who revel in the beauties of vocal expression as well as the poetry of motion. In fact, all the numbers of this nature were so meritorious in themselves, not to speak of the splendid interpretation of the varying shades of emotion breathed into them by the singers, that it would be difficult to single out any one for special approval. Aside from this feature, a sparkling stream of humorous comment kept flowing throughout the entire program. These witticisms were all the more interesting and highly appreciated as each little shaft was playfully aimed at some personage of local prominence or notriety. This side-line was the source of a continuous chime of laughter at intervals throughout the evening.

Those pretty melodies of the south were a special feature and those who depicted the southern characters acquitted themselves in such a creditable manner as to deserve the applause that was cheerfully accorded them. Mr. Walter Evans, a singer possessed of a pleasing voice, of fine calibre, sung his way into the good graces of the audience by his graceful interpretation of "When You Look in the Heart of a Rose." "I Used to Call Her Baby," by Mr. Norman Lang, was a clever little "take-off," bearing on the ridiculous side of life. A number of lingering sweetness, "Girl of Mine," sung by Messrs. Renwick and Carruthers, was rendered in such a beautifully artless and expressive manner as to set the audience humming in tune. Miss I. Allen, a singer of ability and pleasing stage presence, added much to the pleasure of the evening, by her beautiful solo entitled "Dear Heart." Miss Greta Lebar and Mr. Harold Snelgrove displayed fine artistical talent in their duett, "One Day in June," a beautiful number, delivered in such a taking manner, as to excite much favorable comment. Another singer, and one who looked a dream, was little Miss Florence Harrison in a southern number, "Alabama Lullaby." Miss H. Davidson and Miss E. McDonald, two charming young ladies of considerable interpretative talent, did justice to Mr. Asa Huycke's "Italian Novelty Song," a number of special merit and one which was highly appreciated. Other number of equal merit were "Going to Have a Minstrel Show," composed by Mr. Asa Huycke; "Referendum Blues," another one of Mr. Huycke's composition; a saxaphone solo by Mr. George Logan, burlesque and comedy (Mr. Huycke's composition), by Mr. Harold Huff and Mr. G. S. Rich; "Anything is Nice If it Comes From Dixieland," by Mr. Verne Morphet;" "Oh, Landy," by Mr. George Logan and Mr. Jerry McClelland; male chorus, "By the Camp Fire," sailor's horn pipe, by Y.W.C.A. girls, under the direction of Miss Edith Price; Interpretive dance, "Spring Awakening," Y.W.C.A. girls, under direction of Miss Edith Price, with Miss Isabel Baird at the piano. And last, but not least, Mr. Arthur Graham in "Something About Nothing." Mr. Graham possesses no small ability as a comedian and his clever witticisms drew forth much laughter.

Mr. Asa Huycke as director of the Y.M.C.A. minstrels, is to be congratulated on this splendid evening's entertainment, which will be repeated tonight.

PREMISES ARE NOT PROPERLY CARED FOR

A local man appeared at the Police Court this morning charged with a breach of the Scavanger Act.

The case was left over for one week to allow the land-lord to put the premises into proper condition. If they are not attended to in one week the law will have to take the matter in hand and assess a fine.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE TRADE
We have opened up an office, sample room and warehouse at 332 WATER STREET, CITY, opposite the MARKET SQUARE, where we have in stock a fresh line of goods, as follows: Scribblers, Exercise Books, Writing Pads, Envelopes, Papeteries, Note Books, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Mucilage, Tobaccos, Cigars, Cigarettes, Pipes, Gum, and other Sundries. We are also manufacturing the splendid line of Herbal Medicines, known as Gallagher's Herbal Remedies, such as Blood Purifier, Kidney Cure, [illegible] Drops and Cough Syrup.
We are here to give you good goods, good service, at right prices, and ask for a share of your trade. Shall be pleased to have you call and inspect our stock.
THE GALLAGHER REMEDY CO.
332 WATER STREET,
PHONE 1331. PETERBOROUGH, ONT.
WHOLESALE ONLY.

77 STYLISH WINTER COATS IN A 4 DAYS SALE COMMENCING SATURDAY

Coats at prices we certainly did not expect to be able to quote even a week ago. However, the opportunity came, and ew can do it. We were quick to grasp the chance to give our customers Coats such as these at prices that are away below this season's values. There are 77 of as stylish and up-to-the-minute Coats as the season has produced. All ready and on the racks for you on Saturday morning. For easy choosing we have divided them into three lots.

THIS IS THE SEASON'S BIG COAT EVENT

There is not one garment but is away below the price the maker intended it to be sold for hwen he made it. The opportunity to save is yours, do not miss it. Selling starts Saturday morning, and will continue 4 days unless they should be sold out earlier.

COATS FOR $18.50

These Coats are made in fancy tweeds and blanket velours, they are belted and full backs, with the popular reversible collars; are half lined and nicely trimmed with buttons. You can have them in colors of brown, green, burgundy, navy, and fancy heather mixtures. All sizes for misses and ladies. Regular up to $29.50. December Sale $18.50

COATS FOR $29.75

There are nearly 50 Coats in this lot for you to pick and choose from, the products of some of Canada's best manufacturers. Styles that are right up to date; made from velours, kerseys and fancy heather mixtures; full backs or pretty belted models, in colors of green, brown, cocoa, navy and henna .... December Sale $29.75

High-Class Garments For $32.50

You save a ten-dollar bill or more on any of these Coats. Were it not for the exceptional circumstances, we would have to sell them at $40.00 to $45.00 apiece. They are made in the season's smartest styles with swagger backs, wide belts, fancy pockets, convertible collars. Most of them are half lined. Colors are green, brown, henna and taupe. All sizes, and forty to choose from, at, each $32.50

PRETTY STYLES IN SERGE DRESSES

SERGE DRESSES AT $18.50
Dresses in navy blue and brown, straight lines with a pretty vest of beige color, serge trimmed with buttons and braid. All sizes. Price $18.50

ANOTHER SERGE DRESS AT $22.50
Serge Dresses in navy blue serge, made in the pretty Russian blouse style; skirt is prettily trimmed with braid. All sizes. Price $22.50

HANDSOME SERGE DRESS AT $25.00
Navy blue and brown serge dresses, in pretty styles, beautifully embroidered, narrow string belts, round waist, V shaped necks, all sizes .... Price $25.00

A SILK SKIRT AT $3.98
Silk Underskirts, in good quality of changeable taffetas, made with a deep flounce of fine tucks, finished with a narrow scalloped frill, in green, navy and orchid. Regular $5.85 .... For $3.98

SATURDAY SWEATER BARGAINS
Women's and Misses' Sweaters in fancy and plain knit, with and without belts, convertible collars, patch pockets. Colors: navy, green, cardinal, khaki. All sizes. Value up to $9.00 .... Saturday for $4.98

DECEMBER EXTRAS FROM THE BEDDING DEPARTMENT

To make room for Toyland we have had to condense our Bedding and Housefurnishing Departments and crowd both of them into the space usually occupied by one—that is the reason for these Extras:

COTTON FELT MATTRESSES AT $15.39
All blown cotton felt, roll edge, with rounded collars; neatly tufted, covered in good grade art ticking. Full size, 4 ft. 6 in. wide by 6 ft. long .... Regular $17.50, for $15.39

DIVANETTES AT $47.50
The frame is of fumed oak and is upholstered in strong imitation Spanish brown leather; opens into a double bed; has good soft link spring, complete withwool mattress. Regular $65.00, for $47.50

JAVA DOWN MATTRESS $25.89
These fine Mattresses are filled with pure white Kapok filling; they are light and soft. A mattress that will stand well for years. Guaranteed to be sanitary. Size 4½ ft. wide. Regular $30.00, for $25.89

DOUBLE SPRING AT $4.39
Made on a hardwood maple frame with double twisted steel wire and copper wire edge, supported with strong rope; cables will not sag. In all regulation sizes, 3 ft. to 4 ft. 6 in. wide. Regular $5.50, for $4.39

ALL-WOOL MATTRESS $13.95
Oneof our best selling Mattresses, filled with clean sanitized wool, finely picked and combed; very comfortable to lie on, splendidly built and tufted; [illegible] $13.95

BRASS BEDS FOR $22.98
Heavy two-inch posts with flat knobs on the corners; half-inch upright filler, with fancy encased design. A real good value for brass beds. Size 4 ft. 6 in. December Special $22.98

HEAVY WHITE ENAMEL BEDS $18.79
Massive Finch square and round Enamel Beds, one-inch upright pillar, beautifully finished, including elector-welded flakes. Full size, 4½ feet wide. December Special $18.79

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

LADIES' FLANNELETTE GOWNS
These gowns are made of exceptionally good quality; made with open front, with pearl button trimming, double yoke across shoulder, long sleeves, with self frills; dainty torchin lace around neck and down the front .... Special at $1.75

LADIES' WHITE FLANNELETTE DRAWERS
Made in the bloomer style, with elastic at the knee, and torchon lace trimming. In open and closed styles .... Price $1.25

CHILDREN'S WHITE FLANNELETTE GOWNS
These are made with open fronts and fancy tucked yokes, long sleeves, V shape necks with dainty lace trimmings.
8 years $1.35
10 years $1.40
12 years $1.50

FLANNELETTE UNDERSKIRTS
[illegible] length, in grey or white, with wide hemstitched frill around the bottom and draw string at waist .... Price $1.00

STOUT LADIES' CORSETS AT $3.98
Corsets of extra fine coutil, made well and in all sizes, some with elastic insets; low or high bust, four hose supporters. Special at $3.98

TOYLAND OPENS ON SATURDAY

TOYLAND, the JOYLAND for the kiddies, will be all ready to receive them Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Bigger, brighter, better than ever is Toyland this season. Bring the children up and let them revel in the delights of this wonderful gift store. There are Toys by the hundred—Toys to amuse and Toys to instruct—Toys that will give pleasure to the kiddies. Have them come Saturday and see everything. Here are some of the things they will find:—

DOLLS, DOLLS and DOLLS
GILBERT MOTORS
GIRLS' SEWING SETS
TEA SETS
ROLLER CHIMES
NEEDLEWORK SETS
WASHING OUTFITS
EXPRESS TRAINS
ENGLISH TANKS, MACHINE GUNS
BOYS' AND GIRLS' TRUNKS
COASTING AUTOS
AUTOS
SHOOFLYS
DUCK-A-DOOS
AEROPLANES
DOLL CRIBS CUTTERS
DRUMS
ARMY SERVICE WAGONS
WHEELBARROWS
KIDDO KARS
TOY SHOVELS
SCOOTERS
ROWING WAGONS
CHARLIE CHAPLIN BOOKS
FOXY GRANDPA
HAWKSHAW
KATZENJAMMER KIDS
BABES IN THE WOOD
TIDDLEY WINKS
CARD GAMES
CHECKERS
DOMINOES
CROCKINOLE
BASEBALL
ANIMAL FIVE PINS

COME TO THE HOSIERY COUNTER FOR THESE ON SATURDAY

HEATHER HOSE AT $2.00
Ladies' fine Cashmere Hose of exceptional quality; beautiful heather mixtures of pretty colors. Made in England. All sizes. Per pair $2.00

CHILDREN'S OVER HOSE
A real good quality of worsted Over-Stockings made from the pure wool yarn, 2 and 1 rib. Splendid wearing; all sizes. Per pair
$1.00 to $1.50

CASHMERE HOSE AT 98c
Ladies' pure wool Cashmere Hose, full fashioned, seamless feet. Many have slight imperfections which have been carefullyrepaired and will not interfere with the wear. Regular $1.50 quality .... Saturday, per pair 98c

PURE SILK HOSE AT $2.75
Ladies' pure Silk Hose, black only; neatly embroidered in white or green. Make most acceptable Christmas gift. Per pair $2.75

CHILDREN'S MITTENS, 19c
Small sizes of Children's Mitts, warm black mitts, comfortable and well made .... Per pair 19c

SILK HOSE AT $2.25
This is a very fine quality of Silk Hose. Can be had in white. The new lace ankle effect. Exceptionally good for holiday giving. All sizes. Per pair $2.25

LADIES' EXTRA QUALITY GLOVES AT $1.75
Gloves of superior quality that are at the same time warm and comfortable. You will be suited with either of these Duplex Silk Gloves, in black, gray and mastic shades. These are extra heavy quality and very serviceable. If you do not care for silk, we have a very nice Kayser Silk Glove of fine quality, in winter weight, in black or white only .... Either make, pair $1.75

CHILDREN'S MITTENS
Children's heavy warm Mitts; all colors and sizes; made of fine wool yarns. Come up well over the wrist. Per pair
69c & 75c

DOVE WOOL
This is a beautiful wool for fancy knittin gof sweaters, scarfs, etc. Can be had in all the newest shades. Is a hard twisted 4-ply yarn and in one-ounce balls. Much superior to the ball yarns that we have sold formerly. Our price, per ball 39c

300 PIECES OF NIPPON CHINA AWAY UNDER VALUE
300 Pieces of pretty Nippon China—valued samples of a big importer. There are many pretty little gifts for Christmas, and you can pick and choose from this lot. No two articles alike.
ALL CLEARING SATURDAY AT AWAY BELOW REGULAR PRICES.

NIPPON CHINA TEA SETS AT $6.75
Nippon China Tea Sets—Just 16 pretty sets. Several good patterns to choose from; white and gold or flowered pattern; 21 pieces in the set. You would not be paying too much if you wer asked $10.00 for these sets, and it is almost impossible to get them to-day. Just 16 at Saturday's selling .... Per set $6.75

ECONOMY BASEMENT SPECIALS
Some of the Basement's Many Saving Specials for Saturday

Coal Hods	50c
Granite Dish Pans, 14-qt. size	85c
Granite Pails, 10-qt. size	90c
Salt Boxes, plain and fancy wood	25c
Ash Sifters	25c
Steamer Tins, 4 sizes	60c, 65c, 85c, 90c
Granite Covered Stewing Pots, 6 qt. size	75c
Comfort Soap	7 Bars for 50c
2 Bars of N. P. Soap and 1 pkg. Snow Flakes, 1 pkg. Handy Ammonia, for	49c
Old Dutch Cleanser	3 Tins for 29c

Agency for the Famous "WHITE" Sewing Machine: If You Want the Best, Buy a "WHITE"

SATURDAY, GOOD VALUES AT THE STAPLE COUNTER

BLEACHED SHEETING
This Bleached Sheeting is of a good, plain, strong thread quality and is 72 inches wide. Price, per yard 90c

TWILLED BLEACHED SHEETING
This Bleached Sheeting, twilled, is of a soft linen finish and 72 inches wide; made of pure cotton; absolutely no filling. Price, per yard Saturday $1.00

CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR For 59c
These are splendid garments for small children, 2 and 1 rib, soft, finish, strong and serviceable, and comfortable. At, per garment 59c

LADIES' VESTS AT 98c
Ladies' fine ribbed Underwear, either white or grey. It is a beautiful quality and sells regularly for $1.39. Size 36 to 38. Saturday Special .... Each 98c

PRETTY WOOLEN SETS
These Woolen Sets consist of cap and scarf, either brushed or plain knit; many pretty colors. At, per set $2.50, $3.50 and up to $5.25

GOOD PILLOW COTTONS
Circular woven with o good strong weave thread; made purposely for pillow cases; widths, 40, 42, 44, 55 and 60 inches. At, per yard 65c

STRIPED FLANNELETTE AT 45c
This Flannelette comes in a good assortment of colors; 37 inches wide. Really worth to-day, per yard, 65c. On Sale Saturday, yd. 45c

BED COMFORTERS
These Bed Comforters are well filled with sanitized batting, covered with good quality of Paisle and flowered chintz. These are made to cover double beds. Saturday's prices
$5.50 to $6.50

DOWN FILLED COMFORTERS
These are covered with art sateen; a good assortment of colors; ventilated .... Size 60 x 80, at $9.00

KIDDIES' COT COMFORTERS
Good assortment of colors; bat and down filled. Prices, each
$1.75 to $9.00

J. C. TURNBULL CO., LTD.
PETERBOROUGH'S BIG STORE

GAME LICENSES ISSUED AT PETERBORO

The following is a list of the licenses issued this year by J. E. Haggart game overseer, at Peterborough:

Jas. Jopling, Fred Jopling, A. Jopling, Wm. Morris, S McManus, M. Dobson, F. Dobson, C. Forsythe, G N. Kelly, A. E Kelly, W. H. Brightman, Thos Bright, Jno. Brightman, F. Stinson, R. J Matchett, J. G. Harkness, Wm. Gill, H. Gill, Dr. McPherson, Dr. Baker M Sucee, A. E. Mason, J. P. Bond, K. C. McClelland, A. Blade, T. H. Ashby, A. McIntosh, J. J. Turner, R. T. Best, Geo. Hall, B. J. Deck, D. Thompson, H. Palmer, T. B. Bebee, S. Kennedy, I. Beck, H Hair, M. McFadden, E W. Rahmer, W. Evans, C. Coons Gus. Sawyers, D. Hench, T. G. Cammpazzie, W. M Reid, J. D. Collins, V. Hopkins, J Stanger, C. Mills, E M Freeman, Jas. Fowler, H Vance, H. Foster, R. Scarce, F. M. Kibbin, A. Nicholson, Louis Yeotes, R. Munro, T Miller, M. McManus, A Dodds, W. R. Gillard, H. F Doig, J. Brady, M. Blewett, T. E. Curvin, Wm. Stewart, A Tedford, H. Dummitt, E. G Edwards, W. Edwards, A. O. Kidd, J W. Fraser, M. Comstock, C. Gunsolus, A. Tindle, J. B. Pentland, M Freeman, L. Heath, T Roberts, C Tedford, F Seymour, D. Sedgwick

Non-Resident.

L. C Nunnamaker, T. F Irwin Tris Speaker

Trapping Licenses.

A. Speirs, J D. Tobico, Jas. Vinette, Jas. Layure, C. T. Bourne, D M. Goheen, J. Flatherty, Jas Conway, C. Thompson, E. Welsh, J Sharrow, Wm. Hawkey, W Sanderson, A. Calder, A. B Downer, N. Nichols, E. Gunsolus, F. Dobson, J. Knott, B. Barrett, F. Longdo, C. A Stenton, R. Whetung, Wm. Knott, M. Sucee, T K Roberts, A. A. Sawyer, E. Harran, Dr. Baker, A. Copperwaite, J. A. E. Fitzgerald, H. Howard, D. Wetung Jr., G. Spencely, Jos. Allen, A. Gordon, B. J. Lockie, B. S. Rutherford, F. E. Dunsford, W. McKim, R. Northey, D. Foster, A. Miller, A. E. White, Geo. Ed[illegible] Herron, Pete [illegible] M. Clark, H. Stinson, Geo. Davis, R. Hicks, J. E. Henderson, A. Davis, I. Londerville, G. Haroley, W. G Henderson, Wm. Thompson, Fred Roy, G. W. Hatton, C. S. Stapleton, Gibson, E. Matthews, Wm. Rose, S. Chilman, R. Parker, Wm Gould, W. Wellman, W. H. Hill, B Douglas, Roy Hawley, S. Darling, O. Donaldson, J. Stinson, James Summers, E. Calbert, H. W. Barnard, Wainwright, J B. Stuart, G. Brown, A. Wilson, C. F R. Jarrett, A. Guarrat, H. Edwards, E. Robertson, P. R. Solmer, V. Fife, H. Drummond, F Montgomery, E. Bell, Geo Foy, Joe Perry, A. Weeks, H. Weeks, Colonel Young, R. Keitch, G. Leader, Jas. Killinback, F Overend, C. Payne, J. Scriver, H. Bennett, W. J. Galleher, E. B. Jost, W. H. Reynolds, W. E. Wigg, F. J. Doughty, Geo. Emery, O. White, R. H. Doughty, S. Blewett, H. Edmison, W. J Tedford, A. Meeks, Wm. Blewett, T Fowler, M. Fowler, R. Fowler, T. J. Graham, W C. Ackerman, T. P. Cullen, D. Miller, Percy Blade, R. H. Guthrie, Alex Watts, Jas. Conway, Wm. Conway, R. J. Soden, W. R. Widdis, R. M. Neill, W D. Tyrer, V M. Mills, T. E. Soden, J. Robertson, Mrs. J. Robertson, J Bradley, A. Nicholls, C. Westlake, A. Farey, A Johnston, A. G. Caruthers, J. J. Howden, H. Evans, D. Holland, Wm. White, C N. Downer, J. S. Routley, Mrs. H. S. Routley, A. Calder, R. Nurse, W Nurse, Jos Hayes, Wm. Herd, J. B Downer, J. W. Downer, N Nicholls, Jno Davis, R. Fitzgerald, H. G. Bell, A. E. Curtis, C. Sanderson, N G. Millard, R. Preston, R. Blewett, W. J. Spence, E. C. Howdry, B O'Dette, D. Best, C Curtis, F O. Arnott, W. J. Perry, W. C. Morrow, Pat O'Grady, J. O'Heary, J R Bullied, M O'Leary, J. W. Clark, J. Freeman, A Copperfield, J A. E. Fitzgerald, A B Downer, E. Graham.

HAD NOT CHAUFFEUR LICENSE

Jso. Dineen was fined $8.10 at police court this morning for acting in the capacity of a chauffeur withou the necesary license.

He stated that he was on the way to the police station when he was caught by the police.

The magistrate reduced the fine from $10 to $5 and costs, when this was pointed out.

GRAND TRUNK PASSENGER SERVICE

A temporary reduction of passenger train service will be made effective Sunday November 30th, on account of coal shortage and affects Peterboro as follows:—Train No. 98, from Linsday, due at 7.55 a.m. is cancelled, train No. 99 leaving for Lindsay at 8:31 p.m. is cancelled, train No. 96 leaving for Port Hope at 8:10 a.m. is cancelled and train No. 97 arriving from Port Hope at 12:04 p.m. is cancelled.

Train No. 370 from Lakefield, now due at 5:15 p.m. will arrive at 1:55 p.m.

LINDSAY AUXILIARY CREW BADLY INJU

TWO MEMBERS GET FING AND HAND SERIOUSLY JAMMED

Lindsay, Nov. 28.—Two mem of the Grand Trunk Auxiliary c Messrs. Sylvester Scott and Cha Neil, were the victims of serious juries on Wednesday, while clea the wreckage near Eldon Station a result of several cars of coal stone leaving the track. The two were engaged in tightening the s on the auxiliary cable when t hands were caught between the c and the pulley. Mr. Neil had one his fingers broken and the other b lacerated. Mr. Scott had his left h jammed, with the result that bones were broken. He also had finger lacerated. They received m ical treatment at Kirkfield, bef being brought to Linsay, Mr. was taken to the Ross Hospital, Mr. Scott was attended by Dr. R The injuries will incapacitate the n for several weeks

INCOMPARABLE

Dr. Norvall's Stomach and To Tablets are really incomparable. Th have been imitated and substitut have been prepared which look like them and even tasted about t same, but there is no other tab which has the same beneficial effe the same gentle laxative and to effect. For constipation, dyspep biliousness and sick headache, D Norvall's Tablets have no equal a are in a class by themselves. A dealers sell them.

UNITY BETWEEN CANADIAN RACE

Toronto, Nov. 28.—The ne [illegible] unity between the French and [illegible] lish-speaking people of the Domin ion was urged by Leon Merci Gouin, eldest son of Sir Lome Gouin, Premier of Quebec, who wa guest of the Empire Club yester day.

"I think that in the matter o Imperial and national patrioti he essentials are the same," he said "The one who works for the Empir also works for Canada. On racial an religious questions we lay too much stress on our differences, forgettin the essentials are practically th same. I thin kthat at the presen time we are very much from bein truly united."

To obtain the union, mutual respect, toleration and a better understanding were necessary. "To have beter relations we must have closer relations," he said. "We must sit together at the same table and discuss national problems from a truly national point of view."

As one method of helping the solution of the problem Mr. Gouin suggested that scholarships in the Ontario Universities be offered to French-Canadian students. If this were done, Quebec would spedily reciprocate.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM
TEMPORARY REDUCTION PASSENGER TRAIN SERVICE ACCOUNT COAL SHORTAGE
Effective Sunday, November 30 1919

Information now in agents' hands.

French Ivory

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complet set.

Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.
351 George Street

THE LAST OF THE NOVEMBER SNAP SALES

A Splendid Assortment of Silks, Dress Trimmings and Serge

SEVERAL HUNDRED YARDS OF DRESS TRIMMING

At 5c and 12½c Yard

In the lot you will find braids, guimpes and a variety of other trimmings. They will enable you to enliven your costume, and the prices cannot be equalled.

LOT 1—10c, 12½c and 15c values 5c Yard

LOT 2—20c, 25c and 35c values 12½c Yard

54-INCH ALL-WOOL DRESS and SUITING SERGES

$2.98 Yard

Every piece is all-wool and the weight is suitable for suiting or dress purposes. You have choice of the following colors: brown, taupe, hunter's green, grey, black. The width is a full 54 inches.

$2.25 SILK BENGALINES

$1.89 Yard

A clean-up purchase of several hundred yards made this price possible. This material is ideal for dresses and silk skirts. The colors are: navy, trench brown, Russian green, grey, sand, taupe, Havana brown, Saxe blue, white.

FOUR HUNDRED YARDS OF $1.65 DRESS SILK POPLINS

98c Yard

If an afternoon dress or blouse would not go amiss in your wardrobe just now, then you can use this material to advantage. The color range includes navy blue, reseda green, prunella, Copenhagen, crushed rose, stone grey and taupe.

The November Series of Snap Sales have met with exceptional success. For this last event the prices are unusually low and the Snap lines are all bright new Seasonable Goods. We strongly advise taking full advantage of the One Day Prices that bring to a close this remarkable series of sales. There are scores of lines not mentioned here but every sale item will be marked with a Green Price Ticket. Remember the Enlarged Bargain Annex will be open all day To-morrow.

DOUBLE ELEVATOR SERVICE TO THE ANNEX

BARGAIN ANNEX OPEN SATURDAY—ALL DAY

TWO HUNDRED PAIRS OF "IBEX" LARGEST SIZE 12-4 FLANNELETTE BLANKETS $3.19 PAIR

Theyare the laregst size Blankets and the brand is "Ibex," which is a quality that is tried and true, and is one of the best makes on the market to-day. You have the choice of either white or grey, with colored stripe borders .... Saturday's Annex Price, pair $3.19

A SYNOPSIS OF SATURDAY'S ANNEX

- 39c Yard Wide Striped Flannelette, 29c yard.
- 20c Berlin Wools, 10c skein.
- 35c to 50c Art Sateens, 27c yard.
- 75c Natural Shantung Raw Silks, 37½c yard.
- Ladies' Boots, small sizes, less than half price. $1.49 pair.
- Five Hundred Pairs of Ladies First Quality Rubbers, 79c pair.
- $6.00, $6.50 and $7.00 Extra Large American Plaid Blankets, $4.39 Pair.
- Ladies' Overall Aprons, 63c.
- Juvenile 45c Suit Cases, useful for school books or lunches, 39c.
- 85c Christmas Gift Stationery, 49c box.
- 62c Circular Pillow Cotton, 42 ins., 46c yard.
- 75c Embroidered Runners, 49c.
- 25c Christmas Handkerchiefs, 3 for 49c.
- $1.10 Lounge Cushions, 79c.
- Ladies' $2.00 White Flannelette Night Gowns, $1.55.
- Boys' and Girls' Christmas Gift Books, 23c.
- Men's 89c Worsted Ribbed Hose, 69c pair.
- "North Star" and "Crescent" 25c Cotton Batting, 19c.
- Girls' and Boys' 49c Ribbed School Hose, 39c pr.
- Children's $1.25 Worsted Knit Red Rompers, 69c.
- Gift Stationery, Quire boxes, 25c value, 2 for 37c.
- "Bargain Annex" Toilet Paper, 12 Rolls for 47c.
- "Lux" Washing Compound, 3 for 29c.
- 10c Laundry Soaps, 8 for 69c.

Unusaul Prices on Blankets, Pillow Cases and Cotton Batting

85 and 36 INCH STRIPED FLANNELETTE and 30 INCH WHITE FLANNELETTE For 29c Yard

This price is not unusual, but the quality is, for such a price. It is, indeed, a splendid value. The stripes are neat and in good colors. There is also an all-white Saxony that is 30 inches wide, and decidedly worth buying at the above price.

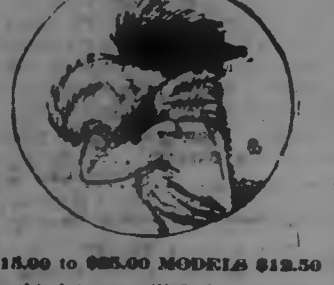
25c "NORTH STAR" and "CRESCENT" COTTON BATTING, 19c—Both lines are fully bleached, clean and pure, and will open up as evenly as cloth. The regular price is 25c.

$5.00 AMERICAN PLAID BLANKETS $4.29 Pair

They are the large double bed size and are a special value at $5. The length is 84 or 85 inches. Early buyers will have a selection of fawn, blue and grey plaid patterns.

16 DOZEN PILLOW CASES, 19c Each—Away less than mill price on this clear-away lot of hemmed Pillow Cases. They are made of good quality Canadian cotton. Come early—there are only sixteen dozen in the lot.

Millinery! To-morrow is The Final Opportunity



$15.00 to $25.00 MODELS $12.50

In this lot you will find an assortment of warm colors, as browns, black, blues, etc. They are of velvet and panne velvet and hatter's plush; often trimmed with metallic lace or ostrich. There are big hats and little hats, and hats no so tailored. All are skilfully trimmed and decidedly smart.

$10.00 to $14.00 MODELS $7.50

This gives you a wide range to select from. We should have said range of pretty hats, for they are, and we invite you to come and try them on. You'll enjoy every minute of the time, and marvel that the price is so low.

$7.00 to $9.00 MODELS $4.95

Of course they are not so good as any of the above lines, but they are excellent value at their old prices, and if this is your price for a hat, or wish for something for knockabout wear, you will find it here.

WORTH UP TO $7.00 FOR $2.95

They are ready-to-wear models, suitable for ladies and misses, and you have a choice of the following colors: Copenhagen, brown, sand, rose, taupe, black, navy.

Cold Weather Prices on Underwear and Hosiery

Ladies' Underwear—$1 and $1.25 values, "mill seconds"	79c
Ladies' Combinations—$2 and $2.25 values; "mill seconds"	$1.29
Ladies' Undervests and Drawers—Grey and white, garment	57c
Ladies' 40c Black Cashmerette Hose	2 Pairs for 59c
"Penman's" $1.25 Black Cashmere Hose, pair	98c
Ladies' 50c Black Lisle Hose, mill seconds	3 Pairs for 80c

—Street Floor, Arcade Entrance.

Have You a Floor To Cover, A Window to Drape, or a Stairway to Carpet

Cretonne and Chintz, in English and American qualities, in light, medium and dark colors. The width is 36 inches, and the prices are regularly up to $1.25 a yard. Red Letter Sale price .. Yard 69c

Heavy Quality Jute Stair Carpet, with plain centres and band borders, in shades of green and brown. The width is 22½ inches. Regular 75c. Snap Sale Price .... Yard 59c

Carpet Sweepers—12 only; "Hygeno" is the brand. They are equipped with a heavy brush, have cyco bearings, and are fully guaranteed. Regular $3. Snap Sale price .. $1.98

REMNANTS OF FLOOR COVERINGS

Floor Oilcloth, Linoleum, Feltol, and Inlaid Linoleum. They will be cleared at greatly reduced prices.

A SENSIBLE WOMAN LIKES A SERVICEABLE GIFT SELECT FROM OUR NEW DEPARTMENTS

CUTLERY ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES OVENWARE VACUUM CLEANERS WASHING MACHINES

The Cutlery is "Rogers Bros. 1847," the Electrical Appliances are "Canadian Beauty," the Ovenware is "Pyrex" transparent glassware. The Vacuum Cleaners are "Hoover Suction Sweepers." The Washing Machines are "Dowsell and Lees" and also the famous "Apex" washer.

A Special Selling Of Suits At Sharply Reduced Prices $52.00 and $55.00 Models $37.50

They are not a whit less valuable than the day (not so long ago) that they first came into stock.

The materials are: Silvertone, velour and cheviot.

The colors are: Maduro brown, navy and Pekin blue, moose, black and grey.

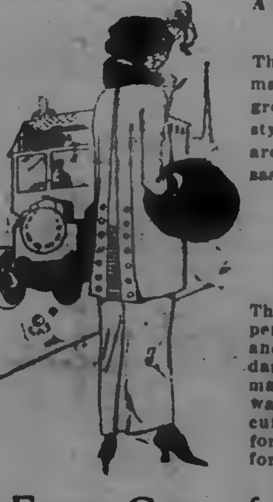
The styles are: Semi-tailored in keeping with the straight silhouette, close-up three-way collars, smart pockets, tucks of fine cording and button trimming.

$39 COATS OF SALT'S ESKIMO PLUSH, $29.75

They are cut on the new mode with the skirt gathered on at the waistline. The collar is the close-up three-way pattern, also a smart belt and cuffs. Buttons are effectively used throughout.

THESE $11 SERGE SKIRTS AT $8.75 MAKE GOOD COMPANIONS FOR A SMART BLOUSE

They are of fine all-wool botany serge and can be had in either navy or black. The fronts are gored, the back has the fashionable amount of fulness, the belt is wide, and have smart tabs on hips; the pockets are trimmed with flaps. The pockets, belt and tabs are trimmed with military braid.



A SAMPLE LOT OF $9.00 and $10.00 SWEATERS $6.95

The colors are handsome shades of maize, green, mauve, begonia, rose, grey and brown. They are pull-over style with open fronts, and the collars are variously patterened, and also the sash belt and pockets.

$5.95 HOUSE DRESSES $3.98

The material used is a good quality percale, in stripe and check designs, and can be had in light, medium and dark colors. The style is the "Barman," and its features are: adjustable waistline, convertible collar, buttoned cuffs and an extra tuck in hem to allow for shrinkage or to provide material for patching if necessary.

Coats That are Worth Every Cent of $35.00 and $39.00, For $21.75

This price is rather surprising, is it not? Just at a time when Coats are needed and merchants are finding them so difficult to procure. The materials are chinchillas, whitneys and velta cloth. The colors are browns, blues, greens, grey, raisin and black. They are this season's garments, and the styles are consistent with the season's mode.

Week-End Sale of Stationery, Soaps and Toilet Paper

"Sunlight," "Gold" and "P. & G. Naptha" Soap	8 for 69c
"Lennox" Laundry Soap, small bar	12 for 49c
"Lux" Washing Compound	3 for 29c
"Waverley" 10c large rolls Toilet Paper	8 for 50c
Boys' and Girls' 50c cloth-bound Books	39c
Boys' and Girls' 60c cloth-bound Books	49c
Special 25c Stationery for Christmas Gifts	2 for 39c
Children's Picture Books, 25c values	19c
"Imperial Linen" Writing Tablets largest size	2 for 35c
"Imperial Linen" Writing Tablets Empress style	2 for 29c

Street Floor, 4th and 5th Circles.

TO-MORROW'S MID-DAY LUNCH, 45c

11:30 A.M. To 2 P.M.

Gentlemen can take new elevator from rear of Men's Furnishing Department

SOUP
Tomato

COLD MEATS
Roast Chicken

VEGETABLE
Creamed Potatoes

DESSERT
Apple Pie or Ice Cream

Bread and Butter
Pot of Tea

A LA CARTE

Vegetable or Tomato Soup	10c
Cold Ham or Tongue	15c
Pork and Beans	10c
Poached Eggs and Toast	23c
Poached Egg and Toast	15c
Biscuits and Butter	5c
Rolsl and Butter	5c
Ice Cream	10c
Cake	10c

Greatly Under Priced are These Gloves and Mitt Values

Ladies' White and Black $1.00 and $1.25 Chamois Cloth Gloves Pair	79c
Ladies' 50c Black Cashmerette Gloves, pair	37c
Boys' Special "Dollar" Tan Cape Gloves, pair	79c
"Queen Quality" and "Kayser" $1.35 and $1.50 Heavy Weight Silk Gloves, pair	$1.00
Ladies' $2.00 and $2.50 Tan Cape and White Washable Suede Gloves, pair	$1.69
Children's 40c Wool Mitts, Pr.	29c

—Street Floor.

In The Redfern Store

$45.00 and $49.00 Coats	$35.00
$39.00 Silk Dresses	$27.50
$8.50 and $10.00 Pullover Sweaters	$6.50
$8.95 Crepe de Chine Blouses	$6.95
$5.50 Eiderdown Kimonas	$4.95

The CRESSMAN Company Limited

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Public are hereby notified that all traffic on the Hunter Street Bridge, both vehicular and pedestrian, is closed. Persons without just cause found within the limits of work of construction are liable to prosecution for trespass.

By order of the City of Peterborough.

H. PHELAN,
Chairman Board of Works.

LIONEL H. CLARKE OF TORONTO NAMED LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR

Holds Extreme Democratic Views—Appointment in Keeping With Principles of New Farmer Government of Province.

Ottawa, Nov. [illegible]. — Lionel H. Clarke, of Toronto, has been named by the Federal Government as Lieutenant-Governor for Ontario. Official notification to that effect was sent to Government House at Toronto yesterday afternoon. The appointment of Mr. Clarke puts an end to rumors regarding the Lieutenant-Governorship that have been current for months past, the names of at least half a dozen prominent men having been mentioned. It is noteworthy that of all those regarded as possibilities Mr. Clarke is the only one who has never held political office or sat in either the Federal or the Provincial House, his activities having been confined almost entirely to civic affairs.

Lionel H. Clarke is likely to prove the most democratic Lieutenant-Governor Ontario has ever had, and his appointment is in keeping with the coming to power of a farmer Government that proudly labels itself the last word in democratic personnel. Although he is widely known chiefly through his splendid work as chairman of the Toronto Harbor Commission, a post he has held since the reorganization of the Commission seven years ago, he had been more or less active in civic and public life before that time. He was some years ago president of the Toronto Board of Trade, was a commissioner representing the city on the York County Highways Commission, and for years has been a member of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park Commission.

Mr. Clarke is a native of Guelph and was educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope. As a young man he entered the grain business. He came to Toronto thirty years ago and has been a resident of the city ever since. In 1911 he went back to Wellington County to contest the North riding in the Conservative interest, his opponent being the late Senator James McMullen. He was unsuccessful, and fared no better when he ran against Mr. McMullen in 1896.

REV. W. HAROLD YOUNG ACCEPTS INVITATION

PROVIDING CONFERENCES AGREE, HE WILL TAKE THE PLACE OF REV. A. J. THOMAS

Some time ago the George Street Methodist Church of this city extended an invitation to Rev. Harold Young, of St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal, to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Rev. Amos Thomas from George Street to the Montreal Church. Rev. Mr. Young has accepted the invitation and the only thing that remains now to complete the arrangements is the sanction of the two conferences.

The Montreal Gazette publishes an article on the exchange, in which it says:

"The Rev. W. Harold Young, who became assistant pastor of St. James' in June, 1917, has received, and has accepted, the call of the George street, Peterborough, Methodist Church to become its pastor. Rev. Mr. Young is the son of the Rev. Dr. W. R. Young, of Toronto, and formerly of Douglas Church in this city, and during the two years of his pastorate here has met with much success.

"The Rev. Amos J. Thomas was here during the month of August taking vacation duty in St. James. He is a graduate in Arts of Toronto University and also in theology of Victoria College in the same city. He entered the ministry in 1899, and previous to his present appointment at Peterborough was pastor of Dundas Central Church, London, Ont. For the past three years he has been chairman of the Peterborough district, Bay of Quinte conference. Rev. Mr. Thomas is a man of recognized ability and of the evangelical type of preacher fitting in with the traditions of St. James.

"The rank of pastor emeritus which the Rev. Dr. Henderson will be given is a new thing in the Methodist Church since the usual step taken by a minister retiring from the active ministry is to go on the superannuated list; but it is understood that Dr. Henderson is not contemplating permission to retire in this way. The arrangement, made will, therefore, be with the individual church, and not with the conference."

The body of an unidentified woman was found in Grenadier Pond, Toronto, yesterday.

Hiram Gabel, aged twenty-eight, died at Shakespeare of sleeping sickness.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE
THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power,

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

GREENE'S GRAFONOLA CLUB

The best appreciated offering made this year at the Greene Music Store, is the special club offer that embraces any style of Grafonola. The popular outfit is the one that includes a nice fumed oak Grafonola with handsome Cabinet to match and six selections all for

$49.90

A membership payment of $5.00 puts this outfit in your home, the balance payable in small amounts monthly. Club members may select any other style Grafonola they wish on proportionately easy terms, if the supply can be kept up. The club opened with a rush and will continue during the first three weeks of December.

The J. M. Greene Music Co., Ltd.

HOME OF THE GRAFONOLA CHARLOTTE STREET

Barrie's
Peterboro.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT
(The House With Exclusive Styles.)

COATS

The woman who buys a BARRIE garment will find no humdrum reflection of current styles — it will be individual. Its smartness will be clearly apparent.

BARRIE BUILDING
312 George Street
Phone 340

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist.
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 224J.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Organized by Dr. F. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

MACHINISTS' ATTENTION

All members of International Association of Machinists, Lodge No. 435, are requested to attend a special meeting, to be held on Friday night, Nov. 28, at 8 p.m., in the Labor Hall. Important business.

F. WIMAN,
Rec. Secretary.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

PREPARATORY SERVICE AT ST. ANDREW'S

Service preparatory to communion will be held in St. Andrew's Church tonight, at 8 o'clock. Also reception of new members. Rev. John [illegible] will speak.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

FITZPATRICK—RICE

(Medicine Hat Daily News.)

In St. Patrick's Church, Tuesday morning, 18th, at 8 o'clock, Jno. Glen Rice and Kathleen Florence Fitzpatrick were united in marriage in the presence of the immediate friends of both families. Marie Fitzpatrick acted as bridesmaid while James Rice, brother of the groom assumed the duties of best man. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. M. F. Fitspatrick, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. E. J. McCoy and Rev. Thos. Greene. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, then the young couple marched to the altar to the strains of Mendelssolm's wedding march played by Miss Agnes Scollard.

During the Holy Sacrifice several appreciate hymns were sung by Mr Louis Adams and Miss Clara Irwin.

The bride looked very charming in a suit of navy blue wool gabardine with hat to match, and wearing a dainty blouse of pink silk georgette.

A sumptuous banquet was served at the home of the bride's father, 849 3rd street S. E. At the close of the wedding breakfast short appropriate addresses were made by Rev. Fathers Fitzpatrick, McCoy, Greene, the groom, J. G. Rice, R. J. Rice and James Rice, Mr. James Seljars and Thos. Daly.

The young couple left on the noon train for the Coast and will be absent for a few weeks. The gifts to the bride were numerous and valuable, among them being two one hundred dollar cheques, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their large circle of friends.

Mr. Chester Bayne of Toronto was a Peterborough visitor over the week-end.

Miss Tilson of Port Hope has returned home after visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Reginald Lockhart, jr., formerly Miss Ruth Robertson, of Peterboro, one of the autumn brides, received yesterday afternoon for the first time since her marriage at her apartment, 564 Spadina avenue, Toronto, when she was wearing her lovely wedding gown of ivory French brocade, with Carrickmacross lace. Mrs. Reginald Lockhart, sr., and Mrs. N. Birks, of Peterboro, assisted in the drawing room. The tea table, with a centre and doilies of Italian lace, was decorated with pink roses, was in charge of Mrs. Frank Hodgins, Mrs. H. D. Robertson, Miss Catharine Howland and Miss Beatrice Corson.

At the Vesper Service on Sunday, Miss Layton will tell something of the triennial convention held recently in Hamilton. The December meeting of the Board of Directors has been posponed until Monday, Dec. 8.

GREAT REDUCING ON VICTOR RECORDS

The reduction of the prices of the Victor Red Seal Records has simply doubled, indeed trebled and quadrupled, the demand for these famous records, as it has made possible for everyone owning a Victrola as the most popular everyday selections that have been put on the market. Ask Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, who carry a complete stock of records, to send you one of the revised lists.

Y.W.C.A. BAZAAR DEC. 2ND

Members of the Young Women's Christian Association are busy getting ready for their bazaar, which is to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 2nd, from thee until ten. There will be fancy work, dolls, handkerchiefs, home-made cooking and candy for sale, a tea room and a short musical programme. At intervals during the afternoon and evening, the Campers' League will put on in pantomine the moving picture, entitled "Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains."

COTTAGE MEETING

A cottage prayer meeting will be held tonight at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, 561 Bethune. Rev. A. J. Thomas, pastor of George Street Methodist Church, will be in charge.

21st BATTALION CLUB

Members of this club will meet in the G. W. V. A. rooms tonight for election of officers and organaization.

ME'NS MEETING

ALLEN THEATRE
SUNDAY 4.15 p.m.
Rev. O.C.S. Wallace
MAA. D.D. LL.D.
Westmount Baptist Church
Montreal
Former Chancellor McMaster University, Canadian Baptist Representative at the Front
Hear This Well-known Orator.
AL COME

PRESENTED WITH A GRANDFATHER CLOCK

LADIES' AID OF KNOX CHURCH GIVE A VERY HAPPY SURPRISE PARTY

Last evening about sixty members of Knox Church Ladies' Aid sprung a pleasant surprise upon one of their members, Mrs. McKenzie, King street when they held a surprise party at her home.

The evening was enjoyably spent in singing, games and a happy sociable time generally. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were presented with an ther's clock.

The Adress

Peterboro, Nov. 27, 19

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie:

We have assembled here this evening, a band of members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Knox Church. He have descended on your habitation like an invading army, but we assure you both, our purpose is an altogether peaceful one, an you need feel no alarm even though we do come armed. It is our intention to take possession of your home for a short time this evening, and as you see our numbers are great, you may as well capitulate at once.

Though but a short time since we have become acquainted with you Mrs. McKenzie, your place in our affection and esteem is an assured one and we feel sure the attachment thus so happily formed will but strengthen with time and with the passing years.

As a slight mark of our regard for you both, permit us to present to you with this Grandfather's clock, in the hope that as it gently ticks of the seconds, it may serve to recall to you both in later years, your friends of Knox Church, Peterborough.

Signed:

MRS THOS. CARPENTER,
President.
Mrs. DAVID BEAVIS,
Treasurer.
MRS. GEORGE DAVIS,
Secretary.

REGULAR MEETING.

The Regular Meeting of Peterborough Branch, G. W. V. A., will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, December 1st. Business, Election of Officers for year 1920. A large attendance is asked.

S. WHATLEY, Secretary.

G. W. V. A. NOTICE.

The polling booth on the referendum will be open again tonight from 7 o'clock until 11, and to-morrow from 2 o'clock until 11. All members are asked to come to headquarters and record their votes on these important questions.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

HOUSE TO RENT — WILL lease 174 Antrim street. Call phone 1949J or Phone 776 for particulars. Immediate possession.

LOST—ON WEDNESDAY AFternoon, between Aylmer and George streets on McDonnel street, or on street car, black silk bag containing purses adn sum of money. Finder leave at Review office and receive reward.

A LAND OF ENCHANTMENT
MAY BE SEEN AT
TRINITY S. S. HALL Reid St.
TO-NIGHT and Saturday Afternoon
12 BOOTHS REPRESENTING THE 12 MONTHS
All Kinds of Refreshments : : : : Afternoon Tea and Coffee
A HOT VENISON SUPPER in the HUNTER'S LODGE
DON'T MISS IT

YOU WILL SNAP THESE SATURDAY VALUES UP IN A HURRY

Unusual indeed are the Values offered for the Last Saturday in November. A glance through this Advertisement will be sufficient to convince you to participate in the Savings. We cannot guarantee quantities will last all day—Early Choosing is adviseable.

A Most Complete Collection of Women's and Misses' Coats Suits and Dresses

ALL SPECIALLY MARKED DOWN FOR SATURDAY'S QUICK DISPOSAL

Don't fail to see these Sale Lines on Saturday and Come Early to Benefit fully by the Great Reductions

$45, $50, $60, $65, $75 and $85 Tricolette, Charmeuse. Taffeta Silk, Georgette Crepe, and Velvet Dresses

$37.65

Our best grade Dresses; styles which show distinctive individuality, in the very latest designs; all imported New York dresses. Regular $85.00, $75.00, $65.00, $60.00, $50.00 and $45.00. Saturday Bargain $37.65

$25, $30, $35 und $40 Silk, Jersey, Serge and Georgette Crepe Dresses

$19.95

Beautiful Dresses, in colors of white, taupe, rose, navy and Saxe blue; newest American styles; specially marked down from $25.00, $30.00, and $40.00, for Saturday's selling, each $19.95

$20, $25, $30, $32.50 and $35 Women's and Misses' Winter Coats

$15.00

There is not a Coat in this group less than $20.00, and they are made from good warm materials; some half lined, some full lined. Sizes for misses and women. Regular $20.00, $25.00, $0.00, $32.50 and $35.00 .. Saturday Bargain $15.00

$100, $110, $115, $125 and $150 New York Model Suits

$75.00

In Broadcloth, Tricotine, Serge and Gabardine, in colors of navy, brown, green, taupe, reindeer and mulberry. Skilfully tailored, artistically designed, and each suit silk lined and exclusive in style. Reg. $100, $110, $115, $125, $150, Saturday Bargain $75.00

8.30 A.M. GLOVE BARGAIN

Griffin's $1.25 Gloves of Chamoisette 87c pr.

Nothing in "Glovedom" today that can compare with this Glove for service. They wear so well, fit so perfectly, and can be washed daily if necessary. What other glove will do this, besides being warm, and looking so well on the hand? They come in grey, mastic, mode, black and white; fancy embroidered backs. Regular $1.25 a pair. Saturday Glove Bargain .... Pair 87c

Pure Linen Bedroom Towels at Less than Pre War Prices

60c Linen Towels 47c
50c Linen Towels 37c

Five hundred dozen pure Irish Linen Towels, without question the most marvelous towel values in Canada. Two sizes, two prices. Less than you could buy the same qualities for in pre-war days. When such an opportunity as this presents itself, stock up.

Regular 60c Towels. Size 18 x 36 inches. Each 47c

Regular 50c Towels. Size 18 x 32 inches. Each 37c

Boys' and Girls' 50c and 75c Knitted Scarfs 25c

An underpriced selling of Knitted Scarfs for boys and girls. Splendid for every day and school wear. Big assortment of colors. Regular 50c and 75c. Saturday Special.. .... 25c

BRING THE CHILDREN TO THE TOYMAN'S SHOP
You will enjoy the visit just as much as they will

A Great Under-price Purchase of 10,000 yards of Best Canadian Stripe Flannelettes, offered at Less than Present Manufacturers' Cost
Saturday 25c per yard

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS — LIMIT 20 YARDS TO A CUSTOMER

Our saving is yours, at a time when Flannelette is most needed, is sky-line in price, is already scarce and threatens to be scarcer, we were lucky enough to get in on the "ground floor," and for a spo tcash transaction secured 10,000 yards of the best grade Canadian Stripe Flannelettes at a price away less than the present day cost; 34 and 35 inches wide; mostly pink and blue stripes; an exceptionally nice soft quality that will make warm and cosy night garments for women and children. If bought in the regular way the price would be 40c yard. A big Saturday Bargain at, per yard 25c

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Ready-to-Wear and Suit Hats, Clearing Saturday at $3.49

REGULAR PRICES $5.00, $6.00, $7.00 and $7.50

This extraordinary offering includes many Hats that have only been in our show rooms a very short time. These Saturday Sale Hats are so pretty and becoming and are such unusual value that it is a double pleasure to choose. Black and colors, and all new, up-to-the-minute styles. Regular $5.00 to $7.50 .... Saturday Bargain $3.49

CORSETS

REGULAR VALUE $1.25—SATURDAY 87c PAIR
SIZES 24, 25, 26 and 27

All are Corsets that sell regularly at $1.25. Made from good strong, serviceable, white coutil, in the newest style; medium low bust, extra long hips. Just four sizes in these Sale Corsets, 24, 25, 26, 27. Saturday Bargain, pair 87c

WINTER HOSIERY
On Sale Saturday at a Fraction of Regular Prices

75c and 65c STOCKINGS 49c PAIR

An exceptional value stocking, women's winter weight, full fashioned and seamless stockings, in colors of black, brown, and grey. Sizes 8½ to 10. Regular 75c and 65c. Saturday Special, pair 49c

75c and 85c HOSIERY SECONDS 59c

Women's Black Cashmerette Stockings, "mill seconds." All imperfections carefully mended. Sizes 8½, 9 and 9½. If perfect, the regular prices would be 75c and 85c. Saturday Special, pair 59c

$1.00 O. S. STOCKINGS 69c PAIR

Stout women's Winter Cashmerette Stockings, mill seconds, imperfections hardly noticeable. Regular $1.00. Saturday Special 69c

HEAVY RIBBED STOCKINGS $1.25

Women's Heavy 2/1 Ribbed Pure Wool Stockings; hand seamed feet, double toes and heels. All sizes. Special value for Saturday, pair $1.25

RICHARD HALL & SON
LIMITED

Increasing southeast winds with rain. Sunday, westerly gales and a change to decidedly colder.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

40th YEAR No. 126 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

AUSTRALIA FACES PROBLEM OF POLITICAL RE-CONSTRUCTION

Farmers and Soldiers Form New Parties—Old Alignments Are Fading—Hughes the Leading Figure.

Sydney, Australia.—Australia is undergoing a political reconstruction, a natural aftermath and development of the return of peace. During the war the policies and politics—if the latter word may be used—held the country to one big resolve, "Win the war." With few exceptoins, this was the dominating slogan of the war and through it Australia made her contribution to the forces of the British Empire to assist in conquering Germany and her allies.

Now the reverse has come and the country, instead of being a single powerful political unit, concentrated on one big problem, is split into several parts, with parties branching out and forming new connections, new parties organising, each determined that it is powerful enough to win the control of the country in the days ahead of reconstruction and the return to the normal and stable commercial life of Australia.

Some of the problems confronting the country and the leaders who now aspire to political rule are the high cost of living with its [illegible]dant companions, profiteering, industrial strife, and heavy taxation; tariff revision, naval expansion, urgent constitutional problems, and the dissatisfaction of the returned soldiers and sailors of whom adequate care must be taken until they can be absorbed into the general run of industrial life. Of course, Bolshevism has reared its head in the midst of these various problems, but all the aspiring parties and their leaders appear to have united on a defence of the country and a strong defence against this form of imported government and breeder of discontent.

New Parties Forming.

Throughout Australia, in West Australia, South Australia, Victoria, and New South Wales, the farmers and soldiers are preparing to organize new parties, to be identified closely with the producing interests. Considering the scope of the movement, the leaders believe that they will have sufficient power to apply their policies and control the country. On the other hand, the employing classes maintain an attitude tending toward conservatism and are equally confident that their middle-of-the-road policies will prevail as previously. Also there must be considered the Labor party, which has ejected all the radicals, especially the group which favors and advocates a soviet form of government. Following this determined action the Labor leaders can perceive no reason why their voice should not be predominant in Australian affairs in the new period to come.

In the forefront of the present fight is William Morris Hughes, the premier a former Labor leader, a master of men, and with a reputation as a fighter which he gained during the war and won the admiration of the home government and of all classes in Australia while the war was in progress. He recently returned from a trip to England, where he conferred with Premier Lloyd George, and his return found the home political situation strangely uncertain, parties scattered, his own leaders [illegible] and affairs generally in a muddled condition. The driving forces which he had gathered and welded into a compact unit to win the war had scattered and his organization had become disintegrated. The Nationalists, his own party were showing a strong desire to constitute themselves on new lines to fit the new conditions which came to the country almost simultaneously with the ending of the war.

Throughout the States the same feeling prevailed, the Nationalists as a war party dissolving, but still ready to co-operate and form a government on imperial lines. In the

(Continued on Page 2.)

COMPARISONS SHOW COST OF LIVING HAS INCREASED FIFTY PER CENT DURING WAR

Department of Labor Publishes Figures—How Various Staples Have Jumped in Price.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.— How the cost of living has jumped steadily since the war is illustrated anew by comparative statistics compiled by the Department of Labor, covering the weekly cost of a family budget of staple foods, fuel, lighting and rent since 1900. The increase since 1914 is particularly striking. Commodities and services which cost $14.47 per week in 1914 cost $22.93 in October of this year. There is an advance all along the line.

In All Staples

Beefsteak, which sold at 25 cents in 1914, was 36 cents last month, this being slightly less than last year. Fresh pork, 20 cents a pound when the war started, was 39 cents in October. The difference between the bacon price at the beginning of the war and when the figures were compiled was the difference between 26 and 55 cents. Fresh eggs increased from 35 to 70 cents; milk from 8 to 14 cents; butter doubled in price, jumping from 35 cents to 70 cents; cheese from 22 to 39 cents; bread (15 pounds) from 67 cents to $1.18; sugar (4 pounds), from 31 to 50 cents; tea, from 9 to 15 cents; potatoes, from 17 to 85 cents; anthracite coal (one-sixteenth of a ton), from 53 to 84 cents; hardwood (one-sixteenth cord), from 42 to 81 cents; average weekly rentals from $4.55 to $5.55; and lighting from $1.90 to $3.14.

Up Since Armistice.

As compared with a year ago, when the armistice was declared, butter is up 13 cents, sugar one cent, and fresh pork 3 cents. The other articles are the same or slightly less.

British Columbia is where the cost of living is highest and Nova Scotia next. A budget of staple foods that sold for $15.32 in that province, sold for $14.45 in Nova Scotia, $14.17 in Ontario, $13.54 in Quebec, $14.18 in Alberta, $14.10 in Saskatchewan and $14.13 in New Brunswick. Prince Edward Island gets off easiest with an average price for the staples mentioned of $12.81.

UNFAITHFUL WIFE ASKS A SEPARATION

HUSBAND, A FORMER LIEUTENANT, APPRAISED HER LOVE AT $150,000.

New York, Nov. 29.— Mrs. Ruby M. Davies, whose lost affection for her husband, LaVerne A. Davies, formerly a lieutenant in the United States army, was appraised at $150,000 last May by a Sheriff's jury which awarded him that amount in an alienation action against Alfred C. Harrison, Jr., explorer and wealthy sugar refiner, has begun legal proceedings for a separation. Her summons was filed in the Supreme Court yesterday.

When Lieutenant Davies sued Mr. Harrison, who refrained from defending the action, the officer testified that while he was serving in the army he noticed a coolness in his wife's attitude toward him, first through her letters and later by a frank acknowledgment that she had grown fond of another. Lieutenant Davies said her love had been alienated by gifts of jewelry worth in the aggregate of $80,000.

After getting his judgment against Mr. Harrison, Lieutenant Davies obtained a writ of attachment against any property owned by the defendant in this city, but the writ was returned unsatisfied. The Sheriff was informed, he reported, that Mr. Harrison had gone to Cuba to take care of his sugar plantation there. Since then Lieutenant Davies and his lawyers have tried unsuccessfully to locate Mr. Harrison, who is the son of Alfred C. Harrison, of Philadelphia, reputed to be worth $40,000,000, and the sister of the Countess Karl von Halstein.

SEVEN LABORITES AND SEVEN CITIZEN CANDIDATES IN WINNIPEG'S CITY COUNCIL

Mayor Gray Also Re-Elected Yesterday—Will be in Unenviable Position of Having to Give Casting Vote on Straight Labor Issues—Laborite for Board of Education

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 29.—Moyar Gray was re-elected here yesterday with four out of seven Citizens' Party candidates to sit with him in Winnipeg's new council. This gives the law and order forces control of the civic administration.

Unenviable Position.

Later reports indicate that Winnipeg's new city council will be evenly divided by citizens' and labor members, with Mayor Gray, citizens' candidate, in the unenviable position of having to give the casting vote on important straight labor issues which are sure to crop up in council this year.

Seven To Seven.

The aldermen stand seven to seven, including those aldermen in their second year. There may be some recounts where the vote was close. Mayor Gray had a majority of 1,116, and a count of the actual votes cast showed that the citizens' candidates polled six thousand more votes than the Laborites.

In many cases it was a case of North Winnipeg versus South Winnipeg, with the south having the best of the argument in actual count. But the north won out in the pinches, and thus gained two seats for the Laborites.

Labor on School Board.

The Laborites carried one seat on the school board.

Heaviest Vote on Record.

Another outstanding feature of the elections was that of fifteen Labor candidates placed in the field, only four were successful. The other three are members of the council from last year. The vote was the heaviest on record, being nearly double that of 1917, when 15,000 votes were polled.

GARBAGE CONTRACT GOES TO P. ANGLESEY

TENDER WAS $1,000 BELOW OFFER OF PRESENT COLLECTORS

P. Anglesey and A. W. Johnston, lowest bidders for the city garbage collection, presented their signed tender to the Property Committee and it was accepted.

The tenders offered were: G. Mitchell and F. Turner, $10,950; P. Anglesey and A. W. Johnston, $9,900; F. Board and J. W. Bennett, $10,900; J. Blodgett and J. Murphy, $10,500.

The members of the committee were very loathe to take the contract from the partnership that has given such general satisfaction for the past year. A doubt was expressed by some of the councillors whether the work could be successfully carried out for this amount which is just $250 more than this year and a large increase in territory has been added to the area. Anglesey and Johnston were present last night and explained that they knew the conditions and promised faithfully to do the work satisfactorily and be courteous to the citizens.

Plumbing Report.

The report of Mr. Meadowes, of Toronto, on the plumbing conditions of some 19 buildings was read. The committee requested the publication of this report to be withheld to some future date.

A motion, moved by Ald. Edgar and seconded by the Mayor, referring the report to next year's committee with a strong recommendation for the revisal of the plumbing by-law and that the plumbing inspection be put under the control of the Board of Health carried.

Those present were Ald. Hamilton (chairman), Mayor Duncan, Ald. Crowe, Phelan and Edgar. Ald. Morrison and Taylor occupied spectators' chairs at the request of Ald. Hamilton.

MEXICO DENIES REPORTS OF FIGHT

UNITED STATES INSISTENT THAT CONSULAR AGENT JENKINS BE RELEASED.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 29.—Although denial from Mexico City of reported fighting there between followers of President Carranza and General Alvaroobragon, the Presidental candidate, served to ease tenseness of relations between Mexico and the United States, the State Department today had not altered its determination to enforce its demand for the prompt release of American Consular Agent Jenkins, imprisoned on the charge of conniving with his bandit captors.

Mr. J. N. Francoeur is said to be the choice for next Speaker of the Quebec Legislative Assembly.

INCREASED SALARY FOR TWO CITY OFFICIALS

SALARY OF M. H. O. RAISED TO $1,200 AND CITY CLERK GETS $500 MORE

The Finance Committee of the City Council passed a resolution at its regular monthly meeting last night recommending that the salary of Dr. McPhearson, Medical Health Officer, be raised to $1,200, and that S. R. Armstrong, city clerk, be granted an increase in salary of $500 to take effect on Jan. 1, 1919. The aldermen felt that the services these valuable city officials are rendering the city were worth more than they have been receiving, and hence the resolution.

Arrangements for Soldiers.

Mr. S. Whatley was present, and asked what arrangements the city had made for the refund of the poll tax to returned soldiers.

On a motion of Ald. Edgar and Morrison the city treasurer was authorized to refund the poll tax of 1919 to any returned soldier who produces evidence that he has already paid said tax, and upon his producing his discharge papers.

Mr. Shernikoff presented a request to the committee for the refund of $25 he paid for his auctioneer's license. He stated that he endeavored to make the business pay and found it impossible.

As a motion is on the Council records that no such refund's should be granted, no action was taken in the matter.

City Not Liable.

A letter was read from City Solicitor Widdifield in which he stated he did not consider the city liable for the $199 bill of Mr. Dumble's for stationery

DISTURBANCE IN MEXICO

Reported That President Carranza Has Fled From Capital.

Sna Antonio, Nov. 29.— Reports were received here yesterday from the border to the effect that fighting had broken out in Mexico City between the Obregon and Carranza factions.

Carranza is reported to have fled to Queretaro.

General Pablo Genzales is reported to be leading the Carranza troops.

FINAL SESSION COUNTY COUNCIL FOR 1919 ADJOURED THIS MORNING

Archie Moore Appointed High County Constable—Many Fridges Will be Repaired

The final meeting of the fall session of the County Council met this morning at ten o'clock to receive reports from committees.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Besides recommending the payment of accounts, the Finance Committee recommended that the matter of making a grant to the G.W.V.A. be left over to the 1920 council. This report was adopted and a by-law authorizing the expenditures passed.

Roards and Bridges

The report of the Committee on Roads and Bridges was adopted, and a by-law to execute the same passed.

Committee recommended that Girven's Bridge be repaired, and that Birchall's Bridge be closed for traffic and notices to the effect posted at each end of the Concession.

It also recommended that Councillors Nicholls, Shaw, Clarke, Anderson, Brown and Warden McIntosh be a committee to meet the Victoria County Committee on the question of reaching a settlement concerning the Kinmount Bridge. They were given authority to appoint arbitrators for this county, if arbitration should become necessary.

A committee was appointed to meet a commttee from Hastings County, concerning the Deer River Bridge, with power to act.

The North Squaw River Bridge will be repaired.

Good Bridges

Councillor Squires here assured Council that the people of Norwood appreciated the bridge which had been constructed in that village. "They consider it a credit to the county," stated Councillor Squires.

The Warden stated that he had heard praise from all directions regarding the bridges, which had been built during the last two years. They have been built for permanency, and much care was taken to make them strong.

A motion was passed that the whole council be a committee to act in conjunction with the County of Victoria and the City of Peterborough to wait upon the Dominion Government regarding the rebuilding of the Pidgeon Creek Bridge. The Council is very anxious to have this matter attended to and consider the Government should pay its cost, as the former bridge was destroyed when the water was raised by the Dominion Government.

High County Constable

A by-law was passed appointing Archie R. Moore High County Constable. His salary will be $300 per annum.

Before Council adjourned Warden McIntosh thanked the councillors for their co-operation and spirit of courtesy, good will and good fellowship. He hoped they would all return next year to carry on the business of the county.

GERMANS DEFYING PEACE COUNCIL

REPUDIATES RESPONSIBILITY FOR SINKING OF WARSHIPS AT SCAPA FLOW

Paris, Nov. 29.— The German delegationtoday delivered two notes to Paul Dutasta, Secretary of the Peace Conference. One relates to the replacement of German warships sunk by their crews in Scapa Flow, and the other to the repatriation of German prisoners.

Berlin, Nov. 28.— It is stated in authoritative quarters here that Germany will not comply with the demand of the Entente for 400,000 tons of docks, dredges and tugs as an offset to the German warships sunk at Scapa Flow.

It was indicated that Germany would stand pat on her proposition to refer the dispute to The Hague tribunal. It is claimed that Germany should not be held responsible for the acts of the marine forces at Scapa Flow.

WILL ADJOURN TODAY

One Question Remains Before Labor Conference for Action.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Adjournment of the International Labor Conference was set for today.

Only one convention, that providing for leave of absence for women at child birth, remained for action when the conference met this morning.

BITUMINOUS COAL OPERATORS READY TO RE-OPEN THEIR MINES

Troops Ready to Protect all Miners Willing to Resume Work—Men Assured of 14 Percent Increase.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Nov. 29.—The battle ground of the conflict over a new wage scale in bituminous coal industry, which has centered here during two weeks of fruitless negotiations, today shifted to various fields in all sections of the country.

Operators Will Pay.

Operators returning here to attempt to re-open their mines and are ready to pay the 14 per cent wage advance suggested by Fuel Administrator Garfield, received assurance from the Government that troops were ready to protect from violence any miners wishing to return to work.

Federal District Attorneys having been instructed relative to proceeding against either operators or miners restricting the output of coal, the Department of Justice simply awaits developments.

MORE PEACE WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

ESTHONIAN GOVERNMENT WILL SIGN PACT WITH REDS DEC. 2.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Nov. 29.— The Esthonian Government has announced that peace negotiations with Soviet Russia will be begun at Dorpat on Tuesday next, Dec. 2. Soviet delegates, it is stated, will cross the front in the neighborhood of Pskov.

NEW YORK STOCKS DECLINE AGAIN

GENERAL MOTORS, COPPERS, EQUIPMENTS AND SHIPPING DROP THIS MORNING.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Nov 29.—The weekend session of the stock exchange opened with further heavy offerings of shares which contributed mainly to reversals of the last few days. General Motors add to yesterday's severe decline and crucible lost a point. Other motors and steel issues, also oils, coppers, equipments and shippings were one to two and a half points lower.

BANK OF ENGLAND REPORT

Reserve Drops While Circulation Shows Corresponding Increase

London, Nov. 28. — The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:

Total reserve, decreased £1,081,000; circulation, increased £1,018,000; bullion, decreased £63,175; other securities, decreased £736,000; public deposits, decreased £3,960,000; other deposits increased £5,665,000; notes reserve, decreased £1,010,000; Government securities, increased £3,545,000.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 16.34 per cent.; last week it was 17.49 per cent.

Rate of discount 6 per cent

DELEGATES TO BE RECEIVED BY DRURY

HYDRO-ELECTRIC AND MUNICIPAL RAILWAY ASSOCIATIONS WANT MEMBER ON COMMISSION

The following message has been received by Ald. John Edgar dated from Guelph:

"Kindly notify your district (Trent Valley) that Premier Drury will receive a deputation at the Parliament buildings, Toronto, Dec. 12, at 11 a.m."

This deputation is in connection with the effort of the Hydro-electric Railway Association and Municipal Railway Association to gain representation on the Hydro-electric Commission.

The object of the deputation that will wait upon the Premier on Dec. 12 is to induce him to grant to these bodies the right to endorse a man for the Hydro-electric Commission.

HUSBAND OF WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN HER BURNED HOME FACES MURDER CHARGE

Body Found on Floor Partly Beneath a Davenport-Bed Blood-Soaked Bed Clothing Discovered.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—Further investigation into the finding of the partially burned remains of Fannie Maud Coppen, aged 33, in a burning lean-to room at the rear of 573 Merton Street, Toronto, yesterday, has led to the arrest of the woman's husband, George James Coppen, on the charge of murder. His mother by adoption, Mary Jane Coppen, and sister, Mary J. Coppen are also held as material witnesses.

The firemen were summoned to the scene at 12.40 and found the rear of the house a mass of flames. Upon their arrival they found the husband fully dressed on the street, but was not until some minutes later that the firement having been told of a woman being in the building were able to reach the body, which was found partly under a davenport, the lower part of the body covered with a mattress.

Husband Arrested

Under the direction of District Chief Gunn Coppen was watched until the police came to investigate. Central Office Detective Sergeants Nursey and Mitchell took him into custody on a charge of vagrancy. This was changed to one of murder.

According to Morality Department officials Coppen was to have faced a charge of nonsupport yesterday morning as the outcome of several weeks of temporizing with that department.

The Coppens had not been agreeing for some time. She lived in a room built on the rear of the house. On October 28 she came with a neighbor, stating that she and her husband and child had been living with his parents. She did not, however, ocupy the same apartment as her husband. Mrs. Coppen stated that she supported herself, working at the Military Hospital on Christie street. Her husband had undertaken the care of a sister's child.

As the result of a meeting of Coppen and his wife he undertook to provide for both children and provide fuel for her apartment, but did not carry out his agreement in allowing her to see her child. A solicitor's letter on behalf of Coppen stated that her working hours did not permit her seeing her child. To straighten out matters a charge of non-support was laid, ill health preventing her from working.

Finding the Body

Capt. Arthur Everet of Balmoral Hall, found Mrs. Coppen. She was covered with a mattress. Only her head was shown, lying on the floor, partly under a davenport bed, on which she had slept.

The remains were burned beyond recognition.

Her head and shoulders were burned almost to a crisp, and her skull showing every evidence of having been beaten in with some blunt instrument which removed part of the skull.

Blood-Stained Clothing

Searching the premises Detective-Sergeants Croome and Elliott discovered blood-soaked bed-clothing in the room where the body was found, also a broken iron stove-shaker, which had hen some sixteen inches in length. There was no blood on the latter.

The house of 573 Merton street stands alone, and is entirely built of wood. It was originally a one-storey structure with a verandah and front door only.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.

THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain; $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1852, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.

U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowdes, Chicago.

TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 486
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.

THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1919.

AIDING EMIGRANTS TO CANADA.

GENERAL BOOTH, in England, has announced a new undertaking on the part of the Salvation Army with regard to the emigration of ex-service men and ex-service women and their dependents. The Salvation Army Migration and Colonization Department in London has received many inquiries about the Government scheme of free passages, and its officials have found that the failure of the Government plan to provide for the railway travelling expenses of intending settlers after their arrival overseas is a serious hardship in very many cases. General Booth, who interested himself deeply in this matter, has now secured funds which will be used in paying the railway expenses of men and women approved under the Government scheme who otherwise would have difficulty in finding the money.

Commissioner Lamb, the director of the Army's migration department, points out that under the Government scheme third-class passages to the nearest port convenient to their destination are granted to ex-service men and ex-service women who are approved by the overseas authorities. Railway travelling in England to the port of embarkation is also free; but the Government leaves the settler to find his or her own railway travelling expenses on the other side, no matter how far inland the destination may be.

Thus under the scheme, a person travelling to Quebec or Montreal would be practically provided for, but a man going to Alberta, some two thousand miles further [illegible] accompanied by his wife and several children. The same conditions, of course, apply to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. General Booth's idea is to help persons who find themselves placed in this position.

FENCING THE CHILDREN.

WHEN THE LUSITANIA was sinking it is related that Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt called out, "Let us save the kiddies." That cry rings out around the whole world today. The centre of gravity is shifting from adult to child, and we are beginning to realize that a nobler citizenship, physically and morally, must begin with and in the child. The juvenile court, the time energy and money spent on education; the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A.—all show increased attention. It is being realised as never before that it is easier, saner, and much more effective to mould the child during the susceptible years of development than to wait until maturity, and plan to change the character. Which is more reasonable, to station an ambulance with doctors and nurses at the foot of a dangerous cliff, or to build a fence to prevent the children from falling?

The Christian Church and Sunday School are building the fence. Yet there are large areas in Canada where no Sunday school exists. To meet the need is one of the objects of the United National Campaign.

BATTLESHIP AND CRUISER.

GREAT MYSTERY has been attached to the characteristics of the British dreadnought Hood, laid down since the outbreak of the war, and public rumor has contributed so much to the spread of the unrevealed data that something in the nature of a revolution in type has been expected. The publication of the news has dissipated the mystery, and the newest vessel of the fleet apparently illustrates at the most a fairly successful attempt at combining in one unit the best qualities of the battle-cruiser and the battleship which the least sacrifice of essentials. This is, of course, a desideratum strenuously upheld and long sought by one school of experts, and as vigorously denied as possible by another. As always maintained, however, the combination of extremely high speed, large armament and good armor protection has been realized, but at the cost of a hugh increase in displacement and an almost prohibitive financial outlay.

In other directions greater under-water - protection has been gained by the application of those outside "bulges" or "blisters" first applied during the war to some old cruisers and monitors serving in the Eastern Mediterranean. The Chief Constructor of the British Navy the inventor of the external under-water framework declares that this has, with modifications, been fitted to the Hood, and that important augmentations of defence against torpedo attack are hoped for. Nothing is known of the addition of heavier horizontal armor to the decks as a protection against aerial assault, but the Hood was well under way before the controversy over surface battle types and submersible cruisers had reached the acute stage on paper that is now occupying naval minds. It is doubtful, therefore, that this has been considered in her construction.

Intelligent comparison between the Hood and similar types in other navies cannot be instituted, for, like snakes in Ireland, there are none. The latest battle-cruisers known are those building in Japan and those proposed for the United States, for ... have lacked these essentials hitherto deemed necessary for the rounded fleet. Beyond the facts that the Japanese Nagato and Matsu have a displacement of 35,000 tons, a speed of thirty knots, and a battery of ten 15-inch guns, little is known, though on these data they are assumed to be battle-cruisers. The American battle-cruisers, says the New York Herald, authorized in 1916, but wisely enough, owing to immediate necessities, not laid down, were intended to have a displacement of 35,000 tons, a speed of thirty-five knots, and a battery of eight 16-inch guns. Although this shows a superiority of four knots and a more effective main battery than that of the Hood, changes in the direction of increased displacement, heavier battery and better protection have been ordered, and when, or rather if, those battle-cruisers are completed, they will undoubtedly be more powerful ships than their British contemporary. Finally, some appreciation of what the Hood's displacement of 41,200 tons means may be reached, especially by those who have seen the Renown—the great cruiser that brought the Prince of Wales to this country—when it is set down that her displacement of 26,500 tons is only about five-eighths that of the new battleship-cruiser.

AND WHY NOT?

"IF MY SON wants to be a musician by profession, why should not the High school fit him for that, just as much as it would prepare him for medicine, teaching, law, engineering, or the ministry?" said a gentleman to the writer not long since. And this party, being a taxpayer, is entitled to an answer to his question.

Statistics show that music performance and teaching run high among the vocations in our country. Indeed a study of these statistics would offer many surprises to those who little realize the large share that music takes in our national life. Our school course ought to begin to recognize the fact that a student who expects to become a musician has as much right to preparation in his vocation as has a student who expects to become a lawyer, a doctor, an engineer, a chemist or a clerk. To this end well organized courses of music are being introduced into American schools preparing directly for professional music schools, and children, at public expense and with High school and Public school credit are being trained for their future profession of music. This notable advance in our attitude toward music as an essential part of national and community life, argues well for the growth of music along the finest and at the same time sanest lines of progress.

BOTANY IN THE SCHOOLS.

IN SCHOOLS where botany or allied subjects are studied it is usually the custom to study wild plants. Such plants possess striking flowers with clearly defined parts and are well suited to a botanical examination. Plants like the oats, on the other hand, are seldom studied either from a botanical or biological standpoint. One of the purposes of the new pamphlet, "A Guide in the Study and Improvement of Plants and Seeds," prepared by the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, and obtainable free upon application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, is to encourage a greater interest in this important plant. The fact that different oat plants taken from a field may differ very considerably in practical value, and may mark the starting point of new and superior races [illegible] tage in a most interesting and promising line of investigation. Such a study in rural schools, moreover, should help to arouse a new interest in farming and in farm life by demonstrating, among other things, that more profitable varieties are often obtainable right at our doors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

(By Emmeline Stuart Godfrey, Ottawa.)

He came as the sunlight after the rain,
On war-weary hearts to shine—
Saxon, Norman, Plantagenet, Dane,
Our Prince of the Royal line.

He is Prince Charming, as everyone knows
Who has seen that witching smile;
From crown of his head to tip of his toes
A lad from the sea-girt isle.

With the kingly thought and the silvery tongue
And the eyes of the bluest blue,
Prince David is fearless, handsome and young
And his heart is leal and true.

Active and lithe as a young acrobat,
Endued with a courtly grace,
Our Prince is a dignified democrat—
Liege-lord of the free-born race.

Canada waves, in her mantle of snow,
God-speed as his vessel sails;
"Mizpah," she whispers, "you've promised, you know,
To come again, Prince of Wales."

OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP.

(Exchange.)

British South Africa now has 4,185 miles of railway, all but 499 of which are government owned. The government railroads operate motor trucks to collect and deliver goods for shipment.

WHO IS GETTING IT?

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Scottish distillers assert that they are sending more whiskey to Canada than before the days of prohibition. In that case, some must be getting much more than is good for them.

IN THE MIDST OF PLENTY.

(Calgary Herald.)

Publication of the fact that there are ill-nourished school children in Calgary is not going to make it any easier to meet that bad condition. If relief is needed there are plenty of organized relief association in operation to meet the situation quietly and without unnecessary and undesirable advertising. With the craze for publicity unchecked, first thing we know someone will be demanding the names and addresses of the ill-nourished.

THE OLD CLOCK.

(London Chronicle.)

He stands in the hall, such a steady, respectable, comfortable-looking old fellow, that our visitors all fall in love with him at first sight.

In these days of fussy little alarm clocks, rushing ahead in a breakneck, "don't-stop-me-for-goodness-sake" sort of way, our old friend comes as a reminder of more spacious, leisurely times. He beats out the seconds in a measured, solemn fashion, refusing to be hurried, and yet getting along no less surely and certainly in a more reliable manner than any of our flighty youngsters.

The old Scottish clockmaker whose name stands on the dial truly builded well. From that timeless shore of bliss, to which we hope he has gone, perhaps he views with satisfaction the creature of his hands, still telling off the little minutes and hours by which we mortals order our lives.

In the dead of night, when the house is still, after the fashion of the day, the "tick, tick" of the old clock is a mighty comfortable thing. His voice always seems to be saying, "I'm here—don't fear," and I verily believe he has a kindly care over us during the hours of darkness.

CHINESE BUILDING OWN SHIPS

After forty-four years of steam navigation in China, the shipping is still largely owned and controlled by foreign interests. In 1917 there were eighty-seven steamships engaged in Chinese coastwise trade, only twenty-seven of which were Chinese owned; and in March of the same year 1,077 vessels of all types, aggregating 76,425 tons, were plying on inland waters, only one-fifth of which were Chinese owned.

It is natural, therefore, that in attempting to put the country on a self-sustaining basis, the Chinese should regard shipbuilding and ship owning as important factors. The remarkable accomplishments which have marked the past few years in Chinese shipbuilding have more than reflected the universal interest in this industry because of war conditions and have registered a certain declaration of independence on the part of Chinese merchants.

The total number of ships, foreign and coastwise entering and clearing in 1917 was 213,473, handling a total tonnage of 86,907,049. Of the vessels engaged in the coasting trade during 1917 49,310 were Chinese, 12,947 British, 3,333 Japanese, 1,118 American, 1,206 Russian and 556 other nationalities. The advantage these figures show for Chinese shipping is more apparent than real. Only a small number of the vessels under Chinese ownership are of more than 600 tons, and there are only twenty-seven that can be classed as steamships.

Owing to inadequate railroad facilities, any serious decrease in shipping tonnage engaged in coasting trade restricts the inland commerce of the country; thus when the total foreign and coastwise tonnage entered and cleared drops from 30,563,005 tons in 1914 to 86,907,049 tons in 1917 the effect is serious.

Present Equipment Slight.

The two leading Chinese shipping companies are the China Merchant Navigation Company, and the Ningpo-Shaohsing Steam Navigation Company. The former, established in 1873, has co-operated with the Government since 1892, and has also worked hand in hand with the leading foreign shipping concerns.

The Ningshoa Steamship Company has two vesels of 1,300 and 999 tons respectively, which ply between Ningpo and Shanghai, and up the Yangtse River to Hankow. Two companies, the Yuen On and the Shiu On, maintain a ferry service between Hongkong and Canton; the Szechuan Steam Navigation Company operates two steamboats on the upper Yangtse Rapids and the three other small steamboats, owned by Chinese companies, also operate on this waterway.

In addition to the above, motorboat service is maintained on the Kueikiang River in South China, with an extension on the West River, despite the difficulties of navigation at some seasons of low water. These boats are of about 60 tons and burn liquid fuel.

The oldest and largest shipbuilding concern in China, the Kiangnan Dock and Engineering Works at Shanghai, is controlled by the Naval Board of the Pekin Government. Originally designed as a navy yard for repairs to foreign built Chinese warships, it was placed at the disposal of the United States Government in July, 1918. Arrangements were then made for the construction of four 10,000 ton ocean steamships and an option was given for eight more of the same capacity, the steel being shipped from the United States and all other material being supplied in China. At the same time the British Government contracted with the Hongkong & Whampoo Dock Company, Ltd., for six standard steel ships, one of 5,000 tons and five of 8,000 tons each, four of which are to be constructed with American steel. The new engineering and shipbuilding works at Shanghai, which has a capacity for six ships of 5,000 tons, is also building two ocean going vessels of 2,000 tons each, and the Shanghai Dock & Engineering Company, a British concern with five ways, has undertaken the construction of five standardized ships of 5,000 tons.

Native Construction Predicted.

Whereas the steel for the first ocean-going ships to be constructed in China has necessarily been imported, it is predicted that in the near future China, possessing all the necessary raw materials in abundance, will be able to construct and equip oceangoing vessels entirely of domestic materials. There is also abundant timber for wooden ship construction, and the many small yards capable of turning out one or two vessels up to 600 tons each will not suffer from a shortage of the necessary materials. Eighty million feet of timber are imported annually into Shanghai alone, and a like amount was in storage there in 1917.

It is estimated that there are 306 first class Chinese ship carpenters in Shanghai capable of working from drawings and 600 good helpers who can, with suitable supervision, produce work equal to American or European workmen. Although working more slowly, they are quick to adapt themselves to modern tools and machinery.

There is little doubt that the war incentive to Cinese shipbuilding will witness a replacement of the old and slow vessels with never and faster types. It may even lead to the creation of a large seagoing fleet of Chinese vessels. The war has awakened China to its capabilities as a ship builder, and experience has shown China the advantages of being a ship owner. With the proper encouragement the shipping industry there may prove itself the harbinger of industrial awakening and the forerunner of economic independence.

POOR THIN BLOOD BRINGS INDIGESTION

MAKE THE BLOOD RICH AND RED BY USING DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Thin-blooded people generally have stomach trouble. They seldom recognize the fact that thin blood is the cause of indigestion, but it is. Thin blood, weak, watery blood, is one of the most common causes of stomach trouble. The glands that furnish the digestive fuilds are diminished in their activity, the stomach muscles are weakened and there is a loss of nerve force. In this state nothing will more quickly restore appetite, digestion and a normal nutrition than good, rich, red blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood, making it rich and red, and this enriched blood strengthens weak nerves, stimulates tired muscles, and awakens to normal activity the glands that supply the digestive fluids. The first sign of returning health is an improved appetite and soon the effect of these blood improving pills is felt throughout the whole system. You find that what you eat does not distress you and that you are daily growing stronger and more vigorous. Mr. J. J. Murray, Regent street, Toronto, bears testimony to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. He says:—"During the latter part of 1918 I was a sick man. My stomach seemed simply down and out. Ihad no desire for food, and when I ate it distressed me. I was pale, did not sleep well, naturally got up in the morning feeling grouchy. My wife was worried over my conditions and urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, reminding me of the good they had done our eldest daughter when she was in a somewhat similar condition. I decided to follow her advice and got a supply and here is the story in a nutshell: I have got my appetite back, sleep soundly at night, enjoy my meals and am so gratified with what the pills have done for me that I strongly advise their use for all pale, sick people."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FIRE IN BALTIMORE

Bulidings Formerly Occupied by John Hopkins University Burned

Blatimore, Md., Nov. 28.— The group of buildings formerly occupied by Johns Hopkins University, about a score of other structures, in the square bounded by Howard, Ross, Monument and Eutaw streets, were either destroped or wrecked by fire early today, entailing a loss roughly estimated at $1,000,000.

The blaze started in McCoy Hall of the Johns Hopkins group from an unknown cause. An explosion followed almost instantly, and heavy explosions occurred in the building from time to time. Nine firemen were injured, but none seriously.

Prompt Returns From Shipments

When you ship Grain, Butter, Cheese or Fruit, put through The Merchants Bank a Draft on the buyer. This is the business way of securing prompt and satisfactory settlement.

It saves time and possible loss.

THE MERCHANTS BANK
OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, Manager

It Is A National Duty That All Should SAVE!

Decide how much you can afford to put by every Pay Day. Having determined the amount you can save, resolve that that amount shall be taken FIRST from your Pay and deposit.

OPEN AN ACCOUNT NEXT PAY DAY IN
The Royal Bank Of Canada

AUSTRALIA FACES

(Continued From Page 1)

State Legislatures and in the present Cabinets this condition appeared, but with it there came an effort to retain some form of solidarity in the belief that through this method the fight against Bolshevism might be waged and the soviet invasion crushed.

Sectional Rivalry Develops.

Another of the problems before the premier is the sectional rivalry throughout the country. In this each section puts itself above any other and believes the premier ought to give it attention first. The belief also prevails that the premier will [illegible] to distribute, and each section thinks that it ought to be taken care of first, at least so far as finances and indemnity are concerned.

Of the qualities of Mr. Hughes and his ability as a political leader little need be said. By some in this country he is compared to Abraham Lincoln of the United States, but by others, perhaps with a deeper insight into American affairs, American presidents and American aspirants for leadership, he is pictured as more like William J. Bryan, with undoubtedly a better and stronger fighting spirit. Perhaps no greater compliment was paid to Premier Hughes, and one which shows that he is one of the strong men of the British Empire, in addition to Australia, than that given to him by Premier Lloyd George in England during the days of the war when he said:

"He (Mr. Hughes) understands the British democracy here (England) and beyond the seas. No living man has shown himself to possess so many gifts that make a successful leader for that democracy—courage, pertinacity, foresight, idealism, forceful and eloquent speech, and a great capacity for work. He is one of the men upon whose courage, insight and inspiration the British Empire depends in the greatest hour of trial."

As the British Empire depended upon him to assist in winning the war in its most trying days and critical period, so Australia at the present time, in the trying, critical period of reconstruction, looks to Mr. Hughes to solve her problems.

MICKIE SAYS

I WONDER WHY IT IS THAT A FELLER WHO WINDS HIS WATCH REGLAR EV'RY DAY 'LL LET HIS PAPER RUN CLEAR DOWN AN' STOP, WHEN HE ONLY HAFTA THINK OF IT WUNST A YEAR? I WONDER!
HOW TO GIT RICH
EARLY TO BED
EARLY TO RISE
WORK LIKE (YOU KNOW)
AND ADVERTISE

HISTORIC INN TO BE SOLD

Ancient Landmark at Southwell, England, Offered at Auction.

Southwell, Eng., Nov. 28.—The famous Caracen's Head inn here, in which many American tourists have found entertainment, is to be sold at auction. Its history as a hotel runs back through 500 years.

In its early days the house was called "The King's Arms," King Charles I. stayed at the inn during the civil wars. Charles surrendered himself to the Scottish Commissioners on May 6, 1646, in the coffee room. The bedroom which that monarch used on the night before he gave himself up is still well preserved. Other English kings also stopped at the ancient hotel.

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor)

Put something by for a sunny day!

WHEN the horizon brightens with an opportunity that may lead to your success and prosperity, do not let it find you unready to take it on.

Through lack of capital, many men have been forced to see their opportunities pass—in many cases all that was required was a very small sum to invest.

A few dollars saved each week or month, deposited to your credit in a savings account at The Bank of Toronto, with the interest it earns, will soon accumulate to a substantial sum. Have it ready when the call comes for your venture.

Your savings account is invited.

BANKING HOURS:
GENERAL BANKING HOURS
10.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m.
SATURDAYS:
9.30 a.m. to 12.00 noon
E. J. H. VANSTON, Manager

THE BANK OF TORONTO

BABY FIRST

OUR MILK is RICH and PURE, CLARIFIED and : : PASTEURIZED : :

Our high standard for dairy products is known by thousands who demand our clean, pure and safe Milk.

If you are a mother you consider your baby first above everything.. We believe in "Baby First," too.

Why not insure the health of your baby and your family by ordering our Milk to-day!

PHONE YOUR ORDER.

PETERBORO MILK PRODUCTS LTD.

377. AYLMER ST. Phone 650

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by

MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

SERVING A CUSTOMER AND HOLDING HER TRADE

"It is not necessary to lose a customer just because you have had to sue her to collect a bill," says Morris Wenger, a furrier, of 1229 Walnut street, Philadelphia. "I know this is an unusual view, but we have proved it out in the sixteen years we have been in business. Several of our best and most friendly customers today are women against whom we have been forced to resort to apparently harsh measures of collection."

"A certain woman, whom I shall call Mrs. Jones, a woman of considerable means, owned us a bill of $8700. She had owed us the best part of it for more than four years. You know how those bills grow. The women has no intention of 'beating' you. She fully expects to pay, only she's foolish in managing her money. You ask her for a check. She sends you one in part payment and promises the rest later. Then she comes in and adds more to her bill than she paid. What are you going to do? The extension of reasonable credit is part of your business. She's a good customer and you don't want to offend her.

"Well, finally the bill had run so long and gotten so big that I had to press her for the money. I explained my need of it, called her attention to the fact that we had always been fair with her, and asked her to be fair with us. This went on for some time, but without result. Then I put my foot down, and informed her that we would have to sue. She got very angry, declared she would fight the case to the last ditch, and placed matters in the hands of her lawyer.

"Nothing happened for a couple of weeks. Then I got a letter telling me Mrs. Jones and her husband would come to the store at 6 o'clock Friday night, with the cash.

"Six o'clock Friday I was there. At 6 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jones came in. And Oh, weren't they mad! They fought and fought and fought. I was 'presumptious,' my action was 'unheard of.' I had 'insulted' them, 'the very idea!' and all the rest of it. But I wouldn't make a reduction of one cent.

"In the end I got Mr. Jones calmed down enough to compare my business with his. Then he saw it in a different light.

"'Now don't you think we have been fair to Mrs. Jones, and that she ought to pay this bill in full?' I asked.

"'Why certainly she should,' he said.

"Then they had a little conference aside. She tossed her head a bit, but finally gave in, and fished a great roll of bills out of the bottom of her dress, and counted it out. It was just $8700.

"'Now,' I said, 'we've settled it and I've got every penny that's coming to me, but we've consumed an hour and a half. I haven't had any dinner and you and Mr. Jones haven't had any. I'm expecting Mrs. Wenger over from New York in a few minutes, and I propose that we all go and have dinner together. It's my treat.'

"We did have the dinner, and we opened a couple of bottles of champagne—this was a few years ago, you know." We parted the best of friends, and that woman has bought thousands of dollars worth of furs from me since.

"Yes, it was dramatic. But you have to be an actor in business. It wouldn't have paid me a bit to show how angry I was during that hour and a half squabble."

NEWS VALUE PLUS

Some advertisers seem to need something in the nature of a world-wide cataclysm to see the opportunity to inject news values into their announcements.

Not so with Allentown's (Pa.) most prominent barbor.

Recently one of his windows was broken. Next morning he had tacked a sign on the boards which covered the fracture:

"Broken in the Rush to Get a First-Class Shave."

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

"On the 20th of December last year we tried an experiment, played a hunch that had come to one of our advertising men in the still, small hours of the night," declared G. D. Mathews, of Metherill's, Inc., Syracuse, N.Y., in discussing the type of advertisement which had the best results at Christmas time.

"Previously we had been confining ourselves to line cuts as illustrations for the different lines featured in copy of this nature, but we were seeking for some way in which to make the sweater department stand out from the rest of the display. Of course, it would have been easy to do this by enlarging the space devoted to this section, but we didn't feel that should be done particularly around Christmas when every department head was clamoring for space.

"So we tried an innovation. Instead of a line cut illustrative of the sweaters we took one of the garments, placed it on a good-looking salesgirl, photographed her and ran the illustration in half-tone with not more than ten words about each of the seven lines of sweaters and prices set in heavy blackface type. The sweater announcement occupied about one-tenth of the entire advertisement, but it was the only one where a half-tone was used.

"The next day we had more calls for sweaters than ever before and this department outsold the others almost two to one. Since that time when we want to attract special attention to any single item we don't necessarily enlarge the space — we slip in a photographic illustration."

MILK WAGONS MAKE EXCELLENT STORES

C. Leichtman and his son, Milton, Thirty-seventh Division veteran with a wound stripe, have cashed in with their innovation in retail merchandising through use of old milk wagons as retail stores on wheels.

Leichtman's, who are manufacturers, jobbers and wholesalers in ice cream, candy, cigars and novelties, gave up their retail store in Hazleton, Pa., entirely because the returns from their little traveling wagons were so great it engaged all their time looking after the establishments.

Milk wagons are "passe" now in these enlightened days, but they have room for trays of candy, cigars, novelties — while back of the driver can be placed the ice box with its cans of ice cream. Getting men with some snap and imagination Leichtman's had old milk wagons rebuilt, repainted and fixed up as little stores.

To give the personal note to the establishment, the salesman is listed as the owner on the wagon. He reports mornings at 11 o'clock and is out until 8 or 9 at night. Sundays he works if he wants to. Usually he does, as returns are excellent on that day.

All the towns of the Lehig field for thirty miles around Hazleton are covered daily by this system of traveling stores. Thousands of dollars' worth of candy, ice cream and cigars are sold to both adults and children every day, and Leichtman's staff is kept busy turning out the goods for the salesmen.

The use of small wagons is better than trucks, it is claimed, because the investment placed in the hands of that unknown quantity, the salesman is not so great, in case of careless use of the outfit or of complete disaster.

FEATURES SALES SCHEDULE

Getting up a special sale like a football schedule, with features arranged for every day in the month and announced in advance, is the latest merchandising stunt pulled by the Pelletiers Stores Company, of Topeka, Kan. The sale is an anniversary affair, and comes in the middle of the fall season. In its initial announcement the store printed a schedule of the special sales to be held each day in the month, giving the dates and the department to be featured.

Your Kidneys Sound as a Bell

Whether you are forty or eighty, you need have no trouble from your Kidneys if you use Gin Pills at the first sign of backache, diariness, swollen joints, brick dust deposits, or mucus. All these symptoms show your kidneys are affected.

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

are the sure, quick and safe corrective. They have relieved Kidney Troubles of long standing. Thousands have testified voluntarily to their extraordinary power. Get a box from your druggist or dealer for prevention's sake. 50c with money-back guarantee. Sample free on request.

Address: The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto

U.S. Address: Na-Dru-Co., Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

WEDDING - GIFTS -

in

STERLING SILVERWARE
SILVER PLATEDWARE
(Best Grades)
CUT GLASS
MANTEL CLOCKS

Our Values and Prices are Always Right.

Schneider's

367 George St. Next Turnbull's

WELL SATISFIED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Emile Malette, Montpellier Que., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for some time and am well satisfied with them. They are surely the best medicine I know of for little ones." What Mrs. Malette says thousands of other mothers say. Once they have used the Tablets for their children they would use nothing else. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative; are absolutely free from opiates narcotics or other harmful drugs and may be given to the youngest baby with perfect safety and good results. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Even though he be hard headed, the man who butts against fate is apt to get the worst of it.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEE GARCEAU

82 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

AMEDEE GARCEAU.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa. Ont.

Liberal Use of Manure.

A liberal use of barnyard manure generally is advisable when the soil is rather thin.

Useful Though Unwed.

The modern view is that a woman is not necessarily a failure because her life has been Miss-spent.—Boston Transcript.

Lacemaking in China.

Foreign missionaries in Chefoo Shanghai, Foochow, Amoy and Swatow [illegible] the Chinese women, and considerable lace has been exported from time to time. Silk, linen and cotton thread is used in Chefoo, and linen and cotton in the other places. The lace is made more cheaply than is possible elsewhere because of the low wages paid in China, but a lack of enterprise in changing patterns to meet changing tastes and fashions abroad prevent the industry from assuming larger proportions.

St. Botolph's Town.

Boston or St. Botolph's Town is a seaport in Lincolnshire, England, on the River Witham, and four miles from its mouth, with a wharfage of 2,330 feet. In the days of the Plantagenets it was one of the chief British seaports, but the silting in of the river has been an obstacle to its growth of late years, almost continual dredging being necessary to keep a passage to the sea, even for small vessels. Its church tower, St. Botolph's, is a well known conspicuous landmark, depended upon also by mariners at sea.

Issuing an "Extra" in Bano.

The editor of the Bano Daily News (Africa) does not have to trouble over such matters as circulation or the high cost of paper. When he gets a piece of news, he smooths off some slabs of wood, writes up the story in his best editorial style, and then gives the slabs to his office boy, who runs off with them and hangs them in conspicuous places so that he who runs may read.

Good Taste.

Good taste is the conscience of the mind. Lowell's definition is compact of thought and is worth dwelling upon. Good taste is a trait we all agree in valuing, though its meaning as a rule is rather vaguely felt; we urge its cultivation and admire its exercise but the quality itself is generally less analyzed than desired.—Hartley Alexander.

Floor-Crack Filler.

This is made from one pound of flour rubbed smoothly in a little water. Add three quarts of boiling water and set on stove. Stir in one tablespoonful of powdered alum, together with bits of torn newspapers, and cook until the mass is smooth and thick as putty. Use to fill the gaping cracks between the boards of old floors.

"What's in a Name?"

The French island of Reunion has changed its name four times in 50 years. In 1793 it was Bourbon, as it had been for a century and a half, but the convention changed it to Reunion. Under the empire it became Isle Bonaparte; at the Restoration it reverted to Bourbon. Finally, in 1848, it became Reunion once more.

History and Material Wealth.

It is time we remembered that history does not concern herself about material wealth—that the life-blood of a nation is not that yellow tide which fluctuates in the arteries of trade—that its true revenues are religion, justice, sobriety, magnanimity, and the fair amenities of art.—Lowell.

QUEEN'S HOTEL TORONTO SOLD

RUMOR THAT CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS PURCHASE IS NOT DENIED

Toronto, Nov. 29.—In local railway circles yesterday there were persistent rumors that the Queen's Hotel, that has served the travelling public for the past 71 years, will pass into the hand of the Canadian National Railways. Those who are most interested in the deal are not clear on just what will be done with the building.

Officials of the Canadian National Railways are known to be anxious to have their headquarters transferred from Montreal to Toronto, and the site upon which the hotel now stands would be the most acceptable spot in the city. Others declare that under Grand Trunk management it will become one of the best hotels in Canada. Either proposition would mean that the building would be part of the equipment of the Canadian National Railways. A third proposition is a building for hotel and office purposes.

The price asked for the property is said to be about $800,000. This office buildnig would be erected at a little less than one million dollars.

The hotel property now goes back to Piper street, which gives it an outlet on Bay street on the east, and York street on the west. The owners of the hotel and officials of the railway will not admit anything.

The property has the largest frontage of any hotel property in the city. It is 324 ft. 8 in. along Front st., and has a depth of 185 ft. 6 in. The building does not cover the whole of the land, there being about 100 feet on the east end, which is used as a lawn, and has in the past been utilized for providing extra accommodation in the summer time by the erection of tents. The land is assessed for $275,967, or at $850 a foot, and the building at $90,000, making a total assessment of $365,967.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to flush Kidneys if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

Something to Think About.

"I reckons," said Uncle Eben, "dat a candidate has to be right keerful not to let de handshakin' sociability git to be so much of a habit dat it interferes wif his office work when he gits de job."

New Labor Saver.

An inventor has patented an electrically driven machine which makes the rough clay boxes in which pottery is subjected to heat in kilns, work heretofore done by hand.

One Value of Silence.

Silence doesn't mean wisdom, but the fellow who keeps his mouth closed can at least [illegible]

Have You A Savings Account?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY

437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00

W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LADIES. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont

YOUR FUTURE FORETOLD. Send dime, age, birth date for truthful reliable, convincing trial reading. Hazel Hause, Box 215, Los Angeles, Cal.

CUT THIS OUT FOR LUCK—Send birth date and 10c for wonderful horoscope of your entire life. Prof. Raphael, 94 Grand Central Sta., New York.

LOST.

LOST — FIREMAN'S RUBBER waterproof, duck outside, two linings, rubber inside, was lost responding to an alarm on the 15th, to Lansdowne street. Will finder kindly return same to Firehall?

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED school teacher for School Section No. 5, South Monaghan; duties to commence on January 1. Thos. Donaldson, R. R., Millbrook, Ont.

WANTED — BOY FOR ROUTE on Stewart street, south of Hunter street. Apply at once Review.

JANITOR WANTS CARE OF another furnace. Apply A. Young, Phone 6221.

PAINTER WANTED.

A GOOD AUTOMOBILE AND cariage painter wanted. Apply Box 479 Review, stating wages.

MECHANICS WANTED.

PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work; heat on building; 75c per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.

TO LET.

HOUSE TO RENT — WILL lease 174 Antrim street. Call phone 1949J or Phone 776 for particulars. Immediate possession.

TO LET—FURNISHED BEDROOMS at 560 Water street.

AUTOMOBILE BARGAINS. TWO SPECIAL BARGAINS IN used Ford Touring Cars. DUFFUS GARAGE.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE — A NICE BRICK house, in good locality, for $1,700. Apply H. P. Lindsay.

FOR SALE—ONE CUTTER, practically new, also a few good hens. Apply 494 Weller street, Phone 579J.

FOR SALE — ONE WORK horse, 7-year-old, sound. Apply 98 Stewart street, or phone 1716J.

AUTOMOBILES, TRUCKS, Etc. McLaughlin Touring, 4 cyl.; $600 McLaughlin Touring, 6 cyl.; $250 Ford Touring; $600 Ton Truck, good order; $550 Ford Roadster, 1917, with starter. DUFFUS GARAGE, Phone 1760.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked "till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYTHING at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc. and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m.; 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edn., M.R.C.S. Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8 p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, George Street. 'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 395 George St.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OF CANADA

Reports from employers to the Dominion Headquarters of the Employment Service of Canada, Department of Labour, indicate that the employment situation was less satisfactory during the week ending November 8th, than during the preceeding weeks, heavy decreases having been registered.

Week Ending November 8th.

Reurns for the week ending November 8th, were tabulated from the reports of 4915 firms, a still larger number than hitherto, of which firms 2222were in Ontario, 1158 in Quebec, 459 in Maritime Provinces, 735 in the Prairie Provinces and 341 in British Columbia. These firms reported 695, 467 employees on their combined payrolls as compared with 700,067 during the preceeding week, an increase of 4600 persons, or, seven per cent. An anticipated increase of 1352 persons or two per cent for the week ending November 15th, partly compensated for the decrease during the week in question, however.

Week Ending November 1st.

Returns for the week ending November 1st. were tabulated from the reports of 4631 firms with 666,139 persons on payroll, which firms had increased their staffs by 1060 persons, or two per cent. A decrease of 1531 persons or two per cent was anticipated for the week ending November the 8th., which anticipation the actual figures for that week shows to have been more than registered.

Plus Industries

The plus industries—those that reported net increases in the number of persons employed—were: Commercial and mercantile with an increase of 5 per cent; lumbering 3 per cent; chemicals 2 per cent; leather and leather goods, 1 per cent; metals 1.2 per cent; pulp, paper and printing 1.1 per cent; textiles 1 per cent; woodworking 4 per cent; quarrying and mining 1.0 per cent and railway operation 7 per cent. Of these groups the increase in lumbering was especially noticeable, this group having reported decreases during the preceeding weeks. The increase in metals; quarrying and mining; textiles; commercial and mercantile and pulp, paper and printing, which have been reported during the preceeding weeks were maintained and enlarged upon. With the exception of pulp, paper and printing and railyway operation, all groups anticipated substantial increases during the week ending November 15th. Those groups, however, anticipated nominal decreases only.

Minus Industries

The minus industries—those that registered net decreases in the number of persons employed,—were building and construction with a decrease of 1.5 per cent; clay, glass and stone products 2.2 per cent food, drink and tobacco, 5 per cent vehicles 3.5 per cent; railway construction 10.7 per cent and miscellaneous, 1 per cent. It is thus noticeable that the decrease registered during the week was largely accounted for by the decreases in vehicles and in railway construction the decrease in the latter group having been wide spread over all the railways and over practically all provinces. Vehicles and railway construction anticipated further decreases during the week ending November 15th, but all other groups anticipated slightly compensating increases at least.

Maritime Provinces

Summarizing the returns by districts the Maritime Province returns show an increase of 435 persons or 8 per cent to have been registered in those provinces and a further increase of 216 persons or .4 per cent to have been anticipated for the week ending November 15th. With the exception of quarrying and mining and metals, the increases were shared by practically all groups, lumbering having made a substantial gain of 5.2 per cent. Vehicles, food, drink chemicals and textiles made substantial increases as well, while the other changes were not so large. Quarrying and mining registered a decrease of 6 per cent and metals 5 per cent, the decrease in the latter of these groups having been anticipated in the returns for the preceeding week. Practically all groups anticipated increases during the week ending November 15th.

Ontario

Ontario firms reported a nominal decrease of 137 persons during the week ending November 8th, but anticipated an increase of 1083 persons or 4 per cent during the week ending November 15th. Substantial gains were registered in metals with an increase of 1.6 per cent; pulp, paper and printing 2.7 per cent; lumbering 4.6 per cent; railway operation 1.4 per cent; commercial and mrcantile 9 per cent, while lesser gains were registered in chemicals; leather and leather goods, textiles, woodworking and, quarrying and mining. These increases were offset, however, by the very substantial decrease registered in railway construction and the lesser decreases in building and construction; clay, glass and stone products; food, drink and tobacco; vehicles and miscellaneous. Practically all groups anticipated increases for th eweek ending November 15th.

Queec

Quebec firms reported a decrease of 717 persons or 4 per cent during the week ending November 8th, but increase of 617 persons or 3 per cent during the week ending November 15th. Substantial increases were registered in metals with a gain of 1.4 per cent and quarrying and mining 4.6 per cent, while lesser gains were reported in woodworking, railway construction and miscellaneous. All other groups reported decreases, food drink and tobacco; lumbering and drink and tobacco, lumbering and railway operation having decreased their staffs to the greatest extent. Decreases were anticipated in lumbering metals, vehicles and railway operation, but all other groups anticipated increases or nominal changes only.

Prairie Provinces

Returns for the Prairie Provinces show a decrease of 165 persons or per cent to have been registered here, while a further decrease of 5 persons or 1 per cent was anticipated for the week ending November 15th. Increases were registered in most groups, however, the decreases in the combined returns being accounted for by the heavy reductions in railway construction. Building and construction; clay, glass and stone products, metals and miscellaneous were the only other groups to register decreases. The most substantial gains were registered in lumbering with an increase of 19.9 per cent; railway operation 1.4 per cent; qurarying and mining 2.8 per cent; vehicles 1.4 per cent and commercial and mercantile 6 per cent. The anticipated decrease was likewise caused by the anticipated decrease in railway construction, although clay, glass and stone products; food, drink and tobacco; pulp, paper and printing and textiles also expected reductions. Other groups expected gains.

British Columbia

The returns for British Columbia showed a further decrease of 119 persons or 2 per cent to have been registered in that province and a still further decrease of 506 persons or 1.0 per cent to have been anticipated for the week ending November 15th. The only groups which registered increases of any note were quarrying and mining with a gain of 1.1 per cent; food, drink and tobacco 1.6 per cent and railway operation 6 per cent. These increases were offset, however, by the more substantial reductions in vehicles of 3 per cent; railway construction '.6 per cent and the lesser decreases in building and construction chemicals, metals, textiles and pulp, paper and printing. Still further decreases were anticipated in vehicles with anticipated reductions of 7.8 per cent, while practically all groups anticipated lesser decreases. Lumbering quarrying and mining and building constructio were the only groups which expected gains.

GRAY HAIR

DR. TREMAIN'S NATURAL HAIR RESTORATIVE, used as directed, is guaranteed to restore gray hair to its natural color or money refunded. Positively not a dye and non-injurious. Price $1.00. On sale in Peterborough by McDermid & Jury, Druggists.

OUSTED GERMAN CYANIDE

Factory in Niagara Falls Manufactures it More Cheaply.

Vancouver, Nov. 29.—How German-made cyanide was forever displaced from the Canadian and American markets by the Canadian product was explained to the Mining Institute in convention here yesterday by Horace Freeman, discovered of the new formula, and a resident of this city. The production of the plant at Niagara Falls, Ont., for the last six months has been 10,000,000 pounds. One result of this grade of cyanide was that at Cobalt purer gold was produced at cheaper cost.

SOCIAL GATHERING

Next Tuesday evening the monthly social gathering of the South End G. W. V. A. and their friends will be held at St. George's Parish Hall.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

LOOK AT TONGUE! REMOVE POISONS FROM STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

PEACE TREATY MAY BE RESUBMITTED

Washington, Nov 29.—With some Senators returning from their homes for the reconvening of Congress, negotiations are expected to begin tomorrow for handling the Peace Treaty problem at the new session.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the Democratic Leader, will reach the Capital tomorrow morning, and is expected to see President Wilson during the day. So far, there has been no authoritative information as to what the President will say about the treaty in his message to Congress next week, but the general expectation is that he will resubmit it and ask again for ratification.

It has been suggested by some Senators that he might submit also a draft of reservations which he would regard as satisfactory.

CONDEMNED MURDER KILLS DEATH WATCH

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Hamilton, Nov. 29. Running amuck in the corridor of the jail this morning, Paul Kowalski, condemned to death for the murder of Amnot Fremiuk, killed his death watch County Constable J. C. Springstead and seriously injured Turnkeys Auty ex-Sergt. Lawrie and Wm. Berry.

Kowalski was allowed to exercise in the corridor and this morning jumped on Springstead, throttling him tp death, and then hacking his throat with a sharpened spoon. The turkeys ran to assist and sustained severe knife wounds. Auty is dying, and Lawrie is in hospital in a serious condition.

Any Headache
—Sick
—Nervous
—Dyspeptic
—Monthly
Cured by Zutoo

MISS BROWN HAD TO GIVE UP POSITION

WAS IN A BADLY RUN DOWN CONDITION FOR SIX MONTHS —TANLAC RESTORES HER.

"Tanlac has helped me so much that it is a great pleasure to recommend it," said Miss Dorris C. Browne, of 87 Glen Lake Ave., Toronto, Ont.

"I suffered from a nervous breakdown," she continued, "and for six months I was in a dreadful condition. My appetite failed, strength and energy left me and I was so nervous I could hardly keep still. I would have dizzy spells when I would almost faint. My condition was such that I had to give up my position and for several months I couldn't do any work, at all. I could hardly sleep and lost several pounds in weight and became very despondent, for nothing helped me and I was getting worse all the time.

"Hearing so much about Tanlac I decided to try it and before I had finished my second bottle I was feeling so much better that I kept right on taking it and have recovered entirely from the nervous breakdown. My appetite is fine, I sleep like a child and am in better health than I have been in years. I have regained all my lost weight and really feel as well as if I had never been sick at all."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood, by G. Pringle and Son.

NEW SUGAR RATION HALF POUND WEEK

FAMINE IN AMERICA BEFORE FEBRUARY UNLESS CONSUMERS DENY THEMSELVES

ONE QUARTER OF NORMAL

CLOSING OF HOTEL BARS GIVEN AS ONE CAUSE FOR SHORTAGE

New York, Nov. 28.—Prohibition high wages and a higher standard of living are factors which have combined with a comparatively small sugar crop to bring on the most acute sugar famine on record, with an estimated amount of five pounds per capita to supply consumers in the Eastern section of the United States until February 1. The per capita consumption for the first ten months of the present year was in the neighborhood of eight pounds a month.

The irony of the present situation lies in the fact that the refineries under the jurisdiction of the Sugar Equalization Board are working to their utmost capacity, but more than 50 per cent. of the output is immediately exported to Great Britain under a wartime agreement between the Federal Government and the British Royal Commission for the purchase and disposal of last year's Cuban sugar crop.

Indignant protests have been made to the Equalization Board and Arthur Williams, Federal Food Administrator, by men and women, who had been forced to drink unsweetened coffee and eat unsweetened cereals for breakfast at the sight of thousands of bags of sugar being lowered into the holds of steamships in New York harbor for exportation to England. It was useless for the officials to go into details for an agreement made at a time when this country was threatened with a large surplus.

The last of the old Cuban crop, amounting to 62,000 tons, is now en route for the American market, and in addition to this there is about 40,000 tons in the hands of the refiners which shortly will be placed on the market. This represents the normal consumption of the Eastern district for approximately a week. After that is gong there is no more in sight.

Arthur Williams, Food Administrator has set the machinery of his department in operation in an effort to run down possible hoarders. He has requested every wholesaler who has received 50 per cent. of his allocation for November to report to the Sugar Equalization Board. A system of certificates will be devised through which it will be possible to trace every pound of sugar leaving the refiners, and in case of any great discrepancies enable investigators to ascertain exactly what has become of the sugar manufactured. This will prevent hoarding for possible higher prices. Mr. Williams said:

"I am confident that if Food Administrator Palmer does not take control of the situation the price of sugar will go to 25 cents a pound immediately after January 1, when our control over it ends. This will be a calamity."

It was brought to light yesterday that serious difficulty was encountered in obtaining in this city a supply of sugar sufficient for the use of the officers and crew of the British battle cruiser Renon, upon which the Prince of Wales left last week for England. Warehouses were combed and the influence of members of the entertainment committee obtained in order to get a few barrels.

Masters of steamships leaving New York harbor on long cruisers are expecting to have dissatisfied crews to deal with after being a few days out, as many have been forced to sail with only a limited quality of a highly essential foodstuffs. Retails are nearing the end of their supply, according to Charles H. Finan, buyer for the James Butler Company, controlling a string of stores. He said other dealers were in the same position and could offer no suggestions to the public except rigid economy in meeting the situation.

EGGS ARE STILL UP TO 80c

Damp weather had a slight effect upon this morning's local market, but bargaining was brisk in some quarters. More eggs were on sale than have been offered for some time.

The Prices.

Eggs, doz.	.80	to	.80
Butter, lb.	.65	to	.63
Chickens, lb.	.22	to	.25
Apples, pk.	.55	to	.65
Pork, lb.	.26	to	.28

LEFT HORSE UNTIED

One of Stock's bakery drivers paid $3.10 into the city's treasury this morning for leaving his horse unattended and not tied in a public place.

A case of not forcing a small boy to go to school was brought against his parents but was adjourned for one week to give accused an opportunity to fulfill the requirements of the law,

LIBERALS WILL OPPOSE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Toronto, Nov. 29.— Liberals have decided to oppose Hon. Manning Doherty and Hon. W. E. Raney in the coming bye-elections. Other ministers are not likely to be opposed.

FIVE DEATHS FROM FOOTBALL PAST SEASON

DEVELOPMENT OF OPEN STYLE OF PLAY DECREASES FATALITIES IN 1919.

Chicago, Nov. 29.— Football claimed five victims during 1919's season, which practically closed with Thanksgiving Day games, according to a report to the Associated Press today.

The number of deaths, lowest in years, was five less than in 1918, and seven under the toll of two years ago.

New Style of Play

The development of open style of play to supplant dangerous smashing games, is mainly responsible for the decreasing number of fatalities, in the opinion of experts.

REICHSTAG HOUSE PURIFIED

Berlin, Nov. 28.—The Reichstag building has undergone a rigorous renovation and has been pronounced again fit for Parliamentary occupation. The work occupied nine months. In ridding the great gilt domed edifice of all traces of the revolution the largest calibred vacuum cleaners, the most powerful of disinfectants and the deadliest of vermin exterminators were employed.

While in addition to the damage it had undergone the building contained so many unpleasant reminders of the days when civil war was waged in Berlin the National Assembly had a reasonable excuse for prolonging its sojourn in Weimar. But now that disinfectants and vermin exterminators have completed their work such excuse no longer exists

FREED AFTER SERVING 10 YEARS PUNISHMENT

MAN CONVICTED OF NEGLECT IS EMANCIPATED AFTER NEW TRIAL.

A case which deserves much thoughtful consideration is that of Wm. H. Barren, 103 Morgan Street, Bennington. For ten years Mr. Barron suffered the agonies caused by Rheumatism. At times he was bound hand and foot by the grip of Rheumatic pains. On the advice of a friend he stood for a new trial and used T.R.C.'s.

Read what he has to say:—

"I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism for ten years. Have been so bad at times I could not move hand or foot for months. A friend advised me to try Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules, and I have been thankful ever since. They worked wonders for me, and I have never felt any return of the disease."

It is practically impossible to obtain evidence stronger than this testimonial, and a word to the wise is always [illegible]. If you suffer, have a new trial, use T.R.C.'s.

Ask your Druggist or write us for our new [illegible] interesting and costs you nothing [illegible] King West, Toronto). We [illegible]

Sole Agents for Peterboro, Mcdermid & Jury, Prescription Specialists; for Lakefield, Tanner Drug Co., for Havelock, A. C. Denike; for Hastings, T. A. Coughlan; for Campbellford, J. W. [illegible]

PRESENTATION TO REV. MR. McKENZIE

LADIES AID SPRING SURPRISE PARTY ON PASTOR.

The members of the Knox Church Ladies' Aid sprung a very pleasant surprise on Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie, pastor of Knox Church, King street, when they held a surprise party at their home. The evening was enjoyably spent in singing, games and a happy sociable time generally.

Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie were presented with a grandfather's clock. The secretary, Mrs. George Davies, read the address, while Mrs. Thos. Carpenter presented the clock.

Think It Over

Price of Animals and Meats
July, 1914—195·7
July, 1919—389·7
Increased cost 99·1 per cent.

Price of Dairy Products
July, 1914—131·3
July, 1919—286·4
Increased cost 118·1 per cent.

Price of Hides, Leather, Boots and Shoes
July, 1914—173·6
July, 1919—385·3
Increased cost 121·9 per cent.

Price of Building Materials
July, 1914—140·6
July, 1919—298·
Increased cost 111·9 per cent.

Price of Woollens, Cottons, Silks, etc.
July, 1914—132:8
July, 1919—364·3
Increased cost 174·3 per cent.

Average increase in cost of 262 commodities—118·4 per cent.

Price of Ford Touring Car
July, 1914 ---- $590
Oct., 1919 ---- $690
An increase in cost of only 16·9 per cent.

Had Ford prices kept pace with the prices of all these commodities, Ford Touring Cars would now be selling at $1311.57 instead of $690

J. J. DUFFUS, Dealer, Peterboro, Millbrook and Norwood

Don't forget the Battery on your Car This Winter

Unless kept fully charged, the battery may freeze, and frozen batteries are not worth repairing.

Be on the safe side—let us store it for you, under the proper conditions. It only costs a little, but it means that you will get your battery in the Spring in the best possible condition.

GRANT & THORPE

WILLARD SERVICE STATION.

418 GEORGE STREET. TELEPHONE 796

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TO-MORROW

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN

Major the Rev. Canon Davidson, Rector

Rectory: Corner of Brock and Sheridan streets.

First Sunday in Advent.

8.30—Holy Communion.

11 a.m.—Holy Communion and Sermon.

3.00—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

7.00 p.m.—Evening Prayer and Sermon.

Richard J. Devey, Organist and Choirmaster.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH

Rubidge and Sherbrooke

RECTOR:—REV. R. B. GROBB, M.A.

St. Andrew's Day

11 a.m.—Holy Communion.

Preacher—The Rector.

3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

7 p.m.—Evening Prayer.

Preacher—The Rector.

The Women's and Girls' Auxiliary and Forward Movement Literature Committee will join in corporate Communion at the Morning Service.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Rogers Street

Ashburnham—East City

Rev. W. H. White, M.A., Rector

Rectory 344 Rogers Street

Advent Sunday—St. Andrew's Day

8 a.m.—Holy Communion.

11 a.m.—Holy Communion and Sermon.

3 p.m.—Sunday School promotions for the year will be made.

7 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon.

Special corporate Communion of the W. A.

Wednesday, 7.30 p.m. — Bible Study and Prayer.

Mr. Cyril H. Devey, Organist and Choirmaster.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

Rev. Jas. Price, Rector

11 a.m.—Matins and Sermon.

3 p.m.—Sunday School.

7 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon.

Tuesday, 8 p.m.—Monthly social gathering of the south-end G.W.V.A. and friends.

Thursday, 2 p.m.—Ladies' Guild.

Thursday, 8 p.m.—Choir practice.

Friday, 7.30—Boy Scouts

Organist—Miss Beatrice Blake.

Choirmaster—M. H. Lowdon.

ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC

Low Mass, 8 . .

High Mass, 10.30 a.m.

Vespers, 7 p.m., with sermon.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Corner of Rubidge and Brock Streets

Rev. James Rollins, B.A., Minister

Residence—St. Andrew's Manse.

439 Rubidge street.

11 a.m.—Communion.

The Minister will preach.

3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

7 p.m.—Evening Worship.

The Minister will preach.

Evening Music:

Voluntary—"Andante Pastorale" (Terman).

Solo—"God Remembers" (Bond).

Anthem—"God of Our Fathers" (Vincent)—Solo parts, Mr. Farr.

Postlude—"Fanfare in G" (Lemmens).

Miss Helen McLaren, Soloist.

Mr. John Crane, Organist and Choir Master.

Seats Free. Strangers Welcome.

ST. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. Robert Pogue, Minister

The Minister will preach at both Services.

11 a.m.—Morning Worship.

Solo—"My Task"—Mrs. Grant.

Anthem — "Just as I Am" (Bowles).

3 p.m.—The Sabbath School.

The Young Women's Bible Class—Teacher, Rev. R. Pogue.

The Young Men's Class—Teacher, Mr. H. B. Cowan.

7 p.m.—Evening Worship.

Solo—"Jesus is Standing in Pilate's Hall"—Mrs. R. W. Davidson.

Anthem—"Hark! Hark! My Soul" (Shelley—Mrs. A. Perrin, Miss E. Hinchliffe and Choir.

Mr. Frank Tattersall, organist and choir master.

KNOX CHURCH, PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, B.D., Minister

11 a.m.—Morning Service. The Minister.

3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

7 p.m.—Evening Service. The Minister.

Good music at all services.

8 p.m., Wednesday—Prayer meeting.

F. E. Walden, organist and choir leader.

Seats Free. Strangers Welcome

MURRAY ST. BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. R. Webb, Pastor

Residence—544 Aylmer Street

11 a.m.—Rev. D. C. S. Wallace, D.D., of Montreal.

Subject: "Spiritual Preparation for the Forward Movement."

3 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

7 p.m.—Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, D.D.

Ida Sanderson, Organist.

Asa Huycke, Choirmaster.

PARK STREET BAPTIST

Rev. Dougald Brown, Pastor

255 Reid Street

11 a.m.—Morning Service.

3 p.m.—Sunday School.

7 p.m.—Evening Service and the ordinance of Baptism.

The Pastor will preach morning and evening.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST

11 a.m.—The Pastor will preach. Subject: "Fellowship With Christ's Sufferings."

Anthem — "Peace Be Still" (Barnby).

Solo—"No Night There" (Seymour)—Mrs. J. H. Renwick.

3 p.m.—Sunday School.

7 p.m.—The Pastor's subject: "A Crisis in the Career of One of the Greatest Men in History."

Anthem—"The Day is Past and Over" (Marks)—Solo parts, Mrs. J. H. Renwick and Mr. Edward Jones.

Solo—"Shall I be Forgotten" (Johnston)—Miss Myrtle Sucee.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. F. E. Malott, B.A. B.D. Pastor

11 a.m.—Rev. W. B. Caswell, B.A., of Toronto. Mr. Caswell comes with a great message. Hear him.

Anthem—"What Shall I Render" (Parks)—Soloists, Miss LeBarr and Mr. J. Ridyard, Jr.

Soprano solo — Selected — Mrs. King.

3 p.m.—Sunday School and Brotherhood.

7 p.m.—Rev. W. E. Honey, of Keene. The Evening Sermon will be a message for all. Do not miss it.

Anthem—"Still, Still With Thee" (Speaks)—Soloist, Mr. Skitch.

Tenor solo—"The Sun Goes Down" (Jewitt)—Mr. Maurice Park.

Anthem—Selected.

George H. King, Organist and Choirmaster.

Visitors welcome.

MARK STREET METHODIST

Rev. G. E. Ross, Pastor.

10 a.m.—Class Meeting and Junior League.

10 a.m.—Sunday School and Bible Class.

11 a.m.—Morning service.

7 p.m.—Evening service.

Organist and Directress, Miss E. Kemp.

ST. JAMES' METHODIST

Corner Romaine and Aylmer Streets.

Rev. J. F. Chapman, B.A., Pastor.

Parsonage—162 Romaine

Phone—465m

11 a.m.—Rev. E. W. Honey, B.A., will preach.

3 p.m.—Sunday School.

7 p.m.—Rev. W. B. Caswell, B.A., of Toronto, will speak on "The National Campaign."

Monday—Young People's Meeting.

Wednesday, 8 p.m.—prayer meeting.

Thursday—Choir practice.

Friday—Boy Scouts.

A. [illegible] organist and choirmaster.

Cordial invitation is extended to all.

SALVATION ARMY TEMPLE

Simcoe Street

Adjutant and Mrs. Buxton in charge

515 King St. Phone 440w.

7 a.m.—Knee drill.

11 a.m.—Holiness Meeting.

2 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

Those who do not attend any other Sunday School are cordially invited.

3.15 p.m.—Praise Service in Victoria Park.

6.15 p.m.—Open air Hunter and George.

7 p.m.—Salvation meeting.

SALVATION ARMY, BROWNTON

Chamberlain street

Lieut. Chivers in charge.

Sunday, Sept. 14.—Havest Festival Services.

Monday, Sept. 15.—Harvest Fes-

ASSEMBLY HALL

First Floor Old Opera House Building, George Street

Saturday, 8 p.m.—Choir practice

Meetings on Lord's Day:—

3 pm.—Sunday School.

11 a.m.—Breaking of Bread

A hearty welcome to all.

"Christ died for the ungodly."

BETHANY TABERNACLE

459 George Street

Pastor, Rev. A. J. Doner, 535 Aylmer Street

10 a.m.—Sunday School.

Pastor Doner, Supt.

11 a.m.—Preaching.

7 p.m.—Evening Service.

Thursday 8 p.m.—Prayer meeting

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

TRY THIS SIMPLE TEST

Can you read as clearly with your left eye as with your right eye?

SHUT ONE EYE THEN THE OTHER

Doubtless you'll be amazed at the result. If eyes are not alike in strength and focussing power,

YOU NEED GLASSES

and they should be Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" quality. Your eyes are worth the best you can give them.

CONSULTATION FREE.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors

With Nugent Drug Co.

The first locomotive on a French railroad to use oil as fuel made a complete success in its experimental trip.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

PRO-GERMAN SHOOTS PATRIOTIC WORKER

POSSE CATCHES SLAYER NEAR NORWALK, OHIO

Norwalk, Ohio, Nov. 29.—Charles Rehfield has confessed to the murder of Dr. Horace A. Benson, according to the police, because of his patriotic wartime activities. Rerfield is said to have declared he shot Benson with a dumdum bullet through a basement window while the dentist was attending to the furnace in his home at night.

Rehfield, who was captured six miles from here by a posse after an all night search, admitted making a previous attempt to kill Benson Friday night, and that he had planned "to get" Dr. Carl Schneerer, a physician, because he had ben prominent in fighting pro-German propaganda. Rerfield was interned for some time because of seditious utterances and actions.

Dumdum bullets and a rifle were in Rerfield's possesion when he was arrested.

"I could have killed the posse, too, if I had had time," he said.

AN INSIDE BATH MAKES YOU LOOK AND FEEL FRESH

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, declaring this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible [illegible] poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the alimentary canal before eating more food.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who have bilious attacks or constipation should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to show the value of inside bathing.

THE DIVORCE PROBLEM.

Some Figures Indicate Situation In United States.

The United States census will try to make a thoroughly scientific dissection of the divorce problem. It has become alarming in that country.

In 1886 there was one divorce in the United States for every seventeen marriages. In 1906 there was one divorce for every twelve marriages. The record for 1919 will be, it is thought, about one divorce for every ten marriages.

To infer that marriage is a failure nowadays would not be warrantable, but obviously it is not a success in a large percentage of instances.

"Trial marriages?" What is marriage nowadays but an experiment? If it does not succeed, get a divorce and hook up with another mate. This sort of consecutive polygamy has become exceedingly popular. In most instances the main object of the conjugal separation seems to be the acquisition of a fresh husband or wife. Swapping of wives and husbands is especially fashionable in those circles which are supposed to form the "upper crust" of society.

Fifty years ago a divorced person was not considered quite respectable. The removal of the social penalty is doubtless mainly responsible for the increase of divorces.

A few incidental points are worth noting:

Elopements are usually followed by divorce.

When a home is thus broken up, in six cases out of ten there are no children.

Divorces run in families. If a woman is divorced, the chance is large that her daughter will find her own way to the divorce court. Marrying men, take notice!

Life in the theatrical profession is notoriously unfavorable to permanency in marriage. Actors and actresses in traveling about are tempted by exceptional opportunities for obtaining divorces, and even for the practice of interstate polygamy. A whole chapter might be written about the ready ways in which, thanks to the confusion of divorce laws, a man may have half a dozen legal wives in as many states in the republic to the south of us, or a woman half a dozen legal husbands.

A melancholy by-product is a new kind of child—the divorce orphan. He starts out in life with a sort of blot on his escutcheon, and grows up without any normal conception of home and parentage. In the year 1919 no fewer than 100,000 divorce orphans will be added in the United States to the host of them already created by parental disagreements.

"Aren't you very young to choose a husband?" said an elderly woman to a rich man's daughter who was showing her engagement ring.

"Perhaps I am," she replied. "But if I don't like him, papa will get me a divorce, and then I can marry another man."

The Hydro-Electric Power Commission has offered to purchase the Guelph raidial railway for $150,000

Better retrace a wrong step than pursue a wrong course.

Travelling on the Equator

If anybody ever did "speak disrespectfully of the equator," it must have been owing to lack of acquaintance.

The most interesting and instructive of all imaginable journeys would be taken by anybody who should follow the line of no latitude around the world.

As good a place as any to start would be the Galapagos Islands, 600 miles due west of the coast of Equador, to which they belong. This little group (the equator runs through it) is the home of giant land-turtles, which have been known to attain a weight of more than 800 pounds. The islands are peaks of extinct volcanoes emerging above the surface of the sea, and each one has its own peculiar species of huge tortoises, though all are doubtless derived from a single ancestral stock that anciently inhabited the mainland of Ecuador.

Do you know what the name Ecuador ureans? It is Spanish for equator. Never thought of that, did you?

Now for a trip eastward across South America, following the equatorial line, which takes you through northern Ecuador, southern Colombia and northern Brazil. It is a wonderful pilgrimage, mostly through trackless forests intersected by numerous rivers, on the banks of which dwell tribes of extremely naked savages. Practically, the only clothing they wear is donned for ceremonial occasions, and consists chiefly of the brilliant plumage of tropical birds, the metallic-hued wing-covers of certain beetles and necklaces of monkeys' teeth.

One of these tribes preserves the heads of its enemies taken in battle by removing the skull and drying the fleshy envelope thereof over a slow fire. Hot pebbles are put inside, and, as a result, the head is so reduced by shrinkage as to be no bigger than that of a small doll, though the features are perfectly preserved in miniature.

Cannibalism is certainly not uncommon among these tribes, some of which are formidable by reason of the poisoned arrows they use, the points being dipped in a preparation made from the seeds of a plant that yields strychnine. The arrows are discharged with exceedingly accurate marksmanship from blow-guns which are reed tubes six feet long, the projectile wrapped with silk cotton to make it fit the bore.

It was in this region, by the way, that rubber was first seen in use by early travelers, who found it employed by the savages for the making of syringes.

The equator departs from South America directly through the mouth of the Amazon river, in which lies an island as big as Denmark. Crossing the Atlantic ocean, it strikes French Equatorial Africa before passing on through the Belgian Congo.

All of Equatorial Africa is the home of the blackest of black people—cannibals mostly, when opportunity serves. There dwell tribes of the vanishing pigmies. Also, in the western part of that belt, our nearest living relatives on the earth, the gorillas and the chimpanzees.

Pursuing your journey eastward you pass not far from the mighty Congo cataract called Stanley Falls (after the famous explorer), and, about 425 miles further on (having left the Belgian Congo behind), you find yourself on the western shore of one of the world's greatest sheets of fresh water. It is the Victoria Nyanza (the latter word means "lake"), which is the principal source of the Nile.

The equator runs through the lake, and so you must hire a staunch craft to carry you across, for it is a voyage of 150 miles. A veritable fresh-water sea is the Victoria Nyanza, comparable in size to our own Lake Superior.

Arrived on its eastern shore, you will have 125 miles further to go before striking the western slopes of Mount Kenia. Would you enjoy the sensation of traveling through snow on the equatorial line? If so, you may get it right there—supposing that you are a good climber. For Mount Kenia is the second highest mountain in all Africa; perched directly on the equator, its topmost peaks, covered with everlasting snows, reach an elevation of nearly three and a half miles.

When you leave the east coast of Africa, you strike across the Indian Ocean, following the equator, which cuts Sumatra and Borneo in halves. It is in the forests of those great islands that our somewhat less near relatives, the orang-outangs, reside. All of the Malay archipelago (which properly includes the Philippines) might be described as a partly submerged continent, and no great amount of geologic uplift would be required to convert it into a single land mass nearly as big as Australia.

Buying Machine.

In considering the size of machine to buy, careful consideration must be made of the possible tasks to which the machine may be put. With the increasing popularity of small threshing separators for neighborhood use, and the increasing number of silos, a farmer should carefully consider his present and prospective power requirements for these uses as well as the power needed for ploughing.

Horse Shoes.

The art of shoeing horses to protect their hoofs against the evils of hard usage was unknown to the Greeks and Romans and is first mentioned in the history of the Celts as late as the fifth century.

SINCE 1870 SHILOH 30 DROPS STOP COUGHS

CHANGE OF NAME FOR KITCHENER

CITY COUNCIL WILL ASK PEOPLE TO VOTE ON THIS QUESTION

Kitchener, Nov. 29.— While it has been the custom this year of the finance committee of the city council to exclude the press from their meetings it was learned this morning that the committee will recommend that a by-law submitted to the ratepayers at the municipal elections, asking whether they wish to change the change the name of the city.

The by-law which is being prepared by the City Solicitor will come up for its first and second reading next Monday night.

Too Busy for Gratitude.

The quality for which we most frequently criticize the Japanese is one in which, with curious inconsistency, we particularly pride ourselves. That is their determination to be independent. If an American has something to teach a Japanese, the Japanese observes him very carefully while he performs the trick. Then, with a polite "Thank you. Goodby," the Japanese leaves the American and thenceforth performs the trick for himself—with improvements. He is far too busy to sit at anybody's feet in gratitude.

Get All the Rest Possible.

Remember always to relax when no activity is required of you. When you sit down, rest all over — do not choose a rocker and waste your energy propelling it to an invisible destruction; nor tap your fingers on the chairarm, nor finger the buckle at your waist or the chain about your throat; nor tie your feet up in bow-knots, when they should rest easily on the floor. If you think about it you will be amazed to find how much real rest time you have always wasted.

Pulque Trains in Mexico.

Pulque, the national drink of Mexico, is made from the juice of the maguey plant, large tracts of which are cultivated outside the City of Mexico. As a rule there are about eight hundred plants to the acre. The juice is extracted by the peons. It is shipped into town in long trains much like our milk trains here. The white liquid tastes like yeast and the consumption is so great that it is equivalent to two quarts a day for each person.

Windsor spent 2,721.65 in entertaining the Prince of Wales during his visit.

Because of its construction, its beauty, its elasticity, its delicacy and its strength of action, its general excellence and its superior qualities, the

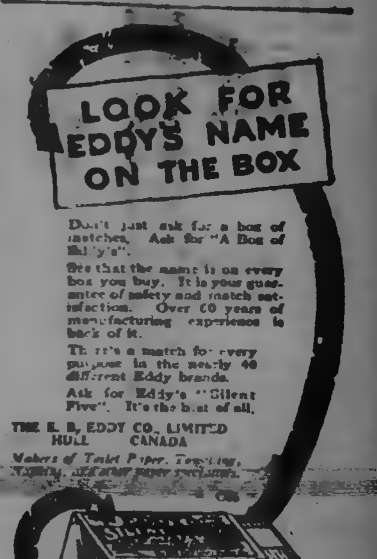
Heintzman & Co. ART PIANO

Has won for itself the leading place among the pianos of the world

— The choice of De Pachmann, Friedheim, Melba, Nordica, and other great artists.—

HEINTZMAN HALL

GEORGE and HUNTER STS., PETERBORO ONTARIO



LOOK FOR EDDY'S NAME ON THE BOX

Don't just ask for a box of matches. Ask for "A Box of Eddy's".

See that the name is on every box you buy. It is your guarantee of safety and match satisfaction. Over 60 years of manufacturing experience is back of it.

There's a match for every purpose in the nearly 40 different Eddy brands.

Ask for Eddy's "Silent Five". It's the best of all.

THE E. B. EDDY CO. LIMITED HULL CANADA

Makers of Toilet Paper, Towelling, Tissue, and other paper specialties.

Viscount Jellicoe and Lady Jellicoe reached Ottawa, and he conferred with Hon. Mr. Ballantyne in the afternoon.

A FIRST CLASS

HOT WATER BOTTLE

AT A LOW PRICE

Regular $2.50 For

$1.79

ON SALE NOW

MONCUR DRUG STORE

407 GEORGE ST.

"LOWEST PRICES ON PATENT MEDICINES."

GREENE'S GRAFONOLA CLUB

The best appreciated offering made this year at the Greene Music Store, is the special club offer that embraces any style of Grafonola. The popular outfit is the one that includes a nice fumed oak Grafonola with handsome Cabinet to match and six selections all for

$49.90

A membership payment of $5.00 puts this outfit in your home, the balance payable in small amounts monthly. Club members may select any other style Grafonola they wish on proportionately easy terms, if the supply can be kept up. The club opened with a push and will continue during the first three weeks of December.

The J. M. Greene Music Co., Ltd.

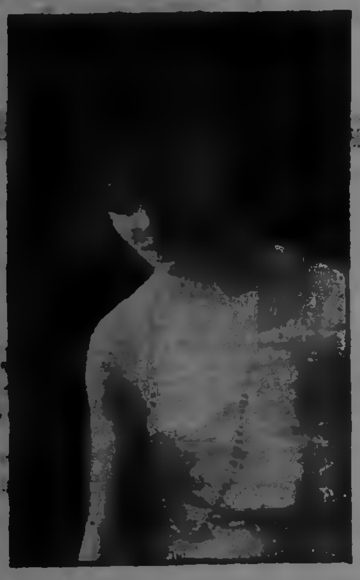
HOME OF THE GRAFONOLA CHARLOTTE STREET

TO-NIGHT! GRAND TO-NIGHT!
THE FAMOUS IRISH SINGING COMEDIAN
BARNEY GILMORE
IN THE GREATEST OF ALL IRISH PLAYS
"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN"
Hear Mr. Gilmore Sing—"I Love You Kate," "In Ireland." "County Tyrone," Etc.
POPULAR MATINEE—50c AND 25c
PRICES Eve. $1-75c-50c-25c. SEATS ON SALE NOW

MONDAY & TUESDAY MATINEE TUESDAY
F. STUART-WHYTE'S
4th ANNUAL PANTOMIME
RED RIDING-HOOD
—JUST ONE BETTER THAN "CINDERELLA"—
PRICES EVENINGS $1.50 $1-75c-50 MATINEE TUESDAY $1-75c-50c-25c Seats On Sale Now

Friday & Saturday, Dec. 5 & 6
POPULAR PRICES—MATINEE SATURDAY
F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest Will Present
THE DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH ACTOR
PERCY HUTCHINSON
And the Entire London Queen's Theatre Company in the Successful London Production
"THE LUCK OF THE NAVY"
BY CLIFFORD MILLS
PRICES—Evening, 50c to $2.00; Matinee, 25c to $1.50
Seat Sale Wednesday at 10 a.m. Mail Orders Now

THEATRICAL



MISS MURIEL MARTIN-HARVEY
With "The Luck of The Navy" at the Grand, Friday and Saturday.

SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM'S MEMENTO MAKE-UP BOX

PERCY HUTCHISON, STAR OF "LUCK OF THE NAVY", HAS MEMENTO FROM HIS UNCLE

Percy Hutchison, star of "The Luck of the Navy," the successful English melodrama, in which he will appear at The Grand Friday and Saturday next, with special matinee on Saturday, is the proud possessor of a very unique souvenir of great historical value. It is a large silver make-up box which for more than twenty years was the property of his late uncle, Sir Charles Wyndham, the famous English actor, who died a little over a year ago. The box is twelve inches long, nine inches wide and six inches deep, and is made of very heavy silver. Upon the top is the inscription: "Presented to Charles Wyndham, Esq., by the staff of the [illegible] commemoration of his 20th year of management, Criterion Theatre, London, May 1st. 1896."

This make-up box, which was carried by Sir Charles Wyndham on all of his travels throughout America, Canada, Australia, India and England, was sent to Mr. Hutchison on July 2 last by Lady Wyndham (Miss Mary Moore), with a note of appreciation and commemoration of the fact that on that day in London Mr. Hutchison assumed the management of the New Theatre, a house which had been identified greatly with the career of the late Sir Charles Wyndham. Lady Wyndham wrote the following note, which Mr. Hutchison showed last week in his dressing-room at the Manhattan Opera House:

43 York Terrace,
Regents Park,
July 12, 1919.

My Dear Percy:

I have found your uncle's make-up box and send it you herewith with my love. I have handed it over to you just as he left it, as I thought you would like it best that way.

Wishing you the best of luck,
Yours affectionately,
MARY WYNDHAM.

Mr. Hutchison values the make-up box so highly that he always has it before him in his dressing-room. The sticks of grease paint and the jars of cold cream inside are just as the late Sir Charles Wyndham left them after he had used them for the last time. Not one stick of grease paint has been disturbed, as Mr. Hutchison wishes to kep the make-up box exactly as when it was used by his distinguished uncle. He uses an ordinary tin box for his own make-up for "The Luck of the Navy."

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY ONLY
WALLACE REID
—IN—
"The Roaring Road"
It's a story of a road that is torn by an inferno of tearing wheels.
112 miles an hour. WOW!
Children's Day—Monday
Charlie Chaplin
In a new version
"THE FLOOR WALKER"
CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE MONDAY
Children's Matinee after School
EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTION
A 7-Reel Masterpiece
"The Westeners"
From the Novel of the same name by Stewart Edward White.

SAN CARLO GRAND OPERA COMPANY

TOURING THIS COUNTRY PRESENT SEASON WITH GILBERT AND SULLIVAN'S OPERAS

Fortune Gallo, impressario of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company and the Gallo English Opera Company, believes in giving young American singers a chance. The Gallo English Opera Company, which is making a tour of the country this season in a revival of Gilbert and Sullivan operas, has recruited the chorus of the latter company from the studios in New York, and it is composed of young singers, many of whom are budding artists with Galli-Curci and John McCormack voices.

The light opera stage offers unusual opportunity for young singers to gain a knowledge of stagecraft, and when it was known that only voice students seeking such experience would be admitted to the chorus the management was overwhelmed with applications. The auditions for chorus at Aeolian Hall, New York, during the past summer have revealed many beautiful voices, and from the singing of those who were fortunate enough to be selected it is very evident that Mr. Gallo has the finest singing chorus ever assembled for ight opera.

MISS ZARA CLINTON
With "Red Riding Hood" at the Grand, Monday and Tuesday. Matinee Tuesday.

BERTINI, GREATEST ITALIAN ACTRESS ROSE FROM THE RANKS OF PEASANTRY

Romance of fact that is even more strange than fiction is revealed in the meteoric career of Bertini, the great Italian actress whose dramatic portrayals on the silver sheet are soon to be shown to American picture-goers as Metro releases. For Bertini's rise possesses all that glamour that Destiny weaves when it suddenly lifts a human being from obscurity to fame. From humble peasant girl she rose to be the greatest actress in Italy and the reigining sensation of Europe—a protege of kings, whose performances have been given in gilded palaces.

Bertini has been devoting her matured art to the silent drama for a little less than four years. In that time she has made about fifty productions. These pictures, produced by the Caesar Film Company of Rome, will be released by Metro Pictures Corporation throughout the United States, beginning very shortly. And under a reciprocal arrangement with the Caesar Film Company Metro plans later to make pictures with the distinguished star under the guidance of an American director using the American camera methods which differ so widely from the European technique.

Bertini first saw the light of day about twenty-seven years ago in a tiny vilage nestling in the outskirts of Naples. Her parents were humble farmer folk. But nurtured in these rustic environments the little Francesca received a heritage and a blessing that wealth could not offer—that of perfect health. Her bodily vigor was supplement by a fresh and artless beauty which many a city-bred girl would have given anything to possess.

While her parents were not oversupplied with the world's goods, they were pious and conscientious, and by making every sacrifice afforded the child a very good education in the village schools— an education which later was improved in Naples at a private conservatory. This, however was in her later, more prosperous days.

When Bertini was seventeen her parents moved into Naples. Their frugality had enabled them to set a little aside, and thus to permit them the more varied life of this big city.

It was here that Bertini's star began to rise. It was here that she again heard the voices—clearer, more distinct. As a matter of fact, the voices crystallized into that of one Jennaro D'Napoli, a celebrated Italian theatrical producer.

D'Napoli was to Italy what Belasco is to America. He was taking an afternoon stroll down one of the boulevards of Naples when his eye was caught and filled by a vision. It was that of a girl of seventeen—tall for her years, darkly imperious, with the red bloom of health in her cheeks and the fire of the true Latin in her lustrous eyes.

Jeannora D'Nauoli halted and addressed her. And Bertini's dream took on the first semblance of reality. The great producer offered her a position in the Theatre Nuova—and she accepted.

Once in the theatre Bertini's rise to fame was rapid. Although she played minor parts at first,! alternating her work in the Theatre Nuova with small roles in the Cines Motion Picture Company, she came at last to be leading woman of D'Napoli's theatre. Here in the finest theatre in Naples she appeared in roles made famous by her illustrious countrywoman, Eleanora Duse, whose logical successor, indeed, it seemed she was inevitably to be.

A few years later Barattola, a wealthy patron of the theatre in Naples, observed Bertini's work, and was so impressed by the histrionic powers of the beautiful and by this time fine woman, that he arranged for her to star for the Caesar Film Company. An enormous success followed the appearance of Bertini on the screen, and her popularity as a film actress of great emotional powers was widespread. About two score of pictures starring the great Italian artiste were then produced, all of which will be distributed by Metro.

W. T. Cochrane will take over the management of the Grand Central Hotel at St. Thomas, as J. M. McColg, the present manager, is resigning.

Minnie Meeks, Stratford, who is charged with causing the death of her baby, was committed for trial at the Spring Assizes.

Brantford G. W. V. A. has taken up the co-operative movement with a view of establishing a depot where veterans can receive supplies.

Got It Printed.

"So, you got your poem printed?" "Yes," replied the author. "I sent the first stanza to the editor of the Correspondence Column with the inquiry, 'Can any one give me the rest of this poem?' Then I sent in the complete poem over another name!"

Practice Cheerfulness.

A sunny, cheerful view of life, resting on truth and fact, co-existing with practical aspiration ever to make things, men and self better than they are—this is the true, healthful poetry of existence.—Robertson.

Really a Cut Price.

Charles had just been vaccinated, and as a reward for his bravery the doctor gave him a quarter. "Thank you for the quarter," said Charles, winking back his tears, "but it was worth a dollar."

ERNEST LAPOINTE.

The Future Leader of Liberal French-Canadians.

When the Liberals went out of office in 1911 Ernest Lapointe, B.A., LL.D., was an obscure member of the back benches, a big, jovial, youthful French-Canadian, scarcely able to read or write, or even to speak in English. To-day he is conceded to be one of the foremost orators in the House of Commons, speaking with weight and authority and standing easily among the first half dozen figures in the Parliamentary life of the nation. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned to Parliament in 1917 Lapointe with a number of other comparatively unknown members moved up to the front benches. Almost at once the House became conscious of the presence of a formidable personality. The shy, unobtrusive, almost diffident French-Canadian suddenly revealed himself as a brilliant political lieutenant, eloquent and aggressive. His speeches, though few, came to be regarded as models of eloquence and lucidity, and though the new House, mostly embittered against Quebec, was little in sympahy with his doctrines, men of all parties paid tribute to his talents and sincerity. To Sir Wilfrid, with his following decimated intellectually as well as numerically, he was as the shadow of a rock in a weary land, and in the last year of his life no voice was more potent in influencing the "Old Chief's" course of action than that of this newly arisen star in the Quebec political firmament.

Since the passing of Laurier, Lapointe's stature has steadily grown greater. At the National Liberal Convention he was an outstanding figure.

Without Lapointe the convention might have turned out a disastrous failure. Smarting under the realization that no Roman Catholic or French-Canadian was eligible for the party leadership, a number of the younger representation from Quebec fought hard to have the French-Canadian delegates withdraw from the convention altogether. The question came to a head on the second day of the convention, when, in a secret caucus of the Quebec representatives, Mr. O. David (now a member of the Quebec Government) made an impassioned protest against the position which French-Canadians occupied in the convention, and formally moved that they withdraw without taking further part in either formulation of a platform or selection of a leader. The situation was a critical one, for, with most of the younger delegates rebellious against Sir Lomer Gouin, and with little experienced leadership to guide them there was danger of the motion being carried. Lapointe, however, saved the day. In a speech of moving eloquence he denounced Mr. David's motion as aiming a mortal blow at the spirit of Confederation, as an insult to the life and work and memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "We are not here as Frenchmen," he said, "but as Liberals and Canadians. Let us then be true to the spirit of our political faith and of our country. Let us be true to the teachings of the great man of our race who for more than half a century toiled unceasingly and not unsuccessfully to bring peace and harmony in this country. Above all, let us not be ingrates to the Protestants of this country who followed Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a French-Canadian and a Roman Catholic, through the storms and stress of nearly forty years." The appeal was irresistible, and when the resolution was put to the caucus only two men out of nearly four hundred stood up to support it.

As an orator he is surpassed by few in the House. Without the grace or the stately charm of a Laurier, and lacking the tempestuous, enrushing eloquence of a Lemieux, he has a powdered, rapiered, analytical style which does not suffer because of the passionate fervor with which he sometimes seeks to convince, and this, added to the fine presence which goes with remarkable physical stature, gives him the essential attributes of oratory. Like Sir Wilfrid, he can on occasion be gay and bantering and epigrammatic, as when on the occasion of his speech at the Liberal Convention he declared that "a Liberal is a Liberal because he loves somebody or something; a Tory is a Tory because he hates something or somebody." But the cast of his mind is serious, and his speaking usually is of the earnest order, often tense with emotion.

Although a hard fighter and an uncompromising opponent of the Government, no man on the Opposition side, with the possible exception of the inimitable Jacques Bureau, is better liked by Unionists; and it is becoming a common sight to see him in the lobbies swapping yarns with and enjoying the friendship of his bitterest political antagonists.

As politicans go, Lapointe is still comparatively young, being on the sunny side of fifty. His future promises to be a great one.

Immigrants Coming to Canada.

Immigration, reduced materially during the war, is increasing again. It is said that more than twice as many immigrants entered this country between April and June as entered during the same months last year. During that time 40,335 prospective citizens entered the Dominion as compared with 19,747 for the same period in 1918. It is claimed that more than half of these arrived from the other side of the border, while 16,377 were from the British Isles. From the countries more foreign as to race the number was only a little more than 3,000. Naturally most of these arrivals are seeking farm homes and have in great measure settled on the prairie lands of the Northwest. So far Canada seems to have recovered its statu as to immigration sooner and in greater degree than they have in the United States. Indeed, there is a question if the outgoing emigrants in the United States have not outnumbered the arriving immigrants for the better part of the last year.

When it is in an adjoining flat an upright piano is a downright nuisance.

A lot of gas is used in pulling teeth—and popping the question.

EMPIRE THEATRE
DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM
Frank Keenan —IN— "The Midnight Stage" | Monroe Salisbury —IN— "The Sundown Trail"
These are both Westerns and the Salisbury is exceptionally good.
COMEDY
Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"
Monday — Tuesday — Wednesday
Alice Joyce —IN— "SPARK DIVINE" | Montague Love —IN— "Through the Toils"
You will remember Alice Joyce in "The Third Degree"—This is her picture next released.
Coming Dec. 4, 5, and 6 — "Little Brother of the Rich" "The Love Cheat" "JOE MARTIN"
Matinee . . 2.15 Children . . 11c Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45 Children . . 16c Adults . . . 27c

"Fighting Dick" Atkins outpointed "Gene" Gannon of Milwaukee in Toronto last night and became the first possessor of the Bickell belt emblematic of the Canadian bantamweight championship.

A woman isn't necessarily shallow because her beauty is only skin deep.

Even the lines of a poor poet are apt to be cast in pleasant places—when he goes fishing.

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.

GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.30 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo New York, Galt, Woodstock, St Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope Montreal and Boston.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS RHEUMATISM
BRIGHT'S DISEASE
THE P

Canada Food Board License No. 8-[illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGESTREET
Bell Phone 930

THE HEART
of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.
186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

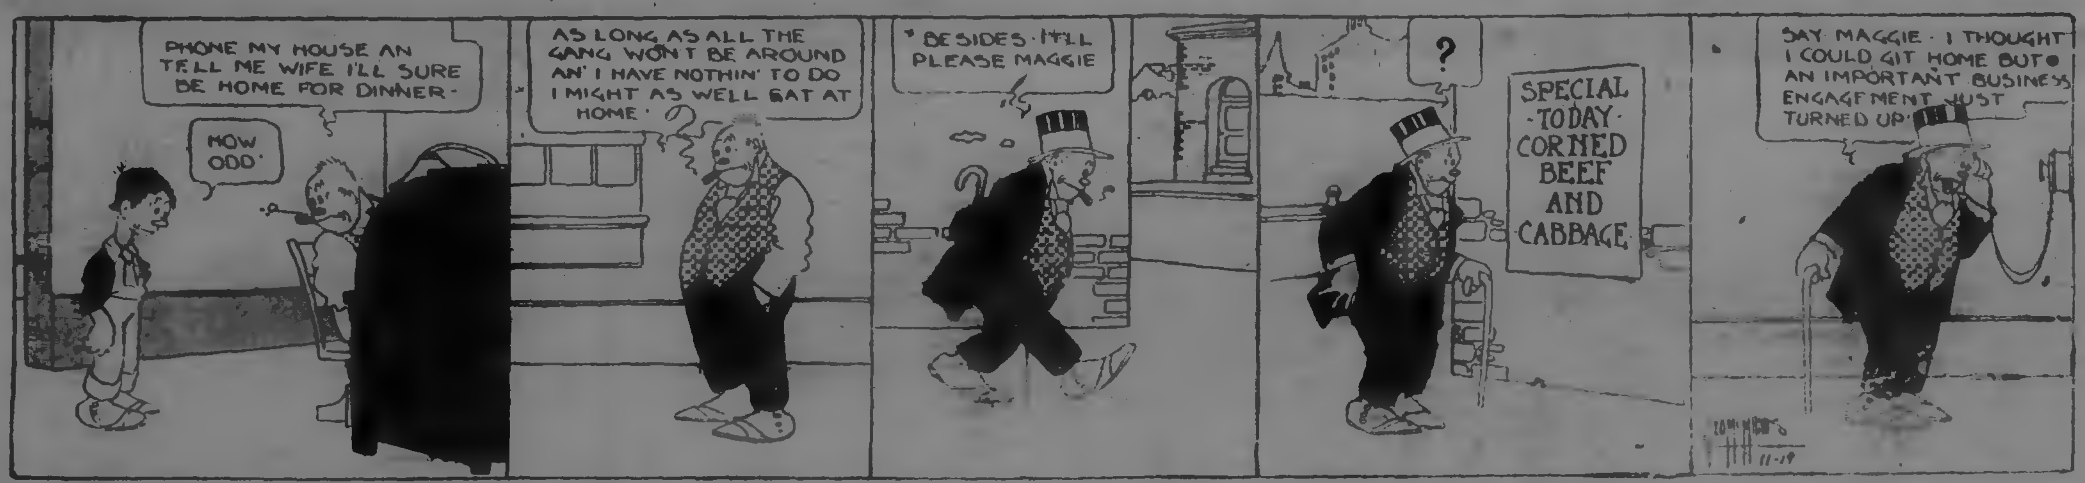
COAL
AND
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-[illegible]

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 200

Bringing up Father

By George McManus



PHONE MY HOUSE AN TELL ME WIFE I'LL SURE BE HOME FOR DINNER-
HOW ODD'
AS LONG AS ALL THE GANG WON'T BE AROUND AN' I HAVE NOTHIN' TO DO I MIGHT AS WELL EAT AT HOME
BESIDES IT'LL PLEASE MAGGIE
?
SPECIAL TODAY CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE
SAY MAGGIE - I THOUGHT I COULD GIT HOME BUT AN IMPORTANT BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT JUST TURNED UP

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

THROUGH TRAIN WITH SLEEPING CARS AND COACHES is now operated from

Toronto and Hamilton To New York and Philadelphia

Via Grand Trunk, Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia & Reading R.R.

Leave Union Station, Toronto........5.45 p.m. Daily
Leave G. T. Station, Hamilton.......7.05 p.m. Daily

Arriving New York at Pennsylvania Terminal, 32nd Street and 7th Avenue, and at Philadelphia at Reading Terminal.

DINING CARS ARE ALSO OPERATED ON THIS TRAIN

For full particulars apply to any Grand Trunk Agent or to C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

MODERN WRESTLERS ARE THE BEST OF ALL

THEY ARE MORE CLEVER AND SCIENTIFIC THAN THE OLD TIMERS

Is Joe Stecher the greatest wrestler that ever lived?

Is he a better man than Gotch, Hackenschmidt, Mahmout, and the elder Zbyszko.

That is the opinion of many, including Jack Curley, who has been America's leading wrestling promoter for the last twenty years, and who probably knows more about wrestling and wrestlers than any other man.

"It is difficult to choose between Stecher and Hackenschmidt," said Curley, "but I think Stecher at his best is a better man than the famous 'Russian Lion'—despite the latter's tremendous strength. Stecher is faster, more scientific, gamer, and a better all-round matman.

"And let me tell you another thing," continued Curley. "The present crop of wrestlers is, by far the best we have ever had. Stecher, Caddock, Lewis and young Wladek Zbyszko outclass most of the old timers a mile. The present-day wrestlers are all speedy, scientific, quick thinking, and have a superior idea of the leverages. They are all specialists, too—another modern requirement. Stecher has his body scissors, Lewis has the headlock, Zbyszko has the toe-hold, Caddock employs the head scissors and so on. The old boys were usually slow and heavy and depended most on strength and bulk for results."

Curley may be right, but it is certain that some of the veteran fans will disagree with him. They had some pretty good men in the old days. There was Clarence Whistler and the original "Strangler" Lewis, who died the other day: William Muldoon, that sterling performer, and Joe Acton, a good man. Then came Tom Jenkins, without doubt the gamest man that ever stepped upon a mat; Fred Beel, the greatest little man the game has ever known; Dan McLeod, who was almost a Beel; Padoubney, the giant Russian, who was nearly seven feet tall and weighed about 300 pounds—a huge slow-thinking ox; Yousoff, a Turk, and Paul Pona, two others much on the order of Padoubney, but not quite as big.

Along came Hackenschmidt, Mahmout, Stanilaus Zbyszko, and Gotch—a wonderful quartet that rivals our present-day big four. Hackenschmidt was the best developed of any matman and one of the greatest of all wrestlers. He was as agile as a cat, a real artist—but there was some question about his gameness. Stanislaus Zbyszbo was a huge, strong man—the hardest man to throw that ever lived. Mahmout the Turk was a wonderful all-round wrestler. And don't forget little George Bothner—a wonder.

Gotch was a real champion in every way. He conquered Hackenschmidt, Mahmout, and Zbyszko, though we must confess that he was aided considerably by the element of luck in each match. However, all credit to the old champion. He beat them all and retired with the title.

Here are some others worthy of mention, though not of the same class: Dr. Roller, Koch, Peterson, Cutler, Leun, Connelly, and Siegfried.

Caddock, Stecher, Zbyszko, and Lewis are not the only stars we have today. There are John Pesek, from Nebraska—the cradle of wrestlers—who is much on the order of Gotch, and who is coming along fast. Jim Londas, from Chicago, is another excellent man—a present-day Beel. Ad Santell is another. All he lacks is size. Then we have Plestina and Olin, two of the old school—tough and strong, but rather slow upstairs and down.

Europe is sending over her best men. Andre Cherpilord, a Swiss with an excellent reputation, is on his way. So is Geistman, a Belgian. Constan Le Martin, another Belgian, is on the way from South America. Le Martin is a famous war hero, and it is said that he has decorations from every allied government.

Stanislaus Zbyszko is returning to this country also. This tough old baby was interned in a Russian prison camp during the war.

COBB'S MANAGER SAYS HE IS SLOWING UP

WILL STILL BE GREATEST PLAYER IN THE MAJORS FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 28. — "Ty" Cobb last year satisfied his manager, Hughie Jennings, that he is slowing a bit, but even so the Tiger boss still believes the "Georgia Peach" to be the greatest ball player in the major leagues. Hughie said as much last night as a fanning bee at a social event staged here in honor of William Coughlin, former Detroit captain a returned K. of C. secretary, by Scranton Knights of Columbus.

"The average fan evidently did not notice it but I did, and I also believe that Cobb realized it," said Jennings in admitting that his famous slugger is beginning to slow up a trifle. "I obtained positive proof of the fact in Cobb's work on the bases. On infield hits that he always beat out at first by a step or so, he was being thrown out, and when he tried to steal second a perfect throw usually had him by a safe margin, whereas in former years it was always a close play at second whein "Ty" attempted to steal; in fact most of the times when the catcher's throw was perfect it was a give-ortake proposition with the umpires in calling him safe or out.

"I did not notice Cobb slowed up much in his outfield work." Jennings said. "It woudl be harder to discover it out there anyway, especially in a fellow like Cobb, who has been playing in the league for years and knows just about the spot most players hit to. At bat, of course, he looked just as good as ever. Averages prove that to be so, because "Ty" again carired off the batting championship.

"Cbob is a most remarkable ball player, and while it is no more than natural that he would begin to slow up after his extended career in the majors, I still consider him the greatest player in baseball, and predict that he will retain that rank for several years to come."

During his remarks on the Cobb question, Jennings also drifted to the freak delivery subject. During this talk "Hughie" took occasion to praise such pitchers at Mathewson, Alexander, Jhonson, Adams and others, who have disregarded the freak pitching stunts. "These pitchers marde good by using nothing more than a curve ball, the fadeaway and fast and slow balls." Jennings said. "They had a sufficient amount of gray matter in their heads to master those deliveries, coupled with good control. They studied batters' weakness, used a good change of pace, and in other respects made use of their intelligence along with their natural ability to pitch. Johnson made good from the start, because of these facts. The same thing applies to the other famous pitchers I have mentioned."

A New Variety of Flax.

Inspired by the pleas of French artists for an oil that would not dull their pictures, a noted American horticulturist has succeeded in cultivating a new flax of unusual quality. The seeds of the developed plant are almost twice the size of those of the ordinary variety, are a limpid white in color, and yield about 12 per cent. more oil. The experimenter started with a few seeds of light-brown East Indian flax, which for several years reverted to the dark shade; but from this unpromising source was finally developed a plant quite as productive as the old, and with the other advantages. This flax will be interesting to Canadians as the industry has been prospering in this country in recent years.

[illegible]

Wearied of the starched collar, the raw edge, the climbing tie and big laundry bills, demobilized army officers are seconding the efforts of fashion makers to revive the Byronic bare throat and open shirt. "Our stiff-necked linen is to be consigned to the rag-bag," writes one. The new fashion has the unqualified support of the medical specialists.

Enver Pasha.

The statement that Enver Pasha, late of Turkey, has been traced to Transcaucasia, where he is reported to be living among the Tartars, will hardly lead anybody to congratulate the Tartars on their new neighbor. Enver Pasha is not a desirable citizen, and just at present the new government of Turkey has an account to settle with him as well as the British, for in addition to crimes committed in the name of his country. Enver Pasha's career in Turkey was completed by the discovery, after his flight, that he had plundered the county of a huge sum of money which had been deposited in the banks by the Committee of Union and Progress. But then, Enver Pasha, in sympathy, education and upbringing is more than half German.—Christian Science Monitor.

Killing Wild Ducks.

Thousands of wild ducks and other waterfowl die each year from lead poisoning, incurred by eating stray shot picked out of the mud about popular shooting grounds. Many ducks recover from the malady it is true, but even these are permanently injured. Females mated with affected females lay infertile eggs, mingled with others which produce puny young. The affection is, of course, a result of the fowls' habit of swallowing small, hard objects to furnish grit for the gizzard. Here the little lead pellets are ground away, to pass into the intestines, where they produce progressive paralysis, and, usually, death.—Popular Mechanics.

London policemen are allowed 36 cents a week as a boot allowance.

Most Valuable Diamonds.

Diamonds are found with a wide variety of coloring but those that are virtually colorless but which are spoken of as being blue-white are most valuable.

Simple Duty.

What does a man more than his simple duty in coming out for the right? Besides is it any sacrifice to be in the right?—Lowell.

Optimistic Thought.

One sand grain of time is worth a mountain of gold.

Some Grownups Have Same Idea.

Miriam had been over to a neighbor's to see the new baby, and on her return I asked her what she thought of it. She replied: "Oh, I don't like 'em so fresh; I like 'em better afterward."

Risky.

Counsel (addressing burglar)—"Do you mean to tell the court that you had no accomplice?" Burglar—"No, yer 'onner. Not in jobs like this—a bloke never knows if 'is pal is honest."

THE HARRIER.

Cruel Hawk is Enemy of the Wild Duck.

The cruel marsh harrier, first to come when ice disappears, last to leave Canadian shores in autumn; in size, next to his brother the fish hawk, with plumage not brilliant but beautiful—tracings on tail and wings of russet brown to grey and white interlining in hidden parts on breast and legs—very strong talons, large spread of wings, with light body, a graceful flyer, is a true hawk in every detail. The marsh is his home during his stay with us. He is on guard at all daylight times. The edible frog and field mice which stay near the shore are his menu while awaiting his choicer prey to develop, viz., the wild duck and its offspring. His patrol begins with our open season, September, when the sportsman is about. By nature taught to keep away from the report of guns, he does not leave the marsh but keeps a safe distance from danger, fully aware of what he is doing. Any change of location by the hunter brings the bird to where the execution has been done. Then woe betide the stray duck with a broken wing that has eluded the shooter by getting into the marsh. The harrier will fly low, hovering and looking with his piercing eye. He very soon locates the wounded duck, and picking it up, does not fly high with it, but just skims the tall marsh foliage till he finds a dry muskrat house or log. Then the meal commences. Choosing the breast only to tear and eat, he is soon away for another, his appetite, like the weasel's, never [illegible]

I have seen eight ducks treated this way by the harrier in one afternoon. After a big shoot in a preserve many ducks escape wounded. By anyone returning at daylight the ungathered game can be easily located by watching the harrier at work.

This is kept up till frost comes. Then the great feast takes place, as all ducks wounded and unable to fly are doomed to die. When winter sets in and ice forms the living wounded are easily caught by Indians and others.

The nesting of the duck is not a harvest for the harrier. The parent bird can often outwit him. When the young leave the shell the parent leads them to the water. They can dive and elude their enemies and pursuers. The harrier cannot dive. So, early in life, the mother duck instructs her young to fear the shadow of the harrier. In one second all duck life disappear beneath the water. To assist this pirate in his work of destruction on the wounded, his autumn feathers agree exactly with the faded marsh cat-tail rushes and tall grass. Certainly to a kindly heart the laws and habits of nature seem to be misplaced in some instances. The black and king birds—in fact, all birds that breed in or near marshes—array themselves in battle formation at times to fight the harrier, and will chase him for miles away from their sanctuary.

Settlers Coming from England.

Plans for the emigration of ex-Imperial service men, who, he expects, will avail themselves in large numbers of provisions in the Dominion Land Settlement Act, are being completed by Lieut.-Col. W. Obed Smith, Canadian Immigration Commissioner in London, Eng. "In view of the fact that the Military Service Act passed by the British Government has practically made every able-bodied man an ex-service man, we anticipate a large percentage of such men anxious to take advantage of the provisions of the act, which offers them free transportation to a port of landing in Canada," said Col. Smith. "With a view to ensuring that only such men as are likely to succeed as settlers on the land are selected, a special qualifying committee of farmers will be appoined by the Ministry of Colonization and Emigration, and will arrive in England shortly for that purpose.

"Generally speaking, the conditions of settlement for such men will be the same as for the Canadian veterans except that they will be required to put down 20 per cent. instead of 10 per cent. of the purchase price of their land."

As to the future general immigration propaganda of the department, Col. Smith stated they would maintain the same attitude and policy as before the war, that only workers on the land and household workers should be encouraged to emigrate. Neither ex-service men nor women would obtain free transportation until their application had been passed and approved by his department. In this way the Canadian Government would admit only those approved by its representatives in London.

"Already," said the commissioner, "we have sent over a few Dutch and Belgian farmers, and we expect to continue with this class of emigrant, including Scandinavian farmers, but we are not allowing any emigration from Central and Southeastern Europe. Another development in connection with the work in Europe under my supervision will be taking charge of all Dominion Government exhibitions, and it is hoped to greatly stimulate tourist travel to many beauty spots in Canada through the agency of such exhibitions."

Canada's Frontier College

THE United States has grown tired of being a "melting pot." She has decided to use modern methods, turn on the electric welding devices, and make everybody in America an American.

The States are now seething with activity towards the Americanization of the foreign-born. Classes for adult foreigners are being held in factories, camps, and railway sidings. The Government has organized an "Americanization branch" in the Bureau of Education.

Now, for nineteen years, a little institution known as the Reading Camp Association has been quietly and effectively carrying on in Canada this very work that the United States has just undertaken. With practically no official backing, supported only by such far-sighted citizens as could personally be interested in the work, the Reading Camp Association has been teaching citizenship to strangers in the land, in cities, mines, and lumber camps.

And now, because at last the work has prospered, and because neighboring nations are awakening to the [illegible] which in Canada has been inst[illegible] the Reading Camp Association has been granted a charter by Ontario under the name of the Frontier College, and Alfred Fitzpatrick, founder and director of the movement for nineteen years, has been appointed principal.

Canada has many distinguished universities. She is the first nation to charter a college to reach the edges of her civilization. The Frontier College gives no degree but that of "citizen." It has no fees. It has no buildings but tents and log huts. Its staff are young men, mostly university graduates and undergraduates.

The Frontier College has no equipment but the simple texts and reading matter that the young "professors" can carry in their packs over wilderness trails.

The way the idea originated was as follows: Alfred Fitzpatrick, on graduating from Queen's University, was sent on mission work to the lumber camp in the redwoods of California. There he labored as a young minister for a long season. But he found an impassable gulf between himself and the lumbermen he was to work among.

Most of them were foreigners. There was the gulf of language. They were of European and near-Asian religion. They had no point of view that could be reached by new-world, western ideas and ideals.

And right there Mr. Fitzpatrick decided that before the foreign immigrant could be reached by the higher ideals of church and school, that gulf had to be bridged.

He returned to Canada and in 1900 gave up the ministry and launched the reading camp idea. He opened with three lumber camps in Algoma. He aimed to teach English and the rudiments of citizenship and new-world ideals to the foreigner. And to the native lumberjack, he directed good reading, the three "r's" and an interest in citizenship. To back him, he had a few interested lumbermen and timber-owners. Year by year, his work spread. From lumber camps in Algoma he carried his idea to the Rockies and to the Labrador, in mines, camps, railway gangs and frontier settlers.

From two young helpers he rose to a company of seventy lecturers, all young varsity men who donned shoepacks and flannel shirts and toiled with picks or sledge-hammers.

The first attempt to secure Government aid raised the magnificent annual donation of twenty-five dollars for the association. Sir George Ross raised this to $500, and in slow stages it has risen to an annual grant of $7,500 from the Ontario Government. Principal Fitzpatrick has asked the Minister of Education to double this amount annually.

This past summer there have been forty-five instructors working from coast to coast. This winter, there will be seventy. The nearest branches of the Frontier College to Toronto are at a railway extra-gang at Orono, and a Hydro gang at work on a power canal at Niagara. There are seven instructors working among the Hydro laborers. These instructors dig ditches by day and teach English and citizenship in the evening.

There has been no attempt to carry the work into the cities, for the cities have better facilities for Canadianizing the foreigner than the Frontier College. But during the war, one class was formed of Toronto Russians, but the police raided it, cast a score of them in jail, where one died, and since then the Russians have avoided Torontonization.

As a recognized institution the Frontier College will no doubt flourish. It is urging the universities to establish extra-mural courses, by which a student, after doing two years of academic work, may serve his remaining two years as an instructor on Canada's frontier, attending the university only to write his exams.

A Sad Plight.

At a club this entry was found in the complaint book: "The hot water in the lavatory to-day was quite cold and there was none of it."

Water vs. Steam.

One pint of water converted into steam means that the latter would require as much space as 1,700 pints of water.

Mummies as Medicine.

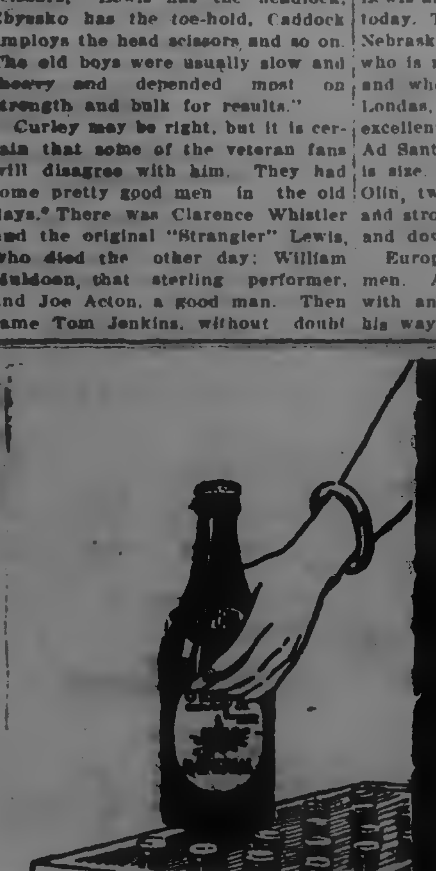
In the seventeen and eighteenth centuries there was a profound belief in powdered mummies as internal remedies.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 396

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds — Shingles, Scantling, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Children's Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 586 George St. Phone 1044w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111



Beverages That Satisfy

When you need a thirst-quencher, one that acts quickly in relieving that parched, dry feeling, drink O'Keefe's. Enjoy the delightful pleasure of drinking brews that satisfy and immediately overcome thirst.

O'Keefe's
Imperial Lager, Ale, Stout

are the result of sixty years' experience in brewing beverages that satisfy and meet the popular demand for mild, stimulating and healthful thirst-quenchers.

The name O'Keefe is your guarantee of quality and purity—don't accept substitutes.

On sale at Hotels, Restaurants and Refreshment Booths, or order by the case.

O'KEEFE'S TORONTO

J. M. BROOKS, Distributor, 195½ Charlotte St., Peterborough, Ont.

How Much Tobacco Will My Heart Stand

A Question Vital to Every Man Who Smokes or Chews

IT MAY COST A PERSON'S LIFE TO FIND OUT BY EXPERIMENT.

The habit of every user of tobacco [illegible] you pass [illegible] hearts [illegible] others [illegible] to what any heart [illegible] this additional [illegible] a dozen times a day by smoking cigarettes, a pipe or cigars or chewing tobacco is taking a man's chance with health and life to [illegible] the chance that he may not lose them. He is indulging in a costly habit at the expense of precious health. Ask any doctor anywhere and he will tell you that using tobacco [illegible] it is far better to quit the habit than to experiment to find how much tobacco your heart will stand without serious results.

But the thought of quitting is unpleasant to most men, even to those who know that tobacco injures them—and to really quit takes more will power than they have, and causes more suffering than they can voluntarily endure. To quit the habit make it easy for yourself by getting Nicotol tablets and taking them as directed. The habit really quits you, and its departure is a pleasure equal to its indulgence.

If you want to know how much easier it is to quit the habit with Nicotol than without it go twenty four hours without tobacco and note what an effort it costs you. Then begin using it as usual and take Nicotol tablets. At the end of a week discontinue smoking or chewing for a day, and it is probable you will have no desire to resume. At least your desire will be greatly diminished, and another week or two should make it not only possible, but a pleasure, to quit.

Note. Dr. Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, under whose advice Nicotol has often been used, said when this statement was shown to him: "I have known Nicotol to conquer the tobacco habit in less than ten days' time, and I can therefore recommend it highly." When the doctor's statement was shown to one of our leading druggists he said, "Nicotol is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit, way ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit [illegible] guarantee by all up-to-date druggists.

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is lacking in our establishment. We do everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let me examine your eyes. No charge

W. H. LACEY

Optical Specialist.
410 George St.

Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

ATTENTION! METHODIST MEN

All men of Methodism of this district are asked to keep Wednesday evening, December 10th, open and arrange to attend the supper and table discussion in Trinity Church, in connection with the National Campaign Movement. Addresses will be given by Rev. Newton Powell, of Toronto, and a prominent Layman. Arrangements are being made for 300 men.

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; resid- [illegible] (temporary) 522 ring 12.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle over-hauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2241.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
— PETERBOROUGH

Orangised by Dr. F. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes .

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

DUFFUS GARAGE

Has warm, fireproof automobile storage at reasonable rates. A frozen motor will cost more than WARM winter storage.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. A. A. McKenty, Dentist, 370 George street. Special attention to extractions. Remarkable bridge work and partial dentines.

80TH BATTALION RE-UNION

In Belleville, on Friday, December 5th, 1919. Banquet at Hotel Quinte at 1.30 p m.,-followed by concert in Griffin's Opera House by the original 80th Battalion Band, now the 91st Regiment Band of Hamilton. All ranks are requested to notify Lieut.-Col. W. G. Ketchison, Foxboro, on or before December 1st.

ORANGEMEN'S ATTENTION

The annual meeting and election of officers of L.O.L., 80, will be held in the Orange Hall, Monday evening, Dec. 6th. All members are requested to attend.

F. McGEE, W.M.

Brantford police have asked for an eight-hour day and an increase in wages.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. L. Mead of Port Hope has been visiting in the city the guest of Mrs. Nesbitt.

Mr. H. Harvey of Toronto was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Those contributing to the Y. W C. A. bazaar should have their fancy work, groceries, etc., in by Monday night, and their candy, cake, etc., by Tuesday noon.

Dr. nad Mrs. Sutton, city, have been visiting friends in Omemee.

Mrs. Walter Hooper of New Liskeard is visiting in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. J. Cox, 183 Lock Street.

Mr. Aubrey Elston, of Toronto is in the city for the week end.

REGULAR MEETING OF 57TH CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

PAPER ON "CANADIANS ALL" READ BY SPECIAL REQUEST

The monthly meeting of the 57th Chapter I.O.D.E. was held Thursday afternoon with a large attendance of members and an addition of three new members. Final arrangements for the bazaar were completed and an interesting paper on "Canadians All," by J. Russel Harris, was read by the regent, Mrs. J. C Davidson, relating to the duties of Canadians towards all foreigners, concluding with the words, "we want a country in which the people are unified by a common national spirit. Whatever may be our attitude towards future immigration let us try to make every one now residing in Canada a good Canadian."

The meeting then adjourned until the fourth Thursday in January, 1920.

The net proceeds of the dance held [illegible]

OBITUARY

MRS. J. C. HIGGINS.

One of Peterborough's oldest and most respected residents, Mrs. J. C. Higgins, passed away last night. Deceased was 72 years of age, and had lived for a great many years at 1043 Water street.

She leaves of her immediate family, five daughters, Mrs. Arthur Willet, of Cochrane; Mrs. L. Pedder, Toronto, Misses Elizabeth, Mary and Lydia, at home.

MEETING BD. OF TRADE POSTPONED DEC. 5TH

Owing to the number of meetings to be held in the city on Thursday, December 4, the president of the local Board of Trade has been requested by a number of members to postpone the regular quarterly meeting of the Board to Friday, Dec. 5, which will permit of their presence at this meeting. Supper will be served by reservations from 6:30 to 7:30. The general meeting will convene at 8 o'clock sharp, and by the kind courtesy of Principal McKone will be held in the Business College.

The council and officers will make reports on the work of the organization, and a few of the committees will also submit reports. It is hoped to spend considerable time during the meeting for new business.

The meeting of the manufacturers has been changed on this evening from 7:45 to 5 o'clock, which will permt the members to have their meeting followed by supper in the council room and the remainder of the evening spent in the general meeting of the Board of Trade.

It is earnestly requested that there be a full attendance of the members at this general meeting.

AT MURRAY ST. CHURCH.

The congregation of Murray Street Baptist Church have an announcement for tomorrow that is of special importance. Dr. O. C. S. Wallace, who was formerly chancellor of McMaster University, is to be the preacher morning and evening. The morning subject will be "Spiritual Preparation for Our Forward Movement."

THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY

Peterborough businessmen have ever had put before them, I firmly believe. A most conservative calculation gives yearly dividend returns of over 60 per cent. Thik of it! Act quckly ad ivestigate fully. Box 780, Review.

Four thousand textile workers are organizing a union in London.

The assets of the defunct Pure Milk Co., St. Thomas, will pay fifty cents on the dollar.

WANTS MILLION NOW FOR HOUSING

OSHAWA ASKS PROVINCIAL SECRETARY FOR INCREASED APPROPRIATION FOR BUILDING

Toronto, Nov. 28.— Though only $300,000 of the $600,000 given to the town of Oshawa under the Hearst Government for housing purposes has been used, a deputation from there interviewed Provincial Secretary Hon. H. C. Nixon, this morning and asked for a further appropriation of $1,000,000. The deputation consisted of the Oshawa Housing Commission, Messrs. Geo. W. McLaughlin, T. H. Everson, H. E. Tylor and S. Gildden.

They were told by the Minister that nothing could be done at present as the new Governement has not yet formulated a housing policy. But he advised them to carry on with the remainder of the money they have. Oshawa is one of the fastest growing towns in the province, and new homes are constantly needed.

SALE OF WORK.

St. Luke's Women's Guild will hold a Sale of Aprons and fancy articles, also home-made cooking, in the school room of the church, on Thursday, Dec. 11th, afternoon and evening. Afternoon tea will be served.

LEVERHULME FAVORS SHORT WORKDAY

EMPLOYER OF THOUSANDS FAVORS SIX HOURS FOR GREATER EFFICIENCY

Super-workers among women as well as among men is the fundamental aim of the hours-of-labor policy adopted by Lord Leverhulme, of Port Sunlight, England, who arrived in New York this week. [illegible]

Among other innovations for which he is famous, Lord Leverhulme is best known as the apostle of the six-hour day. This may mean a loafer's paradise in the minds of slackers. Leverhulme advocates it as a means of increasing production by greater utilization of plant—working two or more shifts instead of one—and to give the worker time for mental and physical improvement.

Two Hours' Study a Day.

"Work six hours a day at your maximum power of production," he says, "study and improve yourself two hours a day, and I can afford to pay you at least the present rates for eight hours." Employing thousands of women, Leverhulme makes a special appeal to them with this line of reasoning, and also to the wives of his men workers, on the ground that six-hour day makes better fathers and husbands. A home and a garden are not of much use to a tired man who never sees them until after dark, is another paraphrase of one of his arguments for the short workday. Make yourself capable of making a living — and something more—by six hours' work, or I can't afford to pay you the eight-hour rate, is an other implied condition that goes along with Lord Leverhulme's short workday plan.

He believes that if there ever was any basis for the idea that there are limits to the value of women's service in industry the war has removed it. If men are going to maintain the idea that they should be paid more than women the men must do better work. On the other hand, if women are to retain the status they gained during the war they must expect to compete with men now that the war emergency is over. The race will go to the most efficient without regard to sex.

LANSDOWNE LODGE, S. O. E.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be held on Monday, December 1st. All members are requested to attend. B. J. Lemmon, Pres.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT TRINITY.

The congregation of Trinity Methodist Church will have an opportunity of hearing Rev. W. B. Caswell, B.A., of Toronto, tomorrow morning. Mr. Caswell has a great message for the men of today. At the evening service Capt. Maurice Park will sing. There will be a male quartette and an anthem in addition to Capt. Park's solo. Rev. W. E. Honey will preach at the evening service. A cordial invitation is given to strangers and visitors to attend these servces. Mrs. King will sing at the morning service.

MISSION ANNIVERSARY.

To-morrow, being St. Andrew's Day, the annual festival of missions, the W. A. of St. Luke's Church will join in a corporate communion at the 11 o'clock serve.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30, Rev. W. G. Walton, missionary to the Indians and Eskimos, will give one of his interesting talks on this special subject.

REGULAR MEETING.

The Regular Meeting of Peterborough Branch, G. W. V. A., will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, December 1st. Business, Election of Officers for year 1920. A large attendance is asked.

S. WHATLEY, Secretary.

ALL SAINTS' CHOIR WAS ENTERTAINED

SPENT PLEASANT EVENING AT HOME OF PEOPLE'S WARDEN

Last evening the choir of All Saints' Church were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Dobbin, Stewart street. Progressive euchre was played, after which refreshments were served. The evening concluded with dancing.

The thanks of the choir was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin for their kindness and hospitality. Mr. Dobbin, who is the people's warden, expressed the appreciation of the wardens to the choir for their excellent services during the year.

MEN'S MEETING.

Allen Theatre, Sunday, at 4:15 p.m., Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Westmount Baptist Church, Montreal, formerly Chancellor McMaster University, Canadian Baptist representative at the front. Hear this well-known orator. All come.

ANNULLED MARRIAGE

Boy of Sixteen Could not Support His Wife.

Montreal, Nov. 29.—Yesterday, by judgment of the Superior Court, rendered by Mr. Justice Duclos, the marriage was annulled of Rene Ruiras and Lina Gatien. When the ceremony took place on April 21 last, Jutras was only 15 years old. He left his parents' home and went to Quebec, the girl following him there, and they were duly married according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church. After his return to Montreal, Jutras was summoned for neglecting to maintain his wife and in view of the fact that he was under sixteen years of age the case was sent for adjudication before Judge Choquet in the Juvenile Court.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

Having just installed a large, new and up-to-date recharging plant, we solicit the winter care and re-charging of your storage batteries. Our building absolutely fireproof.

DUFFUS GARAGE.

GIRL SLUMBERS FOR FIVE DAYS

Health Department Uncertain if It Is "Sleeping Flu."

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Health department officials were unprepared to say today whether the malady afflicting Viriginia Felton, 11 years old, who has been in a semisleeping stuper in her home at 3727 Ward street, is or is not a case of lethargic encephalitis, or "sleeping flu."

Dr. Max Herschfield, the departmental neurologist, was dispatched to the Ward street home this morning by Health Commissioner Robertson to make a diagnosis of the case. Word received at the health department from the home today was to the effect that the girl was slowly recovering. Friday afternoon the girl returned from a party at St. Andrew's parochial school. She sat in a chair and almost immediately fell asleep. Since then her parents and physicians have been able to arouse her only for short periods to enable the giving of nourishment.

Two deaths from lethargic encephalitis or the so called "sleeping flu" have been reported to the health department within the last week.

BASKET SOCIAL AND BALL

The Annual Basket Social and Ball under the auspices of the L. O. L., No. 80, will be held in Victoria Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 12. Tickets 25 cents. Ladies with baskets free. Tucker's orchestra will furnish music.

NOTICE

The Conservatory Orchestra will practice tonight.

Newspaper reporters, copy readers and news editors in London are organizing a union.

Sarnia doctors are working overtime vaccinating people who want to enter the United States.

LAKEFIELD CONCERT A GREAT SUCCESS

The Sun Beam Mission Band concert and social, which was held in the Methodist Sunday School room on Wednesday evening, was quite a success. The programme opened with a hymn and prayer. Folowing is the programme:

Solo—Elwood Northey
Recitation—Emerson Kempt
Song—Primary Class.
Instrumental duet—Miss Maude Nixon and Elva Nugent.
Recitation—Edith Little
Song—12 boys.
Recitation—Jean Webster
Instrumental—G. Simpson
Song—Emerson Kempt
Drill—16 girls
Duet—Elva Nugent, Eva McIlmoyl.
Recitation—Ora Dunford.
Solo—Mrs. McMillan
Solo—Miss C. Dodge and E Webster.

After this excellent programme refreshments were served.

LAKEFIELD S. O. N. G. CLUB

Spend Pleasant Evening at Cards and Games

The S.O.N.G. Club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. Gillman. Fifteen members were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent in cards, etc., at which Mrs. J. Twist was again successful in winning the prize.

INCOMPARABLE

Dr. Norvell's Stomach and Tonic Tablets are really incomparable. They have been imitated and substitutes have been prepared which looked like them and even tasted about the same, but there is no other tablet which has the same beneficial effect, [illegible] effect. For constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness and sick headache, Dr. Norvell's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. All dealers sell them.

CHORUS GIRL SHORTAGE

England Has Trouble in Filling Stage Ranks

London, Nov. 28.—England is experiencing a shortage of chorus girls, according to some theatrical agents and stage managers. Plenty of young women are still anxious to get into the limelight, but experienced girls are said to be far less plentiful than they were. One theatrical agent has explained the situation thus:

"During the war a large number of chorus girls, show girls and small part ladies, left the stage for other work. Some are remaining in it permanently; others have not yet come back to the theatre. Many girls, too, were amrried to officers during the war and have now no need or inclination to go back to the stage. The lack of first class show girls for the provincial pantomines is becoming particularly acute. It is almost impossible to get them to go out of London. Even salaries of £4 are not tempting them."

A Pair of Skates Makes an Ideal Gift

—or—

perhaps a Flashlight, a Hockey Stick, Puck or a Lamp or a Tire for a Bicycle would be more suitable. Call in and look around before the rush.

WHITE BROS.

174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental
PHONE 807 OPEN EVENINGS

There are five simple ways to tell good tea.

First, by the bright copper color of the tea when steeped.

Second, by the exquisite aroma.

Third, by the delightful, refreshing flavor.

Fourth, by the satisfying richness.

Fifth, by the economical strength.

Make a brewing and you will find all these qualities combined in Red Rose.

RED ROSE
TEA is good tea

127

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said; "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

The forces of the West Russian Government under command of Col. Araloff-Bermondt have been completely defeated by the Lethuanians.

H. P. Lindsay, Agency Company

392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)

Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

HOUSES TO RENT
For $6.00 to $7.50
FOR SALE
165 Acres. 65 Acres under Cultivation, balance in good Timber, for $1800
Farms from $2000 to $17,000

PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

MEN'S MEETING

ALLEN THEATRE
SUNDAY 4.15 p.m.
Rev. O.C.S. Wallace
M.A. D.D. LL.D.
Westmount Baptist Church
Montreal
Former Chancellor McMaster University, Canadian Baptist Representative at the Front
Hear This Well-known Orator.
ALL COME

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Public are hereby notified that all traffic on the Hunter Street Bridge, both vehicular and pedestrian, is closed. Persons without just cause found within the limits of work of construction are liable to prosecution for trespass.

By order of the City of Peterborough.

H. PHELAN,
Chairman Board of Works.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

TEMPORARY REDUCTION PASSENGER TRAIN SERVICE ACCOUNT COAL SHORTAGE
Effective Sunday, November 30 1919
Information now in agents' hands.

Corporation of the City of Peterborough

City Treasurer's Sale of Lands for Arrears of Taxes

By virtue of a warrant issued under the hand of the Mayor and the Seal of the Corporation of the City of Peterborough, bearing date, the 9th day of October, 1919, and to me directed, commanding me to levy upon the several parcels of land hereinafter described, for Arrears of Taxes and Water Rates respectively due thereon, together with all lawful costs and charges in connection therewith, I hereby give notice that unless the said Arrears of Taxes, Water Rates and Costs be sooner paid, I shall, pursuant to the provision of the Assessment Act, at the City Council Chamber, in the City of Peterborough, on

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3rd, 1920

at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, proceed to sell by Public Auction the said ladds or so much thereof as may be necessary to discharge such Arrears of Taxes and all lawful costs and charges incurred in connection with such sale.

No.	Description		Location		Taxes	Water Rates	Costs	Total
1.	S½ Lots 1 and 2	Plan 23	N.S.	Lansdowne St.	$ 407 68	$	$ 18 80	$ 425 88
2.	Lot 43	Plan 138	W.S.	Maude St.	121 76	......	11 67	133 43
3.	Lots 25, 26, 27, 28	Plan 146	E.S.	Monaghan Road ..	184 73	......	13 24	197 97
4.	Lots 9, 10, 11, 12	Plan 146	E.S.	Clara St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
5.	Lots 13, 14, 15, 16	Plan 146	W.S.	Clara St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
6.	Lots 17, 18, 19, 20	Plan 146	E.S.	Baker St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
7.	Lots 21, 22, 23, 24	Plan 146	W.S.	Baker St.	187 07	79 20	15 28	281 55
8.	W. 200 ft. Blk. "C"	Plan 121	N.S.	McDonnel St.	90 53	......	10 89	101 42
9.	Lot 48	Plan 9a	S.S.	Dufferin St	49 18	8 04	10 06	67 28
10.	Lots 18 and 19	Plan 22a	W.S.	Centre St	16 40	......	9 03	25 43
					$1,617 96	$324 84	$134 81	$2,077 61

All above Lots are patented.
First insertion November 1st, 1919.
City Treasurer's Office,
Peterborough, Ont., October 28th, 1919.

F. ADAMS,
City Treasurer.

Fresh west to northwest winds, light local snowfalls and flurries, but generally fair and colder today and on Tuesday.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

RETREATING ALL-RUSSIAN ARMY HARRASSED BY PARTISAN BANDS

Given no Time to Construct Defensive Works—Eleven Generals and Much Booty Captured by the Reds.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 1.—The forces of Admiral Kolchak, head of the All-Russian Government, are retreating with such rapidity that they are unable to construct defensive works, of which there are none west of Irkutsk, says a wireless despatch from the Soviet Government at Moscow today.

Partisan bands continually harrass Kolchak, who has formed a bodyguard of three thousand to protect himself, the despatch adds.

Much Booty for Reds.

Vladivostok, Nov. 29. — Eleven generals and 1,000 other officers of the army of Admiral Kolchak, and 29,000 troops were captured by the Bolsheviki at Omsk, according to Col. G. H. Emerson, assistant to John F. Stevens, head of the American Railroad Commission.

Material seized by the Bolsheviki, according to Col. Emerson's informants, included 2,000 machine guns, 30,000 uniforms with overcoats, 4,000,000 rounds of ammunition 75 locomotives and 5,000 loaded cars.

An army of 30,000 party-trained [illegible] to guard the Novonikaelovsk and Tomsk district.

The Independent Labor Party of Toronto has announced the platform on which its candidates would stand in the forthcoming municipal election campaign.

MEXICAN SHOT AN AMERICAN RIDER

EIGHT COMPANY OFFICIALS MURDERED SOUTH OF THE RIO GRANDE

Washington, Dec. 1. — James Wallace, American citizen, was shot and killed by a Carranzistas soldier near Tampico last Wednesday.

The State Department today was advised of the killing and immeately ordered a thorough investigation. Troops camped in the vicinity claimed that Wallace had provoked the murder. The Department has been informed as a result of an investigation, that a mule on which Wallace was riding to the place of his employment, shied at a machine gun which was passing, overturning the gun. The soldier immediately shot Wallace, the bullet striking him in the neck and kiling him instantly.

The Wallace refered to, is believed here to be E. T. Wallace, of the Gulf Refining Company, about forty years old, and one of the company's best men. He had operated for the company in Columbia as well as Mexico, and went recently to Tampico. He is the eighth official of the Gulf Refining Company to be killed in Mexico and the eighth American to be killed [illegible] July 22, 1919, when the State Department warned the Carranza Government that more killings of Americans would lead to a change in policy of this Government towards Mexico.

It is believed that no boats were wrecked on the great lakes during the windstorm Saturday night.

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL AND HIS QUEEN ACCLAIMED BY THEIR LOYAL SUBJECTS

His Majesty Delivers Speech From Throne to Italian Parliament—Meets With Enthusiastic Reception—But Socialist Members Refuse to Listen to Speech and Leave Chamber Will Take Oath With Mental Reservations.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Rome, Dec 1.—When King Victor Emmanuel entered Parliament today to deliver his speech from the throne he was received with loud cheers. Premier Nitti requested the audience to be seated. Upon this, extreme Socialists shouted "Viva Socialism," and left the chamber. Their seats were immediately taken by other deputies.

Enthusiastic Reception.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena were given an enthusiastic reception while proceeding from the Quirinal to the Parliament buildings this morning to participate in the opening session of the Italian Parliament. Bells were rung, there were salutes from many guns, and thunderous cheers from immense crowds. Houses along the streets were decorated with flags.

Peace Main Issue.

The King, in his speech from the throne, said that the confidence and sympathy of the nation were as indispensable to Parliament as [illegible] collaboration in all movements for the good of the people. Italy after her great victory must direct all her efforts to the works of peace.

Will Take Oath.

The Socialists will take the oath at Tuesday's session, with mental reservations, and present a motion to eliminate from the constitution the requirement that the deputies shall take such oath.

This is the program agreed upon by the Socialist caucus after a long discussion. Some of the deputies say that this medorate program, as they term it, may be modified if their opponents offer an affront. Just what might be regarded by the Socialists as an affront has not been made clear, and there is much speculation as to whether the King's reception with the customary loud applause by sympathetic deputies and senators will be considered as justification for a more extreme expression of disapproval by the Socialists, who hold 156 of the 508 seats.

The Catholic party has 100 seats, the Republicans 12, while the remaining seats are divided among various anti-Socialistic parties. Many of these Socialist deputies promised the electors extreme action against Parliament before the election.

To Demolish Parliament.

Deputy Grandi, whom the Socialists elected in Mantua, is an artisan, and pledged his electors that he would enter Parliament [illegible] pick for the purpose of demolishing it." Deputy Modigliani and other well-known Socialists also have been somewhat extreme in their expressions. The more temperate deputies however, apparently dominated the caucuses and framed the party program.

Although Parliament normally should have met in 1918, the last session was waived because of the war, and the approaching session will be the first in six years.

PRINCE ARRIVES IN PORTSMOUTH

Portsmouth, Dec. 1. — The Prince of Wales arrived here on the Renown at 9 o'clock this morning. The Renown left this port on July 5th.

Upon entering the harbor the customary twenty-one-gun salutes were fired from flag-bedecked ships, which were today decorated in honor of the birthday of the Queen-Mother Alexandra.

The Prince landed from the Renown during the forenoon and motored through the streets of Portsmouth, cheered by thousands. Replying to an address of welcome, the Prince said his tour had been for him delightful and full of most valuable experience which would influence his whole life. He hoped often to be in Canada, he said, and would try another visit to the United States on the first opportunity.

TO RE-ESTABLISH BURNED LAVAL

RAISE NECESSARY FUNDS BY CANVASS THROUGHOUT ECCLESIASTICAL PROVINCE

Montreal, Dec. 1.—There will be launched shortly a campaign throughout the length and breadth of the ecclesiastical province of Montreal to raise funds for the re-establishment of Laval University. The objective will be decided upon by a strong committee which was appointed Saturday night, and the sentiments generally expressed at the meeting at Archbishop Bruchesi's palace coming from leaders of finance and business, were such as to indicate that there will be no doubt that the money will be forthcoming.

An initial note of encouragement was given when Bishop Gauthier announced that there had been already received a subscription of $30,000, two more of $20,000 each, and three of $10,000 each, in all $100,000.

JAMAICAN AWAITS DEATH FOR MURDER

NONE INTERESTED IN EFFORT TO SECURE COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE

Bridgeburg, Ont., Dec. 1.—Not a hand has been raised on his own behalf or by any of his friends to save Frederick Fountain, the recently convicted Jamaican, from the hangman's noose on December 18.

Fountain was recently convicted in Welland county High court for the murder of his wife and two children.

Fountain was sentenced to die by hanging, but he has made no move of any kind to have the sentence commuted or an extension of his lease of life granted. Instead, however, the Jamaican has turned to religion. He has been converted by the Salvation Army workers at Welland, where he is confined in the county jail and is completely indifferent to the fact that as the days roll by his time for being courted in the land of the living is lessening.

He declares that he murdered his wife and children through love, which, to his mind, "is the greatest force in the world."

ONLY ONE FATALITY IN ONTARIO THROUGH VISIT OF STORM KING

WILLIAM JACKSON FOUND DEAD IN LANE

BODY DISCOVERED IN FROZEN CONDITION THIS MORNING BEHIND GIBB'S LIVERY STABLE

William Jackson, ex-member 93rd Battalion, and of late apprecentice-operator at the Strand theatre, was found dead at the back of Gibb's livery stable at about ten minutes to seven o'clock this morning. His body was frozen, and it appeared as though he had been lying there for three or four hours.

The unfortunate man was first discovered by Mr. Hugh Ferguson, a cook for Coleman Bros., at 6.50 o'clock. The body was lying about two feet from the side of the building with the head facing north. No marks could be discovered showing any signs of violence, so it was considered Jackson had died a natural death, most likely from heart trouble, an ailment he has been suffering from for some time, it is reported.

Before enlisting with the 93rd Battalion, Jackson was employed in the Boston Cafe. He enlisted with this Peterborough unit and served with it [illegible] later saw service in France in the same capacity.

It was learned this morning that Jackson is an assumed name, and that the correct name of deceased was Sikes. He boarded on Reid street, south of King.

Mr. Joseph Kilbrick declares that he passed through the lane where the body was found at six o'clock this morning and did not notice it.

Dr. Greer examined the body this morning but would not give an opinion as to the cause of death. An inquest is called for this afternoon at three o'clock at Comstock's undertaking parlors.

Inquest Adjourned.

The jury for the inquest into deceased's death was empannelled at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and after viewing the body adjourned until Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The jury is composed as follows: T. C. Elliot (chairman), Wm. Meredith, Joseph Pecord, Duncan Drummond, Edward Wright, John Savigny, Fred Stabler, Wm. Harris, Adjt. W. Bunton, J. Maher, George Evans, D. Minicola.

NEGOTIATE WITH REDS

Berlin, Nov. 30.—Germany is negotiating successfully with the Russian Soviet Government on the exchange of prisoners, it is announced. The treatment of property confiscated by both countries is also being discussed, with favorable prospects.

Power Lines and Street Railways Disorganized; Millions of Dollars Worth of Damage in South-Western Ontario

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Windsor, Dec. 1.—General destruction was caused in this district by the gale on Saturday night. The electric light and power services were disrupted for hours, and local and interurban street railways have been at a standstill since the storm. The ferry boat Promise, plying between Detroit and Windsor careened back and forth in the teeth of the gale, shipping water until her deck was covered to a depth of several feet. The boat finally ran aground some distance from the dock on the Canadian side, and passengers were carried safely ashore.

Sandwich suffered badly, many houses being demolished.

Damage in Millions.

Toronto, Dec. 1.—Southwestern Ontario was today gradually recovering from the effects of Saturday's gale, which swept from the Great Lakes to the Ottawa Valley, causing damage estimated to total up in millions.

[illegible]

Many points on Lake Huron are still cut off from telegraphic communication from Toronto, and the damage ensuing from the storm in that district cannot yet be accurately estimated. Thousands of workmen, including many telegraphic linemen, are busy today repairing damage. Churches and other buildings were unroofed, trees and poles carried down by the hundred during the progress of the storm, and the streets of some villages and towns were left impassable. Brantford, Sarnia and Toronto seem to have suffered particularly severely. So far there have been no definite reports of loss to shipping on the Great Lakes. The storm seems to have been less severe on Lake Superior and the northern part of Lake Huron. One fatality has been reported in Ontario, that of George Dowson, of Toronto, killed by a falling tree.

ASSASSINS KILL POLICEMAN

London, Dec. 1.—Advices from Dublin say that conditions in Ireland are most disquieting. Lawlessness has not been discouraged by the recent proclamation, and crimes of violence are increasing in number. The papers call attention to the numerous murders, specifically the assassination of another Dublin policeman Saturday night.

WIFE COMMITS SUICIDE, HUSBAND SHOOTS HIMSELF IMMEDIATELY AFTER FUNERAL

Stricken With Grief, James Woods Ends His Life at the Spot Where Wife Was Found Drowned.

Toronto, Dec. 1.—Stricken with grief over the loss of his wife, who committed suicide last Thursday by drowning in Grenadier Pond, James Woods, aged 26, of 112 Gilmour avenue, returned from his wife's funeral Saturday afternoon and walking to the spot where his wife's body had been dragged up on the bank, shot and killed himself. The funeral was held from the home at 1.30 in the afternoon to Park Lawn Cemetery. Motoring home, Woods went to his room and at five o'clock left the house with a shotgun. He walked down Ellis avenue, to the Swansea bank of Grenadier Pond, and lying down on his back at the water edge placed a piece of brown paper over his face and putting the muzzle of the rifle against his heart pulled the trigger. The bullet lodged in the heart, killing him instantly.

On leaving the house at 5 o'clock Woods wrapped the gun in brown paper. He left two letters on the table, one addressed to his mother in England and the other was likely intended to explain his death.

Woods was seen to leave the house. On entering Woods' room, other occupants of the Gilmour avenue house found the letters. The letter stated that he was going to the bank of the pond where his wife's body had been recovered to end his life. The police of Keele street station were notified and Detectives Hazelwood and Courtney hurried to Grenadier Pond and found the dead body. The detectives were about ten minutes too late in their effort to prevent the despondent man from taking his life.

That Woods intended committing suicide, after he had learned of his wife's death was clearly shown in letters left. The letter started off stating that he did not think he would be able to attend his wife's funeral Saturday. He was anxious, however, stated the letter, to see her laid to rest, and that he would follow her. When making the funeral arrangements, continued the letter, Woods said he purchased a family plot so that he could be buried alongside of his wife.

Leaves Estate to Mother.

The letter to his mother in Bolton, Lancashire, contained his will, bequeathing his estate, consisting of cash on hand, stocks and Victory bonds, to her. The letter also stated that he intended joining his wife, who he said had taken her life Thursday.

Mrs. Amelia Woods had been in ill-health for sometime and Thursday afternoon she placed a brick in her pocket and drowned herself in Grenadier Pond. When she did not return home in the evening Woods went to Keele street station and reported her missing to the police. The same evening her body was recovered in the pond.

Mr. and Mrs Woods lived with friends in the Gilmour avenue home. They have no relatives in Canada.

CABINET IS CONSIDERING ITS PROGRAM FOR SPENDING $40,000,000 ON SOLDIERS

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—The disposition of the $40,000,000 voted at the last session of parliament for soldiers' aid is now being considered by the cabinet, and an official statement with regard to it is expected before the end of this week. Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration, who acted as chairman of the Parliamentary Committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment during the past session, stated Saturday that, though the matter is under discussion by the Cabinet, no definite conclusions had been arrived at. It is understood that the recommendations made in the report of the Parliamentary Committee are being taken up separately, and that the one providing for the payment of transportation to soldiers' dependents who returned from England to Canada prior to the armistice has been passed. The recommendation with regard to the payment of gratuity to men who served in the imperial army necessarily involves a great deal of investigation which is being undertaken by the Militia Department.

57TH REGIMENT WILL RE-ORGANIZE

COL. YOUNG APPOINTED COMMANDING OFFICER OF LOCAL UNIT

Col. T. W. H. Young has received notice from General Williams, officer in command of this district, of his appointment as commanding officer of the 57th Regiment. The regiment is ordered to reorganize immediately under its old name, the 57th Peterborough Rangers. Every effort will be made to bring this unit up to its pre-war state of efficiency as soon as possible.

STERLING DROPS AGAIN.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Dec. 1.—Sterling fell below the $4 mark on the local exchange today, demand bills being quoted at $3.99¾ for the English pound, half a cent lower that Saturday's closing quotation.

NO COMPROMISE YET IN ST. JOHN STRIKE

CITY COUNCIL FAILED TO BRING ABOUT SETTLEMENT IN STEVEDORES' STRIKE

St. John, N.B., Nov. 30.—For two hours and a half yesterday morning, the City Council tried to bring a settlement between the C. P. R. and the freighthandlers without coming any nearer a conclusion than they were able to at the last meeting except that the workmen dropped their demands from 65 cents an hour to 62½, saying that the freight handlers working on the steamer Metagama, diverted from here to Halifax, were receiving 55 cents an hour by day and 65 cents by night.

The C.P.R. was reported still willing to submit the dispute to a board of conciliation but the union representatives said they were not prepared for this procedure at present. They intimated that should the C. P. R. make a compromise offer they were willing to give way a little on their demands.

Two marriages were annulled by Mr. Justice Coderre in the Supreme Court at Montreal.

FURIOUS GALE CAUSES DAMAGE

PETERBOROUGH, AS WELL AS OTHER CITIES OF ONTARIO SUFFERS FROM TREMENDOUS WINDSTORM

The gale, terrible in its fury, which blew over Ontario Saturday night, causing damage and destruction in its course, did not miss this fair inland city. Although Peterborough does not appear to have suffered to the same extent as lakeshore towns and cities of Western Ontario, the storm caused certain destruction and a great deal of uneasiness here.

Rumors were rife this morning of roofs being carried off buildings of the Canadian General Electric works and that the smoke stack of the Bonner-Worth Co. was blown down, and such-like damage, but these stories were apparently for the most part unfounded.

Some felt roofing was blown off one of the buildings of the Electric works, which undoubtedly lead to the report of great damage caused to that plant. A large sheet of heavy galvanized iron roofing was torn off the roof of Belleghem's undertaking parlors, and rolled over the edge, knocking a few bricks off the side of the wall. There it remained all night, while the wind rattled and tore at the lodged roofing to the uneasiness of neighboring residents.

Windows Blown In.

Two large plate glass windows were blown in and smashed on George street, south of Charlotte. They were the front windows of P. Black's store at the corner of George and King streets, and that of Mr. J. Carroll's butcher shop, 285 George street, a few stores north.

Power Trouble.

The Hydro Electric people also had their troubles during the storm. Wires were down in various parts of the city, throwing houses into darkness, and causing considerable danger from live wires. A very large one was down at the corner of Charlotte and Louis streets, and the police were called upon to stand on guard until all danger was diverted.

The local power service was also disorganised by the storm. Street cars were idle on account of the lack of power from early Saturday evening until 10 o'clock Sunday morning, when power was renewed and the cars run into the shed from the streets.

Trees are reported down in all directions and altogether it appears to be the worst wind storm this city has experienced in some time.

And the neighboring country also suffered from the tremendous force of the wind. Reports from Fraserville state that the chimney of the church there was blown off and trees and old buildings are down in all directions.

BRITISH LEAGUE OF NATIONS MUST PROTECT THEIR SEA TRADE

Such is Declaration of Viscount Jellicoe—Although Little Chance of Another War, Still Must Guard Against It.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 30. "The proper course for the British league of nations to pursue is to insure the protection of their sea trade," declared Viscount Jellicoe Saturday before the Ottawa Canadian Club. "It is said that there is little chance of another war, but the majority who declare this also believe there is little chance of fire in their homes, yet 9 per cent of them carry fire insurance."

The noted admiral declared that British sea power had enabled the allied armies to perform their task. He recalled that the increasing menace of the German fleet had forced centralization of British sea power in Europe at the expense of overseas squadrons, but even under this disadvantage the loss in merchant ships from surface enemies had been less proportionately than after Trafalgar or in the American civil war. The disadvantages under which the navy had been placed [illegible] the outbreak of the war were:

1. Reduction in oversea squadrons; 2. Lack of destroyers; 3. Lack of submarines; 4. Lack of airships; 5. Scarcity and quality of mines.

He referred to the fight in 1909 against increasing the navy in size and efficiency and declared the opposition was not confined to lunatics. New Zealand and Australia's magnificient response then and afterwards was warmly referred to by the admiral. Canada had a special interest in the navy as this country was embarking on a fleet of government merchant marine and it needs protection. The growing foreign trade of Canada needs protection and the country's prosperity was linked up with permanency of control of sea communications.

The lesson which every person within the British Empire should have learned from the war is that however remote may be the danger of future wars, the empire must be ready for them and must maintain a balance of sea power which will enable her to meet and conquer any enemy.

"We ought to be ready," declared Lord Jellicoe, "but I do not mean to say that we must maintain a navy of the strength we had in 1918. But we should be far more ready in the future than we were in the past."

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain; $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowdes, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 436
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
150 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1919.

REPRESENTATION BY OCCUPATION.

THE BOARD OF TRADE in this city is the ideal system of representation. It is made up of a number of branches, of which different interests in the city, such as the retail dealers, the professions, the manufacturers and the workingmen are members. These different branches meet by themselves and discuss their own affairs. Meeting as a unit, the verdict of the Board on all affairs is final. No particular class can under such a system secure a monopoly of legislation. If there is such a thing as fair play and human justice it is surely to be obtained by the operations of such a plan. As before stated, it is the ideal of representation, thus having every occupation, every interest in the city given a voice in the general management.

It is only human nature, the innate selfishness in mankind, that leads so many men to hold their own interests in the community as paramount, and to exaggerate their own importance in the general economy. No one man, no one class, is entitled to such a distinction. Vocations, like individuals, are interdependent. None can flourish it at least a majority of the rest are [illegible]. Various interests may aspire to control, but a check is generally available to curb their ambition. This is especially the case in a body of men organized on the same plan as the local Board of Trade.

It is possible to adopt such a system in the organization of parliaments, legislatures and civic councils. There has for years been a general complaint that one class in the community has been in the ascendant in all these branches of government. This class legislation complained of has begotten another of a different kind as demonstrated by the present situation in Ontario. One evil almost invariably breeds another. The tendency of humanity is to rush from one extreme to the other. But when affairs have reached the worst stage in every direction a happy medium is almost sure to be found. Public safety demands it. There is almost certain to come a time when there will be class representation without class legislation, when all elements in the community will have a say in the government, when no individual interest will control, but a middle course be found in all cases.

Every year, on the approach of the municipal election, a vast amount of newspaper space is filled with more or less sage advice to the electors, who are urged to wake up and take an interest in local affairs. Almost always this represents so much wasted effort. People as a rule are averse to taking advice as they are to swallowing nauseous drugs. Show a man one of a number of roads to attian a certain place and he is likely to give the matter favorable consideration. Insist upon him taking that road or contend that it is the only one for rational men to follow, and his opposition is at once aroused. Perhaps there was a time when the advice of newspapers was adopted by the majority in the matter of voting. If there ever was such a period one thing is certain, it belongs to the past. People are doing their own thinking these days and adopting their own lines of advice.

"Nominate the best men regardless of station" is generally the burden of these highly academic articles in the press. Then recurs at election time the same old civic indifference as to what men are chosen either on nomination or election day. There must, then, be something wrong with the system which has been in vogue for years. There should certainly be more autonomy allowed cities of a certain class in the matter of choosing their civic representatives. Nominations should be made on a different basis than that which exists today for unless good men are put in the field it will be impossible to have good men in the council. How would it do, for example, to have each section of the Board of Trade select two or more candidates for aldermen and then let the electors as a whole make the final selection?

The Board of Trade as an organization is supposed to take no active part in politics, but no real good of a parliamentary, legislative or municipal nature can be achieved by an organization that holds itself aloof from that with which the welfare of the community is so inseparably woven.

AN ACT THAT NEEDS AMENDING.

PREMIER DRURY is quoted as saying that it is the intention of the Government of which he is head to so amend the criminal code as to give persons accused of crime, especially those who find themselves in that position for the first time, a better chance to clear themselves when they are really innocent and to escape the consequences of what may be either purely spite work on the part of their neighbors or blundering by overzealous police officers.

Only the other day Magistrate Dumble discharged a man who was brought before him on the charge of bootlegging. "The Act be hanged," said the Magistrate, when the Crown Attorney brought to his attention a provision in the law which compels the accused to establish his innocence, instead of throwing the burden of the proof of his guilt upon the prosecution. Magistrate Dumble's expression was that of a jurist who has a cultivated sense of British justice and who is convinced in his own mind that in this particular case the spirit of that justice is violated. There is scarcely a man on the Bench, a member of the Bar, or a fair-minded layman but who will say that in this particular ruling Magistrate Dumble was perfectly right. The law was made for the protection of man. Man was not created as a puppet to give the law effect.

A citizen was suspected of bootlegging and the authorities resorted to somewhat crude detective efforts to catch him. A constable posed as a prospective customer of moonshine whiskey and approached the suspect in that capacity. The latter was naturally suspicious, and made a date for a future meeting. When the two came together again, according to appointment, they were taken into custody. No money or liquor, it seems, had changed hands. The prosecution then relied solely upon the provision of the law which placed upon the accused the task of proving that he was not an agent for the illegal sale of liquor. Magistrate Dumble promptly dismissed the case.

To discover crime by tempting a man to commit an offence is no longer regarded as a high brand of police enterprise. In the United States no case in court can be maintained on such a foundation. In the instance in the police court, suppose the police had been utterly mistaken in their man and had suspected some devout supporter of prohibition, for it is possible for even the most astute officers to err occasionally: suppose the man so approached had sized up the officer as someone really desirous of obtaining a wholesale supply of liquor and had set out to trap him by making a future appointment. The arrest would have been made just the same and the case would have been brought up in the police court.

Premier Drury will perform something in the interest not only of justice but of the cause of prohibition as well, if he amends some of the clauses of the Ontario Temperance Act. Nothing will so soon bring a law into disfavor if there is anything like injustice or petty persecution possible in its operation. No man accused of an offence should be required to establish his innocence. It may easily be a difficult matter for an accused person to prove to the satisfaction of a court that on a certain date he did not perform a certain act, no matter to what extent he is innocent.

The right of search, too, should be amended. As it is now, any officer can stop a citizen on the street and examine his person or his baggage for suspected contraband liquor. The License Commissioners have ruled with regard to this point that before an officer can take such a course he must have reason to believe that the person searched is really in possession of liquor. The saving condition is not sufficient. Such a reason is certainly not difficult to cite, and if the search is unavailing the mischief has been done and the victim has no redress.

APPROVES SUGGESTION OF REVIEW.

(Farmers' Sun.)

WHEN THE WORKMEN'S Compensation Act was passed, under which provision is made for compensation in the case of workmen killed or injured while at their work, agriculture was not included in the list of occupations covered by the measure. If a man loses a hand in a steel plant, or breaks a leg by falling from a building in course of construction under contract, he receives a compensation for the injury from an insurance fund to which all employers in what are generally classed as "industrial employments" are forced to contribute. If a farm laborer is injured while operating a binder or silo filler there is no such provision for compensation in his case.

The Peterborough Review advises that the new Ontario Government amend the law so as to include those employed on farms in its scope. The Review thinks this would tend to retain labor on the land because, it says the present condition "has had a tendency to drive the worker from the country to the city where he is given liberal protection in the case of injury."

There is more in the argument than in the reasons given in support of it. It is doubtful if one farm hand in a hundred has ever heard of the Workmen's Compensation Act, and consequently the particular difference mentioned by The Review between conditions of labor in the city and country cannot have been a very potent influence in drawing labor from the land. At the same time, the writer of this article, who is a farmer, would be pleased to see the change The Review advocates made in the present law. Farming has always been more or less a "dangerous occupation." With the increasing use of machinery in the way of silo fillers and tractors, it is more dangerous today than it was years ago. If a hired man on the farm is injured while engaged in his work, his employer feels at least a moral responsibility in the case. That responsibility, borne by an individual employer, may be a very serious matter for him. If the responsibility were spread over the whole farming community by an insurance scheme such as the Workmen's Compensation Act provides, it would hardly be felt. What is proposed is merely an extension of the idea of insurance against loss that is now provided in the case of insurance of farm buildings against fire. By means of fire insurance loss by fire is spread over a community and ruinous loss to individuals is thereby avoided. Applying the same principle to personal injury sustained by farm hands while at work would spread the cost of providing compensation for such injury over so large a number that it would hardly be felt.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

WHILE THE LAMP holds on to burn most any man can manage to have himself nominated for civic office.

• • • • •

HAPPY INDEED is the nation that has no history, and, by reason of its geographical position, no necessity for a navy.

• • • • •

AND NOW draws near the time when every city in Ontario proposes to elect a mayor and council greater and better than ever.

• • • • •

NOW THAT YOU have those Victory bonds, hang on to them. The return is certain and the bonds will never decrease in value.

• • • • •

IF THE U. F. O. really stole the Liberal platform, as Hartley Dewart claims, then they simply relieved Mr. Dewart and his followers of something that was really of no use to them.

• • • • •

THE TROUBLE is that every class interest in the city believes that its own choice for civic representatives is alone worth considering.

• • • • •

THERE IS something to be said for the Winnipeg election. It contained an element of excitement sufficiently strong to bring out the vote.

• • • • •

PERHAPS the United tSates Senate made a political issue out of the peace treaty, and it is just possible that President Wilson beat them to it.

SHOULD GERMANY BE HELPED?

Yes, she should says a writer in the St. Thomas Times-Journal, and this is said without any mental reservations either said with a full realization of her years of devilishness, said after a careful survey of the possibilities of her resumtion of devilishness in the days to come, said by one to whom the preservation and safety of our Great Empire are of the highest moment, said in the mood of sober, second thought, said not altogether sometimes thoughtless spirit of "forgive and forget"— for we should never forget Germany's running amuck in frightfulness— but rather in the spirit that it will be to our own interest to help Germany to her feet again.

Germany was an overshadowing peril to the whole world in 1914, so she is today, only in a diferent sense. In 1914 the peril was that she would trample the world underfoot, today the danger is that she will founder in chaos, and in the swirl of thus foundering will partly submerged civilization itself. It is quite impossible to exaggerate the seriousness of the new German situation. Probably the financial side gives one the most easily understood slant on present conditions over there. The German mark is now worth on the New York money market between 2 and 3 cents, before the war is was worth 23 cents. We Canadians grumble much now, when making purchases in Detroit or Buffalo, to find that our dollar bill only goes for 95 cents, but how would we feel if we only received 15 cents for our dollar bill, then we would be in about the same position as the Germans are today. They must buy largely their raw products in this New World—for here is where the raw products are—and buy it with money only worth one-eighth of its former value. Besides this terrible handicap, there is hanging over them a national war debt of phenomenal size. Has an unparalleled war indemnity, they have in addition to hand over the principal part of their railway rolling equipment to the Entente, have to restore Belgium and Northern France by day's labor to their former condition, and give up the greater share of their formerly extensive mercantile marine. During the war, Germany pursued the very foolish plan of issuing paper money in vast volumes against her gold reserves instead of copying England's example, viz., by increased taxation, making her people partly pay for the war whilst it was on. England went on the principle that the English must pay for their own wars. Germany trusted to being the victor and making the conquered peoples pay the piper. But the war went the wrong way for her, and now she must foot the whole bill alone, it makes the going very difficult, her people must be bled white with taxation for two or three generations. Naturally of course, despite their intense love of their Fatherland, they will seek to escape this crushing taxation by wholesale emigration, already the papers are telling how Germans are trying to get into the United States through Mexico by representing themselves as Polish, it being well known that the Amercans are very friendly towards the now freed Poland. But the trouble is no country wants the Germans — Mexico even seems reluctant to acept them in any great numbers.

The danger of the situation is that if every country boycotts the Germans, if the rest of the world but shrug their shoulders and say, "Let them stew in their own juice," that this once great people will in despair turn towards the Ishmaels of today the Bolsheviki, and if they do so, mind you, they will bring an efficiency with them that the inept Bolsheviki altogether lack, and Bolshevism will then become really dangerous to the world at large. No, no, let us help along the really good efficiency that is in the Germans for the betterment of mankind—the devils they once possessed are mostly cast out, and the grinding taxation of the next hundred years will complete the process, anything to keep them away from the wretched Bolsheviki.

Paul Warburg, Governor of the Federal Reserve Banks, and one of the wisest heads in the whole United States, said after a recent visit to Europe:

"One cannot spend two months in Europe without being deeply impressed wth the fact that war has opened wide the dykes once more protecting our old form of siciety and that the unloosened currents, still uncontrolled, are raging over areas far beyond the boundaries of the countries directly involved in the war. Nobody can foretell at this time what the world's picture will be when ultimately the floods will subside. How far it will remain submerged or be able to emerge will not be the result, however, of an automatic process. As it was the will of men that broke the tykes, dykes it is true, that had grown too weak and that attempted to constrain gigantic forces within too narrow a compound—so it will be the will of men that will determine the final balance. The [illegible] that one brings home from Europe is, therefore, that we must not stand by idly with folded hands while the world is drowning; but that is our duty, and within our power, to arrest a movement which if, unchecked and permitted to run into extremes, will engulf us all."

And he argued that what this world needs mostly now is to get back to sanity, quietness and sound sense again:

"The first thing to be done, is—as a prominent British financier put it—'to defiate our ideas.' The world lives in a fool's paradise, based upon fictitious wealth, rash promises and mad illusions. The disease is world wide, it is spread too far to enable us to deal with it as a whole. We may agree on the principles on which it must be fought, but each country will have to be treated in accordance with its own particular conditions. The first step, however, is to prick the bubbles of false promises and to begin by clearing the world balance sheets of fictitious assets as far and as fast as we can. As the situation will thereby gain in clarity and simplicity we shall grow in strength and competence to deal with whatever dificulties remain to be overcome."

Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager

QUESTION OF TEACHERS' SALARIES

So much has been said and written on the subject of teachers' salaries that it might be worth while to look into the matter and endeavor to determine what ground for complaint actually exists. Every few days one reads of some body of teachers petitioning for an increase of salary. There must surely be some discoverable reason for this transformation of the patient pedagogue, who has hitherto taken what was given without complaint, and manage to live in spite of his salary when he found he could not live on it.

At first thought, one might be inclined to conclude that the teacher has been taking seriously; all the fine talk he has been hearing about the value of his work, the great part he has in laying the foundations of the future, and the increasing value of education in these times of unrest. There has been so much of it that it would not be surprising if he had made the mistake of accepting platform oratory at face value, and begun to think that a calling which was universally acknowledged to be of such vital importance, should be rewarded—not proportionately—but sufficiently. But, after all, the teacher is not quite so simple. He has been hearing that kind of talk for some time now and has long since learned that, like other very admirable sentiments, it is brought out for parade occasionally but is carefully packed away when it comes to arranging the practical details of salary. Like the fly who tried to swim the molasses jug, he has been getting a nice taste in his mouth but he hasn't been getting anywhere.

Let us turn for a moment to more solid matters. It is too bad to bring the cost of living into this but it can't be helped. We will dispose of it as griefly as possible. The Labor Gazette for November gives the weekly budget for October, 1919, as $14.21 as compared with $7199 for October, 1914—an increase of approximately 78 per cent. The index number for wholesale prices is 299.6 per cent. as compared with 138.7 per cent. in 1914—an increase of 116 per cent. Rent, fuel and clothing are not included in these estimates; we can figure the percentage of increase on these items without the assistance of the Department of Labor. It is worth noting, however, that the National Industrial Conference Board estimates the increase in clothing prices in the United States as 100 per cent. and we have not heard that many Americans have found it cheaper to replenish their wardrobes in Peterborough than at home.

How have the employers of Peterborough met this situation? While there are, no doubt, cases where the increase in wages has been inadequate, on the whole, they have met it very well. The average wage of one of Peterborough's largest industries has increased 60 per cent. with a shorter day. Carpenters' wages were thirty to thirty-five cents an hour and are now six-five cents. Moulders, who were receiving 35 cents in 1914, are now receiving 75 cents an hour. Mill laborers have gone from 17½ to 38½ cents an hour—an increase of 120 per cent. Draughtsmen are getting 70 to 75 per cent. more than before the war. Barbers' wages are almost doubled and tailors are paying their employees 60 per cent. more than in 1014. Bricklayers are being offered a dollar an hour with double time and a half for overtime; so that a bricklayer may earn in one hour of overtime as much as was paid for a day's wage in many occupations five years ago. The wages of railway employees has increased in many cases 100 per cent. It is safe to conclude that in most occupations the increase in wages has varied from 50 per cent. to more than 100 per cent.

Compare the increases received by teachers with the above figures. In the year ending June, 1914, Public School principals were receiving an average salary of $1232.83 and vice-principals an average of $1100.00. In January, 1919, the average salary paid to principals was $1550.00, and that of vice-principals $1141.67. A bonus of 10 per cent. was granted for 1919, however, which brought the increase for principals to 38 per cent. above the average for 1914, and the increase for vice-principals to 14 per cent. It must be remembered that, in the case of men who have bees on the staff for the whole period, the greater part of this increase represents pay for longer service and has no relation to the increased cost of living. Further provision for salary the question why teachers are per- increase has been made by a new schedule which comes into effect in January, 1920. This is, however, a substitute for the bonus of 1919, and not an addition to it so that the average salary for principals will not be much higher than in 1919, and that of vice-principals will be actually lower. Principals will receive an average of 28.6 per cent. above the 1914 figure and vice-principals 13 per cent.

A comparison of these figures with those quoted above for mechanics, laborers, etc., would seem to answer sisting in their attempts to secure better salaries. From 14 per cent. to 28.6 per cent. is plainly an inadequate provision for meeting increased prices ranging from 78 per cent. to over 100 per cent. If a 50 per cent. to 100 per cent. increase has been necessary for the men in other occupations, the teachers are justified in asking for better treatment than they have received.

It may be urged that increased wages in other occupations have been made possible by the higher prices which employers have been able to secure for their products; and that, since in the case of teaching the only product is an intangible thing, valued differently by different persons and quite impossible of valuation in dollars and cents, it does not follow that they should receive the same increases in salary. While this line of argument contains a very evident fallacy we accept it for the moment and see where it leaves us. It applies, of course, equally to all employees of the city, since in no case does the city receive the value of their labor in dollars and cents. The average wage paid by the city for general street labor was $1.86 in 1916; in 1919 it is 13.54—an increase of 90 per cent. Fifty per cent. more is paid for teams than in 1913. Wages for sewer work have increased in varying proportions but run from 50 per cent. up. In all these cases the day is one hour shorter. We find similar changes in the salaries of the more permanent employees. In 1913 the average salary of police constables was $671.66; in 1919 it is $1028.57, an increase of 53 per cent. The average wage for the whole force has increased from $744.50 in 1913 to $1193.40 in 1919. The total for salaries in 1913 was $7445.00 as compared with $15511.42 for the present year. Part of this increase is, of course, due to the growth of the city. The same growth has taken place in the schools, however, and we do not find a proportionate increase in the amount paid for teachers' salaries. The average salary paid to firemen in 1913 was $647.72; in 1919 it is $1121.25. The average for the whole force is $1132.65 this year as compared with $671.07 for 1913, while the total salary bill has increased from $9395.00 to $27,183.75. The Medical Health Officer has recently received an increase of 50 per cent. There is no question that these increases were just and necessary, but they entirely dispose of the argument that the city is unable to treat its employees as well as private employers have treated theirs.

The statement is sometimes made that it is unnecessary to increase teachers' salaries further as there is no difficulty in filling vacancies at present rates. Such an attitude brushes aside all arguments based on the justice of the case and entirely disregards years of faithful service when weighed against a few additional dollars—surely not a very admirable position for any city to take. In any case, the number of applications for any vacancy proves very little. It may be asserted that the city can secure plenty of applications for any position it may choose to advertise. The vital point is not the number of applicants but the number who are suitable for the position. Further, a large number of applications for positions on the teaching staff is not by any means an indication of a surplus of teachers. The contrary is true, not only in Canada, but in the United States as well. Owing to the conditions which prevail in the teaching profession teachers who are dissatisfied with their positions do not limit their applications to a single case, but apply wherever a promising vacancy appears. Thus, while a Board of Education in any city may receive fifty applications for a position it does not follow that fifty teachers are available to fill it. Those same fifty teachers may, and probably have, applied to a dozen other Boards and [illegible] the number available to fill, not one position, but all similar positions vacant at the time. Yet, so long as vacancies are few in number, the Board of Education will probably have no difficulty in filling them. Teachers who are getting smaller salaries elsewhere are apt to ignore the question of living conditions and be attracted by a slightly higher salary. This is particularly true of teachers in small towns and rural districts where expenses are considerably lighter. A short experience in the city shows them their mistake and they too move on to make place for their unlitated brethern. Such a process continued for any length of time can have but one result—a slow but none the less steady deterioration of the schools of the city.

In the last analysis the situation is in the hands of the public. Boards of Education can only move so far as public opinion supports them. If the public wants good schools it must realize that it cannot have them much longer under present conditions. The question is not confined to any one city or any one Province. The number of men and women who are entering the teaching profession is growing less every year, and there is a steady drain of teachers into other occupations. If the public is content to intrust the education of its children to teachers without training and experience, it will be able no doubt, to secure them. If on the other hand it believes that present standards should be retained and raised, it must act before it is too late. Teachers are not trained in a day, and if the standard of education is allowed to depreciate, it will take years to recover the lost ground.—The Peterborough Male Teachers' Association.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Cupid is a great court favorite.

It is easy to expect others to set a good example.

Sometimes money talks, but more often it stops talk.

At least the toes of a man who waits are sure to turn up.

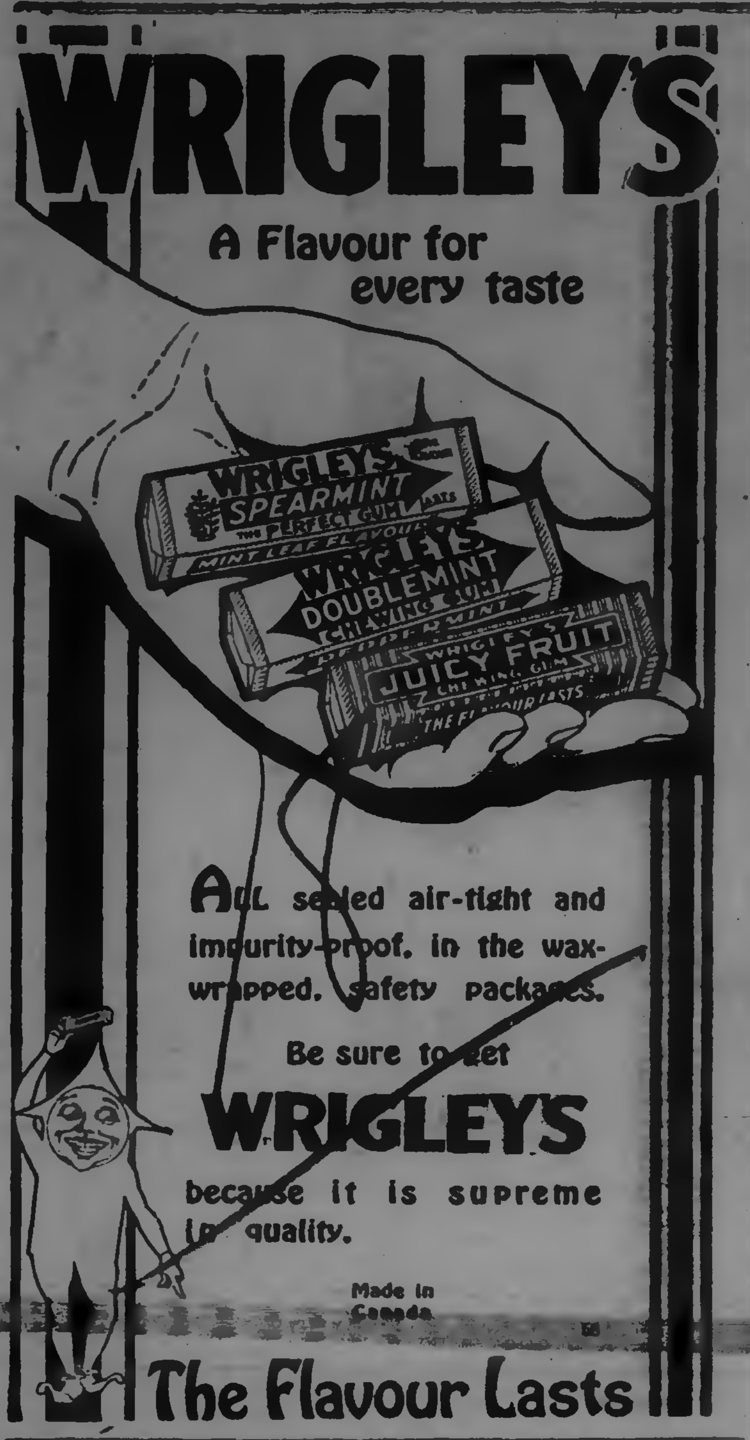
The secret of success is the ability to keep your own secrets.

Life is a riddle. We can't guess it; therefore we must give it up.

A woman will forgive any man for lying if he tells her she is beautiful.

A man throws himself at a woman's feet and a woman throws herself at a man's head.

Wood's Phosphodine. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)



WRIGLEY'S
A Flavour for every taste
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT
WRIGLEY'S DOUBLEMINT
WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT
All sealed air-tight and impurity-proof, in the wax-wrapped, safety packages.
Be sure to get WRIGLEY'S
because it is supreme in quality.
Made in Canada
The Flavour Lasts

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by
MANSFIELD F. HOUSE
(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

SEGALL CLEANED UP—BOTH SHADES AND A FORTUNE

Some years ago, and not so many at that, Charles Segall, of 2744 Broadway, New York, was a decorator. He was not just a painter and wall paper hanger—he was a decorator—a man with brains, ambition, common sense and rarer than any of them, a keen gift of foresight.

One of the most constant of the inquiries he received from the owners of newly decorated establishments was for some process whereby shades might be renovated or at least partially cleansed. Unlike draperies, they could not be dyed. Renewal was more or less extensive and their care became a problem. Inquiry failed to reveal any way of cleansing them or any one who could undertake the job, whereupon Segall, in characteristic fashion, decided that here lay his big opportunity.

Busy during the day, he spent his nights in experiment. All he could lay away in surplus went into his machines. Early morning found him in his laboratory compounding chemicals and cleansing fluids. No mark on woodwork or wallpaper was too obstinate to resist his efforts. He scratched matches on white woodwork and promptly set to work to compound something that would remove the mark. And he succeeded. It seemed as if dirt fled at his approach. But nothing satisfied him. The goal toward which he worked was a perfected machine and chemical that would clean window shades. It was more an ambition than an enterprise, inasmuch as at that time (before the war) window shades were so inexpensive that they could be replaced without undue extravagance.

Then the war came.

Imports were fewer. Linen became scarcer and the price of window shades, made from Holland linen, began to soar to a startling figure. Paper shades were substituted where new ones had to be purchased outright, but what could be done with the real linen shades that needed only cleaning to make them worth ten times as much as the paper ones?

Right here the genie rubbed his lamp.

Segall began at the top. No piking for him. He went out to the big people who had been his patrons and told them his story. He went to the largest real estate firms in the city, men who knew both him and his work. He told them what he had done, what he could do, and offered to help them out if they would let him make the trial by restoring their shades to a condition as good as new.

Of course, they did not believe he could do it, but finally they let him have some moldy shades that had been stored in the cellar. He sent them back like new. As in the previous case, they simply refused them on the plea that they were not their own shades. He carried them back and took with him the now famous strip of "Before and After Taking" to substantiate his claim. They were amazed. One firm after another sent for him and turned over their work. Hospitals, institutions, municipal buildings and apartment hotels all hurried in their orders until the Segall Window Shade Cleaning Co. held up its hands in desperation.

The shop was small, experiments were costly and already Segall had sunk his own small savings and what he could borrow into the three machines that stood ready for work. He was in no position to enlarge his store or add to his equipment.

The present capacity of the shop is 500 shades a week. The personnel consists of five employes and business is simply clamoring for admittance. Instead of hurrying, looking for more business, Segall begs people not to tell their friends that he has cleaned their shades. But because he is the only man in the United States, so far as he knows, who has this peculiar occupation he has had to assign to his stenographer the remarkable duty of saying to applicants quietly and courteously that "the Segall Window Shade Cleaning Co. regrets that it is unable to care for any more new business!"

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

Henry Penn—"Penn the Florist," of Boston—believes in doing things in a big way, and he considers the fact that florists in general do not appear to believe in the power of newspaper space is all the more reason why he should use it continually.

Because of this he took a half-page on the Saturday before Christmas last year to focus attention upon the desirability of "Saying Merry Christmas With Flowers." A conventional holly wreath border, with Christmas symbols in the corners, surrounded the entire space. In the upper left-hand corner appeared an illustration, about six inches square, of a beautifully dressed little girl with a pot of azaleas. Beneath this was a halftone of a poinsettia plant, while photographs of pots of begonias and ardesias flanked a brief description of the various floral suggestions in the right centre of the space.

"Never a More Joyous Christmas Never Were Flowers So Expressive" was the headline, set in 48-point Cheltenham bold italics, with the explanation below: 'This Christmas our minds are full of thoughts which spring from hearts overflowing with gladness. We seek superlatives to express our true thankfulness and nature's beautiful flowers offer themselves with a certainty that they will be understood. When other gifts seem insufficient and words fail—'say it with flowers'."

"There wasn't a word of superfluous mate in this advertisement," says Mr. Penn. "All the Christmas best-sellers were attractively illustrated, and with the introduction, were placed before the public in as brief a manner as possible—because our experience has been that the fewer words you use in describing an article the better are your chances for selling it, provided you use a sufficient amount of space for your announcement.

"Our Christmas business last year was the best in our history, due in no small measure to well-placed newspaper advertising in general, and this half-page in particular."

WOMEN APPRECIATE HELPFUL HOME HINTS

Hess Bros., who operate a large department store in Allentown, Pa., have launched an idea in connection with their page advertisements in daily newspapers that is bringing in results because women look for the "Pass It-On" boxes and thus get into the habit of reading the whole advertisement.

Every day in the upper righthand corner of the Hess Bros.' space is a box with "No. . Pass-It-On" as the heading. Below is advice on those little houshold worries that women encounter.

For instance, No. 5 reads:

> When preparing to launder a garment, the lace of which is run with ribbon, tie a piece of white cotton string to one end of the ribbon. Then when the ribbon is withdrawn, the string takes the place of the ribbon. After the garment is washed an end of the ribbon should be tied to the string and the ribbon pulled back into place.

Here is No. 6:

> Do not throw away paraffin wax after once used, but place it in a receptacle with a spout, so that it can be remelted and easily poured out when needed next canning season.

No. 7 says:

> A few grains of salt sprinkled in a pan before adding the fat will keep it from spattering on the stove.

No. 8 reads:

> The reason women hate sewing because it gives them a headache is because they put the machine in front of the window, and therefore work with their eyes in the glare of the light outside. Put the machine at an agle at the window and sit with your back or side to the light.

"These little boxes are doing the trick," said the advertising manager "in attracting women to our space displays, and the results can be seen in the number of people who tell the clerks they appreciate the service."

Guelph and Tillsonburg received orders from the Hydro-Electric Power Commission to reduce their peak load of power.

Of all the numerous teachers doing business here on earth,
Experience is the dearest one,
But you get your money's worth.

You Are Invited
To Visit Our Store and inspect Our Prices and Values in
DIAMOND RINGS
None Better in the City—Also
WATCHES
Waltham and Swiss Makes—
Accurate Time-Keepers
—Always Reliable.
Schneider's
367 George st., Next Turnbull's

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.
A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO. TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

One Archduke Remains Popular With Austrians And May Live in Republic

WHAT remains of the Austrian empire is forbidden ground for any former archduke, and the whole litter of them with their descendants, are now refugees, mostly in Switzerland, with orders never to come back. Of only one is this not true. Only one of them can enter Austria, and not alone enter it, but become a citizen and a welcome citizen. This archduke is Leopold Ferdinand, who was banished from the land of his birth by the emperor some seventeen years ago. Since then he has been living as a private citizen in Switzerland as Leopold Wolfing, almost forgotten by the great world where he was formerly a conspicuous if somewhat eccentric figure. He was easily the most human and intelligent of the Austrian archdukes, and it was because of his restless, questioning, essentially democratic mind that he was forced into exile by Francis Joseph. Had he remained in Austria and submitted to the imperial yoke he might well have played a big part in the later history of his country. Had he been the son of middle-class parents he might have distinguished himself in art or letters. As it was, he succeeded in doing nothing much more important than figuring in scandals and wrecking a promising career.

It was a considerable fall in a social sense, for Leopold Wolfing was once His Imperial Highness Archduke Leopold Ferdinand of Austria, Grand Duke of Tuscany, Royal Prince of Hungary and Bohemia, Knight of the Order of the Golden Fleece and colonel of the Imperial and Royal Army of Austria-Hungary. By these entitlements, those familiar with the Almanac de Gotha will identify Herr Wolfing as the brother of the famous Crown Princess Louise of Saxony, whose sensational escape from her husband, the former King of Saxony, lately deposed, attracted the attention of the world in 1902. Brother and sister were much alike in their hatred for the world into which they were born. From childhood both were determined to live their own lives with as little interference as possible on the part of those about them. They were very different from the other little archdukes and archduchesses and it is to be feared caused their parents much trouble.

ARCHDUKE FERDINAND.

As Leopold grew up he was, of course, sent to the army, and soldiering was made rather more real and unpleasant for him than for other royal spriglets, because it was hoped that the discipline would break his unruly spirit. It failed, and instead, Leopold found himself in one continuous broil with superior officers and the adult members of his family. He was transferred from one regiment to another, from one to another purple martinet, and from one gloomy garrison town to one a shade gloomier whenever it could be discovered. He relieved the tedium of his existence by various scandalous affairs. He was transferred to the navy, but nothing could be made of him in that service either, and the report given by his captain was that he was incapable, dissolute and lazy. So he went back into the army. In 1902 he was openly living with a noted Viennese beauty, Miss Adamovic, daughter of a college professor, and this so enraged the emperor, that he was peremptorily ordered to give up his friend. In return he asked permission to marry her, and when this was refused, his name was dropped from the army list. A month or two later when he became involved in the escape of his sister, he was banished from Austria and made to sign an abdication to all his claims upon the succession in exchange for a pension of 200,000 francs.

Following his banishment from Austria, he married Miss Adamovic, who had been one of the party which helped the Crown Princess Louise to escape from Germany, and they settled down in Switzerland. At least, Mrs. Wolfing settled down. Had her husband settled all might have been well. He refused to live right, with the result that in 1907 he and his wife were divorced. Later on he married a pretty Silesian girl, a commoner, with whom it is presumed he has lived ever since.

Own Only the Surface.

In Japan individuals own only the surface of the ground and its products, all mineral deposits being government property.

J. M. Dods Co. of Alton have secured a factory in Erin, where they will manufacture finished cotton products.

HOLD-UP MEN GET AWAY WITH $40000

New York, Nov. 29.—Four hold-up men backed George Alexander, wealthy Washington market merchant, into the hallway of his fashionable west end avenue home yesterday morning and robbed him of $40,000.

Last night the police announced the arrest of two men in connection with the crime, recovery of $8,000, and alleged confession of Thomas Rockfort, Alexander's chauffeur, to a share in the plot to rob him. Rockfort was arrested on a charge of complicity in grand larceny.

For effrontery, the hold-up of Alexander was said to have surpassed all robberies of the past few months. Several persons were in plain sight when the merchant was backed, at pistol point, from his automobile into his house, and two private cars were standing close by, with chauffeurs in them.

REDEEM THEIR NOTES

Brussels, Nov. 29.—An agrement has been arrived at between the Belgian and German Governments, whereby Germany, during a period of 20 years, will redeem six billion marks, which were issued by the Germans in the occupied territories.

SILKWORMS ON THE SCREEN.

In producing educational films, the producer runs the gamut of the animal kingdom, from microbes to elephants, says Pearson's Weekly.

To see "The Life of the Silkworm" on the screen consumes but a few minutes of your time, but to produce such a motion picture is enough to try the patience of a saint.

A director who makes a specialty of putting on educationals recently told me of the difficulties he was up against in "featuring," to use a trade term, silk worms.

He started off with thirty silkworms, but the powerful arc lamps necessary for the photographic purposes killed off nearly all of them, and the survivors were conscious of their unnatural surroundings.

This would not do at all if he was going to film their life in a perfectly natural manner, so he hit upon the plan of constructing a screen which reflected and diffused the light. [illegible] obstinate as before, and this time he got them to act by applying a mild anesthetic.

In the meantime he added to his cast a bunch of silk moths, who were no less easy to film; harder, to be on the right side, for they lay eggs as tiny as mere specs of dust.

My director friend attached a microscopic contrivance to the camera, and at the same time turned the handle as they hatched. He then exposed more film to record the birth of the young worm and its four moulting periods, spinning the cocoon, and lastly as a moth.

How long do you suppose it took the director to produce this small motion picture? Two solid months, and you may take it from me that he would much rather direct the most temperamental photoplayer than coach a silkworm to do what he wants.

Painted Flowers.

Recent experiments have proved it practicable to make a rosebush yield roses of any color desired.

It must, however, be a bush that would normally bear white roses. Then it is merely a question of watering the soil with a very dilute solution of one chemical or another.

Potash will cause the bush to produce green roses; alum will give them a lilac hue, and muriatic acid will turn them red. By like means the long-sought blue rose has been obtained; but the chemical employed in this case is a secret.

The same method, with like results, can be applied to white hydrangeas and other white flowers.

Floor Bleach

If an unfilled or undressed hardwood floor becomes gray apply a solution of two ounces of oxalic acid dissolved in just enough water to wet it well all over. Let stand fifteen or twenty minutes; then rinse in cold water and proceed to wash without suds as usual.

Confidential Communication.

"I promised Matilda not to mention this to anyone, because she got it in strictest confidence from some one who was pledged to absolute secrecy, so before I tell you you must give me your word of honor you won't even breathe a hint of it."

First Translation of Bible.

The first translation of any part of the Bible was that by Bede of the Fourth Gospel, in 735. The first complete translation was that of Wycliffe about 1388. Luther was not born until 1483.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LAdies. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont

LOST.

~~LOST—ON WEDNESDAY AFternoon, between Aylmer and George streets on McDonnel street, or on street car, black silk bag containing purses and sum of money. Finder leave at Review office and receive reward.~~

LOST—A LARGE BLACK AND tan (mostly black) hound pup, with strap on neck. Finder please notify A. Blade & Son, Florists.

LOST—TUESDAY EVENING. in city, tire and rim. Apply Gibbs & Galpin, 421 Water street.

CHIROPRACTIC
Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases
DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8. 'Phone 871

WANTED.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED school teacher for School Section [illegible] South Monaghan, duties to commence on [illegible] Thos. Donaldson, R. R., Millbrook, Ont.

MECHANICS WANTED.

~~PLASTERERS WANTED FOR out of town work, heat on building, [illegible] per hour, time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. west, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829 at my expense.~~

TO LET.

~~HOUSE TO RENT — WILL lease 174 [illegible] street. Call phone 1945J [illegible] Phone 776 for particulars. Immediate possession.~~

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE — ONE WORK horse, 7-year-old, sound. Apply 9[illegible] Stewart street, or phone 17[illegible].

AUTOMOBILE BARGAINS.
TWO SPECIAL BARGAINS IN used Ford Touring Cars.
D[illegible]'S GARAGE.

Satisfaction in Doing Right.

Imagination is the father and mother of trouble when we let it run loose in a time of stress. But in the end the will and the heart are what determine our fate. After all, when we do right we have some satisfaction even if we suffer. But if we do nothing but drift along we have not even the satisfaction of knowing we deserve to come out right.

Battles on Sundays.

The date of the battle of Salamanca was Sunday, July 2, 1812; Vimiero, Feuntes d'Onor, Orthez, Toulouse and Vittoria were also contested on what were known as "Wellington's Red Sundays." Waterloo was won on a Sunday and the greatest attack on Cronje's trenches at Paardeberg was made on a Sunday—Feb. 18, 1900.

Waiting in Agony.

At a recent wedding the bride was delayed a little in making her appearance. When at last she did appear she breathlessly ran up to the embarrassed bridegroom, who had been waiting for her in agony and putting her arms around his neck exclaimed: "Oh, John, dear, I am so sorry I am late."

Have You A Savings Account?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked 'till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc.
and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
424 Hunter St. Peterborough.
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
[illegible]
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public. Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.O.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, George Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 395 George St.

PLAYER'S NAVY CUT CIGARETTES "MEDIUM"
PLAYER'S NAVY CUT
10
Beautifully Cool and Sweet Smoking

PLAYER'S

NAVY CUT CIGARETTES

PLAYER'S CIGARETTES have an immense sale all over the world due entirely to their high quality and excellence of manufacture

18c. PER PACKAGE—TWO FOR 35c.

AID THE MAIMED AND CRIPPLED

In the important matter of the manufacture, supply and maintenance of artificial limbs, and orthopaedic and surgical appliances for the use of ex-members of the forces suffering from war disabilities, Canada established an organization absolutely unique in the world, and one on which others of the allied countries were glad to mold similar departments designed to aid those who had been maimed and crippled in the great war. In this, as in other matters pertaining to the welfare of citizen soldiers, the Dominion acted as a pioneer.

It was early recognized that in this important matter which so deeply concerns the disabled man and has such an immediate and lasting effect on his comfort, that it would be unwise to depend on the efforts of private firms to furnish the necessary aids and appliances. Accordingly, in conjunction with the Medical Services of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, there was organized the Orthopaedic and Surgical Appliances Branch. This branch offers free of any cost to the former soldier the best possible type of appliance suited to his needs, and further, will maintain in repair, and, when necessary, replace such appliance during the lifetime of the ex-service man. Furthermore, he is granted pay and allowances while undergoing treatment. If, later, it becomes necessary for him to travel to a fitting depot, he receives transportation and pay and allowances while absent from his employment through this cause.

Previous to the war there was no considerable demand in Canada for artificial limbs and the varied appliances rendered necessary by the extraordinary disabilities which men have sustained as a result of too intimate an acquaintance with weapons of destruction, hence the work of organization presented many difficulties, but these were overcome and satisfactory results have been and are being attained. One of the chief difficulties at the outset was to secure sufficient skilled craftsmen to undertake the manufacture of the appliances. They were found, however, and there is now a thoroughly competent and sufficiently numerous staff of expert workers in the main factory at Toronto and in the various fitting depots throughout the Dominion to keep pace with the demands made upon the branch. Of this staff eighty per cent. have seen service.

There are several considerations which render difficult the work of this branch and call for a systematic co-operation on the part of the fitter. Amputation cases are, as a rule, among the most cheerful of patients, but when these men come to be fitted for an appliance to take the place of a lost leg or arm they encounter conditions hitherto unthought of. It is not possible to select the device as one chooses a pair of boots or a suit of clothes. There are no two similar amputations and each individual case presents its own peculiarities. The fitting of the "bucket" into which the stump must go requires special consideration for each individual. The patient is to learn that the stump must become hardened and strengthened and that during this period he may suffer not only discomfort but actual pain. This trying time makes demands on the fortitude and philosophy of the amputation case, and it is then that the fitter must prove himself a sympathetic friend as well as a skilled craftsman in order that complete satisfaction may be obtained by the maimed man. To further secure this sympathetic co-operation, so necessary on the part of the fitter, endeavor has been made to train disabled men in this work, and a number of amputation cases have been instructed in this work and have proven thoroughly competent, thus serving the double purpose of offering satisfactory service to the patients and opening up a profitable calling for war-hurt craftsmen. Then men to whom this training is offered are those possessing a knowledge of woodworking, leather working or any of the kindred crafts necssary for the finished product. At present 13.5 per cent of the staff is composed of amputation cases.

On return to Canada amputation cases are sent to the Dominion Orthopaedic Hospital, Toronto, which is in charge of the Canadian Army Medical Corps. There they receive their first fitting and the type of appliance agreed upon after consultation with the orthopaedic consultants. Afterwards, on being sent to their homes, the patients can receive fitting and attention at the nearest depot, and may, if necessary, secure replacements and repairs.

The artificial limb factory is situated in Toronto, occupying 26,000 square feet of floor space in the D. S. C. R. building, 185 Spadina avenue. Here is also situated a shop for the manufacture of orthopaedic boots, and, in addition, the stores of material. There is also maintained in Toronto a completely equipped fitting shop, at present situated at Davisville, but later to be transferred to the Christie street hospital, where a building containing 16,000 square feet is available for this work.

The manufacturing plant and the boot-making shop have been equipped with the most modern machinery so that there is available not only the highest skill, but the best possible equipment for each detail of manufacture, the result being a finished product of the most approved standard. From the arrival at the factory of the rough willow block until it is assembled with other parts as a complete device, there is a variety of processes which call for the services of many craftsmen, including wood turners, shapers, blacksmiths, welders, men who cover the "bucket" with hide and who dry it in the oven, men who enamel and varnish, and others who assemble the various parts required to complete the limb or arm. There are lathes, punching machines, and an uncanny device which carves four pieces at one time; band saws that produce amazing results when directed by the skilled worker; in fact, there is available the most complete equipment to produce the best article that can be offered to those men to whom Canada owes so much.

In order that these cases, scattered throughout the great area of the Dominion, could receive repairs and renewals of their appliances, fitting and repair shops, each in charge of a thoroughly experienced man with sufficient help controlled by the Unit Assistant Director, Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, were established in the main military and industrial centres where the D. S. C. R. units are situated. These branches have, accordingly, been established at Montreal, Halifax, Kingston, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary Vancouver and Fredericton. Sub-depots are established at Ottawa, Hamilton, Edmonton and Victoria. Patients who return to the United Kingdom have their interests looked after by the O. & S. A. representative, Lieut. G. R. Middleton, No. 6 Hanover Square, London, W. 1, England, and those who finally proceed to other parts of the world have special arrangements made on their behalf with the various governments for fulfilling their requirements. On the other hand, disabled members of the Allied forces resident in Canada receive attention from this branch.

It should here be mentioned that these depots are equipped to supply orthopaedic boots for all cases in their areas to men whose disabilities require them.

All men requiring appliances, renewals and repairs apply to the Unit Medical Directors who are there established, and these officers make the necessary prescriptions upon which appliances are made and supplied. Up to date the O. & S. A. branch have supplied:

2,719 artificial legs.

1,332 artificial arms.

4,149 pairs of orthopaedic boots.

12,703 minor orthopeadic appliances (braces, splints, trusses, belts, etc.).

2,750 spectacles or eyeglasses.

315 artificial eyes.

5,049 repairs executed.

MONEY WELL SPENT

In these days of expensive living the question with most people is to get the best value for one's money. In the case of newspapers or magazines there can be no doubt about The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal giving the greatest value for the money on the continent. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a wonderful combination of newspaper, magazine, and agricultural paper. It costs only $1.25 a year and each subscriber receives a handsome souvenir portrait of the Prince of Wales, 16x22 inches. We learn the subscription price will be $1.50 after December 31st. No better value can be had than a year's trial of the big Montreal Weekly. It consists of 64 pages each week and every page interesting and instructive."

THE MARKETS

Toronto, Dec. 1.—Cattle market receipts were heavy and prices firmer. Quotations:

Heavy beef steers	$13.00	$13.50
Choice butcher steers	12.00	12.75
Medium butcher cows	6.50	8.50
Calves	16.50	19.50
Ewes	7.00	8.50
Lambs	14.25	15.00
Hogs, selects, f.a.w.	16.50	16.75

A superstitious individual says it is a bad sign to write another man's name on a note.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL FOR THEFT

BREAD DELIVERER ALLEGED TO HAVE STOLEN DAY'S RECEIPTS

A. Irwine, formerly driver for the Peterborough Bread Company, was committed for trial on a charge of theft by Magistrate Dumble at Police Court this morning.

J. J. Corbett, the local manager, was the first witness called and told, under close questioning by the magistrate of the system by which the company keeps close account of all money obtained by their drivers. He swore that on the 22nd of November Irwine was $40.46 short upon his return from the route in the evening. The accused had stated that he lost the money but the witness did not believe him.

On the Friday evening previous to the theft the driver, it is alleged, had had a quarrel with the general manager, who was in the city at that time, over the heated condition of a horse on its return to the stable. Irwine informed the manager on the following morning (the day of the alleged theft) that he would quit that night. It was this act on the part of Irwine that lead Corbett to disbelieve the story that he had lost the money.

He had offered the accused to take back the 40 missing dollars at a dollar a week, but upon this offer not being accepted, he had laid the charge of theft.

The magistrate considered the circumstantial evidence surrounding the case of too convicting a nature to acquit the accused, and consequently committed him for trial.

Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for the accused.

KINGSTON HAS COAL.

Kingston, Dec. 1. — Kingston seems to be most fortunate in respect to its winter supply of coal. Investigation conducted by the mayor showed that there was no cause for uneasiness. The coal dealers had been early with their orders, and during navigation no time was lost in obtaining all that was required for the industries, institutions and dwellings. The hard coal stock is considered ample to last till March 31, and the bituminous coal until about the end of February.

The general strike at Saragossa, Spain, has been called off. The workmen decided to resume work on Saturday.

ST. ANDREW'S MAY DULY CELEBRATED

CALEDONIAN CLUB HOLD FESTIVITIES IN HONOR OF GREAT SCOTTISH SAINT

The Caladonian Club celebrated St. Andrew's night with true Scottish fervor last Friday. Over two hundred true-blooded Scotchmen and women assembled in the Wodmen of the World Hall to hear an address on St. Andrew by Mr. G. N. Gordon and enjoy the festivities of the occasion.

During the course of his speech, Mr. Gordon dwelt upon the way Scotchmen were accustomed to reach the pinnacle of all organizations with which they might be connected. This is a direct result of careful and efficient education. He told of the life of the great Saint of Scotland and emphasized the fact that all over the world Scotchmen would be holding celebrations in his honor.

The following people contributed to the program by song and recitation: Mrs. Geo King, Mr. John Anderson, Mr John Smith, Mr. W. Farr, Mr. O. Freeburn, Mr. R. Hendry and Mr. W. Thompson.

After the rendering of this much-appreciated concert, refreshments were served and a good old-fashioned Scotch dance was enjoyed far into the hours of the morning.

POLISH ARMY CONNECTS

Paris, Dec. 1. The news that the Polish army has formed a junction with the army of General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in Southern Russia, is confirmed in a despatch received by the Presse de Paris, from Warsaw.

HOLD UP STAG HUNT.

Downpatrick, Ulster, Dec. 1.—Sinn Feiners in Northwest Ulster carried out their threat to prevent the County Down stag hounds from hunting if Gen. Hackett-Pain, the British commander in Londonderry, were allowed to ride. The Sinn Feiners locked the gates to the hunting grounds, posted sentries and barred the hunters from the field after the master of the hounds had refused to forbid Hackett-Pain taking part.

The T., H. & B. railway will construct for the C. P. R. the approach line from Welland to the Niagara frontiers for the new bridge at Black Creek.

NO DECISION ON PEACE TREATY FOR WEEKS YET

COMPROMISE EFFORTS WILL, HOWEVER, BE RESUMED IN CONGRESS AT ONCE

Washington, Dec. 1. — Although a new effort for compromise ratification of the peace treaty is expected to follow closely the reconvening of Congress, discussion among returning Senators last night revealed little optimism that the question would be brought to a decisive state for some weeks.

In the absence of information as to what President Wilson will recommend in his message to the new session, Republican and Democratic leaders in the Senate were preparing to go ahead with long-delayed general legislation, which many Senators on both sides declare is urgently demanded by sentiment in their home districts.

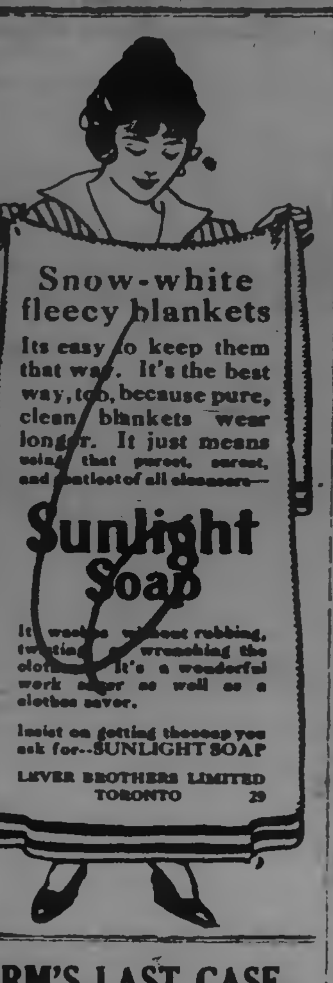
It was agreed generally that even if the President asked that the fight for ratification be renewed at once, the work in that direction would be carried on privately in conferences of the opposing Senate groups while other business proceeded without interruption on the Senate floor.

In some quarters the impression gained ground that Mr. Wilson would touch but briefly on the treaty in his message, and would let further formal action regarding it wait until a compromise plan had been perfected. In order to get it before the Senate again in a Parliamentary sense it will be necessary, in the view of most Senators, for the executive to again submit it for ratification.

Since the last session ended on Nov. 19, no Senator has seen the President and Democratic Leader Hitchcock indicated tonight that he would make no further efofrt in the near future to secure a conference with the executive. He would not predict what the Presidential message would say on the subject, but said he did not expect the subject to come to a direct issue until the session was some weeks old. Compromise efforts would be renewed privately, he added, as soon as possible.

Republican Leader Lodge has not returned to the capital tonight, but other prominent Republican Senators concurred in the view of the Democrats that the treaty would not soon be brought again before the Senate.

Colon Lafortune, last survivor of a family which had several centenarians, died at Port Dover in his 102nd year.



Snow-white fleecy blankets

Its easy to keep them that way. It's the best way, too, because pure, clean blankets wear longer. It just means using that purest, surest, and gentlest of all cleansers—

Sunlight Soap

It washes without rubbing, twisting or wrenching the clothes. It's a wonderful work saver as well as a clothes saver.

Insist on getting the soap you ask for—SUNLIGHT SOAP

LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED TORONTO 29

TERM'S LAST CASE IN SUPREME COURT

WOOLLEN COMPANY ARGUED AND JUDGMENT RESERVED

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—In the Supreme Court Friday, M'Larry v. Auburn Woollen Co., an Ontario case, was heard. The appellant agreed to purchase land from the company, paying $700 down, and agreeing to pay the balance by instalments at specified dates. He did not make the payments as agreed, and was given notice of cancellation of the contract. More than a year later appellant tendered the whole amount due on the proposed purchase, which was refused, and he brought action for specific performance. Appellant claimed that after the notice to cancel was given he had several interviews with the president of the company, who, it was claimed, stated the contract was still open. This was denied. The Appellate Division dismissed the action and ordered the $700 paid by appellant to be returned, but respondent to have a lien on it for its costs, reversing the judgment on the trial decreeing specific performance.

Judgment was reserved. R. R. Hall appeared for the appellant, and E. L. Goodwill for respondent.

Court then adjourned to Monday, Decemeber 22, for delivery of judgments.

INSURANCE FOR WORKING MOTHERS

REIMBURSEMENTS TO BE PAID BY STATE IS PROJECT OF CONFERENCE

Washington, Nov. 30.—Women wage-earners, including those engaged in commercial as well as industrial work, would be indemnified for time lost during child-birth under a convention adopted yesterday by the international labor conference, for submission to the various governments for approval. The convention, as originally drafted, was amended so that reimbursements would be paid by the state or "by means of a system of insurance."

Viscount Milner Secretary for the Colonies, left London on Saturday morning for Egypt with the seventeen members of the commission appointed to investigate the unrest in that country.

RELEASE CANADIAN PRISONERS OVERSEAS

TO BE HANDED OVER TO MILITARY AUTHORITIES, FIFTEENTH THIS MONTH

London, Dec. 1.—The Home Secretary has informed Bernard Abinger, the solicitor who presented the petition praying for clemency for five Canadian soldiers who were sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment for rioting at Epsom, that the men will be released on December 15 and handed over to the Canadian military authorities who will convey them to Canada and discharge them there.

These men participated in the riot in which a policeman lost his life. The prisoners were originally indicted on a murder charge, which was eventually reduced to one of rioting. Mr. Justice Darling, in passing sentence, said their conduct was no worse than that of many people living in this country.

The petition to the Home Secretary pointed out among other things that the Prince of Wales was in Canada and that it would be a special act of grace if the men were released.

MILLIONS FOR LAND SOLD BY CAN. INDIANS

TRUST FUND NOW AMOUNTS TO OVER $11,000,000. FURTHER TRANSFER

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 1.—"Lo, the rich Indian," is how one shall have to quote Pope's lines in the near future. The Indian trust fun, derived from the sale of lands belonging to the wards of Canada at one time or another since the creation of the department of Indian affairs, now amounts to over $11,000,000. The inspector of Indian agencies has been in Ottawa recently together with W. Gowan, [illegible] and [illegible] of lands for the soldiers' land settlement board, making arrangements for the transfer of further lands to the value of one million dollars, situated in the three western provinces, for the purpose of soldier settlement.

Col. W. W. Foster, of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, has just returned from the West where he has been looking into the whole matter of soldiers' re-establishment. He will make a report to the Government this week, when it is understood he will have some important recommendations to make concerning different enterprises which the Government may undertake for the benefit of the soldiers during the coming winter.

AMENDMENT TO B. C. LIQUOR LAWS

REDUCE AMOUNT THAT CAN BE SOLD AT ANY ONE TIME

Vancouver, Nov. 30.—Announcement was made here yesterday by Attorney-General Farris that at the next session of the legislature an amendment to the British Columbia Prohibition Act would be presented to reduce the minimum amount of liquor that can be legally sold at one time to any one person through Government dispensaries from two quarts to eight ounces.

This regulation will be tried for six months, at the end of which time the Government would submit a referendum to the people, in which they would be asked to say if they were in favor of the eight-ounce regulation or whether in favor of the sale of liquor in quantities up to one quart through the Government liquor stores.

The first locomotive on a French railroad to use oil as fuel made a complete success in its experimental trip.

DOES SANTA CLASS WEAR CLASSES?

Santa Claus is a wise old man, and it is safe to say that if he needs glasses he wears them; also that they are "PEBLO" quality, because he wouldn't have anything but the best that's made. He would advise Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" Glasses in handsome gold mounts as Christmas gifts to your elderly friends, to whom a more modern pair of glasses would be highly acceptable.

See Dr. Fowler about it.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors With Nugent Drug Co.

MAJOR A. P. MILLER D.S.O.M.C., WITH BAR

MILITARY RECORD OF NEW ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT TRENT VALLEY CANAL

The new assistant superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal, Major Miller, was educated at the Royal Military College, Kingston, graduating in June, 1899. He took up the profession of railway engineering, but obtained a commission in the old 49th Regiment, of which he is now a senior officer. When the war broke out the major obtained a commission in the 21st Canadian Battalion, where his natural ability soon made him a popular and efficient officer.

He reached France on September 15, 1915, and received his baptism of fire at that hell hole in front of Messines. At the battle of St. Eloi, when the struggle for the craters was such a see-saw, the major led a bombing party with great success, and so distinguished himself that he was recommended for and obtained the Military Cross. In the early stages of this attack he was wounded, but didn't go back until forced to do so.

From this time up to the battle of the Somme there was much trench snatching, and the stories of the major's activities would fill a book.

At the Somme the major again distinguished himself in the struggle at the Sugar Refinery, a powerfully strong point, and, although wounded for a second time, he kept in with his men until their objective had been gained and consolidated. Once again he was mentioned for distinguished conduct and received a bar to his Military Cross.

Again at Hill 70 he was mentioned in despatches and once again wounded.

At Passchendaele the major so distinguished himself for bravery, leadership and self-forgetfulness, in spite of heavy fire and strong resistance, and, although wounded in four places, made it his business to see his men comfortable. For this he was highly complimented and awarded the D. S. O. After this the major was attached to the railway troops, and so outstanding was his conduct that he was again mentioned in despatches, making in all five times to be so honored.

Major Miller married in London and brought his wife to Canada with him. Mrs. Miller is now in Peterborough and is settling down, having already arranged for a home in the city, as she says Peterborough is such a delightful place that it makes one feel at home as soon as one enters the city.

Major Miller intends keeping up his connection with the militia and has promised to take second command of the 4th Brigade, Canadian Machine Gun Corps, which will have three batteries in Peterborough, besides others in Kingston and Ottawa.

Peterborough welcomes so gallant a soldier and has no doubt that he will distinguish himself in his new appointment.

WHY REV. W. IVENS IS A BOLSHEVIST

BECAUSE BOLSHEVISM RECOGNIZES SACREDNESS OF LIFE AND RIGHT TO WORK

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 1.—In evidence given at the trial of R. B. Russell, charged with seditious conspiracy this morning, A. E. Reams, intelligence officer of R.N.W.M.P., gave the following definitions, as given by Williams Ivens, of Bolshevism:

1. Sacredness of human life.
2. Right to work for every one.
3. Production to belong to the producer.

"I am, therefore, a Bolshevist in every sense of the word," said Rev. Wm. Ivens.

This evidence was given by Mr. Reams in connection with the meeting of Labor conference, held in the Labor Temple. Mr. Reams also gave evidence of the search conducted in the Labor Temple on July 1, between 12.30 a.m. and 4.30 a.m., when documents and phamphlets were seized. A large number of these were introduced and filed for identification, but none of them were read.

FUEL COMMITTEES SEIZE COAL STOCKS

HOURS FOR OPERATING STORES THEATRES, OFFICE BUILDINGS ARE CURTAILED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Further stringent regulations for fuel conservation are in effect today over virtually the entire country. Regional fuel committees took control of coal stocks in many States, and non-essential industries continued to close down owing to lack of fuel. Hours for operating stores, theatres and office buildings were curtailed.

MORE ACTIVITY AT FIUME IS REPORTED

SAID THAT D'ANNUNZIAN FLEET HAS SAILED FOR TROOPS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Belgrade, Dec. 1.—Great activity prevails at Fiume, from which city a destroyer left Saturday, presumably for Zara, according to the Serbian press bureau. The merchant vessel Adria, followed almost immediately with 1,000 shock troops aboard. Reports from Fiume state that "Admiral" Rizzo, commander of the D'Annunzian fleet there, has gone on board a destroyer and purposes occupying Sebenico.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT IS ARRAIGNED BY U.S.A.

NO ULTIMATUM HAS YET BEEN SERVED, BUT RELATIONS ARE STRAINED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Dec. 1.—Renewing the request for the immediate release of Consular Agent Jenkins, imprisoned at Puebla, the latest American note to Mexico, made public today, arraigns the Mexican government's conduct in sevre terms, and characterizes it as a studied attempt to ensnare the American consular agent in the intricacies of legal proceedings. No ultimatum was served, and no indication was given of what the American Government's course would be if Jenkins is not immediately released.

Rats Kill Millions.

Fifty million pounds' worth of damage is done in this country every year by rats, says Tit-Bits.

There is, however, an even more appalling feature of the plague. The astounding fact has just been revealed that since 1900 no fewer that 12,000,000 people in India have been killed by rats.

Furthermore, they have killed thousands of people in Europe, including many of our soldiers, by carrying disease and plague among them. Trench fever, influenza epidemics, foot-and-mouth disease, swine fever and dysentery have been traced to rats, which breed at such an astounding rate that it will take the combined efforts of the world's doctors and scientists to exterminate them.

At the age of eight weeks a rat may have young, and there is nothing uncommon in ten at a litter and six litters in a year. One authority states that a pair of rats are theoretically capable of producing in five years 940,369,969,152 offspring.

The most expert rate exterminator in England is Mr B Lewis Phillips, the managing director of the London vermin destroying firm, which, last year, destroyed 6,000,000 of the rodents. We shall never get rid of the plague, in Mr. Phillips' opinion, until every ship that comes into port is examined.

Invented Silk.

Silk was first made by Si Ling, wife of Hoang-Ti, Emperor of China, 2600 B.C. Among the Greeks Aristotle (384-322 B.C.) is the first who mentions it. It was not until A.D. 520, however, that silk worms began to be cultivated in Europe, the first eggs being then brought from India by some monks.

Technical Education for Workers.

The British milling industry has started a campaign of technical education to improve the efficiency of its workers.

Value of Uncooked Food.

Man cannot digest and assimilate the mineral elements in rock; hence it is necessary for him to get the elements for structural work from fruits and vegetables, in their fresh, uncooked state; for cooking destroys the chemistry—the chemical synthesis with albumin is lost. J. H. Tilden, M. D.

Paste for Brown Leather.

An excellent paste for brown leather is made of two ounces of soft soap, four ounces of beeswax, two ounces of turpentine and half an ounce of neat's foot oil. Melt soap, wax and oil together, then remove from fire and add the turpentine. Stir well. When cold apply with a brush.

Reason for Optimism.

"Some men are optimists," said Uncle Eben, "foh de reason dat it's most times easier to sell a man sumpin' by tellin him a funny story dan it is by tellin' him de truth."

Perplexing.

One of the mysteries of this life is why they call it a tanning when every kid knows that the area affected by the performance doesn't get tan at all.

Beware First False Step.

Honor is like an island, rugged and without a landing place; we can never more re-enter when we are once outside of it. Silver Threads.

Lord Harcourt Returns To Place in Public Eye After Short Retirement

HIS American mother-in-law having left him $250,000, Lord Harcourt appears again in the news of the day, and forms a subject for a resume of his career by T. P. O'Connor, the witty Irish politician and journalist. As Colonial Secretary under Mr. Asquith, the then Hon. Mr. Harcourt came into immediate touch with members of the Canadian Government on many occasions, and deeply impressed them with his unusual ability. Later on he was raised to the peerage, and resigned his post, being regarded as extremely hostile to Lloyd George, and intensely loyal, like Reginald McKenna, to his old leader. Since then he has taken no active part in politics, chiefly on account of ill-health. It is reported that the rest has done him a world of good, and that when the time comes for the Lloyd George Government to pass away, which is inevitable, Lord Harcourt is likely again to assume office. Even the post has been picked out for him, and he is slated for the Foreign Office. His admirers believe that but for the disability of belonging to the Upper House, he might even become Prime Minister. There is, of course, no law that debars one of the Lords from the premiership, but in the future the chiefs of Government will probably be recruited from the Commons.

LORD HARCOURT.

Lord Harcourt has had an interesting career, even if there remain no more important chapters to write in it. The relationship between himself and his famous father, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, was peculiarly intimate, and for many years he was his sire's chief assistant and companion. He shared with Sir William the latter's black disappointment when, after Gladstone's retirement, he did not secure the Premiership, but was set to one side, as a result, as Mr. O'Connor says, of a conspiracy in favor of Lord Rosebery. Though he became Chancellor of the Exchequer he never forgave his leader, and it is an open secret that when on a snap division the Rosebery Government was defeated, Sir William was pleased as Punch. Thenceforth, he devoted much of his time to prosecuting his feud against Rosebery and eventually had the satisfaction of seeing him disappear from public life. His enjoyment of the episode was shared by his son, "Lulu," and it is said that so fiercely had he taken his father's part in the quarrel that Lord Rosebery once remarked that "Wherever he went he found the trail of that serpent, young Harcourt."

In Lord Harcourt's earlier days, he and his father, though belonging to one of the oldest families in England, being, in fact, descendants of the Plantagenets, were by no means in easy circumstances. Sir William made an income as a barrister. Later he married a daughter of the American historian, Motley, who brought him a considerable fortune, and some time afterward was made the heir of his nephew, Aubrey Harcourt, who had inherited the family estates, and who died tragically at Monte Carlo. As Chancellor of the Exchequer he had framed the act by which the Government took a huge slice in death duties, and at the time may have had no particular thought that he would ever be personally affected by it. Yet he had to pay heavily when he inherited from his nephew, and his son, "Lulu," had also to "come through" in handsome style when he inherited from his father. By this time, however, he was largely independent, since he had married a niece of the late J. P. Morgan.

Lord Harcourt first entered the House at the age of forty and had the unique experience of making his maiden speech not as a private member but as a Minister, he being a commissioner of works.

His next step was to the Colonial Office. When the war broke out his health was delicate, but he labored for sixteen hours a day, and the smooth working of the measures taken co-operation by the overseas dominions and colonies with the Mother Country was no small tribute to the efficiency of his work. When Mr. Asquith was ousted and Lloyd George became Premier, Harcourt refused longer to hold office. He and the Premier are considered enemies. It is not unlikely that but for this feud he might have been appointed British Ambassador to Washington.

A woman may pose as a walking encyclopaedia, but the average man prefers one he can shut up once in a while.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE TRADE

We have opened up an office, sample room and warehouse at 332 WATER STREET, CITY, opposite the MARKET SQUARE, where we have in stock a fresh line of goods, as follows: Scribblers, Exercise Books, Writing Pads, Envelopes, Papeteries, Note Books, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Mucilage, Tobaccos, Cigars, Cigarettes, Pipes, Gum, and Sundries. We are also manufacturing the splendid line of Herbal Medicines, known as Gallagher's Herbal Remedies, such as Blood Purifier, Kidney Cure, Golden Drops and Cough Syrup.

We are here to give you good goods, good service, at right prices, and ask for a share of your trade. Shall be pleased to have you call and inspect our stock.

THE GALLAGHER REMEDY CO.

332 WATER STREET,

PHONE 1331. PETERBOROUGH, ONT.

WHOLESALE ONLY.

TRINIDAD'S PITCH LAKE.

For Years Men Have Dug But It Never Grows Less.

Lying in the deep blue, tropical waters of the Caribbean Sea, about 2,000 miles in an airplane from New York City, is the Island of Trinidad, British West Indies.

The island is separated from the coast of Venesuela by two bocas or channels — the Dragon's Mouth on the north and the Serpent's Mouth on the south. Between them is the Gulf of Paria.

On this beautiful tropical island, ablaze with the vegetation of the southern climate, is a pitch or asphalt lake, whence comes the asphalt used for paving city streets and making roofing.

According to West Indian legend, the lake was created by the "Great Spirit" when he punished the Chaymas Indians. The legend tells of the beautiful superstition that humming birds were the souls of departed Indians. The Chaymas, a wicked and slothful tribe, killed these feathered jewels in great quantities and bedecked themselves with the finery from the slaughtered birds. The "Great Spirit" punished them for this wantonness. In a single night their village disappeared and in its place [illegible] the asphalt lake, or "Tierra de Brea," as the Spaniards call it.

The lake, or deposit, is a great level area of about 114 acres, bordered by low hills and dotted with clumps of trees and bushes. The surface is a dull bluish grey in color and is broken by irregular pools of water. Pools of water in a lake sounds strange, but it must be remembered that this so-called lake is of asphalt. Borings have been made to a depth of 135 feet, but due to the slow imperceptible and constant motion of this great mass of asphalt, the drills were broken off and no further borings could be made. It was found, however, that the asphalt was of the same character throughout.

One of the most curious and seemingly mysterious functions of the deposit, and one which generally impresses the visitor, is the apparent refilling of the lake. Although the natives dig all day, in depths ranging from 3 to 6 feet, all traces of the hole have vanished by the following morning. So, although asphalt has been mined since 1870 and shipped all over the world, it may be said that no one has ever succeeded in making a hole in the lake. The explanation given for this phenomenon is that the pressure of the mass fills up small excavations by settling, as the entire surface of the lake has dropped about one foot since 1876, but there is no danger that the supply of asphalt will be exhausted for many, many centuries.

It was not until 1870 that asphalt was put to practical use as a paving material, and the credit for its use belongs to de Schmedt, a Belgian chemist. Since those early days asphalt has come into almost universal use, not only as a street and road building material, due to its long weather exposure, has also proved invaluable in the roofing industry. Trinidad asphalt, that we can ride and drive and walk upon so freely, was used by Columbus to caulk his ships. In fact, it was Columbus who discovered Trinidad, July 31, 1498, and the asphalt lake at the same time. Sir Walter Raleigh, a century later, used the asphalt from the lake for "trimming his ships," and remarked: "It was most excellent good and melteth not in the sun as the pitch of Norway."

Man his tried to imitate this nature-created product, but with little success, as imitation asphalt has been dried out by the sun and blown from the housetops and highways by the wind—a seeming punishment by nature of her imitators.

An "Oily Rectory."

Government experts are said to have solved the mystery of the "oily rectory" of Swanton Novers, Norfolk, England, says Spare Moments. The theory which was hit on early in his harassing experiences by the rector, Rev. Hugh Guy, is correct—the house is built over, or around, a genuine oil well, and the experts are of opinion that the whole building—a double-fronted Victorian villa in its own grounds—will have to be pulled down, because if the oil were bored for from the outside it might easily be missed. A corollary theory that the oil evaporated and condensed on the ceilings is supported by the men of science. The experts advance no opinion with regard to the length of yield when the oil well is struck. A former resident says that the rectory was only remarkable in his occupancy for its dampness, fungi growing in the lower rooms to the height of several feet.

The Orkney Islands.

The Orkney Islands do not really belong to Great Britain in the sense that they were ever ceded by treaty or acquired by conquest. They were simply transferred by Denmark to Scotland in 1468 in pledge for the payment of the dowry of the princess of Denmark, who was married to James III., King of Scotland. In the deed of transfer, which is still in existence, it is specially mentioned that Denmark shall have the right to redeem them at any future time by paying the original amount of the dowry with interest to date. There is no likelihood, however, that Denmark will ever attempt to exercise her right of redemption, because 60,000 florins, the original amount of the dowry, would amount to perhaps a trillion of pounds sterling, and that is a bit more than the islands are worth.

"Grog."

A long program cloak that the British admiral, Edward Vernon, always wore on deck during "dirty" weather is said to be responsible for the name "grog," the sailor's drink ration. The admiral's men irreverently called him "Old Grog" and "grog" was the name they gave the rum and water he served them aboard ship.

Woo Sleep by Trickery.

Sufferers from sleeplessness should try this trick, says Tit-Bits. Have a pair of blinders made from a double thickness of black silk. These should just cover the eyes, with a cut for the nose, being held in place by a broad elastic band. Hang these on the bed post, and if the morning light comes in too early, put them on.

The remedy is recommended by Mr. Robinson Smith, who has made a special study of sleeplessness. He embodies some helpful and entertaining hints in an article published in the World's Work.

One remedy is suggested by the sleeping methods of pigs.

"Tie two paper clips to either end of a cord seven or eight feet long. Clip the top of the counterpane with one and a soft weight with the other. If not sleeping after fifteen minutes, pull the counter-pane over your head. This induces that long, even breathing, natural to the approach of sleep, as may be noticed in pigs. As one dozes off, the hand holding the counterpane relaxes, and the weight pulls it down, so that one is again breathing fresh air. I have found this unfailing," says Mr. Smith, "when all else fails."

Further, he says that people suffering from insomnia should, when traveling, insist upon a double bed in a quiet room. Be sure that it is not over the kitchen, or near a motor garage, or facing a clock that sounds the quarter-hours, or within a girl's stone's throw of a fowl house.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Said:

"After all what a man does with his money is to invest, and there is no better way to invest it than in Life Insurance.

As an ESTATE BUILDER there is nothing to equal Life Insurance.

TAKE THE FOLLOWING ACTUAL RESULT

A young man sixteen years of age took out a 15 years Endowment (No. 210380) in the Sun Life of Canada, which matured on the first of April. This young man paid annually $66.30 for fifteen years and he now has, through that investment, an immediate estate of $3495.00 in case of death.

DO YOU KNOW THAT THIS AMOUNTS TO ALMOST 15 PER CENT COMPOUND INTEREST ON EVERY DOLLAR PAID?

No wonder Sir Wilfrid said—and he might have added (no better place than the Sun Life of Canada)—"there is no better way to invest it than in LIFE INSURANCE."

SUN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

Crown Chambers Building, 402 Water St., Peterboro

PHONE 14

W. H. HILL, Manager, Central Ontario

A. WEDDELL, J. D. CAMERON —INSPECTORS— H. S. McDUFFEE, D. H. MOORE

GRAND

TO-DAY AND TUESDAY MATINEE AND EVENING
THE GORGEOUS MUSICAL SPECTACLE

ONE HUNDRED WONDERFUL GLITTERING SCENES

STUART WHYTE'S
RED RIDING-HOOD

ELABORATE STAGE AND ELECTRICAL EFFECTS

— POSITIVELY A GREAT ATTRACTION —
PRICES Evening $1.50-$1.00-75c-50c Matinee 25c-50c-75c-$1.00

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY ONLY
SPECIAL VARIETY PROGRAM
WILLIAM FOX
Presents
WILLIAM FARNUM
IN THE
"A SOLDIER'S OATH"
A Tremendous Drama That Breathes The Heroism of The Western Front

MUTT AND JEFF COMEDY | SUNSHINE COMEDY "TOM AND JERRY MIX" | FOX SPECIAL CANADIAN NEWS

- VOD-A-VIL MOVIES -
GRAND ORCHESTRA

15c EVENINGS BEST SEATS 25c | 10c MATINEE DAILY 2.30 15c

FRIDAY & SATURDAY POPULAR MATINEE SATURDAY
F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest Will Present
THE DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH ACTOR
PERCY HUTCHINSON
[illegible]
Successful London Production
"THE LUCK OF THE NAVY"
BY CLIFFORD MILLS
PRICES—Evening, 50c to $2.00; Matinee, 25c to $1.50
Seat Sale Wednesday at 10 a.m. Mail Orders Now

THEATRICALS

Muriel Martin Harvey with "The Luck of the Navy," at the Grand Friday and Saturday, matinee on Saturday.

"THE LUCK OF THE NAVY"

"The Luck of the Navy" one of the biggest of recent London successes, and presented by the complete original London cast from the Queens' Theatre, comes to the Grand Theatre, Peterborough, Friday and Saturday, under the management of F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest. "The Luck of the Navy" is a British naval play which has enjoyed remarkable popularit in Lonon for almost two years, during which time it moved to four different theatres to continue its London run. The cast is headed by Percy Hutchison, one of London's best known actor-managers, and the nephew of the late Sir Charles Wyndham. The supporting company includes Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey, Miss Kate Carew, Miss Elsie Stranach, Mr Croker-King, and other eminent English players. It is worthy of note that this will be the first time a complete English company and production has crossed the Atlantic in more than five years, or since the outbreak of the war.

"The Luck of the Navy" is a thrilling story of the navy, dealing with submarines, and it enjoys the distinction of having been highly praised by Her Majesty, the Queen of England, who, with the Royal family, attended a command performance given by Mr. Hutchison and his company at the Queen's Theatre last October. The Queen afterwards sent a letter highly complimenting Mr. Hutchison and the members of his company on the performance, and stating that she was highly pleased with the play. This original letter from Buckingham Palace will be on exhibition in the lobby at the time of the performance.

"THE SPARK DIVINE" AT EMPIRE THEATRE

GREAT EMOTIONAL FILM WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR ALICE JOYCE

Craftsmen in all the arts of expressing emotion will seek far and fail to find a greater heart theme than mother love. The subject is brought to timely attention by the Vitagraph screen production entitled. "The Spark Divine," featuring Miss Alice Joyce.

Here again, with the same soul yanking effect that occurs in the classics of past ages, mother love plays with the feelings of the beholder.

For a greater element in human understanding never has been than mother love.

Reviewers who have seen this picture, which will be seen at the Empire Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, assert the decision that the author, director and star have collaborated in a treatment of the subject that is subtle and yet possessed of tremendous power. The most famous and most familiar stories of mother love have depended wholly upon the melancholy phase of self sacrifice. No subtlety is there in the straight, true tale of the mother's infinite and onending sorrow that appears in these past classics.

But in "The Spark Divine" Tom Terriss, the director, and Miss Joyce treat mother love from an altogether new angle, the angle of subtlety.

The story places Miss Joyce in the role of "the girl without a heart." William Carlton, Jr., plays the part of a mine owner who weds this beautiful creature and attempts the task of melting her spirit to human goodness. It appears that he has failed, through many strong situations. Even with the arrival of her child it seems that the wife surely is without a heart.

But in the end a startling denouement develops the "divine spark."

The story was written by Alicia Ramsey especially for Miss Joyce.

ALLEN THEATRE

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
"THE WESTERNERS"
The Photoplay of the Novel by Stewart Edward White.

It's a stirring story of the days when men rode and fought and loved hard.

Seven reels of thrills.

ADDED ATTRACTION
Charlie Chaplin
—IN—
"The Floor Walker"
A New Version in Two Acts by the King of Funmsters.

Hana Shimozumi, as "Yum Yum," in "The Mikado," Gallo English Opera Company.

AN HISTORIC RESTAURANT.

Goldsmith and Dickens Both Visited "Stone's."

The famous restaurant, familiarly known as "Stone's," in Panton street, Haymarket, London, was recently offered for sale by auction. A bid of $135,750 was offered, at which price the property was withdrawn.

"Stone's" has been a favorite trysting place of literary and artistic men for nearly a century. It has always been celebrated for good food and good ale, and the foaming tankard and smoking steaks and chops have ever been irresistible to men famed in art or in letters or the professions.

Oliver Goldsmith and Edmund Burke frequented Stone's. It was known and used by Dickens, who wrote: "The West End chop or steak, it is true, was for a long time difficult to come at, and as a rule exceedingly bad when you got it, although the grill-loving Londoner was even then able to go to Stone's in Panton street with a tolerable certainty of finding what he wanted."

The dining room is one of the oldest fashioned eating places in London. The room is small and is divided into compartments, which hold tables for four, and an observant person would note that the seats are usually occupied by the same people—men of mature years.

For thirty years no woman has been known to dine at Stone's, though "old inhabitants" refer to an occasion when one was seen in the dining room in the almost dim ages of the past.

In the spacious coffee room, still existing, most of the London celebrities have foregathered from time to time, and in 1838 it was recognized as the only place in the West End where a clay pipe could be smoked after lunch, the tobacco provided being exclusively of that kind known as "C'naster," for which six cents a packet, then called a cartridge, was charged.

Bracebridge Hemyng, whom all old boys will remember as the author of "Jack Harkaway" and other adventurous stories which they read when youngsters, was a regular patron of the coffee room. What he thought of Stone's may be gathered from his lines on the coffee room of which the following is an extract:

". . . . Time-honored name,
Free from suspicion, as it is from blame,
A passage leads you to the coffee room,
Whose charms will promptly dissipate your gloom."

Stone's special drink was, until the war upset the brewers, old double-brewed ale from Burton, a royal drink, which, however, should be treated with respect. People say it is good even in these days, and must still be treated with respect.

Panton street derives its name from Col. Thomas Panton, a famous gamester, who having realized a sudden fortune by keeping a gaming house in Piccadilly, had the surprising good sense to invest his money in land and houses in the street, which at that time was avoided by respectable people after dark on account of the robbers who infested the neighborhood.

A Mexican Song.

The joy of the Mexican bandit is the song "La Cucaracha," the name of which ordinarily means a cockroach, but in this case refers to a drugged cigarette—drugged with marihuana, a form of Indian hemp, which when smoked produces the most agreeable effects of opium, but adds to these a mania for fighting. The words the bandits sing to it from a couplet, which may be translated, "With Caranza's beard I am going to make a ribbon (toquilla) to put on the hat of the brave Pancho Villa."

James Watt, the Inventor, Encountered Opposition, But Made Good in the End

It is 100 years since James Watt, the famous engineer, died in Birmingham, and that city, not unmindful of the distinction conferred on her by the illustrious son she adopted, will pay tribute to his memory in a celebration which will serve as an inspiration to generations yet to come in the great Midland metropolis, says Ernest H. Penn, writing for the Boston Transcript.

James Watt was a Scot, hard headed and industrious, but almost entirely lacking in business instincts. He was born in Greenock in 1736 and earned his trade in London making compasses, sextants and other instruments required in navigation.

In London he suffered from two causes. He was in terror from the prospect of being kidnapped by men in the employment of the planters of America and the East India Co., and at the age of 20 years he wrote to his father:

"They now press anybody they can get, landsmen as well as seamen, except it be in the liberties of the city where they are obliged to carry them before the lord mayor first, and unless one be either a 'prentice or a creditable tradesman, there is scarce any getting off again. And if I was carried before my lord mayor I durst not avow that I wrought in the city it being against their laws for any unfreeman to work even as a journeyman within the liberties."

Now Watt was neither a 'prentice nor a creditable tradesman. He had found a berth in the shop of a mathematical instrument maker, though not binding himself to the usual seven years' apprenticeship, and between the tyranny of the trade guild and the constant fear of being "pressed" he was in daily fear.

He was in similar trouble when he shook the dust of London off his feet and went to Glasgow. He was not the son of a burgess, nor had he served an apprenticeship in the borough. Although there was not a solitary maker of mathematical instruments in the town, the Guild of Hammermen refused to allow him to set up in business or even to use a small workshop for making experiments.

It is to the everlasting credit of the University of Glasgow that he was rescued from this dilemma. Within the precincts of their own buildings they were absolute masters, fearing the trade guilds not at all. Watt had been employed by the professor of natural philosophy to repair some scientific instruments. The senate, having heard of his work and also of the oppression which he was suffering at the hands of the guilds, offered him an asylum in the form of a workshop in the inner quadrangle, and in addition they gave him the use of a shop in the college building. Here Watt was able to labor in comfort and contentment. Here he made his first experiments on improving the steam engine, the instrument of power with which his name will always be associated.

It was not easy going for a Scotsman without capital. A model of the Newcomb engine owned by Prof. Anderson was sent to Watt to be repaired. Having made repeated attempts to get the model to work, and having failed because the quantity of steam was insufficient, Watt mentioned the matter to the celebrated Dr. Black, who gave him an insight into the properties of steam.

The idea of separating the condenser from the cylinder of the engine came to him, and in 1765 he thus made the first great step in his invention.

The next step was to make the invention into commercial possibility, and in this he had all the drawbacks and difficulties every inventor had to meet. Watt himself was a poor man, and had been sickly and delicate throughout life.

The first man to take up the invention was Dr. Roebuck, who was then trying to start the Carron works, and from him he received plenty of encouragement, and a considerable amount of capital. For many years the engine and Watt himself dragged on a miserable existence, and at last he determined to take the high road to England.

It was the turning point in Watt's career when he met Matthew Boulton at Soho, Birmingham, in 1769.

When Boulton and Watt met the former was looking out for something other than waterpower to drive his factory. He was ready to experiment, but it must be confessed that his first knowledge of Watt and his invention did not encourage the highest hopes of success. But Boulton had become interested in Dr. Roebuck and the Carron works, and in the end took over Watt and his concern as a bad debt. Watt came to Soho bringing his engine with him, and there it was firmly established as a sound and scientific and commercial success.

A Good Catch.

In one of the regiments the rats had become such a pest that the officers took drastic measures to get rid of them. An offer was made that to any of the boys twelve hours' liberty would be given every time, they brought in a dead rat. One day a soldier came into headquarters with a demand for five days' liberty. "Five days' liberty? Where do you get that stuff?" they howled at him. He produced a paper sack which, on being opened, showed ten young rats which he had found in one nest. The joke was on the officers and the soldier got liberty.

In Memory of Kitchener.

A special chapel will shortly be installed in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, in memory of Lord Kitchener. It will cost $50,000.

When the experienced parlor maid has spent her savings she can grab a broom and proceed to raise the dust.

Excels the Nightingale.

The hermit thrush is declared to be the most talented and brilliant singer in the world, not even excepting the nightingale, says the American Forestry association. The tail of this little bird is of a reddish brown, much brighter than the back and head, while the breast is quite heavily spotted with black. It winters in the Gulf states.

The Sea.

Shakespeare tells us there is a tide in the affairs of men. Certainly there is a tide in the minds of men. He must be very unobservant of himself who does not know that the mind rises and falls, that it swells into fullness and strength and then fades into emotions and weakness. We know not how, we know not why.—Theophilus Parsons.

Little Helen's Idea.

Helen had a good imagination. One day, when playing blind man's buff she was seen crawling on all fours. The "blind man" stumbled over her and when she uncovered her eyes and asked why Helen was down on her knees, Helen replied: "I thought you would think it was a dog."

Grease on Wallpaper.

To remove grease spots from wallpaper, sprinkle a piece of blotting paper with carbonate of soda and press it against the wall with a moderately hot iron. The blotting paper will absorb the grease, while the soda preserves the color of the paper.

Punishment.

The whole of life and experience goes to show, that right or wrong doing, whether as to the physical or the spiritual nature, is sure in the end to meet its appropriate reward or punishment. Penalties may be delayed but they are sure to come.

Have Points in Common.

It is the general understanding that there are all kinds of people in the world, but at times we get the notion that they are all exactly alike, at that.—Wilmington News.

Were All There.

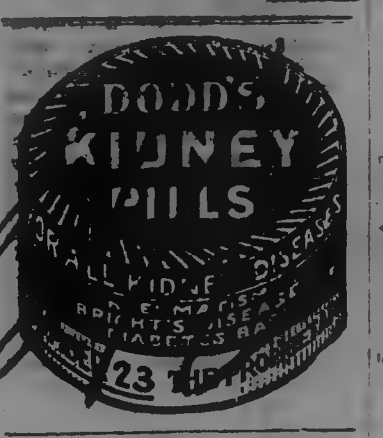
"It wasn't fair to mark me down on that word in spelling," said Jane as she came in from school. "I had all the letters in, but I didn't arrange them right."

One's Too Many Sometimes.

"If we had two heads," remarked the man on the car, "we'd have more trouble getting them to track than we have with our feet."—Toledo Blade.

Optimistic Thought.

A common armchair is a more comfortable seat than a throne.



- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review

Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario

Subscription Rates
$4 00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail.

THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

EMPIRE THEATRE

Monday — Tuesday — Wednesday
ALICE JOYCE
—IN—
"The Spark Divine"

Miss Joyce has risen rapidly on the ladder of photo stardom and has more admirers than any other screen artist. Her good work will be remembered by all those who witnessed her acting in "The Lion and the Mouse" and in "The Third Degree."

"The Spark Divine" is a picture different from the ordinary run of photoplays and is bound to please all those who prefer this style of drama.

MONTAGUE LOVE
—IN—
"THROUGH THE TOILS"

Mr. Love in this picture plays a very difficult part—that of a dual role.

COMEDY ::—:: EDUCATIONAL

Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c

EMPIRE ORCHESTRA

Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

Outspoken Athenian.

More than twenty three hundred years ago a young Athenian, speaking of his wife, said to Socrates: "When I saw that she had powder on her face to make it whiter and rouge to make it redder, and that she wore high-heeled shoes to appear taller, I told her it was as dishonorable for her to try to deceive me about her beauty as for me to try to deceive her about my property. I added that, although her arts might impose upon others, they could not impose upon me, who saw her at all times."—Youth's Companion.

Jolly Little Chipmunk.

The place the chipmunk fills is small and inconsequent but his sylvan "chirrup" plays a minor strain in the wordless diapason which the mighty [illegible] to heal earth's scars; jubilant and glad for the free of heart. Intonating ever some clear sweet note of mystic melody for those who listen, to awaken a dreaming bliss or to thrill an untried fiber into quivering life.

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.

GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Norwood Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Boston and New York.

*1.30 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Ottawa.

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Havelock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points between Peterborough and Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lindsay and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sound, Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 96—8:10 a.m., for Toronto, via Port Hope, also points on main Line east.
No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 98—8:25 a.m., for Hastings, Campbellford, Belleville, and points on Main line east.
No. 369—8:30 a.m., for Lakefield.
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, making connections with international Limited for London, Detroit and Chicago.
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hastings, Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 99—8:31 p.m., for Lindsay.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port Hope, Montreal and Boston.

Welland board of trade is to reorganize as an independent board of commerce.

Canada Food Board License No. [illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 935

THE HEART
of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1282 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.
186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

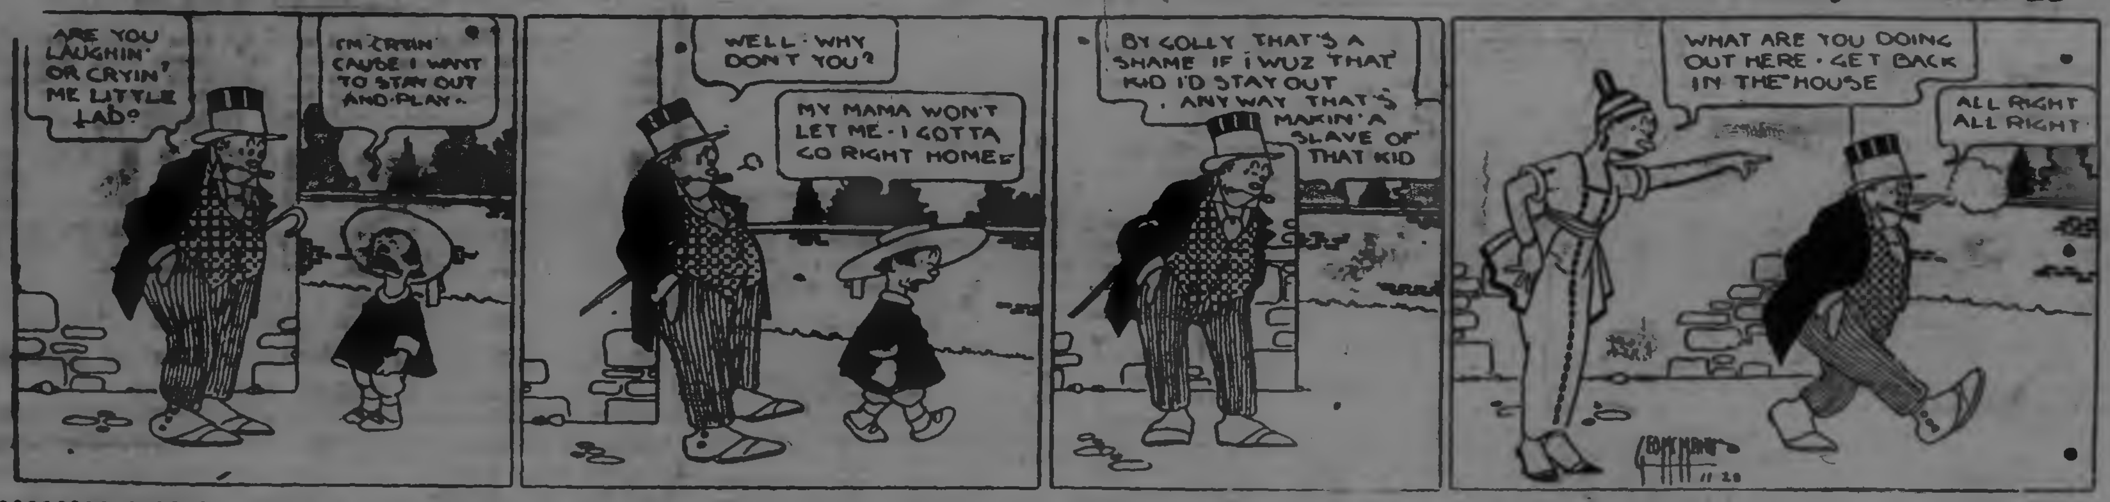
COAL
...AND...
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
163 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 370-562

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 209

Bringing up Father

By George McManus



ARE YOU LAUGHIN' OR CRYIN' ME LITTLE LAD?
I'M CRYIN' CAUSE I WANT TO STAY OUT AND PLAY.
WELL - WHY DON'T YOU?
MY MAMA WON'T LET ME - I GOTTA GO RIGHT HOME.
BY GOLLY THAT'S A SHAME IF I WUZ THAT KID I'D STAY OUT - ANY WAY THAT'S MAKIN' A SLAVE OF THAT KID
WHAT ARE YOU DOING OUT HERE - GET BACK IN THE HOUSE
ALL RIGHT ALL RIGHT
11 28

REVIVE FENCING IN NEW YORK CITY

FOIL, DUELLING, SWORD AND SABRE COMPETITIONS THIS MONTH

New York, Dec. 1.—In an endeavor to revive the sport of fencing the New York Athletic Club has extended an invitation to the Havana Fencing Clubs for a competition to foil, duelling, sword and sabre, to be held at the clubhouse some time in December.

The progressive fencers of this city and the fans who are anxious to place this sport back on the pedestal it occupied years ago have been devising plans whereby this object could be obtained, they claimed by the New York Athletic Club extending this invitation to fencing clubs of foreign countries to send amateur teams to compete against the club's representatives. this would be the most stimulating form they could employ to bring fencing back to its usual degree of success.

The fact of the experienced fencers being offered an opportunity of meeting men of foreign birth, who have become expert in the use of these weapons, has occasioned an unusual degree of activity in the fencing department of the athletic club, the great desire being to bring one's technique up to the highest point of perfection.

Tuesday evening, December 30, has been suggested as a probable date for this interesting event. The final arrangements are now in the hands of the athletic committee of the club. Prizes in the form of a silver cup and gold medals will be awarded the winners.

DEMPSEY VS. BECKETT FIGHT IN NEW ORLEANS

BOUT WILL BRING LOUISIANA METROPOLIS TO THE FORE AGAIN

New York, Dec. 1.—The proposed match in New Orleans between Jack Dempsey, champion of the world, and Joe Beckett brings the Louisiana metropolis to the fore once more as one of the greatest heavyweight championship sections since 1870.

The foundation for bouts with the padded mitts was laid in that section as a result of the fight in 1889, under London prize ring rules, between John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain, who fought twenty-five rounds under a summer sun, with their bare knuckles

The first notable bout in the New Orleans section was that between Jem Mace and Tom Allen in 1870 Mace was the winner.

Thirty-seven years ago the famous "John L." won his championship from Paddy Ryan in that section. They fought in Mississippi City, the crowd having assembled in New Orleans the night before.

Thirty years ago Sullivan defended his title against Jack Kilrain in that terrain, too. This time the crowd was "railroaded" to Richburg, Miss., from New Orleans, where the fight fans had gathered the night before in secret. But there was a great change in conditions in three years, for in 1892 Sullivan defended his title for the last time in the city itself, losing it to James J. Corbett in that sensational and memorable battle.

And today we have New Orleans promoters offering Dempsey $200,000 for two bouts in the Louisiana city.

Certainly the game has improved financially and in official approval, but it cannot be said that the ring gladiators' spirit for combat, from all that has been said and read, has held its own with other ends of the sport

---

President Poincare has issued a decree convoking the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies in special session on December 8.

Welsh miners have taken a ballot and have decided to strike to resist payment of income tax on incomes below £250 sterling.

SATURDAY SOCCER SCORES

United League
—Brigden Cup Third Round—
Davenports, 4; Hamilton Vets, 2.
Scottish v. I. L. P.— Postponed.
Ulster v. Dunlops.— Postponed.
Willys v. All Scots.— Postponed.

RUGBY RESULTS
Ontario Union
—Junior Semi-Final—
Excelsiors, 17; Wesley Bellwoods, 1.
Hamilton Y. C., 23; St. Catharines, 2.
Junior City Title
Capitals, 19; Ossington, 0.
Intermediate Semi-Final
Sarnia, 6; Dundas, 0.
Interscholastic
Hamilton Coll, 8; Sarnia, 7.

BISHOP OFFERS TO BOX BISHOP

SOUTH AGRICAN ECCLESIASTIC WOULD DON GLOVES IN AID OF DISABLED

London, November 30.—Bishop McLaglen, of Claremont, South Africa, has sent to the "All Sports Weekly" an offer to box any bishop five rounds for a fund for disabled soldiers, and adds that, to aid in making the match, he will extend the offer to any editor of any paper of his own age. The bishop is sixty-eight years old.

He is the father of Captain Victor McLaglen, who is now training to box Joe Beckett for the Lonsdale heavyweight championship belt.

The bishop's offer was prompted apparently by his indignation at something the newspaper has printed concerning his son.

"Why?" he asks. "is it astonishing that a man who chooses to fight in the ring for money, should be the son of a bishop, or a man of considerable educational attainments. I have had eight sons, all of whom served in the war, and I should be ashamed of any who could not use his hands.

"Neither would I wish to see them willing to undergo the long period of work and training necessary for a contest without payment. I wish my sons to be what they are—gentlemen but I do not wish to see them what they are not—fools.

"Neither," adds the bishop, "is there anything contrary to Christianity in boxing. This is solely the nonsense of clergy who have forgotten that they are men, living in a world of men not of Victorian old ladies."

SARNIA QUALIFIES TO MEET CAPITALS

WON VICTORY OVER DUNDAS SATURDAY—SCORE SIX TO NOTHING

Sarnia, Ont., Dec. 1—(Special) — Sarnia qualified to meet Toronto Capitals in the finals for the intermediate O. R. F. U. championship here today by a six to nil victory over Dundas. The playing field at one end was a sea of mud, rain having fallen throughout the game and since early morning. Single points were all that were scored during the game, two coming in the first, two in the third and two in the last quarter. Many substitutes were used by both teams. In the kicking off Harding was the feature of the game. The line up:

Dundas—F.w., Morris; r.h., Morris c.h., Norton; l.h., Davidson; q., Bates; scrim., Haines, Fisher, Lightfoot; i., Cox, Pearson; m., Shields, Quance; o., Main, Hourigan; spares, Clark, Moss, Sullivan, Langley, Duckworth, Robbins.

Sarnia.—F.w., Loomis; r.h., L. Smith; c.h., Harding; l.h., Copeland; p., Cowan; scrim., Fitzgibbons, Galloway, Perry; i., Bossenberry, Smith; m., Vanalstyne, Parrott; o., Cameron; Minton; spares, Cole, Sinclair, Garvey, Johnston, Crouchman, McAllister.

Referee, W. H. Hoare, Toronto; umpire W. Tackaberry.

Fifteen teams faced the starter in the six-day bicycle race which began in New York Sunday night.

BOWLING NEWS

THIS WEEK'S BOWLING AT THE WATER ST. ALLEYS

Business Men's 5 Pins.

Monday—Post Office vs. Centrals.

Tuesday—Lawn Bowlers vs. Clerks.

Wednesday—Leftovers vs. Brinton Carpet.

Thursday—Pastimes vs. De Laval.

Ten-Pin League.

Monday—De Laval vs. High Rollers.

Wednesday—Musiness Men vs. Quaker Oats.

Friday—Grocers vs. King Pins.

De Laval Office Wins

In a ten-pin match at the Water street alleys on Saturday night, the De Laval office won two out of the three games from the factory. For the office Walter Fitzgerald was the high man with 556, and for the factory, E. Ruiter was high with 509.

Saxons Won Three.

In the Quaker Oats Ten-pin League game Friday afternoon the Saxons [illegible] Kirn was high man with a 236 single and 510 for the three games.

British Birth Rate Increase

More babies were born in England during August than in any previous month since the beginning of the war. Official returns show the number to be 6.30, equivalent to an annual rate of 18 per thousand, and 461 more babies than over the same month of 1918.

"I believe that during and after wars more boy babies are born than girls," said Dr. Mary Scharlieb, a specialist, discussing the report. "I think official figures will prove that more boys are born during periods of stress, hardships and food shortage and more girls during periods of wealth, ease and luxury.

"A baby these days is a very expensive addition to the average British family," said another doctor. "The cost of everything from blankets to perambulators has practically doubled. Milk is a shilling a quart and nurses three guineas a week. The infant's extensive wardrobe is also a costly affair these days, while his cot costs twice as much as before the war. Only millionaires can afford twins, much as we need them to repair the waste of war."

Ice Cream for Britain.

An American ice cream company is considering the possibility of establishing a chain of ice cream parlors in the biggest cities of the United Kingdom. This is one of the latest evidences of the attraction here of American capital.

It is not so much that John Bull has neglected his taste for ice cream that worries this American company as the fact that after a careful investigation it is ascertained that there are only three months during the year when climatic conditions are favorable for indulging the appetite for it.

As soon as the English people adopt steam heat it is believed there will be more demand for it.

Several restaurants in London have recently Americanized their menus. It is now possible to get "hot dogs."

Increase Over Pre-war Prices.

In a recent issue of the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail the following figures are quoted from a report made by the Statistical Bureau of Berne, Switzerland, which represent the increase over pre-war prices in certain countries: Italy, 481 per cent.; France, 368 per cent.; Switzerland, 257 per cent.; England, 240, and the United States, 220 per cent.

Livingstone Memorial.

One of the most curious memorials of Livingstone is the "Name Tree," near Victoria falls, on the Zambesi. On the trunk Livingstone cut his initial and the date 1855 on the day of his first visit to the falls. In his book, giving an account of this, Livingstone says: "This was the only instance in which I indulged in this piece of vanity."

Auto Service in Porto Rico.

Porto Rico is about 100 miles long by 40 miles wide, and autobus lines furnish satisfactory service in covering the parts of the country where railways are not available. For the benefit of tourists and others a daily automobile service connects San Juan, on the north, with Ponce, on the south of the island, a run of five hours.

GERMANY'S CRIME WAVE.

Shops, Warehouses, Homes and Even Churches Pillaged.

Germany has never before experienced such a crime wave as is now spreading over the Fatherland. The Berlin correspondent of the London Morning Post writes:

"Thieving is being practiced on a wholesale scale in Germany and the authorities are for the moment powerless to stop it. Every newspaper reports every day numerous flagrant cases of burglary and barefaced robbery, and reports them in a manner which seems to suggest that such incidents are now inevitable. Indeed, except in cases where many hundreds of thousands of marks are involved, the police apparently consider it hopeless to attempt to discover the stolen property. Not only are crates, cases and parcels constantly being stolen in large numbers from goods trains, but railway wagons themselves mysteriously disappear and are accidentally discovered afterwards in out-of-the-way sidings, empty, of course.

"The latest news of this nature is that inspectors, on the lookout for thieves, observed bacon being unloaded from the truck on the siding of a small station on the outskirts of Berlin, and on making inquiries ascertained that the owner of the consignment was not known. Four trucks loaded with bacon, lard and other rare foodstuffs had arrived at the station addressed to a Berlin bank, which declared it knew nothing of the order. The trucks had traveled across Germany. Numerous railway officials and ports must have known of the transport, and the value of the consignment was 800,000 marks.

"An advertisement appeared a few days ago offering a reward of 20,000 marks for the recovery of valuable carpets and household goods contained in a furniture removal van that had arrived from Dresden at a goods station in the Berlin suburbs and had been stolen during the night. Not only are temporary vacant flats and houses ransacked, but young men, generally in uniform, obtain admittance into flats where they know only a maid is present, and while they terrify the latter with a revolver collect everything valuable that can easily be taken away.

"Even churches are not respected, and several have been broken into during the past fortnight and robbed of sacramental vessels, altar cloths, vestments and carpets.

"Pocket picking is not indulged in by the vicious section of young Berlin. It requires a certain amount of skill and it is easier to terrify a maidservant with a revolver and attack a single man in a lonely street with the help of three or four colleagues. A typical case is that of a doctor who went to Grunewald Wood, on the outskirts of Berlin, for a little fresh air on Sunday last. Just before he reached the railway station on the way home in the evening he was stopped by two men in soldier's uniform. One held a pistol to his heart, saying that he would shoot unless the doctor gave up all his valuables, while the other man emptied the victim's pockets, taking even his pocketknife.

"Shops and warehouses are broken into every night, and newspapers merely give the name of the pillaged firm and the value of the goods stolen. The newspapers reported the other day, in a few lines of small print, a case which shows how easy the work of the thieves and burglars has become. According to this report two men entered a government building and merely remarking that they had been sent to fetch away typewriting machines, carried off altogether seventeen machines, which they took away in a cart they had brought for the purpose, and which they kept standing at the front door until they were ready.

"Medical journals also publish complaints that everything portable is removed by patients from the waiting rooms of doctors and dentists. As for walking sticks, umbrellas and overcoats they seem to belong to any one who can make off with them unnoticed by the real owner."

Really Not Their Fault.

Marjorie and Clea are prim little sisters, and as there is a baby brother mamma has some trouble putting on the last touches and getting them away to school mornings. In the interest of discipline their teacher was obliged to lecture them on tardiness and next morning they were late as usual. She waited for them at the door, trying to look stern, but Clea upset all her dignity and cut her lecture short by observing: "Well, we can't help it if you ring the bell too soon."

Oil Well Flow Increased.

An electrical method of carrying warmth to the bottom of oil wells has been found in many cases greatly to increase the flow of oil, according to Popular Mechanics magazine. The heating process decreases the viscidity of the oil, usually occasioned by the admission of air to the well and the cooling of the rock bed. Minute crevices and capillary channels which afford easy passage to warm thin oil become quite impassable if the oil gums.

Lord Grey Untravelled, Though He Knows World And Loves All Nature

It is a curious fact, writes Willis J. Abbott in Collier's Weekly, that this man (Viscount Grey, new British Ambassador to the United States), whose duties in his thirty years of public life have touched the intimate interests of nations "from China to Peru," is himself wholly untravelled. Of the continent of Europe he knows less than the persistent bank holiday tourist in London. It is said that when he became Secretary for Foreign Affairs he had never seen Paris, and only journeyed thither once on a King's errand. He is no linguist. A graduate of Balliol College, Oxford, he could hardly fail to have some knowledge of the French language and literature, but the ready colloquial use of the French tongue which we think of as part of the necessary equipment of the diplomatic is denied him.

For this has not been the normal training by which the British diplomat attains ambassadorial rank. He has not served at one court after another in Europe, in posts of gradually increasing dignity, until he reached [illegible] diplomat—a recluse of Downing street. In Parliament he spoke well, but infrequently, carrying his points, as an observer once said, "by his mere presence and by the sense of high purpose and firmness of mind which that purpose conveys." Even his sports bespeak the restful and contemplative mind. For reading he admits Wordsworth, Ik Walton and White's "Selborne" to be his favorite. When he sought a game for exercise sake, and came to excel in it, it was not lawn tennis, the dashing pastime of boys and girls, but court tennis, the royal game in which cool strategy and scientific play outdo mere agility, that engaged him.

He loves outdoors, but chose rather to number his birds and beasts without a gun. In 1910 he and the late Col. Roosevelt spent a day of ardent nature worship and the study of English birds in the New Forest. The colonel wrote on the occasion afterward:

"As I could snatch but a few hours from a very exacting round of pleasures and duties, it was necessary for me to be with some companion who could identify both song and singers. In Sir Edward Grey, a keen lover of outdoor life and all its phases, and a delightful companion, who knows the songs and ways of English birds as few do, I found the best possible guide."

To a correspondent, who afterward asked him concerning his companion's knowledge of bird lore, Sir Edward replied that he recognized the British birds by their note with extraordinary accuracy. It is worth while to mention that this intimate excursion of the two statesmen took place only a day or two after Roosevelt's delivery of his Guildhall speech which was supposed to have shocked the British Government. The incident rather upsets that theory, and I am assured by a gentleman who was with Col. Roosevelt at the time, and intimately concerned with his doings, that the speech was shown to Kitchener, Balfour, Cromer, and probably to Sir Edward Grey in advance of its delivery.

A GOLDEN-BED.

Was Something Marvelous in Eyes of Cannibals of Bloody-Hive-Oe.

In the first tropic dawn of a bright Sunday morning I landed on Atuona beach for the second time, prepared to remain for a year among the cannibal peoples of Bloody-Hive-Oe, capital of the southern group of the Marquesas Islands, says an article by Frederick O'Brien and Rose Wilder Lane, in Asia Magazine.

Lying Bill, the captain, protested volubly. Gede, the shrewd, unscrupulous trader, joined him in serious opposition to the plan, urging that there was no hotel, club, lodging or food for a stranger. But I was determined to stay, though I must sleep beneath a breadfruit tree.

"Well, if you will stay," said Gedge, and the trader's look came into his eyes, "I've got just the thing you want. You don't want to lie on a mat where the thousand-legs can get you—and when they get you, you die. You want to live right. Now listen to me. I've got the best brass bed ever a king slept on. Double thickness, heavy brass bed; looks like solid gold. Springs that would hold the schooner; double thick mattress, sheets and pillows all embroidered like it belonged to a duchess. Fellow that I bought it for was going to be married, but now he's lying up there on the mountain in a bed they dug for him. I'll let you have it cheap—three hundred francs. It's worth double. What do you say?" [illegible] cannibal islands!

"It's a go," I said.

Our arrival was watched by a score of Marquesan chiefs, who hastened down to the shore. Their curiosity could not be restrained. A score of eager hands stripped the coverings from the brass bed and exposed the glittering head and foot pieces in the brilliant sunlight. Exclamations of amazement and delight greeted the marvel. This was another wonder from the white man's lands, indicative of wealth and royal taste. From all sides other natives came hastening. My brass bed and I were the centre of a gesticulating circle, dark eyes rolled with excitement and naked shoulder jostled shoulder. The Golden Bed, upraised on the shoulders of four stalwart chiefs, began its triumphal progress up the valley road. Behind it officially walked my newly-acquired valet, Exploding Eggs, puffed up with importance, regarded on all sides with respect as "Tueni Oki Kiki," Keeper of the Golden Bed, but jostled for position by Apporo, envied of women. Behind them up the rough road hastened the rest of the village, eager to see the installation of the marvel in its new quarters, and I leisurely followed the barbaric procession.

Painful Insinuation.

Little six-year-old, to young aunt showing him a family portrait: "What a funny way that gran'pa is dressed, auntie!" Auntie: "That is the way gentlemen dressed more than a hundred years ago." Six-year-old: "And when gentlemen dressed that way what did you wear?"

Forbears of the Seal.

It is a curious fact that the fur seal was once a land animal. The baby seals are actually afraid of water; they would drown if thrown into it, and have to learn to swim by repeated efforts. When once they have been taught to swim, however, they soon forget to walk.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—262 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 298

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds — Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Children's Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 388 George St. Phone 1044
Office Hours: 12 to 3 and 6 to 8 p.m.

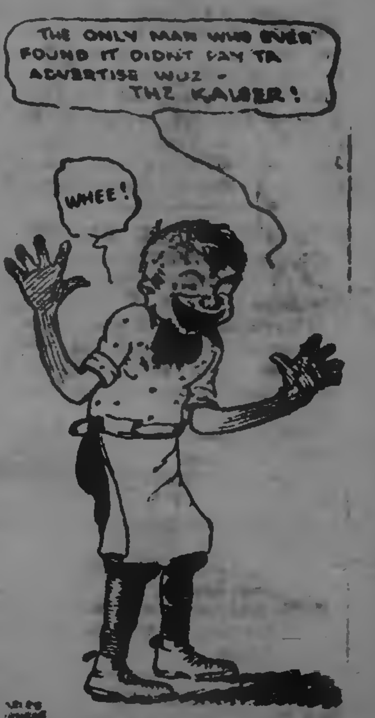
MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

Be very careful what you say to your enemies and be more careful what you write to your friends.

A pessimist always looks as though he were afraid it would cost him a few cents to look pleasant.

Most people in love act as if their corns hurt.

MICKIE SAYS



THE ONLY MAN WHO EVER FOUND IT DIDN'T PAY TA ADVERTISE WUZ - THE KAISER!
WHEE!

Private Christmas Cards

⚜ ⚜ ⚜

The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

GRINDING the LENSES

No part of this important work is being [illegible] in our establishment. We have everything needed to give you satisfactory service and do it correctly. Let us examine your eyes. No charge.

W. H. LACEY
Optical Specialist
410 George St.
Open Wednesdays and Saturday evenings.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

GEORGE ST. CHURCH LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

The Christmas meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of on Wednesday as announced.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 118. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

DENTAL INSPECTION

The dental inspection in the schools of Leeds township produced the following results Seventeen schools visited and 371 scholars examined. Of this number only [illegible] had teeth in the best possible condition. Four hundred and eighty-eight simple cavities in the permanent teeth were found and 166 extensive cavities requiring extraction or treatment to save them. There were 145 cavities in the temporary teeth, 22 cases of mal-occlusion, 149 cases requiring prophylactic treatment, and 266 temporary teeth which should be removed.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A bicycle overhauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, 225 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2341.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Organized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY.

An open meeting of the I. L. P. will be held in Labor Hall, George street, at 8 p.m. Tuesday December 2. Members and prospective members cordially invited. Come.

VALUABLE FERRY FREIGHT

On November 1st the ferry steamer Charles Lyon carried across the St. Lawrence river at Prescott 46 cars of silk valued at a million dollars a car, 31 cars of merchandise and eighty empty cars, a total of 85 cars. The time consumed by the railroad in getting the cars into the slips and time taken by the Charles Lyon in ferrying across the river was four hours and 48 minutes. The actual time consumed in ferrying across the river was two hours and four minutes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

HITCHON—CAMPBELL

On Thursday afternoon, Nov. 28, a quiet wedding was celebrated at the Presbyterian manse, when Martha Campbell, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell, of the House of Refuge, Lakefield, was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Francis Allen Hitchon, of Belleville, Rev. P. C. Jull officiating. The couple were unattended. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hitchon left for points in western Ontario, and on their return will take up their residence in Belleville.

The Great War Veterans' Association will hold an informal dance in their hall, Murray street, on Thursday evening, Dec. 4th, from eight o'clock until twelve o'clock, for members and their friends.

At the Y. W. C. A. Bazaar tomorrow Miss Edith Pryce, the Association Physical Director, will dance the Aubade Printaniere by Vestoff-Serova of the Russian School of interpretive and classic dancing. Miss Pryce will dance at about five o'clock in the afternoon and at about 8:30 in the evening.

The Toronto Globe says that Mrs. Russell Widdifield, who is in Toronto from Peterborough visiting Mr. Justice and Mrs. Widdifield, has the distinction of being the wife of the youngest lawyer who has ever had the honor of appearing before the Supreme Court of Canada. Mr. Widdifield, who is now Peterborough's city solicitor, was in Ottawa Friday to carry a case before the august tribunal.

The Monthly Meeting of the Otonabee Chapter, I.O.D.E. will be held Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 3.30, in the Green room of the Y.W.C.A.

Miss Francis Routley has returned from a two months' visit in Toronto.

Mr. [illegible] Killoran [illegible] Norwood last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Webb were visiting friends in Millbrook last week.

Mr. Harry Long arrived home from Edmonton, Alberta, on Saturday night, after a three months' absence.

Mr. J. E. L. Goodwill has returned from Ottawa where he attended the sittings of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mr. R. R. Hall, who has been in attendance at the Supreme Court sittings in Ottawa, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wallace, Montreal, were the guests of Mr. Vincent Eastwood during their stay in the city.

Rev O. C. Wallace occupied the pulpit at the Murray Street Baptist Church yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Webb spent the week-end in Montreal, where Mr. Webb preached yesterday.

Mr. Arthur Mills, Jr., London, England, spent the week-end, the guest of Mr. Gordon Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Munro are in the city, the guests of Mrs. Munro, Brock street west.

Mrs. Arthur Amys has returned to the city after visiting friends in Petrolia.

Mr. J. R. Stratton has returned to the city from a visit to Toronto and Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eastwood are on the ocean on their return from overseas. Mr. Eastwood is bringing his bride and will, no doubt, visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Eastwood, before returning to his home in Toronto.

NEW C.P.R. FREIGHT STATION

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has definitely decided upon the location of its freight station at Belleville and the work of building has begun. The station will be located to the east of William street and north of the C.P.R. track. Excavation for the foundation has already taken place and the work of erection will immediately begin. Mr. Walter Patterson is the contractor in charge.

NOTICE

Owing to the second Conservatory Lyceum Concert in the hall on Wednesday, the regular weekly dance of the Peter Robinson Chapter I.O.D.E. will be held tomorrow night (Tuesday).

BELLEVILLE GETS ONE

Another new industry will be in the near future established in Belleville, which will employ a number of hands chiefly females. It will be located in a portion of the upper storey of the Canning factory premises on Pinnacle street after some necessary improvements have been made.

CONVOKES FRENCH CHAMBER

Paris, Dec. 1.—President Poincare has issued a decree convoking the Senate and Chamber of Deputies in special session on December 8.

MIGHTY ARMY OF BEST MEN AND WOMEN OF CANADA NOW NEEDED

Others Besides Wayward and Wicked Must Be Enrolled to Promote the Spirit of Brotherhood and Comradeship.

Dr. O.C.S. Wllace, formerly chancellor of McMaster University, struck a new note in the evangelical programme of the church, in his sermon at Murray Street Baptist Church last evening. He appealed to the church to make a special effort in bringing into close touch with God those that are not naturally wayward and wicked, but who do not feel the brotherly feeling and comradeship of Christ.

He chose for his text John 1, the 42nd. verse: "And he brought him to Jesus, and when Jesus beheld him, he said: Thou art Simon the son of Jonah; thou shalt be called Cephus, which is by interpretation a stone."

This attitudte on the part of Andrew, Dr. Wallace said, toward his brother Simon Peter, was a very natural one. It is customary to bring one whom we love to one whom we admire.

But was there anything more in this act? What promoted it. It was not because Peter had bad habits or was a wayward, wicked man, for he was not. This is a direct message to the workers of the church today. They are thinking too much of bringing the wayward, the wild and the wicked to Jesus. There are others.

Peter was familiar with the thoughts of God and high thoughts of righteousness. As he grew older and saw the world he found evils in it, and he looked about to see how he could better conditions. He was experiencing the same feeling of power that every young man feels as he looks out upon the world. Then his next step in preparation for meeting [illegible] with a great and mighty preacher. A preacher who spoke as a prophet of God and preached that Christ was at hand.

Then as this man came under the influence of Christ he was given a new name, a new classification. And something more, he had a new and great experience. This very impetuous man who might under the spell of excitement curse, came under the cleansing influence of Jesus. Jesus eliminated all foulness of the lips and evils of the mind that were blemishes of Peter's beautiful soul. It is a cleansing indeed when evil habits are washed away by the power and spirit of Jesus Christ.

Often, continued Dr. Wallace, when people suffer from the loss of a loved one or some great calamity, they are influenced to give up and declare their day of usefulness is passed. They do not realize their affliction is sent by the hand of the pruner, and not of the destroyer, and that it is sometimes necessary to give up some very dear life that one may bear more.

Let Jesus Choose the Way.

It is he that leads, who determines the path, not those who follow. Jesus Christ has said: "If ye follow me ye do not choose the way." He also said "Take my yoke upon thee."

Christ yokes us up with Him and He either controls our path or we attempt to control His. "Have you ever made any attempt to control Christ?" asked Dr. Wallace. The power of Christ is not only one of cleansing, but also of control.

We do not often think of leading the young man to Christ when he is not wild and wayward. But it is our duty to bring him close to Christ where he may be led to great and noble accomplishments. Lead fine men to the yoke--fellows with Christ, the only saviour of the world. Simon Peter, a god man, was lead to be a yoke--fellow with Christ and under His control his field of influence for good was magnified.

There must be a mighty army of the best men and women of Canada if we are to move forward to a new and greater world, concluded the reverend gentleman.

NOTICE

The ladies of St. Paul's Church are giving a Banquet in honor of our returned soldiers on Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 6.30. Any of the soldiers who are coming to the church and have not received an invitation will kindly accept this notice. Tickets for the congregation 50c.

BROCK STREET RINK SOLD

The Brock street rink has been sold to Mr. Parker, of Orillia, and will be operated this winter on a larger and broader scale than ever before. Good ice, good skating and good sports are assured at this popular resort of winter recreation.

One man was killed and much property demolished by the hurricane which swept over Toronto on Saturday night and Sunday.

GREAT REVIVAL AT BEAMSVILLE, ONTARIO

The greatest religious awakening and manifestation of God's power that has been witnessed in the town of Beamsville for over thirty days, has recently been seen by the citizens of that place.

On Nov. 2nd, Evangelist H. D. Kennedy of our city, who conducted the union tent campaign last summer, opened meetings at Beamsville. From the first keen interest was shown. Meetings were held each afternoon and night. At the afternoon meetings, from 100 to 130 would be in attendance and at the night services, the crowds came in increasing numbers.

About the middle of the second week an all-day prayer meeting was held. It began at 10 o'clock. Forty were present, and during the last 3 hours about 100 were in attendance. That night the revival broke loose, and by the next Sunday, the greatest revival ever seen in the history of the church was in full swing—a genuine old-time revival, in which people really got converted. The whole community became greatly stirred, and people came from far and near to hear the evangelist. Night after night the altar would be crowded with seekers. A great many of the converts were young men, besides many men of old years. The campaign closed Tuesday night, November 25th. The last meeting ran till nearly mid-night, people did not seem to want to leave. That night the evangelist arranged the converts present in the centre block of seats, and it was an inspiring sight to see their happy faces and to hear about 140 of them testify having found a personal Savior. Many of them also led in public prayer. The oldest citizen of the town said they had never seen such an awakening and far-reaching revival in the place [illegible] really answers prayer, and that the days of revivals are not over.

Last Wednesday night Mr. Kennedy opened a month's campaign at Bailieboro, Ont.

REGULAR MEETING.

The Regular Meeting of Peterborough Branch, G. W. V. A., will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, December 1st. Business, Election of Officers for year 1920. A large attendance is asked.

Every member must be in possession of his due card and be in good standing in order to vote.

S. WHATLEY, Secretary.

PETERBOROUGH BRANCH 8TH C. M. R.

An emergency meeting has been called for the above club, to be held on Wednesday evening, December 3. All members are requested to watch tomorrow's issue of the paper for further information regarding this meeting.

ST. PAUL'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Young People's Guild meets tonight at eight o'clock. Dr. McPherson will give an address on "Christianity and the Health of the Nation."

The Ladies' Aid are giving a banquet in honor of our returned soldiers Tuesday evening, to which they invite all members and adherents of the congregation. Supper will be served from 6.30. A good program has been arranged and an enjoyable evening is expected.

There will be a union mid-week service this week which will be held in Trinity Church. Members of St. Paul's Church are asked to meet there.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their regular meeting Friday evening at three-thirty o'clock.

Dr. Chafer, the noted bible teacher, will hold a week of pre-communion services beginning next Lord's day. The public are invited to these services.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Calgary, Nov. 30.—To preach a sermon at Ardrossan on Sunday, forge checks totalling $7,000 at Calgary on Wednesday, make a sensational get-away by the use of clever substerfuges on Thursday, to be arrested at Edmonton and brought back to Calgary on Friday, is the chapter of sensational incidents which was crowded into the past week of life of Duncan F. Cameron, former Methodist minister, who reached the city Friday to face forgery charges. Cameron's confession was made public Saturday, and reads like a thrilling novel.

TIGER'S DAUGHTER IN CANADA SOON

MME. CLEMENCEAU-JACQUEMAIRE AT MASSEY HALL, TORONTO, DECEMBER TENTH

Toronto, Dec. 1.—As daughter of Premier Clemenceau, of France, Madame Clemenceau-Jacquemaire, who is expected in Toronto to speak on December 10, is assured an enthusiastic reception.

Nor is it only in the reflected glory of her distinguished father that she will be eagerly welcomed. Madame Clemenceau-Jacquemaire is indeed pre-eminent amongst the women of talent and culture in France. She has inherited much of her father's genius as a writer and speaker and is well known throughout Europe for her contributions to leading periodicals, and as the author of several notable books.

She has been closely associated with her father during his career as France's foremost statesman, and for a time was his confidential secretary. It is a tribute to her intimate knowledge of conditions in France that on many occasions M. Clemenceau has consulted her before making vital decisions in matters of state.

Madame Clemenceau-Jacquemaire took a very definite part in war work, having devoted herself so assiduously to Red Cross work and care of the sick and wounded that twice she contracted typhus.

Though the subject on which she will speak is "The Soul of France," it will not deal with the war. Her idea is rather to describe the customs and characteristics of the French people and their national ideas. Incidentally she will touch on the social relations between France and Canada, and will compare the status of women in the two countries, and doubtless give Canadians a better conception of conditions of life and thought in that country which is spoken of as having "found its soul."

Having had an American mother, Madame Clemenceau-Jacquemaire naturally speaks English perfectly. The proceeds from the address which she is to give in Massey Hall on Wednesday, December 10, will be for the French war orphans, the event being under the auspices of the Franco-Canadian Society and under the patronage of the Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter, I.O.D.E.

INCOMPARABLE

Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets are really incomparable. They have been imitated and substitutes have been prepared which looked like them and even tasted about the same, but there is no other tablet which has the same beneficial effect, the same gentle laxative and tonic effect. For constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness and sick headache, Dr Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. All dealers sell them.

TORONTO'S MILK ADVANCED TODAY

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS INCREASE ON EIGHT-GALLON CAN IN EFFECT

Toronto, Dec. 1.— Commencing December 1, the price of milk is raised from $3.10 to $3.35 per eight-gallon can, delivered to the dairy. This decision was unanimously arrived at at a meeting of the producers, represented by 300 members of the Toronto Milk and Cream Producers' Association at Foresters' Hall, on Saturday afternoon. It was also decided to set the price of butter fat at 80 cents per pound.

E.H. Stonehouse, president of the association, declares that none of the farmers were able to realize a fair profit at the former prices. He said that the distributors were totally opposed to the increase. He added that no communication has been received from the board of commerce. The executive conferred with the distributors at the close of the meeting, but so far have been unable to reach an agreement.

This increase on the part of the producers means that the price for consumers may be raised from one to two cents per quart within a few days, when the price of milk will be 17 cents per quart or twelve tickets for a dollar. It now sells for [illegible] a quart or 13 tickets for a dollar. The wholesale price of [illegible] the summer was $2.40 per can [illegible] was raised in the fall to $[illegible].

NOTICE.

The Peter Robinson Chapter, I. O. D. E. are holding their regular weekly dance on Tuesday, December 2, instead of Wednesday, Dec. 3, for this week only.

Frank Thomas, a well-to-do bachelor farmer at Travers, Alta., was found dead in his bed.

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said; "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

Established 1889
HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

BRIDGES TOO LIGHT SAYS FRANK BARBER

That most Canadian bridges were too light for the traffic which they had to bear, that they were constantly in need of repairs, and that many of them were dangerous, was the opinion expressed by Frank Barber, C.E., in an address before the Electric Club in Toronto. Contrasting Canadian structures with those of Europe, some of which were older than the hills and banks of the streams, he found the reason for their permanence in the type of society of the time. Canadian pioneers had found it more suitable to put up something quickly.

Mr. Barber pointed out that the average life of a steel bridge did not exceed fifty years, and that some of the failures of this type of bridge were due to poor concrete abutments. He dwelt for some time on the use of concrete in bridge building, which in a few years would replace the steel bridge except for special situations. Of the concrete bridge being constructed in Peterborough, there were only seven in America and six in Europe with larger single spans. This bridge would be erected with one hundred and fifty tons of steel and [illegible] thousand yards of concrete.

Mr. Barber is engineering the construction of Peterborough's new high level concrete bridge.

PRAISE FOR CANADIANS

King Commends Service of Workmen During the War.

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—The following despatch has been received by Sir Robert Borden from Lord Milner, Secretary of State for the Colonies: "Now that the repatriation of the overseas workmen who volunteered their services for the production of ships and munitons during the war is completed, I am commanded by the King to request you to give publicity to His Majesty's appreciation of the value of the services rendered by the men who volunteered from Canada. He understands that the excellent behavior of these volunteers and the sustained and steady application displayed by them in their work has earned the highest praise."

SHOOTING MATCH, DEC. 4th.

A shooting match for game, will be held at [illegible] Lakefield Road on Thursday, December 4th, at 1 p.m.. All are welcome.

DANGER OF COASTING

Lindsay Boy Has Experience That Should Prove a Warning

Lindsay, Dec. 1.—Youngsters in Lindsay have been having a good time since the recent snow fall, sleigh riding on the Lindsay street hill in the vicinity of McDonald's Park. But there is great danger at this particular point of riding into the river.

An incident took place at the hill Friday, which should act as a warning to other youngsters, and to parents. Mr. R. Hogan, of the Central Hotel, was walking along the street when he stopped a young lad who was crying as if his little heart would break. When asked what was the matter the little fellow replied that he had been sleigh-riding on the hill and lost his sleigh when it went over the wharf into the river.

It appears that the young fellow had just time to roll off the sleigh or he would have plunged into the cold water with the sleigh. He did not realize his danger, but thought only of the sleigh he had lost.

TO REMOVE RIVER BUOYS

All United States buoys on Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence river will be withdrawn today. Lights and fog signals will not be discontinued until the close of navigation.

CHIMNEY FIRE

At 10.39 o'clock Sunday morning the fire brigade was called out to attend the chimney fire at the home of Mr. Norman Stockdale, 465 King street. There was no damage.

French Ivory

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complete set.

Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.
351 George Street

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Public are hereby notified that all traffic on the Hunter Street Bridge, both vehicular and pedestrian, is closed. Persons without just cause found within the limits of work of construction are liable to prosecution for trespass.

By order of the City of Peterborough.

H. PHELAN,
Chairman Board of Works.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to. Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

A Pair of Skates Makes an Ideal Gift

—or—

perhaps a Flashlight, a Hockey Stick, Puck or a Lamp or a Tire for a Bicycle would be more suitable. Call in and look around before the rush.

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental
PHONE 897 OPEN EVENINGS

GEORGE ST. CHURCH NOTES.

Monday, 8 p.m., Epworth League.

Tuesday, 3 p.m., Ladies' Aid Christmas meeting.

Wednesday, 8 p.m., interdenominational service, Trinity Church.

Thursday 7:20 p.m., Mission Study class at home of Mrs. (Dr.) Harvey.

Cottage prayer meetings will be held at the following homes:

Tuesday, 8 p.m.—Mr. B. Shortley, 550 Aylmer street; Mr. E. Lowes, 781 George street; Mr. C. L. Cunningham, 617 Rubidge street.

Thursday, 8 p.m.—Mr. A. J. Throop, 546 Aylmer street; Mr. R. Freeman, 769 Water street; Mr. W. Dickson, 586 Harvey street.

Friday, 8 p.m.—Mrs. Hart, 559 Bethune street; Mr. B. Manning, 543 Harvey street; Mrs. Froom, 95 Smith street.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Moderate west to north [illegible] light snow, but for the [illegible] part fa[illegible] cold. Wed[illegible] fair and

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

[illegible] YEAR No. 128 Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

COMRADE MUIR ELECTED PRESIDENT OF LOCAL BRANCH OF WAR VETERANS

After Serving the Association Since Its Inception He Now Ascends to the Presidential Chair—Comrades Clancy and Layfield Elected as First and Second Vice-Presidents

Mr. J. R. Muir, or better known as plain "Bobby" will now shoulder the responsibilities of the Peterborough branch of the Great War Veterans' Association as he was unanimously elected to the office of president of that association at its annual meeting last night.

He was opposed in the election by Comrade Staunton, (1919 president,) Comrade C. Ackerman and Comrade Cooper. Each candidate made a speech in which he promised, if elected, to do everything in his power for the returned soldier. It was the new president's speech to the electors that possibly had a great influence on the member, in casting their votes in his favor.

Comrade Muir went into his past record of service for the G. W. V. A. much more thoroughly than the other two candidates and he presented an excellent record of service, and attention to the association. He has been with it from the start and has attended all the regular meetings and during the time he was a member of the executive he missed only a very few of its meetings.

The result of the ballot for president was: Ackerman 38; Muir, 62; [illegible] Cooper, 1.

Comrade Cooper was unfortunately unable to appear before the meeting and declare his platform as he is suffering from a severe illness.

Made Unanimous

After the results of the presidential election was declared it was moved by Comrade Staunton and seconded by Comrade Ackerman that the election be made unanimous. The motion carried.

The election of the remaining officers followed and each candidate for office made an election speech, declaring his stand, if he should be elected. It was noticeable with what good spirit the defeated candidates offered to do all in their power to support their successful opponent.

Results of Remaining Votes

For 1st. Vice-President. M. Clancy 65; F. Oxley, 47; Williams, 30.

Comrade Clancy elected to the office of 1st. vice-president.

For 2nd. Vice-President: Layfield, 109; Widdifield, 10; Allen, 11; Whit 11.

Comrade Layfield elected to the office of 2nd. vice-president.

For the office of treasurer, Comrade Whatley withdrew in favor of Comrade Coleman, who has held that office for the past two years.

The five members elected to the executive committee were Comrades Dr. McPherson, 27; Batley, 24; Primean, 24; Lebarr, 22; and Perks 19.

Referendum Defeated

The result of the local vote on the two questions submitted by Dominion command as a referendum was announced.

The first was a vote on the question of the association entering politics and resulted as follows: yes, 61; and no 89, making a majority of 28 in favor of remaining aloof from the political arena. On the second question, whether or not the doors should be thrown open to all those that donned the khaki, the result was: [illegible] tive majority of 18.

Miscellaneous Business

The baby's clinic was granted free use of the ladies' auxiliary room and kitchen provided they will be responsible for any damage that might result from their presence. This cautionary clause was added at the suggestion of Comrade Muir, who stated that from his experience a baby clinic must be prepared to receive not only the baby but also the mother, father, grandparents, etc.

It was announced by the chairman of the social committee that an At Home will be held Thursday evening for the members where dancing will be taught.

CITY WILL APPOINT TOWN PLANNING COMMISSION OF FIVE RATEPAYERS

Messrs. Ryerson Ritchie, C.E. Cisson, Russell Copping, J. W. Worth and Dr. Harvey were a deputation to the City Council last night in the interest of a City Town Planning Commission.

Council as a whole approved of the proposition, and decided, on motion of Ald. Taylor and Phelan, that a city Town Planning Commission.

Council Unanimous.

Every alderman supported the resolution which provides for an honorary commission of five ratepayers to make a systematic study of the present state and future possibilities of Peterborough, its parks, waters, bathing beaches, recreation grounds and every problem touching the outdoor life and enjoyment of the people. The main purpose being to work out the whole big problem into one systematic plan. Not only that, but Council gave unanimous consent to the recommendation that His Worship select for the big job men who possess special qualifications and fitness for the work.

Eminent Specialist.

The Commission of Conservation, through its representative, Thomas Adams, the eminent city planning specialist, made the suggestion to the Mayor and Council at a joint meeting with His Worship, City Clerk Armstrong, the city engineer and Dr. E. E. Harvey, R. V. Copping, William Sangster, C. E. Sisson, J. W. Worth and Ryerson Ritchie of the City Plan Committee of the Board of Trade.

The First Step.

Mr. Thomas Adams urged as the first necessary step the appointment of a City Development Commission to act as an investigatory and advisory body of the city Council to initiate and supervise procedure under the advice both of Mr. Adams and the city administration.

POLICE COMM'SN A FAMILY AFFAIR

SEEKING LEGISLATION TO ELECT COMMISSIONERS BY PEOPLE'S VOTE

Last night the City Council adopted Ald. Crowe and Morrison's resolution that the Legislature be petitioned to legislate that cities and towns be permitted to elect their Police Commissioners at the polls by qualified voters.

This resolution will be sent on to other municipalities with the request that they co-operate.

Ald. Crowe characterized Peterborough's Police Commission as a family affair, the judge and police magistrate holding office for life, and the city having no jurisdiction over its own expenditures on the police department. There is room for improvement, he said, in a law that instead of being democratic is bureaucratic.

FIRE AT THE NEW HUNTER ST. BRIDGE

FIRE USED TO THAW OUT FROZEN GRAVEL GETS OUT OF CONTROL

Last evening at 5.20 the local Fire Department were called out to subdue a conflagration on the east end of the old Hunter street bridge.

It appears that a pile of frozen gravel was being thawed out and the flames got out of control, the east end of the old bridge catching fire.

Owing to the quick work of the Fire Department what might have been a serious blaze, was quickly overcome. As the structural wood work of the new bridge was at one time seriously threatened, the Mattress factory also claiming a large part of the firemen's efforts.

Fortunately the alarm came in in time to prevent any serious loss, practically no estimation being placed on the damage done.

AN APPEAL FOR SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY AMONG LABOR AND ALL NATIONALITIES

Mr. Leon Jouhaux Gives Vivid Word Picture of Ideals of French Working Classes.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Montreal, Dec. 2.—An appeal for a spirit of community among labor of all races and nationalities, for the sake of humanity, was made by Leon Jouhaux, secretary of the General Labor Federation of France, here last night.

Fraternal Spirit.

M. Jouhaux, who is returning from the Washington Labor Conference, spoke on "the aims of labor and the Washington conference." The first aim, he said, was to re-establish a spirit of fraternity and solidarity among those workers broken by war.

Picture of Ideals.

He gave a vivid picture of the ideals of French labor, which, he said, was poorly understood by the outside world, because it was difficult to believe in that disinterestedness which placed moral matters before material questions.

THREE CORNERED CONTEST IN VIEW

G. N. GORDON IN THE FIELD FOR MAYOR IF HIS PRIVATE BUSINESS WILL PERMIT

The mayorality contest set for the New Year now promises to be a three-cornered fight between Ald. McIntyre, Ald. Taylor and Mr. G. N. Gordon.

Ald. McIntyre has been selected by the Trades and Labor Council as their candidate, and has stated his intention of running. Ald. Taylor declares he will be in the field and now, in all probability, Mr. Gordon will enter the contest.

When asked his position this morning, Mr. Gordon replied that he was giving the matter most serious consideration. He was that, if he can so arrange his private business as to able to devote half his time to civic affairs, he will enter the contest for mayor and do his best to win.

The unanimous vote in his favor by the Great War Veterans helped to induce Mr. Gordon to consider contesting the seat if he can possibly give the time and attention which he deems such office demands.

57TH REGIMENT FAVOURED BY VETS

PASS UNANIMOUS MOTION TO ASSIST IN RE-ORGANIZATION

Will the Peterborough Regiment of militia be known as the 57th or 2nd, and will Col. Young or Col McLaughlin, be officer commanding was the question debated in War Veterans' Hall at their annual meeting last night.

Col. McLaughlin who hails from Bowmanville was given ten minutes to speak, and after praising the Great War Veterans for their services to the returned men, urged them to establish some unit to commemorate their comrades who had fallen upon the field of battle. He thought that the best way of doing this would be to establish a militia unit and call it after one of the brave battalions that fought in the great war.

As the second battalion is the senior battalion of this district he thought it would be best to estalbish a militia unit under the name of the second battalion as the 21st is being formed in Kingston and the 38th in Ottawa.

Favors 57th.

Col. Young, was then asked to speak. He stated that he considered Col. McLaughlin slightly premature in bringing this matter up for dis[illegible] considered it and decided upon a plan. And more he declared, that Peterborough was not going to give up the traditions of the 57th Regiment. Other battalions besides the second had been fed from the ranks of the 57th, and we are not going to give up its traditions or cast aside the colors of which this city is justly proud.

If Col. McLaughlin wishes to establish a city battalion known as the second, let him organize it in Bowmanville, suggested Col. Young. Peterborough has officers of its own and does not require the assistance of other places.

As though to put an end to all argument and doubt, he produced a paper signed by the General Officer Commanding the district, appointing him commander of the 57th. Regiment of Rangers with headquarters

The association passed a motion unanimously in favor of the reorganization of the 57th. Regiment in this city.

ALDERMAN EDGAR QUESTIONS ALD. McINTYRE'S LOYALTY TO LABOR

Makes Statement in Council Reflecting on Ald. A.A. McIntyre's Union Principles, Which is Emphatically Denied.

In discussing the procedure for increasing salaries of city officials, Ald. Edgar last night questioned Ald. McIntyre's union principles. He declared that Ald. McIntyre had told him in Council, after the fair wage clause had been inserted in the city's constitution, that he (Ald. McIntyre) did not have to pay union wages; he could get all the carpenters he needed at 60 cents an hour. (The union scale is 67½ cents.)

(Ald. McIntyre was decidedly emphatic in his denials, and Ald. Edgar was equally emphatic in his re-assertions.

It remains for the two aldermen to prove or disprove, as the case may be.

Ald. Taylor fathered a bylaw to increase the city clerk's salary from $2000 to $2500 and that of the M. O. H. to $1200 a year.

Ald. Gainey, while not objecting to the salaries, took exception to the method of procedure. A resolution, he said, was moved by Ald. Garside and himself in March, and carried, that all increases should come before the Committee of the Whole before recommendation to Council.

This resolution was hunted up, and Council in the majority concluded that it referred only to increases of salaries then in question.

Ald. Crowe did not object to the increases at all. In fact, he contended that as the clerk's salary was $2000 before the war it should be doubled now to meet the high cost of living. "My policy is that all officials and workingmen should be paid on a percentage basis, that is, paid according to the purchasing power of the dollar."

Ald. Phelan replied that the city had increased their corporation workers' salaries.

Ald. Gainey—"All but the street cleaners, who are still paid a miserable $2.70 a day."

This led up to a general debate on the way the city had treated its workingmen in the way of salaries, in contrast to officials, which culminated in Ald. Edgar's hit at Ald. McIntyre.

The Finance Committee's report recommending the above increases was adopted, and a bylaw fathered by Ald. Taylor and Phelan to execute the same carried.

STIRLING DROPS TO NEW LOW LEVEL

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Dec. 2. — A new low record for sterling exchange was made in the local market today when the demand for sterling opened at $3.95 1-4, 3 3-8 below yesterday's close. Francs were quoted at ten to the dollar, off eight centimes; lires at 12.37 to a dollar, of three centimes.

CATHOLICS AND SOCIALISTS CONTEST DOMINATION IN ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

First Real Test of Strength Today When Chamber Elects President and Other Officers—Former Premier Orlando Government Candidate—Socialists Will Move That Oath of Office be Expunged From Costitution.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Rome, Dec. 2.—The struggle for domination of the Italian Chamber of Deputies developed into a fight, in which Socialists and Catholics have been definitely aligned. Socialists yesterday wore red carnations, while a hundred members of the Catholic party appeared in the chamber with white carnations.

Test of Strength.

The first real test of strength will come today, when the chamber elects its president and other officers. The Socialists will attend this session, take their oath of office and offer a resolution that such oath be expunged from the constitution. They will also nominate Deputy Lazzari for president of the chamber.

Former Premier Orlando, who will be Government candidate, strangely enough had Lazzari imprisoned some time ago for conducting an agitation against war.

Sympathy of Nations.

The King in his speech from the throne yesterday said that the confidence and sympathy of the nation were indispensable to the Parliament as was national collaboration [illegible] people. Italy, he said, after her great victory, must direct all her efforts to the work of peace.

There was no cloud upon the sincerity of Italy's foreign relations, continued his majesty. He referred to the specially cordial nature of her relations to the allied and associated powers.

Italy, through the war, continued the King, had gained her natural frontiers, but not all of her aspirations, he declared, were considered everywhere in a spirit of justice. The aspirations of Italy in the Adriatic, he asserted, did not cloak any military design, and for the most part possessed no economic value. They were confine, he said, to the defence of native ideals. Th protection of Italian populations was the uty and imprescriptible right of Italy.

No Imperialism.

"We have no imperialistic views," continued his majesty, "and intend in no way that the peace of Europe should be disturbed."

"Italy regards with the liveliest sympathy the rise of the popular classes," said the King, who characterised the movement as one which should produce in the interior of the country a programme of in[illegible] and [illegible] in connection [illegible] an increasingly democratic co-operation between nations.

VETS WANT GORDON

At the regular meeting of the Great War Veterans last night it was unanimously decided to respectfully request Mr. G. N. Gordon to run for the office of mayor at the coming municipal elections, and to give him the support of the Association.

The motion was moved by Comrade Staunton, seconded by Comrade Layfield and received the hearty and unanimous support of the whole meeting.

ALLEGED TO HAVE THREATENED SISTER

WILD STORY GIVEN AS EVIDENCE AT LOCAL COUNTY COURT

One reads stories of shooting and threatened murder in yellow-backed story books that are considered wild and beyond all possibility of being true to life, but it is seldom, nowadays, that one hears of a sister charging her brother with threatened murder in the law courts of our own land.

Such was the accusation made, however, by Mrs. Peters against her brother, Mr. Shaw, both of the 18th [illegible] in the County Police Court this morning.

There appears to have been family difficulties, away back in that north country, for some time and a doubt as to who owned certain property, father or son, has existed. The son now appears to hold the deed of the land and some time in the earlier part of this month he came to the house and, according to the evidence of Mrs. Peters, which went uncontradicted, pointed a gun at his sister, and using profane language threatened to shoot her. She fled to an upstairs window and cried for help which was received in the person of a neighbor who happened to be driving past at the time.

After the hearing of this evidence, Mr. Gordon, appearing for the accused, Crown Attorney Hatton and Acting Magistrate Rush, got together and arrived at an agrement by which the case was adjourned until called for, with accused bearing court expenses.

ALD. W. H. TAYLOR FOR MAYORALTY

Ald. W. H. Taylor personally announces his intention of entering the field of civic competition for the majorality of the city of Peterborough, which action he has taken at the request of many leading citizens.

Ald. Taylor will run for office as the representative of all classes.

As present chairman of the Finance Committee Ald. Taylor is already well to the fore in civic affairs and has always taken a deep interest in all interests of the city.

Ald. Taylor will make a further statement in a few days.

100,000 ACRES FOR SOLDIERS

HIGH CLASS AGRICULTURAL LANDS NEAR BARBON, ALTA, ARE INCLUDED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Dec. 2.— Over hundred thousand acres of Hudson Bay Reserve lands, lying in three prairie provinces, which have come into the hands of the Dominion Government are being turned over to the soldier settlement board for settlement by returned soldiers. All these lands are of good value for farming purposes. Eighteen thousand acres of high class agricultural land near Carbon, Alta, has also been secured by the Government for a similar purpose. The lands will be disposed of early next spring.

(The Argonaut and Granite hockey teams of Toronto, held their first practises of the season yesterday. Both showed fast line-ups.

JUNCTION OF GENERAL DENIKINE WITH POLISH ARMIES FFFECTS SOLID FRONT

London, Dec. 2.—The War Office tonight, in a report concerning the situation in South Russia, Nov. 26 says:

"Gen. Wrangle withdrew his lin to the west bank of the Volga River, but the Bolsheviki suffered heavily. One of their columns was surrounded and destroyed, and all its transport and a number of machine guns were taken.

"The Bolsheviki have advanced 50 miles south of Voronesh. Gen. Mar[illegible]off's division counter-attacked the Bolsheviki on the Kharkov-Kursk railway, recaptured Rjava and advanced to 30 miles south-east of Kursk, taking 600 prisoners and six guns.

"Gen. Denikine's army has now joined up with the Poles, making a united Anti-Bolshevik front from the Caspian Sea to the Baltic Sea."

CITY COUNCIL APPOINTS FUEL COMMISSION TO CONTROL COAL

Last Regular Session This Year For Aldermanic Board Special Meeting Monday Next, When Utilities Commission Will Present Plan For Filtration Plant—Odds and Ends of Routine Business Wiped Off the Slate.

The City Fathers met last night in their last regular session this year.

The Canadian Navy League wrote that Ontario has asked for 1,000 bags fitted with smokes, handkerchiefs, games, sweets and such like as Christmas gifts for Canadian sailors on the high seas. The bags are now ready and Peterborough was asked for a donation toward filling them by December, the tenth.

Ald. Edgar and Crowe moved that a grant of $25 be made.

Pay For What They Get.

The Western Clock Co., who are locating here in the Canadian Chickle Company's old building, without any concession whatever from the city, asked at what price the city would sell its small lot adjoining their premises. They need this lot on which to erect a warehouse.

On motion of Ald. Phelan and Taylor this matter was referred to the Manufacturers' Committee to report Monday night.

A Fuel Commission.

Fuel Administrator Herrington of Ontario wrote, asking that in view of the present fuel situation a Peterborough Fuel Commissioner or Commission be.

Ald. Hamilton and Taylor moved that the old fuel commission be appointed. They were Joseph Wearing, Walter Stocker and Edward Quinn. This carried.

Bill Boards Tax.

On motion of Ald. Phelan and McIntyre, Walter Stocker will be asked to meet the Finance Committee some time this week re his proposed tax on bill boards, committee to report Monday night, when Council will meet in special session.

T. F. Matthews' Resignation.

Mr. T. F. Matthews, in his written resignation from the Utilities Commission, said he did so with regret after eight years' association with the waterworks. He had hoped that it might be possible to offer his services to the city until the contemplated filtration plant was decided on and its erection completed, but finds it impossible to spend so much time in Peterborough as necessary to devote to this work.

Filtration Plant.

Messrs. Robert Hicks, T. F. Matthews and W. H. Moore, the Utilities Commission, were present, and asked to be allowed to present their plans for a filtration plant to Council Monday night next. This was granted.

Ald. Edgar and Phelan moved that the resignation of Mr. T. F. Matthews from the Utilities Commission be left over until Monday night next, when Mr. Matthews will be present on the question of a filtration plant. Carried.

Deputation to Ottawa.

The Mayor was authorised to name a deputation to accompany the County Council and a deputation from Victoria County to Ottawa in an effort to get the Federal Government to build a new Pigeon Creek bridge.

Letter of Thanks.

Mr. James Edgar wrote, expressing thanks to Council for kindness extended her at the time of her husband's death, and for flowers,

(Continued on Page Three.)

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Douglas, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 485
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1919.

ALDERMANIC HOLDOVERS.

OF THE FOURTEEN members of the Winnipeg city council, there were seven holdovers, four of whom are members of the Labor party. Of the seven aldermen elected last Friday, three are Labor men and the other four members of the citizens' faction. On all purely Labor issues, the result in council will be a tie, the casting vote to be decided by the mayor. It was never intended that any one city official should possess so much power and carry so heavy a load of responsibility. But such anomalies are sure to arise in spite of anything that may be done to prevent them.

There can be no definite verdict recorded by the people under an elective system that reaches only half the membership of a legislative body. Every member of a city council or other collection of lawmakers should be brought to book at one and the same time, whether their original term is for one or two years. It often happens that the representatives most in disfavor are the very ones the electors are unable to reach. The man whose place is secure for another year may, during the first cycle of his term of office defy public opinion. The wrath of the electors, the unpopularity of this representative, is likely to be visited upon some other candidate for re-election with a blameless record. The system of electing half the members of a city council in alternate years is antiquated. There is no more reason why it should be employed in cities than in parliamentary or legislative elections. The voters should be given a chance to separate the sheep from the goats or to turn out a council without exception if they have lost confidence in it.

The special Act under which the aldermen in Peterborough are chosen dates back only to the election of last year, when the general vote was substituted for the ward system. The five aldermen who secured the highest vote were elected for two, the others for one year. Perhaps it is realized now that a mistake was made in adopting the alternate idea. No council can render the highest standard of service if it is torn up every year by an election. A two-year term for all the aldermen and for the mayor would at least be a more businesslike arrangement, the term of every man to expire at the same time. In that case, if there was dissatisfaction with the aldermanic service there could be a general housecleaning. Besides this, no citizen can in justice be asked to fill the all but honorary office of mayor unless the voters are willing to express confidence in his fitness for the position to the extent of two years at least.

NOT ON PURPOSE.

> It would be surprising if Mr. Dewart were not a little peeved over the situation in Queen's Park. The man who helps to catch the turkey does not like to be excluded from the Thanksgiving dinner.—The Globe.

BUT MR. DEWART did not help the U. F. O. to catch the turkey, that is, on purpose, and for that reason deserves no thanks. While trying to run down the elusive bird for his own benefit he succeeded only in fighting it into the yard of the farmers.

A PLEA FOR FIRST OFFENDERS.

THE TORONTO PAPERS are just now carrying on a discussion with regard to the treatment of those who for the first time are haled into court charged with more or less serious offences against the law, many of whom are acquitted on the preliminary hearing. There is a general feeling that these persons should receive more consideration from the courts than is at present shown them.

Many a man has lost his reputation and standing in his community simply by being arrested or cited to court on a charge that lacks foundation. The fact of his acquittal does not save him. If the law presumes a man is innocent until his guilt is legally established, that man's neighbors are certain to take a less lenient view of the affair. The mere fact of his arrest is forever after held up against him as a reproach, as a stain on the otherwise immaculate pages of his life history.

There is a benign provision in the statutes which keeps the name of juvenile delinquents out of print. It would certainly not be justifiable to blast the future of any growing boy, to publish broadcast an account of a youthful delinquency. Even adult first offenders should be given another chance if their dereliction is not especially serious. The newspapers have this matter in their own hands. They can keep the names of all such out of the records without breaking faith with their readers, for, after all, there is little that is edifying to be gleaned from police court reports. A farmer, for instance, comes to town and unwittingly violates some provision of the somewhat complicated traffic bylaws. He is immediately taken to court and fined. Why publish his mishap? Out among his neighbors a police court case is regarded as such, no matter what the charge, inconsequential as the affair may be regarded in urban circles.

Some of the evening papers in Toronto feature police court news in their columns. Reporters are sent to these temples of justice, these modern slaughter-houses of humanity, these harbingers of men and women derelicts, to look for humorous sketches. Heaven save the mark! They assume to see fun in the unfortunate case of some mortal lost beyond all human hope of redemption. They mark the pleadings of these for another chance, and see nothing pathetic in their promises to reform. The ponderous wit of the presiding magistrate is never allowed to escape more or less faithful chronicle. The whole system is ghoulish in the extreme, catering to the lowest elements in the lowest strata of society.

MORE ADVICE FOR PREMIER DRURY.

W. D. GREGORY of Halton County, a former editor of the Farmers' Sun, and who is nothing if not progressive, not to say radical, has a bunch of legislative suggestions for the consideration of Premier Drury and his Cabinet. Some of these are new, others have already been discussed on platform and in the press, but all seem to be devised on the line of common sense and in the interests of businesslike economy.

Mr. Gregory revives the idea that there should be no appeal from the decision of the Canadian courts to the Privy Council in England, and brings forcibly home his point by asking why Canadian jurists are not called upon to straighten out legal tangles that arise from time to time in the British courts. It is certainly a poor rule that does not work both ways, and one of the leading arguments in favor of the present system is that the disinterestedness of distant arbiters insures fairness in all these decisions. There can never, however, be justice in a legal operation that makes it possible for the wealthy party in litigation to carry the case out of the hands of the other party possessed of less means by an appeal to the Privy Council. If the idea is, as so many suspect, to simply broaden the field of legal endeavor, then the system would appear unworthy of a single argument in its favor.

Mr. Gregory favors the abolition of superfluous county judges, but this was provided for at the last session of the Ontario Legislature when it was decided that where there are two judges now, a senior and a junior, on the death of the former the junior hold office alone. The matter of judges' fees for extra services was also dealt with as Mr. Gregory suggested, and let it be known that he is a lawyer himself.

This latest admirer of the new Government also believes that the speech from the throne and the subsequent useless debate should be abolished, together with gowns of ceremony, cocked hats and other relics of an age before the world was made safe for democracy.

There is one thing certain. Premier Drury cannot hope to escape all the advice that has been so lavishly furnished him, advice in the interests of reform and economy. And no matter what portion of it he may adopt, it is hardly possible for him to err in principle or to make his Government unpopular by progressive action. The Premier who can lop off $3000 a year from his own salary may be regarded as Quixotic by the hard-shell politicians, but he is a man more than likely to gain the confidence of the masses as to the sincerity of his professions.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

LET NO ONE despair. When things look their worst it is time to begin looking for a change for the better.

• • • • •

ANOTHER CHRISTMAS since the armistice was signed is at hand, and peace on earth is not yet fully established.

• • • • •

PROBABLY Premier Drury has cut his own salary as preliminary practice to similar work on other fat emoluments.

• • • • •

SOME PREMIERS are pestered by office seekers, while occasionally others suffer chiefly from the man with ideas and advice.

• • • • •

"WINNIPEG has voted to be its own master," says the Globe. But from this distance it looks as if Mayor Gray is to be the boss.

• • • • •

HOPELESS INDEED is the nervous condition of any householder who does not regard as soothing the rattle of coal down the chute into the cellar.

• • • • •

PREMIER DRURY is having as much journalistic advice thrust upon him as are the electors of Peterborough with the practical results in each case about equal.

• • • • •

WHAT HAS BECOME of the old-fashioned philanthropist who, with the approach of every winter, had something to offer in the way of a substitute for coal?

• • • • •

THE MAN who says that the moon is inhabited by a superior race, as like as not may be reckoned among those who take no interest in the municipal nominations or elections.

• • • • •

NOW THAT a red tie has become the recognised badge of Bolshevism, the wearing of such an article of apparel even by the orthodox is given a new and more sinister significance.

• • • • •

THE PEOPLE are urged to get together to choose a Mayor and Council for 1920. Producers and consumers have been advised to the same general effect for years and to little apparent purpose.

• • • • •

BUT SO LONG as the navies of the Central Powers are not rebuilt Canada has no real reason to worry about her lack of warships. Furthermore, is not the League of Nations to preserve the peace on land and sea for all time to come?

• • • • •

FEW MEN, experts in certain lines, would be willing to accept a commercial position on a short trial. Why, then, ask a citizen to show what he can do as mayor in one short year, hardly long enough to make himself at home in his new surroundings?

• • • • •

THE WINNIPEG Council for next year will split fifty-fifty on all Labor question and so require the mayor to give the casting vote. The western metropolis cannot claim precedence in this system. Peterborough has nursed it all through the current year.

• • • • •

THE LIKENESS of the late ex-President Roosevelt is to be stamped on certain gold coins in the United States. In common fairness, seeing the value attained by silver and what he did for it, the portrait of William Jennings Bryan should be placed on coins of that metal.

• • • • •

DR. FRIEDMANN, the German specialist, has sold his alleged tuberculosis cure that he peddled in America in vain a few years ago, to compatriot capitalists for $140,000, which step, according to professional ethics, stamps the doctor as a quack, every medical discovery being supposed to be made a free gift to the people.

CITY COUNCIL REJECTS NO BONUS PLAN

Ald. Gainey and McIntyre last night fathered a resolution that Council petition Legislature to rescind the Provincial Governments Act permitting the bonusing of new industries.

The motion was lost, the Labor aldermen, McIntyre, Crowe, Gainey, and Morrison, being its only supporters.

Ald. Gainey admitted he would not like to see Peterborough isolated among other Provincial cities with this petition. Ald. Crowe thought such a measure should be Dominion wide, but that is not permissable.

The city solicitor pointed out that no city or town is allowed to offer a bonus to enduce an operating industry away from another locality in the Province, and a bonus cannot be offered a new industry in the same business as others already established.

The Mayor said the prohibiting of bonusing in Ontario would play havoc in this Province with Quebec offering by inducements to industries to locate there.

Ald. Hamilton thought the question too big to decide off-hand, and asked Ald. Gainey to send it on to next year's Council.

Ald. Gainey replied he would like an expression of opinion.

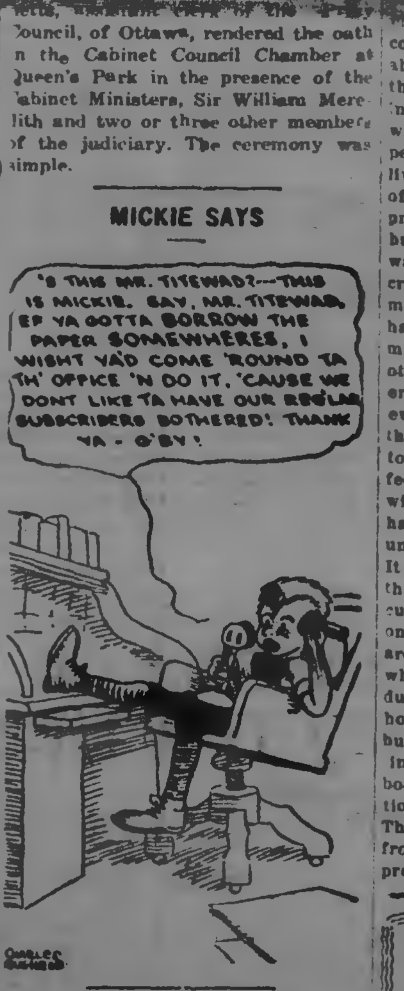
Ald. Phelan said the no-bonus principle was all right were it dominion-wide.

Ald. Crowe remarked that the United States never bonus Canadian industries, nor offer inducements for industries in one state to locate in another.

LIEUT.-GOV. SWORN IN

Toronto, Dec. 2.— Mr. Lionel H. Clarke was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which time the duties of office passed from Sir [illegible] Mr. F. N. Be[illegible]etts, assistant clerk of the Privy Council, of Ottawa, rendered the oath in the Cabinet Council Chamber at Queen's Park in the presence of the Cabinet Ministers, Sir William Meredith and two or three other members of the judiciary. The ceremony was simple.

MICKIE SAYS



'S THIS MR. TITEWAD?—THIS IS MICKIE. SAY, MR. TITEWAD, EF YA GOTTA BORROW THE PAPER SOMEWHERES, I WISHT YA'D COME 'ROUND TA TH' OFFICE 'N DO IT, 'CAUSE WE DONT LIKE TA HAVE OUR REG'LAR SUBSCRIBERS BOTHERED! THANK YA - G'BY!
CHARLES SUGHROE

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Telephone girls never invite you to call again.

Girls will be girls—if they can't be married women.

A free thinker isn't a free thinker when he is in jail.

A woman will have her own way even if it is a roundabout way.

It is impossible to forget the majority of things that should be forgotten.

Love and wine get credit for making fools of some men who were born fools.

It's the easiest thing in the world for a man to forget the mean advantage he took of another.

Always listen carefully to the opinions of others; the chances are you will derive no benefit therefrom, but it will please them.

"Smile when you can," says a poet. That's all right, but why didn't he confer an everlasting favor on humanity by telling us how to smile when we can't.

BEWARE OF DECEPTION
Statistics show that when egg albumen is used as a constituent of baking powder, the amount so used is too small (usually 15/100 of 1%) to affect the quality or effectiveness of the baking powder containing it, and when so used, is plainly for the purpose of fraud. Intelligent buyers will not permit themselves to be deceived by the water glass test.
MAGIC BAKING POWDER
contains no alum or egg albumen and is guaranteed to be composed of the ingredients printed on the label—and none other.
Made in Canada By Canadians
For Canadians

SCHOOL TEACHING PROFESSION

(From the London Advertiser.)

The effort of the London school teachers to place their profession upon a self-respecting basis through the organization of a teachers' union, has already served one good purpose in awakening the community to the fact that this body of its employees, whom it intrusts with the care of its children for a longer period of each day than they as parents usually spend with them, have been subjected to hardships and positive suffering in some cases, which they, as members of the community, have no right to inflict. While wages in every known trade have been rising in sky-rocket style, while other professions have raised their regular charges and so increased their income, the teacher has been left in about the same condition as before the war, though the high cost of living is as pressing in his case as anywhere else. A good many people appear to regard school teachers as living in a state where ordinary laws of economics do not apply since the pre-war salary has been expected to buy clothes, food, shelter, and warmth at the new and vastly increased prices that now prevail. It must be admitted that the teachers have put up with this state of things much longer than those engaged in other lines of work would have tolerated at insufficient wages, but, even in the case of the teacher, there is a limit, and that limit seems to have been arrived at. In the feeling that only by a united front will they obtain their demands, we have today in this city a teachers' union.

It is not to the credit of this city that recourse to this means of securing justice should be necessary on the part of its teachers. There are, perhaps, other city employees who are receiving far less than their due and continue to give earnest and honest service to the municipality, but in general there has been steady increase granted by other chief boards to their staffs, and such action has been generally approved. The Board of Education has received from the city greatly increased appropriations in recent years, but only in a small degree have the teachers benefitted. We have built school buildings in London that we are proud of and that competent critics have declared to be of the most modern type, but it is a question if we have not been reducing the working efficiency of those five plants year after year by driving out the most energetic and ambitious teachers by refusing them an adequate wage. What possible reason is there why an educated and trained teacher should sacrifice his or her life for the sake of people who ask that their children receive the best training and then refuse to pay for it? It has come to a point where the young person ambitious to enter teaching [illegible] of poverty. Such a thing ought not to be.

The Dean of Arts of the University of Michigan recently wired a young history teacher, a Ph. D., equipped with a knowledge of several languages and well recommended, offering him a place on the staff of Ann Arbor at $1200.00 a year. The reply of the Ph. D., sent from Boston, was: "Thanks for your offer, but I have a job in a feed store and think I'll stick." There is an indication that it is not alone elementary education lent higher education as well that is feeling the loss of teachers due to inadequate salaries. The professorial staff at the University of Illinois has recently organised a union and it is interesting to note that the American Federation of Teachers, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, increased its membership from 2,000 in September, 1918, to 10,000 in June, 1919, and now has the teachers in more than 100 American cities organized into unions. The movement is one that is spreading in the United States and that is likewise bound to spread in Canada. London is not a lone sinner among Canadian cities, for the conditions here are those prevailing generally and the remedy that London teachers are applying is one likely to be applied very generally until as a class these people are placed on a basis where they have at least their own self respect.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Work done by the social service section of the vocational and medical branches presents a striking reminder that Department of Soldiers' Re-Establishment exists for civilian rebuilding; that its efforts have a direct bearing upon the progress and welfare of the entire community life and that its activities of today mean a surer and stronger foundation for all civilian activities of the future.

This is very true of the social service work inaugurated by the Vocational Branch during the year 1917, as an aid to the men who were taking re-training courses. This work is now carried on by the medical and the vocational branches, each of which maintains its workers for necessary service. The social service was intended to be a medium of assistance to the man taking re-training; a link between his work and his home life, which strengthened by sympathetic and systematized knowledge, would relieve his mind of anxiety during the period of his re-training. As such it is promising to be one of the most valuable contributions to community building for the future.

"Building for the future," indeed best describes the work being undertaken by this section.

Social service as carried on through the medical service is distinctly different to that of the vocational branch.

Medical social service is concerned not only with the home surroundings of the returned man, himself and his dependents, but definitely with his medical treatment as carried on at home, he is an outpatient on the strength of the department for pay and allowance, and therefore all social service workers of the medical branch are graduate nurses.

The social service workers of the vocational branch deal with the home surroundings of the returned man who has been medically treated, to a finality.

In every day life the man whose mind is free from care and domestic worries has proven to be the best workman.

Social service work done in the vocational branch is based upon recognition of this fact and upon the knowledge that to give a man who is undergoing re-training the fullest opportunity for advancement both in health and in his new training, his mind must be relieved as far as possible of all outside cares and burdens.

In many instances the ultimate success of re-adjusting the man and his home in the life of the community, depends upon the quality of social service extended to them.

In the case of the returned man who has been for many months overseas, even under the most ordinary circumstances, there will be some adjusting necessary. For probably two years or more he and his family have led an entirely separate existence, each must now remodel their lives upon new lines.

In the case of a man who is suffering from disability, however, the need for adjustment may be even more imperative. There will be little idiosyncrasies heretofore unknown in his nature, there will be needs which must be provided for, if he is to gain the full measure of health.

In a great many instances, during the man's absence, the home has been vacated, probably the family went overseas to be near him and on their return a new home must be found. They will be in new and strange surroundings and the consequent re-settling to new conditions for everyone concerned will provide plenty of opportunity for the kindest assistance.

It must not be supposed that the social service workers of the vocational branch enter the home of any returned man as investigators or inquirers into his personal affairs, on the contrary the visitors, who are for the most part the cheeriest band of women, are greatly welcomed both by the men and their families.

No problem appears too complicated for the social visitor to tackle. Whatever troubles affect the home of the returned man, she is ready to see things through. From taking the children to school, buying them clothes, purchasing groceries, attending the court to defend a member of the family who is in trouble, and interviewing troublesome landlords or hunting up a house, it all comes in the day's work.

In some cities the social service

(Continued on Page 3)

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, six for $5. Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)

FARMERS' BUSINESS
For the past 54 years, this Bank has given particular attention to the business of Farmers.
We have helped many over the rough places, and have aided many more to the highest plane of success.
We are prepared to extend you every aid within legitimate banking practice.
Come in at any time and talk over your affairs with us. You are always welcome.
THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager

NP SOAP
Sold in Canada since 1879

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

(Continued From Page 2.)

workers are stationed within or near the vocational schools so that men who desire a special visit made to their homes may call in and talk things over with the workers.

The same service is provided for returned men by the medical branch in every province, each district being allowed to organize its workers according to the manner which appears most favorable to the locality.

Treating one hundred men who are in hospital wards, and treating one hundred men each living in his own home presents two totally different problems. In the first instance, the doctor is working with conditions which he knows to be favorable to the completion of his work. Conditions which are uniform in the matter of air, light, warmth, ventilation, resting, feeding and nursing here. In the latter case, however, he realizes that no two homes are alike and that the lack of proper knowledge in the home may militate entirely against his sill and efforts to restore the man to full health. Hence the social service workers attached to the medical service.

Naturally the man's family will be anxious to do all within their power [illegible] his recovery. In many instances, however, lack of proper facilities or knowledge proves a hindrance and here the help of a trained worker may prove the greatest assistance.

Where a man is discharged from the hospital at the convalescent stage permanence of his cure will depend very largely upon his future conduct and home care. He is put upon the social service list and a visit paid immediately with one object in view, sympathetic aid.

The returned man must be assisted in every way to regain as quickly as possible his pre-war standing of independence and health. To this end it will be necessary to see that he does not engage in any occupation which will overtax his strength; that his relations or whoever is responsible for the care of the home the nature of his illness and of care in the matter of food, rest, clothing and other details which are required in his particular case. His progress must not be left to chance or the circumstances of hay-hazard methods.

Men suffering from disability who wished to be nursed at home also come under the care of the medical social service. Before such cases can be discharged from hospital, the doctors must be satisfied that the home conditions will not work against a cure.

A phychological fact generally accompanies cases of illness and with certain temperaments the best hospital care in the world cannot compete in the cure of the patient against the healing influences of home environment, however humble the latter may be.

In such instances the man's mental condition, if kept in the hospital, may so militate against his bodily progress that instead of the quick recovery usually anticipated under otherwise ideal conditions, his cure is retarded and drawn out.

In many districts the social service work of the department is forging a strong connecting link for the future between the community life of Canada and all agencies working for social welfare and betterment.

It is such efforts in the tremendous work of re-establishing the returned man which in their character of building for the future generations will have the most beneficial and lasting effect upon the entire national life of this country.

You Are Invited
To Visit Our Store and Inspect Our Prices and Values in
DIAMOND RINGS
None Better in the City—Also
WATCHES
[illegible]ham and Swiss Makes—
[illegible]ccurate Time-Keepers
—Always Reliable.
[illegible]hneider's
[illegible]ge st., Next Turnbull's

LAKEFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

Young People Meet.

The Anglican Young People's Association gave a reception at the rectory in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Archbold on Thursday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. H. Fitzgerald assisted Dr. and Mrs. Archbold receive.

Mrs. Trude Wadon poured the tea and Mrs. Maring the coffee, while Mrs. Stenner, Miss Hilliard, Miss Hampton, Miss Ogilvie, Miss Rhoda Alford and Miss Graham served.

Little Miss Rhoda Achbold and Isabel Bygott also assisted.

About seventy members of the congregation responded to the invitation and the affair was a great success, both as a social function and a parish gathering.

Following is the program, which has been drawn up by the Executive Committee of the Anglican Young People's Association for the season

—1919—

Monday, Oct. 6.—Opening meeting and election of officers.

Monday, Oct. 13.—Adoption of program and social.

Monday, Oct. 20.—Lecture, Jean Velleau. [illegible]

ing in honor of Major and Mrs. Ben Oliel.

Friday, Oct. 31. — Hallowe'en party.

Monday, Nov. 10. — Musical vagaries.

Monday, Nov. 24.—Social.

Monday, Dec. 8.—Evening with a poll.

Monday, Dec. 22. — Christmas party.

Thursday, Dec. 25.—Christmas day, a great festival of the church.

—1920—

Sunday, Jan. 4.—Corporate communion.

Monday, Jan. 5.—Leap year social.

Monday, Jan. 19.—Mock trial.

Monday, Feb. 2.—Sleigh drive.

Monday, Feb. 16.—Gentlemen's evening.

Wednesday, Feb. 18. Ash Wednesday.

Monday, Mar. 1 —Devotional address (Lent).

Monday, Mar. 15. Devotional address.

Monday, Mar. 29.—Devotional address.

Sunday, Apr. 4 —East Day. Attendance at the Lord's Table by the confirmed is required by the church.

Monday, Apr. 12. Lady's night.

Monday, Apr. 26.—Debate on woman's suffrage.

Monday, May 10.—To be decided.

Tuesday, May 25.—Banquet.

Monday, May 31.—Closing business meeting.

Monday, June 7.—Picnic.

Executive Committee—

Hon. Patron—Capt. (Rev.) H. A. Ben Oliel.

Patron—Rev. W. Archbold, D.D.

President—Mrs. T. Waldon.

1st Vice-president—Sergt. Stenner.

2nd Vice-president—Miss Hilliard.

Secretary—Miss Graham.

Treasurer—Miss M. Hampton.

Mrs. Marling, Miss Ogilvie, Mr. T. Leggott, Mr. S. Moon, Mr. A. Ball.

An Amusing Incident.

An amusing incident occurred at the Lakefield High School when one of the pupils, at the request of the teacher for an extempore oral composition on Stoney Lake, rendered the following: "Stoney Lake is one of the prettiest lakes on the continent, and is largely used as a summer-resort. The Americans like to come to Stoney Lake to fish. One day an American caught a large fish. It was so large that it upset the boat and threw the American into the water. The fish then attempted to swallow the American, and when he had him half down, it saw printed on his back, 'We won the war,' the fish could not swallow that, so he threw him up."

Social and Personal.

Mr. W. Edwards, of Peterborough, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. Leonard, on Friday.

Reeve Moore was in Peterborough last week attending the December session of the County.

Mr. C. Young, of Peterborough, was a visitor to the village on Saturday.

Mrs. P. Young, of Young's Point, spent Saturday in the village.

Miss Bertha Robson returned missionary from India, was the guest of Mrs. (Rev.) P. L. Jull, last week.

Mr. John Bickell, of Peterborough, was in the village last week, the guest of his brother, Mr. E. Bickell.

Mrs. Yelland, of Peterborough, was the guest of Mrs. W. Gillman on Tuesday.

Mr. F. J. Rogers, of Kingston, spent a few days in the village.

Miss Traill spent Wednesday visiting friends in Peterborough.

Mrs. George H. Rowe, of Peterborough, spent a few days in the village visiting relatives.

Mr. A. G. Fawcett, of Guelph is a guest at "The Grove."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. James Little spent Saturday visiting friends in Drummer.

Mr. R. C. Strickland is the guest of his son, Mr. J. C. Strickland, of "Uplands."

Mrs. (Dr.) M. R. Graham has returned to Toronto after spending the past week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Chant.

Rev. S. F. Dixon spent a few days in Toronto last week in connection with the "Forward Movement" of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Stenner and Miss Stenner, of Vancouver, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stenner before leaving for England.

Miss Rhoda Alford spent Saturday in Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Blewett, of Peterborough, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blewett on Sunday.

HOUSING COMMISSION NOT FOR THIS YEAR

CITY FATHERS SEND PROPOSITION ON TO NEXT YEAR'S COUNCIL

The City Council has tabled the [illegible] sion for next year's aldermanic board to wrestle with.

This was done when Council was in Committee of the Whole last night on a bylaw providing for the appointment of such a commission, to consist, on Ald. Edgar's motion, of James Finnie (one year) and F. H. Dobbin (two years).

Ald. Gainey and Phelan moved that the committee rise without action. This carried, and the bylaw consequently remains in abeyance indefinitely.

Ald. Phelan contended that the bylaw had been sprung on him without his being conversant with the question. The matter, he said, should be shelved till next year.

Ald. Gainey is not favorably impressed with the housing scheme. He said a local building and loan society are offering better terms and conditions for home building than embodied in the Government's plan.

The Mayor, while not committing himself to the housing scheme, declared that something must be done to provide houses for workingmen. There are none available, and manufacturers will not locate here unless good housing conditions exist.

Ald. Morrison stated that he had a hundred listed for sale and other real estate agents are in a similar boat. Mr. Dobbin's report on housing he considered a good one from Mr. Dobbin's point of view, but Mr. Leader's reply thereto in the press was a good argument against the Government's plan. The commission would entail an expenditure to which next year's Council should not be committed by this board.

The New York market continued to have irregular tendencies, steel and equipment stocks holding fairly well.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN RIGHT OUT

Don't suffer! Relief comes the moment you rub with "St. Jacobs Liniment"

What's rheumatism? Pain only! Stop drugging! Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub the misery right away! Apply soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" directly upon the "tender spot" and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica relief which never disappoints and can not burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic and sciatica, pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! "St. Jacobs Liniment" has relieved millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains and swellings.

4/4

STOPPED HER HEADACHES

Years Of Suffering Ended By "Fruit-a-tives"

112 Hazen St., St. John, N. B.

"It is with pleasure that I write to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine "Fruit-a-tives", made from fruit juices. I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, consulted doctors; but nothing seemed to help me until I tried "Fruit-a-tives".

After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since". Miss ANNIE WARD.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

4

CITY COUNCIL APPOINTS

(Continued From Page 1)

Condolence.

On motion of Ald. Hamilton and Crowe, a resolution of condolence with Mrs. James Edgar, Ald. John Edgar and all members of this family, in the death of the late Postmaster Edgar, was carried unanimously. This resolution expressed sincere regret in the loss of an esteemed citizen, an efficient postmaster, and at one time a useful member of the City Council.

Four Crests.

Notice was received from the Victory Loan Committee that Peterborough had the proud distinction of winning four crests for its Prince of Wales' flag. The third and fourth crests were enclosed.

Wrongly Assessed.

James Drain, secretary of the Separate School Board, wrote that Andrew J. Small, proprietor of the Grand Opera House, had been assessed as a Public School supporter, whereas he should be assessed for Separate Schools. This goes to the Court of Revision.

Mr. B. D. Hall wrote that Mr. Stewart has purchased part of lots 20 and 21, south of Gladstone avenue, where he intends erecting a wool stock factory to replace that destroyed by fire in East City. Mr. Stewart asks for water service and a hydrant in the vicinity. This went to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Taxes Collected.

Tax Collector W. J. Green reported for the month ending November 30th as follows:

Total amount on roll	$480,204.24
Amount deposited	449,843.66
Balance	$ 30,360.58
Amount collected during October and November	$188,220.03

City Responsible.

W. S. Dodds, local C.P.R. agent, wrote that now the Hunter street bridge is closed and traffic diverted to the temporary bridge just north of Simcoe street, the city has refused to protect the crossing, claiming that it is up to the Quaker Oats. This company, Mr. Dodds added, claims such protection is up to the city, and therefore the C.P.R. will be obliged to hold the city responsibility for any accidents that may occur until such time as it is definitely settled who should protect this crossing while switching.

This communication was simply received.

Cost of Sewers.

City Engineer Parsons estimated the cost of a sewer in Monaghan Road to Patterson street at $554.35; and another sewer on Park street from Cedar street to the creek at $1147.21. The estimated total for these two sewers is $1701.56. This went to the Board of Works.

Damage Claim.

On motion of Ald. Phelan and Morrison, Herbert Hamlin will be paid $40 in full settlement of his claim for injuries to his horse while in the care of the Board of Works Department.

More Lights.

On motion of Ald. McIntyre and Phelan, two lights will be placed on Donegal street, between Dublin and Smith, and two on Smith between Park street and Donegal.

Ald. Gainey expressed annoyance that the light on Roger street at the Church of the Immaculate Conception had not been placed as ordered by Council. Mr. Fisk, manager of Peterborough Utilities, claims, Ald. Gainey said, not to have been notified of this decision of Council.

The Mayor: "I mentioned the matter to Mr. Fisk myself."

Ald. Morrison here said both he and Ald. Gainey had explained to the Utilities foreman what was wanted.

This matter will be looked into.

Street Railway Extension.

Council generally here talked at some length on the need for further street railway extension to serve South City factories.

Ald. Edgar said the only way to get any satisfaction in this matter was to go personally after Sir Adam Beck. Such was the means he took for acquiring the extension along the Monaghan Road.

On motion of Ald. Crowe, a deputation will wait on the Hydro-electric Commission in Toronto, in this regard on December 12th, and urge an extension south as far as the De Laval.

Coasting Down Hills.

Ald. Crowe thought little folk should be privilege to use two or three hills in the city for coasting on stipulated days and hours.

Ald. Edgar pointed out that discussion last year revealed the fact that legalizing such sport made the city responsible for accidents.

On motion of Ald. Phelan and Crowe, the Mayor was requested to consult the chief of police on this question and report.

Who Were There.

There were present Mayor Duncan, Aldermen Gainey, Morrison, Crowe, Hamilton, Edgar, A. A. McItyre, Phelan and Taylor.

Council adjourned to meet in special session Monday night next.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

Th noen-jury case of the Supreme Court ended about three o'clock this afternoon with the hearing of the one case of Mr. G. Paton vs. Clifford Filion, of Belmont township, for alleged default of agreement.

The case opened before Mr. Justice Rose yesterday afternoon. The plaitoiff claimed $4,000 from the defendent while the defendent issues a counter claim of $8,000, aleging misrepresentation.

Mr. T. R. I. Wray and Mr. Mackenzie of Toronto, appeared for the plaitiff and Mr. F. D. Kear and Mr. O. A. Langley for the defendent.

Judgment was reserved.

"Safety First" To Be Enforced.

People Taking Matters Into Their Own Hands.

Public safety does not alone concern the operation of railways, street cars and motors. It lies deeper. It lies in the health of the people.

One of the greatest enemies to health is kidney trouble. If the kidneys don't filter from the blood the uric acid and other poisons, the general health de[illegible] rheumatic, sciatica, [illegible] pains, lumbago, stone in the bladder, headache, constipation, lassitude. There is certain relief for these ailments. Gin Pills help where other remedies fail. They build up the debilitated system, bring the kidneys and bladder back to normal action, and, by removing the cause, make impossible the evil results. Gin Pills do not contain any alcohol, but all the valuable diuretic properties of the Gin together with other diuretics and antiseptics which have a signal effect on the bladder and kidneys.

All druggists and dealers sell Gin Pills under a guarantee to return your money if they do not bring relief. If you have backache, constant headaches or pain in the sides, begin treatment at once with Gin Pills. 50c a box. Free sample on request.

The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto. United States Address, Na-Dru-Co, Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y. 260

6

A Pair of Skates Makes an Ideal Gift
—or—
perhaps a Flashlight, a Hockey Stick, Puck or a Lamp or a Tire for a Bicycle would be more suitable. Call in and look around before the rush.

WHITE BROS.
174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental
PHONE 897 OPEN EVENINGS

H.P. Lindsay, Agency Company
392 Water Street
(South of Munroe House)
Real Estate and Insurance
District Agents for Security Life.

FOR SALE
A Nice Brick House in Good Locally, for $1,700.
PHONES
Office, 341 House 1291w

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PAINTER WANTED.

A GOOD AUTOMOBILE AND cariage painter wanted. Apply Box [illegible] Review, stating wages.

4

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LAdies. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont.

TO LET.

TO RENT—A BRICK HOUSE on McG[illegible] immediate possession can be given. Rent moderate. Apply Review office.

TO LET—FURNISHED BEDrooms at 560 Water street.

LOST.

LOST—TUESDAY EVENING, in city, tire and rim. Apply Gibbs & Halpin, 421 Water street.

STRAYED.

TO LOCK [illegible] A FEW DAYS ago, a hound spotted body, black and tan head. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for advertisements.

3

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Broncnitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: [illegible] 'Phone 871

FOR SALE.

~~FOR SALE — ONE WORK horse, 7-years old, sound. Apply 90 Stewart street, or phone 1713.~~

AUTOROBE BARGAINS. TWO [illegible] BA[illegible] used [illegible] cars. [illegible]FFUS GARAGE.

4

FOR SALE—A LARGE RADIator, with figured bronze front and [illegible] top. Will be sold cheap. Apply Review office.

3

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Trustees Act, R.S.O., 1914, chapter 121, that all persons having any claim or demand against the estate of Francis Burnet, late of the Township of Asphodel, in the County of Peterborough, gentleman, deceased, who died on or about the 6th day of May, A.D. 1919 at the said Township of Asphodel, are required on or before the 2nd DAY OF JANUARY, 1920, to send by post prepaid, or to deliver to the undersigned, the executor of the will of the said deceased, their names and addresses and full particulars in writing of their claims and demands and statements of their accounts and the nature of the security if any, held by them.

And take notice that after the said 2nd day of January, 1920, the said executor will proceed to distribute the estate of the said deceased among the persons entitled therto by law, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have had notice and the said executor will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose claim he shall not then have received notice.

Dated this 1st day of December, 1919.

WILLIAM BURNET, Cobourg, Ont.
Executor, Frank Burnet Estate.

9

The Royal Northwest Mounted Police is to be amalgamated with the Dominion police in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

The coal situation in the Maritime Provinces is improving. z z z

Robert Sellar, fifty-four years of age, was suffocated in a chute for stone screenings at Point Anne.

Have You A Savings Account?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH
PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00
W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertis ments is one cent a word per fir insertion; subsequent insertion half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Specia terms for 5,000 words or over. Advertisements marked "till forbid den" are accepted on the under standing that they will be publish ed until a written or verbal notic to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, ME MORIAL NOTICES AND CAR OF THANKS, 50c per insertion Daily and Weekly, not exceedi one inch space. All words ov the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement Saturday daily (no reference to co certs allowed) $5 per year per inc Extra space in this column for th purpose stated, 15c per inch. Reg lar rates apply for other than Su day services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY AN thing at a bargain price, l the people know through T Review columns. You're su to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rate
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notarie
Money to Loan at Lowest Rate
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRI

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc.
and Solicitor for the City of Pe
torough Bank of Commerce Bu
ng. 'Phone 580.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Off

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAN
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Pub
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. Peterboro
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 33.
Private Funds to Loan [illegible]
Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries,
Water Street, Peterborough. M to loan at lowest current rat interest. Easy terms of pay
E. A. Peck. F. D. Ke
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Pu
Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone
Successor to Roger, Bennet
Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George
Entrance next Madill's Drug

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries
lic, etc. Money to Loan on Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R.
134½ Hunter St. Peter
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough. Ont., offices
Hunter and Water Sts., over C ian Bank of Commerce. Trust to loan on easy terms of payme

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of T
Special attention to diseases
Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.O.S,
R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, N
Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-1
2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 corner Water and Murray

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice
Barrie Building, George Stre
'Phone 652 for appointme

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETT
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building,
and Water Streets. Entran
Hunter street. Office hours: 9 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings pointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our considerable trust funds to l 6½ per cent. on first class tate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN
Phone 219. 386 Geo

JUST FOUR DAYS MORE OF

SUKLOFF'S GREAT CASH

Realization Sale

OF

Ladies' and Misses' Suits, Coats, Mantles, Dresses and Waists, Dry Goods, Millinery, Men's, Boys' and Children's Ready-To-Wear and Furnishings

$25000 WORTH OF GOODS $25000

MUST BE CLEARED REGARDLESS OF COST

This means that our need for realising $25,000 in cash for business investments forces prices down to the lowest possible level for a quick turnover. Now is your opportunity to buy seasonable goods from which all profits have been clipped. Sukloff's goods are well known as dependable, and Sukloff's prices the next 15 days will create a sensation. This is the sale for saving your pocket when buying cold weather wear, and thus reducing the cost of living. Nothing will be reserved. We must have the cash, you need the goods. Buy now, when every day is no-profit day for us and bargain day for you.

Sale Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday

DRY GOODS

LOOK AT THIS

COATES' THREAD—No. 36 and 40, in black only. Per spool ... 5c (Only 5 spools to one customer.)

HEAVY LINEN ROLLER TOWELLING—A good absorbent quality, 18 inches wide. Sale price, per yard ... 25c

DAMASK TOWELS—The best value ever offered of fancy Damask Towels. Size 22 x 50 in. Price, each ... 39c

FLANNELETTE—Striped Flannelette, in a fine assortment of fancy stripes; good quality. Width 27 inches. Sale price, per yard 25c

CASHMERETTE—In all shades, suitable for children's dresses; 36 inches wide. Sale price, per yard ... 39c

FLANNELETTE BLANKETS—Large size, heavy weight. Regular value $3.75. Sale price ... $2.98

CROCHET BED SPREAD, Only 2.69—A special Crochet Bed Spread that is made of good quality cotton, closely woven, in an assortment of neat designs. Sale price ... $2.69

BED COMFORTERS—Made from very choice designs in good quality American art silkoline, in dark or medium coloring. You will like these for your bed. Large size. Sale prices from $2.98 to $4.98

CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR—Children's Ribbed Underwear, for ages one to two years. Price, per garment ... 15c

INFANTS' BONNETS—Bonnets of white bearskin, trimmed with white satin ribbon. Regular $1.00. Sale price ... 49c

BUNGALOW APRONS—A special value in Bungalow All-over Aprons, in assorted colors of printed percale. Regular value 98c. Sale price ... 59c

LADIES' VESTS—A fine quality of ladies' hygiene wool fleeced Vests, in white only. Price, each ... 98c

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

LADIES' AND MISSES' WINTER COATS — In smart styles, in chinchilla and blanket cloth, which will suit every young lady. Colors grey and brown. Priced from $19.00 to $22.00

LADIES' AND MISSES' WINTER COATS—Smartly tailored coats of velour, a soft, all-wool material; large convertible collar, fancy cuffs and pockets, and belted at the waist. These coats are in brown only. Regular price $25.00. Yours while they last for only $17.50 to $19.00

LADIES' SWEATER COATS—Women's heavy Sweater Coats, knitted from wool yarns with small percentage of cotton; assorted styles, collar, turn back cuffs, two pockets and belt provided. They come in pleasing colors. Regular $7.50. Sale price ... $3.98

GIRLS' WINTER COATS—Very dressy and stylish coats for girls, suitable for fall and winter wear. They come in corduroy velvet, blanket cloth and other fine cloths and in fashionable colors. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Priced from $5.00 to $12.50

LADIES' UNION UNDERWEAR—Suitable for fall and winter wear. Colors white and cream. Price, each ... 59c

LADIES' SKIRTS—In tweeds and serges. Sale prices from ... $2.98 to $3.98

ALL-OVER SWEATERS—A clearing lot of Ladies' Pull-over Sweaters, in pure wool, in the very latest shades and makes. Worth up to $6.50. To clear at ... $2.98

LADIES' DRESSES—Five only Ladies' dark green Velvet Dresses. Regular $15.00. To clear at ... $7.50

SILK CREPE DE CHINE BLOUSES—A clearing lot of Silk Crepe de Chine Blouses, in fashionable styles and colors. Worth up to $6.50. Sale price ... $2.98

LADIES' HOUSE DRESSES—In assorted colors of heavy percale. Just what you need. Only a few left. Sale prices ... $1.50 to $1.98

WOMEN'S UNDERSKIRTS—Women's heavy knitted petticoat of wool, with thread of cotton at the back, finished with self stitching. Color, grey trimmed with cardinal. Regular price $1.98. Sale price ... $1.25

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RIBBED STOCKINGS—Sizes 6 to 10. Regular price 40c. On sale for, pair ... 29c

LADIES' HOSE—A specialty in Ladies' Hose, of cotton, fleece lined and Cashmere; black only. Sale price. Per pair ... 25c to 75c

FURS!

SELLING OUT FURS AT HALF PRICE ON ACCOUNT OF GOING OUT OF HANDLING FURS

BLACK WOLF SETS— Regular price $20. Sale price ... $10.00

FURS!

OTHER FURS OF ODD PIECES SELLING FOR LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

MUFFS—Large pillow shaped muffs of black wolf. Regular price $12.50. Sale price ... $5.00

WHITE THIBET FURS—Suitable for children, aged 3 to 8 years. Regular price $10.00. To clear at ... $5.00

MENS' WEAR

MEN'S HEAVY GREY WOOL SOCKS—Regular value 50c. On sale for ... 35c

MEN'S BLACK WORSTED SOCKS—Regular price 60c. On sale here for ... 39c

MEN'S LEATHER WORKING GLOVES—Regular value $1.00. Sale price ... 69c

MEN'S WARMLY LINED LEATHER MITTS—Your choice for only ... 49c

MEN'S ALL-WOOL UNDERWEAR—Men's heavy weight all-wool underwear, slightly soiled, as they have been in stock quite a while. Regular value from $2.00 to $3.00. Sale prices $1.49 to $1.98

MEN'S AND BOYS' FALL AND WINTER CAPS—Worth from $1.50 to $3. On sale for ... 98c to $1.98

MEN'S FLEECE-LINED UNDERWEAR—Regular value $1.25. Sale price ... 98c

MILLINERY

VELVET SAILORS—Smart, dressy Silk Velvet Sailors, with stylish shaped crown and straight brim. This makes a lovely dress hat and is wonderfully becoming. These Hats are in black only. Price ... $1.00

VELOUR FELTS—Very dressy Hats in velour felt, with slightly rolled brim, suitable for street wear. Colors grey and black. Regular $7.00. Sale price ... $2.50

CHILDREN'S HATS—A clearing lot of Children's serviceable Hats, in corduroy velvet and silk velvet. Colors: dark red, navy and purple. Regular value $2.50. One of the biggest bargains for ... $1.25

FEATHERS — Beautiful ostrich tips with richly curled head. The season's most popular hat trimming. Colors: nigger brown, sky blue, Copenhagen, black, white mixed with black, and black mixed with white. Sale price $1.49

BEAUTIFUL MOUNTS AND SPRAYS—In latest colors and shapes. Your choice for. Only ... 50c

BOYS' WEAR

SMALL BOYS' SUITS—In all wool worsted material, in Buster Brown make. Color, navy blue with fine white stripe. Sizes 21 to 22. Regular $7.50. Sale price only ... $4.98

BOYS' SUITS—From ages 8 to 16. In tweeds and serges. The very latest makes. Sale prices from $5.98 to $12.00

BOYS' WINTER OVERCOATS—From ages 8 to 14. Heavy wool tweeds and Weatness. Sale prices from ... $6.50 to $12.50

BOYS' WOOL SETS—Suits for the little tots. In colors red and grey. Sizes 2 to 5. Price ... $3.49

SMALL BOYS' OVERCOATS — Ages 3 to 8. Materials: tweed, chinchilla and whitney cloth. Sale prices from $4.98 to $10.00

Our Entire Stock is reduced for this Sale, and the above is but a sample of Hundreds of other Articles marked down in price, as never before, all values are exceptionable. DON'T MISS THE PLACE

N. SUKLOFF,

1 DOOR SOUTH GRAND HOTEL 293 George Street

AN ADDRESS TO RETURNED MEN

SOLDIERS AND NEXT OF KIN OF THOSE THAT FELL HONORED BY OTONABEE

At a recent meeting held to honor the returned men of a certain district of Otonabee the following addresses were read and are published by special request:

To Returned Soldiers.

To You, Our Returned Heroes:

We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered together this evening to formally welcome you home again.

We knew well your high ideals and splendid courage even in pre-war days, and we were doubly proud of you when you bravely sacrificed the pleasures of your homes to answer the urgent call of your country and to take your stand for truth and freedom, for the protection of our homes and our liberty. You have nobly upheld the honor and sustained the reputation of our beloved Canada and you have merited our deepest admiration and gratitude. For when in the history of the world was such heroism and indomitable courage shown, as when you and your friends checked the advance of numerically superior forces at Ypres and put the enemy to rout at Neuve, Chappelle, Vimy Ridge and Passchendaele and made that last glorious advance into Mons.

Now, after all these trials and dangers, you have returned to us as victors, wearing the same cherry smile as when you went away. You have caught the vision of a greater world and new social reforms.

You are prepared, with your broadened viewpoint, to lead the community and the world into a greater fuller and nobler life.

We welcome you back with proud and glad hearts, acknowledging God's gracious hand in sparing your life. We wish you every blessing that God may bestow upon you and all the good our country may be able to give you.

We earnestly pray that you and we may be worthy of the heroic sacrifice you and your comrades have made for us and for all humanity.

As a slight token of our appreciation of your sacrifice and our esteem for you, we ask you to accept these rings, presented to you on behalf of the community.

Signed—Thos. Sargent, T. Chamberlain, Thos. Petrie, Wm. Brown.

To Next-of-Kin.

To the Mothers and Sisters of the Unreturning Brave:

We wish to express our sympathy to you who have been denied the privilege of welcoming your sons and brothers home again.

We are proud of you, dear mothers and sisters, who, in spite of your aching hearts and hidden tears, have so bravely rejoiced with us in the home-coming of our loved ones. Grievous has been the pain of your sacrifice, but take comfort for your noble sons died in the cause of honor, truth and liberty for the world. Never before was shown such indomitable courage, nor were such tremendous tasks accomplished. Though your loved ones are now numbered among the glorious dead, they shall live forever in our memories as the men who gave their lives that we might live in freedom and peace.

May we quote with Habberton Lulham:

"Christ-like they died that we might live;
And our redeemed lives would we bring
With aught that gratitude may give
To serve you in your sorrowing.

"And never a pathway shall ye tread
No foot of seashore, hill or lea,
But ye may think 'The dead, My
dead'
Gave this a sacred gift to me."

You, the mothers and sisters of such gallant boys, have merited our deepest gratitude, love and respect.

As but a small token of our esteem for you and your loved ones, we beg you to accept these lockets which are presented to you on behalf of the locality.

(Signed—T. Sargent, T. Petrie, T. Camberlain, Wm. Brown.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of [illegible]'s Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

IS NOW ABLE TO STRAIGHTEN UP

NORMAN HAD RHEUMATISM SO BAD HE WAS ALMOST HELPLESS.

"Tanlac has done me more good than all the other medicines I have ever taken put together," said James N. Norman, living at 1802 Virginia Place, N.E., Canton, O. Mr. Norman is an expert machinist formerly with the John Inglis Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont., where he lived before removing to Canton.

"For three years," he continued, "I had rheumatism so bad that I was obliged to give up a job I had held for ten years. My back would feel so sore and stiff when I woke up in the morning that I could hardly raise up to get out of bed. I was all drawn over and if I tried to bend over to tie my shoe or try to straighten up I would feel like a knife was sticking in my back. After going to bed at night I would often be in so much misery it was impossible for me to sleep.

"I tried all kinds of medicines and treatments but could get no relief. Then I decided to try Tanlac and I began to improve with my first bottle. I never have a bit of trouble now with my back, all pain and stiffness are gone, I never feel any rheumatism and am supple as I ever was. It is no trouble for me to bend over or straighten up and I feel fine in every way."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock, by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield, by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowlers' Corners, by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert, by A. J. Scott; in Westwood by G. Pringle and Son.

GARBAGE CONTRACT LEFT IN ABEYANCE

SATISFACTORY SECURITIES FOR PROPER FULFILLMENT OF WORK NOT YET TO HAND

The Property Committee of the City Council last night recommended that P. Anglesey and C. W. Johnston be awarded the contract for garbage collection at $9,900, they being the lowest of four tenderers.

These men had given D. H. Kerneghan and A. Low as their sureties, but Ald. Edgar pointed out that Mr. Kerneghan had told him that he would not go bondsman for Messrs. Anglesey and Johnston; in fact, he had not been asked to do so.

Ald. Crowe contended that the city should exact personal or a guarantee company's bonds for contractors. He objected to ratepayers being asked to act as sureties for the proper fulfilment of the city's contracts.

Ald. Phelan and Taylor moved that this matter go back to the committee to report as to satisfactory bonds for Anglesey and Johnston on Monday night.—Carried.

Ald. Edgar and Crowe moved that the Property Committee be recommended to ask for either personal or guarantee company bonds from collectors of garbage.

This was lost on the following division: Yeas, Ald. Edgar and Crowe. Neys—Ald. Phelan, McIntyre, Hamilton Morrison, Gainey, Taylor and the Mayor.

TORONTO LOST OVER ONE HUNDRED TREES

BIG STORM PLAYED HAVOC WITH SHADE TREES—DAMAGE $5,000.

Toronto, Dec. 2.—Park Commissioner Chambers has estimated that the damage done at the Exhibition grounds by Saturday night's storm would amount to about $8,000. The glass and mental dome of the Manufacturers' Building was badly damaged, as well as the roofs of the Transportation and Dairy Buildings. The total damage to these three buildings was about $3,000.

The roller-boller coaster was entirely blown down, and is now flat on the ground. One of the R.C.D. stables was in the path of the fall, and was damaged. Crossed wires set fire to the building.

Approximately 100 trees on the city streets were blown down. Commissioner Chambers stated to-day that more trees were blown down than in any previous storm in the city's history. Employes of the department were busy for over twenty-four hours clearing up the debris on the streets. The damage to trees is estimated by the commissioner at about $5,000.

A piece of the glass section of the roof of the civic abattoir, about twelve feet long, and nearly as wide, was lifted off and crashed down in the middle of Tecumseh street. Five of the doors of the loading sheds at the abattoir were blown out, and the big sign on top of the main building, over 100 feet long, was lifted off and carried over on to the railway tracks. The total damage at the abattoir will be about $500.

The Northern Ontario Hockey League at a meeting in Cobalt decided to ask the O.H.A. to grant them senior rating.

BIRTHDAY ANNEX EVENT

THE ANNEX IS 14 YEARS OLD TO-MORROW

The 728th Bargain Annex Sale. This Sale has been held once a week for the last fourteen years. Truly a remarkable record of sale success and every year the Annex Birth Day Sale is the greatest event of the twelve months. This year we have an enlarged Annex and Double Elevator Service. No. 1 (Old Elevator) running direct to the Annex and not stopping at any other floors, No. 2 (New Elevator) runs a local service stopping at all the floors and basement. Endeavor to come to the Annex in the morning and we can give you much better service and better selections

Two Rousing Time Limit Sales That Are So Far Below Factory Cost That The Prices Seem Impossible

8.30 a.m. to 9.30 a.m.

200 FOUR-STRING CORN BROOMS, 39c

The lowest broom price this city has seen in months, and a price that is only possible in the Bargain Annex. Four string, green Corn Brooms at less than half their real value. No 'phone orders, and not more than 2 brooms to one buyer. Sale for one hour only.—8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. Time Limit Sale Leader, Each 39c

Be here sharp at 8:30 as it is possible that the quantity will not last the hour,

9.30 a.m. to 10.30 a.m.

WOMEN'S WINTER WEIGHT UNDERWEAR, 39c Garment

Women's close knit ribbed good weight Vests and Drawers. The vests are in white and grey with button fronts and long sleeves and the drawers are in white only and are ankle length. Away less than to-day's mill price for the one hour only—from 9:30 a.m to 10:30 a.m. No 'phone order and a limit of four garments to one buyer. Time Limit Leader, garment 39c

Some Ready-Made Garments That Make Economy Possible

LEADER.

Ten Dozen $2.50 White Flannelette Nightgowns $1,89

A better quality white flannelette gown. They are especially heavy quality white Saxony, soft combed finish, and are made with buttoned front and deep yoke formed of fine tucks. Sizes 54 to 60. A splendid value gown at our regular price of $2.50 ... Leader $1.89

LADIES' SPECIAL $1.69 BLACK SATEEN UNDERSKIRTS, $1.29

We want you to see the splendid qualities in these skirts. They are made of highly mercerized English sateen and have a deep ten-inch flounce. First buyers will find all lengths from 36 to 42. Our second floor price is $1.69. 14th Birthday Annex Sale price is.. $1.29

LEADER.

Twenty Dozen Ladies' Overall Aprons 59c

They are made of strong, durable materials, the grounds are relieved by light and dark stripes. They are neat appearing and neat fitting garments. Handy attire for morning wear .... Leader price 59c

LITTLE GIRLS' $7.95 and $8.95 GREY CLOTH COATS, $4.95 —

Winter Coats for girls whose ages are from 4 to 5 years. They are made of splendid quality dark grey coating in smart belted styles; have two pockets and black and white shepherd check lining. Our regular prices are $7.95 for size 4, and $8.95 for size 5. The Annex price is $4.95

LEADER.

800 YARDS OF YARD-WIDE FLANNELETTES 27c Yard

Both the quality and the stripe patterns will be to your liking, and the width is 36 inches. This is the best Flannelette value in the retail trade to-day. Also an all-white, in a 30-inch width, with a soft combed finish. Both lines at, yard 27c

Staples—A Grist of Good Values

65c GREY FLANNELS, 46c Yard—Sooner or later you will find use for a piece of flannel. This line we purchased two years ago and at 65c a yard they are exceptionally low. You have choice of light and dark greys and military; 27/28 inches wide. 14th Birthday Annex price ...... Yard 46c

$3.50 LARGE SIZE BED COMFORTERS, $2.69—Away less than the manufacturer's price for these art silkoline covered Bed Comforters. They are full double bed size and early buyers will have a selection of colorings. The regular price is $3.50. Anenx price $2.69

10 DOZEN HEMMED PILLOW CASES 19c Each—This is a clear-away lot at a clear-away price They are made of good quality Canadian cotton and have hemmed ends. 14th Birthday Annex price, each 19c

58c and 63c PILLOW COTTONS 44c—This Circular Pillow Cotton is an excellent quality and is special at 58c or 63c yard. There are a few hundred yards in the lot. The width is 42 inches Sale price .... Yard 44c

$1.25 WHITE AND COLORED BATH TOWELS, 98c Pair—Large sized Bath Towels in all white with fringed ends and grey and white striped with hemmed ends. Both lines are splendid values at $1.25 pair. Over fifty dozen for Wednesday selling at... Pair 98c

Girls' and Children's Wool Scarfs and Clouds 44c

They are mostly a factory sample lot of Girls' Wool Scarfs and Children's Clouds. A few may be slightly damaged, but they are mostly perfect goods. Regular prices up to 75c ...... Sale price 44c

95c Silk Scarfs 49c

We are almost down to half price for this lot of reversible Silk Scarfs. They are mostly black, with polka dots or stripe patterns, and a few are in light colors They are suitable for ladies, men boys or girls, and most appropriate for gift purposes. 14th Birthday Annex price ... 49c

25c DAINTY CHRISTMAS GIFT HANDKERCHIEFS, 3 For 47c—In this lot there are many dainty novelties and the values are truly extraordinary, for many are genuine 25c qualities. 14th Birthday Annex Sale .... 3 for 47c

TO-MORROW'S MID-DAY LUNCH, 45c

11:30 A.M. To 2 P.M.

Gentlemen can take new elevator from rear of Men's Furnishing Department.

SOUP
Pea or Tomato

COLD MEATS
Roast Chicken, Ham or Tongue

VEGETABLE
Potato Salad

DESSERT
Mince Pie or Ice Cream

Bread and Butter
Pot of Tea

A LA CARTE

Vegetable or Tomato Soup	10c
Cold Ham or Tongue..	15c
Pork and Beans	10c
Poached Eggs and Toast	23c
Poached Egg and Toast	15c
Biscuits and Butter ...	5c
Rolls and Butter	5c
Ice Cream	10c
Cake	10c

Shoes, Rubbers, Spats and Gaiters, All Greatly Underpriced

LEADER.

Annex Shipment 800 Pairs First Quality Guaranteed Rubbers, 79c Pair

Again we offer this great Rubber value. Every pair is first quality and are fully guaranteed not to break at the toes, tear at the seams or crack at the soles. There is a size and a last to fit any shoe 14th Birthday Annex .. Pair 79c

Dress Goods Crepe De Chine and Silk

LEADER.

New December Shipment 800 Yards 85c Crepe De Chine 59c Yard

This excellent material with its many good uses, can be had in a range of beautiful colors, as stone grey, mauve, shell pink, old rose, sand, maize, reseda green, myrtle green, pale blue, tobac brown, navy, white, black; they are a full yard wide and will make into charming afternoon dresses, blouses and children's party frocks. 14th Birthday Annex Sale, yard 59c

LEADER.

500 Yards Special $1.25 Dress Goods 89c Yards

To-day we can't buy this splendid quality dress goods for this price. The material is Danish poplar cloth and is half wool, and has excellent wearing qualities. The color range includes navy blue, brown, Copenhagen blue, dark red and marine blue. On the main floor we are running this line as a special at $1.25 a yard. 14th Birthday Annex Sale, yard 89c

400 Yards of 30c, 35c and 40c JAPANESE SILKS, 23c Yard—A Birthday Annex Sale of our entire stock of Japanese Wash Silks in widths of 20 to 24 inches. Our every day prices are 30c, 35c and 40c, and first buyers will have a selection of twenty colors, including black. 14th Birthday Annex Sale, yard 23c

"MILL SECONDS" LADIES' COMBINATIONS $1.39

They are factory seconds and you may find a drop stitch or oil stain, but in every case the imperfection is very slight. They are good quality, ankle length, and early buyers will find a good selection of sizes. The regular prices are $2.00 and $2.25. 14th Birthday Annex Sale $1.39

LADIES' SMALL SIZE SHOES $1.49 Pair—They are splendid qualities, but belong to stocks of former seasons and are broken lots. There is a great variety of leathers, and the sizes are 2, 2½, 3 and 3½. The regular prices were $3.00 to $5.00. Annex price, pair .. $1.49

LADIES' AND GIRLS' SPATS AND GAITERS, 98c—A most fortunate purchase by the Annex buyer makes this price possible. They are made of fine felts and can be had in greys, fawns and black. The length is seven-button, and there is a good range of sizes for early buyers. Sale price Pair 98c

Christmas Gift Specials You Will Find In The Annex To-morrow

Men's 50c and 65c Four-in-Hand Ties	39c
Boys' and Girls' Books	23c
Children's Picture Books	12c & 19c
25c Christmas Boxed Stationery	2 for 37c
Children's Warm Wool Mitts	29c
Special $1.00 Black Scarfs ..	69c
Men's Heather Ribbed Wool Hose	69c
Ladies' 75c Silk Bags	45c
Juvenile Suit Cases	39c
25c Christmas Gift Handkerchiefs	3 for 47c

THE CHRISTMAS SHIPMENT OF JUVENILE SUIT CASES 39c

They are just the thing for the boy or girl going to school, in which to carry boks or lunch. The size is 9 x 11½ inches and the material is a good quality tan fibre. They have double fasteners and a strong handle. For the Birthday Annex the price has been reduced to 39c

12 Bars Laundry Soap, 98c

A price remarkable for Laundry Soaps. You have choice of three leading brands, "Gold," "Sunlight" and "P. & G. Naptha." You can buy all one kind or have an assortment. At this price we cannot take 'phone or mail orders. Two lots allowed to each purchaser if desired. 14th Birthday Annex Sale .... 12 Bars for 98c

Two Articles A Man Needs

LEADER.

200 MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS 98c

Not a shirt in this lot we could buy to-day for the Birthday Annex Sale price. They are mostly light colors and soft cuffs, but a few have stiff cuffs. The patterns are new striped effects and the qualities are the same as you find in the regular $1.50 and $1.75 lines. All sizes, 14 to 16½ for the first buyers. 14th Birthday Annex Sale leader 98c

A GREAT BIRTHDAY ANNEX LEADER SALE OF MEN'S $4.00, $4.25 and $4.50 COAT SWEATERS $2.58

All have buttoned collars and are a heavy knit, and are greatly used by ladies as well as men. You have choice of the following colors: green, grey, brown and navy blue, with trimmings of contrasting colors. 14th Birthday Annex Sale $2.58

Hundreds and Hundreds of Blankets Feature This Annex Sale

LEADER.

$5 and $5.50 AMERICAN PLAID BLANKETS, $3.95 Pair

These are extra large, excellent quality blankets. They are from 84 to 90 inches in length, and are full double bed widths. The patterns are mostly three-color plaid effects. Our street floor prices are $5.00 and $5.50 pair. 14th Birthday Annex Leader.. Pair $3.95

LEADER.

REGULAR DOUBLE BED SIZE FLANNELETTE BLANKETS

White or Grey, $2.39 Pair

Every pair in the lot are the best quality, and you have the choice of white or silver grey with colored stripe borders. They are regular double bed size, and for the 14th Birthday Annex the price will be, pair $2.39

LEADER.

"IBEX" AND "ARCTIC" 12/4 WHITE AND GREY BLANKETS $3.19 Pair

They are the larger size Blankets and the quality need not be discussed when we have mentioned such well known brands as the above. You can have either white or grey. 14th Birthday Annex Leader .... Pair $3.19

LEADER.

New Shipment of Children's Fleeced Lined Sleepers, 89c

All sizes 0 to 5 in this "just arrived" shipment of Fleece-lined Sleepers. They make warm, cozy sleeping garments for little folks. They button in the back and are made with drop seat. The color is cream grey. 14th Birthday Annex price 89c

LADIES' $1.25 BLACK BLOOMERS, 98c—Another "just arrived" Annex line, fine knit Black Bloomers. They have elastic, snug fit waists and elastic at the knees. An excellent value at the regular price of $1.25: 14th Birthday Annex price 98c

LADIES' BLACK CASHMERETTE HOSE "Repaired Seconds"—2 Pairs for 49c

You'll appreciate them on a cold day The quality of cashmere is excellent, and the regular price is 40c a pair. They are repaired seconds, but you will have to strain your eyes to see the flaws. Regular 40c value. 14th Birthday Annex Sale .... 2 Pairs for 49c

The CRESSMAN Company Limited

DOES SANTA CLASS WEAR CLASSES?

Santa Claus is a wise old man, and it is safe to say that if he needs glasses he wears them; also that they are "PEBLO" quality, because he wouldn't have anything but the best that's made. He would advise Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" Glasses in handsome gold mounts as Christmas gifts to your elderly friends, to whom a more modern pair of glasses would be highly acceptable.

See Dr. Fowler about it.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS

Phm. B. Toronto University.

HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES

Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

COUNCIL WILL SPEND $10,000 MORE THIS YEAR THAN ITS APPROPRIATIONS

Such is City Treasurer's Estimate Presented to the Aldermanic Board Last Night.

City Treasurer Frank Adams submitted to Council last night its financial position, pointing out that according to his estimate for expenditures to the end of the year, together with the same total of the city's payments up till the end of October, an overdraft of some $10,000 on current accounts will have to be carried over into next year.

Here are the figures:

Summary of overdrafts estimated to 31st December, 1919:

Assessments and taxes ...	$ 250.00
Elections and bylaws	40.00
Fire Department	4,000.00
Law and legislation	400.00
Queen Mary Hospital . .	1,000.00
Special grants	259.60
Streets and bridges	3,000.00
Street watering and oiling	450.00
	$9,400.00

This may be offset by some accounts being within their appropriations, and having an unexpended balance at the end of the year.

The average monthly payments from 1st January to 31st October has been $29,411. At the same rate to the end of the year the total would be $352,932.00 or $10,000.00 more than the appropriations made when the estimates were passed.

Clause five of bylaw 2151, passed March 21, 1919, reads in part as follows:

"The treasurer is expressly forbidden, on any pretence whatever, to pay or cause to be paid, any money or monies in excess of the appropriations made for such purpose."

The treasurer assumed that the Council in passing this clause intended it to be observed, and when the total expenditure on current accounts reaches the limit of $342,877.21, as provided in the bylaw, payments should cease for the present year. Mr. Adams asked that should it be Council's desire to set aside the clause in the bylaw referred to they so advise him.

His Worship, while regretting the overdraft, explained that it resulted in the main from unexpected expenditures having been laid on the Fire, Water and Light Department, and the Board of Works. Both the two-platoon system and the new electric fire alarm service had not been anticipated by the former department, and the Board of Works had been faced with demands for improvements in excess of all plans at the beginning of the year.

The combined overdraft of these two departments will be, it is estimated, $7,000.

Ald. Phelan, chairman of the Board of Works, said there should be $800 coming from North Monaghan as that township's share of boundary roads up-keep. He hoped to have that matter straightened out before the year ended.

Ald. Taylor and Phelan moved that current accounts in excess of the appropriations be paid, notwithstanding the clause in the bylaw referred to by Treasurer Adams prohibiting same. This carried.

Ald. Taylor and Phelan also moved that the treasurer be authorized to pay accounts authorized by chairmen of the several committees, on certificate from the Mayor and Finance chairman. Carried.

Frontenac county council has refused a [illegible] of $300 to the county [illegible] county treasurer owing to the high cost of living.

INCOMPARABLE

Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets are really incomparable. They have been imitated and substitutes have been prepared which looked like them and even tasted about the same, but there is no other tablet which has the same beneficial effect, the same gentle laxative and tonic effect. For constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness and sick headache, Dr. Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. All dealers sell them.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be so complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

LAST TIME GRAND TO-NIGHT
THE GORGEOUS MUSICAL SPECTACLE
"RED RIDING HOOD"
PRICES $1.50-$1.00-75c-50c

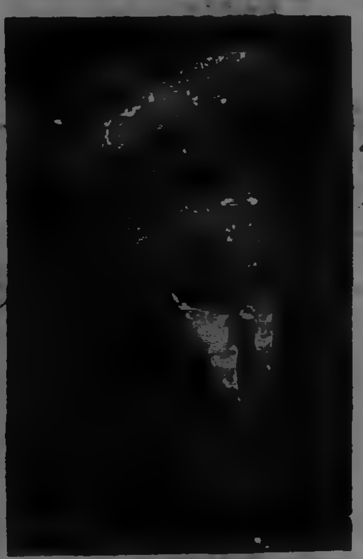
WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY ONLY
SPECIAL VARIETY PROGRAM
WILLIAM FOX
Presents
WILLIAM FARNUM
IN THE
"A SOLDIER'S OATH"
A Tremendous Drama That Breathes The Heroism of The Western Front

MUTT AND JEFF COMEDY
SUNSHINE COMEDY "TOM AND JERRY MIX"
FOX SPECIAL CANADIAN NEWS

- VOD-A-VIL MOVIES -
GRAND ORCHESTRA
15c EVENINGS BEST SEATS 25c | 10c MATINEE DAILY 2.30 15c

FRIDAY SATURDAY POPULAR MATINEE SATURDAY
F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest Will Present
THE DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH ACTOR
PERCY HUTCHINSON
And the Entire London Queen's Theatre Company in the Successful London Production
"THE LUCK OF THE NAVY"
BY CLIFFORD MILLS
PRICES—Evening, 50c to $2.00; Matinee, 25c to $1.50
Seat Sale Wednesday at 10 a.m. Mail Orders Now

THEATRICALS



PERCY HUTCHISON
In the "Luck of the Navy". Grand Friday and Saturday

THE LUCK OF THE NAVY

"The Luck of the Navy," presented by the original London company, headed by Percy Hutchison, after playing for nearly two years in London will appear at the Grand, Friday and Saturday, with matinee on Saturday.

The entire British company and production will appear here. The play has been one of the biggest successes of the past few seasons in London. It is the story of the special providence which watches over the navy men, and is said to be a strong dramatic comedy drama, expertly acted by a company of capable players. The cast includes besides Mr. Hutchison, Miss Muriel Martin-Harvey, Miss Kate Carew, Miss Elsie Stranach, Mr. H. Croker-King and many others.

ALLEN THEATRE
LAST TIME TO-DAY
STEWART EDWARD WHITE'S
Photoplay from the Novel of
"THE WESTERNERS"
It's a thrilling story of the days of the gold rush to the Black Hills.
IN ADDITION:
The King of Screen Comedians
Charlie Chaplin
—IN—
"The Floor Walker"
COMING TO-MORROW
DOROTHY GISH
—IN—
"I'LL GET HIM YET"

"A SOLDIER'S OATH" AT THE GRAND

STORY OF THE PICTURE THAT WILL BE PRESENTED WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

In "A Soldier's Oath," the famous photoplay which has just been remade by William Fox, William Farnum plays the character of Pierre Duval, a soldier of France in the world war. Pierre goes into action, and finds the Count de Morave mortally wounded. Before he dies the count gives Pierre certain jewels and papers and asks him to transmit them to their owner, the young Vicomte Raoul de Reyntiens.

Pierre slips away to his home nearby and hides the treasure in a strong box which already contains a necklace, given to his wife, Margot, by the Duke and Duchess D'Auberg. Lazare, a war correspondent, enters the house, slays Pierre's wife and loots the strong box. Pierre is arrested and sentenced to life imprisonment for murder.

Mavis, Pierre's young daughter, taken into the home of the D'Aubergs.

Years elapse. Mavis, now a young woman, falls in love with the penniless young Vicomte de Reyntiens. Lazare, who, on the strength of the stollen papers is posing as the Count de Morave, also pays court to her and gives her some of the jewels, including the necklace which the D'Aubergs had given to the girl's mother.

Pierre is liberated. Finding his daughter, he sees the necklace, identifies it as his wife's and retribution is visited on Lazare.

SAN CARLO GRAND OPERA CO. COMING

DON'T MISS GILBERT AND SULLIVAN'S WORLD-MASTERPIECE, "THE MIKADO"

Arrangements have been made between A. J. Small and Fortune Gallo and Bradford Mills, whereby the Gallo English Opera Company will be seen at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday nights, and Thursday matinee, December 10 and 11.

Opera lovers of this city already know what Mr. Gallo has accomplished with the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, and when it is announced that in the organization of the Gallo English Opera, Company he has built an edifice for the production of comic opera equal in every respect to his grand opera forces, it can readily be seen what a treat is in store for Peterborough.

The opera selected for the opening performance is the immortal masterpiece of William S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan, "The Mikado," presented with a splendid cast of principals, including Hana Shimozumi, the only Japanese prima donna of light opera in the world today. Jefferson De Angelis, the foremost comic-opera comedian of the day, Daniel Denton, Louis Cassavant, Karl Stoll, Albert Parr, Rosamond Whiteside, Greta Risley and other well-known artists. A fine chorus and splendid orchestra under the skilled baton of Max Bendix will aid in rounding out what will probably be the finest performances of light opera Peterborough has witnessed in many a year.

DANIEL DENTON
As "Nanki Poo" in "The Mikado," Gallo English Opera Company at the Grand, December 10 and 11.

FAILED AS CARTOONIST, IS NOW MAKING QUITE $1,200,000 YEAR

"Larry" Semon "Goat" in $35 per Job, Now Rivals Charlie Chaplin as Movie King

The "I knew Him When" Club was hard at it.

Not in years have its members got a thrill comparable to that received last week over the announcement that Larry Semon, cartoonist of a sort years ago on Evening Telegram at $35 per, had signed a contract with the Vitagraph which will net him something like $3,600,000 in three years.

"What's that, a telephone number?" ventured a member as if to open the discussion of this impossible thing.

"No, it can't possibly be, because they don't run that high," he was told. "Take it right from the president of the telephone company. "And this isn't a telephone exchange, either; it's a personal exchange of good, old coin of the realm."

Didn't Have a Collar Button.

"Why, I knew that guy when he didn't have a collar button," piped up another member with considerable scepticism.

"Well, you have nothing on me," said the president of the club oracularly. "I can recall the time that if he found himself in possession of a round of "third rail" in Perry's he'd think it was the Fourth of July, or something."

"Gosh, can you beat it?" questioned the first member as if to himself.

"You can't even tie it," he was told.

"I can't believe it," he said, unconvinced.

And yet club scouts have gone out and verified the announcement. They had learned from the president of the Vitagraph Company that, despite what they thought they knew of the former cartoonist, he had climbed by "downright hard work to a pinnacle on which he rivals even Chaplin himself."

"Conscientious Worker."

Heretofore, the only mention of work attributed by members of the club to Larry was included in the declaration, accompanied by a deprecatory wave of the hand, that he was "a conscientious worker." And it was said in the usual manner when a fellow is called a conscientious worker. But there were also those who said he was a conscientious objector to work.

The president of the club reported the findings of the scouts.

"And it's comedy, too," he said "Comedy, mind you."

"Comedy!" repeated a member down in the corner of the room who was unable until that moment to get his right foot up on the brass rail because of the crowd. "Why the only comedy I can see here is the fact he has put it all over you wise guys."

"How do you mean that?" he was asked.

Fooled 'Em All.

"Well, as I understand it, if anyone had told you birds a half dozen years ago that Larry would climb to heights of affluence you would have given him the merry ha-ha, not to say a couple of boots. You would have said that he looked originally pep, versatility and objective, and you would have ended up by pulling something closely bordering on an obituary."

And the other charitably admitted that this would have been the case. For the Larry Semon they remembered was then drawing borders, comic inserts and a hall-room salary. They could vividly recall the time, not so long ago, when they had many a laugh over Larry's inability to bulldose editors out of shekels. He was supposed to be as funny in his attempts at cartooning as a cry for help.

But, as the line runs in the poem, "now look at the damned thing." Here's a guy who only a short time back was wont to sidle up to the cashier's window with a hangdog expression and a constant fear of drawing the little blue envelope instead of his thirty-five per. Today, if he should have occasion to walk up to a cashier's window, he could slap the fellow behind the grilling on the back and call him "old man" or some such familiar greeting.

"Luck" and "unmitigated gall" are two of the reasons ascribed for his success by some of the less charitable former associates of Larry Semon along Park Row and on Herald square, but the Vitagraph president has spiked all this derision by explaining he has proved himself worthy of every cent he will be paid. That may be so, according to the members of the club, but some of them can recall the time that as a cartoonist he was a good jockey, for one city editor told him as man to man that he would be better off if he got out of that line of work. Apparently he heeded the advice.

FOUND GUILTY OF NEGLECT
THREE YEARS' PUNISHMENT FOR MAN WHO ALLOWED A SERIOUS SITUATION TO DEVELOP.
Failure to take proper precautions has been responsible for many deaths, and is the cause of much suffering and hardship to-day.
Take the case of Wm. Dunn, 313 Gerrard St. East, Toronto, Ont. Mr. Dunn was a chronic rheumatic sufferer for ten years. Three years of that ten he spent in bed suffering indescribable torture. Picture the joy of this man on finding that Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules were restoring him to normal health again. Here are a few extracts from his letter to us: "During the past ten years I have been laid up with Rheumatism. One attack confined me to my bed for a year, and a second attack left me helpless for over two years. After I had tried almost everything, a friend got me a box of T.R.C.'s, and a few doses convinced me that I had at last found the proper remedy for my trouble. T.R.C.'s improved my condition rapidly, and I feel that had it not been for T.R.C.'s I should have been laid up for years."
T.R.C.'s are certainly wonder workers. Try them.
Ask your druggist or write us for our new booklet; it is interesting and costs you nothing. Templetons, 142 King West, Toronto. We mail T.R.C.'s anywhere on receipt of $1.04.
Sole agents for Peterboro, McDermid & Jury, prescription specialists; for Lakefield, Tanner Drug Co., for Havelock, A. D. Denike; for Hastings, T. A. Coughlan; for Campbellford, J. W. Cairns.

In the first place, Larry wasn't an immediate success. He's been pottering around for five years getting his mental processes speeded up and his attenuated frame accustomed to hard flops, until now his films and himself go along with a whirl that makes Charlie Chaplin look like a funeral march played backward. Of course, there is a difference. Chaplin dramatized the custard pie; Semon sets sphagetti to music.

Both began as vaudevillians. Larry was perhaps about thirty a week shy of Chaplin's receipts at that time, but it can be said that for a wide range of exhibitions Larry has something on his brother slap-stick artist. Professor Semon, Larry's father, was the head of a troupe which had a whole lot of varregated vacancies in which Larry was called upon to pinch hit. In as many days he played about fifteen different characters. These included hypnotist, singer, dancer and acrobat. His talents in these parts will not be touched upon here. The verdict is best left unsaid. But his latest film "The Head Waiter," which happens to be showing in the Capitol Theatre, Chicago, this week, shows where his training comes from.

After all is said and done, Larry's five years with the Vitagraph have developed in him the highest kind of technique as a laugh builder. But the biggest laugh is on the "I Knew Him When" Club.

But, at that, the only merit he seemed to have acquired in his quasi-journalistic career is that he was a good judge of loud silk shirts.

MISSISSIPPI MOB LYNCHES NEGRO

IDENTIFIED BY WHITE GIRL AS WOULD BE ASSAILANT IN WOODS

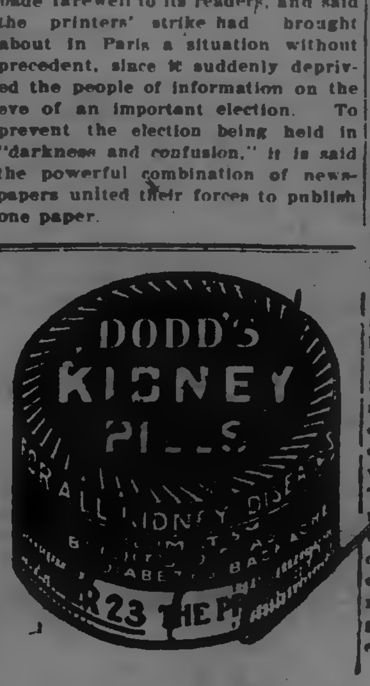
Foxworth, Miss., Nov. 29.—Immediately after he had been identified by a white girl as the man who had attempted to attack her, Neville Foxworth, a negro, was taken from officers by a mob and shot to death here.

The girl, on her way from school, said the negro followed her in the woods. She ran and he gave chase, but she outran him. She had recognized the negro, however, and his arrest followed. A mob formed and immediately overpowered the officers and shot the negro to death.

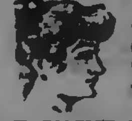
PAPER STOPS PUBLISHING

Presse de Paris Was Joint Effort During Election Campaign

Paris, Dec. 2.—The Presse de Paris, the newspaper published by all the journals of Paris during the printers' strike, was discontinued yesterday. In this morning's issue it bade farewell to its readers, and said the printers' strike had brought about in Paris a situation without precedent, since it suddenly deprived the people of information on the eve of an important election. To prevent the election being held in "darkness and confusion," it is said the powerful combination of newspapers united their forces to publish one paper.



ook's Cotton Root Compound
A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO. TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)



- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE —
Daily Review
Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario
Subscription Rates
$4.00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail.
THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

EMPIRE THEATRE
Monday — Tuesday — Wednesday
ALICE JOYCE
—IN—
"The Spark Divine"
Miss Joyce has risen rapidly on the ladder of photo stardom and has more admirers than any other screen artist. Her good work will be remembered by all those who witnessed her acting in "The Lion and the Mouse" and in "The Third Degree."
"The Spark Divine" is a picture different from the ordinary run of photoplays and is bound to please all those who prefer this style of drama.
JUNE ELVIDGE
—IN—
"The Appearance Of Evil"
COMEDY ::—:: EDUCATIONAL
Matinee . . 2.15
Children . . 11c
Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45
Children . . 16c
Adults . . . 27c

THE MARKETS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Troonto, Dec. 2.— Cattle receipts light. Trade quiet at unchanged prices. Quotations: Butcher steers, choice, $12 to $13; Butcher cows medium, $7 to $9; Calves $16.50 to $19.50; Ewes, $7 to $8.50; Lambs, $14.50 to $15.50; Hogs F.A.W. selects, $16.75

STEEL MAGNATE DIES

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, Dec. 2.—Henry Clay Frick, millionaire steel manufacturer, died here this morning.

NOMINATIONS FOR BYE-ELECTION

Unionist and U. F. O. Candidate Will Contest North Ontario Riding.

Cannington, Dec. 2.—The candidates nominated today for the postponed bye-election to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons for North Ontario, are N. D. McKinnon, Unionist and R. H. Halbert, U. F. O. The elections will take place one week from today.

WILSON'S MESSAGE TO U.S. CONGRESS

PEACE TREATY WILL BE DISCUSSED LATER, ALSO RAILROAD QUESTION

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Dec. 2.—General recommendations on legislation to combat the cost of live, labor unrest, radicalism and re-adjustment of nation to peace-time basis, were features of President Wilson's annual message to Congress delivered today

Peace Treaty Later.

The peace treaty, the President told Congress, will be discussed in a separate message later, as will the railroad question.

The Recommendations.

For second time only since the President established the practice of addressing Congress in person, his message was read today by clerks. The President's principal recommendations were: Establishment of a budget system for national finances, re-organization of the taxation system with simplication of income and excess profits, re-adjustment of the tariff system, if necessary, to meet changed world conditions and make that system conform with the fact that the United States is "the greatest capitalist in the world"; recognition of and relief for veteran soldiers of the world war, particularly in the way of government farms as proposed by Secretary of the Interior Lane; proper measures to foster the dye-stuffs industry, built up during the war to keep the United States independent of foreign supply; an enlarged program for rural development in recognition of the farmer's part in war measures, which will remove causes of political restlessness in our body politics.

LIBERALS DISCUSS ORGANIZATION

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—The National Organization Committee of the Liberal party resumed work this morning, continuing the discussion on ways and means of bringing the party organization work to the necessary standard, and opening a national office in Ottawa. It is expected, official statement will be issued tonight, covering all business transacted.

AMERICANS WILL STAY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Dec. 2.—The American delegation to the Peace Conference which was to have sailed for home December 6, has postponed their departure, it was learned this afternoon.

Toronto milk producers will plead for an increase in prices before the Board of Commerce.

Germany has sitend an armistice stipulating the immediate evacuation of Lithuania.

Canada Food Board License No. 8-[illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit— Cheap
Best Vegetables. Reasonable
Best Groceries At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 980

THE HEART
of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1262 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.
186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

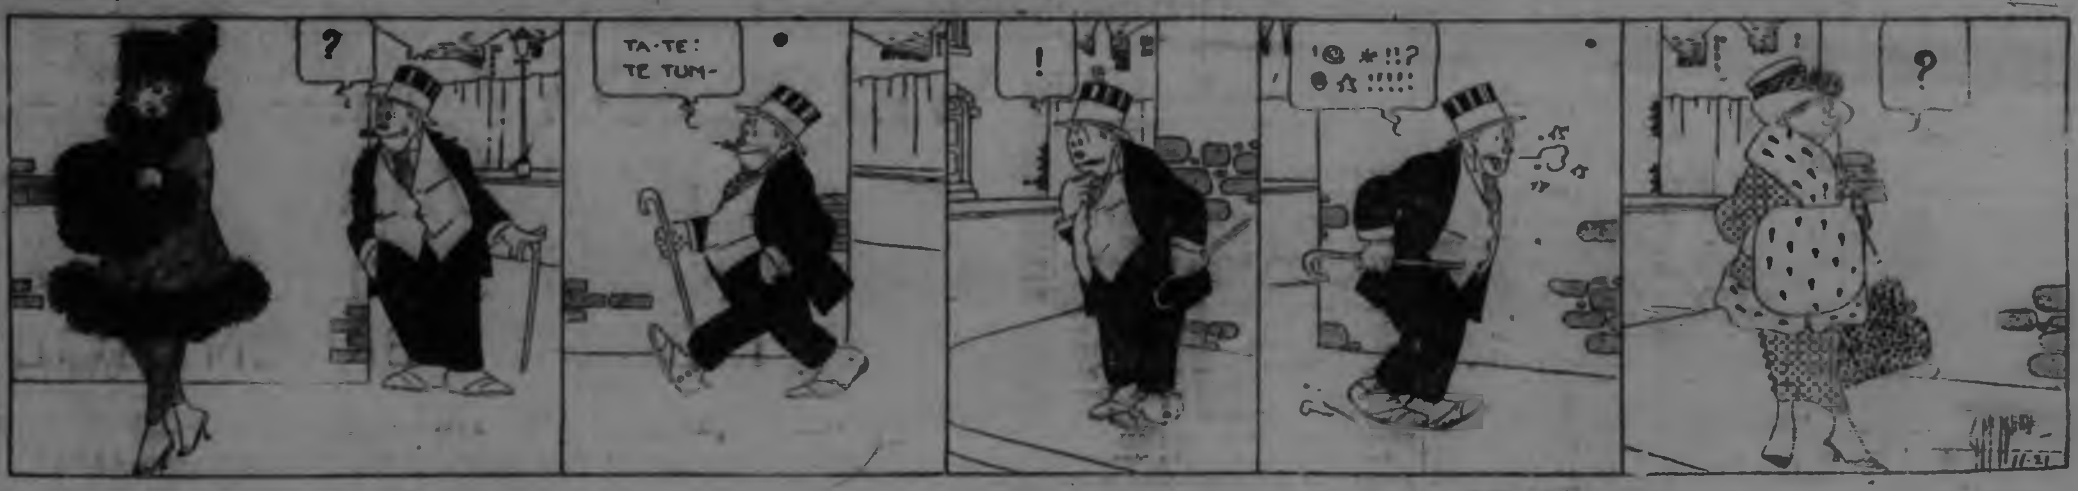
COAL
AND
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-262

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA
N. B. TAYLOR & S
160 AYLMER ST
Phone 209

Bringing up Father

By George McManus



GREAT BRITAIN'S GOLFERS CONCEDED A DECIDED EDGE ON AMERICA'S

There is quite a bit of gossip back and forth to the effect that America now has a shade over Great Britain in the way of international golf rivalry.

That our leading amateurs are better than Great Britain's and that our best professionals will easily clash with the best England and Scotland have to offer.

"This may be true. Verdon, Braid and Taylor undoubtedly have slipped. Undoubtedly, also, England's amateur golf is not up to the prewar standard.

But, it strikes us, by way of better sportsmanship, that it might be just as well for American golfers to wait until the 1920 campaign is over before any extending debate is launched.

We make this suggestion for this simple reason — America's showing in the way of international golf as against Great Britain has been none too high.

With the single exception of Walter J. Travis, who won the British Amateur Championship in 1904, our record has been a trifle pale.

Since that achivement we have sent over at various times such golfers as Jerome D. Travers, Chick Evans, Francis Ouimet, Fred Herreshoff and many others. None of these were able to make any headway. Travers was beaten quickly in both starts. Evans lasted only a few jumps. Ouimet was quickly overthrown.

Heinie Schmidt made the best showing by lasting as far as the sixth round before he was shipped by Harold Hilton on an extra hole in 1913. But the general average has been low— remarkably low since Travis reached the peak 15 years ago.

The same holds good for our professionals who have made fewer attempts. Jack McDermott failed to qualify at his first trial. A year later he finished fifth. This is the best showing that any home-bred has ever made in an open championship.

Against this record we have Great Britain's showing over here. In 1900 Vardon and Taylor came over to take a shot at our open championship and they finished 1-2. That was a clean-up.

In 1911, Harold Hilton came over for a stab at our amateur championship and he not only won the low qualifying medal, but later on won the match play championship—a remarkable achievement for a lone foreign entry.

In 1912 he made another assault against the American line and was nipplsed after he had Chick Evans for the low qualifying score.

In 1913, Vardon and Ray came over to take part in the American open. They tied with Francis Ouimet for the top, and next day were beaten. But their achievement in accomplishing a tie was no small thing with a big thing to battle against.

In any number of four-ball matches, played later on, they were beaten only once or twice.

This international showing to date gives Great Britain a big lead on points. In her two drives at our open championship, her entries have finished 1-2 and later 2-3. And Hilton holds an American championship to match the Travis victory of 1904. It must be remembered, too, that while in an amateur way, England has only sent Hilton over from her leading golfers, we have sent over Travis, Travers, Evans, Ouimet, Herreshoff and others.

Next spring and summer there is sure to be a big invasion of Great Britain's golfing shores.

This invasion will come from our leading amateurs and our leading homebreds as well.

Among the amateurs Ouimet, Jones and possibly Evans will make the journey, and in addition to these three, the list will grow to eight or ten before April returns.

Among the leading pros there is a big chance that Walter Hagen, Mike Brady, Tommy McNamara and others will take the trip. Until American golfers have made the journey and have accomplished far more than any of them have shown in the last 15 years, there is little occasion in forecasting any sweeping victory.

The homebred pros will have a hard time making much headway. Varden, Braid and Taylor may be slipping. But one of them is likely to be good; and in addition to these there are Abe Mitchell, George Duncan, Ted Ray and a goodly output of others of high rank.

There has been so little comment of late upon British amateur golf that no one seems to know just what its 1920 strength will be. Larry Jenkins, the last pre-war champion it still intact. So is Harold Hilton, who is no longer a mere youth, however. For five years England has developed no young golfers, so this will be a heavy handicap, as America in the last five years has developed a big crop of youngsters who have been coming fast. Among them are the championship finalists, Dave Herron and Bobby Jones.

CARPENTER IS A FINANCIER

Pays Excess Rate of Exchange on Win, Lose or Draw Money

Prais, France, Dec. 2. — Georges Carpentier will have a powerful ally fighting for him when he faces Joe Beckett, December 4 at Holborn stadium, the rate of exchange. Carpentier will receive £5,000 win, loose or draw, according to unofficial reports. At the normal rate of exchange this would mean that the French champion would receive about 125,000 francs, but with the exchange rate as it is at present, running at about 40 francs to the pound, Carpentier's share will amount to almost 200,000 francs.

Carpentier has wagered £2,000, or approximately the difference between his share under normal rates and at present.

"I am betting velvet, just plain velvet, on the fight," says the Frenchman.

JOE BECKET WAS ALWAYS A FIGHTER

STARTED BY LICKING ALL COMERS AT COUNTY FAIRS

Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight champion, whose victory over Eddie McGoorty is regarded in England as sufficient cause for matching the title holder with Dempsey, is by no means a newcomer in the boxing game. He began boxing at 12 years of age and at that time was known as "Joe Beckett, the boy boxer." He was one of the numerous English boxers who performed in the booths at country fairs, meeting all comers. In detailing his experiences, Beckett said:

"In busy fair times I have fought in one day as many as 20 contests of three rounds each, though of course, they did not all last three rounds. My orders were to see that no challenger remained on his feet when time was called at the end of the third round, though many tried frightfully hard to get the $5 guarteed to any who should do this.

"How I swaggered about that small arena like a lion with his tail up! It makes me smile to look back now at the boy I was. I am nothing like so fond of fighting since I took to it in the limelight.

"Not long ago a well-known comedian's 'man' knocked me about horibly in the wings of a music hall stage because I disarranged a lot of his master's wigs when they were about to be wanted. I took his abusive language and physical force without a word of protest, knowing that I was in the wrong.

"The comedian said to his 'man' afterward:

"'Do you know who that is you were bullying and knocking about? That is Joe Beckett, the heavyweight boxer.'

"The 'man' looked as if he had seen a ghost narrowly escaped from an accident, but he paid me the sort of compliment I like. 'Mr. Beckett must have wonderful patience and control over his temper to have stood it,' he said."

LEE FOHL MAY MANAGE AKRON CLUB NEXT YEAR

Lee Fohl, who retired in midseason this year as manager of the Cleveland Club, has received an offer to manage the Akron club in the International League next season.

BOWLING NEWS

High Scores Recorded at Water Street Alleys and at Y.M.C.A.

In the Five Pin League at the Water street alleys the Post Office took three from Centrals. For the Post Office Fallon was high man with 613 and high single of 271. Ballard was next with 515. For Centrals Villeneuve was high with 550 and high single of 271. Scores:

POST OFFICE.

Fallon	227	271	115—	613
Ballard	155	162	198—	515
Rightmyer	145	150	205—	500
Pidgeon	101	163	174—	438
Lacheur	144	134	176—	454
Totals	772	880	868—	2520

CENTRALS

Perry	157	159	126—	442
Villeneuve	105	271	174—	550
Flaherty	195	137	137	469
Ritchie	135	179	163—	477
Wood	126	111	159—	396
Totals	716	857	759—	2334

TEN PIN LEAGUE.

Last night in the first game of the City Ten Pin League the De Laval took two games out of three from the High Rollers. New tournament pins were put on the alleys, and the boys seemd to run into a lot of splits, and several hard splits were pulled off. E. Ruiter made the five and seven, A. Miller pulled off four, five and seven, W. Byers made five, six and ten. For De Laval, A. Fitzgerald rolled the high three games with a total of 521. For the High Rollers Solomon was high with 520 and high single of 202. Scores:

DE LAVAL

W. Fitzgerald	176	167	117—	460
Barrett	148	163	146—	457
Ruiter	145	157	139—	441
Garrow	137	159	169—	465
A. Fitzgerald	178	161	192—	521
Totals	784	807	752—	2344

HIGH ROLLERS

Thomas	109	163	191—	463
Miller	145	147	147—	439
Byers	135	164	191—	490
Dummy	125	125	125—	375
Solomon	170	202	148—	520
Totals	684	801	802—	2287

AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Last night proved unlucky for the Big Five when they lost two to the Centrals, yet the games were close with the exception of the last, when Centrals got away to their usual good start and led the way to a 100-point lead. G. Green starred for the winners in the first game while A. McIllmoyle bowled high man for the losers. In the second game, which went to Centrals by a few points, four players chalked over 200, while in the last Walton led the way to the tune of 232 for the winners, with no close second. The score:

CENTRALS

G. Green	214	142	177—	533
J. Green	161	177	189—	527
Routley	167	176	126—	469
Walton	140	252	232—	624
Miller	152	203	145—	500
	834	950	869—	2653

BIG FIVE

Nicholls	171	215	94—	480
A. McIllmoyle	260	268	161—	689
Hamilton	178	140	157—	475
Irvine	157	166	154—	477
H. McIllmoyle	134	159	144—	427
	900	948	710—	2555

Next game Wednesday Dec. 3— Lawn Bowlers vs. Busy Bunch.

PROGRAM FOR Y GYM

Full List of Classes for This Week.

Intermediate School	4.15	to	5.15
Junior Employed	7.00	to	8.00
Senior Employed	8.00	to	9.15
Wednesday.
Junior School	4.15	to	5.15
Basket Ball, Bankers-Cubs	7.00	to	8.00
Senior Class	8.00	to	9.15
Basket Ball, Cressmans-C.G.E.	9.15	to	10.00
Thursday.
Senior School	4.15	to	5.15
Business Men	5.30	to	6.30
Junior Employed	7.00	to	8.00
Senior Employed	8.00	to	9.15
Friday.
Intermediate School	4.15	to	5.15
Boxing	7.00	to	8.00
Senior Class	8.00	to	9.15
Saturday.
Beginners	9.00	to	10.00
Junior School	10.00	to	11.15
Basket Ball, Quaker Oats-C.G.E.	8.00	to	9.00
Basket Ball, Bankers-Belmont	9.00	to	10.00

Peruvian Flower Festival.

Peru celebrates a custom which dates from soon after the Spanish conquest. All soldiers' graves alike are decorated, including those of peons and Indians, individuals little regarded in Peru, at all events during life. In the evening the populace gives itself over to feasting and merrymaking. This particular flower festival is held annually on November 1.

Sang With Clara Butt.

Madame Clara Butt, who has been visiting some of the beauty spots in Wales, recently motored through Rhayader to the Elan Valley, relates the Westminster Gazette. Her car stopped outside Elan Church, and the famous singer entered the building. Evan Meredith, the sexton, a notable character in the neighborhood, unaware of the identity of the visitor, thus addressed her: "Madam, if you like, or know anything about music, just have a look at our organ. It's a famous instrument, and if you can sing let's have a tune." Madame Butt sat down at the organ, and sang her favorite "Abide With Me." "And I sang with her," says the sexton, "and then I stopped and listened to her, and oh! hers was a voice! there never was such singing in that valley as when we sang together. When she finished she asked me if I knew who she was. 'I beg your pardon, mum, I don't,' I replied. 'Well,' she says, 'I am Clara Butt'—(no Madame, mark you)—'perhaps you have seen my name in the papers?' 'Yes, I think I have, mum,' I answered. 'Do you know who I am?' I says. "I don't,' she replies. 'Well I am Evan Meredith, Penhoeleinon, the champion singer of this valley. I took the prize here last winter for solo over fifty years of age, and I won fifty shilling, mum.' Well, to be sure, she laughed," added the sexton, "laughed till the tears rolled down her face. When she stopped laughing, she shook my hand and said, 'Good-bye, Mr. Meredith; I hope we shall meet and sing a duet together again some day.' I am full of it ever since," is the sexton's remark to everybody to whom he tells the story.

Amour.

Father objected to his daughter's swain — a fact of which the young man was well aware. But the lure of love is strong and the wooer often braved the wrath of the father for the sake of the daughter's smiles. One evening the old man found the young fellow in the hall when he returned from the club, and promptly and efficiently hastened his departure. 'Oh, dad," wailed the fair Phyllis as the old chap limped into the sitting room. "I hope you haven't hurt Arthur!" "Hurt him?" growled father as he sank into a chair and nursed his right foot. "No, I haven't hurt him! But if he comes here again with bricks in his coatail pockets I'll kill him!"

The Irish Way.

An Irish lady well known to society contributed to the gaiety of nations the other evening by dashing into the nursery and reproving her eldest born in manner following: "I just wish your father was at home some evening to see how you behave when he is out."

Explosive Dust.

For many years it has been known that various forms of dust when mingled with air in certain proportions are capable of producing destructive explosions when brought into contact with flame. This danger sometimes exists in flour mills, an instance being the explosion of three flour mills at Minneapolis in 1878. It was then demonstrated by experiment that two ounces of flour in two cubic feet of confined air, when ignited, would cause a violent explosion, and it was calculated that the contents of a flour sack distributed through 4,000 cubic feet of air would cause an explosion capable of throwing a weight of 2,500 tons to a height of 100 feet. An instance is known where sugar dust in a confectionery factory caused an explosion, and in another case dry soap proved equally dangerous.

TNT Wins Contest With Dynamite.

A contest was recently staged between 40 per cent. dynamite and trinitrotoluene, and the latter won, says the Scientific American. Two concrete piers had to be blasted out and this gave an opportunity for a comparative test of the two explosives, with the result that 14.9 cubic feet of concrete were removed per pound of TNT, and only 14.1 per pound of dynamite.

TNT is no doubt destined to be used extensively in engineering work, as it is less sensitive than dynamite but greater precautions must be taken to ventilate after a shot, owing to the large amount of carbon monoxide which is one of the principal products of combustion.

In the East, as a general rule, Turks wear yellow slippers, Armenians red and Jews blue.

First Private English Phone.

The first telephone ever placed in a private English residence is still to be seen at Marlborough house. It was made in 1878 on board the warship Thunderer and was subsequently set up between the schoolroom and the boudoir of the princess of Wales.

Laying a Carpet.

In laying a carpet in a room where there is a fireplace, the section covering the fireplace or hearth should be cut down its center by the shears, and then the carpet should be cut toward the sides, so as to form two flaps, which should be turned under.

Hadn't Fooled Helen.

Mother could not take Helen with her when she went downtown and was trying to slip away without her knowing it, so father called Helen to come to him, when she said, "I has to watch muvver, 'cause she's tryin' to run'd away."

Life Much as We Make It.

No person is ever condemned to a small life. Many are assigned to small circumstances, but our lives may be as large as we want them to be. For the only limits of life are aspiration, sympathy and interest.—Selected.

Prison His Safety.

When the West Indian city of St. Pierre was destroyed by the eruption of Mont Pelee some years ago all its inhabitants except one lost their lives. The sole survivor was a prisoner in an underground dungeon.

WAR SLANG.

Some of the New Words Grafted Into Our Language.

As a result of invention, official communiques and the humorous nicknaming tendency which has always distinguished the race, the war has brought into common use many words that were unknown five years ago, and has given words that had a limited technical meaning world-wide currency and an expanded application. How many of them are destined to take a permanent place in the language? Probably not many, because their original and specific meaning is soon lost, as frequent handling removes the inscription of a coin, and their piquancy is destroyed. We see a notable example in the word "camouflage," which is probably the most marked case of a French word finding its way into our ordinary speech. Originally it meant the practice in French theatres of burning paper and causing a smoke in order to heighten an illusion and baffle the audience. It was mobilized on the outbreak of war to describe the various means by which an army concealed its guns, its headquarters and other objects that enemy aviators would be on the watch for. As we hear it commonly used, it is a word that stands for any one or all of half a dozen things. A polite man will call a falsehood camouflage, or he may apply the term to hypocrisy. Another will use it as a synonym for concealment, for deceit, for deception, for reticence. Which one of these words is it to displace, for it would appear that it must displace one of them if it is to survive unless it is [illegible] usage to its original [illegible] case it will cease to be a popular term?

Another much misused French word is that of "ace," originally meaning the aviator who had five enemy aircraft to his credit. Now it is meant to describe a man who distinguishes himself in any field. It seems most popular with baseball pitchers; a first-class pitcher being called an ace without any regard to the number of his victories. Presently we shall hear of football aces, and then of hockey aces, meaning no more than expert players. "Barrage" was made familiar to us early in the war, meaning no more than barrier. As "poison gas" we describe political and other vituperation. As long as this generation shall last we may expect to hear the word "blighty" held in affectionate remembrance. It is derived from a Hindu word, "belati," meaning home, and was given currency by the great number of British soldiers of the Originals who had seen service in India. To them it meant not only home itself, but the thought and longing for home when one was sick and wounded in a foreign land, and because of this poignant meaning it seems destined to survive. One may expect the slang of the war to have the fate of other slang, not one per cent. of the new words of any generation having sufficient vitality to perpetuate themselves into the next. —J. V. McAree, in the Mail and Empire.

Spasmodic Sermon.

Next to the woman who will slap a baby, the most disgusting creature is the one who will talk baby talk to a dog.—Indianapolis Star.

Daily Thought.

Worth makes the man, and want of it the fellow.—Pope.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—263 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 394

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds — Shingles, Scantling, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks; Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Children s Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector
Office, 588 George St. Phone 1044w
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

How to Color Meerschaum.

To color a meerschaum pipe fill it [illegible] half of it or to the height to [illegible] the color. Leave the remainder of the tobacco in the pipe and do not disturb it for several weeks, or until the desired color is obtained. When smoking put fresh tobacco in the bowl and smoke to the same level for several times. A meerschaum pipe should never be smoked in a very cold place. At first, a new meerschaum pipe should be smoked very slowly, and should be allowed to cool off before a second bowlful is lighted, otherwise the pipe will become dry and [illegible]

To cement [illegible] pipe make a paste of finely powdered chalk and the white of an egg. Put a little of this mixture on the parts to be repaired and hold them pressed together for a few minutes.

To distinguish true meerschaum from the imitation rub the supposed meerschaum with a silver object. If the silver leaves lead pencil-like marks on the meerschaum it is artificial, but if no marks result it is genuine.—Illustrated World.

Shockers Were Shocked.

Two of the famous Iron Division in Lithuania, Hubert Diemer and Fritz Pizchal, members of the Shock Battalion Wildemann, gave their battalion a real shock by stealing the war chest, containing 180,000 marks, mostly in 1,000-mark bills, with some Russian silver and paper money thrown in.

Berlin detectives became suspicious of the lavish purchases made by two young soldiers on a shopping expedition in and about the Friedrichstrasse, and arresting them revealed their identity as the two shock thieves of the Iron Division.

They had only 50,000 marks left. They confessed that on the railroad trip to Berlin they fell asleep and were robbed of considerable money. Arriving in Berlin, they went to a nobby tailor and ordered new clothes.

Private Christmas Cards
The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

Barrie's
Peterboro.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT
(The House With Exclusive Styles.)

BLOUSES

From the simplest slip-on model to the loveliest costume Blouse, Barries Limited Blouses portray the mode — distinctive and charming.

BARRIE BUILDING
312 George Street
Phone 340

ARE YOU NEAR OR FAR SIGHTED

It's just possible you may not know, yet, for your eyes sake, you should. We furnish right glasses for wrong eyes.

W. [illegible] LACEY,
OPTICAL SPECIALIST
41[illegible] GEORGE STREET
OPEN WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

RESUMED PRACTICE

Dr. N. H. Sutton wishes to announce that he has returned from four years overseas service, and is prepared to give special attention to all Orthopoedic cases (diseases and disabilities of bones, joints and muscles,) while resuming the practice of general medicine and surgery. Office, second floor, Barrie Building, Room 113. Telephones: office 131; residence (temporaray) 522 ring 12.

BICYCLES STORED

As usual we store customers wheels free of charge during the winter months. Leave your wheel to be cleaned and repaired. A Bicycle overhauled once each year outlasts three that are neglected. Do not trust your work to amateurs. Millard's Bicycle Shop, [illegible]25 Hunter street, near Aylmer. Phone 2341.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Organized by Dr. F. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison:
Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick:
Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free:
Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St.
Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

RADIOGRAPHY

Drs. Wightman and Craig have installed an X-ray for dental purposes .

KNOX CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Next Sunday, Dec. 7, is to be anniversary Sunday at Knox Church. The speaker for the day will be Principal D. J. Fraser, D.D., L.L.D., of Montreal. Presbyterian College. Principal Fraser is also Dean of the Federated Theological Colleges, which are in affiliation with McGill University. This coming will afford an opportunity of hearing one of Canada's most distinguished scholars and a preacher of great power.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. T. F. Matthews, Toronto, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. W. Hartshorn returned to the city last evening after a short visit to Toronto.

Mrs. Northcote Birks, who has been in Toronto for the past week visiting her sister, Mrs. Reginald Lorkhart, returned to the city last evening.

Miss Loretta Downs, of St. Peter's High School, city, spent the week-end at Hastings, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Downs, "Cobourg Road."

Dr. B. C. Kelly, who has been doing D.S.C.R. work in Peterborough, intends practicing in Bobcaygeon.—Lindsay Warder.

Mr. S. Carr, of Toronto, was a Peterborough visitor over the week-end.

Mrs. T. N. Greer, wife of Dr. T. N. Greer, is to be admitted to Nicholls Hospital tonight for a slight operation on the nose.

Mr. John Smith spent the week-end in Trenton the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Kenyon, formerly of Peterborough.

Mr. Peter Garno, retired merchant, of South Saginaw, Mich., is spending a few weeks with friends in Peterborough, Hastings and surrouding district. Mr. Garno will be remembered by some residents of this vicinity, having left here years ago to take up residence in Saginaw, Mich., where he entered business in the south end. Eminently successful along this line, where his mercantile concern grew up with the city, he retired from business some time ago to take an active interest in certain movements for the general good. While in Hastings Mr. Garno is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. T. R. Downs, Cobourg Road.

Mrs. G. L. Amys has returned to the city from an extended visit in Petrolia.

SIR EVELYN WOOD DEAD

Hero of Many Wars Passes Away in England This Morning

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 2.— Field Marshal Sir Evelyn Wood died here this afternoon.

Born in 1838, he served in the Crimea, the Indian Campaign of 1868, Ashanti, Kaffir, Zulu and Transvaal wars. He was awarded the Victoria Cross for services in the Indian campaign and was author of many works on military subjects.

CONSERVATORY LYCEUM COURSE

The second event of the Lyceum Course, Sidney Landon on "Speaking Likenesses of Great Men," tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at Conservatory Hall. General admission 75 cents.

S. A. TEMPLE BAND NOTES

The Temple Band will meet for practice tonight at eight o'clock. Every member is requested to be present.

WOOD FOR SALE

We still have a small quantity of that dry short cut mixed wood, which is selling at $5 the team load. Order quickly from The Peterborough Lumber Co., Ltd., 163 Hunter street. Phone 545.

A GRAFONOLA FOR CHRISTMAS

Greene's December Grafonola Club offers the best opportunity to fill the home with music in an easy way. Greene's Music Store, Charlotte street.

KEEP TOMORROW NIGHT.

Keep tomorrow night for the monthly union meeting of the churches on behalf of the Forward Movement. The meeting will be held in Trinity Church at 8 o'clock. Three representative laymen will give short addresses.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY.

An open meeting of the I. L. P. will be held in Labor Hall, George street at 8 p.m. Tuesday December 2. Members and prospective members cordially invited. Come.

NOTICE

Owing to the second Conservatory Lyceum Concert in the hall on Wednesday, the regular weekly dance of the Peter Robinson Chapter I.O.D.E will be held tomorrow night (Tuesday).

NOTICE.

The Peter Robinson Chapter, I. O. D. E., are holding their regular weekly dance on Tuesday, December 2, instead of Wednesday, Dec. 3, for this week only.

G.W.V.A. DANCE.

The G. W. V. A. will hold an informal dance for members and their friends on Thursday evening, December 4. A good orchestra has been provided, and a dancing instructor will be on hand. Admission 25c.

MILITARY FUNERAL FOR VETERAN

Remains of Late William Jackson To be Interred Under G. W. V. A. Auspices

The funeral of the late W. Jackson, whose body was found early yesterday morning behind Hooper's stables, will take place tomorrow afternoon, at 2.30, from the G.W.V.A. Hall, the body to be interred in Little Lake Cemetery, with full military honors.

So far as is at present known the deceased had no relatives in this country, a sister living in London, England, being the nearest relative known.

Mr. Jackson was well-known in this city, both before the war and since his return from overseas, and his many friends deeply mourn his loss.

It is expected that all members of the G.W.V.A. will endeavor to be present.

The Rev. Canon Davidson, chaplain to the G.W.V.A., will officiate.

DAIRY MEETING

The annual district dairy meeting for the County of Peterborough will be held in the town of Keene on Friday, Dec. 12th, 1919, at 7.30 p.m., under the auspices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario.

Mr. G. G. Publow, chief dairy instructor for Eastern Ontario, and the district representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, will address the meeting. The local dairy instructor will be present and report upon his work during the year. The advantages to be derived from the use of a pure-bred sire will be ably dealt with by a speaker furnished by the department at Toronto.

This will be a very important meeting and every farmer and farmer's son who has the interest of his calling at heart as well as its monetary success should not fail to be present. Mr. G. A. Gillespie, chairman for the district, will occupy the chair.

CONFERENCE HERE THURS. AND FRI.

GOOD SPEAKERS COMING FROM DIFFERENT DENOMINATIONS TO AADRESS DELEGATES

A large conference of Ministers, Sunday school superintendents and teachers of boy Sunday school classes will be held in this city Thursday and Friday of this week.

Some of the greatest young peoples' workers of the different churches will be here to lead in the work of the conference. They include Rev. C. P. Muirhead, representing the Anglican Church, Rev. Wason Doole, representing the Methodist church, Rev. C. F. McIntosh and J. C. Robertson, representing the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. P. Fletcher representing the Ontario Sunday School Association and Taylor Statten, representing the Y. M. C. A.

Meetings will be held Thursday evening commencing at 5:30 all day Friday, concluding Friday night.

Delegates will be present from the six adjoining counties and it is hoped by the officials who are promoting this conference that as many as possible will attend from the local churches. A good instructional program is assured to those who attend.

S. WALES MINERS VOTE FOR STRIKE

OFFICIAL COUNT SHOWS 73,307 VOTES FOR STRIKE, 72,837 AGAINST

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 2. — South Wales miners have voted by a slight majority in favor of a strike over the question of enforcing the raising of incompetent relief limit to 250 pounds annually. Official figures on the balloting available today show 73,307 votes for a strike and 72,837 against.

In a new shipyard at Belfast all vessels will be built on the electric welding principle instead of by riveting and calking.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM JAMES McKEE
(Donated.)

On Sunday, Nov. 23rd, there passed peacefully away one of Seymour's much-respected residents in the persons of William James McKee.

The late Mr. McKee was born in Smith Township, County of Peterborough, on September 27th, 1847, his father, the late Andrew McKee, being one of the pioneers of that township. In 1877 he married Miss Alice I. McKibbin, of Smith Township, and then moved to Asphodel, where he resided for six years.

On Dec. 5th, 1883, he moved to Seymour to the farm known as the "John Rutherford farm," where he spent the remainder of his life.

The service at his late residence was conducted by Rev. D. A. Thomson of Hastings Presbyterian Church of which the late Mr. McKee was a faithful and devoted member, having served for three years on the Managers' Board and was twice elected for elder, but felt he was unable to accept.

The deceased was a man of a kind, genial disposition, striving to follow in his Master's steps and the large concourse of friends which assembled to pay their last respects showed the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, his wife and one son, Edgar Lisle, his other two sons, Samuel Walker and Harold Maxwell, having pre-deceased him twenty-seven years ago, also two brothers, Joseph and Samuel, of Peterborough, and one sister, Mrs. H. J. McKee, of Listowel.

Interment was made in Lakefield Cemetery in the family plot.

"Blessed are they who fall asleep in Jesus."

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley, Famous in This Specialty, Called to Peterborough.

F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Empress Hotel and will remain in Peterborough Thursday only, December 4. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast improvement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects, immediately appreciable, and withstanding any strain or position. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatment or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspecton. All charity cases without costs, or if any interested call, he will be glad to show same without charge, or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at ony other place in this section.

P. S.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. Seeley.

PETERBORO BRANCH OF THE 8TH C.M.R.

The emergent meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 3rd, will take place in the G.W.V.A. rooms at 7.45 p.m. sharp. All members are requested to attend this meeting as it is of importance to all.

W. H. FIELD,
Secretary-treasurer.

TRINITY NOTICES

Meetings will be held each night this week except Wednesday and Saturday nights, in the Reid street Hall, at which brief addresses will be given by members of the congregation in the interests of the Forward Movement.

The Wednesday night meeting will be held in the church. This will be a union meeting when three representative laymen will speak.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

Having just installed a large, new and up-to-date recharging plant, we solicit the winter care and re-charging of your storage batteries. Our building absolutely fireproof.

DUFFUS GARAGE.

Beginning Saturday, Dec. 6th,
THE
NEW YORK EVENING TELEGRAM
Will Publish
The Story of Cardinal Mercier
The Martyr of Belgium

In his preface to this Greatest Human Document of the World War he writes—

"Here are my war experiences in their most tense and vivid reality; all the issues I fought with the occupying Power, their methods and mine clearly defined, undeniably fixed in black and white."

INSIST ON THE
NEW YORK EVENING TELEGRAM
Order Today!
Send $1.50 for Two Months' Subscription with Story.

WEDNESDAY MID-WEEK BARGAINS

SHOWING A SAVING OF A VERY LIBERAL PERCENTAGE

We could not replace these Mid-Week Specials to-day at their regular prices and at the prices marked for to-morrow's selling the values cannot be duplicated.

$1.50 and $2.00 White Voile Blouses clearing at $1.29

Discontinued lines and odd sizes in Women's Smart Voile Blouses. Several nice styles to choose from, in embroidered, tucked and lace trimmed fronts. Round, square and V necks. Not all sizes in any one style, but a full range of sizes in the lot. Regular $1.50 and $2.00. Wednesday Bargain Each $1.29

An Exceptional Sale of $3.00 Underskirts for $2.29

You'll really be surprised, knowing the prices of materials, that we can put Petticoats of moirette, heatherbloom and sateen on sale at such a figure. They are made in the newest styles, with pleated and sectional flounces, in colors of black, navy, green and amethyst. Regular $3.00. Wednesday Bargain each $2.29

50c Colored Striped and Plain Saxony Flannelettes 39c yd.

The balance of our stock of 35 to 36 inch Flannelettes, in colored stripes and plain white Saxony. Extra good qualities, soft, downy finish, and woven from finest cotton yarns. Splendid for general use in underwear, nightgowns, pyjamas and men's shirts. Regular selling price 50c. Wednesday Bargain, yard 39c

8.30 a. m. SPECIALS

25c & 30c Unfinished Cotton yard	20c
30c Grey Cotton, yard	20c
$2.50 Single Bed Sheets, Each	$1.85
$3.00 Double Bed Sheets .. Each	$2.23
50c Silkolines, factory ends Yard	25c
35c New Prints, yard	23c
75c Grey and Blue Repp .. Yard	50c
75c Stripe Shirtings, yard	50c
75c White Vestings, yard	50c
40c Pink Percale, yard	[illegible]
75c to $1.00 Stripe Voiles Yard	50c
85c Kimona Eiderdowns	69c
$1.25 Bath Towels	98c
35c Wrapperettes	29c
85c Canadian Sheeting, yd.	72c
$2.50 Table Cloths	$1.98

45c Curtain Marquisette 20c yard

Short mill lengths of fine Curtain Marquisette, in lengths from two to six yards to a piece; 36 inches wide. Here's a chance to get a pair of curtains at a snap price. Worth 45c yard. Wednesday Bargain, yard 20c
(Staple Department.)

$5 to $7 Wool Coatings $4.75 yd.

A few odd Coat lengths in all wool Tweeds, velours, and plaid effects. Heavy qualities and odd coat lengths. Regular $5.00 to $7.00. To clear Wednesday Bargain Yard $4.75

Children's Knitted Suits $2.50

A limited number of Children's Knitted Suits, consisting of Sweater, Leggings and Cap, in khaki and cardinal. These are knitted from a good quality of union wool; sizes for 4, 5 and 6 years. To clear Wednesday Bargain $2.50

$2.25 Silk Crepe de Chine $1.69

36 to 40 inch colored Silk Crepe de Chine, in colors of black, ivory, navy, brown, taupe, maize, pink and Nile green. All pure silk quality. Suitable for waists or dresses. Regular $2.25. Wednesday Bargain $1.69

Low Priccd Sale of Trimmed Hats $3.49

The approaching holiday season has meant that the Millinery Department must be condensed. Hence a great number of our Hats must go. These particular Hats come in small, medium and large styles; all nicely trimmed, in black and colors. Sold in the regular way up to $8.00 .... Wednesday Bargain $3.49

Children's Hats clearing at 49c each

A small group of Children's Corduroy, Velvet and Felt Hats, in assorted styles, in black and colors. Worth three times Wednesday's price, each 49c

Velour Hats $4.95

Only ten to clear at this snap price. Very fine Velour Hats, in colors of purple, brown, navy and black. Medium size shapes; new and fashionable. Away below regular price. Wednesday Bargain $4.95

Knit Your Sweaters Pull-Over, Scarfs, Socks, etc., from these Yarns

These yarns are made in Peterboro by the Canadian Woollens, Ltd., and will meet your requirements for knitted garments of every kind.
Heavy four ply yarn, in grey, khaki, white and black. lb. $3.50
Light four ply worsted yarn, in khaki, grey and white. lb. $3.50
Super 2 ply Floss, spun from fine Australian wool, in a range of all the wanted colors, ounce balls. Per ball 35c
4 ply Fingering, with a special twist interwoven to prevent splitting; 2 ounce skeins, in colors. Per skein 50c

Visit Toyman's Shop 3rd Floor

50c Stripe Galateas 35c yard

RICHARD HALL & SON

40c Tea Towels 25c

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Public are hereby notified that all traffic on the Hunter Street Bridge, both vehicular and pedestrian, is closed. Persons without just cause found within the limits of work of construction are liable to prosecution for trespass.

..By order of the City of Peterborough.

H. PHELAN,
Chairman Board of Works.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing
—at—
207 SIMCOE ST.
All work personally attended to.
Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.
PHONE 1364

SPECIAL ADVENT SERVICE

A series of special services has ben arranged at St. Luke's Church, for the Wednesday evenings of Advent, beginning tomorrow at 7:30 o'clock. The address tomorrow will be given by the Rev. W. G. Walton, his subject being: "Work among the Indians and Eskimo." This is a topic of great interest at this time to all Anglicans, the resolve to carry through this work effectively having given the original impetus to the Forward Movement. Mr. Walton will on Wednesday afternoon speak to the W. A. of St. John's Church.

The silver issues held chief sway on the Standard Exchange, several of them reaching new levels for the present movement.

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said; "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

Established 1889
HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW.

Moderate winds, a few light local snowfalls or flurries, but mostly fair and cold today and on Thursday.

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

[illegible]th YEAR No. [illegible] Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

GERMANY WILL NOT SIGN PROTOCOL AND HAS NOTIFIED ALLIES TO THAT EFFECT

Supreme Council Protests To-Day Against Germany's Increase in Armament Contrary to Peace Treaty Provisions—United States Will Line Up With Other Powers to Break Teutonic Resistance to Terms of Pact.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Dec. 3.—Germany has decided not to sign the protocol presented her by the Allies as a condition for putting the peace treaty into effect, the Peace Conference has been notified.

It was learned today that Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation, informed Secretary Dutasta of Germany's decision on Monday last.

Nothing But Notes.

The Supreme Council today addressed a note to Germany protesting against the increase of Germany's armament, contrary to the provisions of the peace treaty.

Significant Sign.

It is learned from a high authority that the change in the plans of the American peace delegation is due to the failure of the Germans to sign the protocol ratifying the peace treaty. It is pointed out that if the treaty is not ratified the situation between Germany and the United States, as well as the other Allied and associated powers, goes back to the status created by the armistice. Hence the United States is still quite as much interested as its associates of the Allied powers, despite the fact that the Senate has not ratified the treaty.

States With Allies.

Whatever the date which the delegation may decide upon for leaving France, it was affirmed on excellent authority that such arrangement will be made for the representation of the United States in the further negotiation that Germany will find all the Allied and associated powers' working together to resist any effort on her part to avoid making the peace effective, according to the terms of the treaty.

German Duplicity.

Germany is scheming for better terms, and it is recalled in this connection that a member of the Berlin Cabinet offered General Dupont, head of the French mission in Berlin, a memorandum which was to all intents and purposes a revised treaty. General Dupont declined to receive the document.

THE CANADIAN MILITIA

Report on Future Organization Ready in Week or Two.

Ottawa, Dec 3.—Within a week or two the military commission reporting on the future organization of the Canadian Militia will be read to report. It consists of General Sir William Otter, General Sir Edward Morrison, General Gwatkin and Brigadier Gen. McNaught. Only the Kingston and Quebec districts remain to be visited. In most of the districts ready co-operation by the militia officers and officers of the overseas units has [illegible] demand for the perpetuation as militia of fighting units that have won distinction. The question of cost of these extra establishments will be a big factor in deciding whether they are to be maintained. In many centres the old militia units will be maintained and the nucleus of the overseas battalions held as reserve to the former.

FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

MOTHER ALSO VICTIM OF FIRE TWO CHILDREN INJURED

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Pittsburg, Dec. 3.—Six persons including a mother and four children, were burned to death, and two firemen injured last night in a fire which destroyed a building at Natrona, near here.

MR. V. EASTWOOD TENDERS RESIGNATION AS MEMBER OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Takes Stand That Public Should Choose Their Member at January Elections.

Mr. Vincent Eastwood, who has occupied the place on the Board of Education vacated by Mr. G. N. Gordon in October last, tendered his resignation at the regular meeting of the Board last night.

In asking the Board to accept his resignation, Mr. Eastwood stated that although he appreciated the honor the Board had bestowed upon him in selecting him to fill the vacancy, he felt that the people should have the right to choose their member at the elections in January.

He further stated that he had not sufficient time to give the careful consideration to the public affairs that he thinks a holder of public office is called upon to give. Although he appreciated the confidence of the Board, he felt it his duty to resign.

In moving that the resignation be accepted, Trustees Patterson and Worth both spoke in terms of praise of the services Mr. Eastwood has rendered to the Board and to the public generally. Although they were loath to do it, they felt it their duty to Mr. Eastwood to accept the resignation and expressed their appreciation of the public-spirited stand of the retiring member.

The retirement of Mr. Eastwood means a very decided loss to the educational interests of Peterborough. He has been a faithful and energetic member of the Board for over 12 years and has always supported policies that were for the betterment of the schools of the city.

VINCENT EASTWOOD,

who resigned his position as member of the School Board at last night's meeting.

In fact, it is not too much to say, that the present efficient condition of the schools of Peterborough is due in no small degree to the work of Mr. Eastwood.

He was first elected to the Board in 1899 and remained there until 1905. He was again elected in 1911 and served as a member until his retirement in December of 1918. During his term of office as a member of the Board he served two years as chairman.

It was a very natural choice the Board of Education made in selecting Mr. Eastwood to fill the vacancy as his past record is one deserving of public trust. His retirement will be regarded with disappointment by a large number of the citizens who appreciate his past services.

COMMITTEE TO LOOK INTO TARIFF

MAY TOUR THE COUNTRY AFTER COMING NEW YEAR

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—If there is to be an enquiry of the tariff by a committee of the Cabinet, it is not likely to be started till after the new year. While preliminary arrangements may be made this month, it is not considered an opportune season to begin an investigation which will call for much travel throughout the country.

In his budget speech, Sir Thomas White promised such an investigation by a subcommittee of Ministers. Canadian manufacturers object and propose, instead, an advisory tariff commission. The intimation has been given, however, that the inquiry promised must go ahead, though, in all probability, the commission also will be appointed. If nothing is done till after the new year tariff changes at the winter session of Parliament are not likely to be extensive.

STERLING AT LOWEST LEVEL.

New York Dec. 3.—The rate on sterling exchange fell to the lowest level in history today when demand bills for the pound sterling were quoted at $3.89¼ or 3¼ cents below yesterday's quotation.

NOVEL WARNING FOR NIGHT POLICE

LINDSAY'S MAYOR INVENTS METHOD OF GIVING WARNING TO NIGHT POLICEMEN

Lindsay, Dec. 3.—His Worship Mayor McLean has hit upon a novel plan whereby citizens may be able to locate the night constable in the shortest possible time. Those who wish to secure the officer's services during the night or early morning hours will call up the night operator at the Bell Telephone office. She in turn will phone the Hydro station official to give two flashes of the electric lights. The constable will then immediately call up Central and ascertain where his services are needed.

The mayor submitted the scheme to the council, and the aldermen heartily approved of the same. Arrangements will be made with the Bell Telephone Co. and the Hydro with a view to having this call system introduced at once.

MEXICAN SITUATION

Vatican at Rome Express Anxiety For Safety of Clergy

Rome, Dec 3.—Anxiety is felt by the Vatican relative to the situation in Mexico, especially regarding ecclesiastics in that country. Religious circles have recently seemed to have [illegible] turned to their sees amid greetings of the people and laws against the church were not rigorously enforced. Fears are expressed that a new upheaval in Mexico may lead to persecution of the clergy.

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE STATES AND MEXICO ARE VERY DELICATE

Solution of Situation Arising Out of Arrest of American Consular Official Intrusted to Pres. Carranza.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Mexico City, Dec. 3.—The solution of the difficulties arising out of the international affair with the United States were entrusted to President Carranza without legislative intrusion by the senate at a secret session yesterday.

Relations with the United States are declared to be "very delicate."

To Restore Peace.

San Antonio, Dec. 3.—According to a private message, President Carranza at a secret meeting of the cabinet on Sunday decided to send a telegram to state governors notifying them to meet him in conference for the discussion of methods to restore peace in the republic.

LADY ASTOR MUST ABIDE BY RULES

STOPPED WHEN ATTEMPTING TO LEAVE COMMONS DURING LIVELY DEBATE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec 3.—Lady Astor had her first experience of party discipline in the Commons last night. Attempting to go home during the Scottish Land Bill debate, she was stopped by Whip Towyn Jones, who told her she could not leave as there might be a division. Her ladyship argued to no avail, being told that she could only go provided a pair was found. T. P. O'Connor, who was watching the comedy across the lobby, finally offered to release the new member by pairing with her.

ORGANIZATION OF MEAT PACKERS FORMED

CONVENTION MET HERE AND FORMED AN INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL.

About thirty-five delegates representing the meat packers and cutters of practically all parts of the Dominion, assembled here [illegible] last Sunday, Monday and yesterday. They organized an Interprovincial council with Louis Braithwaite of Toronto, as president. The meeting was called together by Charles Cole, of Chicago who represented the International union.

The local Meat Cutters' and Packers' Union was represented and joined the movement with nine other local unions of packing house workers.

VACILATION CAUSE OF EUROPEAN UNREST

GUGLIELMO BLAMES PEACE CONFERENCE FOR ITALY'S TROUBLES

Brussels, Dec. 3.—The third conference of National Associations for the League of Nations met here today, eighteen countries being represented. Baron Deschamps, Belgian member of the Hague Court of Arbitration, who acted as chairman, expressed the hope of his opening address that, "Notwithstanding the confused situation in the United States, that nation would help to consolidate the idea of the league."

Gugielmo Ferrero, Italian delegate, said in a pessimistic speech, that Italy's troubles were due to "vacillation and dilatory tactics by the Peace Conference."

"Time is pressing," he said, "two-thirds of Europe is ablaze or threatening to take fire."

PAINTER AND LADDER CRASH TO THE FLOOR

HARRY SNOWDEN BREAKS THREE RIBS AS RESULT OF HIS FALL

Harry Snowden is laid up from three broken ribs he suffered as a result of a fall at the Nashua Paper Company's building yesterday afternoon.

He is a painter and was engaged in painting the part over one of the windows when on leaning over too far, the ladder slipped and he fell with a crash to the floor. The man was thrown off and suffered severely in the fall. He is confined to his house today, but his immediate recovery is looked for.

Snowden was a soldier and has been home only a short time.

LEADERS OF MINERS TALK EXTENSION OF STRIKE TO ANTHRACITE REGIONS

NO OPPOSITION TO THE FARMERS

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION NOT UNTIL SESSION OPENS — ROSS FOR LEADER

Toronto, Dec. 3.—It is not likely that the Conservative party will offer any opposition to the re-election of the members of the Drury Government when they go before their respective constituencies on December 22, according to Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, acting leader of the party.

The committee appointed for the drafting of a scheme of reorganization of the Conservative party have decided that Mr. Ferguson is to act as leader in the Legislature during the next session.

It has been decided that no convention of the Conservative party in the province shall be held until the session is under way. At this convention a permanent leader will be chosen, but no matter who the leader be Mr. Ferguson will be floor leader.

The former Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines has intimated that he does not want the permanent leadership. Two names are mentioned in this connection, Brig.-Gen. A. E. Ross and W. F. Nickle, K.C., both of Kingston. The Telegram learns that at present the Conservative caucus has very strong learinings toward General Ross.

A protest has been lodged against the election of Hon. G. Howard Ferguson in the riding of Grenville.

TRIAL OF CONSPIRATORS

Plans For Assassination of Premier Venizelos Revealed.

Athens, Dec. 3.—A special Council of war has been called to meet at once for the purpose of trying the conspirators who recently attempted the assassination of Premier Venizelos of Greese. Twenty-nine arrests have been made. Four of the prisoners are active army officers and the rest reserve officers. Some have confessed complicity in the plot to kill the Premier.

ADJUST POWER CLAIM JAN. 7TH

TORONTO SEEKING TO RECOVER MILLION AND QUARTER FROM GOVERNMENT

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Sir Walter Cassels, chief judge of the Exchequer Court, has fixed January 7th for the hearing of the Toronto Power case, in which the claim against the Government is a million and a quarter. The Ontario hydro is a party to the case. In 1917 Sir Henry Drayton was appointed power controller, and in that capacity he ordered the Toronto Power Company to deliver additional power to the Hydro to supply war industries. The company claims $1,242,000, while Sir Adam Beck is willing to pay only $172,000, or practically the rate he secured in the resale of the power.

The case has therefore, been put into the Exchequer Court to adjust the claim. W. N. Tilley, K. C., has been retained by the Government as counsel.

REVISION OF PACT

Is Hope of Germans in Prolonging Protocol Negotiations

Paris, Dec. 3.—There is a well-defined conviction in French circles that Germany is seeking to prolong the protocol negotiations, and delay the ratification of the treaty in order to secure a revision of the pact.

It is recalled in this connection that a member of the Berlin Cabinet offered General Dupont, head of the French mission in Berlin, a memorandum, which was to all intents and purposes a revised treaty. General Dupont declined to receive the document.

Victoria [illegible] Hamilton have defaulted to Excelsiors of Toronto in the O.R.F.U. junior finals.

Further Disruption of National Industry Because of Coal Shortage—More Manufacturing Plants Face Closing Down—Change of Miners' Front Only in Few Isolated Districts—The Situation Generally.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Further disruption of national industry, because of the fuel shortage brought about by the strike of bituminous coal miners was in prospect today. Regional directors of railroads had authority to annul passenger trains where the public would be least inconvenienced, and many additional manufacturing plants throughout the country faced shutdowns, either through exhaustion of coal supplies or the strict rationing decreed by the Fuel Administrator.

Little Change in Front

Only in isolated instances were there reports of change of front on the part of miners. Generally the workers adhered to the attitude of remaining away from the mines until better terms than those decreed by the Government were forthcoming.

Optimistic reports come from the district embracing the backbone of the [illegible]

Extend to Anthracite

No indication this morning of any intention to resume production in the great central competitive field, Illinois, Indiana, Western Pennsylvania and Ohio. Miners' leaders talk of a possible extension of the strike to anthracite fields.

Situation Generally

Pertinent developments in the situation are as follows:

Miners in Montana voted to return to work.

Schools are closed at Cheyenne, Wyo., and at Springfield, Illinois.

The Southern Illinois Light and Power Company gave notice that power would be withdrawn from non-essential industries and institutions in eleven towns.

The Anaconda Copper Mining Company announced at Butte, Mont. that it was preparing to close its mines and smelters, which would affect 12,000 men.

Governor McKelvin, of Nebraska, called for volunteers to go to coal producing States to dig the State's supply, and a number volunteered.

Mining by volunteers in the Kansas surface mines began, and the first car of fuel was shipped to Coldwater, Kansas, and others were expected to be started to other places where a coal famine existed.

Governor Gardner, of Missouri was working on a plan to put in operation the mines in his State.

The closing of theatres, schools and churches generally was predicted for many cities by the end of this week. Regional coal oficials declared that about 8,000 plants, employing 300,000 men, in the Chicago district, and more than 1,000,000 in the Northwestern region, probably would be shut down soon as a result of the added restrictions on coal deliveries.

Chas. Piez, formerly vice-president of the Shipping Board, and general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation asserts that the "effort [illegible] nation what they should do should be nipped in the bud."

T. W. Proctor, regional coal chairman of the Northwest, declared there were but 8,000 cars of coal available for the use of 30,000 people. He suggested that it might become necessary to confiscate supplies of schools and also private owners of the non-essential class to meet the necessities.

G. W. V. A. CONVENTION.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Vancouver, Dec. 3.—Intimation is received from President Col. W. A. Turner that the convention of the Great War Veterans' Association will be held early in January at Winnipeg or in some other central city.

A daring robbery was committed in a house on Glendale avenue, Toronto

MALE PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS ASK FOR 25 PER CENT INCREASE

Petition That Maximum Salary For Principal Be $2,500 And For Vice-Principal $2,000

The wide-spread demand for increased remuneration is having its effect on the school teachers of this city. The men teachers sent a petition, signed by all the principals and vice-principals in the Public schools of the city, to the Board of Education, last night, in which they ask for a very material change in their salaries.

They ask that principals and vice-principals of Public schools receive a 25-per-cent. increase in salary to take effect on Jan. 1 1920. They suggest this to take the place of the proposed arrangement, which was previously adopted by the Board. They also ask that each principal and vice-principal receive a $100 increase next September and each September following until the principal's salary reaches the maximum of $2,500 and vice-principals receive a maximum salary of $2,000.

They also state that they, as the male Public school teachers of the city, consider it unfair that there be an extra room grant unless the matter of seniority be considered in placing the principals. They think and suggest to the Board that long and faithful service should be considered in placing the principals of the several schools.

This petition was received by the Board at its regular meeting last night and referred to the committee on appointments for their consideration.

Delegates for Convention.

A communication was received from the secretary of the Urban Trustee Association, requesting the Board to send a strong representation to their convention at Ottawa called for Jan. 6 and 7. At this convention all matters partaining to education will be thoroughly discussed, and plans arranged to assist the Government in carrying on the work of educating the future citizens of the country.

It was decided to join this association and Mr. R. Denne, Mr. E. A. Fowler and Mr. V. Eastwood were appointed representatives from Peterborough.

It was suggested by Mr. Mowat that the matter of adopting the system of some of the States, by which the state government contributes a large proportion to the salaries of teachers, be brought before the convention for discussion.

10 Per Cent. Bonus.

A petition was received signed by the entire staff of the Collegiate Institute, asking for the continuance of the 10 per cent. bonus on account of the high cost of living.

A communication was received from Mr. H. R. H. Kenner, asking that the usual grant of $100 for the upkeep of the science laboratory be increased from $100 to $200. Figures were presented which went to prove that the catalogue value of the equipment of the local science laboratory was below that of schools of schools of equal size. Dr. Neal considered it a very modest request.

A motion authorizing schools to close on Friday, Dec. 19, for the Christmas holidays was passed as the usual date, the 22nd, comes on Monday.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.

THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowdes, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W.
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
136 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1919.

SERVING AND SAVING.

THE LABOR MEMBERS of the City Council have always shown themselves eminently fair in the matter of compensating the wage-earners. They make no distinction between wages and salaries, between the laborer who earns a pittance on the street and the more fortunate individual who is able to discharge the duties and earn the higher reward of an office position. Any man is entitled to fair compensation, whether he be a street sweeper, a civic officer or a school teacher, and the city that has the power to regulate the pay in such cases should set an example in simple justice to the private employers. No man should be worried to death, his energies dissipated, by an ignoble struggle to make ends meet. No man, either, should be called upon to witness his family suffering for the ordinary necessities or to be humiliated by seeing his children going to school in attire that places them in a social class by themselves among their companions.

In these days, when the tendency of all public servants is to get all they can, it is certainly noteworthy that Premier Drury has reduced his own salary by $3000 a year, and that he proposes to enforce retrenchment in other departments of the public service. But if Premier Drury launches a general campaign of salary-[illegible] the first blunder of his career. This is something of which, in the [illegible] stage of public opinion, the people will not approve. No man should be required to make a financial sacrifice, to impoverish himself, by accepting a public position.

Premier Drury, however, can carry out his ideas of economy to the limit without making any public servant whose services are really required and are of value the victim of a new system of retrenchment. Every unnecessary expense, however, should be abolished. The same standard of efficiency should prevail in the public service as in the business world. There should be no supernumeraries, no overlapping of effort. If it is found that one man can do the work where three or four are now employed, then the staff should be reduced accordingly, and, if necessary, the pay of the remaining official increased in proportion to his new duties and responsibilities.

There seems, for example, no reason why one license commissioner should not be sufficient to enforce the Ontario Temperance Act, instead of having four on the payroll. The chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board draws a salary of $10,000 a year, equal to that of the Lieutenant-Governor and in excess of the amount which Mr. Drury himself now draws for the Premiership. The chairman should be able to administer the affairs of that department with the help of an efficient clerical staff and without the aid of highly-paid associates. Let all men be required to work for the Province with the same diligence that is insisted upon by employers in the business world, and let efficiency in the public service be recognized, retained and adequately compensated. Let the very suspicion of snaps and graft be removed.

A QUESTION OF DEGREE.

DOWN IN THE Southern States the other day a diabolical negro monster committed an assault on a white girl. Friends of law and order hunted him through the forests and swamps and effected his capture. He was not denied a trial, primitive as the procedure may have been, but was taken before his victim and identified, being forced by her testimony to admit his guilt. Summary vengeance was then taken. He was strung up to a tree, and as he struggled in the tortures of dissolution the crowd put an end to his agony by filling his writhing body with bullets. That is called a negro lynching bee, and the people of the North hold up their hands in pious horror at the so-called outrage.

In a Canadian city the other day a man suspected of a lesser offence than the ravishing of helpless innocence, who exercised the freedom of speech that is supposed to be the birthright of every Canadian, was set upon by a mob. His property was destroyed and himself beaten into insensibility. The crowd stopped just short of taking his life.

The Canadian affair is spoken of as a riot, the Southern tragedy as a lynching. The incidents differ only in a question of degree, and in both the participators are almost certain to escape the consequences of their acts. But why should those remote from the scene of the American vengeance deplore foreign lawlessness while there is such urgent mission work required at home?

ANOTHER WAY TO SAVE COAL.

EVERY YEAR some one with a weakness for invention—or publicity—comes to the front with a suggestion as to the saving of fuel, in view of the invariable threatened coal famine. Among the latest of these worthies is a gentleman in New York who spreads his idea in the Sun of that city. His plan is to take the ashes that we are now throwing away, and after treating them with a simple chemical preparation return them to the furnace and obtain as great if not a greater heat from them than we did from the coal itself. And it can be done, as the experience of thousands who have tried the experiment goes to prove.

The formula for this chemical preparation is very simple. Take one pound of common salt, two ounces of oxalic acid and one gallon of water. Mix, and moisten a mixture containing one part coal and three parts ashes and a better fuel than pure coal is obtained. The ashes of anthracite coal burn as readily as do those of bituminous. This mixture will, upon being placed upon a burning fire, fuse into a cokelike mass and deposit but little residue.

The chemical action of this compound is as follows: When an aqueous solution of an alaklien salt such as common salt is mixed with coal ash the result is that a mild lye is formed, which when mixed with any combustible material such as coal, and upon the application of heat, gives off oxygen gas, thus enabling rapid combustion. The addition of oxalic acid causes a chemical change of greater value than the first for the reason that it results in the formation of a carbide, which in turn gives off acetylene gas, thus adding to the intensity of the heat and facilitating complete combustion. It is possible, upon moistening a small quantity of ashes without the addition of coal, to detect the odor of acetylene gas, and if the treated ashes are placed upon a lighted fire they will fuse and burn to a fine powder.

This compound has been used in many large industrial and mercantile establishments, and it has been claimed for it that it has reduced the fuel item more than half. It has eliminated almost entirely the question of disposition of ashes. It could also be used to advantage by any householder with a little ingenuity and would be found the means of saving a good deal of money in coal bills.

SINCE PIONEER DAYS.

SO FAR AS the United States is concerned, the peace treaty seems dead. Congress entered upon its short session last Monday, but the personnel of that body has not changed from what it was last summer when the treaty was amended out of all original semblance, and so in effect rejected. There is no probability that the treaty will meet any different fate in the session now in progress.

There may be partisanship in this matter, Republican senators may deem it their political duty to oppose every move made by a Democratic president, but that does not appear to be the real reason for the rejection of the treaty. The American statesmen are wedded to precedent and traditon. They still pin their faith to the precepts of George Washington, who advised that the new republic work out its own destiny and keep clear of entangling alliances with the people of Europe, with whom at that time war was an avocation.

Theoretically, the teachings of Washington may have been idealistic but times have changed since his day. He could not possibly have forecast the events of the late war, could never have dreamed of such outrages or lack of international faith. German Kultur was not heard of in the time of Washington. The world in his day was over one hundred years younger, but there was [illegible] some regard paid to the rights of neutral nations. Washington, for example, had no reason to believe that a passenger boat, loaded with his non-combatant countrymen, men, women and children, would have been attacked on the open sea and sent to the bottom. Neither did it ever occur to him that American vessels of commerce, with their cargoes, would ever be destroyed, their crews murdered or left to perish, by the vessels of a nation with which the United States was not formally at war. If he had possessed the gift of prophecy, Washington would probably have spoken other than he did. Alliances made not for offence but for defence are vastly different from treaties between nations set on conquest, and that would appear to be the form of obligation against which Washington warned his countrymen.

Another reason for the action of the United States Senate is the unfortunate lack of harmony between that body and President Wilson. When that is considered according to American standards, the course taken by the Senate does not entirely lack justification. The making of treaties is a senatorial prerogative assured by the Constitution. President Wilson went to Europe and without consultation with his administrative associates dictated the terms the United States was willing to accept. It was a clear assumption of authority on his part, a violation of the spirit, if not of the very letter, of the Constitution. More than that, he insisted that the treaty be approved in its original form, without the crossing of another "t" or the dotting of another "i." He carried the war into the stronghold of his political opponents, and it is not surprising that he lost. If the League of Nations is weakened through the lack of American co-operation, the people of that country will not be slow to place the blame, and an opportunity to do so will be given them in the Presidential election of next year.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

JUST LEAVE the harassed citizens alone and they can be relied upon to do their Christmas shopping fairly early.

• • • • •

THE COUNCIL will please come to order. Boxing gloves and coffee can be obtained on application when required.

• • • • •

IT IS TOO BAD that those belligerent aldermen are not to be afforded an opportunity to go to a finish in the mayoralty ring.

• • • • •

WHEN IN [illegible] these days the rank and file of the voters appear to go contrary to the advice and dictation of the rabid party press.

• • • • •

THOSE REDS IN JAIL across the border are still on a hunger strike. The ruling passion is strong even in the prospect of death.

• • • • •

WHY ALL THIS TALK of settling the wild lands of Northern Ontario while the old portions of the Province are so sparsely populated?

• • • • •

BUT EVEN IF pugilistic skill is lacking, such incidents in the alderman's sessions at least afford something in the way of diversion.

• • • • •

AND IS IT really true that the people of Peterborough are to be given a chance to have a say in the management of their police department?

• • • • •

EVEN IF [illegible] were able to hire [illegible] at 60 cents an hour, he should be held blameless so long as he did not take advantage of human necessity.

• • • • •

THE CITY COUNCIL may have rejected the idea of no bonuses for industries, but that matter can still safely be left to Premier Drury and his democratic associates.

• • • • •

GIVE THE TORONTO Telegram time, and it will yet remark that by reducing his own salary Premier Drury is at least able to hold his services at something like their proper value.

LADY ASTOR'S HAT IN COMMONS

Recent discussions regarding the hat Lady Astor may or may not wear in the House of Commons after her election has brought to mind the history of the silk hat, variously called the "chimney pot," "stove pipe," "cylinder" and what not, which became fashionable in Paris about the year 1790, soon after the death of Benjamin Franklin, in whose honor it was for a time known as "chapeau Franklin."

Notwithstanding the numerous changes of style, this cylindrical form of headgear has maintained its ground ever since, unexpected as such a result would have seemed at its introduction. For a time this sort of hat was considered revolutionary in Germany and in Russia, but its evil reputation did not long persist, and the tall, stiff hat, the ugliest head covering that was ever worn, according to aesthetic authorities, outlives all other styles.

In certain of the European parliaments, the president, when he finds it necessary to end an argument, gravely puts on his "cylinder," as the Germans call it. Though it happened about half a century ago, there are still those living who laugh at the recollection of one president who, to close a celebrated debate, took up his neighbor's hat in mistake. It was far too big for him and, falling about his ears, snuffed him out completely from the gaze of the crowded house. In Germany, when a distinguished politician meets a friend in the street the passersby allow them a wide berth, otherwise the majestic sweep of the uplifted "cylinder" is apt to send the passerby into the gutter.

While as a symbol the silk hat has played an important part in civilization, it is nowhere more cultivated than in England, in the parliament of which there has grown up such an elaborate etiquette concern[illegible] themselves involved in difficulties.

No honorable member sits in the Commons without his hat on his head. If he rises to address the House, greet a friend, or cross the room, he must hold his "tile" in his hand. Should his name be mentioned in the course of a member's speech he lifts his hat respectfully. If it is in his hand when his name is uttered etiquette demands that it shall be hastily clapped on his head in order that he may lift it with proper deference.

Foreigners visiting either House of Parliament are apt at first to experience a sensation of surprise at observing a number of gentlemen sitting on the benches with their hats on their heads. Two reasons have been assigned for this wearing of hats by members while in the chambers, the one being the sturdy independence of the chamber to which the behatted members belong, and the other that absence of restraint that is said to be a traditional privilege.

As a matter of fact, however, the custom is merely the survival of the ancient practice of Englishmen in general who, like the women of the present day, were once privileged to wear their hats within doors. It is a fact that two centuries ago hats were worn by Britons as they are in Parliament today, in private houses, even at dinner time, and, curiously enough, in church, too. There is in Pepys an entry to the effect that he had contracted "a strange cold" in his head "by flinging off" his hat while at dinner.

The Speaker of the House of Commons, who now wears a wig, a relic of the universal habit of the upper classes during the time of the Restoration, was accustomed long before the introduction of this wig to don his three-cornered hat while in the House, but he could not, without a gross breach of eitqutte, address the House while it was on his head. Onslow, while Speaker, wore the three-cornered hat over his wig.

When the Speaker is summoned to the House of Lords he brings with him his three-cornered hat, which he holds in his hand while "waiting on the lords." The presiding officer's hat has another use, in that it is customary for the Speaker while counting a quorum, to point with his hat to each member as he is counted.

The member may not, however, always remain covered. In both Houses any member who speaks must rise in his place and remove his hat. Moreover, all members entering or leaving the House while debate is on must be uncoverd. The only occasion in either house when a member may speak sitting and covered is when a question of order has arisen during a division or vote, when the doors are closed. This practice is due, it is said, to the fact that a member addressing the House thus seated and covered, when other members are moving about and uncovered, is more likely to attract the attention of the Speaker, or, in parliamentary phrase, "to catch his eye."

There are times when every member of the House of Commons and the House of Lords must be uncovered, i. e., when there is delivered a message from the King, while the Minister charged with the message informs the House that he has a message from the King, signed by himself, while the message is being read by the lord chancellor in the House of Lords or by the Speaker in the House of Commons.

Then, too, there are occasions on which every member instinctively removes his hat, as when announcement is made of the death of distinguished men or of former members of Parliament.—New York Herald.

PRINCE ALSO DUKE OF CORNWALL

The amiable and accomplished young gentleman who has been visiting this country and the United States as the guest of the two nations, is commonly and properly known as the Prince of Wales. He is also Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Chester, Earl of Carrick, Baron Renfrew and what not else. But all these are titles and nothing more. He does not own Wales, nor does he exercise any governing functions over it. The one title which he bears which really does mean something in a practical, businesslike way, is that of Duke of Cornwall.

That ancient title, dating from 1337, was created by Edward III. for his eldest son, who was then made the actual owner, in personal proprietorship and control of vast and opulent landed estates, comprising a considerable portion of the county of Cornwall, and much valuable property elsewhere, even in London itself. The Cornish estates cover about 124,000 acres, most of which is rough moorland, but they include some of the richest and most famous tin mines in the world, extensive oyster beds in the estuary of the Helmouth River, and some important coal mines, besides much valuable agricultural land which is cultivated by the Prince's tenants. As Duke of Cornwall, the Prince is also proprietor of mining properties in Somersetshire, and of a considerable part of the part of London known as Kennington, adjoining Lambeth on the south side of the Thames.

From all this property the Prince, or Duke, derives a splendid revenue. But he does not content himself with the role of an absentee landlord. On the contrary, he takes a very direct and practical interest in all the operations of his estates and in the welfare of his tenants. It is not known that he ever personally collects the rents. But he does stroll around through Kennington, noting the conditon of the streets, the need of repairs to the houses, the water supply and sewerage, and all the details which pertain to thoughtful landlordship. He spends much time, too, at the offices of the Duchy, in London, keeping a sharp eye on the accounts. He has recently had many of the oldest tenements torn down and new ones of the best type erected in their place.

A similar interest is taken by the princely landlord in the welfare of the fishermen and oystermen of the Cornish coast, and of the workmen in the tin and coal mines. He pays attention, too, to the famous wild ponies which range Dartmoor, and which he has crossed with Arabian horses with valuable results. In the last dozen years there has been discovered on his estates a new source of wealth, which may prove to be the most important of all. That is the mineral known as "wolfram," which is found in combination with tin, and which was formerly regarded by miners as worthless, and, indeed, worse than worthless, since it was very much in the way and increased the labor and cost of producing tin. But now it is the chief source of the immensely valuable metal tungsten, many times harder than steel and used in combination with steel for the finest tools and machinery. The deposits of "wolfram" or tungsten in Cornwall are probably the richest in the world and their development will add millions to the fortune of the Duke.

It is by virtue of his title and rank as Duke of Cornwall that the heir to the British throne is thus one of the most important landlords and captains of industry in the United Kingdom.

ER CE BOARD REPORTS ON BREAD

NO INCREASE IN BREAD CONSUMPTION PER CAPITA

The last report of this Board on hand in the city hall is for the month of September. It was read to the City Council Monday night, as follows:

There is no increase in bread consumption per capita in September over August.

The average cost of flour used by bakers under tabulation was $10.77 in September against $10.74 in August, showing a small increase of 3 cents per barrel.

The maximum price of new Standard Spring Wheat Flour listed at $11.10, Montreal and Toronto points. This is practically the ruling price for months in car-load lots.

The yield of bread per barrel shows a decrease of three pounds per barrel probably due to the freshness of the new flour.

Pan bread baked in travelling ovens shows higher yield than that baked on direct sole of oven. The demand for such a baked loaf in Montreal tends to reduce the average yield in that city, hence the tables show the Montreal yield of 259 Ottawa 269 and Toronto 269 per barrel of flour.

The table of costs for September work out at 7 cents per pound exactly for the Dominion, which is an increase of about one-twelfth of one cent per pound over the August figures.

The Principal Bakery Co., of Vancouver, controlling a number of branches, is not tabulated this month owing to the fact that their returns were not received until the compilation of the report was completed.

Important returns from Hamilton, Quebec city ad Windsor are also lacking.

These reports not being worked out in the tables affect the value of the costs.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

During the week ending November 22nd the business reported in the Bureaus include applications for work from 1209 soldiers and 1524 civilians. Of these 952 soldiers and 1428 civilians were referred to positions and 826 soldiers and 948 civilians were placed in their own zones, while 67 soldiers and 325 civilians were transfered through the clearing house. Orders from employers during this week were considerably higher than the previous, the increase being in the demand for general labourers and lumbermen.

An analysis of the reports of the men's departments shows that at the present time nearly 65 per cent of their work is in placing lumbermen and labourers, a situation which disposes of the private employment agent's claim that the Government could never learn to handle this piece of work which he had monopolized for so many years. During this one week the Government bureaus placed 692 labourers and 689 lumbermen.

In the women's department 254 applied for work. Orders from employers numbered 552 and 131 were placed. For casual work 230 applied; employers orders numbered 345 and 334 were placed. The largest calls for workers were for household work, the manufacture of textiles and the manufacture of food. The continued shortage of women makes it impossible to fill many of these orders.

BUILDING PERMITS.

The number of building permits issued for the month of November total twenty. The expenditure in operations was $4,940. This brings the total expenditure on permits issued this year to $193,125.

Last year at the end of November the expenditure on operations was $238,076. For November, 1918, there were eleven permits issued for a total of $2,532, showing a decrease for the month this year of $44,951.

Brussels, Dec. 2. — The Belgian war profits tax, according to an estimate made, will yield 500,000,000 francs.

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

C. P. R. TIMETABLE.
Effective May 4th, 1919.
GOING EAST

8.20 p.m.—Indian River, Nor Havelock and Tweed.

11:52 p.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Kingston, Smith Falls, Perth, M real, Quebec, St. John, N.B., and New York.

*1.30 a.m.—Havelock, Tweed, Kingston, Perth, Smith Falls and Otta

11:59 a.m.—Norwood, Havelock, Bonarlaw, Tweed, Perth, Smith Falls, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points.

*11:59 a.m.—Norwood and Hav lock.

GOING WEST

Buffalo, Rochester, Boston, New York and intermediate between Peterborough and Toronto.

9:35 a.m.—Lindsay, Orillia, Port McNicholl and intermediate points.

3:20—Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, London, Windsor, Detroit and Chicago and intermedi points between Peterborough a Toronto.

8:00 a.m.—North Toronto, Lin say and intermediate points.

*3:20 p.m.—Toronto and intermediate points.

*Daily.
Daily except Sunday.
Daily except Saturday.
*Sunday only.

*4:53 a.m.—Toronto, Owen Sou Guelph, Goderich, Hamilton, Buffalo, New York, Galt, Woodstock, St. Thomas, London, Chatham, Detroit and Chicago.

6:21 a.m.—Myrtle and North Toronto.

7:35 a.m.—Toronto Hamilton.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM TIMETABLE
(Corrected to Date.)

No. 93 — 8:20 a.m., for Lindsay, Blackwater Jct., Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 96—8:25 a.m., for Hasti Campbellford, Belleville, a points on Main line east.
[illegible]
No. 92—12:04 p.m. for Lindsay, Port Hope, Toronto, Buffalo, m connections with internat Limited for London, Detroit an Chicago.
No. 371—12:15 p.m., for Lakefield.
No. 100—2.00 p.m., for Hasti Campbellford and Belleville.
No. 95—5:40 p.m., for Lindsay, Orillia, Midland, North Bay and Toronto.
No. 94—9:19 p.m., for Port H Montreal and Boston.

MATTER AGAIN ADJOURNED.

No definite action has been take by the bridge committee as yet wi regard to the disuse of chipped granite finish on the new Hunter st bridge. At the meeting of the committee last night the question w discussed, but owing to the absen of the bridge engineer, Mr. Fran Barber, nothing further was d and the chipped granite finish is stil being used.

MICKIE SAYS

FRIENDS, DONT NEVER GIT TH IDEA THAT I'M SORE AT YA, BECUZ I HOLLER ONCE IN A WHILE! ALL I HOPE IS 'AT YOU LIKE ME AS WELL AS I LIKE YOU AN' IF YOU'LL JEST ACT ON A FEW OF THESE TIPS I'M PASSIN' OUT, IT'LL TAKE ALL TH' GRIEF OUT'N THE NEWSPAPER AN' EV'RY DAY'LL BE JEST LIKE HEAVEN 'ROUND THIS OFFICE! OH, BOY!!!!

The Young Man's Best Recommendation

A Savings Account is more than a start towards financial independence—it is a mark of character.

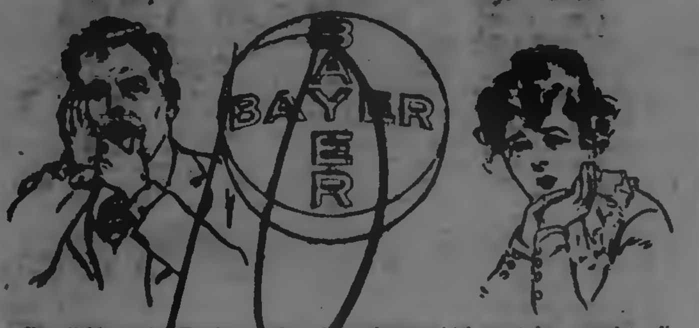
One of the strongest recommendations in the world of business that a young man can present, is a Merchants Bank Pass-Book, showing a record of consistent savings.

A Savings Account may be opened with $1.00, which shows how highly we regard the accounts of those who desire to save.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA
Head Office: Montreal. Established 1864
PETERBOROUGH BRANCH,
C. S. CUMMER, ... Manager

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"



For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

THE MERCHANTS' COLUMN

Edited by

MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

(Copyright.)

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general.

BARRED FROM PAPERS, FAKE ADS FLOOD MAILS

Fake advertisers, driven from legitimate newspapers and other reputable publications, are turning more and more to the use of printed matter or direct mail advertising, declares Carl Hunt, director of the extension division of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

"Printed matter employed in advertising," said Mr. Hunt, "is of use to the advertiser only in proportion to the service which the information it embraces renders to the 'prospect' to whom you are advertising. If it contains truthful statements of value to the recipient, then it is good advertising.

"A piece of printed matter that does not tell the truth cannot possibly be useful to the person who receives it. It cannot be good for the advertiser. It cannot be good for the printer.

"Moreover, every time such a piece of printed matter is sent out, that hurts the chances of all printed matter to be read and to be believed.

"I have seen evidence of the fact that some advertisers begin to feel that printed matter does not have as good a reputation as it should. I saw a circular, a few days ago, from the office of a New York man who is selling books by mail. It was a reprint from an advertisement in a high-grade newspaper—a newspaper that has always censored its advertising.

"I asked him why he carried the name of the newspaper at the top. He told me he wanted the prestige of that newspaper behind that piece of printed matter, because that identified the proposition and would make people recognize that it was a legitimate thing he was offering.

"He had tried circulars with and without the name of a publication at the top, and those with the name pulled better.

"Advertising swindlers are being driven from the columns of reputable publications. The field for crooked operations is getting narrower every month, so far as space in mediums is concerned. These fellows are turning to direct-mail advertising.

"Only last week we had a report of the Better Business Bureau of Kansas City that several of the better printing houses were interesting themselves in the protection of their own business by asking the bureau for information concerning oil stock companies that were asking to have matter printed. That is fine. Nobody wants to deal with a crook anyhow, for, as a rule, he will get you, too, after you have been a party to helping him get the other fellow.

"We have lately seen other evidences of co-operation on this line. We need more. There is great room for improvement."

O'DONNELL SWATS "PROFITEER HOUNDS"

Dennis J. O'Donnell, owner of the Jeanesville (Pa.) store, slipped one over on the "profiteer hounds" who argue that by publishing wholesale [illegible] the consumer get hot under the collar over the difference between these and what he has to pay, the "wicked, profiteering retailer" will be forced by public opinion to lower his prices.

O'Donnell uses Napoleonic strategy. He grabs the opportunity to hit straight from the shoulder. He has a special counter, on which he keeps the daily newspapers, carefully opened at the wholesale market reports.

"Whenever people come in and kick about prices," says O'Donnell, "I bring them right over to this counter. There I point out the prices paid the day before for butter, eggs, cheese, flour, pork, beef, produce and the other commodities I handle. I ask them to add the cost of bringing the goods here, plus the overhead of clerks, wrapping and store rent. Then I ask them to figure a penny or so for myself. It stops the complaints, all right. The market reports are a godsend to the retailer in these days."

O'Donnell had suffered particularly from profiteering charges, for he had the only store in Jeanesville and a virtual monopoly of the town's trade.

He does a tremendous credit business with miners of this region, but keeps his accounts promptly paid up as they are based by agreement on pay day periods, and credit automatically stops for the customer who passes pay day without settling up.

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

"The grouping of specific offerings illustrated with cuts and carrying a minimum of descriptive matter is the best form of newspaper advertisig we have ever found," states Ralph Morgan, manager of the George B. Evans, edrug stores in Philadelphia—stores which are pharmacies in name only, for all of them specialize in gifts of every description.

"By running a bold heading, worded to suit the season, and half a dozen lines of general text below the introduction of the cuts and their descriptive matter is very simple. The advertisement which we ran about a week before Christmas last year—ad which was responsible for more business than any other single piece of copy of its kind we ever used—did not occupy a great deal of space. In fact, it was 190 lines deep by three columns in width—by no mean comparable in size to the page and two-pagespreads of many of the larger stores. But it did the work!

"The space, except for the heading and seven lines of descriptive type at the top, was divided into twelve squares, in each of which appeared a cut and not more than fifty words of description, including the price. But it was the range of suggestions that was responsible for it success. Bonbon baskets, teapots, nutstands, dolls, relish dishes, oil lamps, lockets, necktie holders, cuff links, hair brushes, curling irons, combs, safety straps for babies and associated articles were featured—and this naturally carried the idea, even to those who were not acquainted with Evan's, that they could find almost anything else they wished in the gift line at our stores. When you consider that we have more than 100,000 items—exclusive of drugs—continually in stock, the necessity for this impression will be apparent.

"Naturally, we could not feature one-thousandth part of the suggestions which the stores themselves contained, but the diversity of appeal and the fact that but few of the articles mentioned could be found at the average drug store did the trick. The next day we were nearly swamped."

LINES TO A CHARGE ACCOUNT

You are too large. He's swindled me I know!
What have I bought to make you grow and grow
To such a quite impossible amount?
No more this robber get my charge account!

Let's see the items. Yes, I bought this hat.
No honest person can find fault with that.
The fourteen yards of scrim—oh, yes, I see;
I sure bought and had that charged to me.

What's this?—a bolt of taffeta! Why when
Yes, yes, I guess he's got me right again
And all these other gimcracks, well ahem!—
I seem to recognize each one of them

Now who'da though' that in one four weeks' stretch
I'd bought all these contraptions from the wretch
Who sends me in this awful, awful bill;
The total, on my word, 'most makes me ill!

Next month I'll save from my allowance, so
You, little monthly bill, make less of show.
I'll pay you up from savings by degrees—
[illegible]
these!

Lines FROM the Charge Account

She said that same last month and month before,
Clear 'way, 'way back in ancient days of yore,
When she at charging was a rank beginner.
She'll keep on charging things while life is in 'er.

GIRLS! A MASS OF WAVY, GLEAMY BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Let "Danderine" save and glorify your hair

In a few moments [illegible] can transform your plain, dull, [illegible] hair. You can have it abundant, [illegible] glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the Danderine and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous, fluffy and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair, and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.

INVESTIGATE SLEEPING DISEASE

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—Strong efforts are being made by the Department of Public Health to discover the cause of the so-called sleeping sickness reported from Western Canada. Dr. Amyot, Deputy Minister of Health, left this morning for Winnipeg to make a personal investigation.

Ross Smith, the British aviator, who is making a flight to Australia has arrived at Allahabad.

The Greek troops of Smyrna district have, in taking up the new line assigned them, inflicted considerable casualties on Turkish troops who resisted them.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

CROWDS SEE WOMAN DIE BENEATH TRUCK

CRUSHED BENEATH HEAVY FURNITURE VAN. SHE DELIBERATELY SOUGHT DEATH

Chicago, Dec. 3.— A woman believed to be Mrs. E. M. Hibbard was instantly killed Saturday in view of loop crowds when she was run over [illegible] a few rods north of Madison street.

First reports that the death was accidental were questionedwhen the stories of the truck driver and his assistant to the effect that the woman deliberately walked in front of the van were given some support by the discovery in the woman's satchel of a pamphlet predicting the end of the world between December 17 and 20. Reports of the collapse of the solar system at that time have caused much terror in certain quarter,s and numerous suicides have been reported in Mexico.

Driver and Aid Held by Police

The truck was owned by the Jackson Park Storage Company, and was driven by Bernard Semper. He and his assistant Joseph Winchester, are held at Central Station pending full investigation. According to both Semper and Winchester, the truck was following the street car tracks south when a woman, whom they had seen standing beside one of the pillars of the elevated structure, suddenly stepped in front of the vehicle. Semper slammed on the brakes, but could not stop the van in time to save the woman. One of the front wheels passed directly over her head.

An immense crowd gathered, to the usual stream of pedestrian and vehicular traffic being added hundreds who swarmed down from nearby office buildings to discover the cause of the crush. Traffic was completely blocked for fifteen minutes. The police had much dificulty in forming a line and pressing the crowds back.

Cards Partially Identify Her.

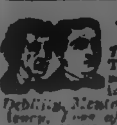
An identification card on the satchel the woman carried and a number of other cards inside it indicated that the woman was Mrs. Hibbard. Several adresses were found. These are being investigated. In the satchel was an odd assortment of articles including apples, soap, a towel, a jar of peaches, a vanity case and numerous papers.

A few hours before this accident a woman believed to be Miss Julia Dunn was run down at East Lake street and North Wabash avenue by a truck driven by Leroy Mancuso, 724 West Randolph street. She suffered a fractured skull and broken leg, and it was said at St. Luke's hospital that she probably would die.

INCREASE OF SEVEN MILLIONS

Monthly Statement of Customs Department for November.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—An increase of over seven millions in custom reports for eight months, ending November 30, is the monthly statement of the Customs Department. The increase for November compared with the same month last year is over three millions.



Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy.
Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins. Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Heart, Failing Memory. Price $1 per box, [illegible] $5. [illegible] Sold by all druggists or mailed in plain pkg. on receipt of price. New pamphlet mailed free. THE WOOD MEDICINE CO., [illegible]

VOODOOISM.

Worshippers of Cuba Are Divided Into Various Sects.

The Voodoo worshippers of Cuba are divided into various sects, each with its separate god. The latter include Babagueye, god of sickness; Elecua, god of injury; Olorrun, god of misery, and Chango, the terrible god, to whom human sacrifices are made. Chango, according to the Voodoo belief, was the son of Olorrun and Anaragua. He was slain by Elecua, the god of injury, and ascended into heaven from a Ceiba, or god tree, in the month of May. It is the month of May, therefore that the Brujos observe their holy week, when Chango is expected to make a week's visit to the earth, descending by the Ceiba, his sacred tree, always on Monday. The followers of Elecua do not directly offer human sacrifice, although their healers sacrifice the lives of some patients by giving them poisonous concoctions, supposedly a mysterious cure for some ailment, in order to restore to health some other patient. Elecua, being the god of injury, his followers believe that good can come to one person only through injury to another. Voodooism is not practiced by the negroes alone. Many white persons also are said secretly to take part in their religious meetings, and accusations have been heard in various quarters of the difficulties encountered by officers seeking to break up their temples because of the obstacles placed in their way by persons of influence. An active campaign by the authorities in Havana and other parts of the island have resulted in the capture of numerous Brujos and the seizure of many curious and weird objects used by them.

Seines to Capture Sharks.

Faced with an alarming scarcity of hides, the world for some time has turned to the sea for a supply, with the result that a new industry is developing at various points on our coasts. Recently immense seines have been devised and used for the capture of sharks and other fish whose skins can be converted into leather. One of the nets that has proved very successful in this unusual fishing is 600 feet long and 18 feet deep, with a 4-inch mesh of heavy twine. It is operated from small boats, and as many as 200 sharks have been taken with it in a single day.

Experiments conducted under Government supervision have disclosed the fact that tanned shark skins are [illegible] articles. Five hundred [illegible] are treated weekly at one tannery devoted to the production of marine leather, and plans have been made for greatly increasing this output during the next year. Each hide contains from 10 to 40 square feet of exceptionally strong leather, and is sold at a price depending upon the quality. Valuable by-products are obtained from the flayed bodies of the fish, including fertiliser, glue, oil, and musical instrument strings. The skins of certain whales, porpoises, rays and devilfish also can be utilized. Formerly these inhabitants of the sea were regarded as worthless. Now they are expected to become important factors in the leather market.—Popular Mechanics.

Roads and Wheels of Paris.

Paris is feeling the effects of the immensely heavy motor lorries that, during hostilities, traversed her boulevards and streets. There was nothing to be said about it while the war lasted, and no one complained; but now the matter will have to be given quite serious consideration, if Parisians are not to have Paris tumbling about their ears. At present the roads are in ruts and holes, reduced to such condition not only by unavoidable neglect but by those heavy army lorries which go by at great speed at every hour of the day or night. Besides the roads the houses are affected. Paris was mostly built before motors were thought of, and there are very evident signs that Paris houses, as well as her palaces and monuments, cannot endure such strenuous conditions indefinitely. Already the statuary which ornaments the river facade of the Louvre has been shattered by the vibration of traffic on the quays.

Your Hard-working Heart.

The human heart beats seventy-two times a minute, one hundred and four thousand times a day, thirty-eight million times a year. If a person lives up to his seventieth year his heart-beats—estimated according to the various averages during life—will approximate three billion beats.

At every heart-beat of an adult about five cubic inches of blood is forced out from each of the ventricles into the lungs and into the rest of the body.

In other words, with every stroke of this bodily pump about ten cubic inches of blood is expelled from the heart, which amounts to forty-three cubic inches in an hour and to a million cubic inches in a day.

As an illustration of the work done by the heart, the powerful pump of the left ventricle performs during twenty-four hours an amount equal to raising a weight of one ton to the height of eighty-two feet.

The Newark International League baseball franchise has been shifted to Syracuse, N.Y.

GET YOUR PRINTING DONE at The Review office. Lowest price and best service.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING to sell, advertise in The Review. A sure sale.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED — A MAID, ALSO woman, for cleaning by the day. Apply Nicholls Hospital.

WANTED — GIRLS. APPLY at Gate House, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd.

PERSONAL.

MARRY RICH. FREE TO LAdies. State age. Inclosed stamped envelope. C. Isherwood, Isherwood P. O., Ont.

WANTED.

WANTED — HOUSEKEEPER: a good plain woman to take charge of house. No hard work, nice place, good home, just [illegible] of city. Age 25 to [illegible] years. Protestant preferred. Apply Box 926 Peterborough P. O.

TO LET.

TO RENT—A BRICK HOUSE on McGill street; immediate possession can be given. Rent moderate. Apply Review office.

TO LET—FURNISHED BEDrooms at [illegible]ter street.

LOST.

~~LOST—TUESDAY EVENING, in city, [illegible]. Apply Gibbs [illegible] 421 Water street.~~

STRAYED.

TO LOCK 3, A FEW DAYS ago, a hound, spotted body, [illegible] Owner can have same by proving property and paying for advertisements.

CHIROPRACTIC

Splendid results obtained in Rheumatism, Broncnitis, Nervous Diseases

DR. R. T. PETTERSONE
435 George Street
Hours: 10.30-12, 2-4, 7-8 'Phone 871

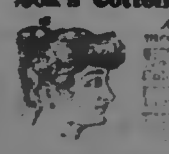
FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A LARGE RADIator, with figured bronze front and marble top. Will be sold cheap. Apply Review office.

FOR SALE—TENDERS ARE invited for the property and fixtures owned by the Peterborough Co-Operative Society, 200 [illegible] street. For further information apply on premises.

THE WEATHER.

Last night we had the first experience of zero weather this winter. The thermometer this morning showed four degrees below zero during the night, and very close to that figure this morning. The first zero last winter was on December 6, and the previous year it came on November 26.—W. [illegible]



Cook's Cotton Root Compound
A safe, reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $3; No. 3, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or [illegible] prepaid on receipt of [illegible] pamphlet. [illegible] THE COOK [illegible]

A Pair of Skates Makes an Ideal Gift

—or—

perhaps a Flashlight, a Hockey Stick, Puck or a Lamp or a Tire for a Bicycle would be more suitable. Call in and look around before the rush.

WHITE BROS.

174 Hunter St. Opp. Oriental

PHONE 807 OPEN EVENINGS

Have You A Savings Account ?

The harvest time suggests the opportunity to all wage-earners of taking advantage of their harvest time (that is their earning period) to lay by a portion of their income for "life's winter," when the earning power decreases and expenses still continue.

ONE DOLLAR opens an account with this Institution. Interest from date of deposit to date of withdrawal is added quarterly.

For sums of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS and upwards the Company's Debentures are issued bearing a special rate of interest. These Debentures are issued in terms of from 1 to 5 years as desired.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest.

TORONTO SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY
437-439 GEORCE STREET, PETERBOROUGH

PAID UP CAPITAL $1,000,000.00
RESERVE FUND $1,100,000.00

W. G. MORROW, Managing Director

ADVERTISING RATES.

The rate for Classified Advertisements is one cent a word per first insertion; subsequent insertions half a cent per word. Minimum number of words ten. Special terms for 5,000 words or over.

Advertisements marked 'till forbidden" are accepted on the understanding that they will be published until a written or verbal notice to stop them is received.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, DEATH, MEMORIAL NOTICES AND CARDS OF THANKS, 50c per insertion in Daily and Weekly, not exceeding one inch space. All words over the inch, one cent each.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sunday Services Announcement in Saturday daily (no reference to concerts allowed) $5 per year per inch. Extra space in this column for the purpose stated, 15c per inch. Regular rates apply for other than Sunday services.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY ANYthing at a bargain price, let the people know through The Review columns. You're sure to get it.

LEGAL CARDS.

HALL & HALL
Barristers and Solicitors.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates.
Telephone 69. 116 Hunter St.

GORDON & O'BRIEN
Barristers, Solicitors & Notaries.
Money to Loan at Lowest Rates
Telephone 219.
G. N. GORDON. J. A. O'BRIEN.

C. R. WIDDIFIELD, B. A.
Money to Loan.
Conveyancer, Barrister, Etc.
and Solicitor for the City of Peterborough Bank of Commerce Building. 'Phone 550.

MOORE & WEARING.
Barristers and Solicitors.
MONEY TO LOAN.
408 Water St. Opposite Post Office.

JAMES FORDYCE STRICLAND
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public.
MONEY TO LOAN.
124 Hunter St. [illegible]
PHONE 151.

S. T. MEDD.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary.
Office Over Dominion Bank.
Cor. Simcoe & George Sts.
Telephone No. 22.
Private Funds to Loan at Current Rates Upon Easy Terms.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, 415 Water Street, Peterborough. Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest. Easy terms of payment.
E. A. Peck. F. D. Kerr.
V. J. McElderry.

J. EDMUND L. GOODWILL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public. Etc. Office 375 Water St., Phone 191.
Successor to Roger, Bennet & Goodwill
MONEY TO LOAN at current rates upon easy terms. . .

A. E. DIXON.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Offices corner Hunter & George Sts.
Entrance next Madill's Drug Store.

O'CONNELL & CORKERY
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to Loan on Easy Terms of Payment.
D. O'Connell J. R. Corkery.
134½ Hunter St. Peterborough.
Telephone 364.

R. R. HALL.
Barrister, Solicitor, Etc.
Peterborough, Ont., offices corner Hunter and Water Sts., over Canadian Bank of Commerce. Trust funds to loan on easy terms of payment.

MEDICAL CARDS.

DR. E. E. HARVEY.
Silver Medalist University of Toronto
Special attention to diseases of Women and Children.
Office: 212 Brock Street.
Hours: 1.30 to 5 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.
Phone 222.

DR. BUCHANAN
F. R. S. C. Edin., M.R.C.S, Eng. L. R. C. P. Lon. Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialist. Hours: 9-11 a.m. 2-4 and 7-8p.m. Phone 519 Office corner Water and Murray Streets.

DENTISTRY.

DR. W. N. HAYES.
has opened a Dental practice in the Barrie Building, George Street.
'Phone 652 for appointments.

OSTEOPATHY.

DRS. WALMSLEY & SETTLE.
Osteopath Physicians.
Office over Crown Building, Hunter and Water Streets. Entrance 1½ Hunter street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Office Phone 649.

MONEY TO LOAN.

There has been placed in our hands considerable trust funds to loan at 6½ per cent. on first-class real estate property.
GORDON & O'BRIEN.
Phone 219. 395 George St.

THIS handsome nickel plated toilet paper fixture will lend a tone of distinction to your bathroom. It is neat and orderly and keeps the paper free from dust. Besides the advantages of beauty and sanitation, it is economical, serving two sheets at a time, thus preventing wastage.

You will find the ONLIWON in the best hotels and institutions, and it is rapidly growing in favor for private homes.

The ONLIWON is moderately priced [illegible]

Eddy's Onliwon

The E. B. EDDY CO., Limited, Hull, Can.

Makers of the famous Eddy Matches.

A23

COMMITTEES OF BOARD OF EDUCATION SUBMIT MONTHLY REPORTS OF BUSINESS

The following reports were read and adopted at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education last night:

Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee recommended payment of the following accounts:

Heintzman & Co., Ltd., records	$ 7 10
Higgins Hardware Co., hardware	31 50
Campbell & Best	1 65
C. S. McClelland & Co., repairing clocks	3 75
Kingan Hardware Co., hardware	8 61
W. J. Kent, lenoleum	3 50
Hydro-electric Power Commission, gas account	4 38
Peterborough Hardware Co., hardware	6 38
Miss L. Sanderson, music, etc., for Collegiate Institute	10 60
Peterborough Utilities Commission, light and power	88 16
W. P. Hetherington, laundry	3 95
J. Douros, goods for domestic science classes	80
J. C. Turnbull Co., Ltd., goods for sewing classes	156 90
W. H. Hamilton, goods for domestic science	3 20
Ingram & Bell, tongue blades	2 39
Nelson's Typewriter Co., typing music, limit, etc.	4 25
R. J. Soden, goods per contract	54 05
Geo. M. Hendry Co., kindergarten supplies, etc.	60 52
Singer Sewing Machine Co., account, industrial classes	63
Review Printing Co., account, Industrial Classes	6 73
Peterborough Milk Products, Ltd., account, Industrial Classes	36
Davis Thompson Co., insurance	185 00
Wm. Wright, insurance	90 00

Committee on Appointments.

The Committee on Appointments recommend as follows:

That Mr. Robert J. Bolton, of Mallorytown, Ont., be appointed to the Public school staff as vice-principal, to succeed Mr. Gould, who has resigned, salary to be according to schedule and duties to commence 5th January next.

That Miss Daisy Stocker and Miss Doris Pilling of Peterborough be appointed to the Public School staff, to succeed Miss Mackenzie and Miss Mason, who have resigned, salary to be according to schedule and duties to commence 5th January next.

Monies Received.

Government grant re Normal School	$ 225 00
Rent Cedar Street House	5 00
Fees, text books and supplies	341 90
Old material sold	4 00
City treasurer, municipal	11,000 00
	$11575 90

Accounts Confirmed.

Thos. Hopkins, account per order	$ 2 80
R. J. Soden, account per contract	189 68
W. J. Johnston, account per order	16 11
Thos. Hopkins, account per order	3 00

Additional Account.

A motion that, in accordance with the terms of his contract, Mr. Melvern F. Thomas, be paid the sum of $1197.30, in connection with the Memorial School, was passed.

BRANTFORD FAVORS ALL-CANADIAN LEAGUE

Brantford, Dec. 3. At the first session of the Hot Stove league at the headquarters of the supreme strategist, at which there was present Roy Brown, M.C.; R. J. Eacrett, Fred Westbrook and T. J. Nelson, the discussion took the form of the new league for next year. Three propositions were under consideration: An All-Canadian league of six clubs, Montreal and Ottawa from the east, joining Brantford, Hamilton, London and Kitchener, being the most popular.

There was no thought of Michigan cities being admitted again, and any change made this year was considered sure to be better.

Ed. Roush, star outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds, led the National League in batting, according to official averages just released.

CANADA, AS WELL AS ENGLAND, SHOULD BE INTERESTED IN EGYPTIAN AFFAIRS

Professor Morrison of Queen's University Declares That Britain Must Rule in Egypt And India

Toronto, Dec. 3.— "If we are to rule in the East we must rule as an eminent and a great power. Gen. Allenby proved that England was competent to rule and no power could challenge her." So said Prof. Morrison, professor of Canadian History at Queen's University, in his address to the Canadian Club, here yesterday.

Allenby, he said, gave the English statesmen leisure time in which to solve one of the real problems before the Empire—the Egyptian question. Anwering the question, "Who Are the Egyptian Nationalist Party?" he said: "They are largely a group of students looking for jobs in Cairo, and these, if they come into power would soon turn the peasant into a beast of burden again. I believe the British Empire must apply its best ability to give to Egypt and to India the best they ought to have. I would like to see Canada as well as England solve these problems. That is what I would call real Imperialism."

Jews are Persecuted.

Referring to the Zionist movement, he said: "The scandal of today is that some of the small nations we have enabled to regain their liberty, are still massacring the Jews. I want to see some refuge (and I believe Palestine is the place) for this nation, which has given us the most of what we have. Long live the Zionist state in the Holy Land."

He emphasized the need of the greatest integrity in all British dealings. "The one policy Britain must follow is one of absolute truth," he said.

PROBABLY PERMIT HORSE RACING

GOVERNMENT WILL STAND BEHIND WHATEVER REPORT COM. RUTHERFORD MAKES

Ottawa, Dec. 3.— Just a word of cheer for those of all political creeds to whom the words "They're off at the Woodbine!" are the real harbingers of spring. Members of th Government have stated that they will stand behind whatever report Commissioner Rutherford makes on the racing game. It is generally understood that the sporting Scotsman will report in favor of the perpetuation of the sport of kings as a sport. That report will probably let the legitimate clubs carry on, though some of the magnates will be deprived of their profits. The merry-go-rounds, which are run for profits only, will hardly be able to continue under the restrictions.

Under ordinary circumstances it would be impossible to get a racing bill of any kind through the House. The "Church" vote would attend to that. But this Parliament as it stands today, is the most dependent in all political history. Neither Ministry or members have anything to lose or anything to hope for. So if the Government says the bill is to go through it will go. The members will be true to the men who tagged them and to this remaining indemnities.

However, it is well to bear in mind that Hon. Wesley Rowell was in Washington when Cabinet Ministers declared in favor of giving even modified racing to a melancholy world. He's back now. And he'll still be back when that racing bill comes up.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

ARREST MINERS FOR CONTEMPT

MINERS WHO VIOLATE INJUNCTION TO BE JAILED IN 48 HOURS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 3. Convinced that efforts to bring about resumption of operation of coal mines through offers of a 14 per cent. wage advance to miners have failed, and that the injunction issued by U. S. District Judge Anderson against the strike has been violated, the Government has concluded to institute contempt proceedings at once, it was indicated here last night.

Federal agents would make no statements as to when court action might be expected, but it is known that evidence has been collected against alleged violators of the injunction, and in well informed circles it was confidently expected that arrests would be made within forty-eight hours.

The injunction, as explained by Judge Anderson, extends to individual miners, operators or other persons who in any way encourage the strike or interfere with production of coal. Government attorneys, it is said, interpret this to mean that any statement made by miners or any agreement between two or more men to continue on strike, constitutes a violation of the injunction.

During the trial in the Federal Court yesterday Alonzo Newcomb, a coal miner of Blanford, Ind., charged with violation of Federal liquor laws, declared that "it would be all his life was worth to attempt to return to work" in the mines. Judge Anderson asserted that mine operators and mine workers "appear to be in cahoots to bleed the public."

VETS IN ELECTIONS

Kingston, Dec. 3.—Veterans of Kingston are to make strong bids for representation in municipal bodies of the city. They have drawn up a slate showing that aldermanic candidates will be placed in the seven wards in the city, and at least five of the seven wards have nominated H. C. Nickle for Mayor and Col. MacPhail for the Utilities Commission.

GARBAGE CONTRACT ACTION

St. Catharines, Dec. 3.—Sir William Mulock last night, in Non-Jury High Court, dismissed the action with costs of Howard Hodgkins against the City of St. Catharines for $5,000 damages because the city took the garbage contract away from him. Hodgkins' claim was that he had gone to large expense in procuring trucks to do the work, and had them on his hands. The Judge held that he had not properly performed the work.

MISTOOK HIS MAN

Montreal, Dec. 3.—A case of mistaken identity came to light in the Court of Sessions, Judge Decarie presiding this morning, when John Harrison, alias O'Brien, was charged with theft. It was discovered that J. E. Lynde, had been committed for trial on a similar charge. A few enquiries by the police established beyond a doubt that Lynde had been sentenced for Harrison's crimes. Harrison was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment.

STRIKES IN ITALY.

Rome, Dec. 3.—A general strike was declared today in Rome, Milan and Florence, where there was a complete cesation of work. There was no disorder, except in Milan, where two persons were killed and many were wounded.

There were rival Socialist and loyalists demonstrations in all three cities.

Driving Nails In Hard Places.

In making repairs it is found necessary many times to drive nails in close quarters or in cramped places where they cannot be readily held with the hand to insure being driven straight.

When such an emergency arises procure a short length of pipe, about 3-4 inch in diameter, and a slightly longer piece of rod of such diameter that it will slip loosely in the pipe. After dropping the nail into the pipe, place the pipe over the place where the nail is to be driven and slide the rod into the pipe back of the nail and drive the nail into place by hammering on the end of the rod.—Illustrated World.

In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries there was a profound belief in powdered mummies as internal remedies.

BOXERS BETTER OFF IN ENGLAND

RETAIN THEIR POPULARITY EVEN AFTER THEY ARE DOWN AND OUT

American boxers, it has been demonstrated, have nothing to learn from their English contemporaries, but the same is not true of American followers of the glove game. Over here a boxer enjoys public favor, only so long as he is a winner; over there boxers are idolized long after they have been slugged from the high places and forced back into the ranks. There is the case of Bombardier Wells, for instance.

"Wells", says Fred. Fulton, "still is the idol of England. He's been licked time and again, yet not even Joe Beckett is so highly esteemed. When Wells enters a fight club and the fans catch sight of him they stand up and cheer until he reaches his seat. You'd think he was the greatest fighter that ever lived, although he never amounted to much as a fighter and can't fight his way out of a paper bag now."

Also there is the case of Jem Driscoll. Jem, at his best, was a marvellous boxer, to whom two continents paid homage. He has gone back, of course, and recently was subjected to a terrific beating at the hands of Charlie Ledoux, the Frenchman, yet as long as Driscoll lives he will be a prominent figure in British sporting circles.

FREIGHT HANDLERS STRIKE SETTLED

MEN ACCEPT C. P. R.'S OFFER SUBJECT TO CONCILIATION BOARD'S OFFER.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

St. John, N. B., Dec. 3. — The strike of freight handlers has been [illegible] of the C. P. R., subject to award of the Conciliation Board.

This strike has caused considerable trouble in shipping circles, many ocean-going vessels having been diverted to Halifax.

URGE RELEASE OF ALL PRISONERS

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS STILL IN CAPTIVITY CONSTITUTE MENACE.

Berne, Dec. 3.— An appeal for the repatriation of all war prisoners as yet held by the belligerents has been addressed to all nations which participated in the war by the Swiss Federal Council. Special reference is made to prisoners still in Siberia and in France, and also Russian prisoners remaining in Germany.

Recalling the work done in Switzerland during the war, looking to the alleviation of the condition of prisoners and the sufferings of all nations during the struggle, the Council's appeal says:

"It would be a social danger if the hundreds of thousands of prisoners still in captivity were allowed to remain prisoners any longer. It has been a whole year since the armistice was signed, and the state of mind which these men might be in when returning to their former homes might make them a menace to society, if their imprisonment is prolonged."

The Holy See has been invited to join in the request of Switzerland that all the belligerent Governments immediately repatriate the war prisoners, so that, as far as possible, they may spend Christmas at their homes.

Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary, has replied to the Swiss Government, accepting the invitation, and promising to send a note to this effect to all the heads of the Governments concerned, including the King of Italy.

WOOD INDORSED FOR PRESIDENT

GOVERNOR C. COOLIDGE, MASS., FOR VICE-PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

(Canadian Press Despatch)

St. Pierres, Dec. 3.—Major-Gen. Leonard Wood was indorsed for president of the United States last night by a Republican state convention.

Governor C. Coolidge, Mass., is indorse for the vice-presidential nomination.

BLACKSMITH SHOP BURNED

The blacksmith shop occupied by Mr. William Scott and owned by Mr. James McIlvena, of Warsaw, was destroyed by fire one evening last week. The fire was supposed to have started by a spark from a defective chimney igniting in some hay. Mr Scott will rebuild immediately.

BIRDS' FLIGHT NOT SPEEDY.

Pigeons Make 33 Miles an Hour, But Seldom More.

The bird hunter, particularly of the duck-shooting variety, is apt to get a bit careless with his chatter of the speed of the game bird. Miles per hour are scattered around with the lavish hand that marks the apportioning of inches to the length of the fish when the fishing clan foregather.

Most duck hunters are persuaded that a duck coming down the wind is something like two wing strikes behind sudden death, but several jumps ahead of a streak of lightning in speed. A hundred miles an hour is apparently a handy figure on which to pile still more figures or occasionally to cut down a bit.

While a gale boosting at the tail-feathers of a duck that is a swift duck anyhow does add perceptibly to the speed of the bird, yet there is no record of the marvelous speed claimed for game birds under ordinary conditions.

There is used in ballistic science an instrument called the chronograph, which in the form most used consists of a weight held up by an electro-magnet. A spring-impelled knife-blade is held by another magnet in such a fashion that if released it springs out and marks a coating of soot first applied to the weight. First a mark is made in the soot in the weight opposite the knife.

When the bullet or charge of shot goes through a screen of wires connected with the magnet holding the weight and placed at the muzzle of the gun, the wires are cut and the weight starts to fall. When the bullet or shot charge passes through the second screen of wires, say ninety feet from the muzzle, the cutting of the wires permits the knife to fly out and mark the falling weight. Then the distance between the marks on the weight is measured, and as heavy weights fall a short distance always at the same speed, it is easy to translate the distance between the marks into time, and so to find how long the bullet took to cross the space between the screens.

A canny British ballistic shark rigged up a pair of such screens much closer together, and made them of fine silk and wire. The gallery had a lighted end and a dark one. Various British game birds were released back of the screens, promptly flying for the light at the end of the gallery, and so their speed was taken by the chronograph just as is the bullet.

A dozen tough "blue rock" pigeons [illegible] of England and much used for old-time live birds, recorded thirty-three miles an hour or fifty feet per second for the fastest one, twenty-six miles an hour for the slowest one. Out in the open, flying over measured course and timed with stop-watch, the fastest pigeon registered twenty-seven miles an hour.

British pheasants, bred purposely for shooting and noted for their speed and rocketing flight, flew through the chronograph at the rate of 33.8 miles an hour, maximum. Out in the open one bird made thirty-eight miles, or fifty-six feet per second. Partridges made from twenty-six to 34.5 miles on hour through the chronograph, and in the open ranged from 27.6 to thirty-two miles an hour, or forty to forty-two feet per second.

The average of twelve carrier pigeon races in England and the continent, ranged from eighty-seven to 309 miles, showed an average of thirty-six miles an hour. The fastest bird flew fifty-five miles an hour, the slowest in all the races, but still a winner, fifteen miles an hour. Doubtless the difference was due to wind force and direction.

These are the fastest birds possible to breed, and developed for winning races.

No argument is possible with the chronograph; little argument is possible with the official time taken for carrier pigeons, provided brother pigeon doesn't sit somewhere on a limb and make love to a lady pigeon instead of keeping on his way.

An interesting check on some of these gunners who know their bird was flying a hundred miles an hour because they had to lead him 'steen feet would be to paint a duck on a long board at the end of an express train running at, says, sixty miles an hour, and let the gunner blaze away at the painted duck at normal duck shooting ranges to check up the speed of the painted bird, with the "lead" necessary to give the charge to hit the wild duck alleged to have gone 100 miles per. Neither train nor winged honker gives a fair idea of the actual speed, because they are both large; the little bird often deceives.

Thirty boys of a college, while skating on the River Chaudiere, broke through the ice when locks upriver were opened; all were rescued.

Commercial Survey of the Amazon.

An expedition has started from Para, Brazil, sometimes called the "Gateway of the Amazon," to investigate the commercial possibilities that may lie undeveloped along the course of the largest river in the world. The mineral, forest, agricultural and other products along the great river and its tributary streams will be examined, with results, it is hoped, which will restore the docks and warehouses of Para to more than the commercial activity that they had when Para rubber was an important article of export and oriental rubber had not yet come to drive it from the market. Otherwise Para has had little commerce; now and then samples of products that promised great commercial value, vegetable oils, mineral oils, coal, fibres, cabinet woods, and minerals, have come down the river, but no serious effort has been made to determine the real importance of these samples as an indication of future wealth. The expedition that has now vanished upstream is equipped for proper investigation and is sent out by an industrial department of the "Port of Para." Nor is it impossible that what it finds may lead to a commercial development of Para that will need new docks and warehouses.

RED-HEADED MEN.

Some Old Prejudices Regarding Tawny Tops.

"Salute no red-haired man nearer than thirty feet off," runs an old French saying, "and even so, hold three stones in the fist wherewith to defend thyself."

From biblical times to the present day can be traced the prejudice against red hair. "Never lodge at red-haired people's houses," runs a precept in the fifteenth century "Boke of Curtasye," "for these be folks that are to drede." According to one tradition this distrust of red-haired people dates from the time of Judas, who, himself red-haired, caused treachery to be ever afterward connected with hair of that color.

Shakespeare alludes to this belief. Says Rosalind, complaining of her lover, "His very hair is of the dissembling color." Whereupon Celia answers her: "Something browner than Judas's." Marston, too, in "The Insatiate Countess," makes one of his characters remark: "I ever thought by his red beard he would prove a Judas."

In Sweden prejudice against red hair was very strong; here its connection with treachery was [illegible] ed Canute, possessed red hair. In Germany, also, red hair met with scant regard. "The short in stature," says a German proverb, "are naturally proud, and the red-haired untrustworthy."

Red hair, however unjustly, is still associated with deceit, and, in Ireland and Scotland, with ill luck as well. In the Highlands he who meets a red-haired woman when starting on a journey will be well-advised, say the wiseacres, to return home and start the journey afresh; and in Ireland red-haired people are supposed to exercise the same baleful influence upon any undertaking.

A man staying in western Connemara for brown trout fishing complained one day that sport had been unusually poor. The landlord smoothed his chin and pondered for some little time upon the reason for this lack of fish. Then, suddenly, his face lighted—the lakes, after all, it seemed, were not at fault. "Sure," said he, "ye'll have met Red Maggie Murphy on the way to the lake? 'Twas herself that passed by the minute after!"

The fairy folk are at one with human beings in disliking red-haired people, although in other connections they are by no means averse to red. Pixies, indeed, are sometimes known in the west of England by the name of "red caps," owing to their fondness for caps of the color; while fairy cows, those strange, hornless animals which have the power of crossing the sea by themselves, are invariably red.

But the unfortunate human possessor of red hair meets with scant courtesy from the fairy folk; he it is who suffers most acutely from the unwelcome attentions of spriggans and buccas. He will be decoyed across the bogland at night by lights like those of cottage windows, only to find that these lights have, in truth, no existence; his cattle will be pixy-ridden, his colts chased all night long. Only, indeed, by wearing his coat turned inside out, and drawing his cap well over that obnoxious hair, can be hope to mitigate such unwelcome attentions.

The question of resumption of relations with the Vatican is to be discussed in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Appeals have been made by the Swiss Federal Council for the repatriation of all war prisoners still held by belligerents.

A FIRST CLASS HOT WATER BOTTLE AT A LOW PRICE

Regular $2.50 For

$1.79

ON SALE NOW

MONCUR DRUG STORE

407 GEORGE ST.

"LOWEST PRICES ON PATENT MEDICINES."

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE TRADE

We have opened up an office, sample room and warehouse at 332 WATER STREET, CITY, opposite the MARKET SQUARE, where we have in stock a fresh line of goods, as follows: Scribblers, Exercise Books, Writing Pads, Envelopes, Papeteries, Note Books, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Mucilage, Tobaccos, Cigars, Cigarettes, Pipes, Gum, and other Sundries. We are also manufacturing the splendid line of Herbal Medicines, known as Gallagher's Herbal Remedies, such as Blood Purifier, Kidney [illegible], Golden Drops and Cough Syrup.

We are here to give you good goods, good service, at right prices, and ask for a share of your trade. [illegible] be pleased to have you call and inspect our stock.

THE GALLAGHER REMEDY CO.
332 WATER STREET.
PHONE 1381. PETERBOROUGH, ONT.
WHOLESALE ONLY.

"BERLIN" BREEDS TROUBLE AGAIN

KITCHENER CITIZENS ROUGHLY HANDLE ALDERMEN WHO WOULD CHANGE NAME

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Kitchener, Dec. 2.—Quietness reigned here this morning after the excitement of last night, when W. D. Euler, M.P., and some local aldermen were roughly handled following an attempt at a Council meeting to change the name of this city back to "Berlin."

Aldermen Bowman and Fitzer remained at their homes today, but all others who were injured were out.

Damage to Paper Office.

The damage to the News-Record office totalled several thousands, but this paper is being issued from another office. There are rumors that summons will be issued, but it is generally believed the affair will be allowed to blow over.

INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes Disordered Stomachs feel fine at once!

Lumps of undigested food causing pain. When your stomach is acid, and is gassy, sour or you have heartburn, flatulence, headache or dyspepsia here is speedy relief—no waiting. Eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin and instantly your stomach feels fine. All the indigestion pain, gases, acidity and misery in the stomach caused by acidity ends.

Pape's Diapepsin tablets cost little at any drug store but there is no surer or quicker stomach antacid known.

DEFINITE ANNOUNCEMENT

Cabinet Considering Best Manner in Which to Spend 40 Millions.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—A definite announcement is expected almost immediately regarding the Government's decision as to the manner in which the forty million dollars, voted by Parliament for relief of returned men during the winter months will be handled. Further consideration of this question has taken place at recent meetings of the Cabinet.

SINCE 1870
SHILOH
30 [illegible] COUGHS

FIUME NOT IN QUESTION

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Dec. 2.—The Supreme Council decided today that the question of Fiume should not be settled in the Hungarian Peace Treaty, but he reserved for final decision by the allied and associated powers

This eliminates any objections on the part of either Italians or Jugo-Slavs to signing the treaty on account of Fiume.

NO COAL IN CALGARY

Weather Bitterly Cold and Town in Bad Way

Calgary, Alta., Dec. 3.— Calgary citizens face a serious situation with continued bitter cold, gas pressure down to six pounds, and no coal stocks in the city. The condition is rapidly becoming alarming. One or two days more of such bitter cold will find the citizens without either coal or gas, it is feared.

NEWSPRINT FAMINE

United States Appeals to Canada to Help Out American Papers.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—That the famine in newsprint in the United States is very serious is indicated by almost pathetic appeals of the Canadian controller of newsprint to help out American papers accustomed to secure their supplies from Canada, but which have been cut off, owing to the requirements of the domestic field. Mr. Pringle has a number of such cases under consideration, but no plan of relief has been worked out. "The only remedy I know of," he said today, "is conservation."

It is reported that Canadian paper manufacturers and publishers have tentatively adjusted their long standing differences, but no official confirmatory order has yet been applied for.

Most Appreciative.

The impulsiveness of great men has led to amusing incidents. This story of Rossetti, who was an ardent lover of rare and beautiful china, is one in point:

The great man dined one evening with friends who had learned from him the joys of china collecting. The dinner was served in beautiful specimens of various sorts of ware, and, for the better display of the dishes, was set out on the table. The salmon was served in an especially precious dish. When the cover was removed, Rossetti started, leaned over to examine the dish, took it in both hands and turned it upside down to see the marks on the back. The salmon, of course, fell out on the table cloth, but Rossetti paid no attention, and only exclaimed:

"The very dish I was going to get to-morrow!"

The lady was so elated at having got the dish ahead of her guest that she quite forgave the irreverent treatment of her salmon and of her table cloth.

Two women candidates in the Paris, France, municipal elections were badly beaten at the polls.

DOES SANTA CLASS WEAR CLASSES?

Santa Claus is a wise old man, and it is safe to say that if he needs glasses he wears them; also that they are "PEBLO" quality because he wouldn't have anything but the best that's made. He would advise Dr. Fowler's "PEBLO" Glasses in handsome gold mounts as Christmas gifts to your elderly friends, to whom a more modern pair of glasses would be highly acceptable.

See Dr. Fowler about it.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST A. A. FOWLER DOCTOR OF OPTICS
Phm. B. Toronto University.
HAS FITTED 30,000 SATISFIED WEARERS OF PEBLO GLASSES
Most Up-to-date Sanitary Optical Parlors
With Nugent Drug Co.

HASTINGS

(Special Correspondence)

Hastings, Dec. 3.—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Tate with a large number of members in attendance. A number of important items of business were transacted, after which the hostess served a delicious luncheon which was much enjoyed.

The pupils of the Methodist Sunday school are busy practising for their annual Christmas entertainment to be held in the town hall on Christmas night.

Mr. J. Graham has secured a good position in Belleville and will move his household effects there in the near future.

The Prince of Wales honor flag, won by this district in the Victory Loan campaign, is on view in the Union Bank, and bears the crest of the Prince.

Mr. W. Anderson of Seymour has been visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Gould.

The ladies of St. George's Church will hold their annual bazaar on Saturday of this week.

The local chapter of the I.O.D.E. held their regular monthly meeting in their rooms Monday afternoon.

Mr. O. Moser has opened up a new jewelry store in the vacant shop next to the Bank of Toronto and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, which arrived Friday morning. Nurse Green of Peterborough is the nurse-in-charge.

Mrs. Jamieson of Brockville is the guest of Rev. D. A. and Mrs. Thomson at the manse.

Miss Irene Lynch spent Saturday in Peterborough.

An accident which might have proved more serious occurred Saturday night when Dr. De La Matter's car collided with the delivery rig driven by Leslie Kennedy. The boy was thrown out and the horse proceeded on its way over town. Fortunately no serious damage resulted.

The constant downpour of rain on Saturday materially affected the usual business of the week-end, only those who were compelled venturing out of doors.

Mrs. V. German took a trip to Peterborough on Wednesday.

About ninety friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beavis gathered at their home on Friday evening to spend a few hours with them prior to their departure for their new home in Colborne. During the course of the evening an address was read and each member of the family presented with a handsome gift as a reminder of the many friends they are leaving behind.

Mrs. C. Jones is somewhat improved in health.

Dr. and Mrs. Hess motored to Wooler on Thursday and spent the day with friends.

Miss Queenie Runnels spent Wednesday in Peterborough.

Miss Laura Smith has accepted a position in Mr. Walter Fowld's office and has entered upon her new duties.

Reeve J. H. Hess is in Cobourg this week attending County Council.

Miss Edna Blewett of Lakefield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Plant.

Three arrests were made Tuesday in connection with some thieving which has been going on in some of the surrounding towns. Word was received here by the police to be on the lookout for suspicious-looking characters, which led to the arrests.

The alterations in Mr Sherwin's building are making rapid progress and will be a great improvement to his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bannon have arrived home from the West and will take up residence on the farm recently purchased from Mr. Gordon Beavis.

CARBONI

Rid System of Clogged-up Waste and Poisons with "Cascarets."

Like carbon clogs and chokes a motor, so the excess bile in liver and constipated waste in the bowels, produce foggy brains, headache, sour, acid stomach, indigestion, sallow skin, sleepless nights, and bad colds.

Let gentle, harmless "Cascarets" rid the system of the toxins, acids, gases, and poisons which are keeping you upset.

Take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest laxative-cathartic you ever experienced. Cascarets never gripe, sicken, or cause inconvenience. They work while you sleep. A box of Cascarets costs so little too.

Investigation has shown that wherever the labor of women approximates that of men, the death rate of women rises.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

LOOK AT TONGUE! REMOVE POISONS FROM STOMACH LIVER AND BOWELS

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

KEENE

(Special Correspondence.)

Keene, Dec. 3.—Sargent Harry Mather returned from overseas on Sunday, motoring from Montreal.

Mr. William Fletcher was in Peterborough over the week-end.

A ball will be given in the Town Hall Friday evening, Dec. 19th, under the auspices of the Farmers' Club.

Two splendid sessions were enjoyed at the Methodist Church on Monday afternoon and evening, when the Institute of Religious Education was held. The speakers for both sessions were Rev. Frank Langford, B. A., of Toronto, and H. B. Kenney, of Campbellford.

On Friday afternoon of last week the executive of the Keene Patriotic Society met at the home of Mrs. Harry McLachlan for the purpose of transacting the final business of the society. At the close of the meeting the treasurer, Mrs. Alex. Anderson, was presented by the members of the executive, with a handsome jet necklace as a token of their esteem and appreciation of her excellent services during the past three years. Mrs. Anderson is moving to Peterborough this week.

Mr. Alfred Fletcher is thinking of changing his place of residence to Peterborough.

Mrs. Archie Kempt was in Peterborough a few days last week.

Messrs. J. J. Dickson and Alfred Kempt spent a few days with friends in Smith last week.

Mrs. Payton and little daughter Margaret, of Peterborough, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Taylor over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and little daughter, Dorothy, are visiting friends at North Bay.

Mrs. James McCann was in Peterborough a few days last week.

The Farmers' Club held their annual business meeting and election of officers in the Council Chamber at the Town Hall on Monday evening, Dec. 1st. The following officers were elected for 1920:

President—T. A. Esson.
Vice-president—Ralph Humphery
Secretary-treasurer—Henry Humphery.
Bound of Directors—H. Stewart, M. O'Keefe, G. Bolin, James Richardson, John Connie, Hugh McFee

Mrs. Richard Skinner, who has been quite ill, is improving nicely.

The Villers' Farmers' Club are giving an oyster supper at the Villers' school house on Friday night

Miss Mollie Boyle, of Ottawa, is a guest at the Victoria House.

Mrs. Philip Elmhirst of Peterborough, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Richard Short.

Messrs. John and Wilfred Fletcher were in Peterborough a few days this week.

Mr. William Tomlin left on Tuesday for his home in Kent, England.

Mrs. Henry Fletcher received word last week of the death of her father, Mr. Alfred Bishop, at London, on Nov. the 4th.

Mr. Marshall Weir, of Peterborough, spent Wednesday last at his home on High street.

Mrs. Barnhardt has returned to her home at North Bay after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell.

Mrs. C. H. Byers is recovering nicely from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brown, of Peterborough, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards.

Mrs. John Wilson, who has been spending the past two months with Toronto friends, has returned home

A conceited man revolves around himself.

NORWOOD

(Special Correspondence).

Norwood, Dec.3.— The Board of Education met on Monday evening, December 1st, 1919. Members present were Messrs. E. P. Cuffe, (chairman,) E. C. Squire, J. F. Elliott, J. A. Finlay, W. H. Webster, J. W. Keefer, T. Watson, Jno. Nevens, J. W. Rorabeck.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Moved by J. F. Elliott and seconded by Mr. Rorabeck that the matter of repairing the wood furnace in the High School be left with the property committee, to act immediately.

The chairman informed the Board that Miss Sangster had intimated to him that she had been offered a salary of $1,200 from Campbellford, but was waiting to give the Board an opportunity to say what they would do. He read a petition from the pupils of the High School urging the Board to do all in their power to retain Miss Sangster.

Moved by Mr. Kuffe seconded by Mr. Rorabeck that the salaries of Miss Sangster and Miss Gillies be increased to $11.50 from January 1st. next. Carried.

Accounts

W. A. Richardson, Insurance, piano. $2.13; W. D. Doughty, repairing pipe $6.00; J. Finlay and Sons to account, $9.97.

Moved by Messrs. Cuthbertson and Marks that the accounts be referred and that the insurance account be paid. Carried.

Personals

Born—In Norwood on November 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McRae, a daughter.

Mrs. C. W. Waters is visiting in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Laing of Hastings and their daughter, Dorothea, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laing, Peterborough, on Sunday last.

Miss Reba Squire, who is attending Normal School in Peterborough, spent the week end at her home here.

Mr. James Mullan of Penttang spent a few days in town last week.

Mr. Will Coyle of Colborne spent Sunday visiting friends in town.

Miss Ethelwyn Clysdale of Peterborough spent the week end under the parental roof.

A large number of Norwood young people attended the dance given by the "U Come" Club in the town hall, Havelock, last Friday evening.

The Methodist Mission Band held their annual bazaar last Saturday afternoon in the basement of the church. In spite of the unfavorable weather, a large number attended the bazaar.

Mrs. Murray and daughter Miss Jean, of Woodstock, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacDonald last week.

Mr. Clarence Campbell of Warkworth was in Norwood on Sunday last.

Mr. W. Campbell of Port Hope was in town last week.

Mr. Alex Fleming of Percy was in town a few days ago.

Mr. Hugh Leonard of Warkworth spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Guy Ballard spent Saturday last in Peterborough.

Mr. Cloeman Elliott is moving into the house recently occupied by Mr. C. J. Blake on Peterborough street.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

To see the healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for a week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges or whose skin is sallow or pallid, that one week of inside-bathing will have them looking and feeling better every way.

W. S. Dinnick admitted, among other things, that directors of the Acme Company charged up a portion of their indebtedness to the company as commissions, which it was charged were unauthorized, during the Standard Reliance probe yesterday.

GETTING "HEP" TO THE GOOD EATS

A Host of Dyspeptics Can Get Back to the Old Days of Freedom by the Simple Expedient of a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals.

"Gosh! I never knew before how good these little pork sausages were." Thus says the man who thought his stomach was gone for all time but who tried the simple expedient of a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after eating. And with this for a starter, he goes in for a cheese sandwich, a piece of hot mince pie, ham and eggs—in fact he forgets his stomach and thinks only of the energy and good feeling that follow eating the foods that make most people ravenously hungry even to think of them. And all of this without sour risings, no gas, no belching and none of that drowsy heaviness that so often follows indigestion. Try these tablets after eating. They are used extensively wherever good eaters are found and are on sale almost everywhere in the United States and Canada.

OBITUARY

RUSSELL KILBORN

The death occurred in Burleigh on Friday evening of Russell Kilborn, youngest son of Mr. John Kilborn, at the age of eleven years. Deceased had been suffering from a cold and his case was not considered serious until a couple of days before he died.

He was a bright little fellow intelligent beyond his years and had always been a great favorite among his teachers and playmates.

He leaves to mourn his loss, a father, mother, one brother, George, and four sisters viz: Nursing Sister Gladys, lately returned from overseas; Nurse Bertha, of Brockville; Mildred, of Peterborough, and Grace, at home, who have our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon to the Union Cemetery, service being conducted at the house by Rev. J. H. Beck, Methodist minister.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Herbert Tucker, David Tucker, William Earnshaw and Roy Brown.

Many floral tributes were laid on the little white coffin by sympathising friends.

"In this world of care and pain
Lord, thou would'st no longer leave him
To the sunny heavenly plan.
Thou dost now with joy receive him,
Clothed in robes of spotless white;
Now he dwells with thee in light."

INCOMPARABLE

Dr. Norvall's Stomach and Tonic Tablets are really incomparable. They have been imitated and substitutes have been prepared which looked like them and even tasted about the same, but there is no other tablet which has the same beneficial effect, the same gentle laxative and tonic effect. For constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness and sick headache, Dr Norvall's Tablets have no equal and are in a class by themselves. All dealers sell them.

CRASHED THROUGH ICE

Thirty Boy Skaters Had Narrow Escape From Drowning

Quebec, Dec. 3. — Thirty boys, students at the Charney College, yesterday afternoon, crashed through the ice on the Chaudiere River and were rescued with difficulty. One of the teachers, Brother Leon, dived into the icy waters and saved a lad named Turcotte, after breaking a hole through the ice to get the boy who was floatin gaway. The accident was caused by the locks up the river being opened to let down a steamer.

GERMAN LOAN HAS PROVED FAILURE

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO EXTEND TIME LIMIT FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—The Government has extended the time limit for subscriptions to the premium loan to December 10 instead of next Wednesday, December 3. The Vossiche Zeitung says this tends to confirm widespread reports that the loan has been a failure. The loan, which was intended to raise 5,000,000,000 marks, provided for a lottery system as an inducement to subscribers

The Judicial Committee of the Finnish Diet recommends acceptance of a motion granting to women the right to hold office as Judges.

Thirty-five candidates attended the first practise held by the U. T. S. Canadian junior hockey team here yesterday.

ONTARIO SAFETY LEAGUE IN MONTHLY SESSION

Toronto, Dec. 2.—The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Safety League was held yesterday at 12.30 p.m. Those present were: A. B. Ingram, F. P. E. Doolittle, H. Macdonald, E. P. Heaton, A. F. Costigane, R. B. Morley, J. F. H. Wyse, S. Dickson, W. C. Coulter, Wills Maclachlan, Arthur Hewitt, J. J. Gibbons.

After discussing the minutes of the previous meeting, and correspondence, the committee passed the applications of twenty-one industrial concerns for membership in the league

Mr. H. Macdonald, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented a statement of estimated receipts and expenditures, for 1920.

The general manager reports on the prospects of a "No Accident Drive" on the steam railways in Canada. This question was passed to the Canadian National Safety League for action. A recent drive on the United States railroads was productive of a reduction of casualties from 5,204 to 2,282 in the two weeks covered by the "drive."

Mr. E. P. Heaton presented the report of the committee on calendars, which was adopted. Manufacturers all over the Province are arranging to distribute the safety calendar for 1920 among employees.

Dr. Doolittle, chairman of the Committee on Sub-Committees, presented a comprehensive report, which covered an enlargement of the permanent sub-committees from seven to twenty-one, looking to an enlargement of the activities of the league throughout Ontario.

A committee was appointed to report to the January meeting of the executive on the arrangements for the annual meeting of the league to be held in February.

The meeting adjourned at 2.30 p.m The next meeting will be held [illegible]

MURDERER'S WIFE IS UNDER ARREST

ALLEGED SHE THREATENED TO SHOOT GOVERNOR OF HAMILTON JAIL.

Hamilton, Dec. 3.—Hamil Kowaiski wife of the condemned murderer of Trembluk, the man who killed his death watch, A Case Springstead, and Deputy Governor Arthur Awty, of the City Jail, on Saturday last, is under arrest. She was taken into custody by the police at 171 Sherman Avenue north, about ten o'clock last night. At the same time two foreigners, Mike Etosek, 345 James Street north, and John Kuick, 171 Sherman avenue north, the house in which Mrs. Kowaiski was staying were taken into custody. They are held on a nominal charge of vagrancy. The two Kowaiski children are being cared for by the Children's Aid Society.

Mrs. Kowaiski is charged with threatening to shoot Governor Ogilvie in the jail yesterday afternoon. She paid a visit to the jail this afternoon and requested that she be allowed to see her husband. She was accompanied by a man. Governor Ogilvie refused to grant her request, and it is alleged by one of the turnkeys, she started to abuse the governor and before leaving threatened to kill him. She then left the jail with her companion.

At the city hospital it was reported that ex-Sergt John Lowrey was progressing favorably toward recovery and that the condition of Turnkey William Berry was somewhat improved.

Inspected the Jail.

An inspection of the jail has been made since the crime, by the Provincial Inspector of Prisons and Public Institutions, W. W. Dunlop, Toronto, who also received an official report from the sheriff and the governor of the jail on the killing of Springstead and Awty and the stabbing of Lowrey and Berry by Kowaiski. As a result, two iron gates, one in the cell and the other at the end of the corridor, now separate the death watch from the prisoner. This change was ordered by the inspector and was put into effect immediately. He also advised that when the two guards enter the cell to feed the prisoner that the guard shall remain on the outside and that he is to be armed. In view of the fact that the prisoner is now handcuffed and manacled, there is little chance of his being able to do any harm to his attendants.

CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS

Call in now and order your Christmas Greeting Cards, as the time is short for getting them out, and if left too late the selection of cards will not be as complete. A full line of samples at The Review Office.

GRAND
TO-DAY AND THURSDAY
SPECIAL VARIETY PROGRAM
WILLIAM FOX
Presents
WILLIAM FARNUM
IN THE
"A SOLDIER'S OATH"
A Tremendous Drama That Breathes The Heroism of The Western Front

MUTT AND JEFF COMEDY | SUNSHINE COMEDY "TOM AND JERRY MIX" | FOX SPECIAL CANADIAN NEWS

- VOD-A-VIL MOVIES -
GRAND ORCHESTRA
15c EVENINGS BEST SEATS 25c | 10c MATINEE DAILY 2.30 15c

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY EVENING AND SPECIAL WEDNESDAY MATINEE DEC. 10--11
THE FOREMOST LIGHT OPERA ORGANIZATION OF THE WORLD
GALLO-ENGLISH OPERA COMPANY
With The Sensational Japanese Prima Donna, HANA SHIMOZUMI The Famous Comic Opera Comedian, JEFFERSON DE ANGELIS and a Superb Ensemble of 100 ARTISTS OF FAME
WITH A CHORUS OF 50 & SUPERB SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA OF 20
WEDNESDAY EVENING, "THE MIKADO"
THURSDAY MATINEE, "H.M.S. PINOFORE"
THURSDAY EVENING, "CHIMES OF NORMANDY"
50c to $2.00 AT THE EVENING PERFORMANCE
Thursday Mat.—Entire Lower Floor $1. Balcony 50c

THEATRICAL

GALLO ENGLISH OPERA COMPANY PRESENTS "THE MIKADO" AT GRAND

In the selection of "The Mikado" as the opening of its local season on Wednesday night at the Grand Opera House, the Gallo English Opera Company has recognised the fact that for the past thirty years this masterpiece of the late William S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan has been conceded first rank among the comic operas of the world. Originally produced by D'Oyley Carte at the Savoy Theatre in London in 1885, it sprang into instantaneous fame. As the copyright laws in connection with the United States were at that time very lax, Gilbert and Sullivan were unable to give their production proper protection, and within a very short time no less than twenty different organizations were singing the tuneful Japanese opera the length and breadth of the land. While this did not help their pocket-books to any material extent, it gave their immortal work such a hearing as probably no other opera ever received before or since. America went "Mikado"-mad, and there was no home, however humble, where "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," "Tit-Willow" and all the other merry chansons of "The Tale of Titipu" were not as familiar as "Down on the Swanee River" or "Annie Laurie."

From that day to this "The Mikado" has never lost its hold on the public pulse, and every revival which has been made has met with unexampled prosperity. The management of the Gallo English Opera Company has gone to unusual expense in securing as the Yum-Yum of this presentation a real Japanese prima donna, who is not only able to give a glorious reading to the Sullivan score, but who comes to America imbued with all the tradition and teachings of the ancient Samurai, and who is able to interpret the Gilbertian humor in a manner never before attempted by any white-skinned artiste. Her name is Hana Shimozumi, and it is confidently expected that she will create a furore here. The Ko-Ko will be Jefferson De Angelis, dean of the American comic opera stage, whose art is as mellowed and fine as his thirty years in this field of endeavor can possibly make it. The Pitti-Sing will be Rosamond Whiteside, a charming young artiste, daughter of Walker Whiteside and his delightful wife, formerly known to the stage as Lelia McCord Woolston. "The Mikado" will be that splendid, virile baritone, Karl Stoll, whose recent triumph in "Maytime" is well remembered, as well as his performance of the gypsy violinist in Henry W. Savage's production of Kaman's "Sari." The pomposity of Poo-Bah will be ably looked after by the sterling basso, Louis Casavant. Daniel Denton, late a leading tenor of the Boston Opera Company, and also a concert singer of note, will be the Nanki-Poo, while the Katisha will be that charming actress and fine contralto, Greta Risley. A superb orchestra is carried through the country to give proper interpretation to the score, under the scholarly baton of Max Bendix, and Mr. Gallo has had his corps of scenic artists prepare a setting for "The Mikado" which is said to radiate the atmosphere of the land of the cherry blossom.

Following "The Mikado" on Thursday evening, the company will present Robert Planquette's charming opera comique, "The Chimes of Normandy." This opera occupied a unique position in that it not only sets the standard, so far as its music is concerned, for the school of French opera comique, but it possesses what is said to be the most perfect specimen of libretto in operatic history—a book strong enough to play without music, and contains one of the greatest acting characters known to the stage; that of Gaspard, the miser, which will be portrayed here by Jefferson De Angelis, the first serious piece of work he has done since the days of "The Prodigal Daughter." An equally fine scenic equipment has been provided for this opera, and the Gallo forces will use [illegible] regard for the sublime tradition with which it is associated.

The company will return to the realms of Gilbert and Sullivan on Thursday matinee, when "H.M.S. Pinafore" will be presented. There is a true saying that a good wine needs no bush, and during its forty years of life, this merry nautical operetta has occupied such a commanding place in the world of light musical entertainment that any encomiums applied to it at this late day, would be absolutely superfluous.

ALLEN THEATRE
TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
DOROTHY GISH
—IN—
"I'll Get Him Yet"
A steaming story of the girl who thought she could follow the tracks of her railroad to "Loveville."
On Same Bill:
"THE GREAT GAMBLE"
Episode No. 14—One more week to see the finale.
A Harold Lloyd Comedy—Outing Chester

Perry Hutchison and Muriel Martin Harvey in "The Luck of the Navy," at the Grand Friday and Saturday.

Hana Shimozumi, as "Yum Yum" in "The Mikado," Gallo English Opera Co., at the Grand Wednesday and Thursday.

MAYO, SHERRY AND MISS ANDERSON AT EMPIRE

NOTED PICTURE STARS PRESENT "A LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RICH." THREE DAYS THIS WEEK

A mongrel dog will show sometimes yellow when cornered, even though he may be a high-stepping pet in a jeweled collar and suede blanket.

Psychologists say that the same rule often applies to mongrel man.

Money, education and social position cannot completely wash away the saffron stain. It will crop out.

Paul Potter, the athletic idol of Yale, was a striking example of this truism. He left college to earn his living that he might marry Sylvia Castle. When old man Castle wrecked his bank and died in disgrace, Potter thought he was of too fine an old colonial stock to stand by the girl.

So she went alone to San Francisco and found work in a restaurant. And Potter, polished in a slime of pseudo respectability, forgot the girl until he became so badly involved with women that he sought her out as a refuge.

What happened thereafter is vividly depicted at the Empire Theatre in "A Little Brother of the Rich," a Universal photodrama with an all-star cast, featuring Frank Mayo, J. Barney Sherry and Kathryn Adams.

The appearance of three such popular players as Mayo, Sherry and Miss Adams appearing in one production, each with a relatively important part, is unusual. And an unusual story was required to bring them together.

Lynn F. Reynolds directed the production at Universal City. The story has a new tinge, and the points of the eternal triangle are constantly being occupied by new players in the game of love.

Education by Movies.

Conditions of ignorance, which are so largely responsible for the spread of Bolshevism and the ravages of disease in all quarters of the world, are to be combated by the distribution and display of motion pictures on a tremendous scale, says the Popular Mechanics Monthly. The bureau handling the plan has the co-operative support of the United States Government and many others, already has accumulated a grand total of 21,000,000 feet of film, all of an instructive or inspirational nature. Those who will exhibit these pictures free are able to borrow them without charge. One large commercial film concern has placed its 76 exchanges, in all parts of the world, at the bureau's disposal, and the pictures will be shown in motor-truck theatres in regions difficult of access, as well as in the factories and halls of civilized industry, for the benefit of all classes of workers.

Ice in the Tropics.

In Mexico when the trains stop at the little stations the natives frequently come up and offer ice cream for sale. Passengers naturally wonder how they got the ice to make it. The natives appear too poor to buy it, even if there were any there, which there isn't. They learn on inquiry that the makers take the leaf of the cactus plant, which may be a foot and a half or two feet long and hollowed out in form, and fill it with water. These, at night, they suspend well up in the air. In the morning the water has become ice. Then they put the layers together to make a bulk of it.

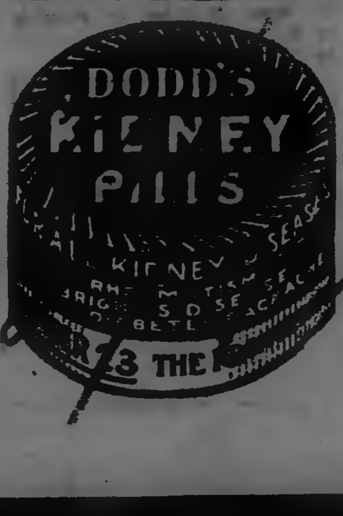
A chemist on one of the trains explained that in the dry atmosphere the rapid evaporation caused the water to freeze, on the same principle that people in hot climates suspend water in jars to cool it.

Disinfecting With Electric Fans.

For disinfecting or perfuming the air in rooms an attachment for electric fans has been invented in which liquids descend from a tank into a flag that is waved by the fan's breezes.

Coal Under the Ocean.

There are many submarine coal deposits off the British Isles, but so far they are not much worked. The tunnels of the mines at Whitehaven extend some four miles from the shore under the Irish Sea, however, and there also is some submarine coal mining at Bolness, near the Firth of Forth, and at Monkwearmouth in Durham.



Cardinal Mercier Visits Canada

THE visit of Cardinal Mercier to Canada was an event in which not only his own churchmen were deeply interested, but everyone who knows anything of the sacrifices of Belgium in the war, and of the noble work the cardinal did, at the risk of imprisonment in jail, to avert the effects of German brutality. The name of Cardinal Mercier has become almost a household one on this continent, through the searchlight of publicity that was cast on the horrifying events in Belgium under the rule of the German army. His protests during the war both to the Germans and to the Pope against the harrowing murders and abductions and confiscations made him a potent moral force in the war, and undoubtedly saved his country from a fate far worse.

This is the first time Cardinal Mercier has come to this continent, and his mission is personal thanks for the sympathy and help bestowed by the people of this continent on the cause he held so dear. The cardinal has an old, youthful interest in America, because his uncle, his mother's brother, whom he is said to resemble strongly, came out in his boyhood, and took charge of the Grand-ronde reservation in Oregon in the sixties. The zeal and sanctity of this uncle were duplicated in the young priest who was destined, as Archbishop of Malines, to become world famous. Cardinal Mercier was born in Braine-l'Alleud, a few miles from Waterloo, in 1851. As a professor, he specialized on philosophical and scientific work. When the Roman Catholic University of America was established in Washington about thirty years ago, an attempt was made by Mgr. Keane to get Prof. Mercier as one of the heads. Pope Leo XIII. was asked to use his influence in having Mercier come, but the Pope thought that Louvain needed him more, and it was soon after this that the professor renewed interest in neo-scholastic philosophy. He was then doctor of philosophy, theology and literature, and later became president of the Royal Academy of Sciences, Letters and Fine Arts of Belgium. He was appointed Archbishop of Mechlin in 1906, and created cardinal in 1907.

Famous clerics who have been pupils of Cardinal Mercier have ever been enthusiastic when they talked of his clear, convincing style of imparting instruction. He was not content merely to lecture to students in a body, but singled them out, discussed personally with them their views and their work, and encouraged them to private, deeper study. His motto was "Work and Virtue." The result of this was that students at Belgium's great school of philosophy might well have been termed the "Disciples of Mercier." One of the cardinal's strong points is a genius for understanding people, and gripping with sympathy their faith and purpose. No mere intellectual brilliance could have achieved what he did in his way over no fewer than two million and a half of Roman Catholics. One of his friends described him as a wonderful man, familiar with the greatest problems, yet concerned with the smallest details; honored as few men have been, yet simple as a child; working from early morning far into the night, yet always having time to listen to everyone. In his receptions he knows no class differences. The aristocrat and the laborer, the noble dame and the poor girl, meet on equal terms. They are received according to their time of coming. Sometimes the whole day, from eight in the morning, is taken up with these visitors, yet there is the same patience, the same fatherly kindness for all. Cardinal Mercier's tall, ascetic figure is a sight known by all Belgium, and to him Belgium pays homage as to a man truly great.

At one time during the war, the cardinal was kept a prisoner in his palace by the Germans. After months of agony, seeing Belgian civilians murdered, ruthlessly imprisoned, deported or punished for mere loyalty to their own country, he broke away from the restraint placed upon him. One Christmas he published the famous message to the Belgian people, entitled, "Patriotism and Endurance," in which he called for stern patience until the time of deliverance would come. It was doubtful then, after the Germans had prohibited any more official utterances by the cardinal, whether they would affront all the Roman Catholics of Germany and Austria by openly jailing him or not. But even the merciless German governors of Belgium felt that it would be a political mistake to take extreme actions, and so the imprisonment was merely detention at home. In the gold room of the place where the cardinal lives there is a shrapnel bullet hole in the door, and this is now a souvenir. Outside, the garden was blackened by fire and scarred by shell, but by this time it probably has regained its peaceful prettiness. In 1915, the cardinal said that the birds did not like the noise of bombardments, and disappeared, but they also are again singing in the trees that are left, and the cardinal, when at home, probably feels that the years of the war are like a great nightmare. It would be interesting to know the real inside of some of the cardinal's appeals to Rome for direct help for Belgium in her distress, but even when they write their autobiographies, cardinals do not betray what ought not to be known, and the people can only welcome him for his own virtue's sake.

Soap From Sewer Fats.

The manufacture of soap from sewer fats has been begun in Stockholm by a company that also will try to make it from native vegetable fats, including beech mast and horse chestnuts.

Always listen carefully to the opinions of others; the chances are you will derive no benefit therefrom, but it will please them.

EMPIRE THEATRE
Alice Joyce —IN— "SPARK DIVINE" | June Elvidge —IN— "Appearance of Evil"
This will be the last chance to see Alice Joyce in her great heart drama—a picture that will hold—will make you hate her and in the end love her.
Thursday — Friday Saturday
SPECIAL WEEK-END BANNER PROGRAM
MAYO and ADAMS
—IN—
"A LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RICH"
JOE MARTIN
—IN—
"MONKEY STUFF"
JUNE CAPRICE
CREIGHTON HALE } in "The Love Cheat"
Helen Holmes—"The Fatal Fortune"
Matinee . . 2.15 Children . . 11c Adults . . . 16c
EMPIRE ORCHESTRA
Evening . . 7:45 Children . . 16c Adults . . . 27c

THE MARKETS

Toronto, Dec. 3.—Cattle receipts were light and trade good.

Heavy beef steers . . .	$13.00	$13.50
Choice butcher steers	12.25	13.00
Medium butcher cows	[illegible]	9.00
Calves	16.50	19.50
Ewes	7.00	8.50
Lambs	14.75	15.50
Hogs, select, f.a.w. . .	16.75	16.75

PETERBOROUGH MARKETS

Veal, lb.	.22	to $	.25
Beef, lb	16	to	.18
Chikens, lb.	.25	to	.25
Live hogs, cwt. . .	17.00	to	17.00
Dressed hogs, cwt.	27.00	to	27.00
Grain.
Flour, retail	6.00	to	6.00
[illegible]	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Spring wheat, b . .	2.01	to	2.01
Fall wheat, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Peas, b.	2.01	to	2.01
Oats, b.	90	to	1.00
Barley, b.	1.25	to	1.25
Flour, w.a., ½ bl. . .	5.67½	to	5.67½
Bran, short, ton . .	55.25	to	55.25
Bran, w.s., ton. . . .	45.25	to	45.25
Vegetables.
Beans, b.	4.00	to	4.50
Beets, pk.	.40	to	.40
New carrots, pk. . .	.35	to	.46
Potatoes, pk.	.40	to	.40
Onions, lb.	.10	to	.10
Fruit.
Apples, eating, pk.	.50	to	.75
Apples, cooking . . .	.30	to	.60
Cabbage, each . . .	.10	to	.15
Bananas, doz. . . .	.50	to	.60
Oranges, doz. . . .	.40	to	.70
Lemons, doz. . . .	.50	to	.60
Pears, basket	[illegible]	to	1.25

"Smile when you can," says a poet. That's all right, but why didn't he confer an everlasting favor on humanity by telling us how to smile when we can't.

- RENEW -
YOUR SUBSCRIPTION
NOW
— TO THE
Daily
Review
Brightest and Newsiest Paper in Peterborough and Central Ontario
Subscription Rates
$4.00 a Year, Delivered to any part of the City.
$3.00 a Year by Mail.
THE REVIEW
PETERBOROUGH
Phone 189 164 Hunter St.

Canada Steamship common sold up to 76 in Toronto and 78 in Montreal, following a declaration of dividend increase to 7 per cent. yesterday.

Canada Food Board Licence No. 8-[illegible]
D. M. MINICOLA
Best Fruit—
Cheap
Best Vegetables—
Reasonable
Best Groceries
At Right Prices
410½ GEORGE STREET
Bell Phone 935

THE HEART
of your automobile is the Storage Battery. This needs special care in Winter. Let A. FISHER store it for you. He is the "Heart" Specialist. Phone 1282 when you put your car up for the Winter and I will call for your battery.
186 Charlotte Street
Over old English Canoe Factory

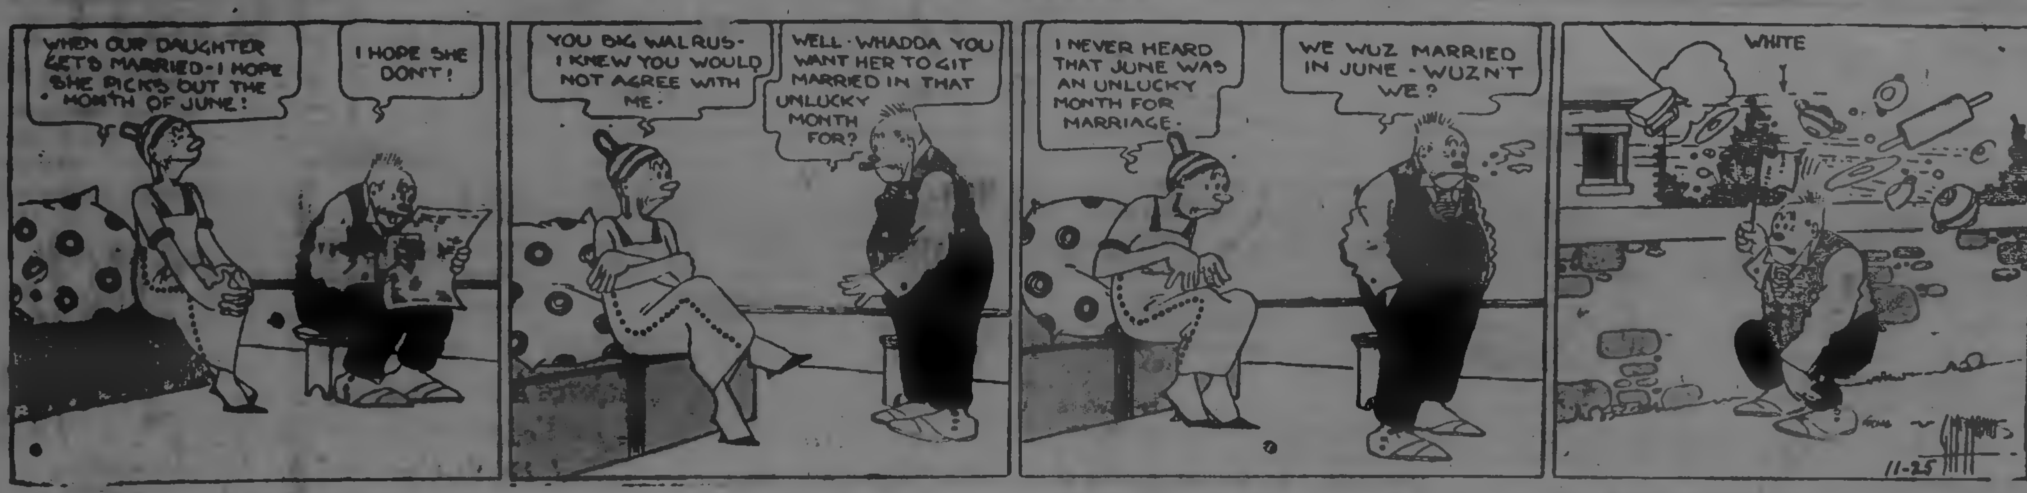
COAL
— AND —
Builders' Supplies
Hardwood Flooring
Robt. Hicks & Co.
LIMITED

Lackawana Coal
Means Economy
Burns freely and is of Best Anthracite.
Trucking Orders Promptly Filled
Peterboro Fuel & Transfer Co.
162 CHARLOTTE ST.
PHONES 270-262

HARD COAL
EGG, STOVE,
NUT, PEA
H. B. TAYLOR & SON
160 AYLMER ST.
Phone 280

Bringing up Father

By George McManus



WHEN OUR DAUGHTER GETS MARRIED - I HOPE SHE PICKS OUT THE MONTH OF JUNE!
I HOPE SHE DON'T!
YOU BIG WALRUS - I KNEW YOU WOULD NOT AGREE WITH ME.
WELL - WHADDA YOU WANT HER TO GIT MARRIED IN THAT UNLUCKY MONTH FOR?
I NEVER HEARD THAT JUNE WAS AN UNLUCKY MONTH FOR MARRIAGE.
WE WUZ MARRIED IN JUNE - WUZN'T WE?
WHITE
11-25

FRED FULTON RETURNS FROM EUROPE FULL OF CONFIDENCE AND ENTHUSIASM

Claims He was Sidestepped By Beckett—Willing and Anxious To Fight Anyone.

New York, Dec. 3.—Fred Fulton, home from England, where he knocked out four native heavyweights and drove the rest to cover, has undergone a marked change in manner and appearance. Apparently the four months he has spent under the tutelage of Tom O'Rourke have restored his self confidence. Past failures have been forgotten by the big plasterer and he views the future optimistically. It has been proven to his own satisfaction and that of almost everybody in the world that he has nothing to fear from any heavyweight across the seas, and he believes, or seems to, that if he receive the opportunity to do so, he will demonstrate his superiority over his rivals in his native land. That goes for Jack Dempsey, whom Fred is anxious to meet again.

Physically, too, he has improved. He has filled out a bit and there is a touch of ruggedness, hitherto lacking, to the big fellow. He engaged in light training practically all the time he was abroad and is fit right now to step into the ring for a strenuous contest. His right elbow, injured in a fall while doing road work in England three months ago, has bothered him a bit, but a minor operation, which he expects to have performed today, will rectify the trouble.

"It seems good to be home again," said Fred last night, "but I'll say I had a good time. Of course, I was disappointed at not being able to inveigle Joe Beckett into a match, for I am sure I could take him in two or three rounds. However, I suppose that couldn't be helped. I couldn't very well drag him into a ring.

"When we first reached England we were cordially received, for I thought the English sportsmen believed as we did—that there was an excellent prospect of a meeting between Beckett and me. When we didnt' evince any desire to hook up with me, we began to pound him in statements in the newspapers, and that soon put us in wrong. You see, their methods are different than ours, and it seems it isn't considered very clubby over there for one fighter to hawl another out in the public prints. We were branded as 'American bull throwers,' and everybody seemed to be disposed to let it go at that. Later, when my offer to meet all the leading heavyweights in the same ring on the same night, the proceeds of the show to go to St. Dunstan's hospital for blind soldiers, was declined, the press and public sided with me."

At this point Fulton produced clippings from English newspapers in which the writers conceded that he outclassed British heavyweights and wound up by bidding him godspeed and wishing him the best of luck in his future contests.

Thinks Beckett Will Win.

"Will Beckett beat Carpentier? I'm inclined to think he will. Beckett isn't much of a fighter, but I think he's a trifle too strong for the Frenchman. He's a tough guy, that Beckett. Not very big, but ugly looking, and surly as they make 'em. Ugh! That guy's got a mean disposition. He wouldn't even shake hands with me. Perhaps I got on his nerves.

"Yes, I think he'll beat Carpentier. I saw Georges in England just before I sailed. No I didn't see him train. He trains behind locked gates and no one can get within fifty feet of the place. I must say I don't like the looks of that. I don't get this secret stuff at all.

"I'll say I saw one real fighter over there," the giant plasterer continued. "Eugene Criqui, the French bantamweight is the boy to whom I am alluding. There's a fighter. Tom tried to sign him to come to this country, but some Frenchman had him under an ironclad agreement. Funny thing about this Criqui. He was horribly wounded in the jaw while fightig on the wester front, but he's a better man now than he was before he went to the war. Part of his lower jaw was shot away and the nerves were removed by the surgeon and patched him up. The consequence is he can't be hurt or stunned by a blow on the jaw. I saw him fight Digger Evans and Walter Ross, two hard hitters, but he took everything they had on the chin and then knocked them out. He's rather tall for a bantamweight, for he's clever and knows how to use his head. And how he can sock with his right hand! I hope he comes over here. It's a treat to watch him.

"What are my plans for the immediate future? O'Rourke makes all my plans, so you'll have to [illegible] him about that. He's a great manager, and I have all the confidence in the world in him. I'm going to stay around here for a few days and probably will go home for a short stay. It is likely that we will go to the coast, for we have received some fine offers for bouts in California. Harry Wills, I see, is out there, and no doubt I'll be asked to box him. Will I? I'll box anybody. Wills is a tough fellow I know and there are a lot of fellows ducking him, but I don't draw the color line. No reasonable offer for a bout with him will be turned down."

PLAYERS REINSTATED

Calibre of Sport of Big Four in Alberta Vastly Improved.

The reinstatement of the pro. players will improve the calibre of sport of the Big Four and keep hockey on the map for all time. It is true that Calgary has Allan Cup aspirations, but, as pointed out by President Dr. McDonald, of the Amateur Union of Canada, the eligibility of all players taking part in the competition will be determined by the trustees of that cup.

Alberta is now in a better position to start anew in the amateur field than any other province in the Dominion of Canada. This is the only province that has a clean slate and the only province where dissatisfaction, brought about by discrimination does not exist. When a general whitewash is applied, the Alberta governors feel that the most satisfactory adjustment of the whole situation is to issue cards to all applicants and in order to secure a guarantee of their good faith, the Alberta union has required all athletes, applying for reinstatement, to take an affidavit that they will abide by the amateur rules for all time.

SEPARATOR DEFEATED THE CRESCENTS

Last night at the Water street alleys in the De Laval Ten-pin League the Separator bunch defeated the Crescents in three straight games. For the Separators, Barrette was high with 557. Lefave rolled the high single of 217. For the Crescents, Murray was high with 506.

LAWN BOWLERS TOOK TWO

Last night at the Water street alleys in the Five-pin League, the Lawn Bowlers won two from the Clerks. For the Lawn Bowlers Mayneord was high with 527. For the Clerks Robson was high with 515.

QUAKER OATS LEAGUE

Yesterday afternoon in the Quaker Oats Ten-pin League the Monarchs won two out of three games from the Buckeyes. For the Monarchs, Goodfellow was high with 465. Hunter was next with 402. For the Buckeyes, Butcher was high with 362.

WON FAME AS TRAITOR

HOUSTON STEWART CHAMBERLAIN HATES ENGLAND.

He Deserted the Country of His Birth and Became More German Than the Strongest Junker — Strange Career of Man Who Hated the Jews and the British.

HERR HOUSTON STEWART CHAMBERLAIN has again burst into the international limelight, on this occasion with a book advising the Roumanians to continue in their refusal to grant citizenship to the Jews. Roumania has so far declined to sign the Peace Treaty, because one of the provisions is that full rights of citizenship shall be granted to "ethnical minorities," which is diplomatic language in the case of Roumania for the Jews. A similar stumbling block appeared at the Congress of Berlin in 1878, when Roumania, before her full independence could be recognized by the Great Powers, was called upon to give the Roumanian Jews the same rights as other Roumanians. This was done, according to Herr Chamberlain, at the instance of "the Jew Disraeli." [illegible] grudgingly submitted and nominally the Jews can obtain full citizenship, just as nominally the negroes can vote in Alabama and Texas. Practically, the Jews cannot obtain full citizenship, so many difficulties being thrown in their way that the promise given the Berlin Congress is "kept to the ear and broken to the heart." It requires a special vote of the Legislature for each application, a two-third majority being required, and to remove this injustice was one of the minor aims of the Peace Conference. So far Roumania remains obdurate.

In the early days of the war one of the most detested names in the British Dominions was that of Houston Stewart Chamberlain, the English renegade, who became more German than Hindenburg, more bitter than Lissauer. His story is a remarkable one. He was born in England of English ancestry back to the time of the Norman Conquest. For generations his forbears had been military or naval officers. His father was a rear admiral, and his mother the daughter of a naval captain. Two of his uncles were generals, another was a field marshal. He himself was intended for the army and was sent to get his training at the Lycee Imperial at Versailles, and later at Cheltenham College. There can be little doubt that if his health had not given way he would have become a British officer and probably would have upheld the staunch military traditions of his family. But he suffered a nervous collapse, and became almost a semi-invalid. It was feared that his health would not stand the rigors of an English climate, and so he was sent abroad to live.

A tutor was engaged and he turned out to be a fine specimen of pan-Germanism, one who believed that it was the ultimate mission of Germany first to conquer, then to rule the earth. How it was that young Chamberlain fell so speedily and completely under the influence of his tutor is for neurologists to explain. Fall he did. He almost worshipped his tutor, and incidentally began to worship the doctrine he preached with regard to Germany. He, too, became a German at heart and changed his spiritual allegiance in a way that would be impossible, one would think, for more than two people out of a million. Ruth's devotion to Naomi was a half-hearted and qualified surrender to the allegiance that Chamberlain brought to Germany through his tutor. He continued to live abroad, chiefly in Germany, and his great ambition was that he might live long enough to write and speak the German language so that he might pass for a German; his chief regret was that he had no German blood in his veins. His only comfort was that Britain had sprung partly, at least, from Teutonic stock; and whatever drop of blood from this source might flow in his veins he valued more than all the rest. Chamberlain was an industrious student, and in time his ambition was gratified. He became not only a German, but a leading German.

Herr Chamberlain's first book was "Foundations of the Nineteenth Century," in which considerable scholarship and much enthusiasm were employed to spread the favored doctrine of Germany's high destiny. Incidentally it had a strong anti-Jewish slant throughout. Other works in similar vein followed.

If ever a man was loyal to an adopted country, Houston Stewart Chamberlain was loyal to Germany. He did not take the view that Russia or France was responsible for the war. The one arch-fiend was England, and once more this doctrine preached by a former Englishman had quite as much effect in Germany as had the book "J'Accuse" among the Allies. He testified that on the occasion of his last visits to the land of his birth he had been amazed at the hatred of Germany everywhere displayed. He had no doubt that England, even in 1908, was planning for the downfall of his adopted Fatherland. His war writings were passionate defences of Germany from every charge whatever, and bitter denunciations of England. His anti-Semitism also found a twig to perch on on the course of these outpourings. He explained that England had been poisoned against Germany by the Jews. He pointed triumphantly to the fact that the German Jews had as one man taken up arms to fight for Germany, that the war test found them Jews second and Germans first.

Modern shorthand had its birth in the publication of Dr. Timothy Bright's "characterie" in 1857, the first English work on shorthand.

Silverite a New Metal.

A new development in the alloying of aluminum with other metals has just been accomplished by the production of "silverite." This metal is something entirely new and is composed of a mixture of aluminum and copper, zinc and steel in varying proportions, according to requirements. The alloying of steel with aluminum is somewhat startling and at first thought seems to be impossible, yet it is successful.

Ports on Chilean Coast Line.

Chile has a long coast line which extends from about 18 degrees to 56 degrees south latitude. The so-called continental section of Chile extends from approximately the eighteenth to the forty-second parallel, while the insular or archipelago section extends from the forty-second to the fifty-sixth parallel. In this long stretch of coast there are numerous ports.

DO INSECTS THINK?

They Do and the Honey Bee Proves It.

Certain insects are rated as intellectuals—the ant, the bee, the cockroach, and eke that old and too-intimate friend of ours, the bedbug.

They've got brains. Nor is this merely a figure of speech. The mosquito, an undeniably clever insect, possesses a recognizable brain; and so likewise does the housefly, which, though it neither toils like the ant nor spins like the caterpillar, is probably the smartest of the whole bunch.

The nervous system of a caterpillar is a mere thread along which is strung a series of tiny knots of nerve-stuff. One finds the same arrangement in a mosquito, but with a nerve-knot at one end expanded into a recognizable brain. The knots are called "ganglia."

It is much the same way with a human being. In a man the thread of nerve-stuff is represented by the spinal cord. An enlargement of one end of the latter (speaking in rather crude terms) is the brain that does your thinking; and the box of bone which houses your mind-machine is a composite of several vertebrae at the top of your spine, expanded and modified in form to serve this important purpose. The intelligence of a spider, which is an arachnid, is more highy developed than that of an insect. Crabs and lobsters have fairly complex nervous systems, and must suffer frightfully when they are broiled or boiled alive; yet, because they cannot cry out, their frantic struggles under such torture excite no attention.

Even an oyster has a brain of a sort; and a clam likewise. The brains of fishes are very inferior, as compared with those of mammals, but the optic lobes are enormously developed, because finny creatures, to get the food they need, must be able to see well in dim light under water.

Reptiles generally are very stupid creatures, and so it is not surprising to find that their brains are remarkably small. That of a twelve-foot alligator is no bigger than your thumb.

It used to be imagined that thinking power had intimately to do with the complexity of the brain convolutions. But this is surely not a fact, for the brain of an elephant is more complex in this respect than that of a man; and the same is true of a whale's brain. The whale and the elephant seem to require more convolutions because they are such huge animals. It is a motor question for enormous bulks.

The Brave General.

Lights and noise were tabu, but there was some verbal expression of thought in undertones. The column was slogging forward the night before the attack on the St. Mihiel salient. "Wonder where we're bound for now?" spoke one doughboy during a momentary check. "I dunno," replied a voice in the dark, "but I heard an officer say it was Metz." "Huh! Metz?" "Sure—and he said the general meant to take it if it cost a hundred thousand lives." Silence for about five seconds; then—"Liberal son of a gun, ain't he?"

Devonshire House to Disappear

SO Devonshire House is to go the way of kings' palaces. When the beautiful iron gates, in the long stretch of brick wall, blackened by generations of London smoke, in spite of the Green Park opposite, have disappeared; when the quiet courtyard, where for decades the sparrows have mocked the pigeons, has been built over; when the stately Georgian house, stately not by magnificence but by its very simplicity and perfection of line and proportion, has been pulled down, London will be all the poorer. Thus the tide of commerce ever flowing north and south, east and west, reaches, in turn, one after another of the great buildings of the past or even the humble houses of history. Yesterday it was Boswell's House, in Soho; to-day Devonshire House, Piccadilly; to-morrow it may be Gough Square or the Tower. Progress, says Herbert Spencer, is not an accident, it is a necessity, it is part of nature. Which truism is [illegible] a philosophic discovery of the first magnitude. [illegible] one could wish that it did not generally necessitate the replacing of the taste of masters by that of journeymen.

Two hundred years ago Devonshire House was the last house in Piccadilly passed by the coaches and posting chaises worming their way out of London by the great West Road. To-day the sea of slates and bricks has poured past it, engulfing manor houses and parish churches, surging round village greens and farmyards, rushing up hills and flooding valleys, and sweeping over heaths which once were the happy hunting ground of highwaymen. When the present Devonshire House was built, and that was about the year of grace 1737, a string of mean shops and statuary yards fringed Piccadilly, westward as far as Hyde Park Corner, where a bell summoned pedestrians bound for the village of Kensington, sunk amidst its hawthorne hedges, to collect and proceed together as a safeguard against highwaymen. By the bridge over the Westbourne, at the hamlet of Knightsbridge, there was at least one villainous inn frequented by gentlemen of the road, and the whole neighborhood was suspect to the "Runners." Nowadays the Westbourne, renamed the Serpentine, flowing miserably underground in an iron pipe, passes through the roof of Sloane Square Station, and so reaches the Thames at Chelsea.

A like fate has overtaken the Eastbourne, which once ran through the dip in Piccadilly so that every time the duke drove out of Devonshire House, he must have crossed the bridge here on his road westward; and a terrible road it was, knee-deep in mud as it approached the Westbourne, along which snipe and woodcock built their nests in numbers. It was a dangerous road in every way, only kept moderately safe, after nightfall, by patrols of the dragoons. One evening Horace Walpole in his dining room, in Arlington street, is disturbed by the shouting after a highwayman who has just stopped a chaise, at his very door; another evening, George Grenville, at dinner in his house in Bolton street, sees a highwayman, who has just stopped a coach in [illegible] gallop, and escape by riding the horse down the steps into the little paved alley between the gardens of Devonshire and Lansdowne houses, which be it said was once the bed of the Eastbourne. In token of which an iron bar divides the entrance, unto this day: a very notable instance of closing the stable door after the loss of the horse.

When Kent was building the duke's garden wall and the mansion on the other side of it, the long consulate of Sir Robert Walpole was gliding into its last stormy years. Coming one day to call, at what was soon to become a great Whig fastness, he found the duke out, and wrote in the visitors' book,

> "Ut dominus domus est; non extra fulta columnis > Marmoreis splendet; quod tenet, intus habet."

There you have the gap between the eighteenth century and the twentieth. Imagine Mr. Lloyd George going to call at Devonshire House to-day, and delivering himself offhand of a Latin epigram to the effect that the splendor of the marble columns of the mansion was equalled only by the personal virtues of its owner. Fifty years later the courtyard of the house witnessed the final scene in the famous Westminster election. The Court, the Ministry, the Treasury, had bent their efforts to keep Fox out of Parliament. The issue hung in the balance, when the Duchess of Devonshire went out to canvass in his behalf. It might be said that [illegible] and in later days was used to declare that the most perfect compliment she ever was paid, and their name certainly was legion, came from an Irish laborer who, in return for his vote, asked only to be permitted to light his pipe from the fire of her beautiful eyes.

For some couple of centuries, the stately house has witnessed a succession of such scenes. Seven kings have ruled in England since it was built, and seven dukes have seen the pageant of English history pass its gates. A wonderful pageant even if confined only to that one London street. And now it is to fall into the hands of the housebreaker, and Piccadilly will mourn its loss.

Conan Doyle's Bull.

Speaking of bulls, Conan Doyle wrote, recommending a certain dictionary, "I once amused myself trying to find words which were not in it, but I didn't succeed."

Distilled Water In Batteries.

A good deal of ignorance is abroad as to why nothing but distilled water should be used in storage cells. All water but distilled water contains mineral matter in solution, and although this may be small in quantity, as the water evaporates the mineral matter is left behind and all that ever enters the cell remains there. It is obvious, therefore, that the amount of mineral matter in solution constantly increases. Very soon the concentration becomes so great that the mineral salts are deposited on the plates of the cells. Electrolytic action then begins between the salts and the plates, with the result that the framework of the plates is eaten away and the life of the cell destroyed. The energy wasted in the process, too, is considerable.

Some people have the idea that boiling the water helps, but boiled water is worse than unboiled, for in the boiling the concentration of mineral matter in solution is only increased. Therefore, avoid the use of any but pure distilled water in filling storage cells.—Popular Science Monthly.

WE HAVE
Large Pea Coal
FOR KITCHEN RANGES
WILL DO WORK OF NUT COAL
At $1.50 Per Ton Less
Also a limited quantity of Nut and Stove Coal
Order At Once Before It Is All Gone
LOW & Co.
Office—343 Simcoe St.
Office Phone 697 House 396

LUMBER
Builders, Materials of all kinds, Shingles, Scantlings, Joist and Stuff, Mouldings, Castings, Base and all kinds of Finish, Boxes and Box Shooks, Slabs and Mill Wood.
Alf. McDonald Estat

Children s Aid Society
—of—
Peterborough City and County
FOR THE CARE OF NEGLECTED AND ILL-TREATED CHILDREN
G. W. POWELL
Asst. Secretary and Inspector.
Office, 388 George St. Phone 1044
Office Hours: 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p.m.

MIXED WOOD
$7.00 Per Cord
Cutting and Splitting extra.
ORDER NOW
FROM
J. E. A. FITZGERALD
Phone 111

SCORES OF EXCELSIOR FIVE PIN GAMES AT Y

Following are the scores of the Excelsior Five Pin League at the Y.M.C.A. last night:

McCracken	126	152	222
Thorndyke	149	171	110
Hamilton	125	217	197
Pidgeon (Capt.) ...	182	177	147
	582	717	616
Spencer	161	184	150
Peters	148	133	113
Carlisle	[illegible]	129	90
Leggett (Capt.) ...	[illegible]	85	105
	540	531	458
Coon, H. (Capt.) ...	127	109	100
Buck, C	103	130	76
Wellwood, E.	121	138	75
Graham, C.	144	120	123
Copp, L.	162	120	238
	657	627	621
McGee (Capt.)	117	139	174
McBride	143	134	100
Hallowell	202	105	177
Robertson	160	160	96
Fulford	149	114	121
	771	652	668

DEADLOCK CONTINUES

St. John, N. B., Dec.3 The harbor deadlock continues with little sign of agreement on the wage question between the freight handlers and the C. P. R.

Private Christmas Cards
⁂
The Review

Nothing makes a more suitable Christmas gift than a nicely printed Greeting Card. We have a full line of samples for you to choose from and the prices are within the reach of all. These cards printed with your name and address come as low as $1.25 per dozen.

They are all nicely printed and some have hand-painted pictures. Envelopes are included with each order.

But in order to ensure delivery in good time for Christmas mailing they should be ordered now. Don't delay — call in and inspect our samples now. They are sure to please you.

TRINITY CHURCH

TO-NIGHT ~~8 o'clock~~ ~~UNION MEETING OF THE CHURCHES ON BEHALF~~ of the FORWARD MOVEMENT
MRS. GEO. H. KING Will Sing. REPRESENTATIVE ~~LAYMEN~~ WILL SPEAK

TRINITY CHURCH

~~ARE YOU NEAR OR FAR SIGHTED~~

~~It's just possible you may not know, yet for your eyes sake, you should. We furnish right glasses for wrong eyes.~~

~~W. H. LALEY,~~
~~OPTICAL SPECIALIST~~
~~410 GEORGE STREET~~
~~OPEN WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS~~

DISTRICT AND LOCAL NEWS

GEORGE STREET CHOIR.

Practice Thursday at 8 p.m. sharp. Anniversary and Christmas cantata. Please bring copies. Ladies' double quartette at 7:40.

WANTED.

Girls for package department. Must be over sixteen years of age. GOOD WORK, GOOD WAGES. COMFORTABLE WORKROOMS. Apply Employment Bureau,

The Quaker Oats Company

~~BICYCLES STORED~~

~~As usual we store [illegible] wheels free of [illegible] the winter months [illegible] wheel to be cleaned [illegible] A Bicycle overhauled [illegible] each year outlasts three [illegible] neglected. Do not [illegible] work to amateurs. [illegible] Bicycle [illegible] 225 Hunter street [illegible] Phone 1346.~~

PETERBORO BRANCH 8TH C.M.R.

All members are requested to attend the emergency meeting to be held this evening in the G.W.V.A. hall at 7:45. It will be to the interest of all members to attend this meeting.

PETERBOROUGH CLINIC
300 CHARLOTTE STREET
PETERBOROUGH

Organized by Dr. E. V. Frederick, late of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for team work in diagnosis and treatment of disease on the Mayo System, especially chronic and surgical conditions.

STAFF

Dr. W. T. Harrison: Senior Consultant.
Dr. E. V. Frederick: Senior Surgeon.
Dr. F. Def. Free: Diseases of Blood and Nervous System.
Dr. J. E. Middleton, 404 Water St. Diseases of the Teeth and Gums.

~~CONSERVATORY LYCEUM COURSE~~

~~The second event of the Lyceum Course, Sidney Landon on "Speaking Likenesses of Great Men," to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at Conservatory Hall. General admission 75 cents.~~

VITAL STATISTICS.

For the month of November of this year the Peterborough records show that there were 38 births, 29 deaths and 14 marriages.

For the same month last year there were 40 births, 3 deaths and 214 marriages.

A comparison shows a slight decrease for November of this year in mortalities, and also a decrease in the birthrate.

~~WOOD FOR SALE~~

~~We still have a small quantity of that dry short cut mixed wood, which is selling at $5 the team load. Order quickly from The Peterborough Lumber Co., Ltd., 163 Hunter street. Phone 545.~~

~~A GRAFONOLA FOR CHRISTMAS~~

~~Greene's December Grafonola Club offers the best opportunity to fill the home with music in an easy way. Greene Music Store, Charlotte street.~~

~~NOTICE.~~

~~The regular monthly meeting of the Peter Robinson Chapter, I. O. D. E., will be held in the Public Library on Thursday, December 4th, at 7:30, instead of Friday.~~

South Hastings Dairymen found the season just closing the best year in the history of the cheese industry.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. C. Bannon, of Toronto, has returned to Toronto after visiting with friends in the city.

Miss Wilson, of Hamilton, has been visiting with friends in the city.

Mr. C. H. Mills, of Toronto, was a Peterborough guest over the week-end.

Mrs. Frank Ellis and Miss Florence Scott sang and Miss Dorothy Stewart played at the Y. W. C. A. Bazaar, last night.

Mr. Leonard, of Toronto, was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Miss Alice Logan, of New York, has returned home after an extended visit with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lundy and little daughter have left for London to spend Christmas with Mrs. Lundy's parents.

Mrs. Payton and little daughter have been visiting friends in Keene.

Mrs. H. Doolittle, of Manton, Michigan, and Master Rigby Leighton, of Detroit; left for their homes this morning after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Crane, Roger street.

REGULAR MEETING OF GEORGE ST. LADIES' AID

That the spirit of Christmas is already with us was witnessed yesterday afternoon when the women of George Street Methodist Church Ladies' Aid assembled for the regular monthly meeting in the parlor of the church, which had been tastefully decorated by the young women of Mrs. Stubbs' class.

It being the Christmas meeting, the tone of the addresses, reports of committees, etc., impressed those present with the greatness of the theme, "Peace on Earth, Good-will Towards Men."

Since the last report the society held an old-fashioned tea-meeting and concert in the church, a detailed report of which was given by Mrs. S. R. Armstrong. Considering the counter attractions of the evening the ladies are to be congratulated on the decided success, financially, as otherwise, that attended the occasion, and the support the received from all branches and societies in the church, encourages them to even greater efforts for future events of this kind.

The "travelling baskets" referred to in the last report, having reached their destination, considerable curiosity was shown as to the effect their return would produce on the treasury. Latest reports have shown that the idea has produced very satisfactory results.

During the meeting, Mrs. Renwick sang very acceptably "The Gift."

Talks on timely topics by Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Armstrong were listened to with much interest. The former gave a very helpful reading and talk on one phase of the National campaign work, while Mrs. Armstrong gave a talk on the subject of Christmas, which should make the season mean more to those present. This concluded the general meeting after which the social committee served light refreshments and a social half-hour was spent.

DISTRICT GATHERING OF METHODIST MEN

EXPECTED THAT ABOUT 300 MEN WILL ASSEMBLE IN PETERBORO, DEC. 10

Arrangements have been made for a gathering of the Methodist men of the Peterborough district on Wednesday, December 10, at the Reid street Sunday school hall of Trinity Church, this city. This will take the form of a banquet at 6:30, followed by addresses by Rev. Newton Powell, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, Toronto, and also a prominent layman. Dr. J. E. Middleton of Peterborough will act as chairman.

Every church and circuit of the district is being asked to send a large number of men to this gathering. It is expected there will be an attendance of at least three hundred. This banquet is in conection with the Methodist National Campaign and is for the purpose of deepening the interest in the great task of the church at this critical time.

The Toronto Presbytery yesterday decided to place the Presbyterian Church pulpits at the disposal of women, in order that they might lay their claims before the people.

SCHOLARSHIPS AT LOCAL COLLEGIATE

THOSE SUCCESSFUL IN CARRYING OFF THE HONORS AT JUNE EXAMINATIONS

The folowing is a list of the scholarships won at the final examinations of the Collegiate Institute last June:

Honor matriculations—$20, won by Helen Slogert.

Faculty entrance, part I—$20, won by Kathleen Thorndyke.

Middle school Normal entrance—$15, won by Madaline Stinson.

Lower school Normal entrance—$10, won by Douglas Shortley.

Junior matriculation—$15, won by Jean Elliott.

Faculty entrance, part II—$20, won by Isabel Baird.

This list was received by the Board of Education last night and the treasurer was authorized to pay the various amounts.

~~G.W.V.A. DANCE~~

~~The G. W. V. A. will hold an informal dance for members and their friends on Thursday evening, December 4. A good orchestra has been provided, and a dancing instructor will be on hand. Admission 25c.~~

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR SOLDIERS' CHILDREN

PLEASANT DUTY FALLS TO CITIZENS TO BRING HAPPINESS TO HUNDREDS OF THESE UNFORTUNATE ONES

With the approach of the Christmas season a pleasant duty falls upon the more prospercus citizens of this city. There are a great many children, some whose fathers fell in the great war, and others whose fathers are making a desperate effort to get back into civilian life, whose Christmas can not be cheered by the pretty toys and gifts from Santa Clause. There are bright children who are not in a position to enjoy the Christmas decorations and the Christmas tree because of the sacrifices their fathers made for their country and the cause of civilization.

It is a duty, and it should be a pleasant duty, for the more fortunate citizens to make some effort, some trifling sacrifice, to give these children a cheerful Christmas.

Last year a splendid entertainment was provided for these children. A supper was served, and a tree loaded down with gifts and decorations that brought unexpected delight to these unfortunate little ones.

Some of the prominent men of the city are starting a similar movement for this Christmas, although the tree and Christmas gifts might be sufficient without the supper, and would without a doubt bring gladness to the hearts of hundreds of these children, to whom the people owe a debt as much as to their fathers.

~~TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.~~

~~All accounts owing W. H. Clements & Sons, Jackson [illegible] Warsaw, must be paid by January 15th, 1920, as books will be handed to a collector on that date.~~

~~MELBA ON THE VICTROLA~~

~~Like all the great singers of the world, Melba, the beloved of three continents, an Australian by birth, makes records for the Victor Victrola only. Among the long list of productions of this great diva obtainable in the Victrola Parlors of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, are the following: Annie Laurie, Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms, Boheme, and Lo, Here the Gentle Lark.~~

Wkly 4

2/14

PETERBOROUGH CLUB AT-HOME

The Peterborough Club held a very enjoyable "at home" of their members last evening. About forty couples spent the evening playing bridge and were treated to several well-rendered vocal selections by Mr. Jack Smith.

Customs receipts for eight months ending with November were $7,029,406 greater than last year in the corresponding period.

Thomas Morgan Renner, one of the wealthiest farmers in the Niagara district, died at Jordan Station, aged ninety-two.

Andrew B. McDonnell, aged sixty-two, dropped dead at work in the car shop of the Algoma Central Railway at Sault Ste. Marie.

WEEK OF SERVICES ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

REV. DR. CHAFER WILL CONDUCT THE SERVICES—HERE TWO YEARS AGO

St. Paul's Church is to be favored by having Rev. Lewis Sperry Chafer, well-known Bible teacher, writer and evangelist, to conduct a week of meetings beginning next Lord's Day. The Session found that Dr. Chafer had a week to spare before taking up his next engagement and they invited him to conduct a week of pre-communion services. He conducted such a mission two years ago in St. Paul's, and in the afternoons gave a series of addresses on the spiritual life which have since been put into book form. A reviewer in the Sunday School Times has recently spoken of this book as the fullest and most satisfactory spiritual study of the victorious life that he knows, making crystal clear what holiness is according to God's word. It is a masterful study of a life lived in the fulness of the Spirit. Dr. Chafer will conduct two meetings each day, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening. His evening messages will be evangelistic. The Session have invited him to conduct these meetings as part of the program of the great Forward Movement and hence they give a cordial invitation to the public generally to attend. They are further arranging for two weeks of services to be held beginning with the week of prayer, and to be conducted by Rev. R. J. M. Glassford of Winchester.

MR. T. TOOMS REPORTS FROM CONVENTION

COALITION WILL SUPPORT 8-HOUR DAY IN CITIES BUT NOT IN COUNTRY

At a meeting of the Independent Labor party last night a statement of the campaign expenditures was read. It was anonunced that the campaign in West Peterborough cost less than that of any other riding.

Considerable discussion was raised on the question of starting a local Labor newspaper. The idea seems to meet with the approval of Labor, and it is understood that this organ will be started very shortly, although no definite action has as yet been taken.

Mr. T. Tooms, M.L.A., also gave an address describing his trips to Toronto and Hamilton and the efforts being made to organize Labor and the U.F.O. The point was raised at the joint convention about how the two parties could reach an agreement on the eight-hour day. Finally it was agreed, stated Mr. Tooms, to advocate the eight-hour day in the cities but not in the rural districts.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Interesting Ceremonies at Royal Arthur Lodge Masons

The annual installation of officers of Royal Arthur Lodge, A.F. & A.M., No. 523, G.R.C., took place Monday afternoon at 5.30 in the Masonic Temple, corner of Hunter and Water streets. The ceremonies were conducted by the Installing Master, Wor. Bro. E. L. Goodwill, assisted by Wor. Bro. F. H. Dawson and Wor. Bro. A. Weddell.

Following are the new officers:

Wor. Bro. C. E. Smith—W. M.
Wor. Bro. E. B. Fowler—I. P. M.
Bro. W. R. Breyfogle—S. W.
Bro. George Haley—J. W.
Wor. Bro. W. A. Logan—Secretary
Rt. Wor. Bro. John Crane—Treasurer.
Rt. Wor. Bro. H. R. H. Kenner—Chaplain.
Bro. C. K. Lech—S. D.
Bro. G. Q. Cameron—J. D.
Bro. C. B. Adair—I. G.
Wor. Bro. J. G. M. Wilson—D. of C.
Bro. R. H. Ross—S. S.
Bro. J. W. Miller—J. S.
Bro. A. A. Smith—Organist
Bro. Robt. Matchett—Tyler

Immediately after the installation the officers and members retired to the lodge dining room, where the annual banquet was served. There were many visiting brethren present from out of town and from the sister lodges, Corinthian and Peterborough. The entertainment consisted of the usual toast list and vocal numbers by our Rt. Wor. Bro. John Crane, Wor. Bro. Morphet, Bro. Carlisle and Bro. Henry.

BANQUET TO RETURNED SOLDIERS BY CONGREGATION OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Y. W. C. A. BAZAAR A HUGE SUCCESS

TASTEFULLY DECORATED BOOTHS AND ATTRACTIVE OFFERINGS—GOOD PANTOMINE

The Young Women's Christian Association held a very successful bazaar and concert yesterday afternoon and evening in their local club rooms.

A very tastefully displayed tea room was also among the attractions provided by the young ladies, Miss A. Myers and Miss R. Langford being in charge. The tables and rooms were decorated in red and a very harmonious color scheme was the result.

Behind the tea room were the booths. The business girls' class were in charge of the candy booth, the three fancy work booths being in charge of the house girls, the advance gymnasium class and the Athena Club. The junior school girls had a very attractive handkerchief booth, while the senior school girls, with their booth of dolls and the home-made candy booth of the married ladies' class were also much to be admired.

Miss W. McIlmore took the part of Santa Claus.

The pantomine reproduced by the Campers League, entitled, "Wild Nell the Pet of the Plains," met with great success.

Miss Pryce, the physical director of the Y.W.C.A. gave two exhibitions of [illegible] dancing, which were received with much applause by the large audience.

~~RUPTURE EXPERT HERE~~

~~Seeley, Famous in This Specialty, Called to Peterborough.~~

~~F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Empress Hotel and will remain in Peterborough Thursday only, December 4. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast improvement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatment or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call, he will be glad to show same without charge, or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.~~

~~P. S.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. Seeley.~~

~~GILMOUR MEMORIAL BAPTISTS CHURCH~~

~~Anniversary services will be held in the above on Sunday and Monday, 7th and 8th, Dec., when the Rev. W. T. Graham, D.D., of First Avenue Baptist Church will be the preacher both morning and evening, and the lecturer on Monday evening. The title of his wonderful lecture is "A First Century Message to Twentieth Century Christians." The ladies of the church will serve supper from 6.00 till 7.30. Admission to supper, performance and lecture 50c.~~

COMRADE JACKSON IS LAID TO REST

MILITARY FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON—SERVICES CONDUCTED BY CANON DAVIDSON.

The funeral of the late William Jackson took place from the G. W. V. A. Hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Canon Davidson, chaplain to the G.W.V.A., the cortege leaving the hall after the service for interment in Little Lake Cemetery.

The pallbearers, who were all privates from the 93rd Battalion, of which unit the deceased was an original member, were Comrades E. W. Williams, L. McBarr, L. Gibson, L. Leaver, W. Farr, W. A. Layfield and E. H. Wilson.

Sergeant-at-Arms A. Sharp sounded the Last Post at the graveside.

Comrade Jackson was well known in Peterborough, having worked here for a number of years before enlisting with the 93rd for service overseas. He saw service with a Canadian forestry unit and returned to Canada on board the SS. Cassandra in May of this year, being finally discharged at Kingston on May 15. As far as known, a sister in London, England, is the only surviving relative.

Attendance of Four Hundred Enjoyed A Delightful Evening—Under Auspices of Ladies' Aid Society.

One of the most successful functions of its kind took place last night in the Sunday School room of St. Paul's Church, when a banquet for returned soldiers and their friends was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's.

About 400 were present to partake of the sumptuous banquet, and to enjoy the delightful evening's entertainment which followed. The hall was most artistically decorated for the occasion, in a unique and attractive design of yellow and white brass candle sticks of a golden hue and large yellow crysantheums decorated the tables, while the lights were shaded in yellow. This produced an effect which was truly charming and drew forth many comments from the guests. The long centre table was reserved for soldiers and their friends, each of the other tables being filled twice. The variety of good things which lined the tables certainly reflected credit on the culinary ability of the ladies, as the most penurious epicure could not help but be pleased with such a choice of chicken, ham, turkey, jellies, pickles and cake and pie of every variety.

After tea the guests repaired to the church when they were treated to a program of highly instructive and entertaining excellence.

Rev. Mr. Poole occupied the chair in a most efficient manner. Rev. Mr. Rollins and Mr. R. R. Hall rendered illuminating addresses, keeping with the occasion, at times addressing their remarks to the soldiers in particular and again touching on subjects of general interest. The singers of the evening, all of whom acquitted themselves in a creditable manner, were Miss Florence Scott, Mr. Herb Rush, Mr. Humpage, Miss Telgmann favored the audience with a number of beautiful violin selections, while Miss Muriel Harvey gave a recitation, which was much appreciated. Mr. Tattersall, accompanist of the evening, rendered some very pleasing organ solos.

Mr. Jack McNabb replied on behalf of the soldiers in a appropriate address, tendering their thanks to the Ladies' Aid, expressing their pleasure on the occasion.

The gathering dispersed with the memory of a very happy evening.

The claims of Brig.-Gen. King to the Chairmanship of the Timiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway Commission were presented to the Provincial Goverament yesterday.

French Ivory

In your selection of gifts by all means consider French Ivory—the most beautiful of all toilet ware.

Every lady of refined taste desires to possess a complet set.

Let us show you our attractive assortment.

Warne Drug Co., Ltd.
351 George Street

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

ROLAND BESTARD

has resumed Automobile and Motor Truck Repairing

207 SIMCOE ST.

All work personally attended to. Stewart and Warner Speedometer Repairs and Parts.

PHONE 1364

SINGING DOLLS - AND ANIMALS -

This is a splendid gift for a child in homes where there is a phonograph. To the figure of the doll or animal is attached a record to be played on any needle machine.

BUBBLE BOOK

These have a nursery tale, in which there are three different records, to be played at the point in the story to which they are attached. They please the children greatly.

New Song-"Mother's Lullaby"

The latest and sweetest air in a long time. Everybody wants one when they hear it. Just in

The J. M. Greene Music Co., Ltd.
"The Home of Good Music" Charlotte St.

WISE OLD BEN

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said: "It is a strange anomaly that men should be careful to insure their houses, their merchandise, and yet neglect to insure their lives—surely the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

BE CONSISTENT AND INSURE IN

THE DOMINION LIFE

In that Supreme Test of Merit—SURPLUS EARNED ON ASSETS, this Company has no peer, and its Actual Results Paid to Policyholders are Unexcelled.

Established 1889
HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

P. A. FERGUSON, Manager Central Ontario
JAMES A. POGUE, City Agent

Moderate to fresh southwest to [illegible] winds, fair and moderately [illegible] today and on [illegible].

The Daily Review

8 PAGES

[illegible] YEAR No. [illegible] Peterborough's Oldest Newspaper. PETERBOROUGH, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1919. Price Two Cents per Copy.

U.S. CLOSE TO WAR WITH MEXICO

GERMANS TO BE MADE TO SIGN

SUPREME COUNCIL TAKES UP REFUSAL OF HUN RE-PROTOCOL

FORM OF NOTE UNDER DISCUSSION

REPARATION TO BE DEMANDED FOR VESSELS SUNK IN SCAPA FLOW

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Dec. 4.—The Supreme Council spent the greater part of today's session discussing the attitude of Germany towards the signing of the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect, Germany's representatives having declared they could not sign it in its present form, including the provision for reparation for the German warships sunk at Scapa Flow and other features objectionable to them. The form of the note to Germany on this question was considered but no final decision reached.

It is anticipated that the reply to the German note re the Scapa Flow [illegible] presentations as to the consequences of further resistance. The Council decided to give small powers possessing sea coasts a few of the smaller German torpedo boats.

ITALIAN SOLDIERS WILL OCCUPY FIUME UNDER TREATY OF LONDON

British, French and American Representatives Have Reached Agreement by Which it is Hoped Adriatic Question is Solved—Revolutionary Outbreaks Reported in Italy

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 4.—The Italian regulars will occupy Fiume and the territory included in the treaty of London signed in 1915 by representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia, according to a Rome despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio's volunteers will withdraw from Fiume, it is said, under the terms of an agreement arrived at as a result of negotiations between London and Paris.

Question Is Solved.

An agreement which it is hoped will solve the Adriatic question has been prepared in Paris by the British, French and American peace representatives for submission to Italy, according to private despatches. Clemenceau and Under Secretary of State Polk are said to have signed the agreement, and it is understood that Great Britain is prepared to sign, upon which the agreement will be handed over to the Italian plenipotentiary in Paris.

Disorders in Italy.

Berne, Dec. 4.—Disorders at various places in Italy have assumed a revolutionary aspect, according to advices received here. During a Turin demonstration Lt.-Col. Rossi was seriously stabbed in the back and fifteen others injured.

PLANTS FORCED TO CLOSE DOWN

COAL SITUATION IN PITTSBURG DISTRICT MORE SERIOUS THAN EVER

CURTAILMENT OF FUEL ORDERED

PERMITS TO ISSUE TO RAILROADS AND GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS ONLY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Tsburgh, Dec. 4.—Fuel situation in this direction took on a more serious aspect today when Federal Fuel Administration officials ordered a curtailment of the coal supply to many industries. Coal permits will virtually only be issued to railroads, Federal, State and County departments, public utilities and retail stores. It is believed that the supplies of many industrial concerns will soon be exhausted, forcing many to close down. Reports today indicated that practically all mines in the Central and Western Pennsylvania fields remained closed.

ALDERMAN McINTYRE'S CAMPAIGN FOR MAYOR OFFICIALLY LAUNCHED

Committee Appointed at Last Night's Meeting of Trades Council to Set Machinery in Motion—Engineers' Club Has Candidate For Utilities Commission.

Ald. McIntyre's campaign for the mayoralty was formally launched last night when at the meeting of the Trades Council Delegates Frost, McCabe and Humber were named by President Bolwell as a committee to set the machinery in motion. Ald McIntyre was at the meeting and made a short address in which he reaffirmed his fidelity to the cause and declared his willingness to rely on his record while a member of the Council.

It was stated by one of the delegates on behalf of Ald. McIntyre, a statement especially significant coming after the occurrence at the Council session on Monday night, that the alderman was the first contractor in the city to give the carpenters employed by him the union scale of wages, 67½ cents an hour.

It was decided to withhold the names of Labor's candidates for the City Council, the Utilities Commission and the School Board until the next meeting, two weeks hence, so as not to give the opposing forces any undue advantage. The delegates believe in a short whirlwind campaign.

Candidate for Utilities Commission.

C. E. Sisson, a member of the Engineers' Club, is a candidate for one of the two vacant places on the Utilities Commission, and a deputation of his friends attended the meeting last night to ask for Labor's support on his behalf. It was decided to have the campaign committee meet Mr. Sisson and ascertain how far he was willing to accept the Labor platform. This raised the discussion as to whether the Council should endorse union men only or extend its support to desirable candidates outside the ranks of Organized Labor. There was a difference of opinion, although the majority seemed to favor the idea of supporting only union men while these were available.

President Bolwell and Delegate H. M. Mathews were appointed a committee to confer with a committee from the Independent Labor party on the proposition to establish a Labor paper in the city.

The Trades Council of St. Thomas has nominated W. J. Sanderson of [illegible] on the Hydro Commission, and this choice was endorsed by the local Council last night.

"The Committee of Twenty."

"What is this committee of twenty that we hear so much about and which is assuming to elect a mayor and council out of hand?" asked a delegate. He was refrred to the Board of Trade for information.

Outgrown Small Room.

The attendance at the meetings of the Trades Council has increased to such an extent that it has been found necessary to assemble in a larger room at Labor Hall.

UNITED STATES IS NEAR WAR

SENATE DISCUSSES THE CRITICAL STAGE OF SITUATION WITH MEXICO

SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

AND WITHDRAWS RECOGNITION OF MEXICAN REPUBLIC BY THE AMERICANS

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Dec. 4.—The Senate foreign relations committee will today take up Senator Falls' resolution for the withdrawal of American recognition of the Carranza government and the severance of diplomatic relations. The prevailing impression is that the committee will report favorably on the resolution, probaly after considerable discussion.

Democrats Counsel Moderation.

The Administration senators are opposing the motion on the ground that its passage at this time would prove embarrassing to the State Department now trying to adjust the difficulties by diplomatic means. The [illegible] clare, would precipitate a crisis by inflaming the Mexican government against the United States.

Gives President Free Hand.

Senator Hitchcock introduced a substitute resolution in committee which besides authorizing the President to break diplomatic relationship with Mexico, would pledge the support of Congress to him in any subsequent actions he might decide upon.

[illegible] Labor, St. Thomas, has been arrested on a charge of breaking into the Star Theatre, and stealing $40.

ANOTHER REMAND IN THE BAGLEY CASE

MR. F. D. KERR SECURES AN ENLARGEMENT OF FAMOUS CASE FOR TEN DAYS

J. G. Guise-Bagley, at the request of his solicitor, Mr. F. D. Kerr, was sent up on another remand this morning. The crown was prepared to go on with the cases of theft and the criminal charge, but Mr. Kerr submitted that on account of the recent sittings of the High Court and the County Court next week, he had not had time to prepare his defense as thoroughly as the seriousness of the case required.

The crown and court consented to an adjournment and the Bagley case will probably be tried on Monday, Dec. 19th, after several enlargements.

The public interest in this case was shown by the large number who found time to leave their work and line the spectator's benches.

COUNTY COURT OPENS TUESDAY WITH LONG LIST OF CIVIL CASES

The December sittings of the fall court opens Tuesday with seven jury cases and one non-jury civil case to be tried. The cases are as follows:

Welch vs. Perrin.

In this case the plaintiff, Wm. J. Welch, submits that the defendant, Jennie Perrin, did falsely and maliciously, and in the hearing of several persons, call him such things as a murderer, liar, beast, bruit, mean common trash, etc. The plaintiff submits that the defendant, by reason of those allegations, attempted to injure the plaintiff in credit and reputation. He claims $500 damages and his cost of the action.

The defendant denies ever having uttered these words and of she ever did say any words to that effect they were heard only by the plaintiff. She submits that the plaintiff suffered no injuries in any way whatever.

Gordon and O'Brien for the plaintiff and Peck, Kerr and McElderry for the defendant.

Whatman vs. Dupran.

In this case to be heard before a jury the plaintiff, Russel Whatman, claims that through the negligence of his landlady and defendant, Margaret Dupran, his small son, Frederick Leonard, was drowned.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant neglected to place a covering over a cistern at the back of the premises occupied and rented by him. He further alleges that it was through the carelessness of the defendant in leaving a door on the premises open that the child was drowned.

He claims $500 and his cost for the action.

The defendant claims that she provided the lumber for the plaintiff to fit the open cistern but he used it for his own use. She claims no negligence on her part and issues a counter claim for eight months' rent ($64) and $5 for the lumber provided.

Moore and Wearing for the plaintiff and Peck, Kerr and McElderry for the defendant.

Feely vs. City.

This is the one non-jury case. In this the plaintiff, Amos Feely, an

(Continued on page four)

SEND ANARCHISTS HOME

United States Will Deport Them to Soviet Russia

New York, Dec. 5.—Families of anarchists are to be deported with them to Soviet Russia, according to a telegram received by Harry Weinberger, counsel for Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, from Anthony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration.

ADMIRAL IN TROUBLE

Will Be Tried in High Court For Treason to Italy.

Rome, Dec. 4.—The Council of Ministers has had under consideration the question of the status of Admiral Millo, commander of the Italian forces in Dalmatia, who accepted at the hands of Gabriele D'Annunzio an appointment as "governor of Italian Dalmatia," which he later resigned. It was stated that the admiral would be tried before the high court.

Despatches from Zara, Admiral Millo's headquarters, declare that the population of the city desires to erect a monument in honor of the admiral.

LOCAL COAL SITUATION IS NOW REPORTED AS SERIOUS PROBLEM

Supply of Anthracite Now on Hand is Away Below What is Required and Prospects For Further Shipments Are Not Very Bright—Fuel Commission Prepare to Take Action.

The coal situation in the city is considered rather serious, especially as regards anthracite coal. While all dealers seem to be fairly well stocked with cannel coal and also with the small pea coal, they all admit that he anthracite and soft coal are sources of worry.

Mr. Low told a Review representative this morning that he had about four hundred tons of anthracite on hand, which isn't a week's supply, and it may be as late as February before another shipment of anthracite can be obtained, except for an odd carload from an outside market. As far as shipments direct from the mines are concerned, no help can be looked for from that quarter until the present strikes are settled.

Factories, churches, hotels, hospitals, schools and public institutions are fairly well stocked although the factories require 2,775 tons of bituminous coal and 250 tons of coke, the C. G. E. and the Auburn woolen mills requiring 1,500 tons of bituminous coal.

The hotels, churches and schools show a shortage of 620 tons of anthracite, which is practically a very small shortage when the number of the above institutions is taken into consideration.

The city fuel yard shows over a thousand tons of coal on hand.

Following is a tabulated report showing an approximate estimation of coal on hand in the city on the first of this month:

Buckwheat	322
Pea	943
Nut	1,263
Stove	363
Egg	1,226
Mine-run	207
Lumps	600
Cannel	210
Total	5,134

Mr. Joseph Wearing, as chairman of the municipal fuel commission, is endeavoring to call a meeting of the commission and the local dealers to discuss the situation some time today, when measures to facilitate a lessening the strain in the city will be dealt with.

HOME RULE BILL TO BE CARRIED OVER

BY SPECIAL RESOLUTION INTO NEXT SESSION OF BRITISH PARLIAMENT

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 4.—The Government measure dealing with the Irish problem will be ready for introduction early in the week after next, Lloyd George announced in the Commons today. The bill will be carried over into the next session, by special resolution, he said.

DEPARTMENT STORE EMPLOYES

In London Strike Today For Higher Wages

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, Dec. 4.—Three thousand assistants employed in the most important department stores of the west end went on strike this morning for an increase in pay, shorter hours and other concessions.

OIL MAGNATE LEAVES TWENTY MILLIONS

HENRY MORGAN TELFORD WAS PROMINENT IN STANDARD OIL

New York, Dec. 4.—Henry Morgan Tilford, prominent figure in the Standard oil company for a number of years, died last night. It is estimated that he leaves an estate of twenty millions.

LLOYD GEORGE DID NOT PROMISE HOME RULE

DENIED THAT HE GAVE PLEDGE TO STATES IN PARIS

London, Dec. 4.—Premier Lloyd George gave no pledge of any kind to the American representatives at the Peace Conference that in consideration of the question of Irish self-government not being dealt with by the conference the British Government would as soon as possible after the signature of the peace treaty settle the Irish question on a home rule basis.

This statement was made by Andrew Bonar Law, the Government's spokesman in the House of Commons, in reply to a question in the House yesterday.

CAUTIONS AGAINST ANY FALSE HOPES

AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE POLK HAS WORD WITH GERMAN'S CHIEF ENVOY

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Paris, Dec. 4.—Frank L. Polk, head of the United States delegation to the Peace Conference, in an interview with Baron Kurt Von Lersner, chief German representative, told him that Germany would not interpret as being in her favor of any delay that might be encountered in ratifying the Versailles treaty at Washington.

PREMIER DRURY NAMES SPEAKER

NELSON PARLIAMENT, OF PRINCE EDWARD IS SELECTED FOR HONOR

IS MEMBER OF LIBERAL PARTY

THIS WILL GIVE GOVERNMENT MAJORITY OF FOUR OVER ALL

Toronto, Dec. 4.—Premier Drury has announced that the Government would recommend Nelson Parliament Liberal member-elect for Prince Edward County as Speaker in the new legilature. It is not customary for any opposition to be offered by the house in an appointment of this kind, and the practice will in all probability be adhered to on this occasion. There is an allowance of $2,500 per annum attached to the Speakership, but as the office is not regarded as "one of emolument under the crown" Mr. Nelson's appointment will not necessitate him seeking re-election to legislature. Mr. Jamieson was Speaker in the Hearst administration.

Speaker-Elect's Statement

Nelson Parliament made the following statement after the premier's announcement that it was the intention of the Government to present his name for the Speakership when the Legislative Assembly meets:

"A short time ago a proposal was made to me on behalf of the Government to accept the Speakership of the Legislature. I assume that the proposal was made because only two members of the United Farmers' delegation in the assembly have had any experience as members. One, Mr. Bowman, has become a minister of the crown, the other, Mr. Widdifield sat through only one session before dissolution. I have been a member of the House for five sessions and from the point of view of the necessary experience am, I assume, qualified to fill the Speakership.

"I was elected for Prince Edward as a Liberal with United Farmers of Ontario endorsation and support. The platforms of the Liberals and United Farmers in the Legislature are so nearly alike that I feel no violence

(Continued on Page 4)

BROADWAY MAY BE PLUNGED IN DARKNESS TO CONSERVE COAL

Great White Way of New York is Engaging Attention of Fuel Commissioner Garfield—Other Steps Taken to Assure Supply of Fuel For Railroads.

New York, Dec. 4.—The Great White Way, by which the world knows Broadway, will continue to throw its long lurid glare into the night despite the suggestion of the Fuel Administrator, Dr. H. A. Garfield, so far as could be learned. No immediate steps for a shutdown of the electric signs have been made, and although it is possible that arrangements will be made to reduce the illumination of these signs from six or seven hours to two or three the Edison Company, which supplies the current for their operation, has made no plans to curtail illumination.

The wartime restrictions of coal, which limits the industries regarded as essential to five, are likely to affect New York very little, for the reason that the great bulk of the coal consumed here is anthracite, and of which there is on hand a normal supply for this time of the year. Should there be a sympathetic strike on the part of the "hard coal" miners, rumors of which have gone abroad in the anthracite producing regions, although no concerted movement to that end has been reported, conditions would become grave in this city, it is admitted.

Officials of the Edison Company intimated that to conserve the supply of anthracite coal a conference might be held soon with theatrical managers and electric sign advertisers to adopt a method of limited sign illumination to aid the Fuel Administration. It was suggested that the signs be lighted from a quarter to eight to a quarter of nine in the evening and later from half-past ten to half-past eleven.

A review of the coal situation in this district was made in the Grand Central Station by the regional Coal Committee, and it was said later that if the railroads, the first on the priority list, got their normal supply of soft coal they would require about half the present bituminous production. It is estimated that this production is about thirty-five per cent. of normal. This would leave, it was explained, about eighty to eighty-five per cent. of the industries which use bituminous coal dependent upon whatever could be spared from the anthracite supply.

A. T. Hardin, Eastern regional director of the Railroad Administration said last night the question of whether Broadway should go on a lightless schedule was injecting a trial matter into a serious problem.

According to Mr. Hardin, any order for curtailment of the coal supply reaching New York would come through an order from the Allegheny Regional Committee acting upon orders from the Fuel Administrator. The railroads which have terminals in New Jersey are not included in the Eastern district, he said.

A notice which contains the order of the Fuel Administrator in regard to wartime restrictions on coal, with instructions that it be given the widest publicity possible and posted in all railway stations, was issued yesterday from the Mr. Hardin's office.

At the office of J. W. Howe, No. 149 Broadway, successor to J. W. Searles as local representative of the Fuel Administrator, it was said yesterday that no steps had been taken to cut down the illumination in Broadway and other brightly lighted streets in the city, although such a course was possible shortly, it was intimated.

Local coal distributors said yesterday there was no cause for anxiety in regard to the supply of anthracite coal on hand. W. A. Marshall, president of the New York State Wholesale Coal Trade Association, said that experts had estimated a supply of 6,000,000 tons of anthracite coal in this region.

THE DAILY REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1879.
MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN PRESS, LIMITED.
THE DAILY REVIEW is published every afternoon at 4 o'clock (Holidays and Sundays excepted)
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $3.00 per year by mail to any part of Canada or Great Britain: $4.00 per year delivered to any part of the city.

THE WEEKLY REVIEW, established 1853, is published every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subscription price $1.50 per year to any part of Canada or Great Britain, or $2.00 a year to the United States.
U. S. Representative—Robert E. Dowdes, Chicago.
TELEPHONES:
Business Dept. ... 189 Editorial ... 435
Mr. Stratton's Residence ... 221 W
THE PETERBOROUGH REVIEW COMPANY, LIMITED
156 and 168 Hunter Street.

"FOR A GREATER PETERBOROUGH."

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1919.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION.

ANOTHER CIVIC deputation, it seems, is to go to Toronto to ask Sir Adam Beck, as head of the Hydro Commission, and chief mogul of the Peterborough street railway by virtue of that position, to extend the line along Park street to the De Laval plant. Ald. Edgar is authority for the statement that only in the deputation form of civic government can the people hope for any concessions.

Why at this late stage of the game should it be necessary for the aldermen of this city to go to Toronto and humbly petition the Electric Knight for a small concession in the matter of street railway extension? It would seem that provision for just such a contingency should have been made long ago. The De Laval plant is one of Peterborough's leading industries. It is situated in the suburbs, practically, without street car service. The employes can approach it only within half a mile in either direction by car line, and in all kinds of weather are obliged to walk the remainder of the distance. Some time ago The Review stated that when the De Laval Company were induced to locate here they were assured of adequate [illegible] car service by the city within a reasonable time after the completion of the plant. That contention was challenged by the city officials, who established the fact that no such agreement was in existence, at least in writing.

That being the case, it was only natural to suppose that when the old street car company, a private corporation, was given a franchise, one of the conditions was that the company should extend its line, on request of the city, as necessity arose. This, it seems, was a matter that was overlooked by those in authority at the time and the city had no power in this regard, but was forced to rely solely on the enterprise or generosity of the holders of the franchise.

Under public ownership things are no better. If an extension of the street car line is required, all the city can do is to send a deputation to Sir Adam Beck to humbly pray for a concession which involves service to one of the best industrial plants among the many of which Peterborough can so justly boast.

THE ETHICS OF LEGISLATIVE HEADGEAR.

PREMIER DRURY announces—at least, an announcement to that general effect is made in what appears to be his semi-official organ in Toronto—that at the next opening of the Legislature there is to be no pomp or frills. Everything will be as staid as the usual inaugural session of a township or county council, for instance. The state coach in which the Lieutenant-Governor was in times past wont to ride to what was really a social function, a display of jewelry and millinery, is to be abandoned. There will be no military parade, no boom of toy cannon. The Lieutenant-Governor will wear human clothes instead of the gaudy court dress of yore. From beginning to end of the proceedings there will be nothing of the idle ceremony which was so faithfully followed for years.

